SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL PUBLICLY RECOGNIZED YESTERDAY THAT THERE ARE DIFFERENCES AMONG THE THREE SERVICES--ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE--OVER WHAT DUTIES EACH SHOULD HAVE IN EVENT OF WAR. HE SAID HE WILL MEET WITH THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND THIS WEEK-END TO TRY TO SETTLE THOSE POINTS.

HINSHAW SAID THE AVIATION POLICY BOARD GATHERED FACTS WHICH "SHOCKED ME" AND WOULD "AMAZE AND HORRIFY YOU AND THE COUNTRY."

HE SAID THESE INCLUDED "BASIC FAILURES" IN THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT "WHICH MUST BE SPEEDILY CORRECTED IF WE ARE TO BE PROPERLY PREPARED SHOULD THE GREAT EMERGENCY--GOD FORBID--OCCUR AGAIN."

HINSHAW WENT ON:

"I CANNOT BE SILENT AND SEE THE STRENGTH OF OUR NATIONAL DEFENSE--THE DEFENSE FOR WHICH CONGRESS HAS APPROPRIATED UPWARD OF TEN BILLION DOLLARS FOR THE PRESENT FISCAL YEAR--FRITTERED AWAY BY CONFUSION, NEGLECT AND FAILURE TO PROVIDE THE COMPREHENSIVE, OVER-ALL PLANNING THAT IS IMPLICIT IN THE POLICIES LAID DOWN BY THE CONGRESS.

"YET, THAT IS WHAT IS HAPPENING TODAY. WE PASSED AN ACT FOR UNIFICATION, COORDINATION AND SYNCHRONIZATION, AND FOR AN END TO COSTLY INEFFICIENT DUPLICATION, OVERLAPPING AND CONFLICTING DUTIES AND OPERATIONS. INSTEAD, WE ARE NOW GETTING TRIPLIFICATION.

"RIVALRIES AMONG THE ARMED SERVICES THAT MARKED PASSAGE OF THE UNIFICATION ACT CONTINUE. WE FOUND THAT SOME BRASS HATS, INSTEAD OF GETTING DOWN TO BRASS TACKS, ARE BOGGED DOWN IN CONTROVERSY.

B72WX

"THERE IS CONTROVERSY AND LACK OF DECISIVE ACTION OVER WHO IS TO DO WHAT, AND THE TRAGIC RESULT IS THAT OUR COUNTRY IS NOT GETTING A FULL DOLLAR OF EFFECTIVE PREPAREDNESS FOR EVERY DOLLAR SPENT.

"THINK OF IT! IN THE PRESENT STATE OF WORLD AFFAIRS, WHEN SPARKS MAY BE STRUCK, EVEN ACCIDENTALLY, WHICH COULD EASILY FLARE INTO OPEN WARFARE, A WELL-KNIT, COMPREHENSIVE MEETING OF MINDS AMONG THE TOPMOST DEFENSE PLANNERS ON MAJOR POLICIES HAS NOT YET BEEN DEVELOPED."

NEW YORK, MARCH 11-(AP)-NOTHING SHORT OF WAR, UNDER EXISTING CONDITIONS, CAN FREE HIS COUNTRY FROM ITS DOMINATION BY COMMUNISTS, FORMER KING MIHAI OF ROMANIA SAYS.

THE HANDSOME, 26-YEAR-OLD EX-MONARCH, ACCOMPANIED BY HIS MOTHER, QUEEN HELEN, ARRIVED LATE YESTERDAY ABOARD THE QUEEN ELIZABETH FOR HIS FIRST VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES. HE PLANS TO REMAIN TWO OR THREE WEEKS.

MIHAI, WHO TOLD REPORTERS THAT HIS ABDICATION LAST DEC.30 WAS FORCED BY ROMANIAN COMMUNISTS, SAID HE STILL CONSIDERS HIMSELF ROMANIA'S RIGHTFUL RULER AND BELIEVES HIS COUNTRYMEN IN GENERAL REMAIN LOYAL TO HIM.

SOME 150 REPORTERS AND PHOTOGRAPHERS GREETED THE ROYAL PAIR AS THE GIANT LINER CREPT UP THE BAY FROM QUARANTINE. POISED AND GENIAL, MIHAI ANSWERED THE HAIL OF QUESTIONS FROM HIS INTERVIEWERS IN A LOW, SOFT VOICE AND CLIPPED BRITISH ACCENT. OCCASIONALLY DURING THE MASS INTERVIEW, QUEEN HELEN INTERPOLATED A REMARK.

THE FORMER KING INDICATED HE HOPED TO REGAIN HIS THRONE BUT WHEN ASKED HOW HE HOPED TO ATTAIN THIS AIM, REPLIED: "I WOULDN'T KNOW." AS TO REPORTS THAT HE MIGHT ESTABLISH A GOVERNMENT-IN-EXILE, MIHAI SAID: "I NEVER THOUGHT OF ANYTHING LIKE THAT."

HE MADE IT CLEAR HE INTENDED TO GO AHEAD WITH PLANS FOR HIS MARRIAGE TO PRINCESS ANNE OF BOURBON-PARMA, A CATHOLIC. A VATICAN SPOKESMAN HAD ANNOUNCED PREVIOUSLY THAT PERMISSION FOR THE WEDDING WOULD BE GRANTED ONLY IF THE FORMER MONARCH, AN ORTHODOX CHURCH MEMBER, AGREES TO BRING UP AS CATHOLICS ANY CHILDREN BORN OF THE MARRIAGE.

ASKED WHETHER THIS DEVELOPMENT MIGHT PREVENT THE WEDDING, MIHAI REPLIED: "I'LL HAVE TO GET BACK FIRST AND ASK HER. WE HOPE TO BE MARRIED IN COPENHAGEN BUT WE DON'T KNOW WHEN."

"IS THERE ANY WAY SHORT OF WAR THAT WILL RID YOUR COUNTRY OF COMMUNISM?" HE WAS ASKED.

"NOT IN THE PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES," HE ANSWERED.

WHEN ROMANIAN COMMUNISTS INSISTED ON THE ABDICATION, ANOTHER NEWSMAN ASKED, DID MIHAI LEAVE THE COUNTRY VOLUNTARILY, OR WAS HE FORCED OUT?

THE EX-KING THOUGHT FOR A MOMENT, THEN A BROAD SMILE SPREAD OVER HIS FACE.

"THEY DIDN'T SAY IT, BUT IT FELT LIKE IT," HE SAID.

PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 11-(AP)-HAROLD E.STASSEN LAST NIGHT CHARGED THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION WITH ECONOMIC APPEASEMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS SATELLITES.

STASSEN TOLD THE PHILADELPHIA BULLETIN FORUM THAT THE CONTINUED POLICY OF OUR GOVERNMENT IN PERMITTING SHIPMENTS OF ELECTRICAL MACHINERY, ELECTRONIC DEVICES AND MACHINE TOOLS TO COMMUNIST DOMINATED COUNTRIES IS "BEYOND COMPREHENSION."

HE CITED FIGURES HE SAID SHOWED THE UNITED STATES IN 1947 EXPORTED more SCARCE ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONIC MACHINERY TO RUSSIA THAN TO ENGLAND AND FRANCE COMBINED.

THE FORMER MINNESOTA GOVERNOR SAID THAT DURING THE SAME PERIOD THE U.S. EXPORTED MORE VITAL INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY, INCLUDING MACHINE TOOLS, TO RUSSIA THAN WAS EXPORTED TO FRANCE, BELGIUM AND ITALY COMBINED.

MORE THAN 10 PER CENT OF OUR TOTAL EUROPEAN EXPORT OF STEEL AND IRON PRODUCTS WERE TO RUSSIA, STASSEN SAID.

"IT IS INDEFENSIBLE. IT IS ECONOMIC APPEASEMENT. WE MUST TAKE A FIRM, CONSISTENT STAND," HE SAID.

"IT SHOULD BE OUR POSITION THAT WHATEVER LINE THE COMMUNISTS DRAW AS A BARRIER AGAINST THE MOVEMENT OF TRUTH AND AS A FENCE TO HIDE OPPRESSION OF MEN, AUTOMATICALLY BECOME A LINE OVER WHICH NOT ONE SINGLE MACHINE OR ITEM WHICH COULD BECOME A PART OF A COMMUNIST WAR MACHINE WILL BE PERMITTED TO MOVE."

STASSEN SPOKE OF THE DEATH OF JAN MASARYK, CZECHOSLOVAKIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, AS "ANOTHER TRAGIC PAGE IN THE POST-WAR HISTORY OF FREEDOM LOVING CZECHOSLOVAKIA," ADDING:

"NO ONE IN ALL THE WORLD WAS MORE SINCERELY DETERMINED TO MAINTAIN FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA AND TO PRESERVE THE INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY OF THE MEN AND WOMEN OF HIS COUNTRY AT THE SAME TIME."

NORFOLK, VA., MARCH 11-(AP)-THE BATTLESHIP TEXAS, 27,000-TON VETERAN OF TWO WORLD CONFLICTS, WILL PUT OUT FROM PORTSMOUTH MONDAY MORNING, THREE DAYS AFTER HER 34TH BIRTHDAY. THE SHIP WILL GO TO TEXAS FOR AN HONORABLE RETIREMENT AND A NEW CAREER AS A WAR MEMORIAL.

THE TEXAS, WHICH CARRIED A WAR-TIME COMPLEMENT OF 1,530 OFFICERS AND ENLISTED ME, WILL TAKE ONLY A REMNANT OF ITS NORMAL FORCE ON THAT LAST VOYAGE. COMMANDER JACK SEWARD, OF HILTON VILLAGE, NEWPORT NEWS, VA., WILL SKIPPER THE SHIP TO TEXAS FOR ITS FINAL RESTING PLACE AT SAN JACINTO BATTLE GROUND. HE WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY SIX OTHER OFFICERS AND A 66-MAN CREW.

SAILING TIME FOR THE HISTORIC BUT OUTDATED DREADNAUGHT IS 10:30 A.M. MONDAY. SHE WILL SHOVE OFF FROM THE NORFOLK NAVAL SHIPYARD IN TOW OF TUGS AFTER UNDERGOING RECONDITIONING AND A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF DISMANTLING NECESSARY TO PUT HER IN SHAPE FOR PUBLIC VIEW BY THE FUTURE GENERATIONS OF TEXANS.

ARRIVING AT THE PORT WITHIN 10 DAYS OR TWO WEEKS, THE SHIP WILL BE DELIVERED TO THE TEXAS STATE PARK AT THE BATTLEGROUND ABOUT APRIL 1.

THE PROUD LADY WILL BE TURNED OVER FORMALLY TO THE STATE OF TEXAS ON APRIL 21, INDEPENDENCE DAY IN THAT STATE.

COMMISSIONING OF THE "MIGHTY TEE" IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY TOOK PLACE 34 YEARS AGO TOMORROW--MARCH 12, 1914--FOLLOWING A THREE-YEAR CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM AT THE NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING AND DRY DOCK COMPANY. TO THE WORLD OF FIGHTING SHIPS, SHE LOOMED AT THAT TIME AS A DREADNAUGHT, CARRYING FIVE TWIN-TURRET 14-INCH GUNS. OTHER ARMAMENT INCLUDED TEN 3-INCH, 51-CALIBER, TEN 3-INCH, 50-CALIBER ANTI-AIRCRAFT, 44-20 MM MACHINE GUNS (WHICH NUMBER WILL BE REDUCED TO EIGHT FOR HER RETIREMENT) AND 10 QUADRUPLE MOUNTED 40MM. GUNS. THE "QUAD FORTIES" HAVE BEEN REPLACED BY FOUR 1.1'S SINCE THE 40-MILLIMETER GUNS WERE NEEDED BY THE NAVY ELSEWHERE.

IT WAS DURING THE FIRST WORLD WAR THAT THE TEXAS GOT HER MOTTO AND BATTLE CRY, "COME ON TEXAS." THE GREAT SHIP HAD RUN AGROUND OFF BLOCK ISLAND ON SEPT. 27, 1917. FOR THREE DAYS ALL SEEMED HOPELESS AS A FLEET OF POWERFUL TUGS STRAINED TO SHAKE HER LOOSE FROM THE SUCKING BOTTOM UNTIL THE MORNING OF THE 30TH.

WITH THE CREW OF THE U.S.S. NEW YORK STANDING BY CHEERING HER WITH ROARS OF "COME ON TEXAS," THE VALIANT LADY SHUDDERED UNDER THE TREMENDOUS FORCE OF HER ENGINES, SLOWLY FREED HERSELF. THE TEXAS WOULD SAIL AGAIN! AND THE SHOUTS OF THE CREW OF THE NEW YORK WERE LEFT INDELIBLY STAMPED IN THE EXPRESSION OF HER MOTTO, "COME ON TEXAS!"

IN 478 DAYS OF ACTION AGAINST THE ENEMY IN WORLD WAR II, THE TEXAS PILED UP AN ENVIABLE RECORD. DURING THIS TIME, SHE TRAVELED 121,000 MILES, TOOK PART IN 16 NEUTRALITY PATROLS AND CONVOY OPERATIONS IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC, IN THE INVASION OF NORTH AFRICA, THE INVASION OF NORMANDY AND THE BATTLE OF CHERBOURG, THE INVASION OF SOUTHERN FRANCE, THE CAPTURE AND OCCUPATION OF IWO JIMA, AND THE CAPTURE AND OCCUPATION OF OKINAWA.

SHE WAS DAMAGED ONCE, IN THE BATTLE OF CHERBOURG, WHEN SHE WAS HIT BY FIRE FROM THE 240 MM GERMAN SHORE BATTERIES. ALTHOUGH THE SHIP STAYED UNDER FIRE FOR THREE HOURS IN THIS BATTLE, ONLY TWO SHELLS STRUCK THE SHIP, AND ONE OF THESE WAS A DUD.

IT WILL BE EXHIBITED UNDER A PLAQUE COMMEMORATING THIS ACTION. THE OTHER SHELL EXPLODED ON THE SUPERSTRUCTURE JUST UNDER THE PILOTHOUSE, KILLING THE QUARTERMASTER AT THE WHEEL AND INJURING 13 OTHERS. THIS ACTION TOOK PLACE JUNE 28, 1944.

ALL IN ALL, THE TEXAS FIRED AGAINST THE ENEMY 4,278 ROUNDS OF 14 INCH AMMUNITION, AS WELL AS 3,885 ROUNDS OF FIVE INCH, 51-CALIBER, 584 ROUNDS OF THREE INCH 50-CALIBER, 3,721 ROUNDS OF 40 MM, AND 2,275 ROUNDS OF 20 MM.

AS TO HOW THE MEN WHO HAVE LONG SERVED ABOARD THE TEXAS FEEL ABOUT HER, THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT. CHIEF MACHINIST'S MATE JOHN "JACK" MCKEOWN OF OSWEGO, NEW YORK, SERVED CONTINUOUSLY ON THE TEXAS FOR 13 YEARS AND HE PUTS IT THIS WAY:

"I CAN REMEMBER SOMETIMES GOING ASHORE AND GETTING MAYBE ONE OR TWO TOO MANY, AND I'D FEEL WOBBLY AND UNSURE. BUT WHEN I'D GET BACK ABOARD I'D WALK DOWN THE DECK AND JUST REACH UP AND TOUCH ONE OF THESE 14-INCH BABIES, AND THEY'D SAY TO ME 'GO ON DOWN BELOW, JACK AND GET SOME REST. YOU'RE HOME AND SAFE NOW.'"

CHIEF MCKEOWN HAS ALREADY PASSED HIS THIRTIETH YEAR OF NAVAL SERVICE AND SAYS THAT HE WOULD HAVE RETIRED LONG AGO EXCEPT THAT HE WANTED TO SEE HIS "SWEETHEART" PROPERLY TAKEN CARE OF FIRST. WHEN ASKED WHAT HE WOULD DO AFTER SHE HAD BEEN TURNED OVER TO THE STATE OF TEXAS HE REPLIED:

"I GUESS I'LL JUST GO SIT ON THE DOCK AND WATCH THE SHIPS COME AND GO."

West Europe Bloc Set Up by 5 Powers For Joint Defense

NIGHT

50-Year Anti-Red Treaty Is Adopted

M. HOST

Other European Nations May Join; Tacit Support Is Expected From U. S.

Brussels, March 12 (AP)—Delegates of Britain, France and the three Benelux countries adopted today the completed draft of a treaty setting up a western European union as a block to communism.

NIGHT

The pact when ratified binds Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg to an automatic joint defense against attack in Europe. Although Germany is said to be mentioned by name as a possible aggressor it is by no means limited to defense against Germany alone. Its drafters are convinced their agreement will ultimately attract, at least the tacit support of the United States.

Complete Text Not Revealed

Described by one qualified source as a pact "unprecedented in the history of Europe," it also binds the five nations to a joint declaration of democratic principles, and to harmonize their production, standards of living, legal systems, trade practices and other matters touching nearly every field of national activity.

The complete text will not be made public before the treaty is signed here Wednesday by the five Foreign Ministers, the negotiators said.

The union is left open for other European nations to join. A non-European country, such as the United States, wishing to associate itself with the work of the union would have to deal with the European union as a whole, the Associated Press was informed. It could not join and have a voice inside it.

Automatic Mutual Aid

The agreement, which includes four of the world's greatest colonial powers, provides for automatic mutual aid in case of attack in Europe. It calls for consultation in case of attack in colonial areas.

MAR

It was reliably understood to go further than any of the authors originally had planned. The week-long conference had been planned without the presence of Foreign Ministers or economic or military experts. These were not expected to be needed.

However, the Foreign Ministers had to be continually consulted as point after point came up broadening the aspects of the negotiations. As a result, it was said, virtually all decisions will have to be implemented by further discussions among the military, political and economic specialists.

Permanent Contacts

Its workings will require very frequent consultations and permanent contacts, similar to that of the Pan-American Union though on a more intensive scale.

The final result was described by one authoritative source as putting together of the ideas of "British political internationalism, French juridical preciseness and Benelux business-mindedness."

Apparently the British came with the intention of formulating a simple pact carrying the warning "don't tread on me." They ran into hardheaded Dutch, Belgian and Luxembourg business men-statesmen, however, who put a premium on saving their standard of living and who were not now so much concerned with danger from Germany as Russia.

Unity Of Purpose

As each side went further in making concessions, the pact took a shape described by a high French Embassy source as "sensational."

"The European union is unlike anything that has ever been tried on this Continent," this informant added.

"It represents a unity of action and purpose that could never be attempted with as varied a group of countries as is found in the United Nations, or even in the European recovery (Marshall) plan. Among the latter, for example, some countries wish to preserve a certain international economic or political position which we are willing to sacrifice for greater unity and effectiveness."

Regional Association

One source predicted "there will be no great rush of other European nations to join, as much as we want them. They will learn when they see the pact is no mere political gesture. It must be done seriously and will involve far-reaching commitments."

In form the pact is a regional association under the United Nations. It is reported to be for a period of 50 years.

By today's action, the five countries will go into next Monday's Paris meeting of the sixteen Marshall-plan nations as a tightly knit bloc for future continental co-ordination.

Assailed By Izvestia

[Izvestia, Soviet Government newspaper, said in Moscow the Brussels conference was "a plot against the peace in Europe."

[The newspaper said the conference was an attempt to "drum up a western union as a constituent part of the Marshall plan directed against the Soviet Union" and represented a further development in the plan by which "western Germany is being transformed into a military base for aggression against the U.S.S.R." The paper said the union would give the United States "unhindered interference in the internal political life of western European peoples."]

Conference officials said the accord and allied documents will be signed here next Wednesday by the Foreign Ministers of Belgium, Britain, France, Luxembourg and the Netherlands.

The text of the agreement will not be released until the signature ceremony, to give the governments of the negotiators opportunity to examine it closely, the officials said.

Delegates from the five countries, including four of the world's greatest colonial Powers, completed their efforts—on the Western union suggested in January by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin—at 11:30 A. M., after more than a week around the conference table.

Sir George Rendel, chief of the British delegation and Britain's Ambassador here, said upon emerging from the conference room that the delegates had agreed among themselves not to communicate any of the substance of the treaty before their governments approve it.

Questioned as to whether the treaty provided for a permanent five-power commission to carry out its provisions, Sir George shook his head.

"That," he said, "is one of the things I just cannot talk about."

General Scope Outlined

The treaty, reportedly containing a preamble and ten clauses, was believed to bind the five countries to mutual assistance in the face of aggression, mutual aid in the economic field, co-operation in improving their living standards and a measure of co-ordination of colonial resources.

One of the final points before the conferees, it was learned, was whether the treaty should name Germany as a possible aggressor. There was no definite indication as to the decision reached.

A short communiqué issued after the final session said the delegates, meeting here since March 4, have "drawn up a draft treaty which they will be recommending to their respective Governments and which will include clauses dealing with economic, social, cultural and defense matters within the scope of the Charter of the United Nations."

Briton Off For London

"It is hoped the treaty will be signed in Brussels next week by the foreign ministers of each country. It will be for the governments concerned, after finally approving the text, to publish its substance in such a manner as they decide in common."

Conference officials said the text would be released simultaneously in the capitals of all five countries on the day of signature.

British Delegate Gladwyn Jebb left immediately for London, taking a copy of the completed text with him.

Rendel said the conference was a "very satisfactory meeting. It shows the possibility of working together in a way which is a good augury for the future."

Earlier Signing Planned

Diplomatic officials earlier had expressed hope that the pact for a Western union could be completed and signed before Monday, when the sixteen Marshall plan nations meet in Paris for their second conference on the American aid program.

Reports from the conference room previously had said the treaty would contain a clause permitting other nations to enter the union later.

per's "Observer" entitled his article "Brussels Plot Against Peace in Europe."

He pictured the meeting as a further development of the policy described in a March 6 Soviet note to the United States, France and Britain as "transformation of western Germany into a military base for aggression against the U.S.S.R."

He said various western journalists' claims that the conference only represented "consultation" were false.

[Dispatches to the United States from Brussels have spoken of the meeting as aimed at the formation of a western European union to block communism.]

"Observer" said Brussels obviously represented an attempt to form a western union that would be part of the Marshall Plan directed against the Soviet Union. He said the meeting took up "internal" aggression as well as "external" aggression. He held this could be interpreted as license for unlimited interference in the internal politics of individual nations.

In conclusion, he stated that "the plans of American expansionists and their sycophantic European agents" rest on sand.

"They don't take into consideration," he said, "the interests of European peoples themselves."

PLAN IS PROPOSED FOR GREATER UNITY IN WEST EUROPE

NIGHT

G. WILLIAMS

LONDON, March 12 (AP)—The calling of a constitutional convention to make all western Europe virtually one country was proposed to the British parliament today.

The proposal was in the form of a resolution submitted by 73 members of five political parties. No important officials were among the signers but there were some minor officials. R. W. G. MacKay, who headed the list, said many ordinary members of parliament had signed it and estimated that about a fourth of the membership would eventually support it with their signatures.

Churchill to Aid Backers

Winston Churchill, one of the leaders in a movement for a "United States of Europe," was not a signer but promised the group he would seek a full day of debate in parliament on their project.

The move was made up against a background of growing agitation for greater European unity in the face of communist pressure from the east. It envisaged a much tighter unity than that represented at Brussels, where Britain, France, Begium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg today completed the draft of a pact for joint political, economic and defense action.

The resolution called for "a democratic federation of Europe with a constitution based on the principles of common citizenship, political freedom and representative government, including a charter of human rights."

The constitution would be much like that of the United States, giving to the federation "defined powers with respect to such matters as foreign relations, defense, currency, customs and the planning of production, trade, power and transport."

Norway Pact Reported Aim Of Soviet

London, March 12 (AP)—Wide circulation was given today a rumor that British officials expect Soviet Russia to ask Norway for a treaty of friendship soon. There was no confirmation of the report, and both the British Foreign Office and the Norwegian Legation said they know nothing of such a move.

Under the Finnish peace treaty, Russia has a short frontier on Norway.

Report Denied

A denial of the report was carried by the Copenhagen newspaper Nationaltidende, quoting the Norwegian Foreign Minister, Halvard Lange.

The report apparently first appeared in Nationaltidende and another Copenhagen morning paper, the Socialdemokraten, under a London dateline quoting "informed political sources" and "prominent British politicians."

Broadcast By Radio

A similar report was carried later by the Columbia Broadcasting System. It said British officials expect Prime Minister Stalin to ask Norway for a pact. It added that Norwegian Defense Minister J. C. Hauge made a "secret" trip to London and talked two days with War Office officials.

The official Norwegian spokesman here said that Hauge's trip here was "far from being secret"; that it was announced in Oslo at the time of his departure. The trip took him to Germany to inspect Norwegian troops stationed in the British zone of occupation, and his talks later here were in that connection, the spokesman said.

Turkish Minister Sees Bevin On Aid Program

London, March 12 (AP)—Necmeddin Sadak, Foreign Minister of Turkey, talked his nation's troubles over today with Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, in a probable bid for support in seeking substantial Marshall plan assistance.

The two diplomatic chiefs discussed next week's Paris conference and reaffirmed their country's "close friendship," according to a Foreign Office statement.

The Foreign Office acknowledged that the talks covered "those questions which may affect their mutual interests."

Not To Get Direct Aid

Privately, Whitehall said informants said Sadak and Bevin concentrated chiefly upon Turkey's ability to resist neighboring Russia's demands for border changes and a dominant say in control of the strategic Dardanelles Straits.

Bevin, along with the United States, has emphasized the necessity for keeping Turkey in the western camp.

Under the Marshall plan as submitted to Congress, Turkey—along with Switzerland and Portugal—would not get a nickel in direct dollar aid. At Paris, during the original conference, Turkey produced figures showing she will have a deficit of more than $600,000,000 in the next four years.

No Agreement Seen Near On Austria

London, March 12 (AP)—A western diplomat said today that the next week will tell whether the Big Four powers can agree at this time on a long-delayed peace pact for Austria.

His opinion was expressed as deputies of the Big Four Foreign Ministers reached the end of their third week of discussions without a single solid agreement on Austrian issues dividing Russia and the Western powers.

Reds Balk At Compromise

"What's the use of continuing the argument if we can't get anywhere?" said the diplomat, speaking anonymously. "All the offers for compromise have come so far from the Western delegations, none from Russia."

The Western powers say Russia wants too much of the formerly German-owned assets in Austria in settlement of her claims as recognized in the Potsdam agreement.

New Bombing Threat

London, March 12 (AP) — Police scrutinized all visitors to Prime Minister Attlee's official residence today after an anonymous telephone caller said "No. 10 Downing street will be blown up tonight."

Telephone - company officials traced the call to a public telephone booth in a West London suburb. Several similar telephoned threats to bomb public buildings recently have been hoaxes.

Britain's Cotton Industry Held Export Drive Focus

LONDON, March 12 (AP).—Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, told Commons today the cotton industry must be regarded as the spearhead of Britain's export drive.

Asking approval of a bill to subsidize new machinery for cotton plants, he said the government wants to "ensure the effective modernization of some mills rather than the patching up of many of them."

Oliver Lyttleton, Conservative, for the opposition, welcomed the measure and urged the government to show "the greatest drive and energy in tackling this national task."

The bill was approved later on the second reading without a vote.

Details Disclosed In Signing Of U.S.-British Film Pact

DAY

London, March 12 (AP)—An agreement was signed today ending Hollywood's ban on movie shipments to Britain, the United States film industry's main foreign market.

G. WILLIAMS

The pact, effective for four years beginning June 14, provides for the lifting of the 75 per cent tax that Britain clamped on the earnings of foreign movies last August as a dollar-saving measure.

In return, Hollywood agrees to limit its dollar takings from Britain, whose economy is threatened by a shortage of hard currency.

Two Weeks Of Discussion

The agreement was signed by J. Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, and Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America. It represented more than two weeks of intensive negotiations.

Wilson said a major portion of the pounds sterling earned by United States pictures in Britain would remain in Britain.

Dollar remittances to the United States industry from Britain last year were estimated at $47,000,000.

Wilson said United States film earnings remaining in this country also would be invested in British securities, including Government bonds, and in a British hotel industry catering to American tourists.

A joint control committee, probably including two British Government representatives and two from the United States film industry, will supervise the spending.

The amount of extra earnings spent outside the British film industry will be limited to $10,000,000 during the first two years. Wilson and Johnston said the disposal of the remainder would be "subject to consultation."

Under the agreement, it may be cleared by "agreed transactions" not involving any strain on the British foreign exchange position.

Charitable Or Public

Wilson said such transactions may include charitable or public uses, including the encouragement of the arts and sciences.

"We hope we can help finance an art theater in London, to be built on the Thames," Johnston said. He explained that he had in mind the restoration of the old Globe Theater where Shakespeare's plays first were produced.

Later, Johnston said without elaboration:

"We hope to take most of our earnings out."

"It is unlikely we'll be seeing many American films before late June or July," Wilson said. "Most British theaters are booked for several weeks ahead."

Johnston commented:

"We do not consider this agreement a Wilson or a Johnston victory. We have produced, in my opinion, an agreement fair to both sides."

Long-Term Plans

Motion Picture Association executives said United States producers are certain to use much of their unremittable sterling to increase the number of films they make in Great Britain.

A spokesman for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer said long-term plans of his company call for increased output by British studios and a new studio building. He said more M.-G.-M. film players would undoubtedly be brought over from Hollywood.

Warner Brothers, which is renting its facilities to independent British producers, said through a spokesman:

"We will be able to go ahead on our own production ideas, for which ideas are being worked out in Hollywood."

Wilson said the duty of 75 per cent would be repealed with regard to all foreign movies.

add

But he said the methods of payment set out in today's agreement apply only to American pictures.

New Eire Premier Frees Last 3 Political Prisoners

DUBLIN, March 12 (AP).—John A. Costello, Eire's new Prime Minister, has freed the last of Ireland's political prisoners.

Only five remained in jail when Mr. Costello was elected Prime Minister on Feb. 18. Two later were released because of ill health. Unexpired sentences of the remaining three were remitted this week.

Mr. Costello told the Dail Eireann (parliament): "A continuance of the detention of these three men would only result in the perpetuation of resentment and unrest.

"We felt that, in view of the tremendous amount of good will that is coming in ever-increasing waves towards the present government, that to take away that possible source of unrest in a small section of the people would result in nothing but good."

FRENCH FOOD PRICES DROP

Schuman Gains Seen In Battle With Communists

L. NEVIN

Paris, March 12 (AP)—Food prices in France began to decline today apparently indicating that Premier Robert Schuman was making progress in his economic battle with the Communists.

Last month the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT) gave the Government until next Monday to lower food prices ten per cent or face a demand for instant wage increases. Other labor organizations set March 21 as the deadline.

Two days ago Le Peuple, organ of the CGT, said the confederation had been misunderstood. The CGT really meant to give the Government until March 31, the publication said.

Spearhead Of Drive

A Cabinet minister said in February that the fight to roll back prices was the Government's "second battle with the Communists." He admitted the Government might not be able to ward off another Communist-led onslaught of strikes similar to the ones last November and December.

Yvon Coude du Foresto, Under Secretary of Agriculture, is the spearhead of the Government's drive for lower food prices. Coude du Foresto set up 108 "yardstick" butcher shops in Paris and today announced that they had forced down meat prices in a week by 30 to 60 francs according to the cut.

This week Italian lemons, oranges and figs, Belgian endives, Dutch cabbage, and Swiss and Dutch cheese were dumped on the Paris markets at prices ranging from 5 to 35 francs a pound less than the French products. Almost immediately the price of the French products began declining.

Coude du Foresto announced that 2,000,000 cheap Moroccan eggs were en route. An agreement for the purchase of 100,000 tons of Brazilian sugar reportedly was about to be signed.

A spokesman for the Finance Ministry said: "A general decline of food prices has gotten under way. It will increase as spring advances and more vegetables become available."

political activities, arbitrary arrests, deportation of individuals and long imprisonment without trial. United States officials said the Russians "just laughed" at American proposals for an investigation.

There was no official Soviet answer to charges made by German Socialists in the city assembly that Berlin's Communist-controlled police department was involved in terror tactics which "threaten to make Berlin a second Prague."

ned from Berlin to Western Germany, the newspaper said.

Resignation Demand

The disappearance of Friede caused wide repercussions in Berlin's City Council and led to the demand for the resignation of Markgraf.

Friede lived in the British sector of Berlin. He worked in the American sector. The abduction took place in the Russian sector, where

Russia Vetoes Berlin Probe

Berlin, March 12 (AP)—An American proposal for an inquiry into the suppression of civil and political liberties in Berlin was vetoed today by the Russians.

The proposal was made in the Allied Kommandanture as complaints piled up from non-Communists that they were being restricted and persecuted by the Russian-sponsored German Socialist Unity party (SED) in the Soviet sector of the city. The SED is Communist-controlled.

The Communists, on the other hand, alleged that they were being restricted by the western powers. They complained particularly about raids conducted by American public safety officials on two district headquarters of the SED yesterday in search of anti-American pamphlets.

Deplored By City

The inquiry proposal was presented by the United States commandant, Col. Frank L. Howley, and called for the appointment of a four-power investigating commission.

Howley said he suggested that the investigation include the American raids. The Russian-controlled press today denounced those raids as "Hitler tactics" aimed at intimidating the Communists.

American officials said they made no arrests in the raids and did not permanently padlock any SED offices. Nevertheless, the Berlin city assembly passed a resolution deploring the American action.

Howley claimed that the Communist and Russian protests over the raids were "a smokescreen designed to deflect attention from the terror which is going on in the Russian sector of the city."

Deportations Charged

He said he referred to numerous complaints alleging restrictions on

DAY

Berlin Socialists Urge Ouster Of 'Red' Police

Berlin, March 12 (AP)—Berlin Socialist leaders demanded today that the Western Allies help clean up Berlin's Communist-controlled police department.

They said a cleanup was necessary, "lest we become a second Prague."

The demands were made at a meeting of the City Assembly, where the Socialists are trying to remove Paul Markgraf, Berlin's police president. Markgraf was installed by the Russians.

Socialist Charges

Socialists accuse him of permitting arbitrary arrests and kidnapping of civilians without warrant or trial. Mrs. Annedore Leber, Social Democrat assemblywoman and newspaper publisher, demanded that all occupying powers follow the American lead in granting Germans the protection of habeas corpus.

The United States licensed newspaper Der Abend published today the sworn statement of a Berlin physician that Dieter Friede, former Abend reporter, was abducted by four Russians November 2, 1947.

Abduction Claimed

The physician, Dr. Peter Dau, said he was forced by Russian secret police to telephone Friede and tell the reporter that a friend had been injured in an accident and wanted to see him. The Russians remained in his house overnight, Dr. Dau said, and took Friede away when he appeared the next day.

A similar statement was made by Dr. Dau's wife. Both have since

Dr. Dau had his home and office.

United States authorities meanwhile, announced they raided two district headquarters of the Russian-sponsored German Socialist Unity (SED) party.

Officials said they confiscated leaflets which "flagrantly libel" the American Military Government.

SED Houses Raided

The raids were conducted yesterday by the AMG's public safety branch with the aid of German police. They entered SED party houses in Neukoelln and Tempelhof boroughs.

The Soviet-controlled press declared the raids were "anti-democratic and terrorist measures" designed to restrict the activities of the SED.

Dr. Harry L. Franklin, official in the AMG's civil administration branch, said the sole purpose of the raids was to seize the pamphlets, which he described as "worse than Nazi literature."

The confiscated leaflets were entitled "Gangsters At Work." They compared the American Military Government in Germany with the regime of Al Capone, late Chicago mob chief.

U.S. Food Train To Help Ruhr's Needy Hailed

Duesseldorf, Germany, March 12 (AP)—Four elephants trumpeted a greeting to an American friendship train on its arrival here today. The train contained carloads of food and clothing for the needy of the Ruhr.

The elephants came from a local circus. All concerned in organizing the reception emphasized that any resemblance to the Republican party symbol was pure coincidence. With the elephants was a little Shetland pony.

Dedication Ceremony

The train, carrying gifts from the people of Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Alaska, proceeded from Duesseldorf to Coblenz in the French zone, where three more carloads will be dropped off.

The supplies were donated to the Ruhr at brief ceremonies in Duesseldorf's battered Railroad Square.

British Brigadier J. A. Barraclough, regional commissioner, told 1,000 spectators that "you people in Germany, and in fact the whole world, are looking to the United States to help you."

"It's a gesture of this kind," he said, "that makes us feel this unhappy world is not so bad after all."

Good-Will Symbol

Karl Arnold, Christian Democrat minister-president of the region, said the train symbolized a bridge of good will.

Speaking for the Idaho donors, Otto J. Bothne, of Twin Falls, said: "We do not claim to be statesmen, but our people recognize need when we see it. We hope this will bring warmth to your bodies and your hearts."

Mrs. Otis S. Lamson, of Seattle, Wash., said the train was "important in the idealistic rather than the materialistic sense."

It is a sign, she said in German, "that workers, women and children in the States want to be good neighbors with the Germans."

The ceremony closed with songs by 60 schoolchildren.

3 German Attorneys Ask End of War Crime Trials

NUERNBERG, March 12 (AP).—Three German attorneys demanded today immediate halting of American war crimes trials at Nuernberg.

In separate petitions, attorneys Alfred Seidl, Rudolf Aschenauer and Fritz Sauter challenger the Allied Control Council Law No. 10. This four-power measure was the basis for the international military tribunal and subsequent all-American trial courts. The motions were submitted to two courts now sitting in current trials.

Seidl's motion said Law 10 is invalid. He contended that Russia, a signatory, committed war crimes like those of Nazi Germany. Aschenauer called attention to Seidl's comment and asked a halt to all cases. Sauter submitted a similar motion and asked that the State Department at Washington make public 260 documents dealing with Russian relations.

4 Nations Join Search For U.S. Plane In Alps

Milan, Italy, March 12 (AP)—American, Italian, French and Swiss aircraft searched the Alps today for an American C-46 transport reported missing with its crew of five.

The transport, believed engaged in commercial service, was said to have left Geneva yesterday for Rome. It has not been heard from since.

Eight United States military planes arrived in Milan tonight to join in the portion of the search being conducted from here.

Exact identity of the missing transport and its occupants still has not been established.

U.S. Plane On Alps Hop Is Unreported

Geneva, March 12 (AP)—Officials at Cointrin Airport said today a United States plane with "four or five Americans" aboard is unreported on a test flight from Geneva to Rome.

Names of the crew members were unavailable here.

Athens, March 12 (AP)—The American mission to aid Greece said today the Greek Army's failure to continue an offensive through last summer and fall enabled the guerrillas to increase their strength.

A 30-page report covered the mission's program during its eight months operations.

The statement said it was untrue that the army had been inadequately equipped and "incapable of taking offensive action against a few thousand bandits."

An army communiqué said 30 members of a National Guard unit were killed and 40 are missing after being ambushed by guerrillas in the Peloponnesus. Twenty guerrillas were killed and 35 wounded.

Kidnapping Reported

The action was reported fought around Tropaia, in the Mainalo Mountains. A report said the guard unit virtually was wiped out.

Newspaper reports from Almyros in the Thessaly Plain said more than 1,000 children have been kidnapped in the past few days and taken south to Mount Othris. Dispatches from Ioannia listed nine villages where guerrillas recently had abducted children, aged 3 to 14. The accounts said caravans of the children were taken across the border into Albania, despite pleas of the mothers.

100 Guerrillas Killed

"Bandits" is the mission's word for guerrillas.

The summary said the army's inactivity had "strengthened the morale of the bandits and probably helped increase their numbers."

Meanwhile, the Greek 3d Army Corps said in Salonika that 100 guerrillas had been killed and 256 captured in ten days in the Mount Olympus and Pierria areas.

The corps said also that groups of rebels moving south from Mount Beles, on the Bulgarian border, toward Mount Kroussia had been caught in mine fields. Heavy losses were reported.

The guerrillas counterattacked a small army unit in the Pierria region. They were driven back by troops after fighting all night.

Greek Attack 'Lag' Aided Guerrillas, Mission Says

Greeks Engaged In Fierce Battle

Kastoria, Greece, March 12 (AP)—The Greek Army is fighting a fierce battle with 800 guerrillas, 73rd Brigade officers said tonight.

The battle was reported to be in progress on Mount Mourikou 12 miles northeast of Kastoria and near the Albanian border. The guerrillas started an advance toward Kastoria, with intentions of isolating the town, army officers said.

Constantinos Bonis, prefect of the Kastoria area, said 65 of the 82 villages in this area were controlled by guerrillas. The Greek Amy has men posted at only eight villages, Bonis said.

Colonel Panaiotis Assimakopoulos, commanding the 73rd Brigade, estimated that 40,000 guerrillas are operating in the Kastoria area. He added that the guerrillas are "equipped with heavy arms and machine guns which we don't have."

Assimakopoulos said the arms and ammunition were sent to the rebels from Yugoslavia by motor boat across Lake Prespa, which touches the borders of Albania, Yugoslavia and Greece.

GREEK GUARD ELOPES WITH DOOMED REBEL

Athens, March 12 (A. P.).—He was a guard at the Tripolis prison. She was a guerrilla who was to be executed two days ago.

Gendarme N. Vernickos eloped with Helen Nicolaou. They were captured by the Army yesterday. Greek Army officials said he probably will be court-martialed. She probably will be executed.

Father Flanagan in Vienna

Vienna, March 12 (AP)—The Rev. Edward J. Flanagan, founder of Boys Town near Omaha, Neb., arrived in Vienna today. He is here as the special guest of Lieut. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, American High Commissioner. For three months he will help the American program for Austrian youth.

Romanian Court Acquits Board Of Guilt in Employees' Sabotage

BUCHAREST, March 12 (AP).—A Bucharest sabotage tribunal has ruled the board of directors of a company cannot be held responsible for illegal activities by its employees.

The decision is considered especially important for companies with foreign holdings. It prevented the possibility of arbitrary action against foreign capital under the cover of the anti-sabotage act.

The verdict, which will be appealed by the Minister of Trade and Commerce, concerned five officials of a Romanian manufacturing subsidiary of International Telephone & Telegraph Co., of New York.

H. H. Burrell, of Camden, N. J., an assistant vice-president of I. T. & T., and five Romanian directors of the subsidiary, were acquitted of charges punishable by three years imprisonment. They also were freed of penal reponsibility.

Two employees of the company found guilty of buying materials on the black market and using forged invoices were sentenced to from one to three months. The man who sold the materials received a similar sentence and the man charged with forging the invoices—he has since disappeared—was given a four-year sentence.

The company was fined $675 and will pay costs of the trial, amounting to $325.

The I. T. & T. subsidiary was charged with having knowledge of the action of the employees and with omitting the report of $300 worth of invoices out of a total of some $30,000 worth.

The court, including two newly appointed popular judges, found the directors had no knowledge of the black market transactions and had not wilfully omitted sending the invoices.

Finnish Mission To Moscow

Helsinki, Finland, March 12 (AP)—The Foreign Committee of Parliament will discuss tomorrow instructions for the seven-man Finnish delegation which will negotiate in Moscow about a Finnish-Russian treaty.

750 Dutch Canada-Bound

Rotterdam, March 12 (AP)—A party of 750 Netherland immigrants, all farm families, left for Canada today aboard the ship Kota Iten.

Dutch To Add 23,000 To Their Police Forces

The Hague, Holland, March 12 (AP)—The Government announced today that 23,000 men would be added to Dutch police forces to safeguard public security. Police strength will be more than doubled.

Minister of Justice J. H. Maarseveen told Parliament that the Government's power would be strengthened to combat internal extremist activities from any quarter. He said privately that recent events in Czechoslovakia, where the Communists seized control, had speeded the Government decision.

The 7,000-man Government police force will be increased by 10,000 volunteers. Municipal police now numbering 13,000 will be doubled. The increases will be within the framework of normal police service and there is no question of any independent corps, the announcement said. Loyalty tests will be given.

RUSSIANS FIND BRITON GUILTY

Clerk Given 1½ Years For Infecting Girl With Disease

Moscow, March 12 (AP)—George Alfred Bundock, a clerk in the British Embassy, was found guilty by a Soviet court today of infecting a Russian girl with disease.

He was sentenced to serve a year and a half in prison and ordered to pay 6,200 rubles ($775) in a civil suit.

Bundock did not appear in court in spite of a second summons. He acted, court officials said, on instructions from the embassy.

Girl Referred To As R. Y.

The girl was not named in court testimony, but was referred to by the initials R. Y. The case was heard by a woman, Judge Doronovskaya, and two assistants.

The conviction and sentence followed an address to the court by the girl's lawyer in which he said Bundock "forgot he wasn't in some colony."

Moscow, the lawyer said, wasn't "Shanghai where an Englishman could deal in women as cattle."

Movies Are Criticized

The attorney said the reason the girl entered into a relationship with the embassy clerk could be attributed to the "influence of Anglo-American motion pictures on an inexperienced girl."

Both English and American movies are shown, the lawyer said, at the building occupied by a British-Russian language newspaper where R. Y. claimed she met Bundock.

The lawyer also found political implications in the case. He claimed that the incident showed up capitalist morals and contrasted them with Communist morals which he said involved "respect of one individual for another."

TEARS FLOW FOR MASARYK

Yesterday's Tribute Was People's, Today's The State's

A. J. GOEDEKE

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 12 (AP)—Thousands of weeping women and gravely troubled men today paid their final tribute of tears and flowers to Jan Masaryk.

It was a tribute tinged by outspoken bitterness such as has not been voiced since Communist-directed police established their guard over this country.

At nightfall the crowds still streamed up the tortuous streets of Prague to where the dead Foreign Minister lay in state. In the long lines were many veterans and soldiers who stood unabashed with tears in their eyes.

Death Still Called Suicide

The huge form of the son of the nation's first President lay in repose, his hands folded, face unmarked, in the great hall of the Foreign Ministry Palace. He was surrounded by flowers sent from all over the world.

Officials estimated 200,000 had passed the bier by 5 P.M. when the doors were to have closed. They ordered the palace kept open until 10 P.M. to receive yet other thousands who had waited three or four hours. The doors were opened an hour earlier than planned to admit schoolchildren at 8 A.M.

Officials continued to declare his death on Wednesday was a suicide because of the attacks on him from former friends in the western world who disapproved of his remaining in the Communist-controlled government.

Foreign Press Attacked

One newspaper writer charged the foreign press with "murder" and said ominously, "it is time to see who is here as guests among us, writing as they please. Some must be thrown out and others remain only if they write as they should."

These and other strident words and insinuations marked the battle between east and west being fought over the corpse of the man whose avowed policy in this small nation was to bridge the gap between the two worlds.

The wreaths from his friends—the American and British ambassadors, the Canadian charge d'affaires, the Chinese Embassy, Turkey, President Perón of Argentina, from the town of Masaryk's birthplace, Palestine, the Central Committee of Zionists—and the tributes from the Communists who now rule this land did not seem to bridge the gap.

Woman Assails Communists

There were wreaths from the women and children of Lidice, the village that was erased by the Germans, and there were the tiny bouquets from the little people who love "Honza," as they called Masaryk.

Those little flowers were borne by some whose talk in the queue was unguarded and sharp.

Even the presence in the queue of men and women wearing Communist party buttons failed to halt the talk.

One middle-aged woman, between sobs, pointed to a group of Communists, identified by their party buttons, and said: "Look at them, they do not even have enough decency to stay at home, those hypocrites. They have come to sneer at their victim."

State's Demonstration Today

Another old woman, her voice breaking, said, "This tragedy is greater than anything we have experienced yet. We have killed one of our greatest men—we ourselves."

Today's demonstration was the people's.

Tomorrow's demonstration will be the state's. There will be a funeral oration by Premier Klement Gottwald at the Pantheon in the National Museum. The funeral procession, with military honors, will wind through old Prague, across the Bridge of the Legionaires and back up the mountain to the Foreign Palace. From there the body will be taken to Lany and deposited beside that of the father, Thomas G. Masaryk, first President of the Republic of Czechoslovakia.

It was officially announced tonight that President Eduard Benes will attend the state services in the museum tomorrow.

Senate Tribute To Masaryk

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) told the Senate today Jan Masaryk "died a martyr to the cause of liberty."

"I hope and pray he may not have died in vain," Vandenberg said.

The Michigan Senator referred to the Czech Foreign Minister as "my very dear and intimate friend."

Masaryk committed suicide at Prague Wednesday after the Communists seized power in Czechoslovakia.

Senator Lucas (D., Ill.) also paid trbiute to Masaryk, saying Czechoslovakia had "lost a great champion of freedom and liberty."

Czechs File Past Masaryk Bier DAY

Prague, March 12 (AP)—A line of weeping mourners nearly two miles long filed through Czernin Palace today to place flowers on the bier of Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk.

Masaryk's body lay in state from 9 A.M. until 5 P.M., but the throng was so vast the doors of the palace opened an hour early to permit school children to pass through.

The mourners filed through the huge square in front of the palace, where Masaryk fell to his death.

Meanwhile, the Communists were strengthening their control of Czechoslovakia. They announced the suicide of a non-Communist political leader, Josef Herod.

They also claimed new evidence of opposition plotting against the Government in a report of the confession and suicide of a non-Communist political leader, Josef Herod.

That suicide was the second such to be reported officially this week. The Government said Masaryk took his life by jumping out of an apartment window Wednesday.

Parliament Gets Red Leader

Parliament was slated in today's session to go ahead with committee organization giving Communists powerful posts and to legalize the work of action committees which prepared the way for the new government, sworn in two weeks ago.

Communists already had been made chairmen of the important Budget and Foreign Affairs committees. Rudolf Slansky, a Czech organizer of the Communist International Information Bureau (Cominform), was emerging as floor leader.

Premier Klement Gottwald had a unanimous vote of confidence—meaning, in effect, approval of his program to make the state all-powerful in industry and trade.

Says Suicide Confessed

The latest suicide was reported last night by district police of eastern Moravia. Their statement said Herod killed himself in his jail cell in Moravska Ostrava after confessing to participation in a military plot to overthrow the republic. They did not specify how he ended his life.

Herod was secretary of the local branch of the anti-Communist National Socialist party, lately brought under Communist influence and renamed the Czech Socialist party.

Herod's reported confession gave Gottwald a ready-made case against opponents as his Communist Justice Ministry brought people's courts back into existence to review sentences passed upon persons accused of collaborating with the Germans during the occupation.

The police said his admissions would be useful in the ministry's prosecution of high officials of the party, including Prokop Drtina, former Justice Minister; Peter Zenkl, former deputy Premier, and Dr. Vladimir Krajina, former party secretary general. Drtina recently was reported to have attempted suicide by jumping out a window.

The three were among deputies absent from Parliament yesterday. Also absent was Vojta Benes, right-wing Social Democrat and brother of President Eduard Benes.

More U.S. Bulletins Seized

The President, now spending most of his time at his country home at Sezimovo Usti, has made no statement on the passing of Masaryk. But Mrs. Benes came personally from there to comfort Masaryk's sister, Alice.

On court order, police yesterday seized the March 8 edition of the United States Information Service Bulletin because of editorial excerpts in it from United States newspapers. It was the fifth such confiscation here.

Still another issue of the United States Information Service bulletin was stopped by the post office and confiscated. Joseph Kolarek, Embassy press attaché, reported. This issue, the sixth to be stopped, contained Secretary of State Marshall's asertion that there is a reign of terror in Czechoslovakia.

The United States Embassy, meanwhile, was disclosed to have asked the Foreign Office for information on Andrew Spiro, employed in the new Bratislava consulate. Spiro is in custody on a general charge of spying.

Czechs Act Against Pianist

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 12 (AP)—The Government-sponsored radio said today that Rudolf Firkusny, Czech pianist who spent the war years in the United States, has been ousted from the Syndicate of Czechoslovak Composers.

Scores Of Czech Refugees Enter U.S. Occupation Zone

Hof, Germany, March 12 (AP)—Czechoslovaks fleeing their Communist homeland said today the Czech border region has become a huge hunting ground where reinforced frontier guards attempt to block the escape of refugees.

The sound of gunfire is heard day and night on the Czech side of the border, they said. Militiamen have been called up to swell the ranks of the regular border guards.

Nevertheless, the informants said, scores of refugees are getting through to the United States occupation zone of Germany.

Ready To Fight It Out

An unshaven man who reached this border city said an 18-year-old boy was killed and a woman was wounded yesterday when Czech border guards spotted them.

He said persons captured trying to flee from Czechoslovakia are sentenced to 5 to 20 years in prison. The refugees, he added, are becoming increasingly desperate.

Some carry revolvers and rifles, ready to fight it out with anyone who attempts to stop them. Several refugees literally crashed into the American zone when they smashed their automobiles into control point gates and drove on through showers of splinters. The group reportedly included a Czech general. The guards now have set up heavier road blocks.

Tight Control In Asch

A trainload of 137 Czechoslovaks who reached the United States zone in the Hof vicinity in the last few days left the Moschendorf refugee camp here today for Schwabach. There they will join 200 other refugees who preceded them.

Before their train departed the refugees said that hundreds of thousands of Czechoslovaks want to leave their homeland.

They said the jail at Asch, the nearest Czech city to the border, is so crowded the inmates are sleeping in corridors. Tight control is maintained in Asch, one informant said. Every person has his papers checked. If he comes from a distant part of Czechoslovakia he must give a satisfactory reason why he is in Asch or be thrown into jail for further questioning.

Benes Believed A Prisoner

Apparently most of the refugees were of the opinion that Jan Masaryk, Foreign Minister, did not commit suicide but was slain. No one dissented when a spokesman said: "He did not jump out that window. He was pushed."

The refugees also expressed the belief that President Eduard Benes was a prisoner of the Communists.

"He never spoke on the radio as he intended to after the Communist putsch," said one. "That isn't like him."

The refugees appeared in good spirits as they boarded the train for the Schwabash refugee camp. A chalk drawing on the side of the train showed a Czech state policeman and the inscription: "We got here in spite of you."

BRAVE GUNS TO FLEE

Hof, Germany, March 12 (A. P.).—Czechs fleeing from their homeland said today the sound of gunfire is heard day and night inside the Czech border as frontier guards try to block escape.

An 18-year-old boy was killed yesterday and a woman was wounded when Czech guards spotted them heading for the border, said one unshaven man who reached this city.

He said those captured in trying to escape to the United States zone of Germany are sentenced to five to twenty years in prison.

Czech Assails Austrian Press

Vienna, March 12 (AP)—Dr. Zdenek Cery, Czechoslavakian chargé d'affaires in Vienna, protested today to the Austrian Foreign Office against "unfriendly" comment of the Austrian press on recent occurrences in Czechoslovakia. The Foreign Office rejected the protest, declaring the Austrian press had full freedom to print whatever it likes.

Chile Demands Action by UN On Red Role in Czech Coup

LAKE SUCCESS, March 12—(AP) The government of Chile today demanded United Nations investigation of Russia's role in the communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

This forced consideration of the once-rejected case brought by the Czechoslovak anti-communist delegate here on Wednesday soon after Jan Masaryk died in Prague.

The case was placed tonight on the security council's provisional calendar for a meeting at 2:30 p. m. (EST) next Wednesday.

Chile Flays Russia

Chile's demand for security council action was accompanied by a blistering attack on the Soviet Union.

Chile said Russia was using the tactics of Adolf Hitler.

It was the first time Russia had been directly called to account before the council since the Iranian case in the infant days of the U.N. two years ago.

The first test will come over admitting the case to the agenda of the council. This step is considered procedural and thus outside the range of the big four veto held by Russia and the other great powers.

Some delegates immediately envisioned a showdown between Russia and the western powers over expansion of the Soviet sphere in Europe and elsewhere. Others expected Russia to follow her tactics of March 1946, and walk out of the council if it pursued the case.

Chilean Chief Delegate Hernan Santa Cruz filed the charges on direct instructions from President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla in Santiago.

Santa Cruz said he had not discussed the plan in advance with any other delegation and that this was in compliance with specific orders from his president.

Chile broke off diplomatic relations last October with Russia, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia. This was done on charges that the three interfered in Chile's internal affairs and at a time when Czechoslovakia was falling into the Soviet orbit.

Shortly after Santa Cruz made his statement to a news conference, Secretary-General Trygve Lie announced that the document was being circulated immediately to council delegates.

Recently Sidetracked

Two days ago Lie pigeon-holed a similar demand from Dr. Jan Papanek, still recognized Czechoslovak delegates to the U.N., on the grounds that Papanek's document was a "non-governmental communication."

A U.N. spokesman said Lie had no alternative but to accept the Chinean-Czechoslovak document now and pass it along to council delegates.

The Chilean president apparently took a personal hand in the case in order to avoid any suggestion that it might not have come directly from the top level of a U.N. member government.

Santa Cruz made it clear that his government was acting in full support of Papanek, a close friend of the dead Jan Masaryk.

Santa Cruz said in addition to asking for a non-voting seat in the council for Chile, he would demand that Papanek be seated to speak for Czechoslovakia.

Text of Chile's Complaint in U. N.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 12—Following is an unofficial translation from the Spanish text of Chile's complaint against the Soviet Union in the Czechoslovak situation. It was delivered today by Dr. Hernan Santa Cruz, permanent delegate, to Secretary General Trygve Lie:

The Government of Chile has taken note that on March 10 Jan Papanek, permanent representative of Czechoslovakia to the United Nations, addressed to you a communication in which he asks that the Security Council take under consideration the events which have taken place in his country from Feb. 22 in view of the fact that it deals with a situation that imperiled the maintenance of international peace and security.

M. Papanek states in the abovementioned note that the political independence of Czechoslovakia, a member of the United Nations, has been violated through the threat of the use of force by another member of the United Nations, the U.S.S.R. He adds that a national minority, which was stimulated and offered assistance by the Government of the U.S.S.R., usurped power, eliminating the constitutional Government, violating individual guarantees and the public liberties established in the Constitution, in the manner described in the document. He also says that this coup d'état could only succeed through "the official participation of representatives of the U.S.S.R. and the threat of use of military force by the U.S.S.R. which had been prepared on the northwest frontier of Czechoslovakia."

These facts, in the opinion of the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia, constitute a violation of the treaty of friendship and mutual assistance of Dec. 12, 1943, and are an evident threat to world peace and security and a flagrant violation of Article 2, Paragraph 4, of the Charter of San Francisco.

The Security Council must, therefore, investigate them in accordance with Article 34 of that Charter.

Individual Status Noted

My Government has been informed that you have not relayed the petition of the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia because you believe that it is to be included among those which must be considered as coming from non-governmental organizations and could not therefore be considered as a communication issuing from a member state.

Without going into the procedure followed by you in relation to the presentation of the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia and without recognizing the character of private person and not of legal representative of his Government, that you believe Jan Papanek represents, I have the honor, in the name of Chile, which I represent before the United Nations and by personal and direct order of the President of the Republic, to request you to present to the Security Council the situation referred by the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia in the above-mentioned communication for the purpose described therein.

In formulating this petition I make use of the right that Article 35, Paragraph 1 of the Charter confers on all members of the organization.

The Government of Chile believes that the authoritative accusation of the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia is of such gravity that it cannot be allowed that, due to a mere question of formal procedure as would be the presumed lack of personal qualification of Mr. Papanek, should prevent the organ specifically charged with safeguarding world peace and security from practicing the necessary investigations in order to establish its truth.

Because, if the facts referred to in the accusation were true, as everything seems to indicate, it would mean that the world finds itself facing an exact repetition of the actions and methods Nazi Germany employed in the years preceding the last world war and which were its definite cause. It would indicate, therefore, that world peace and security were in imminent danger because of an international action contrary to the Charter on the part of a member state against another state, as well as because it has produced a very grave violation of the principles of democracy, of respect to human dignity and individual liberties that the San Francisco Charter emphasizes as inseparable with the maintenance of peace and consecrates among the fundamental purposes of the United Nations.

U. N. Duty Asserted

In my Government's opinion, the United Nations have the unavoidable obligation of obtaining action in view of this situation, employing all the means provided by the Charter, to prevent, before it is too late, that these actions and these methods shall fulfill the execution of a plan the designs and range of which it is not difficult to imagine.

Chile as a part of the American community, which has attained an enviable progress in the elimination of all forms of violence, aggression or conquest and whose people live within the principles of human solidarity, cannot remain indifferent in view of the events described by the representative of Czechoslovakia.

No member country of the United Nations, however small it may be or however distant from the scenes of those events, can avoid assuming a responsibility born from the joint obligation established by the Charter and from the conviction that a new world war would constitute a catastrophe, from whose consequences no portion or territory of the world could escape.

On assuming the present attitude, my Government understands that it is furnishing the only possible contribution, within its moderate means and existing circumstances, to the common task of preventing the occurrence of this cataclysm. It also considers that it is fulfilling the duties it had contracted as a signatory of the San Francisco Charter to procure that the organization shall affirm its character as a decisive instrument for the maintenance of world peace. And it is not difficult to foresee that the non-intervention of the United Nations in the situation herein denounced would result in the loss of its prestige and consequently in a reduction of its future usefulness.

It is therefore its devotion to the cause of the United Nations and its profound respect for democracy and human dignity that constitute the principal motives of the attitude of the Chilean Government, but there exists, in addition, another reason, of a moral nature, that influences my country to adopt the petition of investigation and study of the case of Czechoslovakia that has been formulated by the permanent representative of that nation.

Last October Chile broke diplomatic relations with the U.S.S.R. and with Yugoslavia because these countries were intervening in its internal affairs (attempting to interfere with and hold up the production of basic materials such as copper and nitrates, which Chile exports to friendly nations) by means of illegal and revolutionary actions of a national group that serves their interests. The purpose of this action, which coincides in all aspects with that which has determined its intervention in Czechoslovakia, shows the extent and magnitude of the plan of the U.S.S.R. and proves the fact that neither geographical position nor greater or less strength or importance, nor the love or indifference for peace is a factor that can prevent a country from becoming involved in a struggle of this kind initiated by a great power like the U.S.S.R. On that occasion the Government of Chile, with great regret, included in its rupture of international relations the Government of Czechoslovakia. It did so because it was able to establish that agents of that Government were acting jointly with those of the other two countries mentioned in activities of real aggression, to the end of the breakdown of the national economy, which I have already mentioned.

The Government of Chile understood that this was carried on behind the back of President Benes and of his Foreign Minister, M. Masaryk, whose democratic and specific convictions have always been beyond all doubt, and that this solely constituted the international manifestations of the action carried on inside the country by the elements that, shielded behind the democratic platform of the Government of National Unity, were preparing the coup of Feb. 22.

Break With Prague Recalled

Nevertheless, my country found it necessary to break its traditional relations of friendship with Czechoslovakia, to protect its fundamental duty to defend the country against an intervention of foreign powers designed to disrupt production and attack the constitutional and democratic regime in which Chile has lived since birth as an independent nation.

Now that events have proved the justice of the Chilean point of view and justified the true reasons which impelled the Government of my country to act in the sense in which it did, it wishes to render homage to the noble Czechoslovak people, for whom it feels profound admiration and respect, giving support, with its character of member state of the organization, the just demands that in its name were presented by its permanent representative to the United Nations.

In view of the preceding considerations, I reiterate, in the name of my Government, its petition that you transmit this request to the Security Council, so that, in accordance with Article 34 of the United Nations Charter, it shall investigate the facts alluded to by the permanent representative of Czechoslovakia, Jan Papanek, which threaten international peace and security.

I also beg of you that you communicate to the Security Council our request that, in conformity with Article 31 of the Charter, my country shall be designated to participate in the discussion of this matter when it is taken up by the Council.

BOMB THREAT SENT TO U. S. CONSULATE

~~NIGHT~~

Jerusalem Building Evacuated for Hour But No Explosives Are Found.

~~J. M. LONG~~

JERUSALEM, March 12 — (AP) The United States consulate was evacuated for an hour today after an unknown telephone caller threatened that the premises would be blown up.

Police found no explosives after a search of the three buildings comprising the consulate property. Employes and officials then returned to their offices.

The consulate is 300 yards from the Jewish Agency headquarters where a bomb blast yesterday killed 13 persons and injured nearly 100. According to the Agency, the explosion was touched off by an Arab who entered the Jewish compound in a car stolen from the American consulate.

Americans Not Blamed

An Agency spokesman said: "Neither the Jewish Agency nor anyone else regard the American Consulate as in any way to blame for what happened yesterday."

Four Jews and two Arabs were killed today in sniping and road attacks in various sections of Palestine. A Jewess was killed and two Jews were injured when Arabs on a Tel Aviv-Jerusalem convoy near Bab Al Wad. Two Jews were killed in an Arab attack on a bus near the southern end of the Sea of Galilee.

An Arab was slain in a renewed outbreak of street fighting in Tiberias. The body of a Jew was found in Haifa. An Arab was killed in the old city area of Jerusalem.

An undetermined number of Jews and Arabs were wounded in an Arab attack and a counter attack by Haganah, the Jewish militia, centering around the Jewish settlement of Maanit in the plain between Haifa and Tel Aviv.

Fawzi Bey Al Kaukji, commander of the Arab volunteer army, sent 200 Syrian trained commandos into Jaffa. There have been numerous clashes between Arabs and Jews in the border area between Jaffa and Tel Aviv.

Another consulate car—this time Ethiopian—was stolen in Jerusalem. The car was stopped by Arabs near the Damascus gate.

Two Jews were killed and a third injured when Arabs attacked a small Jewish settlement at the southern end of the Dead Sea.

North of Nazereth two columns of 100 Jews each made a simultaneous attack on the Arab village of Kafr Kanna. Police said three Arabs were wounded. The Arabs claimed the Jews were beaten off with 25 casualties.

An unofficial tabulation showed 1,675 persons have been killed in communal violence since the United Nations voted for partition November 29.

American personnel returned to their offices after an hour-long search by police failed to turn up any explosives. The consular staff had moved out after a telephone caller said in English:

"Get out of the building—it will blow up in five minutes."

The building also is used as a residence by Consul-General Robert B. McAtee, Consul William Porter and Vice-Consul Wells Stabler.

The death in a hospital of another victim raised the death toll to thirteen in yesterday's bombing of the Jewish Agency building. The agency says an Arab, driving a car stolen from the American consulate, entered the Jewish compound and ignited a bomb. Three of the dead were women.

Ratify Forces' Merger.

In Tel Aviv the agency announced its ratification of a merger of two Jewish fighting forces, Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi. Final approval depends on a referendum of agency members in London and New York.

David Ben-Gurion, chairman of the Agency executive, opposed the merger, but conservative Jewish leaders backed it to strengthen the fight against the Arabs over partition. Haganah previously has assailed Irghn for terroristic acts which it charged were hurting the Jewish cause. Jewish sources say Irgun has agreed to cease its attacks upon British forces now withdrawing from the Holy Land.

Haganah, the official militia of the agency, has a shock force of more than 10,000 paid soldiers. Irgun, an underground organization, is reported to have more than 1,000 men.

Purge Plan Reported

The commander of the Arab Volunteer Army, Fawzi Bey al Kaukji, opened his "martial-law courts" in northern Palestine. He has established headquarters in the Nablus area. A spokesman said he plans to purge his ranks of Arabs who have been dealing with Jews.

Charges have been preferred against about 100 Arabs on information obtained from Jewish sources in Jerusalem, the spokesman said.

An Arab army Commando unit of 200 men specially trained in Syria entered the all-Arab city of Jaffa, neighboring Tel Aviv, this morning to bolster the coastal community's defenses, informants at Fawzi Bey's headquarters reported.

Snipers Kill 2 Jews

Two Jews were killed by Arab snipers who fired on a bus in the area near the southern end of the Sea of Galilee, Jewish sources said.

At Maanit settlement in the Palestine coastal plain between Tel Aviv and Haifa, several Jews were injured by Arab bullets. The Arabs attacked as the Jews were on their way to work. Haganah forces counterattacked, and unconfirmed reports said there were some Arab casualties.

Shooting In Jerusalem

There was widespread shooting in Jerusalem most of last night but no casualties were reported. Automatic weapons and grenades were used by Jews, Arabs and British in clashes in the Holy City's suburban Sheikh Jarrah quarter.

The communal death total since the United Nations voted partition of Palestine November 29 has reached 1,659.

JEWS TESTIFY; GROMYKO MUM NIGHT

Russian Refuses To Discuss Palestine With Them

E.W. CARPENTER

[redacted], March 12 (AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko refused to discuss the partition of Palestine today with Jewish leaders in a formal Big-Four conference.

The Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister sat silent for two hours while the Jewish Agency for Palestine urged the powers to carry out without change the United Nations plan to create Jewish and Arabic countries in the Holy Land.

Gromyko also had nothing to say when the top delegates of the other conferring powers, the United States, France and China, decided to invite the Arab Higher Committee to appear before the four powers on Monday at 10.30 A.M.

Report Due Monday

The Big Four must report back to the Security Council next Monday at 2.30 P.M. on the result of the talks.

The Soviet delegate declared in a statement after the conference that he still felt that such talks with Arab and Jewish leaders would only lead to complications. He maintains that the views of the Jews and Arabs are known, and insists that the partition plan be carried out.

He charged that the United States wants to start again at the beginning of the Palestine question.

A Soviet source earlier this week made a similar charge, which drew a sharp retort from Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, that Russia is prejudging the results of the consultations.

U.S. Statement

The United States delegation, for the second time in two days, issued a special statement on its position on Palestine.

Yesterday it answered reports that it favored a federal state in Palestine with a flat statement that its position favoring partition was not changed.

Today it took note of published reports in which United Nations sources expressed belief that the United States has abandoned the United Nations program for partitioning Palestine.

The second statement insisted that there must be a peaceful solution of the Palestine problem. The United States delegation said the purpose of the big power talks is to find a means for carrying out peacefully the recommendation of the United Nations Assembly for the partition of Palestine within an economic union.

Arab Boycott

The United States also declared that the attainment of a peaceful solution is not being helped by the refusal of one or more parties to take part in the consultations.

This apparently was directed to the Arab Higher Committee, which has consistently boycotted all talk of partition in United Nations committees and the Security Council.

The Arab Higher Committee, which is recognized by the United Nations as representing the Arabs of Palestine, submitted to delegates at Lake Success a "black paper" charging the Jews with plotting totalitarianism and terrorism.

"Irreducible Minimum"

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, of Cleveland, chairman of the American section of the Jewish Agency executive, told the delegates that the partition plan approved by the Assembly on November 29 represented the "irreducible minimum" which the agency felt it could accept.

Silver said it would seem axiomatic that partition would require enforcement. He said that any move to reopen the whole question would not be helpful.

Moshe Shertok, head of the Jewish Agency political department, then answered a series of questions.

He said the Jews of Palestine are prepared to accept the responsibility for law and order in the proposed Jewish nation.

He was asked whether the agency had attempted to obtain the agreement of Arab leaders in Palestine.

Shertok said yes. He said the agency also had tried long ago to obtain agreement with the Arab League through talks with its secretary general but that the Arabs had refused to discuss any partition plan.

Conciliation Still Palestine Aim, U.S. Insists DAY

New York, March 12 (AP)—The United States insisted in a special statement today that a peaceful solution of Palestine partition is required.

It did not mention Russia's opposition to American efforts at conciliation between Arabs and Jews or the Russian-American differences over Palestine.

The new American declaration came from a spokesman for the United States delegate to the United Nations.

Second In Two Days

It was the second such special statement issued in two days in avowed efforts to clarify the United States position.

The spokesman said each of the special statements was put out to correct impressions left by published interpretations of United States policy.

The statement said that attainment of a peaceful solution was not being assisted by the refusal of "one or more of the parties to take part in consultations." This was a reference to an Arab boycott of partition talks and the refusal of the Jewish Agency for Palestine to take part in any discussions which might modify or kill partition.

Council To Meet Monday

The Security Council at Lake Success set a meeting for Monday to resume debate on Palestine. The Council threw the issue to the big powers for action last week.

Still spurning mediation, the Arab Higher Committee, spokesman for Palestine Arabs, issued a statement entitled "A Black Paper On the Jewish Agency and Zionist Terrorism." The document made no mention of the big-power consultations.

The text of the American statement:

"The purpose of the present (big power) consultations is to find a means for the peaceful implementation of the General Assembly recommendation for partition of Palestine within an economic union.

Must Live In Peace

"Such a solution is required because the people of Palestine must be able to live together, not fight constantly. This purpose is not being assisted by the refusal of one or more parties to take part in the consultations.

"Judgments on the possibilities of peaceful implementation should be based on the answers to the questions (posed at big-power meetings) and not on the questions. It has been pointed out already that the questions were not solely United States questions."

Some United Nations delegates said today they believe Palestine may become only a minor item in the overall American-Russian diplomatic conflict.

U.S. More Cautious

They figure Palestine might quickly be lost in the shuffle of larger affairs if the worsening conditions—noted by President Truman in Washington yesterday—cannot be righted by sudden action.

The United States is becoming more cautious daily in its approach to the problem of forcibly putting through the splitup of the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab nations. The other great powers also are feeling their way along.

Resumption of big-power consultations today at the New York offices of the French United Nations delegation.

Gromyko May Walk Out

Russia yesterday dimmed American hopes of a peaceful future for partition. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko threatened to walk out of the parleys if Arabs and Jews were brought in for further conciliation efforts.

The United States stakes its hopes for a peaceful settlement on getting the Arabs to the conference table. American sources still expect support from France and China in the move, but admittedly no acceptable decision could be reached without Russian support.

American fears that Russia may offer to move Red Army troops into Palestine are a bigger factor than ever in any consideration of sanctioning an international force to put through the Zionist-backed partition plan.

May Meet Over Week End

Most delegates here believe that if force is used it must be contributed by the big powers. Such a situation posseses the possible repercussions of having United States and Russian troops side by side in the strategic Middle East.

French Approve Resolution That Calls for Return of Bao Dai

SAIGON, French Indo-China, March 12 (AP).—The French have approved a resolution of the local government of Annam asking Bao Dai's return as "Emperor of Viet Nam in a constitutional monarchy," the government information office announced today.

The resolution asked the former Emperor of Annam to carry on negotiations with the French "to realize the aspirations of the Viet Namese people for independence and national unity within the frame of Franco-Viet Namese friendship."

Communists Capture Manchurian Power Site

Peiping, March 12 (AP)—The Manchurian power center of Kirin has been captured by the Communists, Government headquarters in Mukden admitted today.

The announcement, relayed to Peiping, gave no details. There have been reports, however, that the Communists were massing for attacks on both Kirin and Changchun—Manchuria's capital.

[Kirin furnishes most of the electric power for Government-held areas of Manchuria. It is 60 miles east of Changchun.

[The Communist radio in north China said Thursday that Kirin had been captured and the garrison was being driven toward Changchun.]

SCANTILY CLAD GIRLS FIGHT JAP INFLATION

TOKYO, March 12—(AP) Cranings crowds turned out today as the Japanese government took the wraps off its newest anti-inflation measure—a group of shapely, scantily clad girls.

On the third story balcony of a department store, the girls shimmied through hula dances. Traffic at the busy downtown inter-section was jammed.

Between dance numbers, an announcer exhorted the crowd to save their yen to fight inflation.

U.N. TO WATCH KOREAN VOTE

Strong Canadian Opposition Voted Down By Commission

Seoul, Korea, March 12 (AP)—Over strong Canadian opposition, the United Nations Korean Commission voted, 4 to 2, today to observe an election in south Korea May 9 to choose a national assembly form of government.

The United States occupies south Korea, Russia the north, and the Canadian opposition hinged on observing an election confined to one zone.

India, China, El Salvador and the Philippines voted for the step, while France and Syria abstained and Australia joined Canada in opposing it.

Awaits New Instructions

George Patterson, the Canadian member, said he would not participate further until he got new instructions from his Government. He said this did not, however, mean that he was walking out or resigning.

Patterson contended that the United Nations Little Assembly's advice to the commission to observe the election was "unwise and unconstitutional."

The United Nations General Assembly had instructed the commission to observe an election throughout Korea, looking to unification of the country. The Russians refused to let the commission enter their zone.

The Little Assembly then advised the commission to go ahead in the American-occupied southern zone, and Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, American commandant, called an election for May 9.

Recent "Vital Developments"

Patterson said Canada was anxious to see establishment of a free, united and democratic Korea but believed the commission could not observe an election confined to only one zone.

S. H. Jackson, the Australian delegate, took the same stand and added that a recent "vital development" outdated the Little Assembly's advice.

This development, he said, was that even in the south the election apparently would be confined to extreme Rightists because "latest information is that the Kim Koo Rightists and Kimm Kyu Sik Liberals will not take part."

Kim Koo Denies Charge

Jackson proposed that the commission withdraw, let the American command hold the election, and then return and re-examine the situation. This was voted down.

Meanwhile, Kim Koo denied to a United States military commission that he had ordered "elimination" of Chang Duk Soo, another Rightist who was slain December 2.

Kim said statements to that effect by five of the ten Koreans on trial on murder charges had been obtained by a Korean police third degree.

The five, in statements read March 5 to the commission, had quoted Kim Koo as saying Chang was a "national traitor to Korean independence" and "ought to be killed."

The prosecution challenged Kim to prove or retract his third-degree accusation. He replied that he had seen it in Korean newspapers and had heard people on the street talk about it.

DISPUTE ON RICE ENDED

U. N. Group Bars Council From Jurisdiction on Trade

BAGUIO, the Philippines, March 12 (AP)—A split between Asiatic and Occidental nations participating in the World Rice Conference of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization was healed today by a Burmese compromise suggestion.

The conference adopted a proposal by Uu Ka Si, chief Burma delegate, providing for establishment of an international rice council for studying rice problems, but with no jurisdiction over trade matters.

Eastern and Western nations had debated several days over the representation on a previously proposed Southeast Asia Rice Council.

Baguio, Philippines, March 12 (A. P.).—President Manuel A. Roxas reported today the Philippines so far had realized $30,000,000 from $625,000,000 in surplus military property turned over by the United States. He estimated more than 50 per cent of the property was unsold.

4 BIKINI SHIPS SCUTTLED

Navy Announces End of More of Atomic Bomb Target Fleet

PEARL HARBOR, March 12 (AP) The Navy announced today that four more Bikini atom-bomb target ships had been scuttled this week off Kwajalein.

They were the destroyers Ralph Talbot and Wilson, sunk March 8, and the attack transports Fallon and Brackken, sunk March 10.

Best known of the four was the Talbot, which was credited with downing two planes during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. The Talbot participated in fourteen major operations, including six surface engagements.

REPLY ON REDS URGED

Australian Labor Group Reacts to Opposition Charge

CANBERRA, Australia, March 12 (AP)—A group of Laborites said today they had asked for a Government reply to an Opposition charge that the Russian legation was stirring labor unrest in Australia.

The accusation came from Percy Spender, Liberal, in Parliament this week. The Laborites, who have been inconspicuous members of the Government majority, addressed their request to Dr. H. V. Evatt, Minister for External Affairs.

If the charge is true, one said, diplomatic relations should be severed.

SENATE DEFEATS TAFT'S PROPOSAL TO CUT AID FUNDS

Move to Limit First Year's Outlay to Four Billion Loses, 56-31.

NIGHT SESSION HELD

Final Vote on 5.3 Billion ERP Measure Is Expected Today.

WASHINGTON, March 12—(AP) The Senate tonight defeated a proposal by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) to cut the first year's outlay under the European recovery plan to $4,000,000,000.

The roll call vote was 56 to 31.

The action cleared the way for expected quick approval of a bill making $5,300,000,000 available for European aid, beginning April 1.

Other Amendments Pending

However, numerous other amendments remained pending.

Taft told his colleagues before the vote that the aid program "is completely without economic justification but is justified by the world battle against communism."

He said the program would interfere seriously with "our own economic stability." He urged that the fund be cut $1,300,000,000 under the figure previously approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Defeat of the Taft amendment seemingly marked the high tide of opposition to the ERP bill. It probably will undergo similar attacks in the House, however.

Taft and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) clashed in debate earlier tonight on the question of one year or four years of aid to Europe.

Final Vote Seen Today

The senate ended a grueling day and night session at 11:03 p. m. EST, to meet again at noon tomorrow, when a final vote on the bill is expected.

The 31 votes mustered to cut the amount were fewer than supporters had believed might be cast for the Taft amendment.

Taft took 22 Republicans along with him. Only eight Democrats joined the move to whack the fund. These included Senator Taylor of Idaho, who is running for vice president on Henry Wallace's third party ticket.

Twenty-three other Republicans stood with Vandenberg for the full $5,300,000,000 fund.

The 32 Democrats who voted with Vandenberg swung the total sharply against the Taft proposal. Among those who voted for the larger amount was Senator Pepper (D-Fla), who has criticized the recovery plan because it is not being carried out through the United Nations.

Taft, Vandenberg Clash

This first open disagreement between the Republican leaders came after Taft urged adoption of the European recovery program, with a $4,000,000,000 limit, on the chance it might help in "the world battle against communism."

Vandenberg said the bill "contemplates" four years of U. S. assistance. No congress can bind the next congress, he said. But he added that he would feel obliged to vote for continuing aid beyond the first year if countries on the receiving end lived up to their obligations.

"I wholly disagree," Taft shouted. "There is no such obligation. There is no contract. They are not our partners."

"So far as I can see," the Ohioan declared, "they haven't agreed to do anything to our advantage except as it is to their own advantage."

Taft also declared emphatically that the aid bill is "no war measure." In a reference to recent grave statements by President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall, he said he does not believe there is danger of war.

And he warned that the recovery program will be "a serious interference with our own economic stability" and "can well do more harm than all the economic benefit conceivable for many years to come.

Funds For Trieste May Be Requested

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The Administration may add $75,000,000 to the four-year cost of the Marshall plan for the British-American zones of Trieste.

State Department officials said today this amount may be needed to promote economic recovery in this Mediterranean trouble spot.

President Truman requested $20,000,000 last week for emergency aid to Trieste, almost all of it for food and fuel.

Government officials said additional aid is needed for the free city's industry and agriculture, especially to prevent unemployment on which Communists might capitalize.

Aid Talks Are Started By State Department

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The State Department began talks with the sixteen Marshall-plan countries today on speeding delivery of American supplies if and when Congress approves the program.

A department statement disclosing this stressed that the "conversations were informal." It said the Administration hopes to get information which will be needed when supplies for each country are bought.

48% OF FARMERS FOR ERP

Survey Also Shows 72% of Them Heard of Plan

DES MOINES, March 12 (AP)—America's farmers apparently have been studying up on the Marshall Plan.

Successful Farming Magazine said today a national cross-section poll of 6,000,000 farmers just completed shows 72 per cent of them have heard of the European Recovery Program.

A January poll by the magazine showed only 48 per cent of American farmers had heard of the plan.

The latest poll by the magazine added, shows 44 per cent of all farmers favor the program, 14 per cent oppose it, 14 per cent are neutral, and 28 per cent have not heard of it.

Most farmers believe the purpose of the plan is to aid Europe, the magazine said, and only a small percentage look upon it as a move "to curb communism."

Truman, Cabinet Weigh 'Crisis'

Washington, March 12 (AP)—President Truman reviewed with the Cabinet today the state of world affairs, which Secretary of State Marshall says have reached a "great crisis."

One of the topics, it was disclosed was the move to form a Western European alliance.

The Chief Executive met with Cabinet officers after throwing the nation's full political power and prestige against the spread of communism anywhere, including China.

Faith In Peace Shaken

A measure of the seriousness with which he views the crisis was given in his own statement to a news conference yesterday that his faith in the eventual attainment of world peace had been somewhat shaken.

He added, however, that he still believes peace could be achieved because the world could not stand the destructions of another great war.

Shortly afterward, Marshall told a meeting of the Federal Council of Churches that "the world is in the midst of a great crisis, inflamed by propaganda, misunderstanding, anger and fear."

Discussed "In General Way"

According to accounts which came out of the Cabinet session, it evidently was Marshall who raised the question of a Western alliance, as well as other aspects of the international situation.

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach told reporters afterward that international affairs were discussed "in a general way" and that the Western alliance matter was brought up.

Asked how this came about, Schwellenbach reminded newsmen that it is the President's custom to go around the conference table and ask each member to bring up any matters in which he is particularly interested.

Awaiting Brussels Results

Washington's interest in the possibility of providing military support for Western Europe, as one more obstacle to the spread of communism ,actually centers on work now being completed at Brussels on a long-range Western European pact. The Brussels conference includes Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

American policy thus far has been to wait and see what kind of support those nations wanted from the United States before deciding exactly what this country's attitude should be.

Mr. Truman was in the audience last night and heard Marshall couple with his "crisis" statement an appeal for moderation, calm thinking and cool judgment on the part of the American people.

Stassen Urges End of Russia's U.N. Veto Power

Tells Nebraskans U.S. Must Lead Charter Revisions, Attacks Truman Policy

M'COOK, Neb., March 12 (AP).—Removal of the veto power from the United Nations charter "might well be the means by which Russia will end its antagonistic disruptive foreign policy," Harold E. Stassen said today.

Mr. Stassen, who served as a delegate to the United Nations founding conference at San Francisco, told a McCook audience that the United Nations "is the best hope of a lasting peace."

"America must give leadership in amending and strengthening the United Nations charter," he declared.

The former Minnesota Governor is in the midst of a three-day campaign for support in Nebraska's April 13 Republican Presidential preference primary.

"It is essential," he continued, "that there be a definite understanding that the voting of the Marshall plan will be of little avail if it is not accompanied by a consistent, realistic over-all world policy for our country. Speaking bluntly, the national administration does not seem to realize this fact."

Earlier, at North Platte, Neb., Mr. Stassen predicted Italy will not go under the Communist yoke as Czechoslovakia did. He told a breakfast audience he believes the lesson of Czechoslovakia will have a pronounced effect on Italy.

MRS. LUCE SEES WAR TOP ISSUE

Presidential Campaign's Greatest Question, She Tells Chicago Audience.

CHICAGO, March 12—(AP) C Booth Luce declared today that the facts point to America's involvement" in a third world war.

This might come "if not in the immediate future, then within a decade," the former Republican congresswoman from Connecticut told the Executives Club of Chicago.

She said the only main issue in the 1948 Presidential campaign "is the issue of war."

"Will we give the green light to this administration to proceed into a third world war?" she asked.

Praises Vandenberg

Mrs. Luce reiterated her endorsement of Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich) for the Presidency. She named him as her choice at a GOP rally last night in suburban Highland Park.

At today's luncheon meeting she gave her reasons:

"Senator Vandenberg is experienced in handling foreign affairs, is a loyal Republican and good politician," she said.

Mrs. Luce labeled the supporters of Henry A. Wallace as "the party of peace at any price" and the Democratic backers of President Truman as "the party of war at any cost."

"The present administration cannot be reelected except as a result of a foreign crisis," she contended.

This leaves a "golden opportunity," Mrs. Luce continued, for a Republican candidate to "define where America's interests lie."

She advocated "a clear-cut statement" to the Russians as to just how far they may infringe on America's interests before "we would be obliged to fight in our own defense."

Such a statement of American aims "would guarantee peace in our lifetime," Mrs. Luce asserted.

Italy Called Point For United States To 'Stop Russians'

Boston, March 12 (AP)—Brooks Emeny, president of the Foreign Policy Association, said today the United States must "stop the Russians" in Italy and with that must be prepared "even to the point of war."

Asserting that President Truman cannot "speak with the kind of authority that the times demand," the Cleveland foreign affairs critic declared in an interview:

"The Truman refusal to see Stalin again has its basic roots in his memory of the meeting at Potsdam where Stalin put it all over him."

Emeny said that "Italy must be the point to stop the Russians" and continued:

"But if we tell the Soviets 'no' in Italy we have to be prepared for what is involved—even to the point of war."

Emeny added that war was "not probable" at this time but "there is tension on so many fronts that accidents can happen."

Declaring that he "did not mean to criticize Truman," Emeny said of the President:

"He was put in this position by his predecessor. We are paying the penalty for a one-man rule which does not produce an adequate successor."

U.S. WILL FIRE ALIENS IN RUSS AREA MISSIONS

State Department To Replace All Foreigners With Americans

Washington, March 12 (AP)—All aliens employed at American Embassies in Russia and her satellite nations are about to be fired.

John E. Peurifoy, Assistant Secretary of State, disclosed this today to a House Expenditures subcommittee.

For security reasons, Peurifoy said, these aliens will be replaced by Americans. He didn't say how many there are or what the cost would be.

The subcommittee is taking a look at what the State Department is doing to weed out any disloyal workers.

Congressmen critical of Hamilton Robinson, State Department loyalty officer, hammered away again at the theme that Robinson had been seen in the company of a second cousin suspected of "Communist activity."

"Most Dangerous Thing"

Robinson testified his cousin, Robert T. Miller 3d, "might have been considered a security risk." He said Miller resigned as a State Department information officer about the time he (Robinson) joined the department, late in 1946.

Representative Judd (R., Minn.) said he is not too much concerned with messengers or janitors who might be Communists. He said he is worried about persons who "don't go around to back-alley Communist meetings" but influence American policy "to the point of near disaster."

Robinson agreed that is "the most dangerous thing we've got to face." The hardest part of the loyalty job, he said, is to ferret out those who have no subversive association but follow the Communist party line.

Should Be "Thrown Out"

Certainly, he said, they should be "thrown out."

Peurifoy told of plans to weed out aliens employed at United States missions in the Soviet area after Judd referred to the recent case of a woman at the Moscow Embassy who married a Russian.

Judd said he visited six countries behind the "curtain" last fall and was shocked at the way American officials discussed things at cocktail parties and in front of waiters and embassy employés who are not Americans.

Robinson said the department has gotten rid of sixteen people out of 271 security and loyalty cases handled since the start of last year. He said 36 others quit before the cases were settled and 89 were cleared.

Peurifoy told the subcommittee: "I don't believe there is one Communist in the State Department today."

If there were and we knew it, he added, the Communist would be out of there "no later than this afternoon."

ARGENTINA HIT ON 'EXORBITANT' WHEAT PRICES

WASHINGTON, March 12—(AP) The Herter Committee charged today Argentina is "bleeding a starving Europe" through "exorbitant" wheat prices.

The 18-man House of Representatives committee called on the future administrator of the European recovery program to get tough with Argentina. It urged him to use every weapon at his command to bring Argentine prices into line.

The committee suggested rationing exports of U. S. industrial equipment to Argentina in ratio to her cooperation.

Will Boost ERP Costs, Is Claim

Otherwise, the committee said, Argentine high prices will raise Marshall Plan costs more than a billion dollars during the four years of the program.

The committee, which toured Europe last summer studying economic and financial conditions, made the statements in a report on the Latin-American aspects of the Marshall program.

The group is headed by Rep. Herter (R-Mass).

It said the Argentine government has "repeatedly indicated lack of interest in sharing in the task of working out a solution to Europe's economic problems."

The committee said that as recently as December, 1947, Argentina made Brazil pay $4.86 a bushel for 500,000 tons of wheat, payable in dollars.

Long before wheat prices began to climb to record levels in this country, the group said, Argentina was demanding as much as $1 to $2 a bushel more than the world market price.

Denies Prices Justified

"It has been argued, without basis in fact," the report stated, "that prices of this kind are justified because the United States has been charging similarly exorbitant prices for machinery and equipment exported.

"The facts are that the United States government is not engaged in the export of machinery and equipment, that United States manufacturers have been competing actively with each other and with European manufacturers for business in Argentina and that most of our exports have been booked at reasonable profit margins and at prices in line with those which the United States consumer of similar equipment has been paying.

"The inefficiency of the Argentine state trading entity and its mounting structure of middlemen taking a 'cut' on each purchase has in some instances meant that the ultimate cost of Argentina has been larger than it would have been if private trading channels had been used.

"This would appear, however, to argue for a return to sound private trading methods rather than for continued bleeding of a starving Europe in order that inefficient government trading machinery may be maintained."

G.O.P. SEEKS EARLY VOTE IN SENATE ON TAX CUT BILL

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—The Republican leadership today ordered speedy action on a bill to cut income taxes $4,700,000,000. The goal is a senate vote next week.

After that would remain (1) adjustment with a house-passed bill to cut taxes $6,500,000,000 and (2) efforts to override an expected presidential veto.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) announced that the senate deadline was set at a meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

In the house, Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) of the house ways and means committee said:

Knutson Confident

"I don't think the differences between the house and senate are insurmountable. I am confident the house will override any veto, either on the bill that passed the house or as it was amended by the senate (finance) committee."

Rep. Doughton (D-NC), senior ways and means Democrat, said: "The bill approved by the senate committee looks like it is a close kin to my tax bill. It looks reasonable to me."

Senator Connally (D-Tex) said he voted against the bill in committee, when it was approved last night, but plans no floor fight on it.

Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky predicted that a Democratic substitute will be offered in the senate. But, he said, he hasn't made up his mind whether he will vote for the Republican version of the bill if the Democratic substitute is turned down.

The Truman administration has argued that this is no time to reduce government revenues and that surpluses should be used to whittle the national debt.

The $4,700,000,000 tax cut bill was approved by the finance committee after a single day's voting on disputed points behind closed doors. Two weeks of public hearings preceded the dicision.

Cuts in the senate bill range from 12.6 per cent for those in the lowest income groups to 5 per cent at the top. The house cuts were larger, but otherwise the bills are about the same. Both would increase personal exemptions from $500 to $600 grant married couples the right to split their incomes for tax purposes; and give more exemptions to the blind and aged.

The proposed cuts in both bills would be in addition to the flat 5 per cent deduction allowed under present law.

House Group Votes Modified Rent Controls

Committee Vests Power in Local Boards, Approves Extension to April 1, '49

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP).—The House Banking Committee voted today to strip Federal officials of major authority over rent controls and to turn the decision powers over to local rent boards. Then the committee approved a bill to continue the modified controls for one year, to March 31, 1949.

The House will begin debate on the bill Monday, with a showdown vote set for Tuesday.

An amendment written into the Senate-approved rent bill would give the local boards, appointed by Governors of the various states, power to decontrol rents entirely in their areas or to order rent increases.

Representative A. S. Mike Monroney, Democrat, of Oklahoma, declared this amendment would "knock an awful hole in effective rent control."

The Oklahoman immediately announced he will seek to restore a Senate provision when the bill reaches the House floor. This provision says local boards could recommend rent increases or complete decontrol, but would leave it up to the Federal Housing Administrator to determine whether they had "substantiated" their cases.

A proposal to make the local boards all-powerful was defeated by the Senate.

12 to 8 Split on Amendment

The House committee approved the twelve-month rent-control extension by a 13-to-3 vote. On the amendment giving broad authority to local boards the vote was 12 to 8. One member reported that the closed-door action saw virtually a party-line split, with Republicans supporting the amendment and Democrats opposing it.

Representative Brent Spence, Democrat, of Kentucky, senior Democrat on the Banking Committee, said: "The committee has approved a very weak bill. It affords tenants very little protection."

Representative Monroney told reporters, "Landlords are well organized for presentation of their cases to the local boards, but tenants usually are not well represented." Therefore, he said, the tenants suffer a disadvantage.

"The amendment," he said, "is going to create a great uncertainty whether rent control will be continued in any given area. The local boards would have full control."

Local boards, since they were created last year, have been turned down by the Federal Rent Administrator in Washington on twenty-seven recommendations to lift controls completely in given areas and on thirty-four proposals for rent increases.

The Federal Administrator has approved nineteen decontrol recommendations and ten rent rises proposed by local boards. Under the proposed system, the local board's decision would prevail, without a check in Washington, if certain procedures for public hearings were followed through before a board made its decision.

About 13,000,000 dwelling units housing 50,000,000 persons are now under rent control, according to the Federal Office of Rent Controls.

Other Provisions of Bill

Here are the other provisions of the bill approved by the House committee:

1. Rents could be increased 15 per cent where tenants and landlords agreed on a lease running through 1949. However, tenants who agreed to a 15 per cent rise last year—under the present law—could not be charged another increase during the life of the new law.

2. For those tenants who have agreed to a 15 per cent increase in return for leases running through 1948, rents would be "frozen" from Jan. 1, 1949, to the end of March, 1949.

3. Generally speaking, there could be no increase before March 31, 1949, unless tenants consented or unless the local rent boards decided to grant such an increase or to decontrol the area entirely. The House bill follows the Senate measure rather closely in the procedures for "voluntary" agreements between landlords and tenants.

4. The House bill specifically directs the Federal Administrator to act to relieve landlords who can prove they are suffering hardships. The Senate measure would require rent rises where landlords could show they are losing money.

Truman Gives Pearson the Lie

Columnist Insists His Record of Remarks on New York Jews Was 'Too Accurate.'

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—President Truman yesterday branded as "a lie out of the whole cloth" columnist Drew Pearson's report that the Chief Executive once had termed New York Jews disloyal.

Pearson, whom the President did not identify by name, insisted later that his version was "all too accurate." He added:

"But I'm glad the President has now reconsidered his intemperate words."

Mr. Truman opened his news conference with the denial and said his remarks could be quoted directly, a departure from usual procedure.

He told the reporters to read the New York Mirror to find out about the column. The newsmen heard the President use the term "gossip paper," but the word "gossip" was omitted in this official White House version of his remarks:

"First, I want to pay attention to a vicious statement that was made by a columnist in a New York paper, in which he said I had made the statement here to an editor of a New York paper that the Jews in New York were disloyal.

'A Lie Out of Whole Cloth.'

"I had thought I wouldn't have to add another liar's star to that fellow's crown, but I will have to do it. That is just a lie out of the whole cloth. That is as emphatic as I can put it."

In his "Washington Merry-Go-Round" column Monday in the Mirror, Pearson wrote:

"President Truman was talking to a New York publisher about Palestine.

"Pounding his desk, he made remarks about 'The ——— New York Jews.'

"'They're disloyal to their country. Disloyal,' he cried.

"'Would you explain that further, Mr. President?' interrupted the publisher, whose wife happens to be Jewish.

"'When you speak of New York Jews are you referring to such people as Bernard Baruch? Or are you referring to such New York Jews as my wife?'

"Truman glared, assured his visitor he did not mean to include Baruch or the publisher's wife—then abruptly changed the subject."

ANDERSON TO KEEP POST IN CABINET

Agriculture Head Gives Up Plan To Run For Senate

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Clinton P. Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, said today he will stay in the Cabinet, at least for some months.

He has been thinking of running for the Senate seat now held by Senator Hatch (D., N.M.), who has announced he will not seek another term.

Anderson said after a Cabinet meeting today that President Truman has asked him to remain.

"That's what Mrs. Anderson wants me to do, too," he said.

May Not Quit At All

He said he had decided not to leave the Cabinet before Congress adjourns and added: "I may not get out at all." Congress is not expected to adjourn until July, at least.

His decision throws the New Mexico political race wide open. Anderson, actually, has not ruled himself out. Hatch has said he will stay out of the race in order to accept appointment to the Federal District Court in New Mexico if the appointment is offered. He still could change his mind.

Hurley Being Mentioned

Patrick J. Hurley, former Secretary of War, is being mentioned for the Republican nomination.

Hatch has been in the Senate since 1933. Anderson said today he still thought Hatch "ought to stay" but Hatch reiterated his decision to leave.

Anderson was appointed to the 30.24- 16211

Cabinet June 30, 1945. Prior to that he was a Representative from New Mexico. Yesterday, President Truman praised his work in the Agriculture Department.

Primaries Are In June

New Mexico friends urged him to seek Hatch's post. Mr. Truman twice asked him to stay in his Cabinet, and today Anderson said he would—for a while, anyway. In any event, he will not compaign. The New Mexico primaries are in June.

"I want to think about it a little bit," Anderson said. "I want to find out more about what's going to happen at home in New Mexico."

He indicated the decision was a hard one.

Hurley has remained politically active. During the war he was President Roosevelt's trouble shooter in the East.

Nazi Victim Can Stay in U. S.

Truman Signs Bill Allowing Woman Doctor Who Was Prisoner to Remain Here.

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—Deportation of a 39-year-old woman doctor who served under the Nazis in the Auschwitz and Belsen prison camps was blocked today, when President Truman signed a bill allowing the woman, Dr. Gisela Perl, a Romanian Jew, to remain permanently in this country.

Representative Sol Bloom (D.-N. Y.), who sponsored the bill, said Dr. Perl now lives in New York city (at 1295 Madison avenue). She came here as a lecturer in March, 1946, on a temporary visa.

The Department of Justice refused to indorse Bloom's bill, saying Dr. Perl would not be subject to persecution if she returned to Europe.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, when it approved the bill, gave this background furnished furnished by Bloom:

"Dr. Perl and her husband, a surgeon, operated a small hospital in Sighet, Rumania, from 1934 to 1944. When the Nazis took over, her husband, son and parents were killed. She was sent to Auschwitz and was assigned as a doctor in charge of all women in the camp.

"It was her duty to report to the German authorities every morning the number of pregnant women who were in the concentration camp, as those women were systematically put to death by the Nazis.

Performed Abortions.

"As soon as Dr. Perl learned what happened to these women, she went through the camp every night and performed abortions on all the pregnant women so that there were no pregnant women in the camp. She did this in order to save the lives of these women who were inevitably doomed otherwise.

"Statements are available from ex-inmates of the concentration camp to the effect that Dr. Perl had saved the lives of the writers or of their close relatives of friends. . . . It is estimated that in this way she saved the lives of more than 3,000 women. She was later taken to the concentration camp at Belsen, where she performed similar work."

Bloom said Dr. Perl's former home in Rumania now is occupied by Soviet officials. He said "her only thought in life is to re-establish herself and to carry on her profession as far as possible from the scene of her former life."

Gen. Arnold Assails U. N. as Ineffective

Compares It to 'Impotent' League of Nations

SONOMA, Calif., March 12 (AP).—General of the Army H. H. Arnold today criticized the United Nations organization as ineffective and compared it with the impotent League of Nations after World War I.

The retired war-time commander of the Air Force, in an article in the "Sonoma Index-Tribune," said the peoples of the world are disapponted in the U. N. "If it cannot to the job, let's accept the fact, waste no more time and effort along that line, and get an organization that can accomplish its purposes," General Arnold wrote.

"At the end of World War I, every one looked to the League of Nations to provide for permanent peace by preventing any future world wars. But the League was impotent; had no teeth, could not enforce its decisions and soon passed out of the picture. World War II soon followed.

"Now, once again, the whole world is weary of war; wants no more of the horrors, suffering and destruction that go with wars. Once again, following World War II, every one throughout the world looks to an organization, the U. N., as the agency that would guarantee to the peoples of all nations of the world the right to live the kind of lives they wish under the form of government they themselves might freely choose.

"Once more the peoples of the world are disappointed. Greece, Palestine, Czechoslovakia, the Balkans—all give indications of the impotence of the U. N. organization. The possibility of Finland and Italy coming under Russian domination is staring us in the face.

"When a plan is talked of for a federation of states in Western Europe to provide unity and strength against the spread of Russian Communism to the west, the U. N. is conspicuous by its absence.

"We all believe the U. N. was the hope for the future security of all nations of the world. Most of us still believe that with major alterations it can regain its lost effectiveness.

"The one big question that comes to the mind of most of us is when—if ever—will the U. N. take on the job it was created to perform."

CORNELL GROUP BACKS CONDON

22 Scientists There Assail 'Hasty Condemnation.'

Ithaca, N. Y., March 12 (A. P.).—A group of twenty-two Cornell University scientists protested today against "tactics" used in questioning the loyalty of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the United States Bureau of Standards.

A sub-committee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities recently accused him of associating with alleged Soviet spies. The Commerce Department, under which the Bureau of Standards operates, subsequently announced that its loyalty board had decided unanimously that no reasonable grounds existed for questioning Condon's loyalty.

The Cornell scientists, in a letter to Representative W. Sterling Cole (R.-N. Y.), said they were protesting "the hasty condemnation of any citizen merely on the grounds of suspicion and without any evidence of guilty."

"Even in the face of the unanimous opinion rendered by the loyalty board of the Department of Commerce," the letter continued, "Dr. Condon continues to be the target of attack. The whole affair is reminiscent of that which was followed by the Nazis where scientists were among the first to be prosecuted.

"It is particularly disturbing that such denunciation is directed against a really accomplished scientist who has chosen to become a public servant. Such procedures are sure to discourage other high-minded and competent persons from making contributions to the intelligent and efficient operation of government."

Among the scientists who signed the letter were Dr. Robert R. Wilson, director of the Cornell Laboratory of Nuclear studies, and Prof. L. P. Smith, chairman of the Cornell physics department.

Expects Drastic Action.

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—Representative Nixon (R.-Cal.) said today that Congress will have to take drastic action to pry facts out of the Commerce Department concerning the loyalty of Dr. Condon. He said he believed there was only one issue in the Condon case—"whether alleged associations and indiscretions do or do not constitute a security risk."

OSBORN IN WARNING ON ATOMIC CONTROLS

NEW LONDON, March 12—(AP) Frederick H. Osborn declared tonight there must be no compromise with Russia on atomic energy controls.

The United States deputy delegate on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission declared the blood of future generations would be on the hands of those who advocate compromising with Russia in order to get an agreement.

Speaking at a meeting held during atomic energy week, Osborn said that Russian proposals for atomic control do not provide a workable alternative to control plans favored by the majority the commission, and that there been no agreement despite mon of talks.

C. I. O. Calls Strike Ban Futile in Atomic Plants

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP).—A Congress of Industrial Organizations attorney said today it would be futile to pass a law saying atomic energy plan workers cannot go on strike.

Benjamin Sigal, counsel for the United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union, told the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy: "An anti-strike law would be futile, because it would not guarantee an absence of strikes. Such a law never has, anywhere in the world."

Mr. Sigal testified at a hearing on the general subject of labor-management relations in atomic energy plants. He recommended that unions and the companies running atomic energy plants under government contract agree to voluntary arbitration of all disputes.

MEYERS CONVICTED ON THREE CHARGES

General Will Be Sentenced Monday; Displays No Emotion.

WASHINGTON, March 12—(AP) Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, No. 2 Army Air Forces purchasing officer during the war, was convicted today of persuading another man to tell lies to Senate investigators.

He faces a prison sentence of up to 30 years.

A federal district court jury decided Meyers induced a former business associate, Bleriot H. LaMarre, to give false testimony to senators investigating the general's private wartime business affairs.

No Display of Emotion

The balding, 52-year-old Meyers listened without visible emotion as the jury foreman announced "guilty" to each of three charges. His attractive wife, the former movie actress Ila Rae Curnutt, wiped away a tear and put one arm around her husband. Neither spoke.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff wanted to put Meyers in jail right away. But the general's attorneys protested that it was usual for defendants "of his position" to be allowed freedom on bail.

"We don't often have defendants in his position," Holtzoff snapped.

He finally agreed, however, to continue Meyers' bail until Monday, when sentence will be passed.

Usually a week or 10 days is allowed between a conviction and sentence. But Holtzoff said he wanted to fix Meyers' penalty "very promptly."

One witness against Meyers was LaMarre's pretty wife, Mildred, once identified by the general as "my girl friend." She denied at the time that there was any improper relationship between them.

LaMarre testified at the trial that he "covered up," during the Senate investigation, the fact that Meyers, as the real owner of Aviation Electric Corp. in Dayton, Ohio, took $150,000 in wartime profits out of the aircraft part concern. He did this, LaMarre said, at Meyers' urging, but later changed his story and told the senators the truth.

LaMarre, now 36, said he was "dummy" president of the company at $50 a week. He already has pleaded guilty to perjury charges and is awaiting sentence.

Faces Other Charges

Meyers, who has been stripped of his wartime decorations, also has been indicted on charges of lying himself to the Senate investigators and on income tax fraud charges. There were some indications the perjury charges might be dropped in view of today's conviction.

The indictment charging that he committed fraud in connection with income tax was returned by a grand jury at Baltimore. Separate charges that he falsified Aviation Electric's corporate income tax returns were filed today at Dayton.

In addition, the Army has announced it may court martial the general. LaMarre has said he will sue Meyers for $10,000 he claims the general owes him, and Mrs. LaMarre has threatened a slander suit.

by Special Assistant Attorney-General Bernard Vincent.

Vincent explained that the Government would have to use as witnesses in a perjury trial the same persons indicted with Garsson at Baltimore yesterday for allegedly concealing excess war profits. Four associates in his $78,000,000 wartime munitions combine were indicted with him. Vincent also said that the Government feels the perjury charge covesr some of the same matters on which Garsson already has been convicted with former Congressman Andrew J. May (D. y.).

White Heads Delegation To World Cotton Meeting

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP).—Edwin D. White, assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, will head a United States delegation to a meeting of the International Cotton Advisory Committee at aCiro, Egypt, April 1. The State Department, in announcing this today, said the meeting will make a survey of the world cotton situation.

Advisers include Read Dunn, director of foreign trade for the National Council; Robert Bailey Elwood, assistant agricultural attache of the Embassy at Cairo, and Arthur W. Palmer and Clovis D. Walker, of the Agriculture Department. James G. Evans, of the State Department, was named adviser and secretary.

GARSSON PERJURY CHARGE DROPPED

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—The Government dropped today a perjury charge against Henry M. Garsson, munitions maker already convicted of war fraud and facing trial on another charge of conspiracy to cheat the Government out of a million dollars. Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff approved dismissal of the perjury indictment. It was asked

Daily Worker Writer Denied Palestine Trip

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The State Department has turned down an application for a passport to Palestine filed by the correspondent for the Daily Worker, a New York Communist newspaper.

Department officials said, in disclosing this today, that he was told the trip "would not serve the best interests of the United States at this time."

The applicant was identified by the Daily Worker as A. B. Magil. Officials of the State Department said his application showed he was not a regular full-time correspondent and wanted to go to Palestine to write special articles and also gather material for a book.

Because of disorders in the Holy Land, the department is discouraging trips by Americans there just now. Officials said that each application for a passport is carefully screened and considered on its individual merits.

Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, under existing laws, has authority to deny or grant passports, or to revoke them, at his discretion.

DOUBTS LEGALITY OF RED PARTY BAR

Washington, March 12 (A. P.).—The Department of Justice said today that legislation to rule the Communist party off the ballot might be unconstitutional. Peyton Ford, assistant to the Attorney-General, said that such a bill would be of "doubtful validity and enforcibility and would jeopardize the constitutional guaranties of all other political groups and parties."

The department's position was outlined in a letter to Chairman Lecompte (R.-Iowa) of the House Administration Committee. Lecompte made the letter public. His committee has held hearings on a bill by Representative William C. Cole (R.-Mo.) to forbid participation in any election to a political party which directly or indirectly:

Is affiliated with the Communist party, Communist International, or any foreign agency, party, organization or Government.

Advocates or assists the overthrow of the United States Government by force, violence, or any unlawful methods.

Carries on or encourages a program of sabotage, treason, or sedition.

Ford wrote that the main objective of the committee perhaps could be reached by amending a law against subversive activities so that any one convicted of breaking it would be barred from public office.

Red Influence In Y.W.C.A. Charged By N.Y. Group

New York, March 12 (AP)—A group of Queens civic leaders charged last night that communism existed in the Y.W.C.A. and extended to the national board of directors.

The group met in the home of Thomas J. Keane, commander of the Forest Hills American Legion. It organized, a spokesman said, "to cause reorganization of the national board and to rid the Y.W. of Communist influence which has been rampant the last 20 years."

The charges were characterized as "ridiculous and unfounded" today by Mrs. Harrison S. Elliott, executive director of the national board.

She said "the Y.W.C.A. will welcome an inquiry by a representative group."

Warning By Prosecutor

The action last night was taken despite words of caution from Edward H. Potter, assistant district attorney of Queens, and Mrs. Kenneth Ray, of Forest Hills, a member of the Y.W. national board.

Potter said he had investigated such charges and agreed that the situation existed but asserted that the problem should be "straightened out on the inside."

Mrs. Ray said: "I have often been tempted to resign but I have not given up hope that something can be done."

Spearheads of the meeting were Mrs. Earl French and Mrs. Norman H. Cain. Mrs. French resigned last October as president of the Queens Y.W.C.A., charging that communism existed in the organization.

Charges Are Repeated

Mrs. Cain resigned as chairman of the public affairs committee at the same time.

Mrs. French repeated charges she made last October that communism extended to the national board and that the official publication, Woman's Press, carried pro-Communist material.

WITH BRUSSELS (325)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE FIVE-POWER MILITARY ALLIANCE DRAFTED AT BRUSSELS TODAY WAS REPORTED HIGHLY PLEASING TO AMERICAN OFFICIALS, ALTHOUGH THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITHHELD FORMAL COMMENT FOR THE TIME BEING.

THE ORGANIZATION OF A UNION OF WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS, OF WHICH THE BRUSSELS GROUP MAY FORM A NUCLEUS, IS IN LINE WITH PRESENT AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY FOR BLOCKING THE SPREAD OF RUSSIAN POWER IN WESTERN EUROPE.

THE PLAN FOR A WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION AS FIRST SUGGESTED BY BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN WAS ENDORSED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT WEEKS AGO AND MORE RECENTLY SECRETARY MARSHALL CALLED THE PROPOSAL THIS GOVERNMENT'S "GREAT HOPE."

ONLY LAST NIGHT, MARSHALL SAID IN A SPEECH HERE THAT THE MOVEMENT FOR UNION IN WESTERN EUROPE IS "A STRONG AND PROMISING EFFORT TO FORM A POLITICAL ASSOCIATION WHICH MAY BE THE FIRST STEP TO WHAT HAS BEEN THE DREAM OF MANY GREAT MINDS TROUBLED BY THE UNCOORDINATED SITUATION."

DESPITE THE PROGRESS REGISTERED IN THE BRUSSELS MEETING IN WHICH BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXENBOURG PARTICIPATED, MANY QUESTIONS REMAINED TO BE ANSWERED.

AMONG THESE ARE:

HOW RAPIDLY CAN THE PROPOSED TREATY BE EXPANDED TO INCLUDE OTHER COUNTRIES SUCH AS ITALY, NORWAY AND SWEDEN?

WILL THE TREATY AS DRAFTED BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE GOVERNMENTS WHICH PARTICIPATED IN ITS DRAFTING? (THE BRUSSELS DRAFT HAS STILL TO BE FORMALLY APPROVED BY ALL THE GOVERNMENTS.)

HOW MUCH SUPPORT DO THE NATIONS WHICH MAY BE BOUND BY THE TREATY

EXPECT FROM THE UNITED STATES IN THE SENSE OF MILITARY BACKING?
IF THE EUROPEAN NATIONS FORMALLY REQUEST IT WILL THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AGREE TO A MILITARY ALLIANCE OR A SYSTEM OF ALLIANCES BETWEEN WESTERN EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES?

~~CAPITOL HILL COMMENT~~ INCLUDED:

SENATOR BARKLEY (D-KY): "IT IS A GREAT STEP. IT SHOWS THESE COUNTRIES ARE WILLING TO TAKE SOME OF THE RISKS THEMSELVES AGAINST THE CRAWLING OF A GIANT ACROSS THE CONTINENT."

SENATOR GURNEY (R-SDA C "IT IS A RECOGNITION OF THE SIGNING COUNTRIS OF THEIR JOINT NEEDS."

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ): "I AM TREMENDOUSLY DELIGHTED. THIS IS JUST WHAT WE ARE DRIVING AT IN THE MARSHALL PLAN."

SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA): "I DON'T THINK IT'S THE SOLUTION OF WORLD PEACE OR PROSPERITY. IF THESE COUNTRIES WANT TO TAKE THIS ACTION VOLUNTARILY, OF COURSE, THEY HAVE A PERFECT RIGHT TO DO SO. BUT THE TREATY IS REALLY AIMED AT A RESTORATION OF THE OLD BALANCE OF POWER. IT CREATES A WESTERN BLOC TO STAND AGAINST THE EAST AND THE MORE BLOCS THAT ARE CREATED, THE MORE DIFFICULT IT WILL BE TO GET THE WORLD UNDER ONE TENT FOR PEACE."

REP.LODGE (R-CONN)--THIS IS A VERY HOPEFUL INDICATION THAT THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE REALIZE THE URGENCY OF THEIR GETTING TOGETHER."

HY742PES

THE RESOLUTION URGED THAT WESTERN EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS CONVENE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AN ASSEMBLY COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES CHOSEN BY THE VARIOUS PARLIAMENTS TO WRITE SUCH A CONSTIOUTION.

AS AN IMMEDIATE ACTION IT PROPOSED THE SETTING UP OF AN EMERGENCY WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNCIL COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS TO REMAIN IN CONTINUOUS SESSION AND LAY DOWN BROAD LINES OF COMMON ACTION. ~~pod~~ Lon-Pike-Plan for a Europe ~~xxx~~ transport.

LEFT-WING LABORITES SUCH AS R.H.S.CROSSMAN AS WELL AS CONSERVATIVES WERE AMONG THE SIGNERS.

LONDON, MARCH 12-(AP)-A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION TO UNITE ALL WESTERN EUROPE WITH A COMMON CITIZENSHIP WAS SUBMITTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY.

SEVENTY-THREE MEMBERS OF FIVE POLITICAL PARTIES SIGNED THE RESOLUTION.

WINSTON CHURCHILL, WHO CALLED FOR A "UNITED STATES OF EUROPE" 18 MONTHS AGO, WAS NOT A SIGNER, BUT HE PROMISED THE GROUP HE WOULD SEEK A DAY'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE ON THEIR PLAN.

THE RESOLUTION SEEKS TO SET UP AT ONCE "A COUNCIL OF WESTERN EUROPE CONSISTING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 16 PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN AND WESTERN GERMANY, TO LAY DOWN BROAD LINES OF COMMON ACTION."

LAUNCHING INTO LONG TERM POLICY, THE RESOLUTION ASKS FOR CREATION OF "A DEMOCRATIC FEDERATION OF EUROPE, WITH A CONSTITUTION BASED ON THE PRINCIPLES OF COMMON CITIZENSHIP, POLITICAL FREEDOM AND REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING A CHARTER OF HUMAN RIGHTS."

THERE APPEARED TO BE NO IMMEDIATE SUPPORT FOR THE PLAN IN THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT. R.W.G.MACKAY, WHOSE NAME LED THE SIGNERS, SAID HOWEVER, THAT THE RESOLUTION WAS GAINING IMMENSE SUPPORT FROM BACK BENCHERS--THE ORDINARY MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.

THE $17,000,000 WHICH AMERICAN PRODUCERS CAN TAKE OUT OF BRITAIN EACH YEAR REPRESENTS ABOUT A QUARTER OF WHAT UNITED STATES FILM COMPANIES EARNED HERE IN 1946.

AMERICAN PROFITS WHICH MUST REMAIN IN THE STERLING AREA WILL BE USED PRINCIPALLY FOR FILM PRODUCTION AND STUDIO EXPANSION IN BRITAIN, THE PURCHASE OF FILM RIGHTS AND OTHER LEGITIMATE INDUSTRY EXPENDITURES, ACCORDING TO BOTH JOHNSTON AND WILSON.

OTHER USES, WILSON SAID, WILL INCLUDE INVESTMENT IN BRITISH SECURITIES, INCLUDING GOVERNMENT BONDS, AND IN A BRITISH HOTEL INDUSTRY CATERING TO DOLLAR-SPENDING AMERICAN TOURISTS.

THE EXPENDITURES WILL BE SUPERVISED BY A JOINT CONTROL COMMITTEE. TWO BRITISH GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES AND TWO FROM THE AMERICAN FILM INDUSTRY PROBABLY WILL BE INCLUDED ON THE COMMITTEE.

THE AMOUNT OF EXTRA AMERICAN EARNINGS SPENT OUTSIDE THE FILM INDUSTRY IN BRITAIN WILL BE LIMITED TO $10,000,000 DURING THE FIRST TWO YEARS. THE REMAINDER MAY BE DISPOSED OF BY AGREED TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING NO STRAIN IN BRITAIN'S FOREIGN EXCHANGE POSITION.

WILSON SAID SUCH TRANSACTIONS MAY INCLUDE CHARITABLE OR PUBLIC USES, INCLUDING THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE ARTS AND SCIENCES. COMMENTING ON THIS PHASE OF THE AGREEMENT, JOHNSTON SAID: "WE HOPE WE CAN HELP FINANCE AN ART THEATER IN LONDON, TO BE BUILT ON THE THAMES." HE EXPLAINED HE HAD IN MIND THE RESTORATION OF THE OLD GLOBE THEATER WHERE SHAKESPEARE'S PLAYS FIRST WERE PRODUCED.

LATER JOHNSTON SAID WITHOUT ELABORATION: "WE HOPE TO TAKE MOST OF

DURING THE FIRST TWO YEARS OF THE AGREEMENT, WILSON SAID, A MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF 2,500,000 (MILLION) POUNDS (ABOUT $10,000,000) OF THE STERLING EARNINGS CAN BE INVESTED IN BRITISH BUSINESS OUTSIDE THE FILM INDUSTRY. ~~aaa-Ld n Bulletin Desk)-XXX Pictures.~~

HE SUGGESTED THAT SUCH FUNDS COULD BE INVESTED IN REAL ESTATE, POSSIBLY IN THE HOTEL INDUSTRY, TO HELP THE DOLLAR-EARNING TOURIST INDUSTRY.

THE AIM OF THE AGREEMENT, WILSON SAID, IS TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT THE REVENUE OF AMERICAN MOVIES WILL NOT FURTHER DRAIN OFF BRITAIN'S DWINDLING DOLLAR RESERVES.

HOLLYWOOD BANNED THE EXPORT OF MOVIES TO BRITAIN AS ITS ANSWER TO THE BRITISH TAX, WHICH WOULD HAVE LEFT UNITED STATES FILM MAKERS WITH ONLY 25 PER CENT OF THEIR BRITISH PROFITS--PROFITS WHICH PROVIDE HOLLYWOOD'S "GRAVY" AFTER EARNINGS IN THE U.S. PAY COSTS OF PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

JOHNSTON PARTICIPATED IN THE NEWS CONFERENCE. HE REPORTED THAT BRITISH MOVIES SHOWN IN THE U.S. LAST YEAR NETTED ABOUT $4,000,000 (M)--AN AMOUNT "SEVERAL TIMES" LARGER THAN PREVIOUS YEARS' EARNINGS.

HE SAID THE AMERICAN MOVIE INDUSTRY EXPECTS BRITISH MOVIE EARNINGS IN THE U.S. TO BECOME "TWO OR THREE TIMES MORE" THAN LAST YEAR'S LEVEL.

London, March 12-(ap)-Trud, the soviet trade union newspaper, says there's something fishy about an american pump designed to unload fish.

Trud's ~~article, quoted by moscow radio, says~~ "a slick u.s. salesman" swiped the idea for the pump from "the young soviet engineer and gifted inventor, chernigin."

The russians, who previously have claimed credit for the invention of the radio, the telephone, the incandescent light and a number of other things, say the fishing pump is theirs, too.

Trud quoted the november issue of the u.s. magazine, "fishing gazette," which described a pe-i-jet pump invented by one whom trud described as "a certain mr. channel," and tested at the harris works in eastport, me.

MAR 1948

"The fishing gazette has deceived its readers since mr. channel did not invent this appliance," said Trud. "this pump, described by the magazine, had long since been invented and widely applied in the u.s.s.r."

(John V. Channel, reached in philadelphia, said the fishing gazette's story was quite correct. Channel, sales manager of the derbyshire machine and tool co. of philadelphia, ~~company~~, said his company ~~makes~~ no other pump in the world similar to the one ~~they produce~~, channel said. "We have never seen any similar pump advertised by any nation," he added. "Derbyshire machine and tool company has taken out patents on the pump. that is a matter of record.")

Trud explained it this way:

"The fishing industry in the u.s.s.r. recently has made no progress, whereas the technique of the soviet fishing industry is making rapid progress. Now it is not in america but in the soviet union one has to look for innovations.

"apparently the slick salesmen from the state of maine were aware of this when they decided to steal somebody else's inven tion. they have carried out the in intentions into practice, having thereby displayed ignorance, and to say the least, shamelessness."

Trud went on with another several hundred words.

Vienna, March 12—(ap)—Lt. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, U.S. high commissioner in Austria, said today there were signs of economic recovery in the nation resulting from Austria's own program and outside help.

MAR 1948

The Russian high commissioner, Col. Gen. [illegible]. Kurasov, replied to the American statement with a charge that U.S. aid to Austria was responsible for "the calculated worsening" of conditions for Austrian workers. Kurasov declined to elaborate on his charge.

Their statements were made [illegible] at a meeting of the Allied Council during a discussion of Austria's price and wage situation.

Today's session was the longest on record. It lasted for seven hours. However, the council agreed on only two of the seven items on its agenda.

After taking note of the food plan for the next ration period, the council found agreement only on a letter to Chancellor Leopold Figl suggesting that a general amnesty for all minor [illegible] be adopted.

RUSSIAN SENTRY (300)
WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-A RUSSIAN SENTRY SENT AN OUTLAWED "DUM DUM" BULLET SMASHING INTO THE ARM OF A FALLEN AND CLUBBED AMERICAN SOLDIER IN VIENNA SUNDAY, THE U.S. COMMANDER THERE REPORTED LAST NIGHT.
THE AMERICAN, PFC JACK GRUNDEN, WAS ATTACKED AND HURLED TO THE GROUND BY ANOTHER RUSSIAN, LT. GEN. GEOFFREY KEYES SAID, AND THEN WAS BEATEN AND SHOT WITH "A RIFLE BULLET OF THE EXPLOSIVE DUM DUM TYPE."
SUCH AMMUNITION--WHICH EXPANDS WHEN IT STRIKES--WAS OUTLAWED IN AN 1899 AGREEMENT SIGNED BY RUSSIA AND VIRTUALLY ALL OTHER MAJOR NATIONS.
THE SOVIET VERSION OF THE VIENNA SHOOTING, KEYES ADDED IN HIS REPORT TO THE ARMY, WAS "A COMPLETE DISTORTION OF THE FACTS." HE SAID A RUSSIAN PROTEST, SUBMITTED TO HIM BY A COLONEL IVANOV, GAVE THIS ACCOUNT:
"THREE DRUNK AMERICAN SOLDIERS" TRIED TO DISARM THE GUARD AT THE GRAND HOTEL--SOVIET HEADQUARTERS IN VIENNA--AND ONE OF THEM STRUCK THE RUSSIAN WITH A BOTTLE IN THE FIGHT THAT FOLLOWED. THE SOVIET SENTRY THEN SHOT THE AMERICAN IN THE ARM, IVANOV SAID.
"FIRST AID WAS RENDERED TO THE WOUNDED ONE BY THE RUSSIAN," CONTINUED THE REPORT, "AND HE WAS TURNED OVER TO THE AMERICAN ELEMENT."
BUT KEYES SAID IN HIS REPORT THAT GRUNDEN AND TWO OTHER GIS WERE ATTACKED WITHOUT REASON WHILE WALKING PAST THE HOTEL WITH THREE AUSTRIAN GIRLS.
A RUSSIAN SOLDIER INTERCEPTED THE AMERICANS AND THE GIRLS IN THE STREET, SAID KEYES, AND MADE A "FILTHY REMARK." THE RUSSIAN THEN GRABBED ONE OF THE THREE MEN. WHEN GRUNDEN INTERVENED, HE WAS THROWN TO THE GROUND.
DURING THE SCUFFLE, THE RUSSIAN SOLDIER FIRED HIS PISTOL INTO THE AIR, THE REPORT SAID. A SOVIET SENTRY POSTED ACROSS THE STREET RAN UP, FLAILED AT THE FALLEN AMERICAN WITH HIS BAYONETED RIFLE, THEN CLUBBED GRUNDEN WITH THE RIFLE BUTT AND SHOT HIM AS HE LAY ON THE GROUND.
FIRST AID WAS GIVEN BY AN UNIDENTIFIED AMERICAN DOCTOR AND AN AUSTRIAN DOCTOR. BUT, KEYES DECLARED, THE RUSSIANS GAVE THE PORTLAND, ORE., SOLDIER NO HELP DURING THE 45 MINUTES HE LAY IN FRONT OF THEIR HEADQUARTERS.
THE AMERICAN GENERAL SAID A PRELIMINARY PROTEST HAS BEEN MADE TO THE SOVIET COMMANDER IN THE AREA.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TODAY ACCUSED RUSSIA OF FOLLOWING HITLER TACTICS AND DEMANDED A UNITED NATIONS INVESTIGATION OF THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE STATEMENT WAS MADE IN A CHILEAN MOVE TO REVIVE A PREVIOUSLY PIGEON-HOLED DEMAND FROM THE CZECHOSLOVAK DEMOCRAT DELEGATE HERE FOR SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION.

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE, WHO PREVIOUSLY HAD SIDETRACKED THE REQUEST FOR ACTION FROM THE CZECHOSLOVAK DELEGATE, IMMEDIATELY AGREED TO CIRCULATE THE CHARGES TO THE COUNCIL.

UNDER NORMAL PROCEDURE, THE COUNCIL CANNOT BEGIN CONSIDERATION OF A NEW ITEM FOR THREE DAYS. WITH THE PALESTINE AND INDIA-PAKISTAN CASES ALREADY ON THE CALENDAR, THE COUNCIL WAS NOT EXPECTED TO START ON THE CZECH ISSUE BEFORE NEXT WEDNESDAY.

THE COMPLAINT BITTERLY ATTACKED RUSSIA.

NANKING, MARCH 12-(AP)-MEMBERS OF THE U.S. MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IN CHINA ARE EAGER FOR A QUICK DECISION ON THE QUESTION OF MILITARY AID TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

THEY ARE NOT IN AGREEMENT ON WHAT SHOULD BE DONE, BUT THE CONSENSUS OF THOSE WILLING TO DISCUSS THE SUBJECT IS THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD DECIDE WHAT IT INTENDS TO DO AND THEN ACT FAST.

MOST OF THE GROUP OF ABOUT 1,000 OFFICERS AND MEN ADMIT PRIVATELY THAT THEY ARE UNHAPPY ATTEMPTING TO TEACH PEACETIME ARMY ORGANIZATION TO CHINESE SOLDIERS WHOSE FULL ATTEMTION IS, OR SHOULD BE, ON FIGHTING THE COMMUNISTS.

FOR NEARLY TWO YEARS THE ADVISORY GROUP HAS OPERATED WITHIN SHARP RESTRICTIONS LIMITING IT TO CERTAIN TECHNICAL ADVICE.

THE DIRECTIVES, GENERALLY CREDITED TO SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, COMPLETELY OUTLAW ANY ADVICE ON OPERATIONS, ANY ADVICE CONNECTED WITH THE CIVIL WAR, AND THE PRESENCE OF ANY ADVISORY GROUP PERSONNEL IN AREAS OF ACTIVE HOSTILITIES.

CHINESE AID (300)

BY JOHN RODERICK

SHANGHAI, MARCH 12-(AP)-CHINA NEEDS A WILL TO FIGHT AND AN ARMY THAT CAN DO THE FIGHTING IF SHE IS TO DEFEAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THAT IS THE CONSENSUS OF NEUTRAL FOREIGNERS AND INDEPENDENT CHINESE IN COMMENT ON PROPOSALS FOR AMERICAN MILITARY AID. THIS IS HOW THEY SIZE UP THE SITUATION:

THE CHINESE, AFTER YEARS OF INVASION, INTERNAL STRIFE, HUNGER AND ECONOMIC UPHEAVAL, ARE TIRED AND DISCOURAGED. SOME CHINESE SAY THEY DON'T CARE WHO WINS; THEY JUST WANT PEACE.

CHINA'S FOOT SOLDIERS ARE AMONG THE MOST NEGLECTED IN THE WORLD. ILL FED AND POORLY CLOTHED, THEY ARE UNEDUCATED PEASANTS WHO DO NOT SEE THE LOGIC OF FIGHTING IF -- BY SURRENDER OR RETREAT -- THEY CAN LIVE ANOTHER DAY.

GIVING THEM MORE AND BETTER RIFLES AND GRENADES WILL NOT WIN BATTLES, IN THE OPINION OF NEUTRAL MILITARY MEN. THE SOLDIERS NEED, FIRST, FOOD AND CLOTHING, AND THEN TRAINING BY CAPABLE INSTRUCTORS.

AFTER THAT, THEY NEED A WILL TO FIGHT WHICH NOW IS ALMOST COMPLETELY LACKING.

ALL THIS WILL TAKE TIME AND MONEY. UNLESS THERE IS A PROGRAM TO BOLSTER BOTH THE CIVILIAN AND MILITARY ASPECTS OF THE SITUATION, AID TO CHINA WILL BE FRUITLESS.

THE CHINESE APPEAR APATHETIC TO ATTEMPTS TO DRUM UP A FIGHTING SPIRIT AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS, WHO NOW HOLD ALL OF MANCHURIA EXCEPT ITS MAJOR CITIES.

EVEN IF CIVILIAN MORALE IS RAISED, THERE WILL BE THE EQUALLY KNOTTY PROBLEM OF SHAKING UP THE ARMIES. THERE ARE MANY GENERALS WHO FAIL TO UNDERSTAND MODERN MILITARY TECHNIQUES.

IN NANKING, VICE PRESIDENT SUN FO SAID IN AN INTERVIEW HE CONSIDERED HIGH LEVEL ADVICE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF ANY U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO CHINA.

"I AM NOT MEANING TO CRITICIZE OUR MILITARY COMMANDERS, BUT IT IS A FACT MOST OF OUR GENERALS LACK MODERN TRAINING AND PRACTICE," HE SAID.

HANGING OVER THE ENTIRE MILITARY FRAMEWORK IS THE SHADOW OF A CORRUPT SYSTEM WHICH GOES BACK 100 YEARS. THIS IS THE "SQUEEZE", ANOTHER TERM FOR STEALING. IT HAS MADE MANY OF CHINA'S GENERALS RICH.

SEOUL, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION VOTED TODAY TO CONDUCT ELECTIONS IN SOUTH KOREA MAY 9 TO SET UP AN ASSEMBLY AND AN INDEPENDENT NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

THE 4 TO 2 DECISION WAS REACHED AFTER WEEKS OF CONSIDERING WHAT TO DO ABOUT THIS OCCUPIED NATION IN VIEW OF RUSSIA'S REFUSAL TO PERMIT THE COMMISSION TO ENTER NORTH KOREA FOR NATIONWIDE ELECTIONS.

FRANCE AND SYRIA ABSTAINED FROM VOTING. FAVORING THE ELECTION, IF IT CAN BE HELD IN A "FREE ATMOSPHERE," WERE INDIA, CHINA, THE PHILIPPINES AND EL SALVADOR. CANADA AND AUSTRALIA OPPOSED.

A COMMISSION SPOKESMAN SAID THAT, IN THE CLOSED DEBATE ON THE ISSUE, CANADIAN DELEGATE GEORGE PATTERSON LABELED AS "UNWISE AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL" THE RECOMMENDATION BY THE UN LITTLE ASSEMBLY THAT ELECTIONS BE HELD IN AMERICAN-OCCUPIED SOUTH KOREA.

PATTERSON ARGUED THAT THE COMMISSION WAS BOUND BY THE ORIGINAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE UN TO OBSERVE ELECTIONS THROUGHOUT KOREA. HE ADDED THAT HE WASN'T WALKING OUT ON THE COMMISSION, BUT WOULD SUSPEND PARTICIPATION IN ITS WORK PENDING INSTRUCTIONS FROM HIS GOVERNMENT.

AUSTRALIAN DELEGATE S.H.JACKSON EXPRESSED BELIEF THE ELECTION "WILL BE BOYCOTTED BY ALL PARTIES EXCEPT THE EXTREME RIGHT GROUP." H ADDED THAT THE UN LITTLE ASSEMBLY MIGHT HAVE ALTERED ITS POSITION IF THIS "RECENT VITAL DEVELOPMENT" HAD BECOME APPARENT EARLIER.

JACKSON HAD PROPOSED THAT THE COMMISSION WITHDRAW AFTER RECOMMENDING THAT U.S. OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES CONDUCT AN ELECTION, AND THEN RETURN TO RE-EXAMINE THE SITUATION. FRANCE ALSO PROPOSED THAT THE COMMISSION EXPRESS ITS CONFIDENCE IN THE AMERICAN COMMAND BY RECOMMENDING SUCH AN ELECTION.

BATAVIA, JAVA, MARCH 12-(AP)-TALKS OPENED TODAY BETWEEN GOV.H.J. VAN MOOK OF THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES INTERIM GOVERNMENT AND PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

THE TWO REPRESENTATIVES ARE TO DISCUSS POSSIBLE PARTICIPATION OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC IN THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT. THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT WAS INSTALLED LAST TUESDAY.

THE DUTCH AND INDONESIAN REPUBLIC CLASHED LAST SUMMER AND LATER SIGNED A TRUCE. THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC HAS AT LEAST ONCE TERMED THE INTERIM SET-UP NOTHING MORE THAN THE OLD N.E.I. GOVERNMENT. ITS REPRESENTATIVES HAVE INDICATED A WILLINGNESS TO ENTER THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT, BUT THE DUTCH WANT THEIR DIFFERENCES SETTLED FIRST BY THE UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMISSION.

TODAY THE DUTCH SAID OFFICIALLY THEY CONSIDERED THE WORDS "INTERIM" AND "PROVISIONAL" TO MEAN THE SAME. AN ANNOUNCEMENT SAID BOTH WORDS INDICATE THE TEMPORARY NATURE OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THIS LED SOME OBSERVERS TO BELIEVE THE DUTCH MAY BE MARKING TIME UNTIL THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC PARTICIPATES BEFORE ESTABLISHING AN ACTUAL INTERIM GOVERNMENT. SUCH A GOVERNMENT WOULD SERVE UNTIL FORMATION OF THE U.S.I., ABOUT THE FIRST OF THE YEAR.

NEW YORK, MARCH 12-(AP)-HENRY WALLACE SAID TONIGHT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT THAT HE DID NOT WANT COMMUNISTS IN THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT COULD BE INTERPRETED AS A "DECLARATION OF WAR ON THE SOVIET UNION."

MR.TRUMAN SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT IN HIS VIEW BROADENING OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENTS DID NOT MEAN INCLUDING COMMUNISTS, AND THAT WE DO NOT WANT A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT IN CHINA OR ANYWHERE ELSE IF WE CAN HELP IT.

"THE BROADEST AND NOT UNWARRANTED INTERPRETATION OF THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT," WALLACE SAID IN A PREPARED STATEMENT, "IS THAT IT IS A DECLARATION OF WAR ON THE SOVIET UNION AND THAT WE HOPE FOR AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXCLUDE COMMUNISTS FROM THAT GOVERNMENT.

ISSUING THE STATEMENT ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE PROCLAMATION OF THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE, WALLACE SAID EVENTS HAD CONFIRMED HIS PREDICTION A YEAR AGO THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS "ACTING AS THE BEST SALESMAN COMMUNISM EVER HAD."

"WHAT HAS HAPPENED IN THAT YEAR IN GREECE AS A RESULT OF OUR UNILATERAL INTERVENTION?" HE ASKED AND THEN DECLARED:

DRIVE PUSHED ON COMMUNISM

Labor Government Determined To Avoid Any London Coup

London, March 13 (AP)—Britai 's Leftist Labor Government is determined that a Communist coup shall not happen here.

So bitter has become the anti-Communist campaign led by party and Government officials that newspapers, politicians and other observers are speculating that the next move may be a purge" to clear Socialist ranks of fellow travelers and Communist apologists.

The campaign has taken on a new urgency with the fall of Czechoslovakia.

It by no means indicates any surrender of socialism's Leftist ideas, but it makes it increasingly clear communism and socialism cannot live together in Britain.

Morrison Warns People

The coup in Prague was, perhaps, the severest shock the Communists have given the Labor Government.

Many British labor leaders regarded Czechoslovakia a progressive model of Socialist democracy.

Herbert Morrison, Deputy Prime Minister, emphasized the increased campaign against communism tonight in a prepared speech warning the British people they are facing "the same sort of nightmare of aggression we thought we had banished by disposing of Hitler."

Addressing a meeting of the British Jewelers Association at Birmingham, he said:

"If we demonstrate a working model of a healthy democracy based on a healthy economics, social and political system, the overwhelming majority of mankind will do their utmost to imitate us and to follow our lead."

A Tribute To Masaryk

Then pointedly in a tribute to Jan Masaryk, Czechoslovakia's late Foreign Minister, Morrison added:

"His death strips away forever the pretense that what is going on in Czechoslovakia is anything other than the trampling underfoot of democracy."

At the time the Communists took over in Prague, Morrison said:

"The lesson for us is to prevent our trade-unions being captured by anti-democratic conspirators who would use industrial power to undermine the democratic state."

Hinting at the possibility of a purge the Labor party executive said, "Czechoslovakia is an acid test of sincerity. Those who seek to condone this crime show that they are false to the principle of democratic socialism for which the Labor party stands."

Two Avowed Communists

In Parliament, the campaign against communism already has been effective, splitting a half dozen or so fellow travelers from the heretofore influential "keep Left" group of Socialist M.P.'s.

Of the 640 members of the House of Commons, only two are avowed Communists.

The "keep Left" group, led by the Labor party's youthful Progressive wing, has commanded from 75 to 100 votes on important issues and, with the help of economic necessity, has pressed successfully for the reduction of Britain's armed forces.

Another part of the anti-Communist campaign, the London press reported today, was the dismissal of three Italian members of the British Broadcasting Corporation's European service.

U.S. MILITARY SUPPORT EYED

New Alliance May Seek Guarantee In Case Of Fight

London, March 13 (AP)—Europe's newly created western alliance may soon seek firm guarantees of United States military support in the event it is called upon to fight in self defense, it was reported today.

Responsible diplomatic officials said the five countries in the pact—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—agreed at Brussels upon collective security action against any aggressor only after they had threshed out among themselves the possible American position.

From the same sources came information that the five delegations concurred in the belief the United States diplomatic policy, regardless of party, is now committed to active participation in European affairs.

A Tentative Plan

The five delegations completed the pact at Brussels yesterday. It is to be signed by the five foreign ministers Wednesday.

The diplomats in the negotiations at Brussels were reported to want more than assurance of American interest in European affairs. They want assurance that the United States will step in swiftly and forcibly if trouble comes.

Their reported attitude is that such an on-the-record assurance would be a powerful deterrent to any aggressor.

Out of this exchange of views, diplomats said, was born a tentative plan to press the United States for a definite commitment.

Would Create Grave Problem

Such action would present the United States Congress with a grave problem. It would ask an extension of a policy under which the United States already has:

1. Used dollars to block the spread of communism in Greece and Turkey.

2. Developed close military cooperation with Britain through the war-created combined chiefs of staff.

3. Built up its own Western Hemisphere defense pact calling for military co-operation.

The Brussels Conference alliance underscored growing reluctance to rely upon the United Nations, still without a police force, for security although the pact is in the form of a regional association under the United Nations.

Johnston Says Hollywood May Not Like Film Pact

SOUTHAMPTON, England, March 13 (AP).—Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, said today that "there may be some opposition from Hollywood" to the new agreement for displaying American pictures in Britain.

Mr. Johnston, who negotiated the agreement with the British government, said "I understand Hollywood does not like it too well—they would like more financially."

He did not elaborate. His comment was made to British reporters whom he met just before he left for the United States on the Queen Mary.

Air Chief Asks R. A. F. To Keep War-Time Skill

ABINGDON, England, March 13 (AP).—Arthur Henderson, British Air Secretary, warned the Royal Air Force today to maintain "war-time efficiency" because of the "grim international situation." Addressing crews of four R. A. F. squadrons, he said: "You know as well as I do that the international situation is extremely grim."

"I am not going to tell you war is inevitable, because I don't believe it is," he said, but you have seen what has happened in Czechoslovakia and what is about to happen in Finland, and we have to take the nternational situation into consideration in going about our work."

Therefore, he said, it is "very important that we should maintain the war-time efficiency of the R. A. F."

U.S. To Continue Decartelization

Berlin, March 13 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, said today there has been no change in the American policy to break up great concentrations of economic power in Germany.

Clay issued a statement after it had been reported that the decartelization branch of military government would in the future bring no action against combines in heavy industry. These reports, Clay said, were incorrect.

He pointed out that decartelization measures already have been approved for I. G. Farben and for coal-distribution companies. Another decartelization directive will be issued shortly for the Bosch Electrical Equipment Company, he said.

Determined On Merits

"There is no intention nor have there been any instructions to stop deconcentration of economic power measures," Clay said.

"However, Mr. Bronson (Richard Bronson, head of the decartelization branch) has been advised that no rule of thumb is applicable to all industries and that the extent of deconcentration of any enterprise will be determined separately on the merits of the case, all factors being considered.

"This will not stop the examination of each enterprise falling under the law. There is no change in policy involved."

Under military government directives, every enterprise employing more than 10,000 persons is subject to deconcentration. There have been differences of opinion in the decartelization branch over the extent of decartelization to be undertaken.

U.S. Worsens Austria Plight, Russ Charge

Vienna, March 13 (AP)—The Allied Control Council ran up its longest meeting on record—seven hours—in a dispute over Austria's price and wage situation.

Col. Gen. L. V. Kurrsaov, Soviet high commissioner, said in the session yesterday United States aid had brought "calculated worsening" of the Austrian worker's plight.

Lieut. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, United States high commissioner, said on the other hand Austria's own efforts and outside help had resulted in signs of economic recovery.

The Council agreed on only two of seven subject taken up. One was a suggestion that the Austrian Government grant a general pardon to little Nazis.

De Gasperi Pledges Italy To Cause G. I.'s Died For

ROME, March 13 (AP).—Premier Alcide de Gasperi, in honoring American war dead, said tonight, "We will not desert the cause of liberty and peace for which they made the supreme sacrifice."

The Premier sent a message to American Ambassador James C. Dunn in connection with a memorial service tomorrow at Nettuno Cemetery. The service will mark the beginning of the return of more than 20,000 American soldiers buried in Italy.

Mr. De Gasperi's message said, "On this solemn occasion we address thought and gratitude and fraternity toward those who fell gloriously on Italian soil at the side of our soldiers. We will not desert the cause of liberty and peace for which they made the supreme sacrifice."

Nettuno, twenty miles southwest of Rome, was the scene of some of the hardest fighting in the Italian campaign. It was there that some 40,000 American and British troops stormed ashore Jan. 22, 1944, to form the Anzio beachhead.

POLITICAL UNITS BATTLE IN ITALY

Rome, March 13 (A. P.).—Violence is marring Italy's uneasy political truce before the April 18 parliamentary election. Parties have agreed not to disturb one another's meetings.

But yesterday police arrested a Communist chief and three aids in Troia, southeast of Foggia, and accused the men of trying to break up a rally of the Rightist Bloc.

At Pistoia, north of Rome, five persons were called to trial on charges of causing a disturbance at a political meeting. Ten other persons have been accused of preventing Giuseppe Saragat, anti-Communist Socialist, from speaking there last week.

At Vigevano, southwest of Milan in northern Italy, three bombs were thrown into the print shop of Angelo Crespi, local leader of the Government Christian Democratic party. Damage was extensive but no one was reported injured.

Anti-Communists won by minor margins in the election of labor committees in central Italy and the island of Sardinia. At Cagliari, Sardinian seaport, workers cast 326 votes for Christian Democratic leaders, 247 were Communists. Reports from Assisi, southwest of Perugia, said an anti-Communist majority was elected in the City Chamber of Labor.

Benes Weeps At Funeral In Prague Museum

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 13 (AP)—Jan Masaryk was lowered into his grave at the side of his father tonight after a day of tense national emotions.

President Eduard Benes made his first public appearance since communism leaped to power in Czechoslovakia, and openly shed the tears which marked the peoples' grief at the passing of the second Masaryk and the beginning of a new period of their history.

Both the elder, Thomas G. Masaryk, liberator of his country at the end of World War I, and the younger, Jan, whose broadcasts from exile heralded the second liberation in 1945, slept tonight in the little country cemetery at Lany, 30 miles north of here.

Funeral At Museum

The Foreign Minister, who the Government says leaped to his death on Wednesday, a suicide, was borne to his grave from a great state funeral in the vaulted Pantheon of the National Museum where bitter words were pronounced over the coffin by Communist Premier Klement Gottwald.

"I can prove," said Gottwald to the huge outpouring of peole that filled the black-draped chamber and overflowed to the farthest end of the great public square, "that Jan Masaryk clearly and without compromise agreed with the action program of the new Government within his sphere of influence."

"This was an unforgivable sin in the eyes of the enemy of the republic," said Gottwald who then repeated the Government's contention that attacks on Masaryk in the western press goaded him to suicide.

At the graveside, Vlado Clementis, Communist Acting Foreign Minister, paid high tribute to Masaryk.

"It was difficult to be patriot and world citizen in one person. Jan Masaryk was that person," he declared.

A brief religious service of the Bohemian Brotherhood was said by the Rev. Frantisek Urbanek, and then the casket was lowered into its grave as a woodsman's horn sounded the national anthem.

But it was President Benes who paid the greatest, though silent, tribute.

The President and his wife took their place in the great hall, thronged by diplomats and Government officials, only minutes before the ceremonies began at 2 P.M.

Children's Choir Sings

At first he was composed, though grim. He sat with head down, the fur collar of his coat high about his features.

But when the lights went down and a children's choir began singing the favorite folk song of the elder Masaryk, memories came with an overpowering rush, and the president broke into tears.

He mopped his face with a handkerchief and later rubbed his eyes with his hand.

The song was "Plough Your Land, My Son," and was sung at the funeral of Thomas G. Masaryk who died on Jan's birthday, September 14, 1937.

The President showed his first stir of emotion when Frantisek Janda, an old friend and a Czech legionary of World War I, paid a moving tribute to the dead Foreign Minister as Czechoslovakia's inspiration during the years of the German occupation when he broadcast hope from London.

Also Praises Benes

"We thank you for your faith, for your superhuman effort in fighting for freedom," he said.

Janda went on and added his praise of the elder Masaryk and of Benes, the two main collaborator's at the birth of the Czechoslovak nation. It was the only mention of Benes throughout the state ceremony.

If the President had a special insight into the reasons for Masaryk's death he gave no sign when Gottwald scathingly denounced the western press and attributed to it the blame for the tragedy.

It was on Tuesday, the day before the death, that Masaryk and Benes talked for an hour as old friends. It was the first time they had seen each other since the Communist-controlled Government took over. Masaryk was only a year younger than the 63-year-old Benes, yet Masaryk always seemed a young man, Benes old.

Gottwald Extends Hand

When the ceremonies were over, the President and Mrs. Benes moved across the aisle and both kissed Alice Garrigue Masaryk, sister of the dead Foreign Minister; Mrs. Herbert Masaryk, widow of his elder brother, and the two daughters of Herbert.

Then with searching glance, the President turned about facing Gottwald. Gottwald advanced, hesitatingly thrust out his hand. The President took it briefly. He turned to the speaker of Parliament, Josef David, chief of the Czech Legionaires and a long-time friend, and gripped his hand.

The president only glanced at the Cabinet members who sat in a block on the left side of the wall. He turned his back, and then he marched to the other side of the section, bowing and receiving the bows of the diplomats.

Lashed To Gun Carriage

Behind the Cabinet sat the motionless figure of Archbishop Josef Beran of Prague, the Catholic prelate. Masaryk was a Protestant.

The casket was carried out and lashed to a gun carriage.

A cavalry troop mounted on black horses served as honor guard as units of the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts and Sokol gymnastic groups with their feather caps and black boots swung off at the head of the procession to the Foreign Ministry on Hradcany hill.

The weeping throngs, which had been arriving since dawn by every bus and other conveyance, jammed the sidewalks, filled every window along the route of march.

It was a silent assemblage except for an occasional sob and the fall of flowers tossed at the cortege.

The band at the head was muted.

From the Foreign Ministry, the body was borne the 30 miles to Lany. There mourners had assembled far and wide from the villages of Bohemia and Moravia to make a final show of devotion to the man of whom Clementis said:

"He loved the people and believed in them. Sometimes he trusted them too much. He talked about things many people hide in the corners of their minds. He talked about things that were the fruit of moods. But he stood up for all he preached, openly and frankly."

The resting place is at the right of old Masaryk's grave, in a corner overlooking the Bohemian fields.

Prague, March 13 (AP)—Jan Masaryk was carried to a grave in his native Bohemia at dusk today after a state funeral that brought tears welling to the eyes of President Eduard Benes.

Hundreds of thousands of mournersthronged Prague for the funeral rites. Those who could crowd into the pantheon of the National Museum heard Communist Premier Klement Gottwald eulogize Masaryk as a victim of Western reaction. Some saw the saddened President give way to his emotion in his first public appearance since the GMovernment crisis began February 21.

Then the body of the Foreign Miinster was borne back to Czernin Palace, where the Government announced Wednesday he had died a suicide. The body was taken from there to Lany, 30 miles north of Prague, for the burial.

Near Father And Mother

The grave was near those of his father, Thomas G. Masaryk, founder of the republic, and his American mother.

Every house in Lany displayed a photograph of Jan Masaryk, banded with black.

Busloads of people poured in from as far away as Moravia. From the north of Bohemia, particularl the huge Kladno mining district country folk streamed into th village.

The Rev. Frantisek Urbanek, who had read the service for Masaryk's parents, was designated to conduct passage of "From My Life," by the Czech composer, Smetana.

The Pantheon was crowded. Outside hundreds of thousands gathered to pay their tribute. Many bore flowers to hurl at the cortege.

Benes kept his head bowed while Gottwald spoke the funeral oration. He showed no emotion when Gottwald called press attacks in the Western nations the reasons for a nervous illness which brought Masaryk's death.

Praised By Veteran

The President first showed his feelings when Frantisek Janda, 73, a Czech Legionnaire who fought for independence three decades ago, paid tribute to Jan Masaryk and then added his praise of Thomas Masaryk and Benes. The President hastily wiped his eyes. It was the only time the name of Benes was mentioned in the great hall, which is filled with statues and busts of Czech heroes.

When the formal ceremonies ended, President and Mrs. Benes moved across the aisle from the center section where they were seated. They kissed Alice Garrigue Masaryk, sister of the dead Foreign Minister. Then they embraced Mrs. Herbert Masaryk, widow of Masaryk's elder brother Herbert, and solemnly greeted two of Masaryk's nieces.

The family, garbed in black, had occupied seats in the front row, ahead of the British, French, American and Chinese Ambassadors, the Canadian chargé d'affaires and other dignitaries.

Shake Hands Briefly

Premier Gottwald hesitantly approached the President and extended a hand. The President took it for a brief handshake. Then he turned quickly to the Speaker of Parliament, Josef David, head of the Czech Legionnaries, and gripped his hand firmly.

Gottwald's oration was bitter against the West.

"I can prove that Jan Masaryk clearly and without compromise agreed with the action program of the new Government and already started to fulfill this program within his sphere of influence," Gottwald said. "I can prove that Masaryk, who decided to go with the people when he stood on the crossroads of our nation's fate, meant what he said."

Benes Greets Diplomats

Before he left the Pantheon, President Benes glanced briefly at the Communist-dominated Cabinet, where members sat together on the left side of the hall. Then Benes strode around to the other side of his own section and received the diplomat's greetings.

Behind the Cabinet sat Msgr. Josef Beran, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Prague. Masaryk was a Protestant.

When the President left the hall soldiers began to remove the great wreaths banked against the bier and along the stairways and entrances. The coffin was carried out and lashed to an artillery piece.

The multitude looked on in silence as the coffin was borne down the steps to the sidewalks of the public square.

Parade Through Streets

A cavalry troop mounted on black horses waited at attention. Helmeted soldiers stood at salute.

Units of the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts and the Sokols swung down the square toward Czernin Palace for the next stage of the state funeral.

Entire City Hushed

Every window of every building along the route of march to Czernin Palace was filled.

For all the vast throng, there was an almost unbelievable hush, broken only by occasional sobs and the muted music of the military band which marched slowly ahead of the caisson.

The helmeted soldiers held their rifle barrels lowered. Marchers in native garb trudged behind the soldiers. They halted once at the National Theater for funeral music before starting up the hill to the Foreign Ministry palace.

First Appearance In Month

It was Benes's first public appearance since the Government crisis began in Czechoslovakia February 21.

Dr. Benes reached the pantheon of the National Museum a few seconds before the funeral began. From early morning, thousands of persons had gathered around the National Museum and Parliament and had crowded the side streets of Prague's central square. Yesterday more than 250,000 persons filed past Masaryk's bier.

Hundreds of thousands of people were gathered under leaden skies for the state and military rites arranged by the Communist Government. From early morning, they trudged toward the National Museum—clerks, shopkeepers, merchants, laborers, horny-handed peasants from the country.

They bought out the flower shops

Masaryk Rites Held; Gottwald Blames West For Death

for blossoms to throw at the caisson bearing Masaryk's body from the Foregin Office. They piled wreaths at the bier. They snapped up memorial photographs and memorial stamps.

Communists Resented

"Look at them," said one woman in the crowd, pointing to the Communists. "They do not even have enough decency to stay at home, those hypocrites. They have come to sneer at their victims."

Thirty miles away at Lany, a fresh grave was dug beside the simple resting place of Masaryk's father, Thomas G. Masaryk, first President of this Republic.

The procession route was down a slope from the National Museum through Vaclavske Namesti and the Street of October 28, and thence through Narodni Trida (National street). At the National Theater, an orchestra waited to play hymns.

The route then wound across the Bridge of Legionaries, through the Street of the Carmelites to Hradcany Square, before the Presidential Palace, thence past the Loretto Church to Czernin Palace, the Foreign Office, where Masaryk died.

Members of the family and Government officials gathered at Czernin Palace to see the body transferred from the gun caisson to a hearse for the 30-mile trip to Lany and the family burial plot. Crowds lined the route.

Belgrade Officials Reported Jailed

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 13 (AP)—A group of erstwhile officials in Premier Marshal Tito's Communist state face charges of collaborating with the British. It was reported last night that they have been arrested.

If they are tried, it will be the first time Communists have been taken to court since Tito became Premier.

A Government informant said the arrests were not a purge of "diversionists" (party members who have fallen into bourgeois ways).

Agreed To Save Selves

This is the story the official told:

Nearly all arrested were prisoners together at Dachau, Germany, during the war. There they signed an agreement with the Nazis to be spies for them in Yugoslavia, "to save their skins."

They returned to Yugoslavia and became members of the Communist party.

The British learned of the pact and found the papers. Later they used them to blackmail the officials into giving them important economic information. The men had been close together since their return from Germany and had become known as the "Dachau group."

Interested In Trade

The Government informant said that among them are three important assistants who worked in the office of Boris Kidrich, now head of the National Planning Commission, when he was Minister of Foreign Trade.

The informant did not know how many officials were arrested, but he said they are all Slovenians and most were officials in the Slovenian State Government.

[La Voce Libera, Trieste newspaper, on January 21 quoted Tito as saying that hundreds of thousands who "live in our midst spy on us and inform London and Washington . . . that the Yugoslav people are not on our side. . . ."]

Finn-Soviet Talks To Start March 22

HELSINKI, Finland, March 13 (AP). — Finland's delegation will leave for Moscow next Saturday to begin negotiations with Russia for a friendship pact, Prime Minister Mauno Pekkala announced tonight. Negotiations will begin March 22.

Pekkala made the announcement in a 15-minute radio address following a session of the Finnish cabinet and the seven-man delegation.

He promised the nation that President Juho K. Paasikivi and the government would act according to the constitution, adding that a new treaty with Russia did not mean a change in Finland's internal affairs or her other international relations.

'Cinderella' Survives Critique Of Prokofieff

Moscow, March 13 (AP)—Sergei Prokofieff's ballet "Zolushka," or "Cinderella," is being performed in Moscow's Bolshoi Theater despite recent Communist party criticism of the composer.

Prokofieff and certain other Russian composers recently were criticized severely by the party for following a Western formalist trend in their music.

Despite this criticism, the capital's outstanding ballet theater is keeping Prokofieff's ballet in its repertory.

Soviet Charges French Annex Reich City

Moscow, March 13 (AP)—Tass, Soviet news agency, said today the French have annexed illegally the German city of Kehl, across the Rhine River from Strasbourg in eastern France.

The Tass dispatch from Berlin was printed in Trud, Russian trade-union newspaper, and Izvestia, Soviet Government newspaper. Tass said:

"According to information received from the French zone, immediately following the beginning of the occupation French military authorities arbitrarily united to French territory the German city of Kehl, largest river port south of Baden in the territory of the French zone of Germany, declaring it a suburb of Strasbourg."

Says Germans Are Ousted

Tass claimed the city had been "purged" of its German population and resettled with French.

"As a result of these actions a large number of inhabitants of the city are without shelter," the Tass dispatch said.

Tass said the French annexation of Kehl arose from the fact that during the German occupation of France the Strasbourg gauleiter decreed administrative jurisdiction over Kehl.

The local newspapers, the agency said, have been forbidden to mention the annexation.

Kehl Not Seized, Just Resettled, Paris Says

Paris, March 13 (AP)—A Foreign Ministry spokesman denied today the French have annexed Kehl, German Rhine city. But he conceded it is "almost entirely inhabited" by French families from Strasbourg across the river.

Kehl, in the French zone of occupation of Germany, is administered by the Strasbourg municipality, he said.

The French explanation was that the Nazis evacuated Kehl during the fighting, after which many French families moved across the river looking for homes to replace those destroyed in Strasbourg.

The German inhabitants of Kehl have not been permitted to return, the spokesman said, for "there is no room for them at the present time."

He said, though, the situation is temporary and does not constitute annexation as reported by Tass, Russian news agency.

M'Arthur Called Anti-Soviet Man

MOSCOW, March 13 (AP).—Tass, the Soviet news agency, said today Gen. Douglas MacArthur is being put forward in the United States as the man who "better than any other," would be able to conduct an all-out, anti-Soviet campaign.

In a dispatch from New York commenting on General MacArthur's announcement he would accept the Republican presidential nomination, Tass said anti-Sovietism would be a keynote in his campaign.

Tass added "enthusiasm for MacArthur" is particularly absent among veterans who served under him. (AP)

Greek Guerillas Kidnap All in Village of 300

ATHENS, March 13 (AP).—A press dispatch said today that raiding guerillas had abducted more than 300 persons comprising the entire population of the village of Germanos.

When Greek soldiers reached the deserted town, the account said, they found the doors of the houses open. Tables in some of the houses contained food which apparently had not been touched.

Germanos is situated at the foot of the Kitheron Mountains, 35 miles northwest of Athens. A general staff communique said five guerillas were killed in fighting near Germanos.

ATTACK CHARGED TO ALBANIA

The same bulletin also stated an Albanian patrol in Albania had fired on Greek soldiers who were near the border. There were no casualties.

Greek troops and Communist-led guerillas have engaged in bitter fighting for the past few weeks in that portion of northwestern Greece near the Albanian frontier. Dispatches said the bodies of 119 guerillas had been found from Feb. 24 to March 4.

A press report from Kastoria, quoting army authorities, said a point had been found in the region of Presbisko Jezero (Lake Prespa) where the guerillas had been building an airstrip. The lake borders Greece, Albania and Yugoslavia.

7 GUERILLAS KILLED

The communique told of an attack on an insurgent force moving south from Beles Mountain on the Bulgarian border to the Kroussia Mountains. Seven of the guerillas were killed and eight surrendered.

Two small insurgent groups attacked the naval radio station and the gendarmerie station in Salonika during the night, it was officially announced. Both groups used bazookas. One gendarme was wounded.

Gen. Alexander Assimacopoulos, newly appointed commander of the Greek 7th Division, was killed this morning near Phylacto in western Thrace when his car hit a mine. He had been inspecting army units near the Turkish border.

35 Arrested In Athens

Between 35 and 40 persons were arrested in Athens' fashionable Kolonaki district on charges of having connections with Communists.

The court-martial of seven Greek officers and 24 enlisted men began. The defendants are accused of spying and inciting revolution.

Two persons were executed this morning. One was an Armenian convicted of espionage and the other was a Greek sentenced by the Kastoria court.

Arms Delivery Being Speeded, Greeks Told

Athens, March 13 (AP)—Maj. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, military chief in the American Mission to Aid Greece, said today AMAG is speeding up arms deliveries to the Greeks.

He announced the arrival of 35,000 latest-type British rifles supplied by the mission. He said heavy Vickers machine guns and Bren sub-machine guns are expected from England soon and delivery has been hastened on American 75-millimeter pack howitzers.

A press report today from Kastoria said the guerrillas had been building an airstrip in the region of Presbisko Jezero (Lake Prespa). The lake borders Greece, Albania and Yugoslavia.

At Kastoria last night, Greek officers reported a battle 12 miles northeast of there with 800 guerrillas seeking to cut off the town. The brigade commander estimated the total guerrilla force in the region at 40,000 men and reported they were getting arms by motor boat from Yugoslavia, across the lake.

4,000 Children "Abducted"

Another press report from Kastoria today said more than 4,000 children in the Presbisko Jezero region have been carried into Albania and Yugoslavia.

The Ministry of Public Order announced the arrest of fourteen Communists aboard a sailboat on which it said they were trying to flee Piraeus, Athens' port. One was Emana Englesos, former executive of the banned Athens Communist newspaper Rizospastis.

Ten other persons were arrested also, the ministry said, on charges of aiding the attempted flight. A harbor petty officer was taken into custody for approving the vessel's sailing.

National Guard Criticized

The independent Kathimerini said this morning several retired officers and Government officials have voiced dissatisfaction with the National Guard.

The article suggested that the guardsmen be replaced by young regular soldiers. The guard is used in defense of towns and villages.

A General Staff officer later denied the guardsmen were unsatisfactory and ordered other newspapers not to reprint or comment on the report.

The editor of the leftist Mahi, arrested nearly three weeks ago, has been released. He was arrested on charges of printing an article criticizing recent executions.

Greek General Killed By Road Mine

Athens, March 13 (A. P.).—Gen. Alexander Assimacopoulos was killed today in western Thrace, northeast of Alexandroupolis, when his car struck a mine. Assimacopoulos, newly appointed commander of the Greek Seventh Division, was inspecting units near the Graeco-Turkish border.

railway unit. A contribution figured at about $22,000 was reported by another group in response to an appeal to meet the "menace of American bayonets" in Greece.

LIMITED OFFENSIVE

The well-advertised Greek army offensive meanwhile appears to have limited aims. Officials in close touch with Greek affairs say there is little likelihood it will be able to seal off the nothern frontier effectively.

The hope is to cut up the guerillas into small bands and so harass them they can no longer carry out mass recruiting in Greek villages at the point of the bayonet.

In the offensive, American Army officers will advise Greek tactical units for the first time. Their reports are expected to give the answer to the question whether the Greek army—with American arms, supplies and advice—can deal successfully with the guerillas and restore order in Greece.

AMASSING DATA

If the answer is "no," there will be at least a mass of new concrete ing was reported in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv area.

Two thundering blasts, almost as heavy as the explosions which smashed the Jewish Agency building on Thursday, shook the Katamon district of the Holy City. Heavy clouds of smoke were seen.

The Government said the explosions were touched off by Jewish squads which penetrated Katamon from the Rehavia quarter. One apartment building was destroyed and a second was damaged, the Government said. Five lesser explosions also were heard.

Night Fighting

Intensive gunfire was heard following the explosions resulting in one of the heaviest nights of fighting in Jerusalem in recent weeks. Near midnight the firing appeared to be dwindling out.

While the battle was at its height, the Government reported another borderline battle had broken out in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv area. Units of Haganah, the Jewish defense army, were reported to have launched an attack from Tel Aviv at several points along Jaffa's outskirts, particularly in the Abu Kebir district.

A dispatch from Tel Aviv said Haganah units were on the offensive for three hours, firing mortars and automatic weapons in the Abu Kebir region. Haganah reportedly was trying to disclose Arab bands which were said to have taken over the village for use as a base for attacks against southern Tel Aviv.

Evacuations Ordered

Early in the afternoon Haganah ordered all Jews living in the area of Tel Aviv which adjoins Abu Kebir to evacuate their homes and leave their windows open.

One Jew was reported killed in this battle bringing the death toll to 1,703 since partition was voted by the United Nations.

During the fighting in Jerusalem tracer bullets were seen coming from the wall of the old city near the Jaffa Gate. They were fired toward the Jewish Montefiore quarter. Other tracers were seen coming from Montefiore and traveling in the direction of the old city and Katamon.

British soldiers guarding a roadblock said mortars were fired at Katamon from the Montefiore region.

Battle Of Settlements

Elsewhere in the troubled Holy Land the fight was developing into a battle of settlements in which six raids in two days had cost upward of 50 casualties.

The heaviest attack in the new pattern came at dawn today when Haganah, the Jewish militia, raided the Arab village of Al Hussena on the southern tip of Lake Hula just 5 miles from the Syrian border.

Police said seventeen Arabs were killed and twenty wounded. The remainder of the population evacuated the village.

An official source said police and British military units found a number of grenades and one rucksack filled with explosives when they arrived on the scene after the attack. Authorities clamped a two-day road curfew on the entire area.

A few hours later another Haganah striking force hit the Arab village of Ghubayas el Taha in the Haifa district. Police had no complete account of the fighting, but preliminary reports said at least two Arabs and one Jew were wounded.

The settlement attacks began to take form yesterday when 200 Jews struck one village and Arabs raided three others scattered all the way from the Sea of Galilee to the southern tip of the Dead Sea.

Jerusalem Fighting

Fighting also flared this evening along Jerusalem's barbed-wire-tangled Jewish-Arab boundaries. The Arab Sheik Jarrah quarter and the Jewish Meakor Haim district were under intermittent mortar fire. Grenade explosions and Sten gun fire also were heard from virtually deserted Katamon, the fashionable district that has become a no-man's land.

Heavy firing also broke out several times in Jerusalem's old walled city. One Arab was killed and at least three were wounded there, according to Arab sources inside the walls.

north of Nazareth, last night. It is in this area that Arab leader Fawzi Bey Al Kaukji has proclaimed martial law.

According to the police report, three Arabs were wounded. Arabs said they inflicted 25 casualties on the Jews and drove them off.

Al Kaukji, who claims a volunteer army of 15,000 men, recently established headquarters in northern Palestine. This week he declared the region under martial law.

In other Holy Land fighting, two Jews yesterday were reported killed and another hurt when Arabs attacked a small Jewish settlement at the southern end of the Dead Sea.

Unofficial records show 1,675 persons have been killed in Palestine violence since the United Nations voted partition November 29.

Peiping, March 13 (A. P.).—The United States Consul-General in Tientsin appealed by radio to the Communists today to arrange for the withdrawal of twelve Catholic nuns believed held by the Reds ninety miles southwest of Tientsin.

The twelve are reported held at Hsienhsien. Registration records show there are five American, five Canadian and two English nuns there.

PEIPING, March 13 (AP)—Shouting "Banzai," Kekyo Shiratori was executed by a firing squad today for war crimes committed as manager of the nearby Mentoukou coal mines.

Reds Bolstering Rebels To Meet Greek Drive

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP).—American officials are convinced the Soviet Balkan bloc is getting ready to meet the Greek army's spring offensive with stronger backing of the guerillas.

Their belief is based on two developments:

1. New arms already are beginning to show up from across the northern frontier to offset the effect of American military aid to Greece.

2. Official reports tell of an intensified campaign in Communist-dominated Yugoslavia, Rumania and Bulgaria to raise funds for the Greek rebels.

ORGANIZE SUPPORT

These three countries, along with Albania, are sticking to their denials to the United Nations that they are giving formal backing to the guerillas. But the hat-passing has open official sanction.

In Bulgaria, the wife of Prime Minister Georgie Dimitrov heads an organization to support the Greek guerilla forces.

In Rumania, reports to the State Department say, members of some Communist labor organizations have been called on to give ten percent of their pay. The controlled press in Bucharest announced one gift of $27,480 by members of a single information for the United Nations Assembly in September, from both American military observers and from the U.N. Balkan watch committee.

Meanwhile, official plans are based on the assumption that Congress will vote an additional $275,000,000 for Greek-Turkish military aid with some $200,000,000 earmarked for Greece.

15 Arabs Slain In Galilee

Jerusalem, March 13 (AP)—Fifteen Arabs were killed and about twenty wounded at dawn today when a large group of Jews raided an Arab village in upper Galilee.

The village was Al Hussena. Several Arab houses were blown up during the attack. The village has been evacuated, a source added. Police and military units found a number of grenades and one rucksack filled with explosives when they arrived on the scene after the attack.

Earlier Attack Reported

Earlier, police had reported that two columns of Jewish fighters with about 100 men each had attacked the Arab village of Kafr Kanna,

REDS PRESS DRIVE IN MUKDEN AREA

Peiping, March 13 (A. P.).—A mounting fury of Chinese Communist assaults on the Manchurian stronghold of Szepingkai was reported today in pro-Government dispatches. The Nationalists were reported suffering heavy casualties in Szepingkai's outskirts, because of concentrated Red artillery fire.

In Mukden, 105 miles to the southwest, Government headquarters acknowledged loss of Kirin, sixty miles east of the territorial capital of Changchun, which supplies most of the electric power for Government-held areas of Manchuria. There were no details of its capture, which was reported Thursday by the Chinese Communist radio.

In Nanking, military observers expressed belief the Communists could seize Changchun at will, because of the withdrawal of battle-seasoned troops several months ago. The bulk of Government forces, which once held a line along the Sungari River, has been deployed southward to meet the persistent Communist threat to isolated Mukden.

Improvement was reported in the Nationalist position around Paoting, capital of Hopei Province in North China.

Hong Kong Drafts Bill To End Moratorium

Hong Kong, March 13 (AP)—The Government disclosed today it had drafted a bill which will pave the way for lifting the moratorium on debts incurred during the Japanese occupation.

The moratorium became effective shortly after British reoccupation of Hong Kong. Millions of Hong Kong dollars have been tied up, pending action on the bill. Many millions of yen changed hands in settlement of debts prior to the moratorium.

The bill will deal with discharge of debts during the occupation and debts which remain unsatisfied when the bill is enacted. The bill sets out the amount in Hong Kong dollars to be taken as the equivalent to 1,000 military yen. It varies from a maximum of $800 for 1942 to $4 for August 1-15, 1945, and nothing for August 16-31, 1945.

Hong Kong Files Claim on China

HONG KONG, March 13 (AP) — The Hong Kong Government filed a claim against China today for 2,500,000 Hong Kong dollars (about $650,000) for property damage attributed to Chinese troops awaiting transportation from Kowloon last year.

India To Form Corps Of Cadets

New Delhi, India, March 13 (AP)—Defense Minister Sardar Baldev Singh told Parliament today India has decided to form a national cadet corps with an initial strength of 170,000.

Baldev Singh said enrollment will be voluntary and without liability for service in the armed forces.

Burma Balks Red Plot To Kill Premier

Rangoon, Burma, March 13 (AP)—The Burmese press reported today the uncovering of a Communist plot to assassinate Premier Thakin Nu and overthrow his Government.

Newspapers said the plot was disclosed in secret papers seized by police during a roundup of "Red Flag" Communist party members. A country-wide uprising was planned in the wake of the assassination, the press accounts said, with the outlawed Red Flag leader Thakin Soe returning to Rangoon to assume leadership.

Meanwhile, reports from the hinterlands said the Communists had staged an All-Burma Peasants' rally 220 miles north of Rangoon at Pyinmana, where the Communists have reportedly established a parallel government.

Philippines Plans Legations In Americas

Baguio, Philippines, March 13 (AP)—President Roxas said today the Philippines would establish legations in South America and Central America as soon as trade with those countries warranted.

Latin-American delegates to the current conference of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization have been conferring with Roxas on closer commercial ties. Among nations represented are Venezuela, Ecuador, Paraguay and Mexico.

Otto Carbo, of Ecuador, said he was authorized by his Government to negotiate a friendship and navigation treaty with the Philippines. He plans to remain in the islands after the FAO conference and establish an Ecuadorian legation in Manila.

Philippines 'Voice' Relay

50,000-Watt Station to Beam U. S. Broadcasts Toward Asia

MANILA, March 13 (AP).—One of the Orient's most powerful radio transmitters went on the air today to relay Voice of America broadcasts from New York. The transmitter is at Malolos, twenty-four miles northwest of Manila. It operates on 50,000 watts of power and 920 kilocycles, with directional antennae beamed toward the Asiatic mainland.

A similar station, using short wave, was put into operation several months ago. Both are operated by the United States Information Service.

The operation was the first successful one of its kind in the Philippines.

Indemnity Tripled by Delay

MANILA, March 13 (AP).—The Philippines Supreme Court today tripled the indemnity which a lower court had ordered a slayer to pay to his victim's heirs, declaring it did so because of inflation during the nearly two years the case has been on appeal.

Osaka, Japan, March 13 (AP)—Two Japanese fishermen rescued Staff Sergeant Charles F. Dodge, of Rochester, N.Y., today when he was thrown unconscious into a canal by a collision of two vehicles. Dodge fractured an arm and leg in the accident.

ERP Wins 69 to 17; Anti-Russian Move And World RFC Lose

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP). — A history-making $5,300,000,000 European-aid program won approval in the United States Senate tonight by a 69-to-17 vote.

The action which sent the measure to the House came at a dramatic night session after more than 11 hours of debate.

Advocates of the program declared it offers the best chance of saving 16 Western European nations from Communism and economic c[illegible] NIGHT

Opponents attacked the measure as a costly outlay which might undermine the American economy and permit Russia to shove its iron curtain to the shores of the Atlantic.

With galleries packed to capacity, a score of Senators took the floor to praise or condemn the 52-month program for helping friendly nations help themselves.

The vote marked the first approval by either House of the plan outlined by Secretary of State George C. Marshall in a Harvard commencement speech last June 5.

HOUSE ACTION NEXT

The measure, which authorizes funds for the first year's operation from April 1, faces new assaults in the House. Passage there is expected, but strong efforts may be made to reduce the dollar outlay and to add other foreign aid funds to the bill.

The actual appropriation bills are yet to come.

The authorization measure left the Senate without substantial change from the form in which it was introduced by Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg (R., Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Tom Connally (D., Tex.) the ranking Democratic member of that committee.

VANDENBERG UPHELD

Tme after time Vandenberg took the floor to call for the rejection of amendments which would have effected major changes in the bill. On each occasion he mustered sufficient votes from both sides of the aisle to win handily.

The bill faced its biggest test Friday night when Senator Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) offered an amendment to reduce the 12-month authorization to $4,000,000,000. It was defeated, 56 to 31.

The bill was steered over two formidable hurdles Saturday.

One would have established a new veto-proof international agency by nations pledged to resort to armed force to beat off "aggression" and "subversion." The other would have established a world Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

In going to the House, the Senate measure clashes with a single "package" foreig relief plan worked out by Republican leaders.

The House version, now being worked out by the Foreign Affairs Committee, would wrap up in one package economic aid to Europe, economic and military aid to China, and military aid for Greece and Turkey.

The Administration has asked $570,000,000 in economic aid alone for China, and $275,000,000 for military aid for Greece and Turkey.

With the European measure at last disposed of after more than two months of continuous work, the Senate Foreign Relations group Monday will turn to the Cina and Greece-Turkey programs. Secretary of State Marshall will be the first witness at a closed door session.

The ERP bill cleared its last major obsetacle when the Senate rejected the substitute world RFC plan by a vote of 68 to 22.

Earlier the Senate beat down the other attempt to make a major change in the bill by rejecting the proposal to create a new veto-proof world agency to block the spread of Communism.

A substitute measure, sponsored by Senator Homer E. Capehart (R., Ind.), called for an outlay of $5,000,000,000.

Of this $2,000,000,000 would have been authorized for relief only; the remaining $3,000,000,000 for economic phases of recovery.

Nations other than the 16 participants in the Marshall Plan would have been eligible for both the relief and economic phases of the program.

VOICE VOTE REJECTION

Capehart proposed to use the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) as the agency for dealing with foreign recovery.

Capehart's substitute called for participating nations to match recovery funds put up by this country.

The proposal to set up a veto-proof international agency against Communism was rejected by a voice vote. It had been put forward by Senators Joseph H. Ball (R-Minn), Albert W. Hawkes (R-NJ) and Kenneth S. Wherry (R-Neb).

The Ball-Hawkes-Wherry amendment called for the United States to take the lead in establishing a supreme council "capable of defending all member nations and peoples against aggression or subversion threatening their independence or freedom."

Ball said it amounted to "setting up a veto-proof Security Council" among United Nations members. He said that Russia and her Communist supporters had "blocked the United Nations efforts toward world peace and security for two years," by her use of the veto.

CALLS FOR SHOWDOWN

Ball declared that adoption of the proposal would "bring a showndown with Russia and her satellites to see whether they really want peace."

In the early stages of the debate, the Senate:

1. Approved by voice vote an amendment to send surplus farm products to Europe as part of the aid program. Senator John J. Williams (R., Del.), who opposed the move, said it would add $44,000,000 to the cost of the program, and backers did not dispute him.

The amendment was offered by Senators George D. Aiken (R., Vt.), Alben W. Barkley (D., Ky.), Wayne Morse (R., Ore.), Guy Cordon (R., Wash.), Edward J. Thye (R., Minn.), Walter F. George (D., Ga.) and Warren G. Magnuson (D., Wash.).

2. Rejected, 73 to 13, an effort by Senators W. Lee O'Daniel (D., Tex.) and Olin D. Johnston (D., S. C.) to write into the bill a provision to give American old-age pensioners an additional $21 a month.

ASKS $600 MILLION

O'Daniel proposed an initial Treasury appropriation of $600,000,000 for the purpose.

He said it would add 70 cents a day to the diet of some 2,997,000 persons now on State old-age assistance rolls. He added:

"We should be as generous with our own needy people as we are with the healthy working people of England."

3. Approved by voice vote an amendment by Senator Clyde M. Reed (R., Kan.) requiring that not less than 25 percent of the wheat products sent abroad under the program be in the form of flour.

4. Rejected 78 to 8 an amendment by Senator Claude Pepper (D., Fla.) authorizing the United States to contribute an additional $250,000,000 to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

The amendment would have had the effect of increasing the $5,300,000,000 authorization to $5,550,000,000.

VANDENBERG OPPOSED

Pepper said such a contribution would help build a better world and make a "real beginning" towards peace.

But Vandenberg said that such a contribution would set a "most unfortunate precedent." He pointed out that the United States was already contributing between 40 and 70 percent of United Nations' expenses, and urged against making "any extra-curricular appropriations."

MAR 1948

Senate Driving Toward Final Aid Action

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The Senate raced toward final action today on the European Recovery Program after defeating a major drive to slash its first-year funds.

By a 56-to-31 vote late last night it turned aside a determined effort led by Senator Taft (R., Ohio), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, to shave $1,300,000,000 off the $5,300,000,000 Marshall plan figures.

Passage Predicted

Senator Connally (D., Texas), one of the program's chief sponsors in Congress, predicted its overwhelming passage by tonight. The bill is designed to speed funds to sixteen western European nations to bolster them against communism.

The Senate was called to resume debate today on the stack of amendments which still were awaiting action when it recessed at 11.03 last night.

Elated backers said the resounding defeat suffered by Taft's fund-cutting proposal insured Senate approval of the bill without major changes.

Vandenberg "Victory"

"We'll pass it by a bigger vote than we had against the Taft amendment," Connally said.

That would be a victory for Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and chief Capitol Hill exponent of the bipartisan foreign policy.

Vandenberg stood his ground firmly as Taft led 22 other Republicans and eight Democrats in a roll-call assault to batter the fund down to $4,000,000,000. The Michigan Senator carried 23 other Republicans and 32 Democrats with him.

Day Of Bickering

For the Senate, yesterday was an eleven-hour day of bickering, charges and countercharges.

Senator Kem (R., Mo.) started it off with a speech that lasted four hours, through one interruption after another. Kem said the plan would wreck American capitalism and wouldn't stop communism in Europe.

Taft said it was justified "by the world battle against communism," all right. But he said it was "completely without economic justification."

"We may lose every cent we put up, but it seems to me there is a chance it will aid the battle against communism," he said. "The stakes are so large that I beileve we should take that chance."

"No War Measure"

But he said emphatically that "this is no war measure." He said he did not understand President Truman's statement Wednesday that his faith in peace was somewhat shaken. Taft said he does not believe there is danger of war.

He warned that the recovery program will be a "serious interference with our own economic stability."

"Too lavish distribution of American dollars will do more harm than good," he said.

Sharp Clash Rises

The Ohion's statement that approval of the aid bill now would not bind this country to continue it later brought on a sharp clash with Vandenberg.

The bill "contemplates" four years of American aid, the Michigan Senator said. While no Congress can bind the next one, he added, he would feel obliged to vote for an extension next year if the sixteen participating nations live up to their pledges.

"I wholly disagree," Taft shouted. "There is no such obligation. There is no contract. They are not our partners. So far as I can see, they haven't agreed to do anything to our advantage except as it is to their own advantage."

"Mutual Co-Operation"

Vandenberg retorted that the program calls for mutual action, adding:

"Mutual co-operation so far as I am concerned is a two-way street."

And Connally told his colleagues it would be worth all the sacrifice involved if the United States could contribute "even slightly" to world peace.

"Not since the Thirty Years War has the world been in such a state of chaos and uncertainty as it is today," he declared.

Aiken Amendment

Senator Wherry (R., Neb.), acting GOP floor leader, said the first amendment the Senate would take up today is a proposal by Senator Aiken (R., Vt.) to send surplus farm products overseas as a part of the aid program.

Once past the Senate the recovery bill faces further action by the House.

The Republican leadership has set April 10 as a tentative target date for action on all foreign-aid programs. That is only eight days before the Italian elections, which are expected to provide a new test of Communist strength in Europe.

Meanwhile the State Department announced it has started "informal" talks with representatives of the sixteen western European nations on ways to speed delivery of American goods the moment Congress gives the go-ahead signal.

U. S. Checking Firearms Held As Souvenirs

Urges All Citizens to Have Weapons Tested, Free, to Be Certain They're Safe

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP).—The government is trying to get people to use their brains to keep them from blowing them out. Meaning: If you have a war trophy or souvenir—gun, shell, bullet, bomb, grenade, mine—be sure it's unloaded. You can have it checked free.

Many people, including children, have been killed in this country since the war by trophies thought to be harmless. For example: Boys blown to bits by a bazooka shell; children killed with "unloaded" pistols; children mangled by hand grenades.

This country is loaded with trophies brought back from overseas by service men. They're in all kinds of places: A pistol or cartridge in a dresser drawer; a machine gun in a closet; a shell on a mantelpiece; a mine or bomb in the cellar.

Here's the story: The government has a nation-wide campaign for a check on war trophies. It's run by the alcohol tax unit of the Treasury Department. That unit has an office in every state.

All the information here comes from the alcohol tax unit.

The Army, Navy, peace officers and civilians all over the country are helping out. Every county has a four-man war trophy committee plugging to get people to have their war souvenirs checked.

Suppose you have a trophy and wonder whether it's loaded. How can you find out? This way:

1. Write the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

2. Or call the office of the alcohol tax unit in your state.

3. Or notify the nearest policeman, police station or sheriff.

What happens then? Your trophy will be picked up and taken to the nearest Army or Navy station which has firearms experts. If they can do so without destroying the trophy, they'll unload it—make it harmless—and it will be returned to you, free of charge.

Don't take a chance, even with trophies from World War I or the Civil War. Shells made for both wars still are blowing up.

You may wonder why the alcohol tax unit has been chosen to run this campaign. There's a story behind that.

Gangsters were able to buy, on the black market, American-made machine guns and sawed-off shotguns in the late 1920s and early 1930s. The weapons might have passed through a dozen hands—with all identifying marks filed off—before a gangster bought them. So they were hard to trace. To block this, Congress in 1934 passed a law that said:

These weapons, but only these, had to be registered with the alcohol tax unit: Machine-guns; shotguns or rifles with barrels less than eighteen inches in length; any firearm, except a pistol or revolver, which could be concealed on the person; a muffler or silencer for any firearm.

Anyone who had such a weapon and didn't register it, was subject to a fine of $2,000 and five years in jail. And every time such a weapon was transferred from one person to another a $200 tax had to be paid.

This put a crimp in the traffic of such American-made weapons. But plenty of foreign-made weapons of that kind have been brought into this country by servicemen.

Just remember: If you have such a weapon, that law of 1934 still stands. You must register it with the alcohol tax unit. If you don't, and the weapon is found in your possession, you're liable to the fine and jail term.

The government is worried that a lot of foreign-made machine guns and sawed-off shotguns will get into the hands of gangsters. If they're not registered, they'll be hard to trace when used in a crime.

BYRD EXPLAINS OPPOSITION TO AID PROGRAM

Senator Accents Military Strength And Financial Solvency 'At Home'

Washington, March 13 (AP)—Senator Byrd (D., Va.) announced his intention to vote against the European recovery program today, saying: "Military might is the only language Russia understands and as the crisis deepens our main defense lies in an impregnable national defense."

"I feel that the most sacred responsibility that I have as a senator is to do all in my power to keep the United States militarily strong and financially solvent at home," he added.

In a statement, Byrd said, "Once our home strength is undermined by undertaking to carry a large part of the world on our shoulders, we will become an easy victim to Russia, but America strong and vigorous will never be conquered.

"If the fiscal stability of America weakens, the whole world will fall.

Billions Since End Of War

"Since the end of the war, exclusive of the costs of the military, we have given $18,000,000,000 to the nations of Europe, and conditions get steadily worse.

"If one half of this sum had been invested in great airplanes and atomic bombs, our security would be much stronger than it is today.

"The European recovery program proposes to guarantee the prosperity of the sixteen European nations for an indefinite period by donating to them each year their trade deficits, that is, the difference between exports and imports.

"This will be only the beginning, as requests already are being made that we give military aid also to these sixteen nations by equipping the armies of these countries and furnishing implements of war.

Likely Continuing Demands

"It is further proposed to start gifts to China and Korea, opening up a great new area for foreign spending. All of these expenditures once started will continue for many years, as it will be argued that if these donations are withdrawn these nations will be angered and may be influenced toward communism.

"Stalin does not fear American dollars to fight communism, but he does fear American dollars going into the most modern military preparedness.

"I do not believe our economic system can stand the drain of these enormous foreign gifts in a long-range program and, at the same time, permit us to maintain an invincible national defense wherein lies our only real security.

"Preparedness must be our first and immediate objective."

MEYERS'S PLEA IS REJECTED

Appeal Denied, Sentence To Be Pronounced Tomorrow

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The District Court of Appeals today rejected a request by counsel for Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers that the District Court postpone passing sentence upon him.

The Appeals Court said it had no jurisdiction.

Meyers, formerly No. 2 Army Air Forces purchasing officer during the war, was convicted yesterday of persuading another man to tell lies to Senate investigators.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff of District Court announced he will pronounce sentence Monday.

May Get 30 Years

Meyers is liable to a prison sentence totaling up to 30 years.

Holtzoff said he did not expect to let Meyers continue free on bond after sentencing pending his expected appeal.

In his petition to the Court of Appeals, Meyers said he had been informed that his threatened imprisonment may make him subject to trial by court-martial, with possible loss of his commission and all benefits of retirements and citations.

The Air Force has already suspended Meyers's $550 a month pension and taken steps to relieve him of his decorations. W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, has said that any court-martial action against Meyers would be held in abeyance pending outcome of the civil court proceedings.

Additional Legal Battles Ahead For Meyers

Washington, March 13 (AP)—With one legal battle already lost Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers today had many more ahead.

A Federal Court jury convicted him yesterday of talking a business associate into telling lies to a Senate Committee investigating the General's wartime business affairs. He is to appear in court Monday to be sentenced.

But the 52-year-old Meyers, one-time Air Forces deputy purchasing chief, still faces (a) income-tax fraud charges at Baltimore and Dayton, Ohio, (b) a possible Army court-martial, (c) a slander suit and (d) a $10,000 legal claim.

30-Year Term Possible

For the witness-tampering charges on which a jury of ten men and two women held him guilty yesterday, Meyers could draw a maximum prison term of 30 years.

Standing stiffly, Meyers took the verdict without emotion. His wife, a former Hollywood actress, wiped a tear away and put an encouraging arm around him.

Judge Holtzoff wanted to put Meyers in jail immediately after the jury verdict yesterday. But the General's attorneys—who said they will appeal his conviction—protested that it is usual for defendants "of his position" to be allowed freedom on bond.

$1,000 Bond Posted

"We don't often have a defendant in this position," Judge Holtzoff snapped.

The court finally allowed Meyers to remain free on $1,000 bond until Monday.

Meyers was convicted of inducing Bleriot H. Lamarre, a former business associate, to commit perjury at a Senate War Investigating Committee inquiry last fall.

Lamarre testified during the trial that he falsely denied to the senators that Meyers received $150,000 wartime profits from the Aviation Electric Corporation, a plane parts concern at Dayton.

"Dummy" Officers Cited

The Government contended that Meyers got the money by concealing his ownership of the firm and running it through "dummy" officers—young men who got $50 a week or less out of their $15,000 to $31,000 listed salaries.

Lamarre has pleaded guilty to separate perjury charges based on his statements to the Senate Committee. But he is not to be sentenced until sometime after Meyers's penalty is set.

When informed of the jury's verdict, Lamarre said in Dayton that Meyers's conviction was "one step in clearing my name so I will be able to live a normal life in this town."

Personal Tax Charge

An indictment charging fraud on Meyers's personal income tax has been returned at Baltimore. Charges that he faked the Aviation Electric Company's tax returns were filed at Dayton yesterday.

In addition, Lamarre has announced that he will sue Meyers for $10,000 he claims the General owes him.

And Mrs. Lamarre has said she will file a slander suit against Meyers based on his claim to the Senate Committee that she was his "girl friend" with her husband's consent. This Mrs. Lamarre denied. Her husband called Meyers a "snake" for saying such a thing.

Moscow Short Of Bread; Line Is 23 Abreast

Breakdown in Distribution Reported in Dispatches to the State Department

Washington, March 13 (AP)—Moscow today was reported gripped by a bread shortage so severe that Russians are lining up a dozen abreast for scarce supplies.

On the black market—what Russians call the open market—the shortage was reported to have pushed the prices to near $3.60 a pound.

This information was reported to the State Department in official and private advices from the Soviet capital.

The scarcity of bread, and probably also of sugar, is blamed in these reports on a breakdown in distribution. It is linked in the dispatches with the dismissal on March 3 of Alexander V. Lyubimov, Minister of Trade.

From Outlying Sections

Little is known here about conditions of the Moscow sugar supply. However, the bread shortage is said to be so acute in the city and in surrounding regions that on March 7 there was one queue in which people were packed 23 abreast over the length of a block. Generally, the throngs were said to be smaller than this.

Russians are also reported to have crowded into the city from outlying regions in search of bread.

The black-market price was reported to be in the last day or so 40 rubles a kilo, which figures out at the commercial rate of exchange of rubles for dollars at about $3.60 a pound.

Situation Improved

When the Russians discontinued rationing of black bread, the staple Russian food, last December the black-market price was 3 rubles a kilo and white bread was priced at 9.

A month after rationing went into effect the situation had so improved that there was no bread, either black or white, being sold on the open market. The open market provides a free movement of supplies sold directly to consumers by peasants and also of those supplies which fall into the hands of speculators.

A 40-ruble price would put bread out of reach for the lowest Russian income groups. Unskilled labor, according to statistics available here, averages around 400 to 500 rubles a month.

Democratic Study Urged on Schools

Need Stressed for 'Alertness to Possible Crisis'

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP).—A group of educators proposed today that American students be taught in the classroom how undemocratic forces get their start. The group said classroom programs should be adapted "to teach understanding about threats to our democracy and world peace."

Twenty-three school administrators and teachers from sixteen states, joined in recommending measures in schools and colleges leading to "alertness by Americans to a possible crisis." The theme of their proposals was the development among upper elementary, high school and college students of greater zeal for American democracy.

The recommendations included:

1. Holding of frequent assembly programs, with map talks, to inform students on world events.
2. Introduction of study units showing how undemocratic forces seek to slip into American institutions and organizations.
3. Adaptation of social studies and other classroom programs to teach understanding about threats to democracy and world peace.
4. Provision of concrete ways to practice democracy in the school.
5. Stimulation of students to think out their definitions of democracy.
6. Use of the newspapers, magazines and the radio to encourage study of current events.

Hickenlooper Asks Probe Of Condon

Washington, March 13 (AP)—A new voice—that of the chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Committee—was raised today in the Congressional dispute over Dr. Edward U. Condon.

Senator Hickenlooper (R., Iowa) called for an "examination of all the facts" dealing with a House committee's charge that the Government scientist associated knowingly or unknowingly with a suspected Russian spy.

"No materials should be suppressed," the Iowan told the Senate last night. He indicated that the investigation should be made by the House Un-American Activities group, which issued the blast against Condon.

Thorough Probe Promised

If a study shows that atomic security is involved, Hickenlooper said, the matter "will be exhaustively examined" by his committee.

Condon, director of the Government's Bureau of Standards, was described by the House group as "one of the weakest links in our atomic security." The scientist denied that and asked for an investigation by the joint atomic-energy committee.

Hickenlooper made his statement in criticizing an article written by Columnist Marquis Childs yesterday. The Senator said Childs had written that the atomic committee had gone over the material against Condon assembled by the House.

"Unofficial Discussion"

That was not true, Hickenlooper said. The Senator said he had had an "unofficial discussion" of the Condon case with two members of the un-American activities group.

But he told the Senate that all the Condon material the atomic committee has studied was obtained from sources other than those "controlled by the House Un-American Activities Committee."

HUGE BUILDING PROGRAM SET BY COMMITTEE

Senate - House Group Urges Construction Of 15,000,000 Homes

Washington, March 13 (AP)—A 15,000,000-home building program was recommended today by the House-Senate committee on housing.

The construction would be spread over the next 10 years. A big share would be rental quarters for low-income families.

The committee recommended a four-year public housing program providing for 500,000 dwellings.

In doing so, it overrode Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) and gave a thumping victory for a faction led by Senator Tobey (R., N.H.). Tobey and McCarthy have been at odds for months—ever since the Wisconsin Senator blocked a move to make Tobey chairman of the joint committee.

Legislation Up To Congress

The committee's recommendations were set forth in a report. Actual legislation remains to be passed upon by Congress.

McCarthy has drafted a bill which embraces most of the committee's program, except the controversial section providing for Government owned and operated public housing. McCarthy believes public housing should be handled in separate legislation to avoid what he calls the "emotional" issues surrounding it.

The report approved today was prepared by Senator Flanders (R., Vt.) as a substitute for one drafted by the committee's staff. Flanders said the only major difference is the public housing recommendation in his report.

Report Adopted Unanimously

For this reason, McCarthy told a news conference, he voted for the Flanders' version, but intends to file a minority report opposing the public housing section. McCarthy said he expects to be joined by Representatives Gamble (R., N.Y.), chairman of the committee, McMillen (R., Ill.) and Fletcher (R., Cal.), and Senator Cain (R., Washington).

Actually, the Flanders report was adopted unanimously by voice vote. Some members reserved the right to oppose public housing and possibly other provisions.

The Senate Banking Committee, which Tobey heads, already has approved the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long-range housing bill.

RENT OFFICIAL IS DISMISSED

Action Taken On Evidence Given By Senate Group

Washington, March 13 (AP)—Tighe Woods, housing administrator, said today he has fired Henry J. Zetzer, Cleveland regional rent administrator, because of indications that Zetzer attempted to "influence legislation to extend rent controls.

Woods, who also is Federal rent administrator, told a news conference he acted upon evidence presented to him by a Senate Banking subcommittee headed by Senator Cain (R., Wash.).

Cain gave out a copy of a letter which he and Woods said Zetzer had circulated to area rent directors, area rent director attorneys and all rent chief attorneys in the Cleveland rent region.

Zetzer, apparently referring to a rent control extension bill which was drafted by Cain's committee, wrote in part:

"I was much impressed by the fine showing Tighe Woods made even though they (the Senate subcommittee) raked him over the coals repeatedly.

Issues Statement

"Just looking over the membership of the subcommittee gives one a good picture of what we are up against, viz.: Republicans Cain, Buck and Bricker; Democrats Taylor and Fulbright.

"Only Taylor expressing any faith in rent control, and most of the others are openly hostile."

Woods issued a statement which said:

"During a meeting with the Senate Banking and Currency subcommittee on rent control today, evidence was placed before me which indicated that the regional rent administrator at Cleveland, Ohio, was not carrying out his duties in a manner consistent with his administrative responsibilities.

"Evidence presented by the subcommittee showed that communications, which were not in accord with the policies of this agency, had been sent to area rent directors and area rent attorneys in the Cleveland region under the name of the regional rent administrator.

"The tone of one such communication indicated its purpose was to influence legislation. In addition, it cast aspersions on the Congress and individual members of the Congress and in general indicated a lack of confidence in the democratic processes which are an essential part of the American way of life."

"I have discussed this situation with the regional rent administrator of the Cleveland region and have advised him that he is being suspended effective immediately."

Plan For Local Rent Boards Faces Fight

Washington, March 13 (AP)—A House battle shaped up today on a plan to give local boards full power to raise rents or lift rent ceilings.

The House Banking Committee voted 12 to 8 late yesterday to strip Federal officials of major authority over rents and transfer the decision-making power to local boards named by State Governors.

After writing this provision in the Senate-approved rent bill, the committee approved the measure 13 to 3. The bill would continue the modified controls until March 31, 1949.

DAY

Debate Opens Monday

The House will debate it Monday, with a showdown vote due Tuesday.

Representative Monroney (D., Okla.) questioned the constitutionality of the proposal to confer virtually unlimited powers on local boards.

He added that the amendment would "knock an awful hole in effective rent control."

Democrats Oppose Change

He said he will ask the House to restore the Senate provision continuing the Federal rent administrator's powers to decide whether local boards are justified in asking rent increases or decontrol of an area.

The "local-board" amendment was reported to have been approved at the closed-door Banking Committee session on party lines—Republicans supporting it and Democrats opposing.

Representative Spence (D., Ky.), senior banking Democrat, described the bill as "very weak" because "it affords tenants very little protection."

Walcott Fears Continuation

But in a later hearing before the House Rules Committee Representative Cox (D., Ga.) asked why rent control should not rest with the states instead of the Federal Government.

Chairman Wolcott (R., Mich.) of the Banking Committee, replied:

"My own opinion is that this would be very dangerous. If we turn rent control over to the states we will have rent control forever under state law.

"Chaos" Is Feared

"If it is constitutional for the states to control rents, then it might be said they would have the constitutional right to control prices for bread and milk. And if anything like that happens it will throw the national economy into chaos."

Federal officials said rent controls now affect about 15,000,000 dwelling units housing about 50,000,000 people.

These are other provisions of the bill approved by the House committee:

1. Rents could be increased 15 per cent where tenants and landlords agreed on a lease through 1949.

2. Tenants who agreed to a 15 per cent hike under the 1947 law could not be charged another increase during the life of the new law.

3. The Federal administrator is specifically directed to relieve landlords who can prove they are suffering hardships. The Senate measure, however, would require rent hikes only where landlords could show they are losing money.

Tax Rates Stand For '48 Estimates

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP).—The chance of a cut in taxes on 1948 incomes does not relieve taxpayers of filing by Monday midnight estimates of how much their 1948 income tax will be if the cut doesn't come.

The March 15 deadline holds good for the several million taxpayers who must estimate 1948 income—because the withholding system doesn't cover all the taxes they owe—as well as for all who haven't filed final 1947 tax returns.

NEW RECORDS DUE

Treasury officials said today they expect 55,000,000 returns on 1947 incomes establishing a tax liability of about $20,000,000,000—both new highs. Most of the tax already has been paid through wage withholding and quarterly payments.

These figures, surpassing 1946's previous record highs, should stand as records for the foreseeable future if the tax cutting bills before Congress finally become law over the opposition of the Truman Administration.

The House has passed a bill to lower taxes by $6,500,000,000. A Senate committee has whittled $1,800,000,000 from the House total, and the Senate is to take up the committee's bill next week. Either version of tax cut would relieve millions from paying further Federal income taxes.

PRESENT RATES HOLD

Officials warned, however, that those who have to file 1948 tax estimates must work out their figures on the basis of the present tax rates and disregard the lower rates proposed in the Congressional bill.

The estimaters also must pay at least one fourth of the amount they calculate they will owe for 1948. If the tax cut bill becomes law later, they can file an amended estimate lowering their estimated liability. Their initial payments will be credited on their tax bill no matter what it is.

Those who file estimates are mostly doctors, dentists, lawyers and others who do not get wages and therefore pay no withholding taxes. Farmers are an exception. They, alone among taxpayers, need do nothing about 1948 taxes until Jan. 15, 1949.

Among salaried people, estimates are necessary as a general rule only for those drawing over $5500 a year.

Ex-Secretary Calls for Halt Of Red Grabs

Asserts U. S. Must 'Act' Instead of Sending Protests

MAR

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 13 (AP).—James F. Byrnes, former Secretary of State, said today the United States should promptly revive its wartime draft to back up a new warning that this country is against further Russian expansion by force.

Revival of Selective Service "will contribute greatly to the preservation of peace," he added.

And the United States should "act," not just make a new protest, if Russia threatens the independence of Greece, Turkey, Italy or France, Byrnes declared.

NIGHT

SEES CRISIS IMMINENT

The former Secretary suggested the next "four or five weeks" may be critical in U. S.-Russian relations.

"While it is wise to think of our military strength four or five years from now, as a result of a program for universal military training," he said, "I think it more important to think of the situation that may exist four or five weeks from now as a result of our failure to adequately provide for the national defense."

At another point, he "guessed" the Communists could win the Italian elections April 18.

"If the Soviets intend to act in Italy as they have in Hungary and Czechoslovakia, we can expect them to move whenever they reach the conclusion that Communists cannot win in the election," he continued. "They will not wait until the elections disclose that the Communists are in the minority."

PRIVATE VIEWS

Byrnes spoke at Corps Day exercises commemorating the 105th anniversary of the opening of The Citadel, South Carolina's military college here.

Although Byrnes joined in Secretary of State George C. Marshall's appeal for cool judgment in dealing with a "world crisis," he said that he spoke as a private citizen. Byrnes added he had not consulted with Marshall or President Truman on his address.

The iron curtain has already gone down on Czechoslovakia, Byrnes said. Russia's demand on Finland for a defense treaty would be followed shortly by complete political and military control of Finland's government, he predicted.

'MUST BE STRONG'

"If we are going to talk strong, we must be strong," Byrnes said in urging revival of Selective Service.

A new draft is needed, he declared, to bring the Army up to its authorized strength of 669,000 soon. This first step to restore American military power should be coupled with increased air power, he said.

Byrnes, as Secretary of State, championed a "patient but firm" postwar policy toward Russia. He declared any action to curb Soviet expansion should be "within the spirit and letter of the Charter of the United Nations." But he added:

'Knowing the Soviet habit of taking over a government and then announcing there is nothing to discuss, we must let the Soviets know we will act immediately to preserve the status quo until the Security Council has an opportunity to investigate the threatened aggression."

CITES TRUMAN DOCTRINE

The Truman Doctrine already pledges the United States to protect the independence of France, Italy, Greece and Turkey, Byrnes said.

(President Truman, asking Congress a year ago to send aid to Greece and Turkey, said the United States would "support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressure.")

"It will be unfortunate if the Soviets are misled into believing we will not carry out the solemn pledge of the President," Byrnes asserted.

Action To Curb Russ Urged By Byrnes

Charleston, S.C., March 13 (AP)—James F. Byrnes, former Secretary of State, said today the United States should "act," not just protest, if Russia threatens the independence of Greece, Turkey, Italy or France.

A new warning against "coercive" Soviet expansion should be served on Moscow now, he said. And to back it up, Byrnes said this country should promptly revive its wartime draft.

Byrnes stressed in a speech at the Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina, that he spoke as a private citizen. He said he had not consulted President Truman or Secretary of State Marshall on his address.

DAY

New Draft Urged

He joined in Marshall's appeal for cool judgment in dealing with a "world crisis." But he added:

"It becomes the imperative duty of each one of us to insist that steps be taken immediately to prepare the United States for any eventuality. If we are going to talk strong, we must be strong."

Revival of selective service was proposed by Byrnes as a first step to restore American military might. He said it was needed promptly to bring the army up to its authorized strength of 669,000 men, and should be coupled with increased air power.

Held Aid To Peace

"The very fact that Congress takes such action will contribute greatly to the preservation of peace," he said. "Mr. Molotov (the Soviet Foreign Minister) does not understand English, but to him actions speak louder than words in any language."

Byrnes, champion of a postwar "patient but firm" policy toward Russia, said any action to curb Soviet expansion should be "within the spirit and the letter of the charter of the United Nations." But he added:

"Knowing the Soviet habit of taking over a Government and then announcing there is nothing to discuss, we must let the Soviet know we will act immediately to preserve the status quo until the Security Council has an opportunity to investigate the threatened aggression.

Sees Finn Control

The iron curtain already has gone down on Czechoslovakia, Byrnes said. And he predicted that Russia's demand on Finland for a defense treaty would be followed shortly by complete political and military control of Finland's Government.

The United States already is "pledged" by the Truman Doctrine, he said, to protect the independence of France, Italy, Greece and Turkey.

[President Truman, in asking Congress a year ago to send aid to Greece and Turkey, said the United States would "support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressure."]

"It will be unfortunate if the Soviets are misled into believing we will not carry out the solemn pledges of the President," he said.

"In 1914 and again in 1939 the Germans were misled by what they believed to be our lack of decision and our lack of military power.

"But I am confident that if the Soviets conclude that we really mean what we say, they will hesitate to proceed further with their efforts to dominate all Europe," Byrnes added.

He said he hopes Congress will pass the European recovery program. But he continued:

"We must realize that the appropriation of money—which cannot be available to the European nations for several months—will not stop the Soviets from further expansion this spring, if they have decided upon such expansion."

Wallace Hits Stand On Reds In China

New York, March 13 (AP)—President Truman's announced opposition to the inclusion of Communists in the Chinese Government could be interpreted as a "declaration of war" against Russia, Henry A. Wallace says.

"The broadest and not unwarranted interpretation of the President's statement," the third party presidential aspirant said yesterday "is that it is a declaration of war on the Soviet Union and that we hope to ran opportunity to exclude Communists from that Government."

Wallace, in his statement, said he was opposed to a Communist Government in China, but added:

"The utter folly and hypocrisy of a policy which rightfully protests the exclusion of minority representation from the governments of eastern Europe, yet affirms that it seeks the exclusion of major parties from the governments of France and Italy and China, is obvious."

Papanek had ceased to be the permanent delegate for the Czechoslovak Republic on March 10.

That was the day on which Papanek attacked the Communist Government in Prague, accused Russia of aiding the Communists to gain control, and demanded that the U.N. Security Council investigate the coup.

WILL BOW ONLY TO BENES

Papanek acted without informing Prague what he planned to do.

As soon as the U.N. received the dismissal notice, Papanek said "I am going on in my position." He said he would bow only to a written recall signed personally by President Eduard Benes.

Since he blasted the Communist-dominated regime, Papanek has obtained a sponsor in the U.N. Chile yesterday took up his complaint against Russia, and the Security Council decided to put the case on its provisional work-sheet for next Wednesday.

TELEGRAM SENT TO U.N.

The telegram from Washington was signed by Josef Hanc, Czechoslovak Charge d'Affaires, who did not leave the Embassy when Ambassador Juraj Slavic resigned in protest against the Communist coup.

"According to instructions from the Czechoslovak Government in Prague, I have the honor to notify you herewith that Dr. Jan Papanek ceased to be the permanent delegate for the Czechoslovak Republic to the United Nations as from March 10, 1948. A writen notification to the same effect is being dispatched to you simultaneously."

CALLS MOVE INTERESTING

Papanek said he had no idea who would be sent to represent the new Prague Government. However, he said that Hanc had been attempting for some time to get the position of chief delegate to the U.N.

"The move is very interesting," Papanek said. "I am going on in my position. There were only two persons who could recall me, President Benes and Foreign Minister Masaryk. One of them is no more.

"As long as I do not get a recall signed by President Benes, I am going on. I do not recognize those people in Prague. If I receive a letter signed by Benes, not a telegram but a letter actually signed, I will reconsider my course."

MOURNS FOR MASARYK

He spent the day in his home in Manhattan in mourning for his best friend, Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, whose funeral was held in Prague today.

The defiance by Papanek of the Prague Government's order gave the U.N. a knotty legal problem.

The U.N. has followed the practice of accepting credentials transmitted by governments, and some observers said that Papanek now becomes a private citizen in the eyes of the U.N.

But Papanek indicated he would press his claim as delegate for the Czechoslovak Republic which existed before the Communist coup and that it is up to the U.N. to decide.

The office of Chilean Ambassador Hernan Santa Cruz said that the Chilean delegation has received "many" messages from U.N. delegations congratulating Chile on sponsoring Papanek's complaint.

Santa Cruz and Papanek are close friends personally, having served together on the United Nations Economic and Social Council. The rupture of relations last fall between Chile and Czechoslovakia made no difference in their friendship.

A spokesman for the United States delegation said no instructions on the United States course in the Security Council Wednesday had been received. But, he said, the United States would not stand upon technicalities. This was seen here as an indication the United States would not oppose putting the complaint on the Council agenda for formal debate.

Lake Success, March 13 (AP)—Chile's demand for United Nations investigation of the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia pushed Russia today into the role of a defendant before the world.

It also opened the way for airing of conditions in part of Soviet-dominated eastern Europe. Many saw the possibility of an East-West showdown.

The Security Council put the case on its calendar for next Wednesday. The Russians then must meet Chilean allegations that the methods of Nazi Germany are being used by "a member state against another member state" and that "the extent and magnitude of the plans of the U.S.S.R." stand revealed.

No Prior Discussion

This was the first time Russia has been called directly to account since the Iranian case in 1946.

The United States delegation refrained from early comment. However, on the basis of recent statements by President Truman and Secretary of State George C. Marshall, strongest American support for the Chilean case is expected.

In filing the case, Chilean Delegate Hernan Santa Cruz emphasized that he had not discussed the plan in advance with any other delegate. This apparently was to forestall charges that the move was dictated by the United States.

Action by the Government of Chile forced consideration of the once rejected case.

Informed persons predicted the case would run something like this:

1. Russia will fight to kill the charges before the eleven-nation Council can discuss them. Chile needs the support of seven delegates to get the case heard.

2. Failing to muster five opposition votes, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko may repeat his walkout of March, 1946.

3. If Russia stays and fights, one of the bitterest propaganda battles in the United Nation's history is in prospect with perhaps the life of the organization at stake.

The Palestine problem remained unsolved. Another big-power session in New York yesterday produced no solution on how to divide the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab nations in the face of Arab opposition.

U.S. Group Sailing To Geneva Parley

New York, March 13 (AP)—An American delegation, minus one of its members who missed the ship, was en route to Europe today aboard the Queen Elizabeth to attend the United Nations Freedom of Information Conference at Geneva, Switzerland.

The missing delegate, Harry Martin, anti-Communist president of the CIO American Newspaper Guild, said he would be flown to the conference next week at the request of the State Department.

Decision Reversed

The White House Thursday reversed a previous State Department decision not to issue Martin a passport, but the Memphis (Tenn.) newspaper man arrived here too late to accompany the delegation. Martin said the passport was denied him because he once had contributed to the Southern Conference for Human Welfare.

The delegation is headed by former Under Secretary of State William Benton. Other members are Sevellon Brown, editor and publisher of the Providence Journal; Erwin Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, and Zechariah Chafee, Jr., Harvard Law School professor.

Czech Communists Fire Papanek as U.N. Aide, But He Defies Ouster

LAKE SUCCESS, March 13 (AP)—The Prague government today fired Dr. Jan Papanek as Czechoslovak Delegate to the United Nations, but Papanek defied the Communist-dominated regime he has bitterly attacked.

Ending a three-day official silence, the Prague authorities sent through their Washington office to the U.N. a curt telegram saying

Given U.S. Haven, Romanian Doctor 'Is Happiest Girl'

New York, March 13 (AP)—Assured a haven in this country under a bill signed by President Truman, a Romanian woman doctor said today "I am the happiest girl in the world. I feel newborn."

Dr. Gisela Perl, a gynecologist, had faced the prospect of returning to Romania until approval yesterday of a bill introduced by Representative Bloom (D., N.Y.) permitting her to remain as a permanent resident.

Going back, the 45-year-old doctor said, would mean nearness to Auschwitz and Belsen and the horror camps where her husband, son and parents were caught in the Nazi death mill.

Number On Arm

That, she recounted, "stands for so much suffering" like the time at Auschwitz when she reported a good many women pregnant during first weeks of her service as a camp physician.

"Then one night, they threw 169 pregnant women into the crematory. After that I performed abortions with my bare hands, and every morning I reported no women pregnant," she said.

Working At Clinic

Dr. Perl was dressed in the same dress which she got after the United States 3d Army liberated her from Belsen in 1945. She came here on a temporary visa.

She is working at the gynecological clinic at Mount Sinai Hospital, and "in June I shall take the state examination—then I'll open my office," she said.

In the English she has learned mostly from reading newspapers, Dr. Perl said "you born in America don't appreciate your country enough."

The Civil Rights Congress formed a protest picket line in front of the Justice Department building in Washington a week ago. "Such practices may be commonplace in a totalitarian state, but they have no place in a free America."

The Attorney General said the 30-odd recent deportation arrests are "a legitimate device for self-preservation that has no relationship to the freedom of expression which all of us will defend."

His activities in organizing a military expedition, Botts said, took place at Augusta, Ga.

Others indicted were listed by Botts as Manola Castro, recently killed in Cuba; Reinaldo Ramirez Rosell, promoter of a proposed transcontinental airline, reportedly now in Spain; Louis C. Botts said the "ring" spent ten times as much covering up activities as they did buying aircraft. He said they bought at least fifteen planes in the United States before their activities were halted.

The planes were reportedly seized by Government officials in Havana and are now in use by the Cuban Air Corps, Botts said.

Browder is expected to be arraigned before United States District Judge John W. Holland next week.

$2,000 Bail Set In Arms Plot

Miami, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Edward Browder, Jr., of suburban Miami Shores, was held in $2,000 bond today on charges of conspiracy to transport aircraft illegally and of organizing a military expedition.

Browder was arrested by United States marshals yesterday and Commissioner Roger Edward Davis set bond at $1,000 on the conspiracy charge and $1,000 on the military-expedition charge.

Federal Indictment

PARIS, MARCH 13-(AP)-WITH A HOPEFUL EYE COCKED ON THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS, STATESMEN OF 16 WESTERN NATIONS CONVERGED ON THE FRENCH CAPITAL TODAY TO CREATE A PERMANENT EUROPEAN ORGANIZATION.

THEIR MEETINGS BEGIN MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS FROM THE WESTERN ZONES PROBABLY WILL SIT WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE WESTERN ALLIED POWERS IN STUDYING EUROPEAN ECONOMIC PROBLEMS, FRENCH OFFICIALS SAID.

BOTH FRANCE AND BRITAIN, IN ACCORDANCE WITH DECISIONS AT THE RECENT LONDON CONFERENCE ON GERMAN ISSUES, WILL PROPOSE THAT THE 16 NATIONS INVITE MILITARY GOVERNMENT DELEGATES AND GERMAN ECONOMIC EXPERTS TO JOIN THEIR STUDIES.

THIS WILL BE THE FIRST FORMAL MEETING OF THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER WHEN THEY ADOPTED A LENGTHY ECONOMIC REPORT OUTLINING THEIR NEEDS AND DEVELOPMENT PLANS OVER A FOUR-YEAR PERIOD FOR SUBMISSION TO THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT. THE REPORT LATER WAS USED BY THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION AS ONE BASIS FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

FIVE OF THE PARTICIPATING NATIONS--BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, AND LUXEMBOURG--ENTER THE SESSIONS NEWLY BOUND BY THE PACT OF BRUSSELS TO CONTINUING MILITARY, ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND CULTURAL COORDINATION AMONG THEMSELVES.

THIS FIVE-POWER WESTERN EUROPEAN PACT IS TO BE EXPRESSED THROUGH A PERMANENT INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION WITH CERTAIN EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS. THE FIVE NATIONS HOPE TO EXTEND THEIR AGREEMENT EVENTUALLY TO THE OTHER COUNTRIES TAKING PART IN THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THE CONFERENCE HERE WILL RECEIVE A FRENCH-BRITISH REPORT RECOMMENDING THAT THE 16 NATIONS ESTABLISH A PERMANENT INTER-EUROPEAN COMMISSION TO ASSIST THE AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION IN THE RECOVERY PROGRAM. SUCH A 16-NATION COMMISSION WOULD NOT BE SO TIGHTLY INTERWOVEN AS THE FIVE NATION GROUPING DECIDED ON AT BRUSSELS, BUT THE TWO MIGHT GRADUALLY GROW TOGETHER.

THE 16-NATIONS REASSEMBLE AS THE AMERICAN CONGRESS NEARS THE CLIMAX OF ITS DECISIONS ON THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THE DELEGATES HOPE TO PRODUCE A PROGRAM OF STEADY COOPERATION WHICH WILL CONVINCE AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES THAT UNITED STATES AID WILL CONSTITUTE A SOUND INVESTMENT IN THE DREAM OF EUROPEAN UNITY.

BESIDES CONSIDERING THE FORMATION OF THE PERMANENT COMMISSION, THE CONFERENCE WILL REVIEW THE PROGRESS MADE THUS FAR BY MEMBER STATES IN COORDINATED SELF HELP.

THE BENELUX NATIONS--BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, AND LUXEMBOURG--WILL REPORT THE LATEST STEPS IN FORGING THEIR ECONOMIC UNION.

FRANCE AND ITALY CAN REPORT THEIR AGREEMENT TO NEGOTIATE SUCH A UNION. PROTOCOLS ON THIS PROJECT ARE TO BE SIGNED MARCH 20 AT TURIN.

BRITAIN CAN REPORT HER INCREASED COAL PRODUCTION AND THE RESUMPTION OF COAL EXPORTS TO THE CONTINENT.

CHIEF ITEM IN WESTERN EUROPEAN COOPERATION IS EXPECTED TO BE THE

THE RUSSIAN PRESS ATTACKED MACARTHUR JUST BEFORE THE 1944 PRESIDENTIAL CONVENTIONS.

IZVESTIA, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, AT THAT TIME EXPRESSED SATISFACTION THAT MACARTHUR ANNOUNCED HE WOULD NOT BE A CANDIDATE DESPITE A BOOM FOR HIM.

MACARTHUR, THE NEWSPAPER SAID, WAS "FORCED TO DECLARE OFFICIALLY THAT HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE," FOLLOWING PUBLICATION OF HIS CORRESPONDENCE WITH REP. MILLER (R-NEB), ONE OF THE GENERAL'S PRINCIPAL SUPPORTERS AGAIN THIS YEAR.

IN 1944 THE SOVIET PRESS ALSO ATTACKED REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE THOMAS E.DEWEY OF NEW YORK. IZVESTIA SAID "DEWEY ATTEMPTED TO DIVIDE HIMSELF FROM DEFEATIST, ISOLATIONIST CONCEPTIONS XXX BUT THE HEARST NEWSPAPERS AND THE PUBLICATIONS OF MCCORMICK, PATTERSON AND GANNETT CARRIED ON A CAMPAIGN FOR DEWEY AND SIMULTANEOUSLY THIS CAMPAIGN WAS CONVERTED INTO A DEFEATIST, EVEN PRO-HITLERITE AGITATION," IZVESTIA ADDED.

OTHER RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS CARRIED SIMILAR REMARKS DURING THE 1944 CAMPAIGN. SIMILARLY, THE RUSSIANS CRITICIZED REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE WENDELL L.WILLKIE DURING THE 1940 PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

NANKING, MARCH 13-(AP)-CHINESE FIFANCE MINISTER O. K.YUI TOLD THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN TODAY THAT SURPLUS MATERIALS HANDED OVER TO CHINA BY THE UNITED STATES WERE VALUED BY THE CHINESE AT $278,000,000 (MILLION) RATHER THAN $500,000,000 REPORTED BY AMERICAN SOURCES.

TONG LING, HEAD OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE'S AMERICAN DEPARTMENT, TOLD THE LEGISLATORS, "THERE STILL EXIST DIFFERENCES OF OPINION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND OURSELVES OVER THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF ASSISTANCE CHINA ALREADY HAS RECEIVED."

PRECEDE PEIPING CHINESE (140)

NANKING, SUNDAY, MARCH 14-(AP)-OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID TODAY THE COMMUNISTS HAD BATTERED INTO THE CENTER OF SZEPINGKAI AND "THE LAST HOPES ARE GONE" OF SAVING THAT MANCHURIAN FORTRESS.

THESE SOURCES ASSERTED THE COMMUNISTS, WHO HAD BEEN ATTACKING THAT CITY 105 MILES NORTHEAST OF MUKDEN FOR SEVERAL DAYS, SUFFERED "HUGE LOSSES."

A GOVERNMENT COMMUNIQUE ALSO CONFIRMED THE COMMUNIST CAPTURE OF KIRIN, POWER CENTER 60 MILES EAST OF CHANGCHUN, MANCHURIA'S CAPITAL.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THE KIRIN GARRISON WITHDREW TO CHANGCHUN, TAKING WITH IT MORE THAN 100,000 CIVILIANS, INCLUDING 30,000 YOUNG MEN. SOME CIVILIANS REMAINED IN KIRIN, HOWEVER, AND SO THE GARRISON LEFT THE CITY AND ITS ADJACENT POWER STATION INTACT, THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED.

(PRO-GOVERNMENT PRESS REPORTS TO PEIPING, HOWEVER, SAID THE GARRISON BLEW UP AMMUNITION DUMPS BEFORE LEAVING AND THIS SET A LARGE PART OF KIRIN AFIRE. SOME POWER MACHINERY ALSO WAS REPORTED REMOVED.)

PEIPING, MARCH 13-(AP)-A SAVAGE BATTLE FOR SZEPINGKAI, WITH THE GOVERNMENTAL GARRISON SUFFERING HEAVY CASUALTIES FROM COMMUNIST ARTILLERY, WAS REPORTED TODAY BY PRO-GOVERNMENT CHINESE PRESS DISPATCHES.

THE REPORTS SAID THE COMMUNIST ATTACKERS ALSO WERE USING ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS AGAINST GOVERNMENT PLANES WHICH WERE MAKING DAY AND NIGHT SORTIES IN DEFENSE OF THAT MANCHURIAN CENTER 105 MILES NORTHEAST OF MUKDEN.

OFFICIALS IN MUKDEN, PEIPING AND NANKING AGREED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD LOST KIRIN, BIG ELECTRIC POWER CENTER 60 MILES EAST OF CHANGCHUN. ONLY YESTERDAY THEY HAD DENIED ITS FALL.

WANG YUA-YI, LEADER OF THE MANCHURIAN DELEGATION IN PEIPING, SAID KIRIN WAS ABANDONED TWO DAYS AGO AND THE GOVERNMENT GARRISON MOVED INTO CHANGCHUN TO STRENGTHEN THE CAPITAL'S DEFENSES.

(FOREIGN MILITARY MEN IN NANKING, HOWEVER, SAID THAT CHANGCHUN ALREADY WAS LOST TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR ANY PRACTICAL PURPOSES, SINCE IT WAS CUT OFF AND COULD BE ACTUALLY TAKEN BY THE COMMUNISTS ANY TIME THEY WANTED TO SPARE THE MANPOWER TO DO SO.)

SHANGHAI, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE AMERICAN PILOT OF A CHINESE AIRLINER FIRED ON BY TWO PLANES BEARING RUSSIAN RED STARS ON THEIR WINGS SAID TODAY TWO U.S. MARINE PLANES TOOK TO THE AIR TUESDAY WITHIN 30 MINUTES OF THE ATTACK.

THE PILOT, CAPT.ROBERT BUOL, STOCKTON, CALIF., TOLD NEWSMEN TWO MARINE CORSAIR FIGHTERS TOOK OFF FROM TSINGTAO AND FLEW OUT ABOUT 20 MILES TO MAKE CERTAIN THE SECURITY OF THAT U.S. NAVAL BASE WAS NOT VIOLATED.

TSINGTAO WAS BUOL'S DESTINATION WHEN HE WAS FIRED ON. HIS PLANE WAS TAKING REFUGEES FROM MUKDEN, IN MANCHURIA.

BUOL SAID AT NO TIME DID HIS CHENNAULT AIRLINER COME CLOSER THAN 60 MILES EITHER TO RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED DAIREN OR PORT ARTHUR.

BUOL REPORTED HIS 42 PASSENGERS, 10 OF THEM CHILDREN, SLEPT RIGHT THROUGH THE SHOOTING, SAYING: "THEY NEVER DID KNOW WHAT HAPPENED."

SAIGON, INDO-CHINA, MARCH 13-(AP)-AN ESTIMATED 50,000 CHINESE ARE BEING EVACUATED FROM SOUTH INDO-CHINA WHERE ANTI-FRENCH GUERRILLAS ARE STRONG, THE CHINESE CONSUL SAID TODAY.

A HIGH SOUTH VIETNAM GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID THE ACTION FOLLOWED REPEATED PROTESTS FROM THE CHINESE CONSULATE OVER LOSS OF CHINESE LIVES AND PROPERTY IN THE FIGHTING BETWEEN FRENCH AND GUERRILLAS.

THE CHINESE CONSUL GENERAL, ING FONG TASO, SAID THAT THE CHINESE WERE EVACUATING VARIOUS AREAS AT THE REQUEST OF THE FRENCH. HE SAID THE CHINESE WERE LEAVING THE RURAL AREAS AT CA-MAU, AT THE SOUTHERN TIP OF INDO-CHINA, WHICH THE FRENCH SAY IS ONE OF THE LARGEST AREAS OF GUERRILLA CONCENTRATION. OTHER EVACUATION AREAS WERE NOT SPECIFIED.

ING SAID THE CHINESE WERE MOVING EITHER TO FRENCH-CONTROLLED ZONES OR TO LARGE "NON-STRATEGIC" TOWNS IN THE GUERRILLA-CONTROLLED SECTIONS.

HE ESTIMATED THE TOTAL OF DISPLACED CHINESE TO BE AT LEAST 50,000

AND SAID HE EXPECTS THE EVACUATION TO BE COMPLETED NEXT MONTH DESPITE SERIOUS PROBLEMS OF TRANSPORT, HOUSING AND FOOD.

ING SAID THAT DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS THE CHINESE HAVE SPENT 5,000,000 (M) PIASTRES (ABOUT $700,000) FOR FOOD, CLOTHING AND SHELTER FOR CHINESE DISPLACED BY THE CONFLICT. THREE FIFTHS OF THIS WAS FROM THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT AND THE REST FROM CHINESE CITIZENS LIVING IN INDO-CHINA.

HE SAID HE IS STUDYING A PROJECT FOR A LONG TERM, LOW INTEREST LOAN THROUGH LOCAL BANKS TO DISPLACED WORKERS TO PERMIT THEIR REESTABLISHMENT AT NEW HOMES. HE SAID THE MONEY "UNDOUBTEDLY" WILL HAVE TO COME FROM THE CHINESE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

HAVANA, CUBA, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS TRADE CONFERENCE TODAY FIXED MARCH 24 FOR ADJOURNMENT.

A FULL SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE ALSO ADOPTED THE FORM OF THE FINAL ACT TO BE SIGNED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 59 NATIONS AT THE MEETING WHICH OPENED HERE NOV.21.

MAR 1948

THE FINAL ACT MADE CLEAR IT DOES NOT BIND THE SIGNING GOVERNMENTS TO ACCEPTANCE OF THE CHARTER ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE, NOR TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ORGANIZATION THE CONFERENCE IS CREATING.

THE CONFERENCE ORIGINALLY WAS TO HAVE ENDED JAN.15, BUT RAN INTO DELAYS WHEN SHARP OPPOSITION DEVELOPED OVER MANY ARTICLES OF THE CHARTER.

GUILLERMO GUTIERREZ, BOLIVIAN DELEGATE TO THE CONFERENCE, ATTEMPTED TO PUT INTO THE FINAL ACT A STATEMENT THAT THE SIGNING DID NOT BIND THE GOVERNMENTS TO THE CHARTER OR TO BECOME MEMBERS OF THE ITO.

MQOPPOSITION DEVELOPED IN MANY QUARTERS AND THE BOLIVIAN MOTION WAS DEFEATED. IT PRODUCED AN AGREEMENT WHICH REQUIRED THE CONFERENCE RECORDS TO CONTAIN A STATEMENT MAKING IT CLEAR THE SIGNING OF THE ACT DOES NOT INVOLVE A COMPROMISE OF ANY KIND.

THE CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO WORK OUT SHORTLY DETAILS FOR AN INTERIM ORGANIZATION WHICH WILL FUNCTION BETWEEN THEEND OF THE HAVANA CONFERENCE AND THE DATE THE ITO SETS UP ITS OWN ORGANIZATION.

(ADVANCE) MEXICO CITY, MARCH 13-(AP)-TEN YEARS AFTER MEXICO EXPROPRIATED HER OIL WEALTH SHE IS PROSPECTING FOR MORE LIQUID GOLD TO BOLSTER NATIONAL INCOME.

HARD PRESSED FOR DOLLARS TO BUY INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL EQUIPMENT, MEXICO IS SEEKING TO INCREASE PRODUCTION OF OIL WHICH SHE TOOK OVER FROM PRIVATE OWNERS MARCH 18, 1938.

THE SUCCESS OF PRESIDENT MIGUEL ALEMAN'S SIX-YEAR SELF-SUFFICIENCY PROGRAM HINGES ON HER ABILITY TO BUILD A PLACE QUICKLY IN WORLD TRADE. MEXICO WAS ONE OF THE MOST ACTIVE COUNTRIES ATTENDING THE HAVANA WORLD TRADE CONFERENCE, AND WILL BE ONE OF THE LEADERS AT THE BOGOTA CONFERENCE.

FOREIGN OWNERS, PRINCIPALLY FROM THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN AND HOLLAND, BUILT MEXICO'S OIL INDUSTRY INTO THE FOURTH MOST IMPORTANT IN THE WORLD. LABOR DIFFICULTIES FROM 1927 TO 1937 WERE BLAMED FOR A STEADY DECLINE IN PRODUCTION.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF PRESIDENT LAZARO CARDENAS, OFTEN CALLED RADICAL, STEPPED IN AND TOOK OVER THE FOREIGN OIL PROPERTIES IN MARCH 1938. IT GROUNDED ITS ACTION ON OLD SPANISH LAW BY WHICH SUBSOIL DEPOSITS ARE NATIONAL PROPERTY.

DURING 10 YEARS OF GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP AND OPERATION THERE HAVE BEEN FREQUENT CHARGES OF BAD MANAGEMENT. PRODUCTION DECLINED FURTHER.

MAR 1948

BANCO NACIONAL DE MEXICO, S.A., LARGEST AND MOST INFLUENTIAL PRIVATE BANK IN THE COUNTRY, COMMENTED TERSELY: THE PEOPLE OF MEXICO "HAVE NOT YET LEARNED TO APPLY MODERN METHODS IN THIS BRANCH OF NATIONAL WEALTH."

THE BANK SAID PEOPLE "VIEW WITH DISTRUST THE ORGANIZATION OF A GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED COMPANY (PEMEX) TO EXPLOIT AND MANAGE THE PETROLEUM WEALTH X X X AND X X X THEY WOULD LIKE TO DERIVE SOME BENEFIT BEYOND THE PURE AND SIMPLE SATISFACTION OF OWNING AN IMPORTANT RESOURCE."

THE BANK SAID "ANY GOVERNMENT UNPREPARED TO MANAGE BUSINESS CORRUPTS THE ROLE IT IS CHARGED WITH AND JEOPARDIZES THE INTEREST OF SOCIETY."

PRESIDENT MIGUEL ALEMAN NAMED BUSINESSMAN ANTONIO J.BERMUDEZ LAST YEAR TO PUT THE OIL INDUSTRY ON A PAYING BASIS. FIRST, BERMUDEZ DID AWAY WITH ARBITRARY MEDDLING BY LABOR CHIEFS.

LABOR ANSWERED WITH A "WILDCAT" STRIKE WHEN HE RESTORED MANAGEMENT RIGHTS WHICH HAD NOT EXISTED FOR SOME TIME.

ALEMAN BACKED BERMUDEZ, CALLED OUT TROOPS TO RUN THE OIL INDUSTRY, AND JAILED 50 LABOR LEADERS FORCING THEM TO RESIGN FROM THE OIL UNION. WORKERS WENT BACK TO THEIR JOBS.

BERMUDEZ CALLED IN FOREIGN OIL EXPERTS FOR ADVICE AND ANNOUNCED PLANS TO DRILL 75 WELLS A YEAR FOR THE NEXT FIVE YEARS.

PEMEX UNDER ITS NEW DIRECTOR INCREASED OIL PRODUCTION IN 1947 TO 56,000,000 BARRELS, OF 9,500,000 MORE THAN PREVIOUSLY OBTAINED UNDER GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

THE 1947 OUTPUT WAS THE HIGHEST SINCE 1927, BUT IT WAS ATTAINED BY INCREASING THE PRODUCTION IN POZA RICA ON THE GULF COAST TO 90,000 BARRELS A DAY. THE OTHER THREE MAIN FIELDS IN MEXICO CONTINUE TO DECLINE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, DOMESTIC CONSUMPTION ROSE IN 1947 TO APPROXIMATELY 48,000,000 BARRELS AND PROBABLY WILL INCREASE THIS YEAR TO 53,000,000.

EXPERTS PREDICTED DISASTER IF CONSUMPTION IS TO BE SUPPLIED FROM POZA RICA ALONE. HEAVY PUMPING FROM THIS FIELD CANNOT GO ON FOREVER, THEY SAID.

NEW FIELDS ARE BEING SOUGHT IN THE ISTHMUS OF TEHUANTEPEC, TABASCO, YUCATAN, CHIAPAS, LOWER CALIFORNIA, CHIHUAHUA STATE, AND THE VERACRUZ VALLEY.

THE FIRST TEST WELLS ARE BEING DRILLED ADJACENT TO THE TEXAS FIELDS. PROSPECTING IS EXPENSIVE, BUT BERMUDEZ SAYS HE HAS NO OBJECTION TO THIS.

A91 (AGENCYS OUT)

THE COST OF MAINTAINING 40 TEST WELL DRILLING CREWS IN THE FIELD WILL BE 25,000,000 PESOS ($5,000,000) A YEAR AND EACH TEST WELL WILL AVERAGE AND ADDITIONAL 800,000 PESOS ($160,000).

WITHOUT NEW WELLS PRODUCTION BY 1950 WOULD BE INSUFFICIENT TO MEET

30.24- 16241

MAR 1948

NATIONAL DEMANDS, AND THERE WOULD BE NO SURPLUS FOR EXPORT, PEMEX SAID IN A REPORT.

JORGE L.CUMMING, HEAD OF THE PEMEX EXPLORATION DEPARTMENT, ESTIMATED 1948 CRUDE PRODUCTION WILL BE 53,700,000 BARRELS.

CONSUMPTION IN 1948 ES EXPECTED TO BE 52,000,000 BARRELS, INCREASING TO 70,000,000 BY 1955. PEMEX VIEW 1950 AS THE CRITICAL YEAR WHEN CALCULATED 49,300,000 BARRELS OF CRUDE PLUS STORED RESERVES WOUD NOT MEET ESTIMATED NEEDS FOR 56,800,000 BARRELS. PRODUCTION BY 1955 PROVIDING NO NEW FIELDS ARE DISCOVERED, IS EXPECTED TO DECLINE TO 42,800,000 BARRELS.

MEXICO HAS SETTLED HER OIL EXPROPRIATION DEBT WITH UNITED STATES OWNERS FOR $23,995,991 PLUS INTEREST FROM THE TIME WELLS WERE TAKEN OVER. THE FINAL PAYMENT WAS MADE IN SEPTEMBER, 1947.

BRITISH AND DUTCH CLAIMS WERE SETTLED UPON LAST YEAR. THE GOVERNMENT AGREED TO PAY $81,250,000 TO ROYAL DUTCH SHELL AFFILIATE "EL AGUILA" AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES. THESE COMPANIES IN RETURN WITHDREW COURT ACTION IN ORDER TO PARTICIPATE IN THE FINAL SETTLEMENT.

THE PRINCIPAL, PLUS 3 PER CENT INTEREST FROM THE DATE OF EXPROPRIATION TO SEPT. 18, 1962, THE DATE OF FINAL PAYMENT, WILL BRING THE TOTAL PRICE FOR BRITISH AND DUTCH PROPERTIES TO $130,328,867.

WITH FOREIGN AID

BY RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON, MARCH 14-(SUNDAY) (AP)-THE VOTE CAME ALMOST AT THE STROKE OF MIDNIGHT.

IF THIS IS THE ELEVENTH HOUR IN THE STRUGGLE BETWEEN COMMUNISM AND THE DEMOCRACIES IN EUROPE--AND MANY OF THE BEST-INFORMED PEOPLE IN WASHINGTON BELIEVE THAT IT IS--THEN THERE WAS UNSCHEDULED DRAMA IN THE FACT THAT THE SENATE VOTED WHEN IT DID ON THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THE SENATE ACTED AGAINST A BACKGROUND OF CRISIS.

THROUGH ALL THE PAST WEEK, THE FEELING OF TENSION HAS BEEN MOUNTING IN WASHINGTON. AT THIS MOMENT, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL AND HIS CHIEFS OF STAFF ARE MEETING IN FLORIDA TO DISCUSS THE CONDITION OF THE DEFENSES OF AMERICA, AND THE DANGER OF WAR. THE MECHANISM FOR RE-STARTING THE DRAFT SYSTEM HAS BEEN WHEELED OUT. THERE HAVE BEEN CONFERENCES AT THE PENTAGON BUILDING ON "SECURITY" OF INFORMATION.

ALL THIS HAD BEGUN BEFORE. THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, WITH ITS APPARENTLY FATEFUL PARALLEL TO THE LAST GREAT POLITICAL EVENT BEFORE THE LAST WAR, HAD ACCENTUATED THE SITUATION. THE SUICIDE OF WELL-LOVED JAN MASARYK PUT THE FINAL DRAMATIC PERIOD TO THE STORY.

IT WAS AGAINST THAT BACKDROP THAT THE SENATE TONIGHT ENDED 69 HOURS AND 17 MINUTES OF DEBATE ON THE MARSHALL PLAN--THE IMMEDIATE AMERICAN ANSWER TO COMMUNIST ACTION IN EUROPE.

THE GALLERIES WERE CROWDED. THEY HAD BEEN PACKED, SO THAT NOT A VACANT SEAT WAS LEFT, SINCE EARLY IN THE EVENING. VERY FEW PEOPLE LEFT THEIR SEATS. VERY FEW WERE ABLE TO COME IN.

THE LAST SPEAKER, AS IT TURNED OUT, WAS SENATOR ALBEN BARKLEY, KENTUCKY DEMOCRAT. HE IS A BIG MAN, WITH POWERFUL SHOULDERS, A HEAVY FACE AND THINNING WHITE HAIR. IN THE BEGINNING, HE SPOKE SLOWLY, WITH MEASURED, CONSIDERED WORDS.

HE SPOKE OF COMMUNISM AS "THE CREEPING PARALYSIS." AND AS HE WARMED TO HIS THEME, HE BEGAN TO STRIDE UP AND DOWN, BEHIND THE ROW OF DESKS, SHAKING HIS FISTS.

HIS DEEP VOICE GREW LOUDER WITH EMPHASIS AND SHEER FURY. HE

BARKLEY WAS SPEAKING FOR THE MARSHALL PLAN. HE WAS DOING MORE THAN THAT. HE WAS PLEADING FOR IT.

A139WX

HE HAD ANNOUNCED THAT HE WOULD SPEAK ONLY 15 MINUTES, AND HE BEGAN AT 11:13. AT 11:30, HE WAS STILL TALKING, AND AT 11:45. TO HIS RIGHT SAT SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), THE MAN WHO NEARLY TWO WEEKS AGO FIRED THE OPENING GUN IN THE BATTLE FOR THE PLAN. VANDENBERG LISTENED CAREFULLY. THEN HE PULLED OUT A BIG SHEAF OF YELLOW, LEGAL SIZE PAPER. HE BEGAN TO MAKE MARKS ON IT, AIMLESSLY. GRADUALLY, THEY SPREAD ACROSS THE PAPER, DIAGONALLY.

WHEN HIS PENCIL REACHED THE LOWER RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF THE PAPER, HE HAD DRAWN A DRAGON.

BARKLEY WAS STILL TALKING. HE CAME BACK, AGAIN AND AGAIN, TO THE THEME OF "THE CREEPING PARALYSIS" THAT, HE SAID, BESETS EUROPE. HE SAID WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID: THAT IF THE PLAN SHOULD BE DEFEATED, THE COST TO THE UNITED STATES, IN ARMAMENT, WOULD BE MANY TIMES THE COST OF THE PROGRAN FOR ASSISTANCE. HE PICTURED THE REST OF THE WORLD GOING UNDER--EASTERN EUROPE, THEN WESTERN EUROPE, THEN ASIA.

"DO YOU WANT TO BE AN ISLAND IN THE MIDDLE OF A RED OCEAN?" HE THUNDERED. "SHALL WE BE THE LAST ISOLATED FORTRESS OF FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY?"

HIS FACE WAS BRICK RED, AND HIS VOICE WAS HUSKY NOW. HIS BIG FISTS BEAT THE AIR.

THEN CAME THE VOTE. THE HANDS OF THE CLOCK WERE ALMOST AT THE STROKE OF TWELVE. THREE OTHER SENATORS HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO SPEAK. THE FIRST OF THEM WAS RECOGNIZED. THERE WERE CALLS FOR "THE VOTE."

JUST BEFORE MIDNIGHT, IT BEGAN.

BEHIND THE SENATORS, THERE WAS A MAP OF EUROPE, PINNED TO THE WALL. ABOVE THE MAP, THE PACKED GALLERY LEANED FORWARD TENSELY.

THE RESULT WAS NEVER IN DOUBT--BUT IT CAME VERY LATE, AT THE LAST MOMENT.

TAXES
BY MARVIN L.ARROWSMITH

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-A REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED SENATE-HOUSE ECONOMIC SUBCOMMITTEE CAME OUT TODAY FOR REVIVAL OF THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX.

AND AS AN ANTI-INFLATION MEASURE THE SUBCOMMITTEE URGED THAT ANY CUT IN 1948 INCOME TAXES BE IN THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT SAVINGS BONDS TO BE HELD ONE OR TWO YEARS "OR UNTIL SUCH TIME THAT CONGRESS SHALL DETERMINE THAT INFLATIONARY DANGERS HAVE PASSED."

THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE, IN VOTING EARLIER THIS WEEK FOR A $4,700,000,00 (B)TAX CUT, TURNED THUMBS DOWN ON SIMILAR PROPOSALS FROM OTHER SOURCES.

IA. 1948

THE $6,500,000,000 (B) TAX-CUTTING BILL ALREADY PASSED BY THE HOUSE CONTAINS NO SUCH PROVISIONS, EITHER.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE, HEADED BY SENATOR WATKINS (R-UTAH), SET FORTH ITS RECOMMENDATIONS IN A REPORT ON ITS STUDY OF THE "HIGH PRICES OF CONSUMER GOODS." THE GROUP MADE ITS SURVEY LAST FALL IN A NUMBER OF FAR WESTERN CITIES.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) IS CHAIRMAN OF THE FULL ECONOMIC COMMITTEE, BUT HE IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH FILED THE REPORT.

BESIDES WATKINS, MEMBERS OF THE ECONOMIC SUBCOMMITTEE ARE:

SENATORS ECTON (R-MONT) AND O'MAHONEY (D-WYO), AND REPS.HORAN (R-WASH), POULSON (R-CALIF) AND HUBER (D-OHIO).

ON THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX, THE SUBCOMMITTEE SAID:

"DURING THIS PERIOD OF HIGH DEMAND AND ACCUMULATED SHORTAGES, IT IS INEVITABLE THAT MANY CORPORATIONS WILL REALIZE EXTRAORDINARY PROFITS. UNDER THESE CONDITIONS AN EXCESS PROFITS TAX SHOULD BE RESTORED."

THE WARTIME EXCESS PROFITS TAX WAS REPEALED IN 1945. THE SUBCOMMITTEE SAID A REVIVED LEVY "SHOULD PERMIT A BASE FOR COMPUTING EXCESS PROFITS HIGHER THAN THE WARTIME LEVEL BY AT LEAST ONE-THIRD."

THE GROUP SAID THE TAX RATE SHOULD BE GRADUATED WITH A TOP LIMIT OF 50 PER CENT. IT ADDED THAT SUCH A SCHEDULE "WOULD NOT UNDULY PENALIZE INITIATIVE AND EFFICIENCY, NOR ADVERSELY AFFECT REPLACEMENTS AND EXPANSION OF FACILITIES."

AS FOR INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAXES, THE SUBCOMMITTEE SAID:

"THE LARGE AND CONTINUING INCREASES IN THE TOTALS OF PERSONAL AND BUSINESS INCOMES AND EXPENDITURES HAVE EXERTED AND ARE EXERTING INFLATIONARY PRESSURES AGAINST AN INADEQUATE SUPPLY OF GOODS. OUTRIGHT TAX REDUCTIONS AT THIS TIME WILL INCREASE NET PERSONAL INCOMES AND PROLONG THE PERIOD OF PRICE INCREASES. X X X

"THEREFORE, IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT IF TAX REDUCTIONS OR REFUNDS ARE MADE AT THIS TIME, THESE SHOULD TAKE THE FORM OF REQUIRED SAVINGS IN UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BONDS, TO BE HELD BY THE RECIPIENT FOR A STATED PERIOD OF ONE OR TWO YEARS, OR UNTIL SUCH TIME AS CONGRESS SHALL DETERMINE THAT INFLATIONARY DANGERS HAVE PASSED."

STEEL PRICES
BY STERLING F.GREEN

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MARCH 13 (AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ECONOMIC ADVISERS SAID TONIGHT THE PRICE INCREASES BY MAJOR STEEL COMPANIES WERE ORDERED WITHOUT DUE REGARD FOR THE "PUBLIC INTEREST." THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID THEY WARRANT FURTHER ANTI-TRUST INVESTIGATION.

THREE REPORTS, REQUESTED BY MR.TRUMAN FOLLOWING FEBRUARY'S ROUND OF $5 TO $6 A TON PRICE BOOSTS ON SEMI-FINISHED STEEL, WERE MADE PUBLIC BY THE WHITE HOUSE.

MAR 1948

THE GIST OF THEIR FINDINGS:

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS: THE ACTION DEMONSTRATES THAT "INFLATIONARY INFLUENCES ARE STILL STRONG." PRICE, WAGE AND RATION CONTROL LEGISLATION SHOULD NOT BE DELAYED.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT: ALL PRODUCERS QUESTIONED HAVE DENIED PRICE-FIXING COLLUSION. FBI'S ANTI-TRUST INQUIRY SHOULD BE "COMPLETED" AND ENLARGED TO COVER OTHER RECENT STEEL PRICE HIKES. BUYERS OF FINISHED STEEL PRODUCTS ARE LIKELY TO BEAR THE BRUNT OF THE ADDED COST.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT: THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF THE FEBRUARY BOOST IS MORE THAN $30,000,000. THE EFFECT ON THE ULTIMATE BUYER OF CARS, REFRIGERATORS AND OTHER PRODUCTS CANNOT BE GAUGED "AT THIS TIME."

"THE ISSUE IS NOT WHETHER THE STEEL INDUSTRY IS GUILTY OF PROFITEERING," SAID THE REPORT OF THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL, HEADED BY EDWIN G. NOURSE.

"IT IS WHETHER, IN THE INTEREST OF THE HEALTH OF INDIVIDUAL COMPANIES, IT WAS NECESSARY IN THIS WAY TO ADD TO THE INFLATIONARY PRESSURES ON THE ECONOMY AT THIS TIME."

THE COUNCIL NOTIFIED MR.TRUMAN THAT THE PUBLICITY GIVEN HIS THREE-AGENCY INVESTIGATION "UNDOUBTEDLY" HAS HELD BACK OTHER COMPANIES FROM FOLLOWING THE STEEL INCREASES WITH PRICE BOOSTS OF THEIR OWN.

"THE STEEL PRICE ACTION FORCES UPON OUR ATTENTION THE FACT THAT INFLATIONARY INFLUENCES ARE STILL STRONG," THE COUNCIL WENT ON.

"IF THIS INFLATIONARY TREND IS TO BE HALTED WITHOUT BROAD USE OF PUBLIC POWERS, ALL THOSE WHO OCCUPY STRATEGIC POSITIONS IN THE SETTING OF PRICES, IN THE FIXING OF WAGES, AND IN THE GRANTING OF CREDIT MUST RECOGNIZE THE PUBLIC INTEREST IN THEIR PRIVATE ECONOMIC DECISIOAVAVAVAV

RECOGNIZE THE PUBLIC INTEREST IN THEIR PRIVATE ECONOMIC DECISIONS IN A WAY THE STEEL INDUSTRY HAS NOT SHOWN IN THIS INSTANCE.

"UP TO THIS TIME, THE EVIDENCE DOES NOT INDICATE THAT IT WAS PRUDENT TO POSTPONE ACTION UPON THE PRINCIPAL FEATURES OF THE ANTI-INFLATIONARY PROGRAM WHICH YOU PROPOSED IN NOVEMBER."

THE COUNCIL NOTED THAT STEEL PRICES HAVE RISEN LESS SINCE 1939 THAN THOSE OF OTHER MANUFACTURED GOODS AND "MUCH LESS" THAN FARM PRICES. NEVERTHELESS PROFITS OF THE STEEL INDUSTRY AFTER TAXES WERE HIGHER LAST YEAR "THAN AT ANY TIME IN ITS HISTORY."

THE FEBRUARY MARKET BREAK GAVE PROMISE OF A HEALTHY CHECK IN THE PRICE RISE, THE REPORT SAID. "UNFORTUNATELY, THE EFFECT OF THE RISE OF STEEL PRICES WIPED OUT SOME OF THIS ATMOSPHERE OF CAUTION AND RESTRAINT."

IT SERVED NOTICE ON THE PUBLIC, THE COUNCIL SAID, THAT "THIS PIVOTAL INDUSTRY INTERPRETED THE SITUATION AS STILL ONE OF INFLATION."

ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK FILED WHAT HE CALLED A "PROGRESS REPORT."

THIS INDICATED THAT THE FBI, WHICH SENT AGENTS INTO SIXTEEN LEADING

STEEL COMPANY OFFICES LAST MONTH, BELIEVES ITS PROBE STILL INCOMPLETE. CLARK DECLARED IT NECESSARY THAT THE INQUIRY GO FORWARD TO DISCOVER WHETHER THE COMPANIES ACTED UNDER AN AGREEMENT "IN VIOLATION OF THE ANTI-TRUST LAWS."

"ALL OF THE EXECUTIVES OF THE STEEL PRODUCERS WHO WERE INTERVIEWED ASSERTED THAT THEY HAD NO AGREEMENT WITH ANY COMPETITOR CONCERNING THE PRICE INCREASES X X X AND NO PRIOR DISCUSSION OF SUCH PRICE INCREASES," CLARK SAID.

VARIOUS COMPANY OFFICIALS HAVE STATED THEY DO NOT PLAN TO PASS ON THE INCREASE IN THE PRICE OF FINISHED ITEMS. HOWEVER, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT REPORTED THAT ALLEGHENY-LUDLUM STEEL COMPANY OF BRACKENRIDGE,PA., ONE OF THE USERS OF SEMI-FINISHED STEEL, ALREADY HAS FOUND IT NECESSARY TO BOOST PRICES FOR ITS FABRICATED PRODUCTS. CARBON STEEL STRIP HAS GONE UP $10 A TON BECAUSE OF THE FEBRUARY PRICE BOOST; IT IS USED IN AUTOS, AIRCRAFT AND OTHER PRODUCTS.

"IT WOULD APPEAR LIKELY THAT THE OTHER PURCHASERS OF SEMI-FINISHED PRODUCTS WILL FIND IT NECESSARY TO DO AS ALLEGHENY-LUDLUM HAS ALREADY DONE, NAMELY, TO PASS ON THESE INCREASES TO THE CONSUMERS," THE REPORT CONTINUED.

THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT PRESENTED A FACTS-AND-FIGURES STUDY OF STEEL PRICES AND PROFITS, WITHOUT DRAWING CONCLUSIONS AS TO INFLATIONARY EFFECTS. STEEL MILL PRODUCTS ROSE 25 PER CENT IN THE 19 MONTHS ENDED JANUARY 30, THIS REPORT SAID, WHILE THE TOTAL COMMODITY PRICE INDEX ROSE 47 PER CENT.

THE INDUSTRY'S RETURN ON INVESTMENT APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN HIGHER LAST YEAR THAN IN ANY EARLIER YEAR EXCEPT 1920 AND 1929, IT WAS SAID. THE RATE OF RETURN ON SALES, HOWEVER, WAS 6.2 PER CENT LOWER THAN IN THE 20'S AND ONLY ABOUT ONE-HALF OF THE 1929 RATIO. DESPITE THE 9.55 PER CENT RETURN ON INVESTMENT, COMMERCE NOTED THE EARNINGS KEPT BY THE STEEL PRODUCERS HAVE BEEN LESS THAN THE AMOUNT NECESSARY TO COVER THEIR OUTLAYS FOR PLANT AND EQUIPMENT.

THE 16 STEEL COMPANIES INVOLVED IN THE FBI INVESTIGATION, NOT PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED, WERE DISCLOSED TO BE:

CARNEGIE-ILLINOIS, PITTSBURGH; BETHLEHAM STEEL CO., BETHLEHEN, PA.; REPUBLIC STEEL CORP, CLEVELAND; JONES AND LAUGHLIN STEEL CORP., PITTSBURGH; INLAND STEEL CO., CHICAGO; COLUMBIA STEEL CO., SAN FRANCISCO; GENEVA STEEL CO., GENEVA, UTAH; TENNESSEE COAL, IRON AND RAILROAD CO., BIRMINGHAM,ALA.; YOUNGSTOWN SHEET AND TUBE CO., YOUNGSTOWN, O.; AMERICAN ROLLING MILL CO., MIDDLETOWN, O.; NATIONAL STEEL CORP., PITTSBURGH; WHEELING STEEL CORP., WHEELING,W.VA.; COLORADO FUEL AND IRON CORP., DENVER; ALLEGHENY-LUDLUM STEEL CORP., BRACKENRIDGE,PA.; SUPERIOR STEEL CORP; PITTSBURGH; ALLEN WOOD STEEL CO., CONSHOHOCKEN, PA.

(350) FOLO CHARLESTON

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 13-(AP)-IT WAS HIGHLY UNCERTAIN TODAY WHETHER JAMES F.BYRNES' SUGGESTION FOR A STERN NEW WARNING TO RUSSIA ACTUALLY WOULD BE CARRIED OUT BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

HOWEVER, THERE SEEMED TO BE NO DOUBT THE IDEA WOULD BE SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED.

IN FACT, SOME SUCH PLAN IS KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN DISCUSSED INFORMALLY BY STATE DEPARTMENT ADVISERS IN RECENT DAYS.

MAR 1948

BYRNES, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, SAID TODAY IN A SPEECH AT CHARLESTON, S.C., A NEW WARNING AGAINST "COERCIVEZ EXPANSION BY THE SOVIETS SHOULD BE SENT TO MOSCOW NOW.

HE ALSO ADVOCATED THAT CONGRESS REVIVE THE WARTIME DRAFT SETUP. BUT BYRNES EMPHASIZED THAT HE SPOKE AS A PRIVATE CITIZEN, WITHOUT FOREKNOWLEDGE BY THE ADMINISTRATION OF WHAT HE WAS GOING TO SAY.

BYRNES' SPEECH APPEARED TO BE GENERALLY IN LINE WITH THE THINKING OF HIS FORMER ADVISERS AND ASSOCIATES AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT. MANY OF THEM ARE CONVINCED THAT A SHOWDOWN WITH RUSSIA OVER EUROPE IS A MATTER OF THE NEXT FEW WEEKS.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAD NO FORMAL COMMENT ON THE SPEECH. NEVERTHELESS, IT SEEMED ASSURED OF A WARM WELCOME HERE AS OFFICIALS EXAMINED IT AND ITS POTENTIAL EFFECT ON AMERICAN THINKING ABOUT THE CONFLICT WITH RUSSIA.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES STRESSED THAT IN THEIR UNOFFICIAL VIEW BYRNES HAD DEVELOPED CLEARLY THE INABILITY OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO ADVOCATE A LINE OF DIPLOMACY GOING BEYOND THAT WHICH CONGRESS MAKES POSSIBLE.

ONE RESPONSIBLE OFFICIAL PUT IT THIS WAY: "THERE MIGHT BE EXCELLENT RESULTS FROM LETTING THE RUSSIANS KNOW PRECISELY WHERE WE STAND, BUT THERE IS NO SENSE IN TALKING BEYOND OUR POWER TO MAKE GOOD ON WHAT WE SAY."

SECRETARY MARSHALL WARNED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THIS WEEK AGAINST WHAT HE CALLED "PASSIONS" FOR A DEMAND TO DO SOMETHING LEADING THE COUNTRY INTO AN IMPROPER COURSE.

MARSHALL HAS TOLD FRIENDS AND ASSOCIATES THAT HE THINKS THE UNITED STATES OUGHT TO FOLLOW A "COLDLY CALCULATED" COURSE OF ACTION IN RESPECT TO THE RUSSIANS AND BE READY TO BACK UP OUR WORDS WITH REAL POWER.

SKOURAS SPOKE AT THE FORUM ON MOTION PICTURES AT THE FOUNDERS' DAY INSTITUTE OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

"WE OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY ARE NO PARTISANS, OF COURSE, FOR ANYTHING EXCEPT A BETTER WORLD," SKOURAS SAID IN HIS PREPARED ADDRESS.

"IF OUR FILMS DID NOT PORTRAY THE WAYS OF DEMOCRACY IN UNFLINCHING FASHION, AS THEY DO, THEY WOULD NOT TODAY BE BARRED FROM SOVIET RUSSIA. EVEN SO, THE TIME WILL COME WHEN THE PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS WILL SHARE THROUGH THE SCREEN THE THOUGHTS AND ASPIRATIONS OF THEIR BROTHERS EVERYWHERE.

"THOSE GOVERNMENTS AND LEGISLATORS WHICH STILL TRY TO STIFLE FREE EXPRESSION AND CURB THE FREE FLOW OF INFORMATION ACROSS THE BORDERS OF SOME COUNTRIES CANNOT PREVAIL AGAINST MANKIND'S DEMAND FOR KNOWLEDGE FREELY IMPARTED."

(ADVANCE)...BOSTON, MARCH 13-(AP)-GROVE PATTERSON, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF THE TOLEDO (OHIO) BLADE, SAID TODAY THE "INSTITUTIONS OF DEMOCRACY REST MORE SECURELY UPON THE FOUNDATION OF A FREE PRESS X X X THAN UPON ANY OTHER IDEA OR PRACTICE."

PATTERSON TOLD A FOUNDERS DAY OBSERVANCE OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY, IN A PREPARED ADDRESS, THAT "THE FREE NEWSPAPER IS A MAJOR DEFENSE THAT CAN KEEP ONE MAN OR ONE GROUP OF MEN FROM STEALING A GOVERNMENT AND OPERATING IT IN THE INTEREST OF A PRIVILEGED FEW."

"THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER," HE SAID, "IS PECULIARLY THE MEDIUM FOR THE EXPRESSION OF THE MINORITY NOT IN POWER, BECAUSE IT IS NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT.

"FREE EXPRESSION, CREATING PUBLIC OPINION, IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ATTRIBUTE OF DEMOCRACY, AND A FREE NEWSPAPER IS ITS MOST VITAL MEDIUM."

"IT IS MY OPINION," HE ADDED, "THAT ALL THE EVILS INHERENT IN TOTALITARIANISM, IN WHATEVER NATION IT CAME TO PASS, COULD HAVE BEEN PREVENTED OR DESTROYED IN 60 DAYS IF THERE HAD BEEN A FREE PRESS.

"UNHAPPILY THE AVERAGE AMERICAN CITIZEN DOES NOT THINK THROUGH THE MEANING OF A FREE PRESS, ITS SIGNIFICANCE IN REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

"IT PROBABLY OCCURS ONLY TO A MINORITY THAT THE INSTITUTIONS OF A DEMOCRACY DO INDEED REST UPON A SYSTEM WHICH OPENS AND KEEPS OPEN A CHANNEL FOR HUMAN EXPRESSION, A CHANNEL THROUGH WHICH FLOWS, FROM THE CENTER OF THE GOVERNMENT, THE STREAM OF INFORMATION WHICH MAKES IT POSSIBLE FOR A DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION TO FUNCTION OVER THE FARFLUNG TERRITORY OF A NATION."

CINCINNATI, MARCH 13-(AP)-HEBREW UNION COLLEGE'S NEW PRESIDENT SAID TODAY REPUDIATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS' PLAN FOR PARTITION OF PALESTINE COULD RESULT IN "INTERNATIONAL ANARCHY."

"PEACE IN PALESTINE AND PEACE ON EARTH ARE ULTIMATELY INDIVISIBLE," DR.NELSON GLUECK SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY FOLLOWING HIS INSTALLATION AS THE FOURTH PRESIDENT OF THE 73-YEAR-OLD REFORMED JEWISH SEMINARY.

GLUECK, 48-YEAR-OLD INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN ARCHAEOLOGIST AND SCHOLAR, SUCCEEDS DR.JULIAN MORGENSTERN, WHO RETIRED. INSTALLATION CEREMONIES WERE PRECEDED BY A COLORFUL PROCESSION OF 125 RABBIS AND 50 REPRESENTATIVES OF ACADEMIC AND THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTIONS AND LEADERS IN ALL WALKS OF JEWISH LIFE.

DECLARING THAT PALESTINE "HAS RIGHTFULLY BECOME A CRUCIAL CONCERN OF THE ASSEMBLY OF NATIONS AND AN INTEGRAL INTEREST OF AMERICA," GLUECK SAID ABANDONMENT OF THE PARTITION PLAN WHILE IT IS "LITERALLY UNDER FIRE, IS TO GIVE FREEDOM TO FRIGHTFULNESS AND LEND LICENSE TO TERROR."

"THE NETTLE OF ENFORCEMENT OF ITS DECISIONS MUST BE GRASPED BY THE UNITED NATIONS, ELSE IT CANNOT SURVIVE," HE CONTINUED. "IF ITS MEMBERS ACCEPT OF ITS EDICTS ONLY WHAT IS CONVENIENT AND COMFORTABLE, WILL NOT INTERNATIONAL ANARCHY ENSUE?"

GLUECK URGED "CHRISTIANS AND MOSLEMS AND JEWS ENDLESSLY EXAMINE EVERY AVENUE OF CONCILIATION, EVERY POSSIBILITY OF BROTHERHOOD."

DR.STEPHEN S.WISE OF NEW YORK, PRESIDENT OF THE JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION, PAID TRIBUTE TO GLUECK AS A MAN WELL QUALIFIED TO ACHIEVE "THE HIGHER UNITY OF OUR PEOPLE, TO GIVE LEADERSHIP, NOT TO A SECT OR PARTY, BUT TO THE WHOLE JEWISH COMMUNITY IN ITS MANY-SIDEDNESS."

"THE DEGRADATION AND DEVASTATION OF ALL EUROPEAN LIFE," SAID DR. JONAH B.WISE OF NEW YORK, "HAS FORCED ON AMERICAN JEWRY THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR CARRYING ON THAT CULTURE WHICH IS KNOWN AS ISRAEL."

IN A MESSAGE IN CONNECTION WITH GLUECK'S INAUGURATION, PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID "RELIGIOUS FAITH IS ONE OF THE MOST ESSENTIAL FACTORS IN THE BUILDING OF A WORLD STRUCTURE FOR PEACE AND CO-OPERATION." THE PRESIDENT ADDED:

"IN THIS DAY, WHEN THE MORAL INFLUENCE OF RELIGION IS SO IMPORTANT TO THE PRESERVATION OF FREE INSTITUTIONS, WE ARE FORTUNATE THAT A MAN OF DR.GLUECK'S BRILLIANT INTELLECT AND RELIGIOUS DEVOTION HAS ASSUMED THE IMPORTANT RESPONSIBILITY AND TRAINING YOUNG RABBIS FOR THE LEADERSHIP OF AMERICAN JEWRY."

CINCINNATI, MARCH 13-(AP)-SAMUEL I.ROSENMAN, FORMER NEW YORK STATE SUPREME COURT JUDGE AND ADVISOR TO THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, SAID TODAY HE CONSIDERED PRESIDENT TRUMAN CAPABLE OF "CARRYING ON THE ROOSEVELT BANNER" ALTHOUGH, IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, "HE IS BEING LED DOWN THE WRONG ALLEY" BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

HERE TO ADDRESS TONIGHT'S INAUGURATION DINNER OF DR.NELSON GLUECK, NEW PRESIDENT OF HEBREW UNION COLLEGE, ROSENMAN SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT ROOSEVELT'S POLICY WOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN ONE OF APPEASEMENT OF RUSSIA.

MAR 1948

HE DESCRIBED THE YALTA AGREEMENT AS A BARGAIN BY ROOSEVELT TO DRAW RUSSIA INTO THE WAR "WHEN IT APPEARED IN FEBRUARY, 1945, THAT PEACE WOULD BE THREE YEARS OFF AND WE DID NOT KNOW WE HAD THE ATOMIC BOMB."

AFTER THE WAR ENDED, ROSENMAN SAID, ROOSEVELT WOULD HAVE ADOPTED A FIRMER POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA AND "WOULD NOT HAVE ALLOWED THAT POLICY TO DETERIORATE AS IT DID UNDER FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE BYRNES."

ROSENMAN SAID HE BELIEVED HENRY WALLACE WAS "DELUDING PEOPLE INTO THINKING HE IS CARRYING ROOSEVELT'S BANNER."

THE VICTORY OF THE WALLACE CANDIDATE IN THE RECENT BRONX ELECTION WAS DUE TO "DISSATISFACTION OVER THE STATE DEPARTMENT-INSPIRED TEMPORIZATION ON THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE," HE ASSERTED.

"THE UNITED NATIONS IS BEING KILLED IN PALESTINE," HE DECLARED. "WE GOT A LITTLE 'BOO' FROM A FEW ARABS AND HAVE BACKED AWAY."

DURING THE DAY, HUNDREDS OF JEWISH LEADERS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY LOOKED ON AT THE PLUM STREET SYNOGOGUE AS DR.GLUECK, WORLD-RENOWNED ARCHAEOLOGIST, WAS INSTALLED AS FOURTH PRESIDENT OF THE 73-YEAR-OLD COLLEGE, THE OLDEST JEWISH SEMINARY IN AMERICA.

IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS, DR.GLUECK SAID PEACE ON EARTH--AND IN PALESTINE--WERE "ULTIMATELY INDIVISIBLE."

"REPUDIATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS' PLAN FOR PARTITION OF PALESTINE," HE ASSERTED, "WILL RESULT IN INTERNATIONAL ANARCHY."

(ADVANCE) (NY) CINCINNATI, O., MARCH 13-(AP)-JUDGE SAMUEL I. ROSENMAN SAID TONIGHT THE WORLD CANNOT PERMIT THE "CONCEPT OF DOMINATION BY ONE NATION OVER ANOTHER TO SPREAD IN 1948 ANY MORE THAN IT SHOULD HAVE PERMITTED IT IN 1938."

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR THE INAUGURATION OF DR. NELSON GLUECK AS PRESIDENT OF HEBREW UNION COLLEGE, ROSENMAN SAID RESISTANCE TO SUCH DOMINATION "MEANS FIRST THE ADOPTION OF THE MARSHALL PLAN."

THE LEGAL ADVISOR TO THE LATE PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT SAID: "THERE ARE EVEN THOSE WHO SEEK HIGH PUBLIC OFFICE ON A PLATFORM OF APPEASEMENT OF RUSSIA--FALSELY URGING UPON MEN AND WOMEN OF GOOD WILL, THAT APPEASEMENT IS THE WAY TO PEACE.

"THE FATE OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN 1938 AND 1948, THE IMPENDING FATE OF FINLAND, THE WHOLE SAD STORY OF THE BALKAN STATES--ALL THESE PROVIDE THE READY ANSWER TO THE EASY BLANDISHMENTS OF POLITICIANS WHO URGED APPEASEMENT OF RUSSIA."

AMERICA, HE SAID, "WILL REJECT A POLICY OF APPEASEMENT TODAY, AND WILL INSIST ON A POLICY OF RESISTANCE."

"IT MEANS ITS (MARSHALL PLAN) ADOPTION BY A VOTE WHICH WILL TELL THE WOULD-BE CONQUERORS OF THE WORLD THAT WE MEAN TO RESIST--JUST AS WE TOLD IT TO THEM IN 1941 WHEN WE ADOPTED LEND-LEASE.

"RESISTANCE MEANS THAT WE MUST REMAIN STRONG IN TERMS OF OUR ARMY, NAVY AND AIRFORCE. WE MUST REMAIN THE STRONGEST NATION IN THE WORLD. THAT IS THE LANGUAGE THE DICTATOR UNDERSTANDS--NOT APPEASEMENT."

BUT, HE SAID, "IT IS NOT ENOUGH TO STOP BAD THINGS; WE MUST ALSO BE PREPARED TO DO GOOD THINGS. WE MUST CONTINUE TO EXPAND, TO REINVIGORATE OUR DEMOCRACY, TO FIGHT WITH ALL OUR ENERGIES TO MAKE IT HERE AT HOME A LIVING THING.

"WE MUST SHOW THE WORLD THAT DEMOCRACY IS GOOD--AND THAT IT WORKS."

THE UNITED NATIONS "EXPRESSES IN TERMS OF WORLD DEMOCRACY WHAT OR OWN SSTEM OF GOVERNMENT TYPIFIES IN TERMS OF NATIONAL DE

MAR

WHAT OUR OWN SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT TYPIFIES IN TERMS OF NATIONAL DEMOCRACY," HE SAID, ADDING THAT THE U.N. FACED "ITS FIRST GREAT CRISIS" ON PALESTINE.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE U.N. PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN, HE SAID "THE UNITED NATIONS CANNOT NOW RUN AWAY--TO FIGHT ANOTHER DAY. ITS TIME IS NOW."

UNLESS "WE NOW BACK UP THE DECISIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS" ON PALESTINE, THEN THE "VERY LIFE OF THE UNITED NATIONS WILL BE IN DANGER AND CONSUMMATION OF PEACE PERHAPS FOREVER FRUSTRATED," HE SAID.

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 13-(AP)-IRISH POLITICS HAVE NOT SEEN THE LAST OF EAMON DEVALERA, FORMER PRIME MINISTER OF EIRE WHO RULED THE IRISH REPUBLIC FOR 16 YEARS.

HE EMPHASIZED ON HIS ARRIVAL HERE YESTERDAY TO PARTICIPATE IN ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATIONS THAT WHEN HE RETURNS HOME EARLY NEXT MONTH HE WILL GO AS "LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION."

DEVALERA STEPPED OUT OF OFFICE RECENTLY WHEN HIS PARTY FAILED TO GAIN A CLEAR PARLIAMENTARY MAJORITY IN THE EIRE GENERAL ELECTION.

THE IRISH PATRIOT REFUSED TO DISCUSS THE ELECTION AND OTHER IRISH ISSUES. HE TOLD REPORTERS IT WOULD BE "IMPERTINENT" FOR HIM TO DISCUSS DOMESTIC ISSUES ON U.S. SOIL.

DEVALERA SAID HE HAD BEEN MORE HOPEFUL OF THE PROSPECTS OF THE OLD LEAGUE OF NATIONS THAN HE HAS AT ANY TIME CONCERNING THE UNITED NATIONS.

HE SAID HIS TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO WAS MADE PRACTICALLY ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT BUT THAT HE HAD ALWAYS WANTED TO RETURN HERE AFTER A VISIT IN 1930.

AFTER A BUSY SCHEDULE HERE DEVALERA WILL GO TO LOS ANGELES. HE ALSO RECEIVED AN INVITATION FROM THE CALIFORNIA STATE SENATE TO SPEAK BEFORE IT IN SACRAMENTO NEXT WEEK.

U.N.-MEMBERSHIP (400)
BY LARRY HAUCK
(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 13-(AP)-INDICATIONS ARE THAT RUSSIA WILL CONTINUE A SINGLE-HANDED VETO DICTATORSHIP OVER ADMITTING NEW MEMBERS TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

SIX APPLICANTS FOR ENTRY INTO THE 57-NATION AGENCY HAVE BEEN TURNED BACK IN THE PAST BY SOVIET VETOES.

PROSPECTS NOW ARE THAT THE SIX WILL FACE THE SAME OBSTACLE THIS YEAR IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL AS WILL ANY NEW BIDDERS WHO DO NOT MEET THE SOVIET STANDARDS.

RUSSIAN OBJECTIONS HAVE PIVOTED ON TWO POINTS: (1) THE COUNTRY CONCERNED MUST HAVE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH MOSCOW AND (2) EX-ENEMY COUNTRIES MUST BE ADMITTED IN A BLOCK AND NOT INDIVIDUALLY.

THE U.N. CHARTER GIVES ONLY ONE QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP, BUT THAT FACT HAS MADE NO DENT IN THE SOVIET ARGUMENTS. THE U.N. CHARTER SAYS MERELY:

"MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS IS OPEN TO ALL OTHER PEACE-LOVING STATES WHICH ACCEPT THE OBLIGATIONS CONTAINED IN THE PRESENT CHARTER AND, IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE ORGANIZATION, ARE ABLE AND WILLING TO CARRY OUT THESE OBLIGATIONS."

BURMA'S RECENT APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP ILLUSTRATES A WIDE APPROACH TO THE SOVIET BARRIER. BURMA RECEIVED COMPLETE INDEPENDENCE FROM BRITAIN JAN.4 AND ANNOUNCED PLANS TO APPLY IMMEDIATELY TO GET INTO THE U.N. HOWEVER, THE APPLICATION WAS DEFERRED UNTIL FEB.27, TWO DAYS AFTER THE RANGOON GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED IT WAS SETTING UP DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH MOSCOW.

SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI A.GROMYKO VETOED IRELAND, TRANS-JORDAN AND PORTUGAL IN 1946 AND AGAIN IN 1947 ON THE PRINCIPAL GROUNDS THAT THEY HAVE NO AMBASSADORS IN MOSCOW. LAST YEAR HE VETOED ITALY, FINLAND AND AUSTRIA BECAUSE HE SAID THEY COULD NOT BE ADMITTED UNLESS HUNGARY, BULGARIA AND RUMANIA WERE TAKEN IN AT THE SAME TIME. THE LATTER THREE WERE UNACCEPTABLE TO THE WESTERN POWERS.

A140

THE COUNCIL WILL HAVE ANOTHER CREACK AT SOVIET-SPONSORED ALBANIA AND OUTER MONGOLIA, WHICH TWICE HAVE FAILED TO MUSTER THE NECESSARY SEVEN OUT OF 11 VOTES IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THE U.S. AND BRITAIN OPPOSE THEM AND BULGARIA, HUNGARY AND RUMANIA.

ASIDE FROM THE 12 NATIONS LISTED ABOVE, FEW PROSPECTS REMAIN IN THE WORLD. GERMANY AND JAPAN WILL COME AFTER THE TREATIES ARE SIGNED. SWITZERLAND HAS INSISTED ON STAYING OUT IN THE TRADITIONAL NEUTRAL ROLE. THE U.N. CONTINUES TO BAR FRANCO SPAIN. THE NEBULOUS UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA MAY ASK TO COME IN EVENTUALLY.

THE U.N. STARTED OUT WITH 51 MEMBERS. SINCE THEN ONLY AFGHANISTAN, ICELAND, SWEDEN, SIAM, PAKISTAN AND YEMEN HAVE GOT OVER THE HURDLES IN THE COUNCIL TEST.

THE OLD LEAGUE OF NATIONS HAD A MAXIMUM MEMBERSHIP OF 60. PLANS FOR THE U.N. SKYSCRAPER HEADQUARTERS IN MANHATTAN PROVIDE QUARTERS FOR 70 DELEGATIONS.

THE COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO START ITS YEARLY DEBATE ON MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS LATE IN THE SPRING. DISCUSSIONS WILL BE MOVED UP IN ORDER TO CLEAR THE DECKS FOR THE U.N.'S LATER-SUMMER MOVE TO FRANCE FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SESSIONS.

THE ASSEMBLY OPENS IN PARIS SEPT.21 AND THE 57-NATION BODY MUST PASS FINALLY ON THE NEW MEMBERS. HOWEVER, THE ASSEMBLY CANNOT ADMIT ANY NATION NOT APPROVED BY THE COUNCIL.

AUSTIN REFERRED TO PALESTINE IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE YOUNG JOURNALISTS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE UNITED STATES ATTENDING THE COLUMBIA SCHOLASTIC PRESS ASSOCIATION. ON THE TWO PREVIOUS OCCASIONS U.S. DELEGATION SPOKESMEN DECLARED THIS COUNTRY HAS NOT CHANGED ITS STAND FOR PARTITION BUT IS SEEKING A PEACEFUL WAY FOR CARRYING IT OUT.

THE U.S. DELEGATE TOLD THE YOUNG JOURNALISTS THAT AN EDITOR OR REPORTER HAS A SACRED OBLIGATION NOT TO CIRCULATE DISTORTED INFORMATION, HALF-TRUTHS, OR WILD GUESSES AS NEWS.

CARELESSLY CAN JEOPARDIZE HOPES OF BUILDING A PEACEFUL FUTURE.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HAS RECOMMENDED A PLAN FOR THE PEOPLE OF THAT DISTURBED COUNTRY TO LIVE TOGETHER IN ECONOMIC UNION WITH AUTONOMY FOR TWO STATES AND A SPECIAL INTERNATIONAL REGIME FOR JERUSALEM.

Italian Elections Spur Action by House Group On European Aid Plan

COMMITTEE SEEKS TO REACH DECISION WITHIN FEW DAYS

Vorys Believes House Can Pass Measure Before Easter.

NEED OF SPEED CITED

Lower Body Differs on Some Points of Bill Passed by Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) The $5,300,000,000 European recovery plan plunges into the showdown stage tomorrow in the House Foreign Affairs committee. The Senate rammed it to passage early today, 69 to 17.

With a wary eye on the red shadow over Europe, foreign affairs members are talking of making some changes and still okaying the recovery plan before the week rolls by.

Agree on Vital Point

On one vital point there is general agreement in the House:

A bill to let America put billions into the battle designed to keep communism from crunching across Europe will be in President Truman's hands in plenty of time before Italy's critical mid-April elections.

Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the House Democratic leader, told a reporter he gets word the Foreign Affairs committee can have a bill ready by Wednesday.

Rep. Vorys (R.-Ohio) agreed that is possible. Vorys is carrying much of the load of handling the bill for Committee Chairman Eaton (R.-N. J.).

"It is my personal opinion," he said, "that it is possible for the House to pass a bill before Easter (March 28). I mean a single package bill.

"We aren't going to be stampeded, but I believe we can act both intelligently and rapidly. And we will certainly keep the Italian situation in mind."

With communists bidding for more power in Italy, the people vote April 18. The administration wants action on the Marshall Plan well ahead of that time to assure the Italians more American help will be on the way soon.

Must Vote on Funds Bill

Even after Congress authorizes the aid, it still has to pass another bill appropriating the money.

The Senate passed the foreign aid bill to the House early this morning. The clock on the wall of the chamber had edged just seven minutes into Sunday.

The Senate had been talking and scrapping exactly 69 hours and 17 minutes. Then it passed the bill by a 69 to 17 vote.

Vory's reference to a one package bill points up a big difference between the Senate and House.

The bill the Senate approved by that four to one margin is limited to economic help for 16 western European nations. To help those that take steps to help themselves, it authorizes the spending of the $5,300,000,000 in the first year, starting April 1. The administration had asked $6,800,000,000 for the first 15 months.

The administration also has asked separately for $275,000,000 for miiltary aid for Greece and Turkey and $570,000,000 for economic assistance to China.

And now with the backing of Republican leaders, the House committee says it intends to package these programs into the European aid bill, plus something the administration has not recommended—military help for China.

Furthermore, attempts may be made both in the committee and in the House itself to cut the $5,300,000,000 for Europe. It still is undecided, too, how the committee and House will want the European program run.

Many House members favor turning the job over to a new government corporation. A special committee on foreign aid headed by Rep. Herter (R.-Mass.) recommended this after a tour of Europe last fall.

The Senate voted for a single, independent administrator of cabinet rank to operate the Marshall Plan. He would have an advisory board, and a roving ambassador would help manage things overseas.

The administrator would work closely with the secretary of state, and the President would referee any major rows between them.

TASS ASSAILS U.S. ZONE ACT

Charges De-Nazification Methods Violate Pact

London, March 14 (AP)—Tass said tonight Russia had accused the United States of using de-Nazification methods which violated a four-power decision.

The Russian news agency distributed a statement issued by the information bureau of the Soviet Military Government in Germany.

Tass quoted the statement as saying:

"De-Nazification in the American occupation zone consists of protecting and vindicating big Fascists and war criminals of the wealthy classes and condemning former members of the Hitlerite party belonging to the working sections of the population.

Also Accuses Clay

"This is a violation of the four-power decision on the de-Nazification and demilitarization of Germany."

The agency said the Russian statement also formally accused Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor of Germany, of speaking "at variance with the facts" when he declared de-Nazification procedure had ended in the Russian zone.

The statement indicated that Clay implied Russia had ended de-Nazification before the task was complete in eastern Germany.

It quoted Clay as saying in a declaration published March 3 in an American-licensed Berlin newspaper:

"De-Nazification in the American zone will be completed by June 1. There is a difference between the ending of de-Nazification in the American and in the Russian zone. In the eastern zone, de-Nazification has been ended by the order of the Russian commander, General Sokolovsky. In the American zone, on the contrary, de-Nazification is in fact being carried out to the end."

Calls Task Fulfilled

The Soviet statement said the Russian de-Nazification commission in eastern Germany had been "disbanded as having fulfilled its task."

"Things are otherwise in the American occupation zone, where de-Nazification has been practically disrupted," it added.

The Russians said the Soviet administration was "prepared to renew a proposal for a quadripartite checkup" on the fulfillment of de-Nazification. The United States, Britain and France have been blocking such a checkup, they charged.

Bulgars Will Go to Moscow

LONDON, March 14 (AP)—The Moscow radio said tonight that a Bulgarian Government delegation headed by Premier Georgi Dimitrov would leave for Moscow tomorrow.

EUROPEAN UNIFICATION TALKS SET

16 Nations To Determine Power To Be Vested In Central Body

DYNAN

Paris, March 14 (AP)—Leaders of the sixteen Marshall plan nations centered their attention today on the structure of a permanent inter-European organization.

They meet tomorrow to make their next move toward continental unification. The question tonight was:

Will the organization to come out of this conference be a regional group with real powers, or simply a collection of secretaries to compile reports?

Bidault Favors Strong Group

French official quarters feel that a regional group with real powers might be the forerunner of an eventual continental federation. The western European union created at Brussels by Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg was seen as a step in this direction.

French informants said Georges Bidault, Foreign Minister, may urge in his welcoming address the creation of a strong executive body with power to supervise details of the reconstruction program in each country.

Until now this position has been challenged by Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, who has favored a secretariat with consultative authority. The Brussels pact may alter his stand.

Bevin Speaks Today

Bevin also speaks tomorrow. British informants predict he will make an important statement on his country's foreign policy. He will preside at the opening session of the sixteen-nation committee for European Economic Co-operation, in the Clock Room of the French Foreign Ministry.

[As Bevin left London tonight for the conference, he said "I am always a born optimist."

[Asked if he thought this week's meeting would lead to greater integration and wider co-operation in Europe, he replied "if all nations were free they would all do it now. All the countries wanted to come in last June but they were prevented."]

To Release Treaty Text

Delegates from other countries expressed interest in provisions of the five-power Brussels pact. The text of the treaty is scheduled for Wednesday release, but its provisions were being explained in private conservations with delegations outside the five powers.

Three foreign ministers—Necmeddin Sadak, of Turkey; Sean MacBride, of Eire, and Constantin Tsaldaris, of Greece—called on Bidault for a first-hand fill-in on the Brussels pact.

MacBride said Eire has no intention of proposing admission of Spain into the conference but added if such a proposal were made Eire would not oppose it. He knew of no such proposition to include Spain in the program, he said.

Tsaldaris Sees Sforza

Tsaldaris conferred later with Carlo Sforza, Italian Foreign Minister. Bidault plans to receive the other foreign ministers before the conference opens.

The conference is the second formal meeting of nations seeking to participate in the Marshall plan. United States Senate passage of the European recovery program was hailed by a spokesman for Bidault as a "great encouragement" to the efforts of Europeans to unite.

MacBride declared "with the help of the United States western Europe can defeat another cataclysm." He called for the sixteen nations to unite in a war against poverty.

Foreign Ministers Listed

Fourteen foreign ministers will participate—Bevin, Bidault, Tsaldaris, Sforza, Sadak, MacBride, Karl Gruber, of Austria; Gustav Rasmussen, of Denmark; Premier Paul-Henri Spaak, of Belgium; Baron van Boetzelaer van Oesterhout, of Holland; Joseph Bech, of Luxembourg; Halvard Lange, of Norway; Jose Caeiro de Mata, of Portugal; and Oesten Unden, of Sweden.

Iceland sent Ambassador Petar Benediktsson and Switzerland sent Ambassador Carl J. Burckhardt.

ITALY WARNED BY DE GASPERI

Beware Of Dictatorship By Aliens, Says Premier

Rome, March 14 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi bitterly denounced communism today and warned Italians to beware of losing their freedom to a "dictatorship of men from another country."

Speaking in the southern province of Catanzaro, the Christian Democratic Premier charged that the Communists are planning "illegal agitation" in Italy.

His speech was one of more than a score made by the leaders of various political parties throughout the peninsula.

Date Is April 18

Italy's 27,000,000 voters will elect their first republican parliament April 18. The election will give an indication whether Italians look west to the United States or eastward to Russia.

De Gasperi said it "is impossible to collaborate with the Italian Communist party . . . in so far as it is part of an international movement. . . ."

The Premier told his fellow countrymen: "You have already once lost freedom through an Italian dictatorship. Take care you do not tomorrow again lose it, and this time not by an Italian dictatorship but a dictatorship of men from another country."

United States Aid Discussed

American aid was the chief topic of many of the speakers. In a Naples speech, Ivan Matteo Lombardo, leader of the Socialist Unity group, said: "We must not remain diffident or even neutral before the Marshall plan. It is an instrument of battle against misery and hunger."

Pietro Nenni, head of the pro-Communist Socialist party, told a Milan audience that Italy's position with regard to the Marshall plan must be critical, not negative. This means, he said, that the Marshall plan "must be rejected insofar as it is dangerous to peace and must be accepted insofar as it is useful for the rehabilitation of Italy."

DE GAULLE SUPPORTERS, REDS STAGE SCUFFLES

PARIS, March 14—(AP) Scuffles between Communists and supporters of Gen. Charles De Gaulle were reported from central France today for the second time in 24 hours.

Fist fights broke out in a square of Clermont-Ferrand when Communists tried to break up a De Gaullist meeting. Troops and police cleared the square. Later the fight resumed at a Communist meeting in front of party headquarters. Police again dispersed the crowd.

At Thiers last night, Communists broke up a Gaullist meeting. A policeman said "there was nothing serious. Just a few black eyes and some skinned knuckles."

Meanwhile, some 18,000 coal miners in northern France prepared to return to work after a week-end strike led by the Communist-controlled General Confederation of Labor.

Haile Selassie Orders Beer

Hamburg, Germany, March 14 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie has sent ten tons of barley to Bavaria to be brewed and returned to Ethiopia as beer. The joint export-import agency, which handled the deal, said Haile Selassie will get 1,000 crates of beer.

Russians Wounded in Germany

BERLIN, March 14 (AP)—The Russians have ordered every inhabitant of Jueterbog searched for weapons following the mysterious shooting of six Soviet soldiers, the British-licensed newspaper Telegraf said today. Jueterbog, about forty miles southeast of Berlin in the Russian occupation zone, has a population of 10,000. The Telegraf said that the soldiers reported to quarters between Feb. 28 and March 5 with gunshot wounds "whose origin was not explained."

PREMIER LINES UP SWEDISH LEADERS IN ANTI-RED DRIVE

STOCKHOLM, March 14—(AP) Events in Finland and Czechoslovakia have stirred up a spring storm against the communists in Sweden.

The Social Democrats, dominant political party of the country, have set April 1-25 for a campaign against the communists to be waged in speeches, debates, newspaper articles and pamphlets.

Premier Tage Erlander, lining up with his colleagues in Norway and Denmark, keynoted the campaign with the declaration:

Promise War on Reds

"We shall fight the communists by democratic methods and spiritual means."

Resolutions by the Social Democratic, liberal and conservative youth organizations protested against "subversive activities" of the communists. Said the Social Democratic Youth League:

"The fight against the communists is more urgent than ever. It must go on unrelentingly."

Ture Nerman, Social Democratic senator, said at a Stockholm meeting where many were turned away:

"The train is going west. The only natural course for Scandinavia is to join the west with Bevin's Great Britain as the leading power."

There has been a tendency toward cooperation between communists and Social Democrats in the labor unions and some Social Democratic leaders were said to have communist leanings.

Now the frontiers between the two parties are being more clearly drawn.

While the anti-communist stand is a decided one, it should not be taken for granted that Sweden will quickly abandon her middle-of-the-road neutrality.

Oesten Unden, foreign minister, wrote recently in the magazine Vaerldshorisont, Swedish counterpart of United Nations World: "Sweden will not be driven into a power bloc."

Yet no doubt exists that the events in Finland and Czechoslovakia are giving the Swedes a headache.

There's no apparent connection, but the magazine Nordisk Medicin notes that the annual consumption of aspirin in Sweden amounts to 60 tablets for every man, woman and child. "We are not that ill," says the medical magazine. "This is definitely an abuse."

Battle-Of-The-Bulge Dead To Be Sent Home

Luxembourg, March 14 (AP)—The United States military cemetery at Hamm, Luxembourg, was closed today. Bodies of several thousand Americans who died during the Battle of the Bulge in December, 1944, will be sent to the United States.

Army authorities said the most frequently visited grave, that of Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., will be left as it is. The 3d Army commander was buried with 8,400 other United States soldiers, many from his outfit.

Speaking at ceremonies officially closing the cemetery, Lieut. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner, deputy European commander in chief, described General Patton as "perhaps the greatest combat leader that modern war produced."

GREEK GUERRILLAS ABDUCT 1,732 YOUNG

U.S. Official Sees Attempt To Create Refugee Burden

Athens, March 14 (AP)—Press dispatches from Salonika said today Communist-led guerrillas had abducted 1,732 children from northern Greece.

A high American official said this latest tactic of Markos Vafiades, the guerrilla leader, seems designed to overburden the Greek economy with refugees.

The official, who could not be quoted by name, said the kidnappings spurred the flight of families to urban centers. American funds are already supporting 500,000 refugees from guerrilla-threatened areas, who have sought the protection of larger cities.

Attempt To Terrorize

Greek officials said the kidnappings were moves by the guerrillas to terrorize civilians but speculated that the abductions would only increase anti-Communist feeling.

Some military observers said the guerrillas may be attempting to create a reservoir of manpower to be used against the Greeks ten to fifteen years in the future.

This view was confirmed at least in part by broadcasts from the guerrilla radio, which said the children were being taken to "democratic" countries for re-education.

By "democratic" the radio meant the Communist-led northern neighbors of Greece. Radio stations in Sofia, Belgrade and Bucharest have said the children will be offered haven from the "Greek monarcho-Fascist terror."

Broadcast Cited

Said a Markos broadcast: "The temporary democratic (guerrilla) Government of Greece, in view of the danger Greek children are running from malnutrition, fierce bombing from the monarcho-Fascist air force, pillaging of villages and murder of people . . . have decided to approve transfer of Greek children to democratic countries that are willing to receive them until the situation changes in Greece."

The Salonika dispatches said 1,665 children were abducted by guerrillas from twenty different villages in Western Macedonia and 67 between the ages of 3 and 16 from Western Thrace.

A general staff communiqué reported that 60 young women were seized by guerrillas who raided Lavara near Souphli in Western Thrace.

A guerrilla force trying to kidnap children at Vlasti 20 miles northwest of Kozane suffered 120 killed and 200 wounded, press dispatches said.

Military officials said a group of 800 guerrillas which tried to isolate Kastoria was retreating northward before Government troops.

CZECHS SPEED 'SPY' ARRESTS

Communist - Led Government Detains Twenty

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 14 (AP)—The Communist-led Government arrested twenty persons today as it stepped up a drive to place leaders of the old National Socialist party on trial as part of a spy ring.

An attack was launched on the parliamentary immunity of Vladimir Krajina and two other deputies who were leaders of the old party.

These actions constituted the second step in the Government's campaign against Krajina and other leaders of the party whose headquarters, it was charged, were used as a base for espionage against the security police and nationalized industries.

Claims Herod Ended His Life

Three nights ago the district police at Moravska Ostrava announced that Joseph Herod, district secretary of the party, confessed he was part of a spy ring headed by Krajina and then ended his life.

Another party leader, Prokop Drtina, former Justice Minister, is still in the hospital with injuries suffered, police said, in a suicide leap.

This morning the Government called on Parliament's immunity commitee to strip Krajina and the deputies Otto Hora and Alois Cizek of their privileges as law makers. The most important of these is immunity from arrest. The Government issued a warrant for the arrest of Vaclav Knotek, a Government councilor, who the Interior Ministry said directed the alleged spying operation.

Raided Party Headquarters

A ministry statement said secret orders, directions and other documents of the security police and nationalized industries had been found in the files of the Nationalist Socialist party.

Premier Klement Gottwald charged at the outset of his march to power that the National Socialists were planning a putsch to overthrow the Government. On February 23 the Ministry of Interior raided the party's headquarters in the first armed display of the crisis.

Since then the party has purged itself of old leaders and changed its name to the Czech Socialist party. New leaders represent it in the Government, but action committees and Left-wing parties make no secret of their distrust of the party's rank and file.

Old Party Leader

Former Deputy Premier Petr Zenkl, the old party leader, has not been heard from. Friends profess not to know where he is.

Krajina, a former botany professor, was a spy during the German occupation, transmitting from here to Britain and Russia information on German plans to invade the Balkans and Low Countries.

MAR 1948 MAR 30.24- 16251

Others among the twenty arrested, the ministry said, were a retired government councillor, Karel Heer, and Milic Solsky, clerk in the National Socialist party headquarters.

Thousands At Masaryk Grave

Meanwhile, the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo said 125,591 members have been added to the Communnist party in the first five days of "Gottwald Week."

The Communists have set a goal of 2,000,000 new members and the newspaper said:

"Because of the success of the first drive and because so many wanted to join but it was impossible to handle the applications, it has been decided to hold another "Gottwalk Week," from March 15 to 22."

The newspaper Mlada Fronta reported that Blazej Vilim, who was displaced as secretary general of the Social Democratic party when Leftwingers seized control during the crisis, had fled across the German border.

Thousands of persons today visited the grave of Jan Masaryk. He was buried yesterday beside his father, Dr. Thomas G. Masaryk, first Czechoslovak President. Jan Masaryk, nonparty Foreign Minister in the Communist-dominated government of Premier Gottwald, plunged to his death Wednesday from his apartment.

Floral offerings from all over the world were heaped on the grave.

BRING YOUR OWN GUN!

PRAGUE, March 14—(AP) A hotel on the German border advertised in newspapers today its beauties and facilities for visitors, but added: "Please obtain the approval of your action committee before making applications."

Romanian Report On Goods Denied

Bucharest, Romania, March 14 (AP)—Authoritative sources said today that equipment worth approximately $11,000,000 for the Romanian oil industry was being held in United States ports.

The sources, close to the Romanian oil industry, said the equipment apparently is being held up by United States Government action. This was the first intimation that the Romanian Government had ordered that much equipment in the United States.

An oil source said the equipment was ordered from the Dresher Corporation of Ohio and Texas.

[Neil Mallow, president of Dresher Industries, Inc., said in Cleveland, Ohio, that "our company had representatives in Romania last fall for a few discussions. But they came back to the United States without any orders for equipment—and they refused to take any orders—because of the attitude of our State Department on the question.]

One quarter of the purchase price was reported to have been paid already in American currency in Switzerland and the balance guaranteed in gold.

The United States legation in Bucharest said it had no knowledge of the transaction. An official said however, that a representative of an American equipment firm had been in Bucharest. He added the company was not required to report its negotiations or results.

[In Washington, Government officials said they knew nothing about such a situation. One official said that while there had been some orders for heavy equipment, he knew of none that had reached dockside, or was being held up there.]

FINNS' TREATY IDEA VOICED TO MOSCOW

Helsinki Has Notified Russia of Parliamentary Factor—Stalin Agrees to Date

MOSCOW, March 14 (AP)—Tass said today that President Juho K. Paasikivi of Finland has written Premier Stalin that Finnish parliamentary groups have expressed doubts relative to a Finnish-Russian military alliance.

The Soviet news agency's dispatch said Mr. Paasikivi and Mr. Stalin agreed in an exchange of letters to negotiations on a "friendship treaty." The talks will be held in Moscow.

Mr. Paasikivi's letter was sent to Mr. Stalin last Tuesday. As quoted by Tass, it said Finland was accepting the Soviet invitation to negotiate on the assumption that during the talks the contents of the proposed treaty would be subject to discussion from all sides and to amendments.

The Finnish delegation is to begin the negotiations here March 22, a week from tomorrow. Premier Stalin in a reply to Mr. Paasikivi on Thursday agreed to that arrangement, Tass said.

Russia Puts Blame On Chennault Pilot

Moscow, March 14 (AP)—The Soviet Union has rejected a Chinese protest charging that "Soviet planes fired on a Chinese passenger plane" last Tuesday south of Port Arthur, Tass reported today.

Tass said the Soviet Embassy in China had informed the Chinese Government in an official note that the plane had violated the Port Arthur base area and had been signaled by two Russian craft to follow them and land.

The Soviet note asserted the Chinese plane had failed to obey the instructions, continuing on its course, whereupon the Russian planes fired "warning" shots which, the note asserted, were "not aimed at the plane." The plane refused to land, the note continued, and kept on its course.

The Soviet Government said it considered the Chinese note to be without basis.

The Chinese transport, one of the planes owned by Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's commercial airline, was carrying 42 refugees being evacuated from Communist-encircled Mukden, Manchuria, to Tsingtao, China. Capt. Robert Buol, of Stockton, Cal., the pilot, said two P-39 fighter planes marked with the red star of Russia made five passes at the airliner over the Gulf of Chihli, firing their machineguns but apparently not trying to hit the transport. Buol said he was not within 60 miles of the Russian-occupied Port Arthur-Dairen peninsula.

PRAVDA AGAIN RAPS ERP

Article Charges U. S. Attempt to Corner European Markets

MOSCOW, March 14 (AP)—The European Recovery Plan was described in Pravda, Communist party newspaper, today, as an attempt to corner European markets for the United States.

Boris Leontiev, Soviet writer, said one provision would require all Marshall Plan nations to "have permission from the Commerce Department of the United States" before making any shipments to the Soviet Union.

"This means that a state that agrees to receive American goods on credit foregoes the last vestiges of independence," he wrote. "It will not only be unable to sell its goods without United States consent but also will be unable to buy anywhere except in the United States. This promises new, enormous profits for the American monopolists."

Ready For Trade Pact Party, Say Russians

Moscow, March 14 (AP)—Tass said today the Soviet Union had informed Italy the Russians were prepared to enter into negotiations for a trade pact, with talks on Italian reparations taking place at the same time.

Tass said the discussions on reparations would be governed by the "definitions, character and schedule" provided in the peace treaty.

[The treaty provides for payment of $100,000,000 in reparations by Italy over a period of seven years, dating from the time the treaty went into effect, which was last September 15.

[The Italian news agency Ansa said last night Russia wanted to talk about payment of the $100,000,000 before making any commercial treaty.]

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said that "in event of agreement on reparations, the Italian Government need not doubt all other questions of economic and trade relations between the Soviet Union and Italy will be resolved, insofar as it depends on the Soviet Union, in mutual interests."

2 MANCHURIAN CITIES FALL

Nanking Admits Loss Of Kirin And Hsiaofengmen

Shanghai, March 14 (AP)—Chinese Communist capture of Kirin and the nearby power center of Hsiaofengmen has struck a paralyzing blow to Government resistance in Manchuria.

The government officially acknowledged last night that both points had been abandoned.

Thus, in one stroke, the Communists have blacked out most Manchurian cities remaining in Government hands.

Hsiaofengmen, touted as the world's third largest hydroelectric dam, generated electricity for Changchun, the Manchurian capital 75 miles by road to the northwest, and for Kirin, Szepingkai and a vast stretch of surrounding territory. It even furnished part of the power for Mukden, 200 miles to the southwest. Mukden previously has lost much of its nearby power to Communist attack.

Both Cities Left Intact

The Communists tried desperately last November to take the Hsiaofengmen electric works but were beaten off after temporarily cutting highlines.

The Government communiqué admitting the loss said both Kirin and Hsiaofengmen were left intact. Pro-Government press dispatches said large fires were set in Kirin by ammunition demolitions and part of Hsiaofengmen's machinery was removed in the fighting retreat to Changchun.

Built by the Japanese as the electrical heart of their Manchurian empire, the Hsiaofengmen dam had been strengthened in recent months under direction of American engineers.

Its Sungari River waters, if released, would devastate a wide area, including the Communist city of Harbin. This is believed to be the reason the Communists never tried to sabotage it. Also, until late in 1946, the Government permitted Harbin to draw electricity from it.

Moving Toward Changchun

Spencer Moosa, AP correspondent in Peiping, said the latest Manchurian dispatches reported five Communists divisions massed 15 miles southwest of Changchun and moving towards the isolated capital.

Changchun looked like more of a liability than an asset, however, and it appeared possible that the Communists would concentrate on trying to cut off the 100,000 Government troops and civilians who fled from the Kirin area.

The aim apparently was to prevent these forces from aiding the Government defenses of Szepingkai or Mukden.

Street fighting was reported still raging in Szepingkai, 70 miles southwest of Changchun, but Government sources in Nanking admitted no hope remained of saving it and intimated it might already have fallen.

Bad news for the Government also came from central China. The Nanking newspaper Hsin Min Pao said the Government garrison at Loyang, on the Lunghai railway, was making a "last stand" with little hope that aid would come before the Communists overwhelmed it.

CHINA'S REDS INCREASE HOLD ON MANCHURIA

SHANGHAI, March 14 — (AP) Chinese Communist capture of Kirin and the nearby power center of Hsiaofengmen has struck a paralyzing blow to government resistance in Manchuria.

2 Jap War Criminal Suspects Are Located

Nanking, March 14 (AP)—Chinese police investigators reported today they had found two long-sought Japanese war-criminal suspects serving as chauffeurs for high-ranking Chinese.

They said the two, who were Japanese secret agents accused of participation in mass slayings in Nanking during the war, had adopted Chinese names and were so fluent in Chinese that their identities had been unsuspected by the Chinese divisional commander and legislative Yuan member for whom they worked.

The suspects' Chinese names were given as Lu Yieh-kin and Iteng Chun-hsun.

Criminals Posed as Servants

NANKING, March 14 (AP).—Chinese police investigators reported today they had found two long-sought Japanese war criminal suspects serving as chauffeurs for high-ranking Chinese. They said the two, who were Japanese secret agents and are accused of participation in mass slayings at Nanking during the war, had adopted Chinese names.

Former Annam Emperor Arrives In Hong Kong

Hong Kong, March 14 (AP)—Bao Dai, former Emperor of Annam, reached Hong Kong by plane today after several months in Europe, during which he held several talks with the French on restoration of peace in Indo-China.

C. A. Yolle, spokesman for the French High Commissioner, Emile Bollaert, said there were "high hopes that an understanding will be reached for settlement of Indo-China problems."

Japan Dissolves Union Of Unemployed Persons

Tokyo, March 14 (AP)—The paper Nippon Keizai reported today discovery and dissolution in Niigata prefecture of a labor union composed entirely of unemployed persons.

It said the prefectural labor committee disbanded the 160-member union by ruling that it did not qualify under the law which defines a union as composed of persons "living by wages or salaries."

Screening of 250,000 Huks On

MANILA, Monday, March 15 (AP).—Screening of 250,000 suspected members of the outlawed Hukbalahap peasant army and the affiliated National Peasant Union begins today in Central Luzon. Scattered skirmishes between government and outlaw forces continued. Ten Huks were reported killed in a constabulary raid eighty miles southeast of Manila early Sunday.

JEWS KEPT IN PALESTINE

Haganah Won't Let Men Of Military Age Leave

CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, March 14 (AP)—A Jewish Agency spokesman said today that force is being used if necessary to prevent Jews between the ages of 17 and 45 from leaving strife-torn Palestine.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, has put guards in all travel agency offices to watch for Jews in the age group who try to book seats. The spokesman added:

"When one comes in they (the guards) use moral pressure to prevent his booking passage out of Palestine. If he persists and tries actually to take a plane, sometimes stronger measures are required.

Some American Jews Complain

"We consider the Jews in Palestine are at war. No Jew without a good excuse could expect to be permitted to shirk his duty in wartime. If there are those who wish to leave the country permanently and become citizens of some other country, they are not stopped."

Recently the Jews have been mobilizing their available manpower as the pace of the struggle between Jews and Arabs in Palestine has been stepped up. The Jews are outnumbered in Palestine itself and face vast reserves of Arab manpower in the surrounding Middle East countries.

Reliable sources said several young American Jews have been prevented by Haganah from leaving Palestine. Some have complained to the United States Consulate. A consular source said an official objection had been lodged with the Jewish Agency.

Jews Seized At Airports

Airlines providing passage from the Holy Land for Europe and America have reported the loss of hundreds of passengers who were stopped by Haganah patrols on the way to the airport.

One airline spokesman described an incident in which seven of his passengers, due to take off in a few minutes, were removed at gunpoint from an airport bus at Petah Tiqvah and forced to return to Tel Aviv in the custody of Haganah.

Haganah sources in Tel Aviv said ten Arabs were killed and many fortified houses were blown up in a five-hour battle in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv borderland area. The informants described the operation as the "greatest onslaught on Jaffa from Tel Aviv."

Reports From Fighting Fronts

Police reports in Jerusalem listed only two Jews and an Arab as having been killed in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv region. Snipers killed two Arab women in Haifa.

The Tel Aviv sources said six Jews were killed in the Negev in southern Palestine when a Jewish convoy broke through an Arab road barrier near the Arab village of Faluja. Haganah said the Arabs also suffered casualties.

Before dawn Jewish sappers penetrated Arab territory in north Palestine and blasted a highway bridge, police reported. The explosion, a few miles from the headquarters of the Arab volunteer army, halted all traffic between Haifa and Jenin and Tiberias.

High winds, hail and rain slowed the fighting in Jerusalem, where only three ineffective shots were fired, police said.

In the three and a half months since the United Nations voted for partition, communal violence has brought death to 1,782 persons, an unofficial tabulation showed.

Yarmuk Army Begins Purge

In Northern Palestine, March 14 (AP)—The Yarmuk army's new military courts began today a purge of Arabs accused of dealing with the Jews, under orders to hang those convicted.

The president of the court system, established when the Yarmuk commander, Fawzi Bey al Kaukji, placed Northern Palestine under martial law Thursday, is Amir Abdullah Tamir, a Syrian tribal chieftain. He recently armed, uniformed and trained 400 of his tribesmen and delivered them to Fawzi Bey, who promptly assigned the tribesmen and their chief to enforce martial law.

Their first duty is to catch and try 100 Arabs who are named on a list of those accused of dealing with Jews.

New Highway Regulations

Amir Tamir also is charged with enforcing new highway regulations in Northern Palestine. Regulations were issued from Fawzi Bey's mountaintop headquarters and ignore both civil laws and British military rules.

One of the regulations, effective tomorrow, bans all motor traffic from the city of Nablus, an Arab center. Trucks and taxis will have to park in guarded compounds on the city's outskirts; their cargoes will be loaded on army-approved trucks from inside the city.

Since Nablus lies athwart the main north-south highway connecting Jerusalem and Haifa, through traffic will be allowed to pass if checked in and out by the Aram Army and if it does not stop inside the city.

Nablus Taxi Drivers Strike

Nablus taxi drivers who operate in near-by towns and villages went on strike today when the checkposts began charging them 40 cents each per checkout.

The Arab Army explained the regulations were designed to prevent the possibility that trucks with bombs may enter the city. A disguised Jewish truck loaded with hidden explosives was caught on the way to Nablus last week, the Arab Army reported. The driver was arrested and executed. Later two British deserters to the Arab Army and six Arabs were killed when a bomb exploded while being dismantled.

Informed sources say Jewish settlements along the River Jordan, just south of Galilee, appear to be the first target of the Yarmuk forces when they begin operations.

Prince Ahmed Captures San'a, Cairo Reports

Cairo, March 14 (AP)—Press reports today quoted the radio at San'a, Yemenite capital, as saying the city had fallen to troops of Prince Ahmed.

The Prince is the eldest son of the assassinated Imam Yehia and is one of two claimants to the throne of Yemen, an Arabic kingdom.

The broadcast said Ahmed had been proclaimed the new Imam and that Abdullah Ibn Ahmed el Wazir, the other claimant, was in flight with members of his Government.

Sayed Ali el Muayed, Yemenite representative in Cairo, said he had received no confirmation of these reports.

FOREIGN MINISTERS OF ARABS WILL MEET

CAIRO, Egypt, March 14 (AP)—The Arab League said tonight that the Foreign Ministers of the Arab countries would meet Tuesday in Beirut, Lebanon, to act on the Palestine question.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, Arab League secretary general, said the meeting was called "to organize a policy and plans according to the developments" of the Palestine question.

He would not confirm a statement by an official source in Baghdad, Iraq, that the Foreign Ministers would prepare a final Arab counter-proposal to the Palestine partition plan.

RANGOON NEWSPAPERS TO SUSPEND 3 DAYS

RANGOON, Burma, March 14 (AP)—A three-day suspension of newspapers published in Rangoon beginning Wednesday was approved today by the Burma Press Union.

The action was taken by the Union, a group of newspaper editors and publishers, in protest against the wrecking of three newspaper offices here Friday by rioting mobs.

The mobs were reportedly dominated by members of the All Burma Peasants Union and all Burma Workers Union, both affiliated with the anti-Fascist People's Freedom League, the prevailing Government party.

A conference between the editors and Premier Thakin Nu was scheduled for tomorrow. The mob action was directed against newspapers that had carried reports alleging misbehavior by Agriculture Minister Thakin Tin, President of the All Burma Peasants Union, during a recent hinterland tour.

Atomic Adviser in Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, March 14 (AP).—Professor M. L. E. Oliphant, British atomic research scientist, said today he believes it will be five to ten years before Russia develops formidable atomic weapons. He has arrived from London to advise the interim council of the new National Research University at Canberra.

Another Czech Resigns

Lima, Peru, March 14 (AP)—Edward Kuhln, Czechoslovakian chargé d'affaires, informed the Peruvian Foreign Office today he has resigned his post as a result of recent political developments in his country.

10-Mile-A-Minute Jets Flown From Carriers

Navy Reveals Use Of New Planes After Operational Trials Last Week Off California Coast

B. L. LIVINGSTONE

Aboard U.S.S. Boxer, at sea, March 14 (AP)—Navy jet fighter planes capable of flying ten miles a minute, are now operating for the first time from aircraft carriers.

Disclosure of this history-making advance in United States military aviation was permitted today by the Navy, following fleet operational trials last Wednesday and Thursday aboard this big Essex-class carrier off the California coast.

Land Easily On Deck

Not long ago the Navy was saying jet-propelled aircraft were impractical for carrier use. One reason given was deck space limitations, another the relatively slow acceleration of the jet airplane.

But both objections appear to have been met as the result of last Wednesday's trials. Under routine carrier conditions, the Navy operated its sleek new jet fighters with ease from the Boxer's deck.

Sweeping out to sea from North Island Naval Air Station at San Diego, stubby North American Furies landed easily in the Boxer's arresting gear.

With equal ease they were flown off under their own power, and launched effectively from the forward flight deck catapults.

Jet Fighter Planes Operating For First Time on U.S. Carriers

ABOARD USS BOXER, AT SEA, March 14—(AP) Ten-mile-a-minute navy jet fighter planes are now operating for the first time from aircraft carriers.

Disclosure of this history-making advance in U.S. military aviation was permitted today by the Navy, following fleet operational trials last Wednesday and Thursday aboard this big Essex-class carrier off the California coast.

Not long ago the navy was saying jet propelled aircraft were impractical for carrier use. One reason given was deck space limitations, another the relatively slow acceleration of the jet airplane.

Objections Overcome

But both objections appear to have been met as the result of last Wednesday's trials. Under routine carrier conditions, the navy operated its sleek new jet fighters with ease from the Boxer's deck.

Sweeping out to sea from North Island naval air station at San Diego, stubby North American "Furies" landed easily in the Boxer's arresting gear.

With equal ease they were flown off under their own power, and launched effectively from the forward flight deck catapults.

For practical reasons, only two planes from the Navy's first all-jet fighter squadron—Fighting 5-A—were used in the qualification tests.

First to fly his jet aboard was Commander Evan P. Aurand, of Houston, Texas, squadron commander. Right behind came Lieut. Com. Robert M. Elder, of Milwaukie, Ore., squadron executive officer and a wartime veteran like Aurand.

Both men pronounced jet landings actually easier than with propeller-driven planes. The jet has complete visibility from the cockpit, they noted, and the pilot's view is not obstructed by propeller and radial engine cowling.

Both pilots then made the first launch under power. They flew off easily, but it was evident that jets still are under the handicap of needing the full length of the flight deck to become airborne.

Take Off At 145 M.P.H.

Catapult jet landings proved both successful and practical. The Boxer's hydraulic "cats" shot both planes into the air over the bow at about 145 miles an hour—well over flying speed.

The Navy immediately announced it was starting a program to equip carrier air groups with jets. For the moment, one squadron in each fleet will be equipped with all-jet fighters.

The North American Fury—designated the FJ-1—is the first United States jet fighter to employ a single straight ram duct engine. The engine, manufactured by General Electric, produces about 4,000 pounds thrust and is rated the most powerful yet developed in the United States.

The FJ-1's speed is rated simply as "more than 550 miles an hour."

Armed Aid For West Possible

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The American Government's first major move to check Russia since the fall of Czechoslovakia is expected this week. It may be a promise of military support for a western bloc in Europe.

The idea of a direct warning from President Truman to Generalissimo Stalin that further Communist expansion means a clash with American power is believed to have been considered here. But some of the President's diplomatic advisers, at least, believe that the time has passed for words to stop Russia and the time for action is here.

Ample Time For House

State Department officials, who strongly hold this view, are highly pleased with Senate passage of the European recovery bill last night. They emphasized that there now remains ample time for the House to act on the measure well in advance of Europe's next critical date—the April 18 Italian election.

The 69-to-17 Senate vote gives the Europeans positive evidence of American intention to stand by the recovery plan. It is regarded by diplomatic authorities as an important contribution in itself to the development of a more powerful policy in dealing with Russia.

Similarly, a strengthening of western European anti-Communist forces is expected to result from the speech Saturday by James F. Byrnes, former Secretary of State. In it he demanded American readiness to "act" to prevent Russian aggression against Turkey, Greece, Italy or France.

Critical Weeks Suggested

Byrnes implied at Charleston, S.C., that the next "four or five weeks" may be critical in United States-Russian relations. He called for revival of the wartime draft to back up a warning to Russia. The Army is known to be considering a request that the law be put back on the books, along with the new law it wants for universal military training.

Washington officials took note of Byrnes's call to "act," but were loath to be quoted by name.

Exactly what line such action might take has been a subject of Washington conferences for the past ten days. A part of the answer may be forthcoming from the meeting at Key West, Fla., this week end of James V. Forrestal, Defense Secretary, Admiral William D. Leahy, the President's chief of staff, and the leaders of the Army, Navy and Air Force. Their announced purpose was to decide how the armed forces should operate in event of an emergency.

First Line Of Action

Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, however, is expected to produce for President Truman the first line of action to meet what diplomatic officials consider the threatening new situation in eastern Europe. The problem, as Marshall's advisers see it, covers these three main points.

1. The western nations in Europe must be reassured that the United States will not let them down even if supporting them means war with Russia.

2. The Russians must be brought to realize clearly that with the consolidation of the Communist hold on Czechoslovakia and their demands on Finland they complete their hold over the only part of Europe or the Middle East which the United States is willing to see them take without a struggle.

3. The United States, if it is to take such a strong and unprecedented stand, must be prepared to back its position to the limit with all the political and military strength it can muster.

Two Statements To Date

To date there have been President Truman's statement that this Government is against the spread of communism anywhere and Secretary Marshall's warning that the world is in the midst of a great crisis. They have not been accompanied by any evidence that the United States is willing to do anything about it—other than the evidence of action on the recovery program.

In Brussels last week, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg completed the draft of a mutual defense treaty. This is expected to become the basis for a western bloc of nations bound together against Russian expansion by economic, political and military ties.

Officials said the most obvious way for the United States simultaneously to warn Russia and to reassure the western powers would be: for the American Government, possibly in a presidential statement or message to the five nations, to declare its support for the mutual defense undertaking and express United States willingness to back those and allied nations any time their freedom is threatened.

Pact Could Come Later

This kind of commitment could later be formalized if the western European countries proposed a military pact with the United States and the American Government agreed to negotiate such a pact and submit it to the Senate for ratification. A hot Senate fight would be likely.

Officials said that the European situation has now reached the point at which the Russians must be confronted "with a situation and not with an argument."

As one high authority put it today: "We must act quickly to create a situation in Europe which will confront the Russians with an absolutely firm resistance to any power they can bring against it and thereby cause them to stop short in their ambition."

CZECHS' EX-ENVOY PREDICTS RISINGS

Slavik Says in a Broadcast That a Strong Underground Will Combat New Regime

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—Juraj Slavik, former Czechoslovak Ambassador, today predicted a "very strong underground movement" would be formed in his homeland to resist the new Communist-imposed government.

He said during a radio interview that the death of Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk would hasten the establishment of this underground because it will remind his people: "You cannot live as slaves."

Church, Government and diplomatic officials joined during the day to pay tribute to M. Masaryk at a memorial service at All Souls' Unitarian Church.

Senator Wayne Morse of Oregan and M. Slavik eulogized M. Masaryk as an "international democrat" and a "world hero."

"For me, there is no doubt of Masaryk's suicide," M. Slavik said. He was beset by hopelessness and despair. He could not do anything about the situation He is a martyr for democracy and freedom. He will be honored as a hero all around the world for making this sacrifice for his beliefs."

Dr. A. Powell Davies, minister of the church, who was in Prague fifteen days ago, called M. Masaryk "a prisoner at that time" and said his death "was a signal to the Czechoslovak people that captivity was once again theirs," he added.

"His death also was a signal to the West."

Norman Armour, Assistant Secretary of State, represented Secretary of State Marshall at the service but did not speak. Col. Robert B. Landry, one of President Truman's aides, represented the President.

RED BALKAN BLOC SEEN BOLSTERING GREEK GUERRILLAS

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) American officials are convinced the Soviet Balkan bloc is getting ready to meet the Greek army's Spring offensive with stronger backing of the guerrillas.

Their belief is based on two developments:

1. New arms are beginning to show up from across the Northern frontier to offset the effect of American military aid to Greece.

2. Official reports tell of an intensified campaign in communist-dominated Yugoslavia, Romania, and Bulgaria to raise funds for the Greek rebels.

These three countries, along with Albania, are sticking to their denials to the United Nations that they are giving formal backing to the guerrillas, but the hat-passing has open official sanction.

In Bulgaria, the wife of Prime Minister Georgie Dimitrov heads an organization to support the Greek guerrilla forces.

In Romania, reports to the State department say, members of some communist labor organizations have been called on to give 10 per cent of their pay. The controlled press in Bucharest announced one gift of $27,480 by members of a single railway unit. A contribution figured at about $22,000 was reported by another group in response to an appeal to meet the "menace of American bayonets" in Greece.

Hungary Won First Freedom Just a Century Ago Today

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) Unhappy Hungary will remember tomorrow the same day 100 years ago when the nation found its first political independence.

Under Louis Kossuth's liberal party, the Hungarians had succeeded in forcing political freedom from the chiefs of the Austrian empire in Vienna.

Kossuth's leadership was as short-lived as Hungarian independence, a matter of months. Kossuth died in 1894, in exile in Turin, Italy.

Leaders Again Exiled

A century has rolled by, and again Hungary's liberal leaders are exiled, most of them in the United States. They are headed by Ferenc Nagy, leader of the brief attempt after World War II at democratic government. Nagy now lives on a small Virginia farm.

Both Kossuth and Nagy fought for the sort of political freedoms for which democrats the world over have fought, representative government, equality before the law, the right of assembly and religious liberty.

In both cases the Russians were instrumental in breaking up the attempt. Their armies helped Austria to overthrow Kossuth's brief government, which was pledged to democratic freedoms. And since World War II Matyas Rakosy, Hungarian leader of the old Communist International, led the overthrow of the government which the democratic Small Holders Party had dominated.

Both fled their countries after warnings—Kossuth to Turkey in 1849, and Nagy this past summer to Switzerland. Both had to maneuver to get their familes out. Both succeeded.

Kossuth spent the first half of 1852 in the United States making 600 public addresses. He was received by a joint session of the American Congress. Kossuth failed to get American intervention against Austria and Russia, so he returned to exile in Europe.

Kossuth had failed to set up a democratic government in Hungary.

But the million Hungarians who now make the United States their home still remember his attempt as the high spot in their homeland's battle for democratic life.

They will remember Kossuth's struggle in great mass meetings this week in New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Cleveland. Smaller celebrations will be held in 200 other communities.

The American Hungarian Federation says the purpose is to "restate the faith in the democratic nations which must not tolerate the defeat and suppression of the small European states by the police state of communist Russia."

History Repeats Itself

For anyone who doubts that "history can repeat itself" Hungary is a bitter denial.

Kossuth had no sooner been elected president of the first Hungarian republic than the Austrians got the help of the Russians to break up the new republic.

Russian armies invaded Hungary. There followed a reign of terror in which Hungarian army generals were slaughtered and widescale looting took place.

Then, under the Austrian-Russian agreement, an Austrian again ruled Hungary. In 1867 the Austrians had to agree to a sort of mutual independence for the Hungarians. But the Hungarians never quite achieved the carbon-copy of the American government which Kossuth's followers wanted. Twice Hungary's rich men and military leaders forced the nation into world wars on the side of the Germans.

Then along came the big three Yalta agreement—between Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin—which said Europeans could freely chose their own governments.

Now the Hungarian leader was Ferenc Nagy, leader of the Peasant Party. A fusion government was set up.

But again Russia nibbled at the new-found freedom of the Hungarians. This time it was done in the parliament. To avoid a crisis Nagy took a "vacation" in Switzerland, where he was warned he must stay to save his life. Russian-educated leaders took over the government.

MILITARY LEADERS END DEFENSE PARLEY

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) Top military leaders finished their conference on an over-all plan for American defense at Key West, Fla., late today, the Department of National Defense announced tonight.

There was no mention in the brief announcement of what conclusions were reached, if any.

Most of those taking part headed back to Washington tonight.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal, however, remained overnight. He plans to come here tomorrow.

DANUBE CONFERENCE NOT READY TO START

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The three major western powers and Russia faced an agreed deadline today apparently not ready for a difficult issue, international control of the Danube.

The Big Four agreed in 1946 at the insistence of the United States to hold an international conference to set up control within six months after the first World War II peace treaties came into force. This deadline comes tomorrow, with no definite statement in advance whether the agreement will lapse or be put aside.

State Department officials indicated the United States has approached Britain, France and Russia with the idea of bringing up the Danube dispute when tension with Russia may be relaxed. They said steps have been taken to "protect our position" but would not say whether postponement has been agreed upon by the others.

The split between Russia and the west over Europe's future has so widened that some American officials are convinced that no useful purpose would be served in trying to reach a Danube settlement at this time.

SEVERE BREAD SHORTAGE IN RUSSIA, U. S. HEARS

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP) Moscow today was reported gripped by a bread shortage so severe that Russians are lining up a dozen abreast for scarce supplies.

On the black market, what Soviets call the open market, the shortage was reported to have pushed prices to near $3.60 a pound.

This information was reported to the State department in official and private advices from the Soviet capital.

NAZI METHOD EXPLAINED

German Building System of 1942 Described in OTS Pamphlet

WASHINGTON, March 14—A system of "payment by results," aimed at increasing output and wages and encouraging cooperative work, which was employed by German builders, is described in one of four building-industry reports now on sale by the Office of Technical Services, Department of Commerce, it was announced today.

The system was introduced in the German building industry in the latter part of 1942 and was compulsory for all jobs at the beginning of 1943. According to the report, it appears to have worked well and to the general satisfaction of all concerned. Although it is not now in operation, at least one large firm of contractors is convinced of its advantages.

ARMY REORGANIZES ITS GROUND FORCES

New Unit To Devote Attention To Training Troopers

Washington, March 14 (AP)—The Army Ground Forces is being revised to give its exclusive attention to training troopers for modern warfare—airborne, amphibious and Arctic fighting.

The Army announced today the organization is being renamed the "Army Field Forces" and relieved of an accumulation of responsibilities given it during the war.

Among other changes under the order, the command of the six armies in continental United States will be transferred from Army Ground Forces to Gen. Omar Bradley, chief of staff. Remaining in charge of the renamed ground forces to direct training will be Gen. Jacob L. Devers.

Hindered In Training Work

Maj. Gen. G. L. Bolte, chief of staff for Devers, told a news conference the AGF has been too involved with problems of personnel and supply to give the time it should to training the Army. He added:

"What we are trying to do now, under this new plan, is to stockpile time, get training done ahead of time, be ready—because we won't have time for that if another war comes."

To Supervise Field Army

Bolte said that airborne training would be the "primary program." He added that ranking high in importance would be other types of fighting peculiar to modern war including invasion landings, polar operations and desert fighting.

The Office of Army Field Forces will have general supervision of training for all individuals and units of a field army. This will include not only regular army combat, service and administrative units, but the organized Reserve Corps, National Guard and Reserve Officers Training Corps units.

WAR HYSTERIA NOT JUSTIFIED, DECLARES TAFT

Senator Does Not Expect Russia To Advance Beyond Sphere Set At Yalta

Augusta, Maine, March 14 (AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) said tonight he had no information to justify war hysteria.

The Republican presidential candidate told a press conference that he did not expect Russia to advance "militarily" beyond its sphere of influence fixed at Yalta.

As for a recent statement by James F. Byrnes, former Secretary of State, that we may face a world crisis within four or five weeks, Taft said:

"I have no information that would justify that statement.

"I see no reason why we should not proceed on the basis of peace.

Russians Would Take Aid

"There would be no point in giving aid to Europe under the Marshall plan if we face war, for what we shipped would be taken by the Russians.

"The two things would be at variance with one another."

The Senator said Czechoslovakia had been under Russian domination since Patton's army was "stopped at the gates of Prague and ordered to withdraw.

"The same was true at Berlin," he said.

As for the "spheres of influence fixed at Yalta," Taft said:

"We're not going to advance beyond that line and go to war. If the Russians take the same position there won't be any war."

"And I have no reason to think," he said, "there's any more chance of an aggressive military move by Russia than there ever has been."

Marshall Plan "Useful Weapon"

Taft called the Marshall plan "a useful weapon—a very useful weapon" in combatting the spread of communism.

Taft said he was standing firm in his belief that $4,000,000,000 is sufficient to carry out the European recovery program.

"It would lead to a more selective policy," he declared.

The Senate yesterday rejected his move to cut the appropriation from $5,300,000,000.

Taft stopped off in Boston on his way to Maine, where he is planning half a dozen campaign speeches in his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

He is accompanied by Senator Owen Brewster (R., Maine), who is supporting Taft in the presidential race.

People Should Be Told

He said that if the President or Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, had any inside information about Russia's intended military moves, they should tell the people about it.

Taft said that he could not see anything the United States could do as far as Finland was concerned and declared:

"If the Communists win the election in Italy, what can we do? That's no military move."

Taft said, however, that he did not think the Communists would win in Italy.

He said the whole world situation was "still a war of influence, not a military war."

TAFT VIEWS REDS AS CONSOLIDATING SPHERES OF POWER

BOSTON, March 14—(AP) Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) said today that he had "no knowledge of any Russian intention for military aggression."

The Republican Senate leader told a press conference here that "we have to work on the theory that there's going to be peace. There is no sense in appropriating five and one-half billion dollars for an European recovery program if there's going to be war."

Taft stopped off in Boston on his way to Maine where he is planning half a dozen campaign speeches in his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

Taft told reporters that he did not agree with former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes that the United States may be facing a crisis with Russia within four or five weeks.

The Ohio Senator said that Russia so far was only consolidating its sphere of influence, that was awarded her by the Yalta agreement.

Taft said that Russia "dominated" Czechoslovakia since before the war. The latest move of the Communists in that country, he said, was just a "consolidation" tactic.

"We're wasting money if this is war," Taft said, "as the ERP won't have any effect for at least six months."

He said that if the President or Secretary of State Marshall had any inside information about Russia's intended military moves, they should tell the people about it.

Taft said that he could not see anything the United States could do as far as Finland was concerned and declared:

night that America "must have a defense amply adequate to meet any possible need of the future."

In an address before the Clover Club of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in Fall River, Speaker Martin said "our first concern is to look to our national defense."

"We have fought through two world wars to uphold free peoples and free governments," Martin said, adding: "I wish to God I could assure you we will never have to fight another.

"Liberty and progress are being attacked from two avenues. One is the dictatorship of the Kremlin which is more aggressive and fully as dangerous as was Hitler."

Martin promised "that we shall relentlessly pursue our objective to remove every communist from the payroll of the United States government."

Martin called for reduced government spending and lower taxes. He said the tax reduction measure recently passed by the House "must and will become law."

STRONG DEFENSE URGED BY MARTIN

FALL RIVER, March 14—(AP) Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R-Mass.) declared to-

Besides, she added, the atomic bomb has made war a "final criminal absurdity."

Mrs. Urie doesn't want people to get the impression she's dodging that "war tax." She mailed 34.6 per cent of her tax to four pacifist organizations—"every one of them non-profit"—and sent receipts for her contributions with the tax return.

Disagreed On Military Views

Mrs. Urie, who refused to give her age ("just call me a white-haired widow—a very aged widow at that"), admitted she and her late husband often disagreed on her military views.

"For years I used to send a note along with my Federal income tax return protesting expenditures for the military," she explained. "But my husband and I agreed to tolerate each other's views on the subject."

Her husband was a medical officer in the Navy "for many, many years." He was retired before World War I, she said, because of injuries suffered in a target practice explosion on a battleship.

Navy Widow Challenges Right Of U.S. To Tax Her For War

Yellow Spring, Ohio, March 14 (AP)—A white-haired widow of a career naval officer today challenged the Government's right to tax her for military expenses.

Mrs. Caroline Urie figured that 34.6 per cent of her 1947 tax—due tomorrow—was earmarked for war.

So, she explained, she wrote a letter to President Truman and the Internal Revenue Bureau advising she would pay only 65.4 per cent of the tax.

"If they want to send me to jail because I won't pay the other 34.6 per cent, that's all right with me," she said. "I'm perfectly willing to go to jail. I'll never pay any more money for war."

Worked With Jane Addams

Mrs. Urie, "a Quaker, a pacifist and a social worker," worked with Jane Addams at Chicago's famed Hull House and was director of the School for Immigrant Children for five years. She wrote Mr. Truman and Internal Revenue officials:

"As a Christian, I must henceforth refuse to contribute in any way to maintaining the institution of war."

Son-In-Law Also Disagrees

She had a son-in-law in the Army during World War II.

"He doesn't agree with me either," she laughed.

Mrs. Urie said she has nothing against paying taxes "for any reasonable constructive purposes—like schools, police protection," and the like.

"The Government won't lose much in war taxes from me because I have small independent means—and live in a rented house," she said. "It's the principle that's important to me. Obedience to governmental authority cannot be unlimited."

U.S. Seen Ready to Back UN Airing of Czech Coup

Decision Reported Made with Knowledge It May Bring Serious Crisis.

LAKE SUCCESS, March 14. — (AP) The United States was reported ready tonight to vote for a United Nations airing of the communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

Informed quarters said the U. S. decision was taken with full knowledge that it might bring the security council its most serious crisis to date.

Beans Bitter Red Fight

The Soviet delegation has been grimly silent on the issue, but no delegate doubts that Russia will fight bitterly to bar council debate on the Czechoslovak issue.

The first test will come Wednesday. The council is scheduled to decide then whether it will admit to its calendar Chile's demands for an investigation of Russia's role in the coup.

Chilean Delegate Hernan Santa Cruz filed his demand Friday, but the issue was so hot that no delegate would comment until he received instructions from his home government.

The American decision was taken after consultations between chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin and the State department.

In effect, it means only that the United States believes Chile's proposal is entitled to a full hearing. It does not commit the United States to support any specific council action at the conclusion of the debate.

Iranian Case Recalled

It is recalled, however, that one of the gravest clashes between the U. S. and Russia in the council was over the question of admitting the Iranian case to the agenda.

Russia felt so strongly about that issue that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko staged his famous walkout. He refused to participate in the council's subsequent Iranian debate.

MAR 1948

The Czechoslovak question may produce a similar clash and possibly another Soviet walkout, if the council votes to place the case on its calendar.

The big power veto does not apply to admission of items to the agenda. In the opening round, therefore, only seven affirmative votes are needed to assure council consideration of the Czechoslovak coup.

It still is too early to say how many of the council's 11 delegates will line up with the United States. Most of them have not received instructions.

U.S. AND RUSSIA DIFFER ON PLAN

Nations Sharply Divided On Palestine Issue

New York, March 14 (AP)—The United States and Russia continued sharply divided on the Palestine problem tonight as the current big power talks neared an end.

The two big powers, along with France and China, have been consulting since last Monday under instructions from the Security Council to submit recommendations by tomorrow. The four powers are scheduled to hold their final meeting tomorrow morning and report to the council in the afternoon.

May Give Own Views

It appears almost certain that no joint recommendations will be submitted. Informed quarters say each of the four powers probably will give its own views as to what should be done.

It was understood that Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, would continue his efforts for a "peaceful settlement" of the Palestine problem despite the firm position of both Arabs and Jews. Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, has insisted that conciliatory efforts would only prolong the problem.

A press dispatch from Baghdad, Iraq, said the foreign ministers from all the Arab countries will meet tomorrow in Beirut to consider a plan to be offered as a substitute for the partition scheme.

Memorandum Submitted

The dispatch said Arab leaders felt there was reason to hope the United States and Britain might be sympathetic to a substitute plan in view of the difficulties of carrying out the partition decision.

Lebanon and Egypt with aggression in Palestine.

"It is impossible," the Jewish Agency said, "to deny that Arab governments are planning and executing operations which create a threat to the peace in Palestine."

8 CROSS OCEAN TO TESTIFY IN TRIAL OF BEST

Treason-Case Witnesses Brought From Austria And Germany

New York, March 14 (AP)—Eight witnesses summoned from Germany and Austria to testify at the treason trial of Robert H. Best, former Sumter (S.C.) newsman, arrived tonight at LaGuardia Field.

Daniel J. McCartan, chief deputy United States marshall, who met the group, said the witnesses would go by train to Boston, where Best's trial is scheduled to open March 29.

Nazi Broadcast Charged

Best is charged with broadcasting Nazi propaganda from Berlin during the war. The trial has been twice postponed.

The eight persons said they had made the trip on "State Department business."

At Boston, a spokesman for the group said, they would "be at the service of the United States Department of Justice."

Identify Themselves

They identified themselves as: INGEBORG BROESICKE, who said she was from Nuernberg, Germany, but declined further to identify herself.

HORST CLEINOW, who said he formerly was acting superintendent of the German short-wave radio station in Berlin.

ELIZABETH GLASER, who said she was a technician with Radio-Munich, Munich, Germany.

ERICK VON KUNSTI, of Vienna, who said he was program director for the Austrian Broadcasting Company.

MOLLY KUPFER, of Berlin, who said she was employed as a translator on the German radio. She said she had been employed by the United States Military Government in Berlin since October, 1945.

SOFIA ZUR LITTLE-WEISSENFELD, who identified herself as an Austrian princess. She said, "This is my first visit to the United States. I have no time to talk."

WERNER PLACK, who said he formerly was a wine merchant in Hollywood, Cal. He said he returned to Germany and joined the German Foreign Office during the war as a "scientific collaborator" attached to radio broadcasting.

EGON STROHM, who said he was a commentator on "art, literature and music" on the German radio.

Russian Labels War Talk 'Crazy'

New York, March 14 (AP)—Talk of war between the United States and the Soviet Union was termed "a crazy idea" today by Yakob Lomakin Soviet Consul General here, as he left for a vacation in his homeland.

War, he said, "is impossible."

"It must not be. It is hysteria. The people do not want it. We Russians do not believe in war, and we do not want war. We want peace."

Lomakin said that relations between the United States and the Soviet can and "must be improved."

"It seems to me that the people of the United States would like to improve relations," he added. "Some business men are going to the Soviet Union. They would like to have good trade relations. We want it too."

ROME, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE MARSHALL PLAN WAS THE LEADING ISSUE IN POLITICAL TALKS TODAY LOOKING TOWARD THE APRIL 18 ELECTION, WHICH WILL GIVE AN INDICATION WHETHER ITALY'S 27,000,000 VOTERS LOOK WEST TO THE UNITED STATES OR EASTWARD TO RUSSIA.

PARTY LEADERS, TOURING THE PROVINCES FROM SICILY TO THE ALPS, DRUMMED AWAY FOR AND AGAINST THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY MEASURES NOW BEFORE CONGRESS.

INTERIOR MINISTER MARIO SCELBA LAST NIGHT TOLD A CROWD AT MODENA IN THE NORTH THAT "AMERICA WILL GIVE AID TO ITALY TO REINFORCE OUR DEMOCRATIC REGIME AND COMBAT COMMUNISM."

SCELBA IS THE GOVERNMENT'S MILITARY BOSS WHOSE "GET-TOUGH" CAMPAIGN WITH COMMUNISTS LATE LAST YEAR BROKE THE BACK OF LEFTIST LABOR DISORDERS.

HE DEFENDED THE RECENT ARREST OF 108 PERSONS IN PUGLIA, IN ITALY'S TENSE-TEMPERED SOUTH, AS "INDISPENSABLE" TO MAINTAINING PUBLIC ORDER. COMMUNISTS HAVE CHARGED THE ARRESTS VIOLATED THE NATION'S TRUCE AGAINST POLITICAL VIOLENCE, SIGNED BY ALL MAJOR PARTIES.

SCELBA SAID ITALY'S COMMUNISTS ARE "HIDING BEHIND THE CAMOUFLAGE OF ANOTHER NAME--THE POPULAR FRONT. THIS IS A TYPICAL FORM IN WHICH COMMUNISM PRESENTS ITSELF IN OTHER COUNTRIES--COUNTRIES WHICH SOONER OR LATER FALL UNDER DICTATORSHIP."

SCELBA PROMISED HIS TROOPS AND CARABINIERI WOULD KEEP STRICT ORDER AT THE POLLS AND "GUARANTEE THE RIGHT TO VOTE."

COMMUNIST SPEAKERS CENTERED MOST OF THEIR ATTACKS AGAINST THE MARSHALL PLAN. COMMUNIST VICE-SECRETARY LUIGI LONGO, SPEAKING AT THE NAVAL BASE OF TARANTO IN THE FAR SOUTH, SAID THE PLAN WOULD REACT AGAINST THE INTERESTS OF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE.

ANTI-COMMUNIST SOCIALIST LEADER GIUSEPPE SARAGAT SAID AT VERCELLI: "JUST AS WE FOUGHT FASCISM, WE MUST NOW COMBAT THE DANGER OF A NEW WAR."

GUGLIEMO GIANNINI, LEADER OF THE RIGHTIST "COMMON MAN" MOVEMENT, SAID AT PADOVA: "THE SITUATION IN EUROPE IS TERRIBLE. IT IS THE FRUIT OF THE FOOLISH FORMULA OF 'UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER' ESTABLISHED BY ROOSEVELT AND CHURCHILL."

HE SAID WITHDRAWAL OF ANGLO-AMERICAN MILITARY FORCES FROM MUCH OF EUROPE "REQUIRES OUR LOCAL GUARDS TO OPPOSE THE EVENTUAL MARCH AHEAD OF THE RUSSIAN ARMY, GREATLY REINFORCED BY EQUIPMENT FROM THE ALLIES."

ROBERTO LUCIFERO, SECRETARY OF THE ITALIAN LIBERAL PARTY, WARNED A MILAN RALLY: "COMMUNISM MEANS RUSSIFICATION OF ITALY--MOSCOW AT ROME."

PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI SENT A MESSAGE TO U.S. AMBASSADOR JAMES C.DUNN, IN CONNECTION WITH A MEMORIAL SERVICE TODAY AT NETTUNO'S AMERICAN SOLDIER CEMETERY, DECLARING: "WE WILL NOT DESERT THE CAUSE OF LIBERTY AND PEACE FOR WHICH THEY MADE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE."

MEANTIME, INFORMED POLITICAL SOURCES SPECULATED OVER THE POSSIBILITY FOREIGN MINISTER CARLO SFORZA MAY SEEK AN "EXTENTION" OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION OF BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES TO INCLUDE ITALY. SFORZA IS IN PARIS TO ATTEND AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE MARSHALL PLAN.

HOF, GERMANY, MARCH 14-(AP)-I AM A CZECH REFUGEE.

MY HUSBAND AND I FLED TO THE UNITED STATES ZONE OF GERMANY AT THE RISK OF OUR LIVES RATHER THAN LIVE UNDER THE NEW COMMUNIST REGIME.

I MUST USE A PSEUDONYM IN TELLING THE STORY OF OUR FLIGHT. WE HAVE RELATIVES STILL IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND IT MIGHT GO HARD WITH THEM IF OUR NAMES WERE KNOWN.

WE CROSSED THE BORDER AT NIGHT. IT WAS AN EXPERIENCE WE NEVER WILL FORGET. OUR HEARTS ALMOST STOPPED BEATING SEVERAL TIMES WHEN WE THOUGHT WE WOULD BE CAUGHT.

WE MIGHT HAVE BEEN SHOT BY BORDER GUARDS. OR, IF WE HAD BEEN CAPTURED WE WOULD HAVE BEEN SUBJECT TO PRISON TERMS OF FROM FIVE TO 20 YEARS.

THE TRIP BEGAN EASILY ENOUH.

THE TRIP BEGAN EASILY ENOUGH. WE LIVED IN CENTRAL CZECHOSLOVAKIA, FAR FROM THE BORDER.

WE JOURNEYED TO PRAGUE BY TRAIN, WITHOUT INCIDENT. FROM PRAGUE, WE WENT TO ASCH, NEAR THE U.S. ZONE BORDER, BY AUTOMOBILE.

WE THOUGHT THAT AS WE NEARED THE BORDER THERE WOULD BE LESS CHANCE OF OUR IDENTITIES BEING CHECKED IF WE WENT BY AUTOMOBILE INSTEAD OF BY TRAIN. THIS PROVED TO BE CORRECT AND WE REACHED ASCH WITHOUT BEING STOPPED.

THERE, I STAYED WITH A FRIEND WHILE MY HUSBAND WENT OUT TO MAKE "ARRANGEMENTS."

MOST OF THOSE TRYING TO ESCAPE DON'T KNOW THE WAY AND NEED HELP.

MY HUSBAND RETURNED AND SAID THE ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE.

TO START WITH, WE HAD TO TAKE A BUS TO ANOTHER PLACE WHICH I THINK IT BEST NOT TO NAME.

THEN CAME OUR FIRST ANXIOUS MOMENT.

A POLICEMAN BOARDED THE BUS AND WANTED TO SEE EVERYBODY'S IDENTITY PAPERS. ANYBODY WHO DID NOT LIVE IN THE VICINITY HAD TO GIVE A GOOD REASON FOR BEING THERE OR BE TAKEN TO JAIL FOR QUESTIONING.

B8

MAR 1948

MY HUSBAND SAID HE HAD COME ON BUSINESS, AND GAVE THE NAME OF A NEARBY FACTORY. THE POLICEMAN HESITATED A MOMENT. THEN, APPARENTLY CONVINCED, HE MOVED ON.

I WAS WEARING A SMART SUIT WITH A FUR PIECE. MY HUSBAND WORE A BUSINESS SUIT AND A CONSERVATIVE OVERCOAT AND HAT. I GUESS WE DID NOT LOOK AS THOUGH WE EXPECTED TO MAKE A BREAK ACROSS THE BORDER WITHIN A MATTER OF HOURS.

IT WAS ON THE BUS THAT WE FIRST LEARNED THAT JAN MASARYK WAS DEAD. THE PEOPLE WERE TALKING ABOUT IT IN SHOCKED TONES. THEY APPEARED STUNNED AND DISBELIEVING.

WHEN WE ALIGHTED FROM THE BUS IT WAS DARK. THEN WE MET SOMEBODY WHO WAS TO SHOW US A SECRET WAY ACROSS THE FRONTIER. THAT WAS PART OF THE "ARRANGEMENT."

WE STARTED STEALTHILY ACROSS A FIELD IN THE DARK.

MAR 1948

THEN WE SAW THE RAYS OF A FLASHLIGHT NOT FAR AWAY. WE ALL DROPPED TO THE GROUND UNTIL THE LIGHT DISAPPEARED.

A SHORT TIME LATER, GOING THROUGH A WOODED AREA, WE HEARD THE CLICKING NOISE OF SOMEBODY LOADING A GUN. AGAIN WE DROPPED TO THE GROUND.

WE PUSHED ON WHEN WE THOUGHT WE WERE SAFE AND FINALLY OUR GUIDE TOLD US WE WERE IN GERMANY. WE SIGHED WITH RELIEF AND HE WENT BACK.

BUT OUR WORRIES HAD ONLY BEGUN. WE RESUMED OUR WALK IN WHAT WE THOUGHT WAS THE RIGHT DIRECTION, BUT WE CAME TO VARIOUS FORKS IN THE ROADS AND DIDN'T KNOW WHICH WAY TO TURN.

WE DIDN'T KNOW WHETHER WE WERE WALKING INTO THE NEARBY RUSSIAN ZONE OR EVEN BACK INTO CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THEN WE SAW A FARMHOUSE. THERE WAS A LIGHT INSIDE. WE WALKED UP TO A WINDOW AND HEARD A RADIO. THE ANNOUNCER'S VOICE WAS IN CZECH. OUR HEARTS SANK.

"ALL THIS TROUBLE AND WE ARE BACK IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA," WE TOLD EACH OTHER.

WE WALKED QUICKLY AWAY FROM THE FARMHOUSE AND STARTED DOWN ANOTHER ROAD.

THEN THE TWO MEN ~~CHALLENGED US. WE GAVE UP HOPE.~~

BUT THEY TURNED OUT TO BE GERMAN FRONTIER GUARDS.

"WE ARE ACROSS NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS NOW," I SAID.

THE GERMANS ASKED US OUR IDENTITIES, THEN TURNED US OVER TO SOME AMERICAN SOLDIERS. THE SOLDIERS QUESTIONED US AND SENT US TO MOSCHENDORF REFUGEE CAMP AT HOF.

NOW WE ARE GOING TO ANOTHER REFUGEE CAMP AT SCHWABACH.

OUR STORY IS PROBABLY TYPICAL OF THOSE WHO SUCCEED IN CROSSING. HOW MANY ARE HALTED WE DO NOT KNOW.

BUT THE CZECH BORDER CONTROL IS BEING TIGHTENED ALL THE TIME AND IT WILL BECOME MORE AND MORE DIFFICULT TO ESCAPE.

WE DON'T KNOW WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS. BUT WE ARE HOPEFUL.

MOSCOW, MARCH 14-(AP)-THE SOVIET PRESS PUBLISHED TODAY REPORTS OF AN EXCHANGE OF LETTERS IN WHICH FINNISH PRESIDENT JUHO K.PAASIKIVI AND PRIME MINISTER STALIN AGREED TO NEGOTIATIONS ON A "FRIENDSHIP TREATY."

THE REPORTS WERE FROM THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS. THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER PRAVDA AND THE GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER IZVESTIA WERE AMONG THOSE PUBLISHING THEM. A FINNISH DELEGATION WILL BEGIN NEGOTIATIONS IN MOSCOW A WEEK FROM TOMORROW.

TASS SAID PAASIKIVI SENT STALIN A LETTER LAST TUESDAY IN WHICH HE REPORTED THAT PARLIAMENTARY FACTIONS IN FINLAND EXPRESSED DOUBTS RELATIVE TO A MILITARY TREATY.

THIS LETTER, THE AGENCY REPORTED, SAID FINLAND WAS ACCEPTING THE SOVIET INVITATION TO NEGOTIATE ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT DURING THE CONVERSATIONS THE CONTENTS OF THE PROPOSED TREATY WOULD BE SUBJECT TO DISCUSSION FROM ALL SIDES AND TO AMENDMENT.

IN A LETTER ON THURSDAY, TASS SAID, STALIN ANSWERED THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT WAS PREPARED TO BEGIN CONVERSATIONS WITH FINLAND MARCH 22.

THE CHENNAULT AIRLINE REPORTED IN SHANGHAI TUESDAY THAT TWO P-39 FIGHTERS WITH SOVIET RED STARS ATTACKED ONE OF THE LINE'S PASSENGER PLANES THAT DAY WHILE THE TRANSPORT WAS FLYING FROM MUKDEN, MANCHURIA, TO TSINGTAO, NORTH CHINA.

WHITING WILLAUER, EMPLOYED BY THE AIRLINE, REPORTED THE FIGHTERS MADE FIVE PASSES AT THE TRANSPORT, FIRING EACH TIME, BUT GO NO HITS.

HE SAID THE ATTACK TOOK PLACE ABOUT 120 MILES NORTH OF TSINGTAO AND 40 MILES WEST OF KANTOSHU (THE KWANGTUNG PENINSULA), OVER PO HAI (THE GULF OF CHIHLI). PORT ARTHUR IS NEAR THE TIP OF THE PENINSULA. WILLAUER DID NOT MENTION THE PORT ARTHUR BASE AREA.

THE CHENNAULT LINE IS HEADED BY MAJ.GEN.CLAIRE L.CHENNAULT, RETIRED UNITED STATES ARMY OFFICER.

LATER WILLAUER SAID THE TRANSPORT PILOT TOLD HIM THE RUSSIAN-MARKED PLANES MUST HAVE HAD NO INTENTION OF HITTING THE PASSENGER CRAFT, SINCE IF THEY HAD THEY COULDN'T HAVE MISSED.

HE SAID ALL TRANSPORT PLANES HAVE BEEN GIVING RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED PORT ARTHUR AND DAIREN "A WIDE BERTH."

FINN BUDGET (800)

HELSINKI, MARCH 14-(AP)-WILL FINLAND BECOME ANOTHER CZECHOSLOVAKIA?

NO CLEARCUT ANSWER CAN BE GIVEN TODAY IN THE FACE OF THE COMING NEGOTIATIONS TOWARD A RUSSO-FINNISH FRIENDSHIP AND MILITARY AGREEMENT AND PARLIAMENT'S ACTION ON SUCH A PACT. BUT THE QUESTION IS DOMINANT IN EVERYONE'S MIND.

OPTIMISTS TAKE THE PROPOSED ALLIANCE AT ITS APPARENT FACE VALUE--NAMELY, THE SOVIET UNION'S EXPRESSED DESIRE TO COMPLETE ITS BELT OF SECURITY IN THE WEST. THERE ARE MANY MORE PESSIMISTS WHO SEE IT AS THE OPENING WEDGE IN BRINGING FINLAND SOLIDLY INTO RUSSIA'S EASTERN BLOC AND EVENTUALLY DESTROYING HER FREEDOM.

FINLAND BOASTS OF A HIGH NATIONAL MORALITY AND INTEGRITY. IF A POLL WERE TAKEN TODAY--FROM GOVERNMENT LEADERS DOWN--THE MAJORITY WOULD SAY NO TO THE PACT.

NEWSPAPER EDITORS SAY THEIR OFFICES ARE BEING SWAMPED BY LETTERS AGAINST IT. PARLIAMENT ALREADY HAS REFLECTED THE TREND IN ADVISING PRESIDENT JUHO PASSIKIVI AGAINST ENTERING AN AGREEMENT.

BUT FINLAND'S RESPONSIBLE LEADERS MUST KEEP WIDER CONSIDERATIONS IN MIND, HIGHLY PLACED OFFICIALS SAY. STALIN'S PROPOSED PACT, THEY MAINTAIN, SIMPLY CANNOT BE SHRUGGED OFF BY THIS SMALL BUT STUBBORNLY INDEPENDENT COUNTRY.

ONE FORMER MINISTER, WHO ADMITTEDLY THINKS LEFTIST IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS BUT IS SQUARELY MIDDLE-OF-ROAD ON INTERNAL MATTERS, PUT IT THIS WAY:

"IT WOULD BE BETTER TO ACCEPT THE PACT THAN TO PRODUCE ANOTHER CZECHOSLOVAKIA. I, FOR EXAMPLE, AM FOR THE PACT NOT BECAUSE I LIKE IT BUT BECAUSE FINLAND CANNOT AVOID IT. WHEN THE GENERAL OF AN ARMY CORPS (RUSSIAN MINISTER GRIGORI SAVONENKOV) IS SITTING HERE THEN WE KNOW THAT HIS ARMY CANNOT BE FAR AWAY. THAT ALONE IS ENOUGH TO CAUSE UNEASINESS. IF WE DO NOT ACCEPT, IT WILL COST US MORE IN THE END. I AM SURE WE CAN HOLD TO OUR DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS BETTER THIS WAY."

MANY LONG-TIME FOREIGN OBSERVERS REGARD THE PACT AS A SOVIET EFFORT TO BREAK THE INDEPENDENT SPIRIT OF THE FINNS. THAT SPIRIT HAS BEEN HARDENED AND GLAZED BY A THOUSAND YEARS OF ANIMOSITY TOWARD THE RUSSIANS. DISARMED AS FINLAND IS TO THE POINT OF A MILITARY VACUUM, THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT LOST THEIR AGE-OLD SUSPICION OF THE FINNS. NOR HAVE THE FINNS DROPPED THEIR GUARD.

A15

THE PESSIMIST'S VIEW IS THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY CANNOT TAKE ANOTHER ELECTION BEATING IN JULY SUCH AS IT TOOK IN THE LOCAL ELECTIONS OF LAST DECEMBER. IF THAT TREND HELD, THE COMMUNISTS WOULD STAND TO LOSE NINE OF THEIR 34 SEATS IN THE 200-MAN PARLIAMENT.

WHAT THE FINNS CALL A COMMUNIST PARTY PRESSURE CAMPAIGN ALREADY HAS STARTED IN SUPPORT OF THE PACT. FINNISH EDITORS TOOK A SERIOUS VIEW OF LAST WEEK'S TACTICS IN WHICH COMMUNIST DEPUTATIONS VISITED THE NEWSPAPERS AND DEMANDED THEY SUPPORT THE AGREEMENT.

AS IN PRAGUE, THE COMMUNISTS CONTROL THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. YRJO LEINO, THE HUSBAND OF HERTTA KUUSINEN WHOSE FATHER IS A POLITICAL POWER IN THE SOVIET, RECENTLY COMPLETED A REORGANIZATION OF HIS MINISTRY AND ITS POLITICAL OR SECRET STATE POLICE.

IN THE MIND OF MOST FINNS, THE PARALLEL ENDS THERE.

THE COMMUNISTS STILL DO NOT CONTROL THE COURTS. MINISTER OF JUSTICE EINO PEKKALA, HOWEVER, IS A MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY WHICH COOPERATES WITH THE COMMUNISTS IN THE POPULAR FRONT. HE IS A BROTHER OF PRIME MINISTER MAUNO PEKKALA, ALSO OF THE SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY WHICH SPLIT AWAY FROM THE SOCIAL DEMOCRAT PARTY.

A THIRD IMPORTANT FACTOR, FINNS MAINTAIN, IS THAT THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS IN FINLAND ARE SOLIDLY ANTI-COMMUNIST AND STILL HOLD THE PREDOMINANT HAND IN THE TRADE UNIONS.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, ON WHOM THE COMMUNISTS PRESUMABLY WOULD HAVE TO COUNT IN ORDER TO SWEEP INTO CONTROL, HAVE TAKEN A STRONG STAND IN BEHALF OF FREE DEMOCRATIC METHODS.

THEIR PARTY ORGAN HAS ALERTED FOLLOWERS TO BE ON GUARD AGAINST ANY COMMUNIST EFFORTS TO SPLIT THE PARTY.

THE POPULAR FRONT OF COMMUNISTS AND RADICAL SOCIALISTS MEANTIME HAS RECOGNIZED THE NEED FOR A WIDER NATIONALISTIC AND PATRIOTIC APPEAL TO THE POPULATION. THEIR MEETINGS NOW END WITH THE NATIONAL HYMN "OUR COUNTRY."

IN ALL HIS CALCULATIONS, THE FINN NEVER FORGETS THE MILITARY ENCLAVE OF PORKKALA, JUST TEN MILES FROM THE CAPITAL, WHICH THE RUSSIANS OCCUPY UNDER THE TERMS OF THE ARMISTICE. IT IS A CONSTANT PRESSURE POINT.

REALISTIC ON THE WHOLE, FINNS SUMMARIZE THE SITUATION "FINLAND HAS ONLY ONE FAULT. SHE IS TOO SMALL."

NANKING, MARCH 14-(AP)-PROFFERED SALE OF EIGHT ACRES OF FORMER TEMPLE LAND TO THE U.S. EMBASSY AT MORE THAN SEVEN TIMES ITS LAST PURCHASE PRICE HAS DRAWN THE ATTENTION OF NANKING CITY AMD CHINESE NATIONAL AUTHORITIES.

THE LAND ADJOINS THE EMBASSY AND IS IN THE PATH OF A LONG-PLANNED CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM TO BE FINANCED BY SALE OF U.S. WAR SURPLUSES TO CHINA.

MAR 1948

IT IS NOW OWNED BY SUN FO, VICE PRESIDENT OF CHINA AND PRESIDENT OF THE POWERFUL LEGISLATIVE YUAN. HE IS THE SON OF CHINA'S REVOLUTIONARY HERO, SUN YAT-SEN, FOUNDER OF THE REPUBLIC.

PUBLIC RECORDS SHOW SUN FO BOUGHT THE LAND IN SEPTEMBER, 1946, FOR 47,674,560 CHINESE DOLLARS, OR ABOUT $11,000 U.S. AT THAT TIME.

EMBASSY OFFICIALS SAID IT WAS QUOTED TO THE EMBASSY AT $10,000 U.S. AN ACRE LAST JUNE.

ABBOT CHO ZAI OF THE 1,500-YEAR-OLD "CLASSICAL TEMPLE OF THE ANCIENT FOREST," TOLD THIS CORRESPONDENT HE WAS FORCED TO SELL UNDER THREAT OF HAVING THE LAND CONDEMNED FOR PUBLIC USE. HE SAID THE NANKING SOCIAL AFFAIRS BUREAU TOLD HIM IT WAS WANTED AS THE SITE FOR DORMITORIES FOR THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN.

ASKED FOR HIS VERSION, SUN FO TOLD THIS CORRESPONDENT HE NOW OWNED THE LAND BUT HAD NOT KNOWN THE ABBOT OPPOSED THE SALE.

"MAYOR MA CHAO CHUEN (THEN NANKING MAYOR, NOW LABOR MINISTER), KNOWING I WANTED TO BUILD A HOUSE TO REPLACE ONE DESTROYED BY THE JAPANESE, OFFERED TO FIND SUITABLE LAND, SUN SAID. "FROM THEN UNTIL THE PURCHASE WAS CONCLUDED, THE MATTER WAS ENTIRELY IN HIS HANDS AND THOSE OF HIS OFFICIALS."

DEEDS REGISTERED AT THE LAND BUREAU CONFIRM THAT CITY OFFICIALS BOUGHT THE LAND "ACTING FOR SUN FO," BUT SHOW NO REFERENCE TO ANY INTENTION TO USE IT FOR OFFICIAL PURPOSES.

SUN FO SAID HE ABANDONED PLANS TO BUILD A HOME THERE WHEN HIS ARCHITECT DISCOVERED THE PROPERTY WAS THE SITE OF AN OLD AIR RAID SHELTER CONTAINING SKELETONS OF MANY CHINESE SLAIN BY THE JAPANESE.

LAND BUREAU OFFICIALS SAID A WIDESPREAD INVESTIGATION WAS IN PROGRESS INTO OWNERSHIP OF LAND BY PROMINENT CIVIL AND MILITARY OFFICIALS AND THAT SUN FO'S TRACT WAS INCLUDED.

THEY SAID THE CASE HAD BEEN REFERRED BOTH TO THE MAYOR'S OFFICE AND THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE YUAN. ISSUES RAISED, THEY SAID, INCLUDED A POSSIBLE TAX INCREASE BECAUSE OF THE PRICE QUOTED TO THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AND A QUESTION OF THE TEMPLE'S RIGHT TO SELL, SINCE LAND ONCE USED BY THE JAPANESE WAS SUPPOSED TO BE IN CITY "CUSTODY."

CITY COUNCILMAN HSIA SHIH TOLD THE COUNCIL, "THE LAND BUREAU MUST INVESTIGATE CASES OF INDIVIDUALS ABUSING GOVERNMENT OFFICES TO OBTAIN LAND FOR PRIVATE USES.

"I DOUBT THAT LAND BUREAU OFFICIALS ARE REALLY IGNORANT OF THESE AFFAIRS. THEY REMAIN DUMB BECAUSE THEY ARE AFRAID OF OFFENDING INFLUENTIAL AUTHORITIES."

ONE DOCUMENT REFERRING THE SUN FO CASE TO THE MAYOR'S OFFICE LISTED PURCHASERS OF OTHER TEMPLE LANDS AS GEN. WU TEH-CHEN, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST PARTY); PAI YUEN-TI, DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF MONGOLIAN AFFAIRS; KU CHENG-KANG, SOCIAL AFFAIRS MINISTER; KU CHENG-TING, VICE MINISTER OF KUOMINTANG ORGANIZATION; AND HAN LIH-WU, GOVERNMENT VICE-MINISTER OF EDUCATION.

A9FX

PAI RECENTLY CLAIMED OWNERSHIP OF A STRIP OF LAND INCLUDED IN A PARCEL PREVIOUSLY PURCHASED BY THE U.S. EMBASSY FROM THE CHINESE NATIONAL GIVERNMENT. HE PRESENTED A DEED DATED SEVERAL MONTHS EARLIER THAN THE EMBASSY PURCHASE.

PAI'S CLAIM, AS WELL AS OTHERS INVOLVING PROPERTIES BOUGHT DIRECTLY FROM THE GOVERNMENT, HAS BEEN REFERRED TO THE CHINESE FOREIGN OFFICE BY U.S. OFFICIALS, WHO SAID SUCH TITLE QUESTIONS LAY BETWEEN THE CLAIMANT AND THE GOVERNMENT AS SELLER.

BIDAULT ASKS FOR 16-NATION JOINT ACTION

French Foreign Minister Addresses Marshall Plan Conference

Paris, March 15 (AP)—French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault today called on fifteen nations to join France in writing a charter for a permanent European organization.

He made this proposal to delegates attending the opening session of western Europe's second Marshall plan conference. The conference also received a joint British-French suggestion that western Germany be included in the plan.

In an obvious reference to Czechoslovakia, where Communists recently seized control, Bidault said Europe has been "reduced to the sixteen nations" represented here.

Explains Charter Plan

He explained that his proposed charter for a permanent European organization would consist of a multilateral treaty dovetailing the economic and social policies of the sixteen Marshall plan nations.

Such a unified production and commercial policy should be administered by a new international executive body, he said. The first task of that body, Bidault added, would be to co-operate with the United States in administration of the Marshall plan.

[A Tass dispatch from Paris, received in London, predicted that a military bloc would emerge from the conference.

Mentions "Military Bloc"

[The Russian news agency said "journalistic circles emphasize that the Paris conference will be used by Bevin and Bidault to draw into a military bloc several other countries besides Britain, France and the Benelux countries."

[It added that "the Capitalist press is . . . trying to hide that this conference is designed to serve the selfish interests of American imperialism."]

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin in a formal statement said Britain intended to make the necessary sacrifices for European co-ordination, but did not intend to sacrifice her special ties with her dominions or her long-standing relationships in world trade.

Regarded As Significant

Bevin's statement was regarded as significant. It is believed the conference's efforts to build a platform for a European customs and monetary union and eventual federation depend on the extent to which Britain is willing to become more of a part of Europe. Up to now imperial preferences have been a stumbling block in the first studies of the customs union project.

Referring to American aid as a breathing space, Bevin said the first aim of the sixteen nations "is to make a great success of the European Recovery Program." He expressed the belief that those in the Marshall plan would continue to co-operate after the period of American help ends.

British-French Proposal

The British-French proposal on western Germany would associate German experts from the British, French and American occupation zones and military government delegates in the work of the conference technical committees.

If adopted this would mark the first time since the war that German politicians would be invited to sit with the victors.

The proposal reflected a softening of French foreign policy toward France's traditional enemy. Bidault said:

"If justice and good sense demand that this country (Germany) atone for its immense faults and be guided in a way to prevent its again falling into them, this same justice and this same good sense also demand that the resources of this industrious and persevering nation be associated in the great effort of reconstruction. . . .

"We offer Germany an opportunity to prove this sentiment of fraternal solidarity."

There were reports that Portugal might propose that Spain be included under the Marshall plan. But there was no word from Portuguese Foreign Minister Jose Caeiro da Mata.

Conference circles believed the Portuguese first considered bringing the question up but had now all but decided to drop it in view of probable widespread opposition.

Reich May Get Parley Bid

Paris, March 15 (AP)—The sixteen-nation European conference was asked today to include western Germany in the reconstruction plan for the Continent.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin made the proposal.

Earlier, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault told the delegates that Europe's "division has become aggravated today in a manner as fearsome as it is unfortunate."

"Europe has been reduced to the sixteen nations here," Bidault said.

French occupation officials in Germany announced that German representatives from the French zone will take part in the conference.

Spain To Be Proposed

Indications were that Portugal would propose that Spain also be included under the Marshall plan for European recovery.

Bevin announced a proposal "that the Anglo-American zone and the French zone [of Germany] should be fully associated with the work of our continuing organization."

"We must co-operate together or perish individually," he said.

Bevin called for a reduction of European trade barriers and action on "everything possible to promote European economic and social well-being."

He promised the conference nations with overseas territories "will have a special contribution to make." He added that "Europe, in turn, can contribute to the economic success in these overseas territories."

Two Full Sessions Planned

On Bevin's suggestion, the delegates decided on two full afternoon sessions, today and tomorrow. The permanent "committee on officials" is to meet tomorrow morning and possibly wind up its work Wednesday.

Bevin, as chairman, was at the head of the U-shaped table in the French Foreign Ministry. The atmosphere was businesslike.

Nordic Accord Effectuated

Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen, of Denmark, told the meeting the Scandinavian countries had decided on greater economic collaboration among themselves "within the framework of the European Recovery Program."

He criticized the occupation policy of requiring payment partly in dollars for goods from western Germany "to the detriment of Germany's neighbors."

Carlo Sforza, Italian Foreign Minister, said:

"Italy will learn with joy that we are more and more deeply engaged on the road which alone can deliver us."

He predicted that a properly organized Europe "would become one of the most independent units in the world, especially if allied to Africa." He said the French-Italian customs union is an example to be followed.

Greek Foreign Minister Constantin Tsaldaris said the five-power "Brussels agreement is only a point of departure for a greater organization."

Today's session ended after a speech by Turkish Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak, who said his country considered the duty of the sixteen participating nations "goes far beyond the scope of simple economic adjustment."

Bidault, as host, welcomed the delegates in the name of liberty.

"The qualified representatives of sixteen countries are proclaiming today by their presence that they solemnly confirm their will to work out their own salvation, while insuring liberty, through their friendly and confident co-operation and by aid of the United States," he said.

In Frankfurt, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the United States military governor, said Great Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg already have agreed to a suggestion that German representatives sit in on the Paris meeting. Clay said they would not be full-fledged participants, but advisers to American and British representatives of the combined United States-British zones.

Bidault told the delegates:

"Europe was torn apart in June of 1947 by the refusals to cooperate, which Mr. Bevin and myself were not able to prevent, despite all our efforts. That division has become more aggravated today in a manner as fearsome as it is unfortunate.

"Recent events, present in the minds of all, show with dramatic spectacularity the reasons why Europe is now—temporarily if we have our wish—reduced to the sixteen countries present here."

Russia Releases Older Army Men

London, March 15 (AP)—Tass said tonight the last of the senior age groups in the Russian army would be demobilized by the end of March.

The Soviet news agency said in a dispatch from Moscow that after March 31 the "army contingent" would consist chiefly of two age groups—those born in 1926 and 1927, who now are 21 and 22 years old.

The dispatch disclosed that a decree, apparently bringing the army down to its planned peacetime strength of conscripts and professionals, was issued in February by the Supreme Soviet.

The dispatch said:

"The Supreme Soviet of the USSR in February of this year issued a decree on carrying out the demobilization from the army of all the remaining senior age groups to be completed by the end of March.

"In connection with the carrying out of this demobilization, the army contingent will consist in the main of two age groups—those born in 1926 and 1927. In two weeks' time the demobilization will be fully completed."

[Neither the current strength nor the planned permanent strength of the Russian army has been announced.

[In the United States House of Representatives last December, Representative Eaton (R., N.J.) said Russia had an army of 4,050,000 men. He said he obtained that figure from the War Department.]

British Reds Face Security Shift

London, March 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee announced today that Communists and Fellow Travelers will be weeded out of Government departments handling state or security secrets.

The Prime Minister told the House of Commons that the same rule will apply to the employment of persons known to be active in Fascist organizations.

Attempts will be made to find work in nonsecret Government departments for the employés affected, Attlee said.

He declared that the various ministers "must take responsibility for their departments in this matter" and added:

"The general principle covers all those in the service of the state where secrecy is involved."

John Platts-Mills, an extreme Leftist Laborite M. P., interrupted to challenge the Government decision, asking:

"Beginning this purge with Communists, is there any reason why you should not go on to Jews and Socialists?"

"Yes," Atlee replied, "every reason, because Jews and Socialists have a loyalty to this country. It is not so with many Communists—and some fellow travelers."

Italy Restates Claim To Libian Colonies

London, March 15 (AP)—Italy has restated her claim to trusteeship over her prewar colonies in Libia and promised to promote their independence.

A western diplomatic official disclosed today the contents of a letter sent by the Italian Foreign Ministry to the four-power Foreign Ministers' deputies studying disposition of Mussolini's African empire. The former colonies in Libia are Tripolitania, Cirenaica and Fezzan.

The deputies are deadlocked over the question of when and how they shall hear other countries present their views.

The Italian letter contended that the "solidarity of interests" between the Arabs and Italians in the area "does not need to be demonstrated."

Britons Must Slice Meat Thinner

London, March 15 (AP)—The skimpy weekly fresh-meat ration in Britain was cut still further tonight.

Each ration-book holder now is entitled to fresh meat worth 1 shilling (20 cents) each week. Effective March 21, the Ministry of Food announced, the ration will be 10 pence (16 cents) worth of fresh meat and 2 pence (4 cents) worth of canned corn beef.

A shilling's worth of meat is two small lamb chops or a minute bit of beef or steak which Americans would consider a small portion for one meal. British eke it out with fish and "offal" such as liver.

STRONGER DEFENSE URGED ON SWEDEN

Defense Staff, Citing Russia's 'Brusque' Tactics, Calls for Greater Preparedness

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, March 15 (AP)—The Swedish Defense Staff, citing the "brusque methods" of Russia, asked King Gustaf V today for measures to strengthen Sweden's military preparedness.

A letter to the King stressed the 'increased danger of war." It said:

"Evidently the Soviet Union is very consistently working to weld together its own security system in Eastern Europe. Apparently it does not hesitate to resort to very brusque methods in its work.

"Contradictions between the East and West do not seem to diminish, but on the contrary to be gradually aggravated."

The letter added, however, that the Defense Staff did not believe "a general conflict to be imminent, as the Western powers are hardly prepared and Russia probably is still too weak."

"Coup Preparedness" Urged

In a simultaneous report to the King, Gen. Helge Jung, Commander in Chief of the Swedish Army, said the armed forces needed "additional money and a considerable contribution of manpower, materials and industrial capacity."

"Increased imports" are necessary to increase Sweden's defense system, he added.

General Jung's report used the term "coup preparedness" several times.

He described as "very low" the "personal preparedness" of the army and coastal artillery and that of the navy and air force as "somewhat more favorable."

He concluded, however, that the navy's "total coup preparedness" was very low.

Danish Press Annoys Russ

Copenhagen, Denmark, March 15 (AP)—Moscow has informed Denmark that the Soviet Government is "not too enthusiastic about the way in which Russia is being treated by the Danish press." A foreign Office spokesman reported this today.

The Russian statement was made by a high-ranking Soviet Foreign Ministry official in reply to a Danish protest to Russian newspaper claims that Denmark had formed a secret alliance with the Western powers. The protest was delivered to the Kremlin some time ago by Danish Minister Conrad Hanen.

Communists Lose Posts In Swedish Union

Stockholm, March 15 (AP)—Communists were swept out in elections for one of the biggest strongholds of the Swedish Trade Union Federation last night.

In union elections throughout northern Sweden, Communists were ousted from the board of the Lulea section of the federation.

Einar Norrman, federation secretary, described the development as a "general tendency all around the country."

Czech Diplomat Quits

Bern, Switzerland, March 15 (AP). Dr. Vladimir Herrmann, first secretary of the Czechoslovak legation here, resigned today, Swiss Government sources reported.

2,801 War Dead on Way Home

ANTWERP, Belgium, March 15 (AP).—The transport Robert F. Burns sailed today for the United States with the remains of 2,801 members of the American forces who died in the European theater of war.

Sevilla Jails 64 Communists

SEVILLA, Spain, March 15 (AP).—Police said tonight they had arrested sixty-four Communist organizers in Sevilla city and province. The arrests, they said, smashed the Communist party throughout the province.

Pact 'Doubtful,' Finns Tell Russ

Helsinki, March 15 (AP)—Finland has informed Soviet Russia there are some "doubts" about a military agreement between the two countries. The Finns expressed hope of staying out of international conflicts.

President Juho H. Paasikivi advised Prime Minister Stalin that Finland expects the Russian-proposed treaty of co-operation to be freely considered in the negotiations which open in Moscow next Monday.

These statements were made in Paasikivi's reply to Stalin's invitation to negotiations. It was published today by the Foreign Office, a day after the Moscow press had printed excerpts from it. The letter was sent to Moscow Tuesday.

Requirement Cited

(Moscow dispatches said Bulgaria and Russia are expected to sign a mutual friendship and assistance pact soon. Bulgarian Premier Georgi Dmitrov left Sofia by plane today. Bulgaria signed a credit trade agreement with the Soviet Union last September.)

Paasikivi's letter emphasized that a Finnish-Russian treaty requires the Finnish parliament's approval.

"The matter having been considered by the aforementioned groups (parliamentary party groups), doubts were expressed by parliamentary quarters in regard to conclusion of a military agreement," Paasikivi wrote.

Directives Mapped

"Especially after the hardships endured during past wars, the Finnish people hope to be able to remain outside of international conflicts and, in conscientiously filling the clauses of the peace treaty, to maintain and develop friendly relations between Finland and the Soviet Union."

A Government committee met today with a parliamentary committee to inform it of the progress made so far in working out directives to guide Finland's seven-man delegation in Moscow.

The delegation is to leave Helsinki Saturday.

Finnish Letter

President Paasikivi's letter, a made public here, follows:

"Helsinki, March 9, 1948.

"Generalissimus,

"Further to my letter of Feb 27 last, I have the honor to inform you of the following:

"Seeing that the conclusion o the treaty in question, according to the Finnish Constitution, requires approval of Parliament, the government has submitted the proposal included in your letter t a preparatory examination by the Parliamentary groups.

"The matter having been considered by the aforementioned groups, doubts were expressed by Parliamentary quarters in regard to conclusion of a military agreement. Expecially after the hardships endured during the past war, the Finnish people hope to be able to remain outside of international conflicts and, in conscientiously fulfilling the clauses of the peace treaty, to maintain and develop friendly relations between Finland and the Soviet Union.

Agrees to Negotiations

"In wishing by all available means to promote and develop good and confident neighborhood relations between Finland and the Soviet Union, the government accepts the proposal to enter upon the said negotiations. The government presupposes that the factual contents of the agreement in all respects will be freely considered and decided during negotiations.

"The government accepts that the negotiations take place in Moscow and begs to state that the Finnish delegation will be prepared to leave on a date suiting the Soviet government after March 20 current.

"With deep respects,

"The President of the republic, J. K. Paasikivi."

Finns Ready For Parley

Helsinki, Finland, March 15 (AP) Finnish President Kuho K. Paasikivi has informed Prime Minister Stalin that while the Finns are willing to negotiate a treaty with Russia, they hope to stay out of international conflicts.

Groups in the Finnish Parliament have expressed doubt concerning the conclusion of an agreement of a military character, the President said.

Parliament Approval Needed

Paasikivi, in a letter to Stalin, emphasized that any Finnish-Russian treaty requires the approval of the Finnish Parliament.

The letter was in answer to Stalin's proposal that the two countries negotiate a treaty of co-operation. The text of the letter was published today by the Finnish Foreign Ministry a day after excerpts from it had been printed in the Moscow press. The letter was sent last Tuesday.

Text Of Part Of Letter

Negotiations on the projected pact will open in Moscow next Monday. The Finnish delegation will leave Helsinki Saturday.

Paasikivi's letter said, in part:

"Seeing that the conclusion of the treaty in question, according to the Finnish Constitution, requires approval of Parliament, the (Finnish) Government has submitted the proposal included in your letter to a preparatory examination by the parliamentary groups.

"The matter having been considered by the aforementioned groups, doubts were expressed by parliamentary quarters in regard to conclusion of a military agreement.

"Especially after the hardships endured during the past war, the Finnish people hope to be able to remain outside of international conflicts. . . .

To Keep Parliament Informed

"In wishing by all available means to promote and develop good and confident neighborhood relations between Finland and the Soviet Union, the Government accepts the proposal to enter upon the said negotiations.

"The Government presupposes that the factual contents of the agreement in all respects will be freely considered and decided during negotiations."

A Government committee met today with a parliamentary committee to inform it of the progress made so far in working out directives to guide Finland's seven-man negotiating group. Paasikivi has decided to keep Parliament fully informed of all developments in connection with the proposed pact.

MOSCOW, March 15 (AP).—Recent Soviet maps indicate the Mongolian People's Republic has acquired a railway system.

[Independence of the republic, formerly known as Outer Mongolia, was recognized by China in 1946. A month later the republic signed a treaty of friendship and mutual aid with the Soviet Union. Marshal Choi Bol-San is premier.]

The maps show a normal-gauge line running from Borzya, in the U. S. S. R. near the Manchurian border, about fifty miles to the border of the Mongolian People's Republic and continuing in that country to Choi Bol-San, formerly known as Bain Tumen. The line is about 200 miles long.

Also indicated on the maps are narrow-gauge lines running east to Sukhebator, near the Manchurian border, and west to Uldzutu, near the border of the Buryat Mongol Republic, part of the U. S. S. R.

Bulgarian Pact Expected.

Moscow, March 15 (A. P.).—Bulgarian Premier Georgi Dimitrov today en route to Moscow for discussions which most observers believe will result in a treaty of friendship and mutual aid with the Soviet Union. The treaty would be similar to those already signed with Romania and Hungary.

Reinforcement Request Sent By Shanghai

Shanghai, March 15 (AP)—Shanghai's military garrison today asked for reinforcements to guard the railways to Nanking and Hanchow as Communist guerrillas redoubled their hit-and-run warfare.

Railroads and outposts are prime targets of the night-time raiders.

The hunt for Communists inside Shanghai is unceasing. Whole areas are frequently roped off while agents conduct house-to-house searches. Near-by villages are searched periodically.

Peasants Turn Raiders

The head of a Communist guerrilla leader, killed in an underground hideout 50 miles from here March 10, was exhibited to villagers.

Many of the Reds are villagers or peasants by day and raiders by night. Most of the villages live in daily fear of attack or sabotage from both sides in China's civil warfare.

In Shanghai, conscription of 6,000 youths for the Government armies will start March 23. All persons of draft age will be forbidden to leave the city until the end of June, except on legitimate business.

Shanghai's 10,000 volunteer policemen are to be reorganized for more effective action in any crisis.

Shanghai: Red Hunt Continues

SHANGHAI, March 15 (AP).—The hunt for Communists inside Shanghai is unceasing. Areas frequently are roped off while agents conduct house-to-house searches. Near-by villages are combed periodically. The head of a Communist guerilla leader, killed in an underground hide-out fifty miles from here March 10, was exhibited to frightened villagers.

China Confirms Szepingkai Fall

Peiping, March 15 (AP)—Fall of Szepingkai to the Communists was acknowledged today by pro-Government Chinese press dispatches.

They said the important Manchurian communications hub was taken Saturday after eleven days of heavy fighting in which the garrison of less than 10,000 men sold every inch of ground to the 80,000 attacking Communists at a big price in blood.

[The Communist radio contended it was only a one-day battle and that "all 16,000" of the Government garrison were "annihilated." The Communist broadcast said the Government's entire 88th Division was wiped out.]

Manchurian dispatches predicted the Communists would rest briefly, then move on Changchun. The city has lost significance since it is surrounded, without electric power, and is jammed with cold, hungry refugees.

Chinese Assails Czech Coup

NANKING, March 15 (AP).—Vice-President Sun Fo said today hopes of Democratic countries to live peacfully with Soviet Russia "were smashed by the lesson of the Czechoslovakian coup d'etat." His views, quoted by the official "Central Daily News," gave the first comment by a high Chinese official.

41 JAPS TO HANG FOR KILLING YANKS

Convicted by U. S. Court at Largest Mass Trial Held in Japan.

YOKOHAMA, (Tuesday), March 16.—(AP) A U. S. military court today sentenced 41 Japanese navy men to the gallows for executing three American fliers on a Pacific island.

Two of 45 defendants were acquitted; a third was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment, and a fourth to five years.

The victims, slain after they parachuted near Ishigake island in the Okinawa group April 15, 1945, were named as:

Navy Lt. Vernon L. Tebo, Pensacola, Fla.; Warren H. Loyd, radioman, Forest Hills, Long Island, N. Y.; and Robert Tuggle, ordnanceman, Brownwood, Tex.

The courtroom was crowded as the Japanese, clad in old American khaki uniforms, listened solemnly to their death sentences. Each Japanese bowed before he was led from the courtroom.

It was the largest mass trial in Japan in more than two years and the number of death sentences was unprecedented.

The chief defendant was ex-Capt. Otohiko Inoue, commander on Ishigake island where the three Americans were brutally slain in an erie ceremony under a bright moon.

Tebo was forced to kneel with his head over a freshly dug pit, and Navy Lt. Mineru Makuda (now condemned) beheaded him. Tuggle was next. Ensign Yasumasa Taguchi slashed his neck with a saber and the body was kicked into the pit. (Taguchi also drew the death penalty today.)

Loyd was bound to a stake, beaten for 20 minutes, then bayonetted by more than 40 screaming Japanese.

The same stake was used to mark the trio's rough grave. There was no inscription, and Inoue ordered his troops never to mention the executions.

More Jap Government Workers' Strikes Loom

Tokyo, March 15 (AP)—The lead of Japan's 350,000 Government communications workers today threatened "further more powerful strikes" if the Government fails to meet wage demands which he agreed it can't afford to pay.

Kazuyoshi Dobashi, chairman of the Communist-influenced Communications Workers' Union, said his organization wants 200 to 400 per cent wage increases. It has been conducting 24-hour spot strikes throughout Japan.

The union is not negotiating on a direct wage basis. It asks enough money so workers will have to spend only 60 per cent of their take-home pay for 2,400 calories of food daily.

Conservative Party Inaugurated In Japan

Tokyo, March 15 (AP)—The new ultra-conservative Democratic Liberal party was formally inaugurated today with a sharp attack on "rampant socialist ideology."

Former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida was installed as president. The organization is based on his disbanded Liberal party. It holds 152 seats in the House of Representatives.

Major Battle In Third Day In Palestine

Jerusalem, March 15 (AP)—The fiercest battle yet waged in the sands of southern Palestine was reported in its third day today, with Jewish and Arab fatalities already 36.

Mired by mud and slowed by driving rains, Jewish forces were said by a Haganah informant to have driven a wedge to the aid of the beleaguered settlement of Gath.

The death toll in the battle so far, according to a Haganah version quoted by the Palestine Post, is 28 Arabs and 8 Jews.

Haganah is the militia of the Jewish Agency. The Palestine Post is an English-language daily published by a Jewish firm.

Buildings Reported Blasted

Haganah sources said forces rushing to lift the Arab siege of Gath had blasted the municipal building, post office and eight stores and houses in the Arab village of El Faluja. This is about 20 miles northeast of Gaza in the Negeb—southern desert.

The Palestine Government estimated damage from the El Faluja bombings at $120,000.

Arab-Jewish clashes over the week end ranged from the southern desert to the northern domain claimed by Fawzi Bey al Kaukji's Arab Volunteer Army.

A Jewish agency source said, meanwhile, that Haganah sometimes resorts to force to keep Jews from 17 to 45 in the Holy Land for "duty in wartime."

Haganah sources in Tel Aviv reported "the greatest onslaught" on Arab Jaffa from Jewish Tel Aviv lasted five hours yesterday and cost the lives of ten Arabs. Police reports here, however, showed only two Jews and an Arab slain in that region yesterday.

A correspondent with the Arab Volunteer Army reported its new military courts began a purge yesterday of Arabs charged with dealing with the Jews. He said 100 Arabs are on a list to be hunted down, tried and, if convicted, hanged.

Travel Restricted.

A Jewish Agency spokesman said, meanwhile, that the militia, Haganah, sometimes resorts to force to keep Jews from 17 to 45 years of age in the Holy Land for "duty in wartime." He said that Haganah guards watch travel agencies for Jews in this age bracket who try to book space on airplanes leaving the Holy Land. If they cannot persuade the prospective travelers to stay in Palestine, he said, they use "stronger measures."

A United States consular informant said that an official objection has been made to the Jewish Agency in regard to young American Jews kept from leaving Palestine. Airlines have reported that hundreds of passengers have been barred from airports by Haganah patrols.

PALESTINE'S FIGHT TOLL 36

Jews And Arabs Battle In South For Third Day

Jerusalem, March 15 (AP)—Jews and Arabs battled fiercely today in arid southern Palestine, with 36 already reported killed.

The battle in southern Palestine was in its third day, with Haganah informants reporting 28 Arabs and eight Jews killed. Other scattered violence brought to 1,780 the unofficial death toll since the United Nations decision on partition last November 29.

Haganah Claims Wedge

Haganah, the militia of the Jewish Agency, said its forces had driven a wedge to the aid of the beleaguered settlement of Gath.

In the drive to relieve Gath, the Jewish fighters blasted ten buildings in the Arab village of Falujah, including the municipal and post-office buildings, Jewish sources said.

Meantime, the British announced they were moving troops out of the country fast enough to complete withdrawal on August 1.

Several Thousand Withdrawn

Already moved out were 145,000 tons of stores, including 2,000 tons of ammunition and 1,800 army and RAF vehicles. The Army destroyed 1,500 tons of ammunition.

The announcement said "several thousand British troops have been withdrawn or their units disbanded." The Army pledged that no arms or ammunition will be sold or left behind.

The foreign consuls in Jerusalem issued a statement saying they had again called the attention of their governments to the "serious situation which is now preventing normal discharge of their duties" in the Holy Land.

Palestine Consular Corps Assails Breaches of Immunity by Arabs

JERUSALEM, March 15 (AP).—Members of the foreign Consular Corps agreed unanimously today at an emergency meeting to protest to their governments against recent breaches by Arabs of consular immunity.

They took action unanimously at an emergency meeting at which the use by Arabs of a stolen American Consulate General car to bomb the Jewish Agency building was condemned. It was agreed that all consuls would report on the situation directly to their governments for such further action as might be decided.

Police announced yesterday that three more consular cars had been stolen. Several others are missing.

JIHAD URGED ON PAKISTAN

Mufti Has Asked Moslem Leaders to Back War in Palestine

NEW DELHI, India, March 15 (AP)—Some Moslem leaders of Pakistan were reported tonight to have expressed sympathy and support for an Arab jihad (holy war) in Palestine.

The report was carried in the newspaper The Statesman in a dispatch from its correspondent in Peshawar.

The account said that a letter inviting Moslems of the Indian subcontinent to join the Palestine was was received by the Premier of the North-West Frontier Province from the exiled Mufti of Jerusalem.

Emissaries of the Mufti are understood to have carried similar letters for the Governor General of Pakistan, the Premier of Sind Province and the Premier of the West Punjab Province.

FAO TO ENLARGE BRANCH

Korea, Japan and 2 Dominions to Be Invited in East

BAGUIO, Philippines, Tuesday, March 16 (AP)—Korea and Japan will be invited to join the Southeast Asia Regional Council of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization as soon as they achieve independence, delegates of the nine-nation meeting here decided today.

Australia and New Zealand also will receive invitations.

Location of a regional headquarters remained undecided today with China holding the decisive vote. The Philippines, United Kingdom, France and Burma favored rotating the regional office annually.

World Bank to Aid Asiatic Food Plans

Baguio, P. I., March 15 (A. P.).—Delegates of nine nations were told today the World Bank stands ready to grant up to $10,000,000 to finance short-term food projects in southeast Asia.

Sir Pheroze Kharagat of India informed the United Nations regional rice conference that the bank is willing to advance from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 for projects approved by the United Nations food and agricultural organization.

Trans-Jordan Signs New Pact With Britain

Treaty Designed to Meet Arab League Objections; Military Aid Not Altered

DE LUCE

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, March 15 (AP).—Trans-Jordan signed today a new treaty of alliance with Great Britain. It replaces their 1946 pact, which Arabs had criticized as equivalent to peace-time occupation.

Foreign Minister Fawzi Pasha Mulki said the 1946 treaty had terminated the country's mandate status but had allowed the British the right to station troops any place in Trans-Jordan, at any time and in any number.

"The new treaty puts our defense relations with Britain on a reciprocal instead of a one-sided basis, he said. We recognize the value of Britain's friendship. However, our relationship to the Arab League comes first.

"Trans-Jordan's intention is to pursue a policy in harmony with the general line of policy of the Arab states.

"We stand 100 per cent by the Arab League's policy against Palestine partition and in other important questions."

British quarters in Amman appeared satisfied with the negotiations and with Trans-Jordan's prolonged deliberations before the signing. There appeared to be no prospect of adverse public reaction here, such as that which wrecked the new British-Iraq treaty in Baghdad in January.

It was learned authoritatively that Britain made no alteration in a grant of $8,000,000 for keeping up Trans-Jordan's armed forces during the fiscal year beginning April 1. Trans-Jordan comprises 34,750 square miles adjacent to Palestine.

British Brigadier John Bagot Glubb, commander of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion of 15,000 men since 1939, will continue in his post under King Abdullah. It was reported no reduction was contemplated in the number of British technical officers serving with Trans-Jordan's highly trained desert striking force.

Navy Converting To Ship-Based Jets

Aboard U.S.S. Boxer, at Sea, March 15 (AP)—The Navy's seagoing air arm is in the process of conversion to 10-mile-a-minute jet planes.

This was announced today by the Navy following history-making trials aboard this big Essex-class carrier last week, when for the first time Navy jet fighters operated from a carrier flight deck under routine conditions at sea.

The Navy said it expects the use of jets will have been expended throughout the fleet within a year. Initially, only fighters will be jet propelled.

B. L. LIVINGSTONE

Two Active Squadrons

Already the Navy has two jet-fighter squadrons in commission, one on the Pacific Coast and one in the Atlantic. Fighting Squadron 5-A in the Pacific is using the North American "Fury," designated the FJ-1. Fighting 17-A in the Atlantic uses McDonald FH-1's.

The successful carrier tests for jet aircraft aboard the Boxer were the first of their kind. The Royal Air Force as long ago as December, 1945, successfully made one experimental launching with a jet. Recently naval experiments were conducted under special test conditions. But until last Wednesday, there had been no jet operations at sea under normal carrier conditions and with service pilots.

Successful Launchings

The 10-mile-a-minute FJ-1's thundered on and off the Boxer's flight deck with ease. They were launched successfully both under their own power and by catapult.

But despite the 4,000-pound thrust developed by the FP-1's straight ram-duct engine, it was apparent the slow acceleration of the jet-propelled plane would bar launchings under its own power as routine procedure. This is a handicap inherent in all present jet propulsion.

On the other hand, the ease with which the jets were catapulted pointed to this method of launching as most likely under present jet development.

The jets took off easily enough with a full deck run. But under combat conditions it would not be feasible to keep the entire flight deck clear to launch only one plane at a time.

Navy Will Increase Jets for Carriers

Tests Reveal Period for Warm-Up Is Cut

ABOARD CARRIER BOXER, At Sea, March 15 (AP).—As the result of history-making trials aboard this Essex-class aircraft carrier last week, when for the first time Navy jet fighters operated from a carrier flight deck under routine conditions at sea, the Navy announced today that it expects the use of jets will have been expanded throughout the fleet within a year. Initially only fighters will be jet propelled, it was stated.

After witnessing the tests, Vice Admiral G. D. Murray, commanding the 1st Task Fleet, commented that the details of operating full jet squadrons from carriers were "only practical ones." Among these problems undoubtedly will be new methods of plane handling. Unlike conventional planes, the roaring rearward jet blast probably will prevent launching of more than two or three planes at a time.

However, because jet engines need no warm-up, a jet can be moved singly from the deck-load of parked planes, its engine turned up and launched within a minute or two. There no longer will be any need for the long warm-up period required by present planes.

Clocking showed that the FJ-1's used in the Boxer tests were airborne less than two minutes after their engines were turned on.

Brazilian President Requests Loyalty Law

Rio de Janero, March 15 (AP)—President Eurico Gaspar Dutra asked the Brazilian Congress today to enact a loyalty law covering all public officeholders.

In a message, Dutra said his Administration would continue to repress Communist activity in Brazil.

The President said in view of what has happened in Czechoslovakia "there is no longer any doubt in any mind not agitated by fanaticism about the anti-democratic and anti-national character of the Communist party."

Dutra's Government has outlawed the Communist party and broken relations with Russia. The Brazilian Congress has removed Communist party members from all elective posts.

State Dept. Says Italy Won't Get U.S. Aid If She Goes Red

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The State Department today said that if Italy goes Communist she will get no further economic aid from the United States.

A statement emphasized that this means the Italian Communist party would be the one to decide whether to shut Italy off from American aid.

Italy has been receiving help under the emergency foreign aid program and is down for aid under the so-called Marshall plan.

Made By Press Officer

Michael McDermott, press officer, made the announcement on what would happen if Italy goes Communist in the elections next month. He said Senate debate on the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program made it clear that the Senate opposes aid to any Communist-dominated country.

"The Communists in Italy have said they don't want the European Recovery Program," McDermott added.

"If the Communists should win—which we can't believe will be the case, knowing the spirit and feeling of the Italians—there would be no further question of assistance from the United States."

The $5,300,000,000 aid program was passed by the Senate early yesterday and in the House there are indications of a disposition to speed action.

Sticks To Previous Decision

In a session this morning, however, the House Foreign Affairs Committee turned down a move to consider the European aid bill as separate legislation from other aid programs.

Instead, the committee stuck to its previous decision to keep all foreign aid, both economic and military, in a single bill.

The committee will treat the Senate bill as part of a large measure providing also for economic aid for China, and military help for Greec and Turkey.

Chairanm Eaton (R., N.J.) said after the morning session it is "quite within the possibilities" that the committee will have a bill ready for House action by the end of this week.

"Profoundly Impressed"

Eaton said the committee is "profoundly impressed by the necessity for getting this legislation through at the earliest possible moment and we are doing our best to accomplish this. We will do it as quickly as humanly possible."

It was learned that in the closed committee session a motion to accept the Senate bill without change was made by Representative Kee (D., W.Va.). It lost, 12 to 7.

A vote reported as 11 to 8 struck from the House group's partly finished bil la provision for $270,000,000 for economic aid to occupied areas, principally Japan. The Army had requested this. Committee members said it would be considered as a separate bill later.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, meanwhile, was considering separate bills for military aid to Greece and Turkey and economic help to China. The Administration asks $275,000,000 for the Greeks and Turks and $570,000,000 for the Chinese.

Group Hears Marshall

Secretary of State Marshall was with the committee behind closed doors for two hours. After he left, the committee gave out a statement from him that if aid to Greece is stopped the consequences will be "swift and tragic" and will not be confined to Greece.

McDermott made his statement in commenting on a Paris dispatch to the New York Times which said the United States planned to make a formal statement of policy that Italy would get no more American aid if it voted Communist.

McDermott denied that his statement was the one referred to in the dispatch. His remarks, he said, were merely a comment on this dispatch.

The Administration wants to start the European program April 1, for the sixteen nations which have agreed to help themselves and each other. What the Senate voted was authority to spend $5,300,000,000 the first year. The money has to be supplied later in a separate appropriation bill.

However, the Senate measure would let the Reconstruction Finance Corporation put up $1,000,000,000 to get the Marshall plan into immediate operation.

30.24- 16267

Administration's Aim

The Administration wants particularly to have the program going by the time the Italian election campaign gets well underway. The Communists are determined to make a show of strength in the voting there April 18.

There is general agreement in the House that the foreign aid bill can be passed with time to spare before the deadline in Italy. Yet there are possibilities for delay.

Both in the Foreign Affairs Committee and in the House itself attempts will probably be made to cut the amount and to set up a different system than the Senate proposes for managing it. These attempts may not succeed but they can bring on some hot fights.

Tragic Result If Aid To Greece Stops Seen By Marshall

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall told senators today that if the United States stops aid to Greece the consequences will be "swift and tragic."

"The hour is far more fateful now than it was one year ago," Marshall said. "By intimidation, fraud and terror, Communist regimes have been imposed upon Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

"Totalitarian control has been tightened in other countries of eastern Europe, and these states have been linked together in a network of alliances. Other European peoples face a similar threat of being drawn against their will into the Communist orbit."

Marshall testified behind closed doors for two hours before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the Administration's request for $275,000,000 additional military aid for Greece and Turkey.

Statement Released

But after the session the committee released a statement he had given it.

In it, Marshall said that "serious as it is, the Greek situation is not without hope."

But he warned:

"The danger remains that the Communist-dominated countries of Europe will increase their pressure on Greece, just as they have in other directions in Europe. It is the boast of the totalitarian leaders that democracies are incapable of timely and decisive action.

"Should we fail to continue our efforts, the consequences would be swift and tragic and they would not be confined to Greece."

Discusses Threat To Turkey

As for Turkey, Marshall said that nation is confronted by the same threat as Greece, "but not in so active a manner."

"To remain relatively safe from aggression," Marshall said, "Turkey must remain strong; but she cannot do so indefinitely on her own meager resources."

Chairman Vandenberg (R., Mich.) told reporters he had no comment on Marshall's testimony. He said the committee will meet again Wednesday to hear testimony on Greece and Turkey and on China from two high-ranking army officers.

The Administration has asked Congress for $570,000,000 for economic aid for China.

Warns Against Hasty Action

Marshall told the Senators that in the present Mediterranean situation the United States must avoid "hasty action which could lead to the dissipation of our resources, or fear which would lead to sterile inaction." He added:

"With calm determination we must pursue the policy confirmed last May by the Congress."

It was last May that Congress first voted aid to the Greeks and Turks. That program is about to run out. The Administration's present request is for money to keep it going.

Acknowledges Setback

Marshall said United States aid has "been of great importance" in helping the Greeks and Turks preserve their freedom and independence.

But he acknowledged, too, that the intensification of guerrilla warfare "supported from neighboring countries, has prevented full attainment of the objectives in Greece.

He directed the committee's attention to Russian vetoes in the United Nations on the Balkan commission report, and accused Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria of "flouting" the United Nations by furnishing aid to the Greek guerrillas.

"As a consequence of foreign aid," Marshall said, "the guerrillas have been able to improve their armament, as well as their military organization and tactical planning, and they have more than doubled their numbers, chiefly by forced recruiting, since the inception of the American-aid program."

Cites "Ruthlessness"

The latest example of guerrilla "ruthlessness," Marshall said, is the planned removal of 12,000 or more Greek children to the countries of eastern Europe, "in connivance with foreign powers."

He said this transfer was announced recently over Belgrade, Sofia, Bucharest and Guerrilla Leader Markos's radios.

"The true purpose of this plan can easily be seen behind the fiction of humanitarianism," Marshall told the senators, "and the Greek Government has justly denounced it as comparable to the practices of Nazi Germany."

Marshall on Greek-Turk Aid

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP).—The complete text of Secretary of State George C. Marshall's statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee:

You have before you a request for the provision of further American military aid to Greece and Turkey in the amount of 275 million dollars through the period ending June 30, 1949. The proposed legislation would supplement, with respect to these two countries, the European Recovery Program to which Congress is currently giving its consideration and which envisages only economic assistance to participating states. It would also extend the act of May 22, 1947, for aid to Greece and Turkey, voted by Congress in response to the President's message of March 12, 1947.

American aid already granted Greece and Turkey under this legislation has been of great importance in helping to preserve their freedom and independence during the past critical year. In the case of Greece, however, attainment of our objectives of rehabilitation and pacification has been prevented in part by the intensification of guerrilla warfare, supported from neighboring countries.

In July and August, 1947, Soviet vetoes prevented action by the United Nations Security Council on the majority report of its Balkan Investigating Commission that Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria were supporting guerrilla warfare in Greece. These three neighboring countries have subsequently flouted the resolution of the United Nations General Assembly of Oct. 21, 1947, calling upon them "to do nothing which could furnish aid or assistance to the guerrillas and to co-operate with Greece "in the settlement of their disputes by peaceful means." A United Nations special committee on the Balkans was set up by the Assembly to observe compliance with its recommendations and to be available to assist in their implementation. Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria have not only refused to permit this committee to enter their territory but have rejected repeated invitations by the committee to enter into negotiations for the peaceful conciliation of their differences with Greece. The Soviet Union and Poland have failed to accept the places on the committee which are still reserved for them. Greece, on the other hand, has given the committee full co-operation and facilities and has expressed its willingness to comply with the Assembly's recommendations.

Rebel Regime Set Up

On Dec. 24, 1947 establishment of a Greek junta under the guerrilla leader Markos was announced over the Belgrade radio and on Christmas Day a large-scale guerrilla attack was launched against the Greek border town of Konitsa which, the United Nations committee reported, was logistically supported from Albania. Propaganda in favor of Markos and against the Greek government and the United States is carried on ceaselessly by the government-controlled press and radio in the Communist-dominated countries of Eastern Europe, and intensive campaigns are conducted, obviously with official sanction, to collect money and supplies for the guerrillas in Greece.

As a consequence of foreign aid, the guerrillas have been able to improve their armament as well as their military organization and tactical planning, and they have more than doubled their numbers, chiefly by forced recruiting, since the inception of the American aid program.

The results for Greece have been to pile still more ruins upon those left by the last war and to drive over 450,000 people from their rural homes in the districts where the guerrillas operate to seek refuge in the cities of northern Greece. It is significant that those people have not joined the guerrillas, They have fled from what the President described in his second report to Congress on assistance to Greece and Turkey as "determined and ruthless destruction intended to render people homeless and drive them from the soil; to force them into overcrowded urban centers where they become charges of an already overburdened state; and to create for them conditions of misery and hardship in the hope that this will make them susceptible to political agitation." The latest example of the ruthlessness of the Greek guerrillas in connivance with foreign powers in the planed removal of 12,000 or more Greek children to the countries of Eastern Europe, recently announced over the Belgrade, Sofia, Bucharest and Markos radios. The true purpose of this plan can easily be seen behind the fiction of humanitarianism, and the Greek government has justly denounced it as comparable to the practices of Nazi Germany.

Larger Army Needed

Intensification of guerrilla activity has made necessary the strengthening of the Greek armed forces and the creation of local National Guard units to take over from the mobile army the protection of threatened towns, villages and lines of communications. This has required the diversion by the Greek government of increasing amounts of money and supplies needed for economic rehabilitation.

It has also obliged the American aid mission to divert to military purposes some $23,000,000 of the American funds originally intended for the Greek economy. In all, $172,000,000, or about 57 per cent of the total of $250,000,000 programmed for Greece under the 1947 act, is being expended for military purposes.

Serious as it is, the Greek situation is not without hope. Unfavorable worldwide and local economic factors which have contributed to retard recovery now show signs of improvement. Important administrative, financial and fiscal reforms and many reconstruction projects undertaken in Greece with the help of the American mission are beginning to make their effects felt. On the political side, the Greek government has commendably resisted temptations to meet the crisis by departure from democratic principles and resource to totalitarian methods, and has carried on as a coalition under the leadership of the chief of the Liberal party and with the support of a large majority of the freely elected Greek Parliament. Greater military progress may also be expected through intensified operations against the guerrillas by the Greek forces in the numbers and with the equipment presently authorized and now proposed and with the advice of the American military officers who have recently reached the field.

The danger remains that the Communist-dominated countries of Europe will increase their pressure on Greece just as they have in other directions in Europe. It is the boast of the totalitarian leaders that democracies are incapable of timely and decisive action.

Should we fail to continue our efforts, the consequences would be swift and tragic, and they would not be confined to Greece. The recent report on Greece of the subcommittee of the House of Representatives Select Committee on Foreign Aid states: "Should the United States now withdraw its support from Greece, which would almost certainly result in the establishment of a Communist government, the Communist parties throughout Europe would undoubtedly utilize the opportunity to point out to those who are now valiantly resisting Communist infiltration in other countries the uncertainty of relying on United States help. The effects of such withdrawal would greatly weaken the determination of the constitutional forces resisting Communism elsewhere."

Same Threat to Turkey

Turkey is confronted by the same threat as Greece, but not in so active a manner. Turkey is economically and militarily stronger than Greece and was thus able, with foreign diplomatic support, to resist Soviet pressure for the cession of the strategic eastern provinces of Kars and Ardahan and for control of the Straits. Thereafter, in the latter half of 1946, the guerrilla movement began in war-ravaged Greece, an easier route for Communist expansion towards the Mediterranean, the Near East and Africa.

"To remain relatively safe from aggression, Turkey must remain strong; but she cannot do so indefinitely on her own meager resources. The maintenance of the large army rendered necessary by the situation imposes a special and heavy financial burden.

While the proposed program for military aid to Turkey and Greece involves no moral or other commitment for its continuation beyond the fiscal year 1949, no assurance can be given that additional aid will not be required so long as the active Communist threat to these two countries exists. This was recognized in the President's message to Congress of March 12, 1947 in which he said that he would not hesistate to go before Congress again if further funds or further authority should be needed. This matter, the President then said, was one involving the foreign policy and national security of the United States in a fateful hour.

The hour is far more fateful now than it was one year ago. By intimidation, fraud, and terror, Communist regimes have been imposed upon Hungary and Czechoslovakia. Totalitarian control has been tightened in other countries of Eastern Europe, and these states have been linked together in a network of alliances. Other European peoples face a similar threat of being drawn against their will into the Communist orbit.

In this situation, the United States must avoid hasty action which could lead to the dissipation of our resources, or fear which would lead to sterile inaction. With calm determination we must pursue the policy confirmed last May by the Congress.

TRUMAN TO GIVE TALK TO CONGRESS ON WORLD CRISIS

Will Speak Tomorrow; Gives No Hint on What He Will Say

ITALY IS WARNED

Told U. S. Aid Will Stop if Election Goes to the Communists.

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—President Truman will go before both houses of congress on St. Patrick's Day to deliver a special, possibly momentous message on the international situation—described by Secretary of State Marshall as "very, very serious."

The White House, announcing this today, declined to give any inkling of what Mr. Truman would say in the 15 to 20-minute address, which will be broadcast by major networks.

Speculate on Message

There was immediate, unofficial speculation, that he might call for new measures to block communist expansion in Europe.

One senator, asking not to be quoted by name, said he heard the president may tell the lawmakers Russia has suggested mutual defense pacts to Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

There was no confirmation of this at the White House, state department or at the embassies of the Scandinavian countries.

Another congressional source, also declining to be named, said he understood Norway had been approached by the Soviets and an indirect "feeler" made to Stockholm. He did not know about Denmark.

(Dispatches from Stockholm said the Swedish defense staff has asked King Gustav V for measures to strengthen Sweden's defenses, stressing the "increased danger of war.")

Another report going the rounds at the capitol was that high British officials are flying here for consultation. The British embassy said in response to inquiries that it knew nothing about that.

There was also speculation that the president may speak chiefly about preparedness—perhaps renewing his plea for a universal military training law.

Has 'New Information'

House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said he had no advance knowledge of the president's plans but understood that Mr. Truman has some new information on the foreign situation which he wants to give to congress."

The president said last week that his confidence in world peace is somewhat shaken. Marshall said on the same day that a "great crisis" exists.

And today:

1—The state department served notice that Italy, down for a large share of U. S. help under the Marshall Plan, won't get a nickel if she goes communist.

2—Marshall, declaring "the hour is far more fateful now than it was a year ago," said this country must act "with calm deliberation to prevent the further spread of communism in Europe.

3—The senate passed, without a dissenting vote, a bill allowing merchant ships to be armed in time of national emergency. However, this bill has been on its way through the legislative machinery for some time, and was not introduced because of recent developments abroad. It now goes to the house.

See Sudden Decision

Mr. Truman's decision to address congress, which has been pressing for full information on developments abroad, apparently was fairly sudden.

It was announced after his regular Monday meeting with Marshall. The senate armed services committee, which was to have opened hearings on universal military training tomorrow with Marshall as the first witness, postponed the session until after Mr. Truman's address.

The president also had lunched, as usual on a Monday, with the full cabinet.

Mr. Truman plans to fly to New York, to address a St. Patrick's day dinner, immediately after his speech to congress, which probably will be delivered around 1 P.M., EST.

Previously he had planned to leave for New York by train Wednesday morning.

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said he hoped Mr. Truman would offer "a definite, comprehensive and workable world policy" which both parties could support.

"We have no such policy now and until we do have we shall continue to grope our way in a fog of confusion and uncertainty," Eaton said.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), chairman of the senate foreign affairs committe, declined comment on the White House announcement.

Curb On Loyalty Files Is Fixed

Washington, March 15 (AP)—President Truman today ordered Federal agencies to turn down any requests from Congress or the courts for secret papers on loyalty investigations of Government employés.

He instructed agency chiefs to refer any demand, including any subpoena "to the office of the President for such response as the President may determine to be in the public interest in the particular case."

The order, in effect, backed up Secretary of Commerce Harriman, who has refused to give a House committee papers dealing with the department's investigation of Dr. Edward U. Condon's loyalty.

Law Is Sought

The House Un-American Activities Committee asked for the papers after a subcommittee reported that Condon had associated, "knowingly or unknowingly," with suspected Russian spies.

Condon heads the National Bureau of Standards, which deals with some of the Government's top-secret inventions.

As a result of Harriman's stand, Representative McDowell (R., Pa.) has proposed that Congress give its two top officers power to compel any Government agency to hand over secret papers.

Probe Aimed At Reds

The background on the whole thing is this:

In March, 1947, Mr. Truman issued an order that the loyalty of all Government employés must be investigated. There were reports at the time, as there have been since, of Communists working their way into important Government places.

Each agency and department, with help of the FBI, has been making these investigations and building up a "loyalty" file on each employé.

President Truman's order today said these files have to be kept secret "in the interest of our national security and welfare" and "to protect Government personnel against the dissemination of unfounded or disproved allegations."

Limited To Executive Branch

He told agency chiefs the files are not to be shown or given anyone except persons in the executive branch of the Government who are entitled to see them because of their official duties.

McDodell said he is drafting a bill that will say such files are to be turned over to the Speaker of the House and the presiding officer of the Senate if they ask them.

If Congress passed a law like that, agency heads would still have to go by Mr. Truman's orders. Unless the President changed the one he put out today, the result could be a court test of the place where Congress' powers stop and the President's start in such matters.

Backed By Committee

McDowell's measure appears sure to get backing from the House Un-American Activities Committee of which he is a member.

Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, released copies of Mr. Truman's order.

The White House later issued a statement saying there is "ample precedent" for the President's action.

It said:

"Since the founding of the Government the Presidents of the United States have, from time to time, held information of various types to be confidential, and have refused to divulge or to permit the divulgence of such information outside of the executive branch of the Government."

Washington's Action Cited

The statement cited what it said was President Washington's refusal in 1796 to furnish the House with a copy of the instructions given American Ministers who had negotiated a treaty with Great Britain.

Other examples cited:

President Jefferson's refusal to allow two members of his Cabinet to supply documents at the trial of Aaron Burr.

Monroe Refused Request

President Monroe's refusal in 1825 to comply with a House request for certain documents relating to the conduct of naval officers.

President Jackson's refusal in 1833 to give the Senate a copy of a paper purporting to have been read by him to executive department heads relating to the removal of public deposits from the Bank of the United States.

President Cleveland's support in 1886 of his attorney general's refusal to comply with a Senate resolution calling for documents relating to the removal of a district attorney.

Truman Orders Agencies To Withhold Loyalty Data

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP) President Truman, ruling in the Condon case, ordered federal agencies today to refuse to let congress or the courts have any secret papers bearing on the loyalty of government employes.

He thereby set up what may become a major test between the executive and legislative branches of the government. The referee would be the third branch—the judiciary.

"Politics," McDowell Says

Rep. McDowell (R-Pa), a member of the House UnAmerican Activities Committee, promptly cried "politics." He told a reporter:

"The president, in an election year, is pulling down an iron curtain between congress and information on the government."

What prompted the order at this time was the case of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the National Bureau of Standards.

30.24- 16269

The UnAmerican Activities Committee has tried, and failed, to get the papers used by a Commerce department loyalty board which approved him for his high scientific post.

A subcommittee said Condon associated knowingly or unknowingly with alleged Russian spies. Condon disputed this and denied he was any risk to the nation's atomic security.

Mr. Truman said in his order it is plainly necessary to keep secret the files relating to the government loyalty checks. He said:

"This is necessary in the interest of our national security and welfare, to preserve the confidential character and sources of information furnished, and to protect government personnel against the dissemination of unfounded or disproved allegations.

"It is necessary also to insure the fair and just disposition of loyalty cases."

If an agency is asked for such secret documents, even by a court subpoena, Mr. Truman said, it is to "respectfully decline" and refer the request to him. He said he would decide what to do "in the public interest in the particular case."

A White House statement said that Mr. Truman has plenty of precedents going back to the earliest days of the republic. It said that Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson and Cleveland refused to turn over "information of various types" they deemed should be confidential.

McDowell already has an effort underway to pass a new law which would permit congressional peeks at the secret files.

MEYERS GIVEN PRISON TERM

20-Month To 5-Year Sentence For Former Supply Officer

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, who during the war spent millions of the taxpayers' money as an Air Forces supply officer, went to jail today to begin serving a twenty-month to five-year sentence.

His crime: Persuading a former business associate to lie to a Senate investigating committee.

A Federal Court jury last Friday found Meyers guilty on three counts of what legally is called "subornation of perjury."

This morning, before passing sentence, Judge Alexander Holtzoff called this "a very grave and serious offense."

Under terms of the sentence, the 52-year-old retired officer will not be eligible for parole for twenty months.

Under Other Indictments

Even then, he may have trouble freeing himself. For he also has been indicted for perjury and for falsifying his income taxes.

Meyers's lawyer, Robert T. Bushnell, immediately filed notice that he intends to appeal. He also said that he hopes to persuade the Appeals Court that Meyers should go free on bond until his appeal is heard.

Meyers could have been sentenced for as long as 30 years.

But this, Judge Holtzoff explained, was because the District of Columbia has a special law which permits a maximum sentence of ten years on each count.

Court Explains Sentence

Anywhere else in the United States, said the judge, a five-year sentence would be the maximum. That was why, he said, even though Meyers was convicted in a District of Columbia court, he was sentencing him to not less than twenty months and not more than five years.

The jury found him guilty of talking Bleriot Lamarre into lying to Senate investigators. And the reason Meyers did this, the Government said, was to cover up his wartime operation of a plane-parts plant.

Counsel Cites War Record

The Government said Meyers received more than $150,000 from this company. Lamarre was the president of this concern, but he later told the Court he was only a dummy president, that it was Meyers who really bossed the business.

Bushnell, in asking for a light sentence, cried:

"I say the punishment this man has already gone through—by being pilloried from coast to coast like a Benedict Arnold—is a punishment greater than it is in this Court's power to impose."

"Despite smears and gibes of the prosecution, this defendant has had an exceptional and honorable record in the Army of the United States.

"No matter how much he has been buried under seas of mud, his record in the Army of his country during the war—a record that left him a nervous wreck—still stands."

Immediately Committed

Bushnell first asked that Meyers be turned loose on bail until the appeal is considered. No, said Judge Holtzoff.

Then Bushnell wanted him let out for a few days. No, said the judge.

Then just for a few hours, pleaded Bushnell.

"No," said Judge Holtzoff, "the defendant will be committed now."

And he was. Downstairs he went, almost at a dogtrot, with a United States marshal.

Meyers has managed to remain jaunty and cocky throughout the trial, but he seemed more subdued today. Yet just as the door swung open, he grinned at reporters.

Then he stepped inside—and the door slammed shut.

BRITAIN EXPORTS MORE GOLD TO U. S.

Washington, March 15 (A. P.).—Great Britain shipped $40,548,750 of gold to the United States a week before drawing out the last $100,000,000 of its $3,750,000,000 loan from this country.

The shipment was shown in a Department of Commerce report on imports of gold into this country during the week ended February 25.

Britain for some time has been digging into her gold reserves as well as using the loan fund to pay for purchases in this country and elsewhere.

Belgium and Luxemburg rank next to Britain in gold shipments to the United States during the week of February 25. They shipped $15,642,749. The Union of South Africa, world's largest gold producer, shipped $15,83,021 of gold here.

While taking in $72,029,625 of gold from other countries during the week, the United States shipped out $1,329,954. Portugal got $1,166,232 of that.

U. S. SIFTS BID TO SHIP GOODS TO SOVIET AREA

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Officials said today that the Government was considering whether to allow a Cleveland firm ship some $17,000,000 of industrial equipment to Communist-dominated Rumania and Czechoslovakia.

They said the proposed shipment included $12,000,000 in oil field equipment for Rumania and materials for a synthetic oil plant in Czechoslovakia costing more than $5,000,000.

The orders were placed with Dresser Industries, Inc., of Cleveland, officials added, before the Department of State adopted a firm attitude against any further such exports to Communist-fringe nations because of the European Recovery Program.

Since March 1, Government export licenses have been necessary for all shipments to Europe.

Without forecasting whether the goods will be licensed, officials said the applications faced careful screening in view of Communist opposition to the European Recovery Program and because of various shortages in this country.

The Rumanian order faces especially close scrutiny because of indications the Rumanian Government may take over the oil industry in that country, now partly owned by American and other foreign capital. Also a joint Soviet-Rumanian official company has been formed, raising the question whether the new American equipment might be taken over by this concern.

3 U.S. Warships To Visit Dublin

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The Navy announced today three United States warships will make a five-day "courtesy visit" to Dublin, Eire, April 22-27.

It will be the first visit of American warships to that country since before World War II, the Navy said.

The ships, from the Northern European Task Force, are the 6,000-ton anti-aircraft cruiser Fresno; and two 2,200-ton destroyers, the Johnston and the William R. Rush. They are now in English ports.

Draper Going To See MacArthur

Washington, March 15 (AP)—William Draper, Jr., Under Secretary of the Army, and a joint congressional committee will leave for Tokyo tomorrow to consult with Gen. Douglas MacArthur on economic and export problems of the Far East command.

Chinese Reds Hang Out 'Welcome Capitalist' Sign

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15 (AP).—The Chinese Communist radio broadcast a new "welcome, capitalist" policy today.

It said the policy of "welcoming national capitalists from the Chiang Kai-shek controlled area" has been proclaimed by the Communist government of the Honan-Shensi-Hopen border region.

Under the announced program, the broadcast said, the Communists will help business men set up their factories and shops, or they can "invest in the liberated areas" if they wish.

The Communist radio gave several reasons why capitalists would be well off the Red zone. As heard here, it skipped over one question—how much they would be permitted to keep for themselves.

Czechs Appoint New Delegate For Papanek

Lake Success, March 15 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Government today named a new delegate to the United Nations, but his anti-Communist predecessor refused to give up his delegation offices.

This new complication came as the United States and Russia headed toward a major clash Wednesday afternoon in the Security Council over the Czechoslovak-Communist question.

The new Czech delegate is Vladimir Houdek. He called at United Nations headquarters in the forenoon and presented his credentials.

Papanek Holds Position

Jan Papanek, anti-Communist friend of the dead Jan Masaryk, was fired last week after filing charges here of Russian complicity in the Czechoslovak coup. Papanek maintains that he represents the rightful Government of Czechoslovakia.

Papanek said today he had no intention of surrendering the offices to Houdek.

He said he still had not decided whether to challenge Houdek's right to appear before the Security Council as spokesman for Prague during the forthcoming Czechoslovak debate.

The United States is said to be ready to vote for a United Nations debate on the Communist coup. The test comes Wednesday when the Council decides whether to admit to its calendar Chile's demand for a probe of Russia's part in the coup.

Opposition Foreseen

Delegates feel certain Russia will oppose bitterly any debate on the issue and might stage another walkout as in the Iranian case.

The United States stand merely is that a hearing should be given Chile's proposal. It does not commit the United States to support any specific Council action.

Only seven affirmative votes are needed to assure Council consideration of the matter. The big-power veto does not apply to admission of items to the agenda.

New Czech Delegate To U.N. Barred From Papanek Office

Lake Success, N.Y., March 15 (AP): A new Czechoslovak delegate arrived today to replace anti-Communist Jan Papanek, but Papanek said he would not surrender the delegation offices.

The new delegate, Vladimir Houdek, declined to say whether he would try to dislodge Papanek.

At the New York Czechoslovak Consulate late in the day, Houdek said he planned to set up headquarters there temporarily.

"And How" Papanek Replied

Papanek was asked in his nearby Broadway offices whether Houdek was a Communist.

"And how!" Papanek replied.

Houdek said he did not want to discuss his personal politics. He had no comment on Papanek's "and how!"

In a thumbnail description of himself, Houdek said he was an underground fighter against the Nazis during the war and had been decorated by President Benes for his war efforts.

Head Toward Major Clash

The new complication came as the United States and Russia headed toward a major clash here Wednesday over Chile's proposal that the Security Council investigate the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia to determine whether Russia was involved. Informed quarters said the United States would vote to give the Czechoslovak-Communist question a full airing in the Security Council.

British sources said Britain would join the United States in voting for full debates on the Czechoslovak coup.

Herman Santa Cruz, Chilean delegate, said he would ask the Security Council to hear Papanek either as the Czechoslovak delegate or as an individual. There appeared to be little doubt that the Council would have to recognize Houdek, in view of his new accreditation.

Credentials Presented

Houdek showed up at United Nations headquarters about the same time the United Nations announced he had been named by the Prague Communist regime to be permanent representative here, succeeding Papanek.

Papanek, friend of the dead Jan Masaryk, was fired last week after he filed a complaint with the United Nations secretariat charging Russia engineered the Communist coup. Papanek refused to quit, however.

The new delegate presented his credentials and paid calls on top United Nations officials.

Papanek remained in possession of the delegation offices at 17 Broadway, New York.

Houdek arranged to visit the Czechoslovak consulate at 1790 Broadway, a few doors away from the Papanek-occupied offices.

Described as a career man in the Prague Foreign Office, Houdek has recently been a member of the Czechoslovak embassy staff in Washington.

U.S. Opposes End Of U.N. Veto

Lake Success, March 15 (AP)—The United States declared today that it is opposed to complete elimination of the veto in the United Nations Security Council.

The United States position was outlined by Philip C. Jessup, American representative in the Little Assembly. Jessup said this country wants use of the veto drastically restricted by agreement among the big powers, but does not want to abolish the veto.

He told the Little Assembly that the United States feels unanimity of the big powers "is a necessity" in decisions involving enforcement of United Nations decisions. He said the veto also "corresponds to the political realities of the international situation."

"Virtually Impossible"

He pointed out that abolition of the veto would be virtually impossible anyway, since the United Nations Charter cannot be amended without the unanimous consent of all the big powers.

Russia has insisted that she never would agree to elimination of the veto.

The only way to liberalize the voting procedure, Jessup said, is by consultation among the big powers. He said the United States program, laid before the Little Assembly last week, is designed to initiate a careful study of the whole question in the next General Assembly.

"We believe," he said, "that the permanent members (the Five Big powers) will all give great weight to whatever recommendations may be made by the General Assembly on this subject."

Jessup conceded that big-power consultations on limiting the veto have proved unsuccessful up to now, but, he said, "the United States is prepared to continue such consultations as necessary in the attempt to secure agreement on measures which will improve the functioning of the Security Council."

Benes Lauds Masaryk

Lake Success, N.Y., March 15 (AP)—President Benes of Czechoslovakia said in a message to the United Nations today that the work of Jan Masaryk will be never forgotten.

Benes made this statement in a telegram to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, thanking Lie for a message of sympathy sent after Masaryk's death in Prague last Wednesday.

The Benes telegram said:

"Thank you most sincerely for your dear expression of sympathy upon the death of our Jan Masaryk. He has devoted (his) life to the work of his own country as well as for the entire humanity and will be never forgotten."

U.N. Asks Arabs, Jews To Stop Shooting

New York, March 15 (AP)—The big powers today called on Arabs and Jews to agree on a truce for Palestine.

Both the Jewish Agency and the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine were asked in writing to answer by tomorrow whether they would enter a cease-fire pact.

The big powers also decided to call on the six Arab countries in the United Nations to agree to cooperate in effective the truce.

A scheduled meeting of the United Nations Security Council on Palestine was postponed until tomorrow afternoon to give the disputing parties time to answer.

Closed Meeting Held

The truce move came after the Arab Higher Committee repeated before a closed meeting of the big powers that it would not accept the United Nations project to partition the Holy Land.

Isa Nakhleh, the Palestine Arabs' representative in New York, told the big power Palestine conferees the Arabs would accept only an alternate plan to set up a single independent nation in Palestine.

His appearance marked the first time the Arabs have taken part in any United Nations discussions of the partition decision since that decision was taken November 29.

Afternoon Meeting Postponed

After hearing Nakhleh, the representatives of the United States, Russia, France and China obtained postponement until tomorrow afternoon of a Security Council debate on Plestine scheduled for today at Lake Success.

In the interim, the four powers will meet once again tomorrow morning at the Russian delegation offices. Their fifth meeting on Palestine was held in the Chinese delegation offices.

The Arab representative emerged from the closed session shortly after noon. He said he had read a statement and answered questions.

Nakhleh said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had not participated in the questioning. Gromyko also sat silent throughout the Jewish Agency appearance before the big-power delegates last Friday. Russia opposes American efforts toward Jewish-Arab conciliation, saying such efforts have failed in the past and are useless now.

This was their last chance to agree on recommendations before they reported back to the United Nations Security Council late this afternoon.

The Council voted March 5 to give the big powers until today to consult on a plan of action to carry out the General Assembly's 1947 recommendation to partition the Holy Land.

Britain refused to take part in the discussions on the ground that it could not participate in any efforts to implement partition.

PALESTINE TRUCE URGED

Big Powers Put Question Up To Jews And Arabs

New York, March 15 (AP)—The big powers asked Arabs and Jews today if they would accept a truce in Palestine.

The Arab Higher Committee, spokesman for Palestine Arabs, again categorically rejected the United Nations plan to partition the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab nations.

The direct appeal for the truce then was made to the Arab Higher Committee and to the Jewish Agency, the official organization for a Jewish national homeland, which supports partition.

Council Puts Off Meeting

The big powers decided to seek the cease-fire agreement in last-minute efforts to salvage something out of ten days of parleys. The Security Council meanwhile postponed a scheduled meeting on the Palestine question at Lake Success from today until tomorrow to give the parties time to answer.

Delegates of the United States, Russia, China and France will meet again tomorrow in the offices of the Soviet consulate and then report to the Security Council five hours later at Lake Success. Britain has boycotted the big powers' meetings on the grounds that she can't support partition.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, who opposes mediation efforts at this stage, took no part in the truce discussion. However, he did not oppose the move. The session was held in the Chinese delegation offices in the Empire State Building.

First Arab Appearance

The big powers acted after hearing Isa Nakhleh, representative of the Arab Higher Committee in New York. His appearance marked the first time since the United Nations Assembly's decision on partition last November 29 that the Arabs have taken part in United Nations discussions on the plan.

In emphasizing the continued Arab opposition, Nakhleh said the only Palestine solution which would guarantee peace and security in the Holy Land is the formation of one independent nation for all of Palestine. This would mean a nation with an Arab majority and a Jewish minority.

The big powers then handed Nakhleh this question for transmission to higher committee headquarters in Cairo: "Would the Arab Higher Committee be prepared to enter into the necessary agreements to bring about an effective truce in Palestine?"

Jewish Stand Indicated

The same query went to the Jewish Agency, which previously indicated that it would go along with a truce if Arab compliance could be assured.

The question in virtually the same form also is being asked of delegates of Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Yemen and Iraq. These are Arab League members which belong to the United Nations.

Despite the failure of the big powers to meet their ten-day deadline on the problem, a United Nations officer who attended today's closed meeting said it appeared the delegates were making some progress.

To Take Some Action

This officer said the four delegates were in agreement that it must be made clear to all parties that the Security Council intends to do something about the situation.

Nakhleh was asked to comment on a previous Security Council resolution which appealed to governments and peoples in and around Palestine to take all possible action to prevent or reduce disorders. He replied merely that the Arabs were not causing the aggression. He said the Zionists were the aggressors and it was up to them to heed the appeal.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD COMMUNISTS
BY ERNEST AGNEW
LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-BRITAIN'S SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT ORDERED TODAY A PURGE OF COMMUNISTS AND ACTIVE FASCISTS FROM GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS HANDLING SECURITY MATTERS.
BRITISH NEWSPAPERS ESTIMATED UNOFFICIALLY THAT ABOUT 11,000 CIVIL SERVANTS WOULD BE QUESTIONED AS TO THEIR POLITICAL BELIEFS IN AN INQUIRY TO BEGIN "IMMEDIATELY." WORKERS FOUND GUILTY WILL NOT BE FIRED, BUT WILL BE TRANSFERRED AS FAR AS POSSIBLE TO OTHER GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS.
THE COMMUNIST DAILY WORKER IMMEDIATELY TERMED THE DECREE A "PREPARATION FOR WAR AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION." THE LIBERAL NEWS CHRONICLE PROTESTED THE BAN ON THE GROUNDS THAT PERSONAL INJUSTICE MIGHT RESULT AND THAT IT MIGHT BE TOO LATE TO ASCERTAIN THEIR SYMPATHIZERS AND OTHER FASCISTS FROM GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS.
TUESDAY EDITIONS OF LONDON MORNING NEWSPAPERS EDITORIALLY HAILED THE BAN IN THEIR REPORTS.
THE BAN, UNPRECEDENTED IN BRITISH HISTORY, WAS ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BY PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE. HE SAID IT WAS ORDERED SOLELY ON SECURITY GROUNDS.
ONE OF BRITAIN'S MOST FAMOUS COMMUNISTS, SCIENTIST J.B.S. HALDANE, REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN DOING SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH FOR THE ADMIRALTY.

30.24- 16271

"EXPERIENCE, BOTH IN THIS COUNTRY AND ELSEWHERE," ATTLEE SAID, "HAS SHOWN THAT MEMBERSHIP OF, AND OTHER FORMS OF CONTINUING ASSOCIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY MAY INVOLVE ACCEPTANCE BY AN INDIVIDUAL OF A LOYALTY WHICH IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES CAN BE INIMICAL TO THE STATE."

WILLIAM GALLACHER, ONE OF TWO COMMUNISTS IN THE HOUSE, SPRANG UP AND BEGAN SINGING "THE RED FLAG," A LABOR PARTY ANTHEM.

ANGRY ROARS SOUNDED FROM BOTH SIDES OF THE HOUSE AND HE SAT DOWN.

GALLACHER CHARGED ATTLEE WITH "GROVELLING TO TORIES AND BIG DOLLAR BOYS FROM THE U.S."

ATTLEE REPLIED THAT HE DID NOT AGREE, ADDING:

"I AM VERY WELL AWARE THAT WE HAVE TO DEAL VERY CAREFULLY WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY. I HAVE NOT FORGOTTEN THEIR ATTITUDE IN 1939, 1940 AND 1941."

THOSE WERE THE YEARS OF THE GERMAN-RUSSIAN NON-AGGRESSION PACT.

ATTLEE SAID HE COULD NOT ESTIMATE IMMEDIATELY HOW MANY WORKERS WOULD BE AFFECTED. A HOME OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID SECURITY DEPARTMENTS USUALLY MEAN THE WAR OFFICE, ADMIRALTY, AIR MINISTRY, FOREIGN OFFICE, HOME OFFICE, SUPPLY MINISTRY AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH DEPARTMENTS.

"IT IS NOT SUGGESTED THAT IN MATTERS AFFECTING SECURITY OF THE STATE ALL THOSE WHO ADHERE TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY WOULD ALLOW THEMSELVES TO FORGET THEIR PRIMARY LOYALTY TO THE STATE," ATTLEE SAID.

"BUT THERE IS NO WAY OF DISTINGUISHING SUCH PEOPLE FROM THOSE WHO, IF THE OPPORTUNITY OFFERED, WOULD BE PREPARED TO ENDANGER SECURITY OF THE STATE IN THE INTERESTS OF ANOTHER POWER.

"THE GOVERNMENT HAS, THEREFORE, REACHED THE CONCLUSION THAT THE ONLY PRUDENT COURSE TO ADOPT IS TO ENSURE THAT NO ONE WHO IS KNOWN TO BE A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OR TO BE ASSOCIATED WITH IT IN SUCH A WAY AS TO RAISE LEGITIMATE DOUBTS ABOUT HIS RELIABILITY IS EMPLOYED IN CONNECTION WITH WORK, THE NATURE OF WHICH IS VITAL TO THE SECURITY OF THE STATE.

"THE SAME RULE GOVERNS EMPLOYMENT OF THOSE KNOWN TO BE ACTIVELY ASSOCIATED WITH FASCIST ORGANIZATIONS."

PHILIP PIRATIN, THE OTHER COMMUNIST IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, INTERRUPTED ATTLEE WITH THE STATEMENT "THIS WILL BE RECOGNIZED BY THE WORKING CLASSES AS A MEASURE OF POLITICAL DISCRIMINATION AGAINST THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN ORDER TO BLACKEN THE NAME OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY."

ATTLEE REPLIED:

"I THINK MR.PIRATIN IS QUITE MISTAKEN. I THINK THE WORKERS OF THIS COUNTRY ARE VERY WELL AWARE TODAY, IN VIEW OF EVENTS ABROAD AND EVEN HERE, OF WHAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY STANDS FOR."

HARRY POLLITT, COMMUNIST PARTY GENERAL SECRETARY, SAID ATTLEE'S WAS "AN INSULT TO THE MEMORY OF EVERY ANTI-FASCIST WHO FOUGHT AGAINST" THE NAZIS AND "A REPUDIATION OF THE PRINCIPLES FOR WHICH THE WAR WAS FOUGHT."

SIR OSWALD MOSLEY, INTERNED DURING THE WAR AS A FASCIST SYMPATHIZER AND NOW HEAD OF THE "UNION MOVEMENT," SAID "ANY INCLUSION OF MY SUPPORTERS IN ANY BAN IS RIDICULOUS IN PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES. WE HAVE OPPOSED COMMUNISM THROUGHOUT. CAN ALL MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT SAY THE SAME?"

SOME MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT WANTED TO KNOW HOW COMMUNISTS AND FASCISTS ARE GOING TO BE FOUND OUT, AND WHAT SAFEGUARDS ARE TO BE ADOPTED AGAINST INJUSTICES, THE BRITISH PRESS ASSOCIATION SAID.

A MOTION WAS EXPECTED TO BE INTRODUCED ASKING FOR SETTING UP OF IMPARTIAL TRIBUNALS TO PROVIDE SAFEGUARDS BEFORE ANY GOVERNMENT WORKER IS TRANSFERRED OR DISCHARGED.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID A MOVE TO BRING SPAIN INTO THE MARSHALL PLAN WILL BE MADE IN THE PARIS CONFERENCE OPENING TODAY.

SPAIN WAS NOT INVITED TO THE CONFERENCE LAST SUMMER IN WHICH 16 NATIONS BEGAN WORKING OUT A COMMON PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY WITH UNITED STATES AID.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE BRITAIN HAS "BEEN ADVISED" THAT A PROPOSAL TO MAKE SPAIN A MARSHALL-PLAN NATION WILL BE PRESENTED IN PARIS.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS, HE SPECIFICALLY IDENTIFIED PORTUGAL AS ONE OF THE NATIONS SPONSORING SPANISH MEMBERSHIP.

THE SPOKESMAN WOULD NOT DISCLOSE BRITAIN'S POSITION ON THE ISSUE.

PREVIOUSLY, HOWEVER, THE FOREIGN OFFICE HAS VOICED OPPOSITION TO SPANISH PARTICIPATION SO LONG AS SPAIN REMAINS UNDER THE GOVERNMENT OF GEN.FRANCISCO FRANCO.

THE SPOKESMAN'S RELUCTANCE TO DISCLOSE BRITAIN'S POSITION NOW AROUSED SOME INFORMAL SPECULATION THAT SHE MAY HAVE REVISED HER ATTITUDE.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-FOREIGN UNDERSECRETARY C.P.MAYHEW DISCLOSED TODAY A PLOT TO SMUGGLE 15 GERMAN SCIENTISTS AND ENGINEERS TO SOUTH AMERICA WAS NIPPED LAST NOVEMBER.

MAYHEW TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT MEMBERS OF THE GROUP WERE CONNECTED WITH THE GERMAN AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY.

"IT IS THOUGHT THE LEADER OF THE TEAM AND HIS SECRETARY MAY HAVE SUCCEEDED IN REACHING SOUTH AMERICA THROUGH DENMARK BEFORE THE CONSPIRACY WAS UNMASKED," HE SAID.

MAYHEW DID NOT SAY WHO HAD SPONSORED THE SMUGGLING EFFORT, OR WHAT SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRY WAS INVOLVED.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE FOREIGN OFFICE REPORTED TODAY A TREATY OF ALLIANCE BETWEEN BRITAIN AND TRANS-JORDAN HAS BEEN SIGNED AT AMMAN, TRANS-JORDANIAN CAPITAL.

THE TREATY IS SUBJECT TO RATIFICATION BY BOTH GOVERNMENTS. THE TEXT WILL BE MADE PUBLIC LATER THIS WEEK.

THE PACT IS ONE OF SEVERAL BRITAIN HAS BEEN NEGOTIATING TO STRENGTHEN ITS POSITION IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

LONDON, MARCH 15-(AP)-TASS SAYS RUSSIA HAS ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF VIOLATING A FOUR-POWER DECISION WITH ITS DENAZIFICATION METHODS.

THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY QUOTED THE INFORMATION BUREAU OF THE RUSSIAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT IN GERMANY YESTERDAY AS SAYING:

"DENAZIFICATION IN THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONE CONSISTS OF PROTECTING AND VINDICATING BIG FASCISTS AND WAR CRIMINALS OF THE WEALTHY CLASSES AND CONDEMNING FORMER MEMBERS OF THE HITLERITE PARTY BELONGING TO THE WORKING SECTIONS OF THE POPULATION.

"THIS IS A VIOLATION OF THE FOUR-POWER DECISION ON THE DENAZIFICATION AND DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY."

TASS SAID THE SOVIET STATE ALSO ACCUSED GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR IN GERMANY, OF MISREPRESENTATION WHEN HE SAID DENAZIFICATION PROCEDURE HAD ENDED IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE.

THE STATEMENT WAS SAID TO CHARGE THE THREE WESTERN POWERS HAD BEEN BLOCKING RUSSIA'S PROPOSAL FOR A BIG FOUR CHECKUP ON THE FULFILMENT OF DENAZIFICATION.

PARIS, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY REPORTED THAT ALL BUT 2,000 OR 3,000 STRIKING COAL MINERS RETURNED TO WORK TODAY IN NORTHERN FRANCE. A WEEKEND WALKOUT THERE INVOLVED 20,000 TO 30,000 MINERS. IT WAS LED BY THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF LABOR (CGT).

POLICE REPORTED SCATTERED CLASHES BETWEEN COMMUNISTS AND SUPPORTERS OF GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE IN CENTRAL FRANCE OVER THE WEEKEND.

POLICE AND TROOPS STOPPED A FIST FIGHT YESTERDAY IN A SQUARE OF CLERMONT-FERRAND, WHERE COMMUNISTS TRIED TO BREAK UP A MEETING OF DE GAULLE'S RALLY OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE (RPF).

LATER THE FIGHT WAS RESUMED AT A COMMUNIST MEETING IN FRONT OF PARTY HEADQUARTERS. POLICE AGAIN STOPPED IT.

SATURDAY NIGHT COMMUNISTS BROKE UP AN RPF MEETING IN THIERS. POLICE SAID THERE WERE "A FEW BLACK EYES AND SOME SKINNED KNUCKLES."

BIDAULT SAID POLITICAL DIFFICULTIES HAVE WIDENED SINCE THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS FIRST MET, AND ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES HAVE GROWN.

"NOBODY CAN ESCAPE RECOGNIZING THIS STATE OF AFFAIRS EXCEPT BY RIDICULOUS DENIALS OR BY SILENCE WHICH IS NOT WHOLLY SPONTANEOUS," THE FRENCH STATESMAN CONTINUED.

HIS REFERENCE OBVIOUSLY WAS A CHARGE THAT COUNTRIES BOYCOTTING THE MARSHALL PLAN WERE DOING SO UNDER FOREIGN PRESSURE.

BIDAULT SAID THE ECONOMIC CONDITION OF EUROPE IS "PRECARIOUS AND DANGEROUS, BOTH IN ITSELF AND IN THE CONSEQUENCES IT WILL BRING IF IT IS PROLONGED."

BIDAULT TALKED WITH CAFFERY BEFORE READING HIS ADDRESS. THE AMBASSADOR APPEARED TO HAVE LEFT AS THE MEETING BEGAN.

BEVIN ANNOUNCED A PROPOSAL "THAT THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ZONE AND THE FRENCH ZONE (OF GERMANY) SHOULD BE FULLY ASSOCIATED WITH THE WORK OF OUR CONTINUING ORGANIZATION."

"I THINK THE WORLD MIGHT BE ASSURED THAT THIS ORGANIZATION IS NOT A CONFERENCE BUT A WORKSHOP," HE SAID. "IT WILL BE CHARGED WITH THE DUTY OF DETERMINING PRACTICAL STEPS TO BUILD UP EUROPEAN PRODUCTION AND TO PROMOTE EUROPEAN EXPORTS, AND IN PARTICULAR TO ESTABLISH AN EQUILIBRIUM WITH THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE AND SO TO REDUCE THE DOLLAR DEFICIT."

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID PORTUGAL WAS ONE OF THE NATIONS SPONSORING SPANISH MEMBERSHIP. HE DID NOT SAY HOW GREAT BRITAIN FELT, ALTHOUGH THE FOREIGN OFFICE PREVIOUSLY HAS OPPOSED SPANISH PARTICIPATION WHILE SPAIN REMAINED UNDER THE FRANCO GOVERNMENT.

THE SPANISH GOVERNMENT-IN-EXILE HERE MADE KNOWN ITS INTENTION TO PROTEST.

GERMAN REPRESENTATIVES WILL ATTEND THE CONFERENCE AS ECONOMIC EXPERTS, ALONG WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S. AND BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNMENTS.

THE GERMANS HAVE PREPARED PLANS FOR INTEGRATING THE INDUSTRIES OF WESTERN GERMANY INTO THE RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE NEW FIVE-NATION BLOC OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG ATTRACTED INTEREST. THE NATIONS CONCLUDED A 50-YEAR MILITARY, ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL ALLIANCE LAST WEEK.

CIRCLES CLOSE TO THE FIVE NATIONS INDICATED THE UNION WOULD NOT TRY TO EXPAND ITSELF IMMEDIATELY. THEY SAID THE OBJECT WAS TO SOLIDIFY THE UNION FIRST AS A NUCLEUS FOR LEADERSHIP.

THE CONFERENCE STARTS AT 3 P. M. (9 A. M., EST) IN THE CLOCK ROOM OF THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY, ON THE QUAI D'ORSAY OVERLOOKING THE SEINE RIVER.

TODAY'S SPEAKERS INCLUDE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, AS PRESIDING OFFICER, AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, AS HOST.

THE CONFERENCE COMES ONLY THREE DAYS AFTER FIVE OF ITS PARTICIPANTS AGREED IN BRUSSELS ON A 50-YEAR POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND MILITARY UNION TO BLOCK COMMUNISM. THE FIVE ARE BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

THE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING IS TO SET UP A PERMANENT BODY TO DEAL WITH THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY WITH UNITED STATES AID. A $5,300,000,000 ONE-YEAR EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM (E.R.P.) PASSED THE UNITED STATES SENATE EARLY SUNDAY MORNING. IT NOW AWAITS HOUSE ACTION.

30.24- 16273

THE QUESTION BEFORE THE DELEGATES IS: SHALL THE PERMANENT BODY BE JUST A GROUP OF REPORT-WRITING CLERKS--A SECRETARIAT WITH MERELY CONSULTATIVE POWER? OR SHALL IT BE A POWERFUL EXECUTIVE PREPARING THE WAY FOR A EUROPEAN FEDERATION?

FRENCH INFORMANTS FORECAST YESTERDAY THAT BIDAULT WOULD CALL FOR A STRONG EXECUTIVE BODY.

THE ONLY TWO COUNTRIES THAT HAVE NOT SENT THEIR FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE ICELAND, REPRESENTED BY AN AMBASSADOR, AND SWITZERLAND, REPRESENTED BY ITS COMMERCE MINISTER.

THE DELEGATES GENERALLY SHOWED INTEREST IN THE FIVE-NATION PACT AGREED UPON IN BRUSSELS LAST FRIDAY. THE TEXT IS TO BE MADE PUBLIC WHEN THE DOCUMENT IS SIGNED THERE WEDNESDAY.

MEANWHILE, REPRESENTATIVES OF NATIONS OUTSIDE THE ALLIANCE WERE GETTING EXPLANATIONS OF ITS TERMS.

THREE FOREIGN MINISTERS SAW BIDAULT ABOUT IT YESTERDAY. THEY WERE NECMEDDIN SADAK OF TURKEY, SEAN MACBRIDE OF EIRE AND CONSTANTIN TSALDARIS OF GREECE.

ITALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER COUNT CARLO SFORZA, WHOSE COUNTRY IS DEEMED A PRIME CANDIDATE TO JOIN THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE, ARRIVED TOO LATE YESTERDAY TO TALK WITH BIDAULT. HE DID CONFER WITH TSALDARIS.

SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL PROPOSED THE PROGRAM TO AUD EUROPE LAST JUNE. HE INVITED ALL EUROPE TO PARTICIPATE.

RUSSIA AND THE EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES REFUSED.

THE 16 MARSHALL-PLAN NATIONS AT THEIR FIRST CONFERENCE PRODUCED AN ESTIMATE OF THEIR ECONOMIC NEEDS FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS.

A WRITER IN PRAVDA, MOSCOW GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, SAID YESTERDAY THE ERP IS AN EFFORT TO CORNER EUROPEAN MARKETS FOR THE U. S.

BORIS LEONTIEV WROTE THAT ONE REQUIREMENT IS THAT ALL MARSHALL-PLAN COUNTRIES "HAVE PERMISSION FROM THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT OF THE UNITED STATES" BEFORE MAKING ANY SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA. HE SAID THIS WOULD KEEP THEM FROM BUYING ANYWHERE EXCEPT IN THE U. S.

IN WASHINGTON, PERSONS FAMILIAR WITH THE SENATE LEGISLATION SAID THEY KNOW OF NO SUCH PROVISION. MARSHALL, THEY RECALLED, HAS URGED EAST-WEST TRADE TO PROMOTE RECOVERY IN EUROPE.

JT425AES

THE INCLUSION OF WESTERN GERMANY AND SPAIN WOULD SPREAD THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM OVER ALL OF WESTERN EUROPE--RIGHT TO THE DEMARCATION LINE OF THE RUSSIAN SPHERE OF INFLUENCE. RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES HAVE SPURNED PARTICIPATION IN THE MARSHALL PLAN. THE U.S.SENATE SUNDAY VOTED $5,300,000,000 FOR THE PLAN'S FIRST YEAR. THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES HAS YET TO ACT.

ITALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER CARLO SFORZA HELD THE CONFERENCE FLOOR WHILE THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON SERVED NOTICE THAT MARSHALL PLAN AID WOULD BE WITHDRAWN FROM ITALY IF SHE TURNS COMMUNIST IN NEXT MONTH'S ELECTION. THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S ACTION OBVIOUSLY WAS DESIGNED TO BULWARK ITALY'S PRESENT ANTI-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG CONCLUDED A 50-YEAR-MILITARY, ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL ALLIANCE IN BRUSSELS LAST WEEK. THE DELEGATES HERE LOOKED FORWARD TO PUBLICATION OF THE BRUSSELS PACT SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY.

IT WAS THOUGHT THE TEXT OF THE TREARY WILL SHOW PRECISELY HOW FAR BRITAIN IS WILLING TO GO ON THE ROAD TO INTEREUROPEAN UNITY.

BIDAULT WAS EXPLICIT ON THIS POINT. HE URGED THE EUROPEAN ORGANIZATION BE DESIGNED TO FUNCTION BEYOND THE PERIOD OF AMERICAN AID AND SAID:

"WHATEVER OUR DIFFICULTIES WE BELIEVE, WE KNOW, THAT THE WELL CONSIDERED INTERESTS OF OUR PEOPLES IS NOT AT ALL TO ATTEMPT TO PRESERVE THEIR HABITS IN A SORT OF POVERTY ON THE DOLE, WITHIN A NARROW AREA WITH A DIVIDED ECONOMY."

GREEK FOREIGN MINISTER CONSTANTIN TSALDARIS SAID THE FIVE-POWER "BRUSSELS AGREEMENT IS ONLY A POINT OF DEPARTURE FOR A GREATER ORGANIZATION."

SFORZA SAID: "ITALY WILL LEARN WITH JOY THAT WE ARE MORE AND MORE DEEPLY ENGAGED ON THE ROAD WHICH ALONE CAN DELIVER US."

DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN SAID THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES HAD DECIDED ON GREATER ECONOMIC COLIABORATION AMONG THEMSELVES "WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM."

ROME, TUESDAY, MARCH 16-(AP)-POLITICAL OBSERVERS SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS DELIVERED A POWERFUL, WELL-TIMED PUNCH AGAINST COMMUNIST HOPES OF WINNING ITALY BY ANNOUNCING AID WILL STOP IF THE COUNTRY GOES COMMUNIST.

THE MARSHALL PLAN, WITH THE PROMISE OF NEARLY $3,000,000,000 (BILLION) IN AMERICAN AID DURING FOUR AND A QUARTER YEARS BEGINNING APRIL 1, IS THE BIGGEST SINGLE ISSUE IN ITALY'S HEATED ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

PRAGUE, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT BUCKLED DOWN TODAY TO ITS DOUBLE PROGRAM OF NEW LEGISLATION AND SETTLING OLD SCORES WITH POLITICAL OPPONENTS.

PARLIAMENT IS STILL IN RECESS, BUT COMMITTEE MEETINGS WERE CALLED FOR TOMORROW. SPECIAL ATTENTION CENTERED ON THE COMMITTEE WHICH HAS BEEN ASKED TO STRIP VLADIMIR KRAJINA, NATIONALIST SOCIALIST LEADER, AND TWO OTHER DEPUTIES OF THEIR PARLIAMENTARY IMMUNITIES. THE MOST IMPORTANT OF THE IMMUNITIES PROTECTS THEM FROM ARREST.

AT LEAST 20 PERSONS ARE UNDER ARREST, AND OTHERS ARE BEING SOUGHT, UNDER CHARGES BY THE MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR THAT THEY CONSPIRED WITH THE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF KRAJINA IN A SPY PLOT AGAINST THE POLICE AND NATIONALIZED INDUSTRIES.

THE MINISTRY CLAIMS IT HAS EVIDENCE FOUND IN A SEARCH OF KRAJINA'S OFFICES AND A CONFESSION FROM A LOCAL PARTY SECRETARY WHO KILLED HIMSELF IN PRISON.

OTHER PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEES WILL TAKE UP ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION IN THE GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM OF INSURANCE, NATIONALIZATION, LAND REVISIONS AND AID FOR NEWLYWEDS.

IN AN ADDRESS, JUSTICE MINISTER ALEXEJ CEPIECKA HINTED THE NATION MAY HOLD ITS ELECTIONS IN MAY. HE MENTIONED MAY 25 AS THE PROBABLE DATE.

MEANTIME, RUDOLF SLANSKY, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE CENTRAL ACTION COMMITTEE AND SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, TOLD A PARTY MEETING IN THE KLADNO MINING DISTRICT THERE NEED BE NO FEAR OF A THIRD WORLD WAR.

"NOT BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN THE PEACE-LOVING MOTIVES OF THE WESTERN IMPERIALIST POWERS," HE SAID, "BUT BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN THE TREMENDOUS POWER OF THE SOVIET UNION AND THE SLAV NATIONS."

THOUSANDS OF PERSONS MADE PILGRIMAGES TO SUBURBAN LANY YESTERDAY TO SHOWER FLOWERS ON THE GRAVE OF JAN MASARYK, NON-PARTY FOREIGN MINISTER IN THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED CABINET. TODAY BLACK MOURNING FLAGS GENERALLY HAD DISAPPEARED IN PRAGUE. HOWEVER, BLACK-BORDERED PHOTOGRAPHS OF MASARYK STILL OCCUPIED ENTIRE WINDOW DISPLAYS IN DOWNTOWN BUILDINGS AND DREW LARGE CROWDS.

IN THEIR DRIVE AGAINST THE ALLEGED PLOT CHARGED TO THE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, POLICE ANNOUNCED THURSDAY NIGHT THAT JOSEPH HEROD, DISTRICT SECRETARY OF THE PARTY, HAD CONFESSED HE WAS PART OF A SPY RING HEADED BY KRAJINA. SUBSEQUENTLY HEROD KILLED HIMSELF.

PROKOP DRTINA, ANOTHER PARTY LEADER, IS IN THE HOSPITAL. POLICE SAID HE SUFFERED INJURIES IN A SUICIDE LEAP.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUED A WARRANT FOR THE ARREST OF VACLAV KNOTEK, A GOVERNMENT COUNCILOR, WHOM THE INTERIOR MINISTRY ACCUSED OF DIRECTING THE REPUTED SPY RING.

FORMER DEPUTY PREMIER PETER ZENKL, THE OLD PARTY LEADER, HAS NOT BEEN HEARD FROM LATELY.

THE INTERIOR MINISTRY SAID THAT AMONG THE 20 ARRESTED YESTERDAY WERE KAREL HEER, A RETIRED GOVERNMENT COUNCILOR, AND MILIC SOLSKY, A CLERK IN THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST PARTY HEADQUARTERS.

WHEN THE COMMUNISTS BEGAN THEIR DRIVE TO POWER PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD CHARGED THAT THE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS WERE PLANNING A PUTSCH TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT.

ON FEB.23 THE INTERIOR MINISTRY RAIDED THE PARTY'S HEADQUARTERS. LATER THE PARTY PURGED ITSELF OF ITS LEADERS AND CHANGED ITS NAME TO THE CZECH SOCIALIST PARTY.

THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER RUDE PRAVO SAID 125,591 MEMBERS HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE FIRST FIVE DAYS OF "GOTTWALD WEEK." THE GOAL IS 2,000,000 NEW MEMBERS.

MANCHURIA (330)
BY SPENCER MOOSA

PEIPING, MARCH 15-(AP)-PRO-GOVERNMENT DISPATCHES TODAY REPORTED CHINESE COMMUNISTS CAPTURED FIRE-CHARRED SZEPKINGKAI, STRONGPOINT BETWEEN THE MAJOR MANCHURIAN CITIES OF CHANGCHUN AND MUKDEN.

SZEPKINGKAI FELL SATURDAY AFTER 11 DAYS AND NIGHTS OF SEVERE FIGHTING THE DISPATCHES SAID. GOVERNMENT PILOTS SAID A LARGE PART OF THE BATTERED RAIL CITY WAS IN FLAMES. CHINESE CORRESPONDENTS SAID ALL FORTIFICATIONS WERE DESTROYED AS 80,000 COMMUNISTS OVERWHELMED 10,000 DEFENDERS.

FIGHTING WAS REPORTED AT SEVERAL POINTS AROUND CHANGCHUN, MANCHURIA'S CAPITAL, BUT APPARENTLY IT WAS SMALL SCALE. DISPATCHES SAID ONE PENETRATION OF THE NORTHERN SUBURBS BY MONGOL RED CAVALRY WAS DRIVEN OFF.

OTHER REPORTS SAID FIVE COMMUNIST DIVISIONS WERE POISED 15 MILES SOUTHWEST OF CHANGCHUN AND THE VICTORS OF SZEPKINGKAI WERE EXPECTED TO BOLSTER THEM.

THE COMMUNISTS' NEXT MOVE WAS NOT CLEAR. WITH CHANGCHUN ALREADY NEUTRALIZED, THE REDS MIGHT TRY INSTEAD TO CUT OFF THE 100,000 GOVERNMENT TROOPS AND CIVILIANS WHO FLED THE KIRIN AREA.

CAPTURE OF KIRIN AND THE NEARBY POWER CENTER OF HSIAOFENGMEN ENABLED THE COMMUNISTS TO BLACK OUT MOST MANCHURIAN CITIES REMAINING IN GOVERNMENT HANDS. HSIAOFENGMEN, RATED HERE THE WORLD'S THIRD LARGEST HYDROELECTRIC DAM, IS 75 SOUTHEAST OF CHANGCHUN. ITS LOSS, ALONG WITH KIRIN, WAS OFFICIALLY ACKNOWLEDGED.

THE INFLUX OF REFUGEES FROM KIRIN CAUSED MUCH UNEASINESS IN CHANGCHUN. ARRANGEMENTS WERE BEING MADE TO FLY OUT TECHNICIANS AND BANK EMPLOYES. THERE IS NO WAY OUT FOR THE COMMON PEOPLE. AS ONE DISPATCH PUT IT, THERE IS "TO HEAVEN, NO PATH; TO HELL, NO GATE."

FROM MUKDEN CAME AN ESTIMATE THAT IT WOULD TAKE SIX MONTHS TO REPAIR DAMAGED SECTIONS OF THE PEIPING-MUKDEN RAILWAY BETWEEN MUKDEN AND SINMIN. MOST BRIDGES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED. TRAFFIC STILL RUNS BETWEEN PEIPING AND CHINHSIEN AND BETWEEN SINMIN AND MUKDEN.

PRO-GOVERNMENT DISPATCHES REPORTED FURTHER IMPROVEMENT IN THE SITUATION AROUND PAOTING, HOPEI PROVINCE CAPITAL. A LONG PREDICTED COMMUNIST DRIVE AGAINST THE CITY HAS FAILED TO MATERIALIZE. THE GOVERNMENT PLANS TO RESUME OVERLAND COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN PEIPING AND PAOTING--BY RAIL, OVER THE NORTHERN STRETCH; BY HIGHWAY IN THE SOUTHERN.

SHANGHAI, TUESDAY, MARCH 16-(AP)-CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS WERE REPORTED DRIVING TOWARD TSINAN TODAY--90 AIRLINE MILES INLAND FROM THE U.S. NAVY'S NORTH CHINA BASE AT TSINGTAO.

THE MOVE TOWARD TSINAN FOLLOWED RED VICTORIES IN MANCHURIA AND A COMMUNIST ADVANCE ON THE YELLOW RIVER CITY OF LOYANG, CENTRAL CHINA. FIGHTING HAS BEEN IN PROGRESS FOR SIX DAYS AND NIGHTS AT LOYANG. GOVERNMENT REPORTS SAID 70,000 TROOPS WERE THROWN INTO THE BATTLE.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS FROM TSINGTAO SAID THE SHANTUNG PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR HAD BEEN ORDERED TO HOLD HIS CAPITAL, TSINAN, AT ALL COSTS. TENSION INCREASED IN TSINAN AS THE COMMUNISTS MOVED WITHIN 10 MILES OF THAT CITY ON THE TSINGTAO-TSINAN RAILROAD, WHICH THE GOVERNMENT ONLY RECENTLY RESTORED TO SERVICE.

PRO-GOVERNMENT CHINESE PRESS DISPATCHES ACKNOWLEDGED YESTERDAY THE FALL OF SZEPINGKAI, MANCHURIA.

THE BOXER'S TWO DECK CATAPULTS, HOWEVER, SHOT THE SIX-TON FIGHTERS INTO THE AIR AT ABOUT 145 MILES AN HOUR -- WELL OVER FLYING SPEED.

A63FX

THE FJ-1 IS A SLEEK, STUB-WINGED PLANE RATED BY THE NAVY SIMPLY AT "MORE THAN 550 MILES AN HOUR." PUBLICIZED FIGURES SHOW THAT IT HAS FLOWN MUCH BETTER THAN 600 MILES AN HOUR, HOWEVER.

IT HAS A RATE OF CLIMB OF A MILE A MINUTE, AN OFFICIAL FLYING TIME OF FOUR HOURS, AND A RANGE OF MORE THAN 1,500 MILES. ITS AXIAL JET ENGINE IS MANUFACTURED BY GENERAL ELECTRIC.

MAKING THE FIRST JET OPERATIONAL LANDING ON THE BOXER WAS COMMANDER EVAN P.AURAND OF HOUSTON, TEXAS, COMMANDING OFFICER OF FIGHTING 5-A, AND LT.CMDR.ROBERT ELDER OF MILWAUKIE, ORE., SQUADRON EXECUTIVE OFFICER.

BOTH PILOTS PRONOUNCED JET CARRIER LANDINGS EASIER THAN WITH CONVENTION PROPELLOR-DRIVEN AIRCRAFT. THE JET THRUST, THEY ADDED, WAS ALSO AMPLE FOR EMERGENCY WAVE-OFFS AFTER THE PILOT HAS THROTTLED DOWN FOR THE LANDING.

AFTER WITNESSING THE TESTS, VICE ADMIRAL G.D.MURRAY, COMMANDING THE FIRST TASK FLEET, COMMENTED THAT THE DETAILS OF OPERATING FULL JET SQUADRONS FROM CARRIERS WERE "ONLY PRACTICAL ONES."

AMONG THESE PROBLEMS UNDOUBTEDLY WILL BE NEW METHODS OF PLANE HANDLING. UNLIKE CONVENTIONAL PLANES, THE ROARING REARWARD JET BLAST PROBABLY WILL PREVENT LAUNCHING OF MORE THAN TWO OR THREE PLANES AT A TIME.

BUT BECAUSE JET ENGINES NEED NO WARM-UP, THE JET CAN BE MOVED SINGLY FROM THE DECK-LOAD OF PARKED PLANES, ITS ENGINE TURNED UP, AND LAUNCHED WITHIN A MINUTE OR TWO. THERE NO LONGER WILL BE ANY NEED FOR THE LONG WARM-UP PERIOD NOW REQUIRED BY PRESENT PLANES.

CLOCKING SHOWED THE FJ-1'S IN THE BOXER TESTS WERE AIR-BORNE LESS THAN TWO MINUTES AFTER THEIR ENGINES WERE TURNED ON.

BUT ALREADY NAVAL JET DEVELOPMENT HAS PROGRESSED TO THE POINT WHERE THE "FURY" IS TERMED JUST AN "INTERIM" PLANE BY THE NAVY.

IT EXPECTS, THE NAVY ADDED, TO COUNT CHIEFLY FOR ITS COMING FLEET JET EXPANSION ON STILL NEWER JET FIGHTERS, THE GRUMMAN F9F "PANTHER" AND THE MCDONALD F2H "BANSHEE."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS ASKED RUSSIA, BRITAIN AND FRANCE TO POSTPONE UNTIL LATER IN THE YEAR ANY ATTEMPT TO DECIDE ON FUTURE CONTROL OF THE DANUBE RIVER.

THE BIG FOUR POWERS AGREED LATE IN 1946 TO CALL AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE DANUBE QUESTION WITHIN SIX MONTHS AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR II TREATIES WENT INTO FORCE. THEY BECAME EFFECTIVE SIX MONTHS AGO TODAY.

THE NEW AMERICAN PROPOSAL, STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID, IS THAT THE DEADLINE BE EXTENDED UNTIL THE END OF 1948. PRESUMABLY BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE NO OBJECTION BUT WHETHER RUSSIA HAS AGREED WAS NOT DISCLOSED.

THE U. S. PROPOSAL WAS BASED CHIEFLY ON THE FAILURE THUS FAR TO AGREE ON PEACE TERMS FOR AUSTRIA, WHICH HAS A MAJOR STAKE IN CONTROL OF THE DANUBE, CENTRAL EUROPE'S GREAT WATERWAY.

THE UNITED STATES AND THE OTHER WESTERN POWERS WANT A VOICE IN REGULATING DANUBE TRAFFIC. RUSSIA HAS CONTENDED THIS IS A MATTER FOR THE STATES ALONG ITS BANKS. ALL THESE COUNTRIES ARE WITHIN THE SOVIET ORBIT.

THE EFFECIENT AND JUST ADMINISTRATION OF THE EMPLOYEE LOYALTY PROGRAM, UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 9835 OF MARCH 21, 1947, REQUIRES THAT REPORTS, RECORDS AND FILES RELATIVE TO THE PROGRAM BE PRESERVED IN STRICT CONFIDENCE. THIS IS NECESSARY IN THE INTEREST OF OUR NATIONAL SECURITY AND WELFARE, TO PRESERVE THE CONFIDENTIAL CHARACTER AND SOURCES OF INFORMATION FURNISHED, AND TO PROTECT GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL AGAINST THE DISSEMINATION OF UNFOUNDED OR DISPROVED ALLEGATIONS. IT IS NECESSARY ALSO IN ORDER TO INSURE THE FAIR AND JUST DISPOSITION OF LOYALTY CASES.

FOR THESE REASONS, AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LONG ESTABLISHED POLICY THAT REPORTS RENDERED BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIHATION AND OTHER INVESTIGATIVE AGENCIES OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH ARE TO BE REGARDED AS CONFIDENTIAL, ALL REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FILES RELATIVE TO THE LOYALTY OF EMPLOYES OR PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYES (INCLUDING REPORTS OF SUCH INVESTIGATIVE AGENCIES), SHALL BE MAINTAINED IN CONFIDENCE, AND SHALL NOT BE TRANSMITTED OR DISCLOSED EXCEPT AS REQUIRED IN THE EFFICIENT CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

ANY SUBPOENA OR DEMAND OR REQUEST FOR INFORMATION, REPORTS, OR FILES OF THE NATURE DESCRIBED RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN THOSE PERSONS IN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT WHO ARE ENTITLED THERETO, BY REASON OF THEIR OFFICIAL DUTIES, SHALL BE RESPECTFULLY DECLINED, ON THE BASIS OF THIS DIRECTIVE AND THE SUBPOENA OR DEMAND OR OTHER REQUEST SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT FOR SUCH RESPONSE AS THE PRESIDENT MAY DETERMINE TO BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE PARTICULAR CASE. THERE SHALL BE NO RELAXATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS DIRECTIVE EXCEPT WITH MY EXPRESSED AUTHORITY.

THIS DIRECTIVE SHALL BE PUBLISHED IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER.

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 15-(AP)-A HITCH DEVELOPED IN THE EXPECTED RELEASE TODAY OF HAROLD CHRISTOFFEL OF MILWAUKEE ON $5,000 BAIL AND HE FACED ANOTHER NIGHT IN THE DISTRICT JAIL.

THE FORMER CIO UNION OFFICIAL WAS CONVICTED MARCH 3 OF LYING WHEN HE DENIED BEING A COMMUNIST. HE WAS SENTENCED TO TWO TO SIX YEARS IN A FEDERAL PRISON.

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS GRANTED A REQUEST OF O.JOHN ROGGE OF DEFENSE COUNSEL THAT CHRISTOFFEL BE RELEASED ON $5,000 BAIL UNTIL A DECISION IS REACHED ON AN APPEAL FROM HIS CONVICTION.

JOHN DAVIS, AN ASSOCIATE OF ROGGE, SAID THAT FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAN FIRST APPROVED AND THEN REVOKED AN ORDER RELEASING THE FORMER $5,000 CASH BOND WHICH CHRISTOFFEL USED PRIOR TO HIS CONVICTION.

DAVIS SAID CURRAN HELD THAT THE BOND HAD ORIGINALLY BEEN PUT UP BY THE UNITED AUTO WORKERS AND APPROVAL BY THE LATTER WOULD BE REQUIRED BEFORE THE FUNDS COULD BE USED FOR THE NEW BAIL. CURRAN WAS NOT AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT.

CURRAN PREVIOUSLY HAD TWICE DENIED MOTIONS TO PERMIT RELEASE OF CHRISTOFFEL ON BOND. ROGGE THEN ASKED THE COURT OF APPEALS TO GRANT BOND AND THIS WAS APPROVED.

DAVIS SAID HE WILL ATTEMPT TO CONTACT THE UAW TO GET APPROVAL FOR THE USE OF THE $5,000 OR TRY TO OBTAIN A SURETY BOND TO OBTAIN CHRISTOFFEL'S RELEASE.

HE ADMITTED, HOWEVER, THAT NOTHING FURTHER COULD BE DONE TONIGHT AND CHRISTOFFEL WOULD HAVE TO REMAIN IN JAIL UNTIL BOND IS RAISED.

TAFT (350)

BY JAMES F.KING

AUGUSTA,ME.,MARCH 15-(AP)-CHARGING THE ADMINISTRATION WITH "OPERATING IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF WAR," SEN.ROBERT A.TAFT (R-OHIO) SAYS HE FINDS NO JUSTIFICATION FOR SUCH WAR HYSTERIA.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE TOLD A SERIES OF MAINE MEETINGS HE HAD NO INFORMATION TO INDICATE THAT RUSSIA WAS READY TO MOVE "MILITARILY" BEYOND ITS SPHERE OF INFLUENCE WHICH, HE SAID, WAS FIXED AT YALTA.

HE CALLED UPON PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL TO TELL CONGRESS AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IF THEY HAD ANY INFORMATION OTHERWISE.

"WE MUST RESTRAIN THIS GROWING FEAR OF ANOTHER WAR," TAFT SAID. "X X X IF WAR COMES IT SHOULD ONLY BE BY ACTIVE MILITARY AGGRESSION OF OTHER POWERS."

30.24- 16279

TAFT IS MAKING A TWO-DAY SWING THROUGH MAINE SEEKING SUPPORT FROM THE PINE TREE STATE'S 13 DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL GOP CONVENTION. MAINE'S DELEGATES, WHO ARE CHOSEN AT A CONVENTION OF STATE LEADERS, TRADITIONALLY GO UNPLEDGED.

TAFT, WHO IS BEING ACCOMPANIED BY HIS WIFE, REPEATEDLY EXPRESSED DOUBTS ABOUT THE ULTIMATE SUCCESS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, BUT CALLED IT A POSSIBLE "USEFUL WEAPON AGAINST COMMUNISM."

HE INSISTED THAT IT WAS INTENDED TO HELP WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES GET ON THEIR FEET AND DECLARED IT MUST NOT BE USED AS "A WAR MEASURE."

CALLING THE MARSHALL PLAN "WHOLLY UNSOUND ECONOMICALLY," TAFT SAID ITS SUCCESS DEPENDED NINETY PERCENT ON WHAT THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE COUNTRIES BEING AIDED DO THEMSELVES IN DEALING WITH SUCH THINGS AS INFLATION, BALANCING THEIR BUDGETS AND STABILIZING THEIR CURRENCY.

THE OHIO SENATOR--LEADER OF THE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE IN CONGRESS--WAS SHARPLY CRITICAL OF SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL WHO HE CHARGED "REFUSES THE SENDING OF AMMUNITION AND OTHER MILITARY SUPPLIES TO THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA."

ASSERTING THAT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN CHINA WAS JUST AS DANGEROUS AS IN WESTERN EUROPE, TAFT SAID MARSHALL OPPOSED GIVING THE CHIANG KAI SHEK GOVERNMENT MILITARY AID EVEN WHILE ADMITTING NORTH CHINA AND MANCHURIA WERE IN DANGER OF BEING OVERRUN BY THE RED ARMY.

"OUR POSITION IN KOREA THEN WOULD BE UNTENABLE," TAFT SAID, "AND WITHIN A SHORT TIME PROBABLY JAPAN WOULD BE FORCED INTO COMMUNISM."

TAFT SAID THIS WOULD LEAD TO "COMMUNIST FORCES ON THE SHORES OF THE PACIFIC PROBABLY MORE DANGEROUS THAN IN WESTERN EUROPE."

DEMANDING A "NEW FOREIGN POLICY," TAFT TOLD BOWDOIN COLLGE STUDENTS THAT THIS COUNTRY HAD BEEN LED INTO A "MESS" THROUGH SYMPATHY FOR THE COMMUNISTS WITHIN THE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION DATING BACK TO THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S FIRST MEETINGS WITH STALIN.

THE OHIO SENATOR SAID THAT ROOSEVELT APPARENTLY FELT "SIMPLY THAT IF YOU TREATED STALIN KINDLY HE WOULD FIND AN ANGEL. UNFORTUNATELY HE WAS MISTAKEN."

NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN (ROUNDUP)

BY ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON,MARCH 15-(AP)-WARNING THAT "THE HOUR IS FAR MORE FATEFUL NOW THAN IT WAS A YEAR AGO," SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL SAID TODAY THAT THIS COUNTRY MUST ACT "WITH CALM DETERMINATION" TO PREVENT THE FURTHER SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN EUROPE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT TOOK ONE ACTION IMMEDIATELY. IT SERVED NOTICE THAT ITALY, DOWN FOR A LARGE SHARE OF U.S. AID UNDER THE MARSHALL PROGRAM, WILL NOT GET A CENT IF SHE GOES COMMUNIST.

AND MARSHALL SAID THE COUNTRY MUST GIVE MORE MILITARY HELP TO THE GREEK GOVERNMENT IN ITS WAR AGAINST COMMUNIST-LED REBELS. OTHERWISE, MARSHALL SAID, "THE CONSEQUENCES WOULD BE SWIFT AND TRAGIC AND THEY WOULD NOT BE CONFINED TO GREECE."

(THE STATE DEPARTMENT FLATLY DENIED A REPORT ((BY DREW PEARSON)) THAT U.S.MARINES MIGHT BE MOVED INTO ITALY IF THE COMMUNISTS TRY TO SEIZE POWER THERE BEFORE THE APRIL 18 ELECTIONS.)

MARSHALL GAVE HIS WARNING TO THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE IN URGING $275,000,000 (M) IN MILITARY AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY ON TOP OF THE $400,000,000 (M) VOTED LAST YEAR.

"BY INTIMIDATION, FRAUD AND TERROR, COMMUNIST REGIMES HAVE BEEN IMPOSED ON HUNGARY AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA," MARSHALL SAID IN A STATEMENT RELEASED AFTER A CLOSED DOOR SESSION WITH THE SENATORS.

"TOTALITARIAN CONTROL," HE SAID, "HAS BEEN TIGHTENED IN OTHER COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE, AND THESE STATES HAVE BEEN LINKED IN A NETWORK OF ALLIANCES.

"OTHER EUROPEAN PEOPLES FACE A SIMILAR THREAT OF BEING DRAWN AGAINST THEIR WILL INTO THE COMMUNIST ORBIT."

THIS COUNTRY, MARSHALL SAID, SHOULD AVOID "HASTY ACTION WHICH COULD LEAD TO THE DISSIPATION OF OUR RESOURCES, OR FEAR WHICH WOULD LEAD TO STERILE INACTION." THEN HE SAID:

"WITH CALM DETERMINATION WE MUST PURSUE THE POLICY CONFIRMED LAST MAY BY THE CONGRESS."

MAR 1948

A207WX

IT WAS IN MAY, 1947, THAT CONGRESS FIRST APPROVED AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY IN RESPONSE TO THE PRESIDENT'S "TRUMAN DOCTRINE" MESSAGE PROMISING AID TO PEOPLES RESISTING TOTALITARIAN PRESSURE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S WARNING TO ITALY, OFFICIALS SAID, WAS THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF SUCH MOVES DESIGNED TO MAKE PLAIN TO THE ITALIAN PEOPLE WHAT THE CONSEQUENCES WOULD BE IF THEY ACCEPT COMMUNISM.

IN AN OPEN REFERENCE TO THE NEXT MONTH'S ELECTIONS WHICH THE COMMUNISTS ALREADY ARE GOING ALL OUT TO WIN, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT SAID:

"IF THE COMMUNISTS SHOULD WIN--WHICH WE CAN'T BELIEVE WILL BE THE CASE, KNOWING THE SPIRIT AND FEELING OF THE ITALIANS--THERE WOULD BE NO FURTHER QUESTION OF ASSISTANCE FROM THE UNITED STATES."

OTHER OFFICIALS SAID THE COMMUNISTS WOULD DEAL ITALY OUT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN IN ANY EVENT, AS THEY DID WITH CZECHOSLOVAKIA LAST YEAR AND AS THEY HAVE DONE IN ALL COUNTRIES UNDER THEIR INFLUENCE.

THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, MEANWHILE, HURRIED ALONG THE WRITING OF A FOREIGN AID BILL INCLUDING THE $5,300,000,000 (B) MARSHALL PROGRAM ALREADY APPROVED BY THE SENATE, PLUS ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID TO GREECE, TURKEY AND CHINA.

CHAIRMAN EATON (R-NJ) TOLD REPORTERS IT IS "QUITE WITHIN THE POSSIBILITIES" THAT THE BILL WILL BE COMPLETED THIS WEEK. SOME REPRESENTATIVES WERE PREDICTING FINAL ACTION BY EASTER--MORE THAN TWO WEEKS AHEAD OF THE ITALIAN ELECTION.

THE ADMINISTRATION IS COUNTING ON THE EUROPEAN AID MEASURE TO SWAY ITALIAN SENTIMENT IN FAVOR OF THE WEST AND AWAY FROM COMMUNISM.

OFFICIALS ARE POINTING OUT THAT COMMUNIST CONTROL OF ITALY OR GREECE WOULD ALMOST CERTAINLY CLOSE THE STRATEGIC, OIL-PRODUCING MIDDLE EAST TO THE WESTERN POWERS.

MARSHALL TOLD THE SENATORS THAT THE GREEK SITUATION IS "SERIOUS" BUT "NOT WITHOUT HOPE."

"THE DANGER REMAINS," HE SAID, "THAT THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRIES OF EUROPE WILL INCREASE THEIR PRESSURE ON GREECE JUST AS THEY HAVE IN OTHER DIRECTIONS IN EUROPE."

"IT IS THE BOAST OF THE TOTALITARIAN LEADERS," MARSHALL SAID, "THAT DEMOCRACIES ARE INCAPABLE OF TIMELY AND DECISIVE ACTION."

THE COMMUNIST DANGER TO TURKEY, THE SECRETARY SAID, IS LESS "ACTIVE." HE ADDED: "TO REMAIN RELATIVELY SAFE FROM AGGRESSION, TURKEY MUST REMAIN STRONG; BUT SHE CANNOT DO SO INDEFINITELY ON HER OWN MEAGER RESOURCES."

MARSHALL ACCUSED YUGOSLAVIA, ALBANIA AND BULGARIA OF "FLOUTING" THE UNITED NATIONS BY HELPING THE GUERRILLAS WAGE A "RUTHLESS" STRUGGLE AGAINST THE GREEK GOVERNMENT.

THE LATEST EXAMPLE OF SUCH RUTHLESSNESS, THE SECRETARY SAID, IS THE PLANNED REMOVAL OF 12,000 OR MORE GREEK CHILDREN TO THE COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE "IN CONNIVANCE WITH FOREIGN POWERS." HE SAID THE GREEK GOVERNMENT HAS "JUSTLY" DENOUNCED THIS STEP AS "COMPARABLE TO THE PRACTICES OF NAZI GERMANY."

RUSSIA

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MARCH 15-(AP)-AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA HAS SWUNG-OR BEEN PUSHED BY THE SOVIETS--TO ALMOST THE OPPOSITE POLE SINCE PRESIDENT TRUMAN MET PREMIER STALIN AT POTSDAM TWO AND A HALF YEARS AGO.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE CAME HOME FROM THAT HISTORIC BIRTISH-SOVIET-AMERICAN MEETING SAYING: THE THREE POWERS "ARE NOW MORE CLOSELY THAN EVER BOUND TOGETHER IN DETERMINATION TO ACHIEVE A JUST AND LASTING PEACE."

TODAY THE PRESIDENT ADMITS THAT HIS FAITH IN EVENTUAL WORLD PEACE IS SOMEWHAT SHAKEN ALTHOUGH HE STILL BELIEVES PEACE IS ATTAINABLE. HE HAS COMMITTED THE UNITED STATES TO OPPOSE THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM ANYWHERE.

TO THAT END THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS SAID TO BE STUDYING WAYS TO BA UP AMERICAN ECONOMIC AID TO WESTERN EUROPE WITH STRONG POLITICAL ACTION AND POSSIBLY MILTYPPOT.(

ITHE PRESIDENT'S MILITARY LEADERS--SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL AND THE TOP LAND, SEA AND AIR CHIEFS--HAVE BEEN MEETING IN KEY WEST, FLA., TO DETERMINE EXACTLY HOW THE ARMED FORCES SHOULD OPERATE IN EVENT OF A WAR.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS ARE PUTTING THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY THROUGH THE LEGISLATIVE MILL ON A SPEEDUP SCHEDULE. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL HAS CAUTIONED THAT DELAY IN ACTION MUCH BEYOND MONTH'S END MIGHT STRENGTHEN THE COMMUNIST BID FOR POWER IN ITALY AT THE APRIL 18 ELECTIONS THERE.

FROM OUTSIDE THE GOVERNMENT, BUT REFLECTING VIEWS THAT ARE WIDELY HELD AMONG OFFICIALS, HAS CALLED ON THE ADMINISTRATION TO ACT NOW TO BLOCK ANY RUSSIAN THREAT TO GREECE, TURKEY, ITALY OR FRANCE.

IN A SPEECH IN SOUTH CAROLINA SATURDAY BYRNES URGED THAT THE GOVERNMENT TO SERVE DIRECT WARNING ON MOSCOW THAT IT WILL NOT SEE THOSE NATIONS ENDANGERED. HE ADVOCATED BACKING UP THE WARNING WITH A REVIVED DRAFT LAW.

THESE ACTIVITIES REPRESENT THE END RESULT OF WHAT ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS REGARD AS A LONG AND PERSISTENT EFFORT ON THE PART OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT FIRST TO GET ALONG WITH RUSSIA BUT, FAILING THAT, TO HOLD COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN CHECK.

A9WX

THE EFFORT BEGAN DURING THE WAR UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND SECRETARY OF STATE HULL. WHEN MR. TRUMAN TOOK OFFICE APRIL 12, 1945, HE INHERITED THEIR POLICY AND CARRIED ON.

IT WAS ON THE BASIS OF THAT POLICY, OF WOOING RUSSIAN FRIENDSHIP, THAT HE WENT TO POTSDAM IN JULY, 1945. THERE HE JOINED WITH STALIN AND LEADERS OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT IN PLANNING THE FUTURE OF GERMANY AS A UNIFIED STATE AND IN SETTING UP THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS (AMERICA, BRITAIN, RUSSIA, FRANCE AND CHINA) TO WRITE THE PEACE TREATIEIS FOR THE ENEMY NATIONS OF WORLD WAR II.

MR. TRUMAN'S POTSDAM AGREEMENTS WERE BASED ON SEVERAL ASSUMPTIONS.

ONE WAS THAT THE GREAT POWERS, DESPITE DIFFERENCES, WOULD BE ABLE TO WORK TOGETHER TO ORGANIZE PEACE.

ANOTHER WAS THAT RUSSIA SPECIFICALLY WANTED SECURITY, BUT NOT EXPANSION.

A THIRD WAS THAT THE UNITED NATIONS, WHICH HAD BEEN CREATED AT SAN FRANCISCO TWO MONTHS EARLIER, WOULD WORK BECAUSE THE GREAT POWERS WOULD COOPERATE.

IN OFFICIAL AMERICAN THINKING NOW, THE GREAT MISCALCULATION IN ALL THESE ASSUMPTIONS CONCERNED RUSSIA--THE KREMLIN SIMPLY WOULD NOT JOIN IN THE EFFORT TO FOUND WORLD PEACE ON THE PRINCIPLE OF LIVE AND LET LIVE.

THE WEEKS IMMEDIATELY AFTER POTSDAM REPRESENTED THE HIGH POINT OF HOPE FOR GREAT POWER COOPERATION. THE THE HOPE BEGAN TO CRUMBLE UNDER THE PRESSURE OF EVENTS.

IT EBBED FIRST IN THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS AT A MEETING IN LONDON IN SEPTEMBER 1948 TO BEGIN WORK ON PEACE TREATIES FOR ITALY, FINLAND, HUNGARY, ROMANIA AND BULGARIA. AFTER A MONTH THE COUNCIL BROKE UP ITS FIRST CONFERENCE IN COMPLETE DEADLOCK DUE, BYRNES CHARGED, TO RUSSIAN STUBBORNNESS.

MEANWHILE, UNDER AGREEMENTS MADE IN EARLIER BIG THREE MEETINGS THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WERE LOCKED IN A STRUGGLE WITH RUSSIA TO PRESERVE POLITICAL FREEDOM IN THE COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE.

THE TWO WESTERN POWERS FINALLY SUCCEEDED IN GETTING CIVIL RIGHTS GUARANTEES WRITTEN INTO ALL THE SATELLITE PEACE PACTS WHICH WERE COMPLETED IN NEW YORK IN DECEMBER 1946. BUT AMERICAN OFFICIALS CONTEND THAT IN NATIONS OF THE SOVIET BLOC THESE CLAUSES HAVE BEEN FREELY VIOLATED.

THE VIRTUAL END OF THAT STRUGGLE IN EASTERN EUROPE CAME ONLY LAST MONTH WHEN THE COMMUNISTS SEIZED CONTROL IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

BUT LONG BEFORE THAT, AS THE SPLIT BETWEEN EAST AND WEST WIDENED AND ENGULFED MUCH OF THE WORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS, BYRNES AS SECRETARY OF STATE DEVELOPED IN 1946 WHAT WAS KNOWN OFFICIALLY AS THE "PATIENT BUT FIRM" POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA. UNOFFICIALLY, IT WAS KNOWN AS THE "GET-TOUGH" POLICY.

IN LINE WITH THIS THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN DEVELOPED GREATER SOLIDARITY. PROTECTION OF STRETEGIC POINTS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE SYSTEM--NOTABLY THE MIDDLE EAST--GRADUALLY BECAME A BASIC PRINCIPLE OF AMERICAN POLICY.

IN EARLY 1946 THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN FORCED RUSSIA TO PULL ITS TROOPS OUT OF IRAN. IN EARLY 1947 THE UNITED STATES TOOK OVER BRITAIN'S COMMITMENTS IN GREECE AND TURKEY, UNDER THE "TRUMAN DOCTRINE," AND THUS FAR HAS PREVENTED SOVIET OR COMMUNIST EXPANSION INTO EITHER COUNTRY.

MEANWHILE THE PEACE TREATY MACHINERY GROUND ON IN FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCES AT PARIS, NEW YORK, MOSCOW AND LONDON.

EVENTUAL SUCCESS IN WRITING THE SATELLITE TREATIES WAS OFFSET AT LONDON LAST DECEMBER BY A COMPLETE BREAKDOWN IN EFFORTS TO DRAFT GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN TREATIEIS.

AND EFFORTS TO AGREE ON A PROCEDURE FOR DRAFTING A JAPANESE TREATY AND ATTEMPTS TO UNIFY KOREA AND RESTORE ITS INDEPENDENCE ALSO FELL THROUGH LAST YEAR.

MAR 1948

B11WX (C-E-G-S)

PART OF MR. TRUMAN'S ANSWER TO THE SITUATION HAD BEEN THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE. ANOTHER PART WAS A GRADUAL ACCEPTANCE OF THE PRINCIPLE THAT WHAT THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER NATIONS COULD NOT ACCOMPLISH WITH RUSSIA THEY WOULD TRY TO DO WITHOUT RUSSIA.

THIS HAS TAKEN CONCRETE FORM IN THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY WHERE A MAJORITY OF THE NATIONS UNDER AMERICAN LEADERSHIP CONSISTENTLY OUTVOTED THE RUSSIANS ON ALL DISPUTED MAJOR ISSUES--INCLUDING GREECE AND KOREA--LAST FALL.

IT HAD BEEN EXPRESSED A YEAR EARLIER IN THE BRITISH AMERICAN DECISION TO UNIFY THEIR ZONES IN WESTERN GERMANY DESPITE RUSSIAN OBJECTION. NOW THE BASIS IS BEING LAID FOR THE FRENCH TO COMPLETE THE UNIFICATION OF WESTERN GERMANY.

THE DO-IT-WITHOUT-RUSSIA PRINCIPLE ALSO BECAME PART OF THE BASIS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY. WHEN SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV REFUSED AT PARIS LAST SUMMER TO JOIN WITH OTHER EUROPEAN STATES IN ORGANIZING A JOINT RECOVERY EFFORT THE UNITED STATES BACKED AND ENCOURAGED THE 16 NATIONS WHICH WERE WILLING TO COOPERATE.

THUS IN THE TWO AND A HALF YEAR PERIOD THAT BEGAN OPTIMISTICALLY AT POTSDAM, AMERICAN POLICY UNDER PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SWUNG WITHTHE TIDE OF EVENTS TO THE POINT WHERE HOPE OF COLLABORATION HAS BROKEN DOWN UNDER THE REALITY OF CONFLICT.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 15-(AP)-REP. MUNDT (R-SD) PLANS TO OFFER A NEW BILL HE SAYS IS "THE TIGHTEST AND TOUGHEST YET PRESENTED TO CURB COMMUNISM IN AMERICA."

THE MEASURE IS A SUBSTITUTE FOR ANOTHER HE INTRODUCED LAST YEAR. THE NEW PROPOSAL HAS BEEN DRAFTED IN COOPERATION WITH THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT, HE SAID.

MUNDT TOLD A REPORTER THE NEW BILL HAS BEEN WRITTEN WITH "EXTREME CARE" TO AVOID ITS BEING RULED UNCONSTITUTIONAL BY THE COURTS.

IT WOULD REQUIRE REGISTRATION WITH THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OF ALL OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF "COMMUNIST FRONT" ORGANIZATIONS.

FOR PURPOPOSES OF THE ACT, "COMMUNIST FRONT" GROUPS WOULD INCLUDE:

1. THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PRTY AIT IS NOW K

1. THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY AS IT IS NIW KNOWN, REGARDLESS OF ANY FUTURE CHANGES IN LABEL. THIS PARTY WOULD BE RATED A "FRONT" ORGANIZATION FOR THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT DIRECTED FROM MOSCOW.

2. ANY ORGANIZATION ADVOCATING THE OVERTHROW OF THE AMERICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT OR THE FREE ENTERPRISE ECONOMIC SYSTEM, OR PROMOTING COMMUNIST IDEOLOGY.

3. ANY GROUP UNDER THE CONTROL OR INFLUENCE OF THE WORLD COMMUNIST MOVEMENT.

MUNDT SAID JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS BELIEVE THIS LANGUAGE, STRESSING THE "FRONT" CHARACTER OF ORGANIZATIONS REQUIRED TO REGISTER, WOULD HAVE A GOOD CHANCE OF SURVIVING A COURT TEST.

"OTHERWISE A COURT CAN ASK WHY WE WANT MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY TO REGISTER WHEN WE DON'T REQUIRE IT OF DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS," HE ADDED.

BUT SHOULD THIS LANGUAGE FAIL TO STAND UP IN COURT, HE SAID, THE BILL FURTHER PROVIDES:

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IS TO BE EMPOWERED TO MAKE A FINDING IN FACT WHETHER ANY ORGANIZATION IS A COMMUNIST FRONT GROUP. UNDER THIS FEATURE, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL MUST HOLD HEARINGS AND GIVE ALL COMERS, INCLUDING THE ORGANIZATION ITSELF, A CHANCE TO APPEAR.

MUNDT'S BILL WOULD MAKE THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND SECRETARY OF A FRONT ORGANIZATION JOINTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANNUAL REGISTRATION.

WRITTEN MATTER PRODUCED BY COMMUNIST FRONT GROUPS WOULD HAVE TO BE LABELED: "DISSEMINATED BY--, A COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATION."

MEMBERS OF REGISTERING GROUPS WOULD BE DENIED FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT. IF ALREADY EMPLOYED, THEY WOULD HAVE TO DISCLOSE THEIR AFFILIATION. THEY WOULD BE DENIED PASSPORTS.

ALL VIOLATIONS WOULD BE PUNISHABLE BY FINES OF $2,000 TO $5,000, OR PRISON TERMS OF TWO TO FIVE YEARS, OR BOTH. PENALTIES WOULD APPLY TO GOVERNMENT OFFICERS WHO HIRED PERSONS WHOM THEY KNEW TO BE MEMBERS OF FRONT ORGANIZATIONS.

MUNDT SAID HE HOPES THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WILL ACT ON THE NEW BILL WITHIN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE WAITED TODAY TO HEAR WHO WOULD DO WHAT WITH WHICH WEAPONS IN ANOTHER WAR.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL AND THE TOP COMMANDERS OF THE THREE SERVICES WERE EXPECTED TO PROVIDE AT LEAST PART OF THE ANSWERS, THRESHED OUT IN FOUR DAYS OF UNINTERRUPTED CONFERENCE AT THE KEY WEST, FLA., NAVAL BASE.

THE MILITARY CHIEFS HEADED BACK TO WASHINGTON LAST NIGHT.

THE TALKS, ORDERED BY FORRESTAL IN AN ATTEMPT TO END LONG-STANDING ARGUMENTS OVER THE PART EACH SERVICE SHOULD HAVE IN WAGING WAR, WERE CARRIED ON AT THE "LITTLE WHITE HOUSE" USED OCCASIONALLY BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

THE SAME SECURITY THAT SHELTERS THE PRESIDENT CLOAKED THE CONFEREES AND NO INKLING OF DEVELOPMENTS CAME WHILE THE MEETING WAS IN PROGRESS. A BARE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE TALKS WERE CONCLUDED LATE YESTERDAY SHED NO FURTHER LIGHT.

ALTHOUGH THE SESSION WAS HELD AGAINST THE DARK BACKGROUND OF STRAINED U.S.-RUSSIAN RELATIONS, OFFICIALS INSISTED THE MEETING DID NOT REFLECT ANY IMMEDIATE MILITARY CRISIS.

RATHER IT WAS AN EFFORT TO IRON OUT ARGUMENTS WHICH HAVE HARASSED THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF SINCE THAT ORGANIZATION OF BRASS AND GOLD BRAID WAS FORMED BY THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SOON AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR II.

IN ADDITION, THE GATHERING WAS INTENDED AS A FURTHER STEP TOWARD UNIFYING THE THREE SERVICES INTO A SINGLE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT.

NEVERTHELESS, RECENT GRAVE PRONOUNCEMENTS BY MR. TRUMAN, SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL AND OTHERS ON THE TREND OF WORLD AFFAIRS SERVED TO UNDERSCORE THE IMPORTANCE OF THE SESSION.

FORRESTAL, IN ANNOUNCING PLANS FOR THE MEETING LAST WEEK, SHIED AWAY FROM THE IDEA OF PRODUCING A SPECIFIC STRATEGIC PLAN. HE SAID ANY "FROZEN CONCEPT" TO MEET SPECIFICALLY EXPECTED CONDITIONS IS NOT DESIRABLE. SUCH "FREEZING OF IDEAS PUT MR. HITLER ON HIS EAR," FORRESTAL COMMENTED.

BUT HE DID THINK--AND THAT'S WHY HE CALLED HIS COMMANDERS INTO THE HUDDLE--THAT THE POINTS ON WHICH THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE DISAGREED COULD BE CONSIDERED AND AGREEMENTS REACHED. IF THEY COULDN'T AGREE, FORRESTAL THOUGHT HE WULD "HAVE TO MAKE M

AGREE, FORRESTAL THOUGH HE WOULD "HAVE TO MAKE MY OWN DECISIONS."

DURING THE WAR, IT TOOK THE PRESIDENT TO SETTLE SOME OF THE JOINT CHIEFS' ARGUMENTS. WHETHER FORRESTAL COULD ACCOMPLISH THAT ALONE OR MIGHT HAVE TO TURN TO THE WHITE HOUSE REMAINED TO BE SEEN.

AMONG THE OLD, STILL-UNSETTLED WRANGLES TAKEN TO FLORIDA WAS THAT OF THE RESPECTIVE ROLES OF THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY IN ATTACKING ENEMY SHORE TARGETS AND, TO A LESSER DEGREE, NAVAL TARGETS. NAVY AND AIR FORCE MEN NEVER DID AGREE, ESPECIALLY WITH REGARD TO THE BOMBING OF JAPAN, JUST WHAT TARGETS SHOULD BE THOSE OF THE AIR FORCE AND THOSE OF THE NAVY. AT SEA, NOTABLY IN THE ATLANTIC, THERE WAS CONTROVERSY ABOUT ANTI-SUBMARINE PATROL, WHETHER IT SHOULD BE DIRECTED BY THE AIR FORCE OR THE NAVY. THOUGHT THE WAR IS OVER, THESE ARGUMENTS AREN'T--OR WEREN'T UP TO THE WEEKEND HUDDLE.

U.N.--CZECHOSLOVAK (280)

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 15-(AP)-A TEST OF STRENGTH BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA ON CZECHOSLOVAKIA WAS FORECAST TODAY.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE U.S. IS READY TO VOTE FOR A UNITED NATIONS DEBATE ON THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE TEST COMES WEDNESDAY WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL DECIDES WHETHER TO ADMIT TO ITS CALENDAR CHILE'S DEMANDS FOR A PROBE OF RUSSIA'S ALLEGED PART IN THE COUP.

DELEGATES EXPRESSED CERTAINTY RUSSIA WILL OPPOSE BITTERLY DEBATE ON THE ISSUE. SOME PREDICTED SHE MIGHT STAGE ANOTHER WALKOUT AS IN THE IRANIAN CASE.

THE INFORMANTS SAID YESTERDAY THE AMERICAN DECISION WAS MADE AFTER CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

THE U.S. STAND MERELY IS THAT A HEARING SHOULD BE GIVEN CHILE'S PROPOSAL, THEY SAID, AND DOES NOT COMMIT THE U.S. TO SUPPORT ANY SPECIFIC COUNCIL ACTION.

ONLY SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES ARE NEEDED TO ASSURE COUNCIL CONSIDERATION OF THE MATTER, THE BIG POWER VETO DOES NOT APPLY TO ADMISSION OF ITEMS TO THE AGENDA.

30.24- 16283

A U.N. INVESTIGATION OF THE COUP FIRST WAS SOUGHT LAST WEDNESDAY BY DR. JAN PAPANEK, CZECHOSLOVAK ANTI-COMMUNIST DELEGATE. PAPANEK ATTACKED THE NEW COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT IN PRAGUE AND ACCUSED RUSSIA OF HELPING THE COMMUNISTS GAIN CONTROL THROUGH "THREAT OF THE USE OF MILITARY FORCE."

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE RULED OUT THE CHARGE AS A "NON-GOVERNMENTAL" MOVE.

THREE DAYS LATER THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT NOTIFIED THE U.N. THAT PAPANEK HAD BEEN FIRED AS A DELEGATE. THE LATTER SAID HE WOULD CONTINUE, HOWEVER, UNTIL RECALLED BY PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES HIMSELF.

THE CASE THEN WAS PLACED BEFORE THE SECRETARIAT FRIDAY BY CHILEAN DELEGATE HERNAN SANTA CRUZ. SANTA CRUZ ACCUSED RUSSIA OF FOLLOWING NAZI TACTICS AND DEMANDED A U.N. PROBE.

HIS STATEMENT SAID:

"THE WORLD FINDS ITSELF FACING AN EXACT REPETITION OF THE ACTIONS AND METHODS NAZI GERMANY EMPLOYED IN THE YEARS PRECEDING THE LAST WORLD WAR, AND WHICH WERE ITS DEFINITE CAUSE."

THE STATEMENT SAID THE COUP "WOULD INDICATE THAT WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY ARE IN IMMINENT DANGER, BECAUSE OF AN INTERNATIONAL ACTION CONTRARY TO THE (U.N.) CHARTER ON THE PART OF A MEMBER STATE AGAINST ANOTHER STATE."

BY GEORGE PALMER

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS LITTLE ASSEMBLY HAD ITS FIRST PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF THE BIG POWER VETO PROBLEM TODAY.

IN A TWO-HOUR SESSION MANY DELEGATES CRITICIZED THE USE OF THE VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL--WHERE RUSSIA HAS USED IT 22 TIMES. THEY INDICATED A GENERAL WILLINGNESS TO ENTER INTO FUTURE DISCUSSIONS IN HOPES OF MODIFYING THE COUNCIL'S VOTING PROCEDURE.

THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY, BOYCOTTED AS USUAL BY RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES, THEN TOOK A FIRST STEP TOWARD SUCH DISCUSSIONS BY CREATING A 17-NATION SUB-COMMITTEE.

U.S. DELEGATE PHILIP C.JESSUP OPENED THE VETO DEBATE WITH A CALL FOR DRASTIC RESTRICTION OF ITS USE.

THE U.S. WOULD NOT SEEK A COMPLETE ABOLITION OF THE VETO, JSEEUP SAID. HE POINTED OUT THIS WOULD BE VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE SINCE THE U.N. CHARTER CAN BE AMENDED ONLY WITH UNANIMOUS CONSENT OF ALL THE BIG POWERS.

RUSSIA HAS INSISTED SHE WOULD NEVER AGREE TO ELIMINATION OF THE VETO.

"THE ONLY WAY TO LIBERALIZE THE VOTING PROCEDURE," JESSUP SAID, "IS BY CONSULTATION AMONG THE BIG POWERS." HE SAID THE U.S. PROGRAM WAS DESIGNED TO INITIATE A CAREFUL STUDY OF THE WHOLE QUESTION IN THE 1948 U.N. ASSEMBLY, SCHEDULED TO OPEN IN PARIS NEXT SEPTEMBER.

NEW YORK, MARCH 15-(AP)-THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE FOR PALESTINE AGREED TODAY TO CONSULT WITH THE BIG POWERS ON THE PALESTINE CRISIS.

THE DECISION WAS ANNOUNCED BY ISA NAKHLEH, NEW YORK REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ARAB COMMITTEE, AS DELEGATES OF THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, FRANCE AND CHINA WENT INTO THEIR FIFTH AND FINAL SESSION ON PALESTINE.

NAKHLEH ENTERED THE CONFERENCE ROOM ABOUT 45 MINUTES AFTER THE MEETING BEGAN. HE DECLINED TO INDICATE WHAT HE WOULD TELL THE CONFEREES.

THEY MET AT THE CHINESE DELEGATION OFFICES IN THE EMPIRE STATE BUILDING.

THE ARAB GROUP HAS REFUSED TO TAKE PART IN ANY UNITED NATIONS DISCUSSIONS ON IMPLEMENTATION OF THE U.N. PARTITION PLAN. NAHKLEH WAS EXPECTED TO CONFINE HIMSELF TO ANSWERING A SERIES OF QUESTIONS SUBMITTED BY THE BIG POWERS LAST WEEK.

JEWISH AGENCY REPRESENTATIVES SAT WITH THE BIG POWERS AT THEIR AST PREVIOUS SECRET MEETING ON FRIDAY.

NO AGREEMENT WAS IN SIGHT ON A JOINT PROGRAM OF ACTION AS THE BIG POWERS WENT INTO SESSION.

THIS WAS THEIR LAST CHANCE TO AGREE ON RECOMMENDATIONS BEFORE THEY REPORTED BACK TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL AT 2:30 P. M.

THE COUNCIL VOTED MARCH 5 TO GIVE THE BIG POWERS UNTIL TODAY TO CONSULT ON A PLAN OF ACTION TO CARRY OUT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S 1947 RECOMMENDATION TO PARTITION THE HOLY LAND.

BRITAIN REFUSED TO TAKE PART IN THE DISCUSSIONS ON THE GROUND THAT SHE COULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY EFFORTS TO IMPLEMENT PARTITION.

INFORMED QUARTERS EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES WERE TOO FAR APART TO REACH AN AGREEMENT AT THIS LATE HOUR. FOR THAT REASON, IT WAS EXPECTED THAT EACH OF THE BIG POWERS WOULD GIVE THE COUNCIL ITS OWN VIEWS OF WHAT SHOULD BE DONE.

CHIEF U. S. DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN STILL CLUNG TO HIS HOPES THAT A "PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT" MIGHT YET BE REACHED THROUGH JEWISH-ARAB CONCILIATION.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A.GROMYKO HAD NOT INDICATED WHAT HEMIGHT RECOMMEND. HE MAINTAINED, HOWEVER, THAT JEWISH-ARAB CONCILIATION MOVES WOULD LEAD NOWHERE.

AUSTIN'S POSITION WAS BOLSTERED TO SOME EXTENT BY A DISPATCH FROM BAGHDAD, IRAQ, REPORTING AN EXTRAORDINARY MEETING OF THE ARAB FOREIGN MINISTERS TOMORROW AT BEIRUT. THE ARAB LEADERS WERE SAID TO BE TRYING TO WORK OUT A NEW PLAN TO REPLACE THE PARTITION SCHEME.

MEANWHILE, THE SECURITY COUNCIL PREPARED FOR A BITTER FIGHT WEDNESDAY ON THE CZECHOSLOVAK QUESTION.

INFORMED QUARTERS REPORTED THE UNITED STATES WAS READY TO VOTE FOR A FULL AIRING OF CHILE'S COMPLAINT, WHICH CALLED FOR A U. N. INVESTIGATION OF RUSSIA'S ALLEGED ROLE IN THE FEB. 25 COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

Truman Holds Parley With Advisers on Eve Of Congress Message

NO HINT IS GIVEN BY PRESIDENT ON WHAT HE WILL SAY

Expected to Stress Russian Peril, American Military Affairs.

TAX DEBATE DELAYED

Message Might Halt Move to Cut Levy, Barkley Declares.

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) President Truman conferred with his top advisers—military, diplomatic and economic—tonight as he completed his tensely awaited state of the world message.

But he called off a meeting he had scheduled with four Congressional leaders for 11 a. m. (EST) tomorrow—an hour and a half before he is to address Congress and the nation.

One of the Congress leaders, House Speaker Martin (R-Mass), said in a statement that "the constant advance of the iron curtain across Europe has created a grave crisis in our international relations."

The make-up of the group which met with Mr. Truman gave a fresh indication that his message will concern both Russia and American military affairs.

Besides Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Secretary of Commerce Harriman, it included the State Department's chief Russian expert, Counselor Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen.

No Hint About Message

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, another of those present, declined to say whether Forrestal's presence indicated the president would put heavy emphasis on defense matters.

The speech, expected to run 15 or 20 minutes, will be delivered to a joint session of Congress and broadcast by major networks at 12:30 p. m., EST, tomorrow.

Cancellation of tomorrow morning's meeting with the Senate and House leaders apparently meant that legislative leaders will have little if any advance knowledge of what the president will say.

The White House explained that two of those invited, Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Barkley (D-Ky), would be attending an important meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations committee at about that time.

Vandenberg's office said a short time earlier that he had turned down the White House invitation because of the Foreign Relations committee meeting, which is to continue hearings on Greek-Turkish aid.

The Michigan Senator, who is chairman of the committee, declined to elaborate. He told a reporter previously that he had not been consulted about the president's world affairs speech.

Those who had been called to the White House, presumably to get a preview of the president's talk, were Vandenberg, Barkley, Martin and House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas.

Martin's statement spotlighted the April 18 Italian elections as the coming test between communism and western democracy.

The house speaker declared that "the fate of civilization is at stake." And he declared this country must become "absolutely supreme" on land, on the sea and in the air.

"There is no reason," Martin said, "for the American people to be other than perfectly calm."

The world's attention was focused on President Truman's scheduled speech. The president cancelled a number of appointments to work on it.

Despite some indications that the president would confine himself to reviewing international affairs, rather than making any sensational pronouncements, Congress held itself ready for anything that might come.

Tax Cut Debate Relayed

The senate postponed until Thursday the beginning of debate on a $4,700,000,000 income tax cutting measure. Barkley said the Truman message "might present a situation that would make it utterly futile to attempt to reduce taxes."

And in the house, Rep. Cox (D-Ga) said he hopes Mr. Truman will tell congress that "one more act of aggression by Russia means war."

Martin said of the Italian elections that "a communist victory would mean communism would rule in the Mediterranean and unquestionably dominate all of Europe." It would prevent Italy's rehabilitation and destroy the freedom of the people, he said.

He urged Americans of Italian descent to send air mail letters to relatives in Italy "pointing out the peril and urging defeat of the communist party."

"A 15-cent stamp might turn the tide for peace," the speaker said. turn the tide for peace," the speak-

Congressional leaders hoped President Truman's speech tomorrow would answer two grave questions:

Just what phase of the conflict between Russia and the west has led Mr. Truman to say that his confidence in world peace is somewhat shaken, and Secretary of State Marshall to declare that a "world crisis" exists?

Just what does Mr. Truman want the United States to do about it?

They look for a statement on U. S. policy toward Italy, the current no man's land between communism and western democracy, in particular.

British Predict Truman Will Warn Russ To Halt

London, March 16 (AP)—Diplomats and newspapers forecast tonight that President Truman would give Russia a plain and positive warning tomorrow to halt communist expansion.

Belief was general that the Chief Executive would extend his policy of combatting the spread of Communist influence and that the extension would go beyond the present limits of economic aid for shaky democracies.

Diplomats said Mr. Truman must have been influenced by the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, Russian demands on Finland, and the intensive Communist campaign in the Italian elections.

May Warn: "No Further"

The London Times said in an tditorial:

"The extreme proposal which is being discussed in Washington is whether the United States should enter a regional security pact with Britain, France and the Benelux countries similar to that already applied to the Americas."

The Liberal London Evening Star said in banner headlines that "Truman Has Be-Prepared Plan." The report said the plan may include an offer of a 50-year United States military alliance with the five Western European nations.

Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard said: "Truman May Warn Russia: 'No Further.'"

Disclaim Advance Knowledge

Since the Czechoslovak coup, British newspapers have been contending that United States economic aid, to be effective, should be strengthened by military guarantees. The likelihood of strong opposition in Congress has been acknowledged.

The British Foreign Office disclaimed any advance knowledge of Mr. Truman's plan to speak to the joint session tomorrow. If the President had plans for a formal alliance with western Europe, it is probable that at least preliminary discussions would have been made with the British.

Britain to Hear Truman

LONDON, March 16 (AP)—The British Broadcasting Corporation announced tonight it would broadcast President Truman's address tomorrow at 6:30 P. M. British summer time (12:30 P. M. Eastern standard time).

Only Peacetime Army, Moscow Radio Says

London, Wednesday, March 17 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today Russia was the only nation among the great powers to "place its armed forces really on a peacetime basis."

The unidentified broadcaster, speaking in English, said the demobilization program was "more proof of the peaceful aspirations of the Soviet Government, which does not harbor any expansionist designs."

The decree means, the commentator said, that "our army will consist in the main of young men called up for their normal period of service."

Marshall-Plan Role Voted To Western Germany

Paris, March 16 (AP)—The European Recovery Conference voted unanimously today to include western Germany in the scope of the Marshall plan.

Portugal proposed that Spain also be included. Action on this suggestion was deferred. The recovery program will be financed by the United States at an estimated first year cost of $5,300,000,000.

The conference of the sixteen nations charged its experts to draw up statutes of a permanent organization and articles of a treaty to bind it.

The experts will go on with their work in closed meetings and release their decisions from time to time.

Allies To Represent Reich

Herve Alphand, of the French Foreign Office, read the report recommending the inclusion of western Germany in the recovery program.

"It being impossible to achieve the economic unity of Germany, it was thus reasonable that the French zone and the Anglo-American bizone be independent members of the Committee for European Reconstruction," Alphand said.

The three western zones of Germany will be represented by delegates from the Allied military governments, assisted by competent officials," Alphand said. The reference was understood to mean German officials. Alphand said the question of a vote for the German delegates would not arise.

U.S. To Get Progress Data

The conference also adopted without objection a report on progress to be submitted to the United States.

Foreign Minister Oesten Under of Sweden told the conference his Government believed that "the moment has arrived to take a decision" for the reconstruction of Europe.

Karl J. Burckhart, Swiss Minister to Paris, said Switzerland "would like to reaffirm its confidence in the nations" co-operating to restore Europe. He said Switzerland would make the "fullest contribution."

The conference completed its agenda at 10.17 A.M.

Closing Speech By Bevin

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said in a closing speech:

"I am convinced that the fate of Europe and the world will be decided by the intensity of our work during the next few months. The war against poverty and want will be won.

"We must be ready immediately to go into action as soon as the European reconstruction program is decided. We must bring hope and security to the working masses and liberty to all."

The German resolution and all other decisions of a committee of officials were adopted unanimously.

Greece Enters Reservation

Greek Foreign Minister Constantin Tsaldaris, however, entered a reservation for his country on the progress report of the United States.

The reservation was on a point in the report predicting Europe could be self-sustaining at the completion of the recovery program in 1951.

Tsaldaris said the "reduction of aid to Greece," which he said was one of the results of the report of American observers sent there, had made it "less likely" that this goal would be achieved by Greece.

Minor Corrections Due

Officials said publication of the progress report and the working party's terms of reference would be delayed for minor corrections.

It was Portugal Foreign Minister Jose Caeiro da Mata, who proposed that Spain be included. He praised Spain as having made a great contribution to European culture and mentioned her "considerable agricultural resources."

"Can't Be Barred For Long"

"It is not easy to understand how it would be possible to keep a country like Spain for a long time outside our deliberations," da Mata said. He approved the invitation to German representatives.

Da Mata did not make a formal motion for admission of Spain. He "invited the nations to study" it at an "opportune moment."

After Da Mata sat down, Bevin called on the next speaker without making any comment. The committee therefore received no instructions on the subject from the conference and remains free to ignore it for the time being. Other delegations appeared cool to the idea of admitting Spain, at least until the permanent organization is set up.

5 Nations Cancel Speech

To speed the work of the conference, or for other unspecified reasons, representatives of five countries canceled their speeches. These were the delegates of the three Benelux nations—Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—and Iceland and Norway.

The Marshall plan union thus began taking shape.

GERMAN SPLIT IS RECOGNIZED

West Zones Given Places On Economics Pact Group

Paris, March 16 (AP)—The foreign ministers of western Europe bowed reluctantly today to division of Germany and voted to bring the three western occupation zones into their plan for continental organization.

At the close of a two-day meeting the delegates from sixteen Marshall-plan nations set up a working committee to draft a treaty for mutual economic aid to make themselves strong against communism and a charter for a permanent European organization to carry out the pact.

The United States will contribute to the organization through billions of dollars in aid under the Marshall plan. Left outside are the Soviet Union, the Soviet-occupied zone of Germany and the Communist-led satellite states, avowed foes of the European recovery program.

The conference instructed the working committee to take in delegates from the Allied military governments of the French zone and the economically merged British-American zones. The step increased the working committee to eighteen delegations, and amounted to bringing western Germany back into the family of nations so far as European economy is concerned.

The committee will start its work tomorrow. Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, urged it to "do a thorough job and do it quickly."

Linked To World Fate

He added: "The fate of Europe and the world will be decided by the intensity of our work during the next few months."

The first task of the committee will be to make minor corrections in the conference report of progress in European economic cooperation and technical reports adopted at today's session.

The conference heard a plea from Jose Caeiro de Mata, Portuguese Foreign Minister, for inclusion of Spain in the work of continental reconstruction "in due time," but took no action.

He referred to the manpower and material resources of the Iberian peninsula and its strategic position. He made no formal motion of Spanish entry into the organization.

Viewed As Inevitable

The conference virtually accepted division of Germany as inevitable in adopting unanimously a six-point resolution on German participation.

The resolution, drafted by a commission of technicians from the sixteen nations, said full co-operation of Germany is essential for the economic reconstruction of Europe.

Recognizing this, the conference declared:

"The economic unity of Germany not having been possible to establish, the Anglo-American bizone and the French zone are to be considered as independent participating members."

Concession By France

This considerable concession by France, who has opposed the rebuilding of Germany into a powerful rival, was prepared at a recent London conference of Britain, the United States and France on the future of Germany. There France accepted the principle of the importance of the German economy to Europe.

The conference declared that each of the zonal delegations would be expected to sign the projected multilateral treaty. In this and all other cases the military government delegates would sign on behalf of their respective zones.

The conference resolution on Germany specified the occupation delegates and their voteless German advisers would participate on a footing of equality in the permanent organization and in any special committees. At least one delegation of German advisers was known to be waiting in Frankfurt with bags packed for the conference invitation.

Two Make Reservations

Constantin Tsaldaris, Greek Foreign Minister, and Necmeddin Sadak, Turkish Foreign Minister, each made reservations as the conference adopted the report on progress in economic co-operation.

Tsaldaris noted it assumed Europe would be self-supporting by 1951. He said he did not believe this would be true in Greece.

Sadak said printed copies of the report had been made available just the night before and he had not had time for sufficient study.

The conference approved observations made by the agriculture, power, steel and iron, coal, transport and manpower technical committees on the American administration's report of commodities available in the United States for export.

Three Committee Tasks

The delegates approved instructions to the working committee. They gave the committee three tasks:

1. To prepare for the next meeting of the conference a detailed outline of what the permanent six-teen-nation body should be like.
2. To write a treaty to be signed by all participating countries.
3. To make ready for the next meeting of the conference.

The working committee, which will meet in the Royal Monceau Hotel, was instructed to keep its discussions secret.

Two U.S. Observers

The American Government had two observers at today's session. They were Harry Labouisse, special assistant in the State Department's European affairs department, and Frederick Straus, of the Commerce Department.

Labouisse said he would set up headquarters here for the duration of the working committee's sessions to be available for consultation.

Today's conference session was the last until the working committee is ready to report three or four weeks from now.

Bevin will leave tomorrow for Brussels to sign the five-power pact for a western European union with France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

ITALY RAPS REDS ON REPARATIONS

Accuses Russia of Seeking to Divert Industries to Own Advantage

ROME, March 16—(AP) A foreign office statement accused Russia tonight of seeking to divert part of Italy's industry "to the sole advantage of the Soviet Union."

The statement in effect rejected current Russian demands that payment of $100,000,000 in war reparations to Russia be arranged in advance.

Russia has insisted that the question of reparations, payments of which is scheduled to begin Sept. 15, 1949, be tied to negotiations for a commercial treaty between the two countries.

The statement said a Russian note of March 9 made it "obvious that Italian industry should immediately plan and begin all work relating to deliveries of Italian goods to the account of Russian reparations."

Russia, the statement continued, "implies obviously that Italian economy should divert part of its efforts of national recovery to dedicate them from now on and in advance to the execution of our duties to the sole advantage of the Soviet Union.

"The Italian government believes it impossible to anticipate the payment of these reparations."

Russia and Italy have exchanged several notes recently pertaining to talks for a commercial pact under which Russian grain would be traded for Italian manufactured goods.

Italian communists have accused Premier Alcide De Gasperi's government of stalling the trade negotiations at the request of the United States.

Tonight's declaration was seen in some circles as a break by Italy in the trade negotiations, although the statement said officials still are studying the Soviet note.

A formal reply to Russia is expected after Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza returns from the current Paris conference on the Marshall Plan.

The statement said that no other nation to which Italy owes reparations has made a similar request.

Under the terms of the Italian peace treaty, Italy is obliged to pay $125,000,000 to Yugoslavia, $105,000,000 to Greece, $25,000,000 to Ethiopia and $5,000,000 to Albania.

Russia's demands are "all the more singular inasmuch as France, Britain, the United States and China have renounced totally all right to reparations on their own account," the statement said.

Italy Adds 30,000 To Its Security Force

Rome, March 16 (AP)—The Government has added 30,000 men to its public security forces and is strong enough to smash any revolution attempt by the extreme Left, Randolfo Pacciardi, Vice Premier, said today.

Pacciardi, chief of the Cabinet public order committee, disclosed in an interview that the security forces had been bulwarked by recruits from the army who are "modernly armed, trained in street fighting and rationally disposed about the country with due regard to danger areas."

Loyalist In Spain

The critical period for Italy will follow the April 18 national elections and Pacciardi predicted the Government will be in an even better position then to meet any attempted revolt.

He is head of the small Leftist Republican party which with the Labor Socialists joined the Government of Premier Alcide de Gasperi in December. He is a Loyalist veteran of the civil war in Spain and of partisan warfare in Italy during the last war.

He predicted the Communist-led Popular Front will not get a majority in the coming elections and the present coalition will continue to lead the country.

U.S. Announcement Views

"I think the extremists have realized that they cannot win with violence and will not try it," he added. "The police have been enormously reinforced, in numbers, arms and organization. I think we can continue to govern democratically."

Pacciardi said he believes the United States State Department announcement that Italy will receive no Marshall-plan aid if she goes Communist will have little effect on the campaign.

A Government source said the statement would throw down Communist assertions that Italy would continue to receive American aid even though the Communists win at the polls.

Other observers said the American statement would clarify the issue for the 27,000,000 voters, who will now realize that nearly $3,000,000,000 in American aid proposed under the Marshall plan will be definitely lost if they mark the Communist ballot.

Italy Alerted for Coup.

Rome, March 16 (A. P.).—Italy has added 30,000 Army men to public security forces and "can break any illegal attempt from the left" to seize power, Vice-Premier Tandolfo Pacciardi announced today.

In the critical period which will follow the national elections of April 18, the Government "will be in an even better position to meet any attempted revolt," said Pacciardi, who is chief of the Cabinet's public order committee.

Coalition Victory Predicted.

In that period the new government must be formed on the basis of the elections. Pacciardi predicted that the Communist-led Popular Front will not get a majority. He said that the coalition which now makes up the government will be continued in the post-election Assembly.

JEWISH REFUGEES TRAINING IN ITALY

ROME, March 16—(AP) If you could look with the eyes of Rubin Jankovics at a two-inch cube of steel you would see that it is more than that.

To 16-year-old Rubin, Warsaw Jewish refugee and sole survivor of a family of six, the cube promises independence and a new life.

Shaped to a thousandth of an inch with nothing but the help of a lathe and a file, the cube is a first step in one of the courses offered by the Organization for Reconstruction and Training (ORT) to Jewish refugees. The courses aim at providing quick economic independence in foreign countries or Palestine.

This year ORT is training 2,000 refugees in Italy. It hopes to increase this to 3,000 soon.

Origins of ORT date to Czarist Russia, where anti-Semitism barred Jews from professional activities. From slight beginnings in 1880, it has grown to 24 national branches now training 30,000 throughout Europe.

Most of these trainees hope that the new skills they are acquiring will enable them to contribute to the building of the Jewish state in Palestine.

In schools made available to ORT by Italian authorities, the most frequent sign is this:

"Work is the road to freedom."

Under the sign, boys who perhaps never went to school and older men who once taught in schools—occasionaly even a doctor of philosophy—are learning how to use their hands. Young Jankowicz is typical.

18 Flee Yugoslavia To Avoid Army Duty

Trieste, March 16 (AP)—Venezia Giulia police said today eighteen youths had fled from Yugoslavia into the British-American zone of the Free Territory in the past 48 hours to avoid Yugoslav army service.

Police said the young men, who come from the part of Yugoslavia which formerly belonged to Italy, probably will be handled as refugees and be given a chance to go to Italy.

Under the Italian peace treaty persons of Italian descent are given a year to decide whether they want to remain in what is now Yugoslavia or to go to Italy. Pro-Italian newspapers here charge that Yugoslav red tape blocks many who want to leave the Istrian sector around Fiume.

Secret Swedish Army Plan Has Disappeared

Stockholm, March 16 (AP)—A secret military plan "containing information of extreme importance" has disappeared from a Swedish army safe, the Attorney General's office announced today.

The announcement said Capt. Nore Engstroem and Fritz Hallberg, director of civil defense for Skaraborg province, will be tried in a civil court in connection with the plan's disappearance.

Hallberg will be tried under a law concerning "unlawful appropriation short of theft," and Engstroem on a charge of "negligence and misjudgment in service," the announcement said.

The Attorney General's office said Engstroem borrowed the plan from a local military staff January 3, 1947, and did not report its disappearance until August 22. He was quoted as saying he put the plan in a safe to which the civil defense director had a key.

Norway to Bolster Defense.

Oslo, March 16 (A. P.).—Parliament voted 100,000,000 kroner ($20,000,000) today to strengthen Norway's military and civil preparedness. Only eleven Communists and one Laborite opposed the bill.

Umberto Arrives In Madrid

Madrid, March 16 (AP)—Former King Umberto II of Italy arrived today by auto from Portugal. His plans were not disclosed.

HEAVY WATER CASE JAILS 2

Germans Convicted Of Having Atom Test Material

Munich, March 16 (AP)—Two Germans caught with eight gallons of heavy water—used in some atomic experiments—were convicted and jailed today by a United States military government court.

The prosecution displayed as evidence two aluminum flasks salvaged from Nazi Germany's unsuccessful attempts to make an atom bomb. United States counterintelligence agents kept a tight guard over the proceedings. The trial was the first of its kind in Europe.

3 Others To Be Tried

Judge Benjamin Reich, of Cleveland, sentenced Dorothea Bartels, 30, to a year in jail, and suspended three months of her sentence. Hanns Floerke was sentenced to nine months in jail, with six months suspended. Neither had any previou police record.

Three other defendants, two of them Yugoslavs, will be tried Friday. All five were charged with violating Allied Control Council regulations on war materials by transporting and storing heavy water.

Heavy water is a compound which contains an isotope of hydrogen twice as heavy as ordinary hydrogen. The isotope is known as deuterium. Whereas the formula for ordinary water is H20, the formula for heavy water is D20. Heavy water was discovered about fifteen years ago by Dr. Harold Urey, noted atomic scientist then at Columbia University and now at Chicago University.

She Needed Money

Sources in the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington, who had expressed interest in this case, have explained that heavy water is not used in United States nuclear fission research, though it is in other countries. Heavy water is a commercial item in the United States, available on the open market.

Miss Bartels said she got the heavy water from her brother, a German army chemist, at Munich in April, 1945, as the Third Reich crumbled. She said he told her the flasks would mean emergency money for him some day.

A few hours later, she said, her brother was killed, and she buried the flasks in the woods. She said she dug them up several months ago when she needed money so that she might eat.

"My brother told me they were heavy water, but I didn't know what that meant," she said. She added she knew the bottles were valuable and tried to get 20,000 marks ($2,000) each for them.

Floerke said he knew the significance of the heavy water but said he had planned to turn the matter over to United States authorities. He said he thought he would get a reward.

Communist Is Ousted

Frankfurt, Germany, March 16 (AP)—German Communists opened a campaign of denunciation tonight as one of their leading legislators was suspended from western Germany's economic parliament.

Max Reimann, Communist veteran from the heavily populated Ruhr mining area, was voted out for two months from the British-American zones' German economic council for what was called an "unbearable insult."

He was alleged to have told a February 28 press conference that he considered as "traitors" all politicians who supported merger of the British-American zones.

Others Berated

Reimann, shouting protests, picked up his hat and left the assembly chamber. A short time later, his fellow Communist legislators began to berate other German politicians.

One denounced the council's new chief executive, Premier Dr. Hermann Puender, as a friend of the Nazis and demanded a vote of no confidence. The 104-man council ignored the demand.

Reimann was suspended after he refused to answer a question from Dr. Erich Koehler, council president.

Koehler said the question was drafted by all non-Communist parties. They wanted to know if Reimann considered any of the council members to be traitors to Germany.

Major Legislative Body

"I'll only answer that if I want to," Reimann replied. "Mr. President, I don't want to be examined by you."

The council adjourned for an hour, and then the committee of elders asked for a vote to suspend Reimann. All members except the council's six Communists and a small number of Leftwing Social Democrats voted Reimann out. The council is the British-American zones' major legislative body handling economic affairs.

"Out To Wreck Council"

August M. Euler, head of the council's Rightwing Liberal Democratic party element, said "I fear the Communists will strengthen their campaign against the economic council. It is not us, but the Communists, who are trying to divide Germany. Russia wants to destroy freedom everywhere—and it is doing it even here."

Dr. Theophil Kauffmann, deputy council leader of the Conservative Christian Social Union, said "there's no doubt now that the Communists are out to wreck the council. They probably will increase their opposition and their denunciations of all politicians who are trying to put Germany back on its feet."

Hunger Abroad

More Food For Reich

Frankfurt, Germany, March 16 (AP)—British and American authorities announced today an increase in the German food ration in their zones.

They said that, beginning April 1, Germans in their combined western zones would get a ration of 1,560 calories a day.

During recent months the ration ran as low as 1,100 calories a day in some areas, although the target was 1,550.

The joint announcement came as reports reached Frankfurt of new Russian attempts to win Communist votes in the eastern zone with promises of more food.

Reports reaching German sources from the Russian sector said after the next harvest Prime Minister Stalin is expected to order the ration increased to 2,800 calories a day in the east.

British and American authorities said the increase in their zones was made possible by improved German food production and imports from the United States.

Less Meat For British

London, March 16 (AP)—Britain's meager fresh-meat ration was cut some more today.

Effective next Sunday, the Food Ministry announced, the present ration of fresh meat worth a shilling (20 cents) a week will be trimmed to 10 pence (16.6 cents) worth of fresh meat and 2 pence (3.32 cents) worth of canned corned beef.

A shilling now buys two small lamb chops or a minute bit of beef or steak which housewives piece out with fish or liver. The Food Ministry said the new cut was necessary to conserve dwindling cattle and sheep herds.

More Bread For France

Paris, March 16 (AP) — Premier Robert Schuman announced today that France will be self-sufficient in bread if the promise of this year's wheat harvest is made good.

The Premier added that the bread ration would be increased after the harvest from the present eight ounces daily.

Farm production, Schuman said, will be at 91 per cent of normal this year. Industrial production is 105 per cent of that of 1938.

Appeal For Help

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 16 (AP)—The Yugoslav Red Cross appealed today for help in caring for the increasing number of refugee children coming in from Greece.

[Greece has accused guerrillas of kidnapping Greek children and spiriting them into the Communist-dominated states of Yugoslavia, Albania, Bulgaria and Romania. The United Nations Commission for the Balkans has instructed observers in northern Greece to investigate.]

The Yugoslav appeal was addressed to the International Red Cross and similar agencies. The statement asserted that Greek "pogroms" had forced great numbers of children and others to flee from what was called "Monarcho-Fascist terror." It said the children "are without clothing, hungry and exhausted."

POLAND, SOVIET ZONE SIGN

Trade Pact Calls for Exchange of Goods Totaling $56,000,000

BERLIN, March 16 (AP)—Poland has signed a new trade agreement with the Soviet zone of Germany providing for the exchange of goods amounting to $56,000,000.

Lieut. Col. H. Meller of the Polish mission here, in announcing the agreement, said the Soviet zone would export potash, wood, scrap iron, machinery, chemicals and other goods to Poland. The Soviet zone will receive coal, coke, benzol, pig iron and foodstuffs, particularly fish.

Trade under the 1947 agreement between Poland and the Soviet zone totaled $26,000,000. Poland also has agreements with the British and American zones of Germany, but on a smaller scale.

Czech Treaty Planned For Soviet Zone

Berlin, March 16 (A. P.).—Officials of the Russian zone of Germany today announced plans for speeding up the negotiation of trade and economic ties with the Soviet-sphere countries of southeastern Europe. This program was regarded by the American authorities here as the Soviet's answer to the inclusion of western Germany in the Marshall plan.

The first step in the accelerated program will be the conclusion of a new trade agreement between eastern Germany and the new Communist Government of Czechoslovakia, it was announced by Josef Orlopp, the Soviet zone's Trade Minister.

Czech Parliament Summoned

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 16 (AP)—The Czech Parliament was summoned tonight to convene tomorrow. One of its first acts will be to vote on the arrest and trial for treason of five of its members.

The decree calling on Parliament to open its spring session was issued in the name of President Eduard Benes.

Parliament's immunity committee demanded today that the legislators strip immunity from arrest from the five members, paving the way for their arrest and trial.

These deputies included Vladimir Krajina, former general secretary of the Czech National Socialist party; Jan Ursiny, former deputy premier; Fedor Hodza, former secretary-general of the Slovak Democratic party, and Alois Cizek, accused of being Krajina's aide in an alleged plot to spy on the security police.

Reports On Benes's Son

The Leftist newspaper Prace reported, however, that Krajina and Cizek already have fled the country following the recent Government crisis which ended in a Communist victory. Prace said Jaroslav Drabek, a National Socialist who once prosecuted Karl Frank, the Nazi "protector" of Bohemia, also had fled.

There were unconfirmed reports that Vojta Benes, son of the President, had escaped over the border.

Both the National Socialist and Slovak Democratic parties now are out of existence. The first became the Czech Socialist party and the second the Party of Slovak People's Unity—both followers of the new Government headed by Communist Premier Klement Gottwald.

200 Civilians Arrested

Meanwhile, Alexej Cepicka, Justice Minister, said 200 civilians were arrested during and after the bloodless revolt that brought the Communists to power. He did not say whether there had been military arrests.

Cepicka's statement, broadcast over the Prague radio, was in answer to a question by two visiting members of the British Parliament, R. Crossman and G. T. Wigg.

The Communists seized the reins of Government, Cepicka said, to avert a Right-wing Putsch which, he added, could be traced to foreign aid.

Benes In Retirement

The formal call to Parliament is an annual event. The proclamation was attributed to Benes, who has remained silent and in seclusion in his country home. His retirement has been broken only once—last Saturday when he attended funeral rites for Jan Masaryk, Foreign Minister.

The formation of parliamentary committees continued today with the appointment of Rudolf Slansky, general secretary of the Czech Communist party, as chairman of the military and security committee.

Josef Heil, of the Catholic People's party, was named head of the technical committee and Jan Ded, a Socialist, was appointed chairman of the Committee on Commerce and Trade.

Police To Make Arrests

The central action committee announced to action committees throughout the country, set up following the coup, that they must co-operate with the security police and that the police will make all arrests.

Drabek, who was reported to have escaped, was former procurator of the People's Court, and obtained the conviction and death by hanging of Frank. He was accused of letting former collaborators with the Germans off too easily.

Flight Of 3 Czech Chiefs Reported

Prague, March 16 (AP)—The newspaper Prace reported tonight the flight of three prominent Czechoslovaks.

They are Vladimir Krajina, former general secretary of the National Socialist party; Jaroslav Drabek, who prosecuted Karl Frank, the German "protector" of Bohemia who was sent to the gallows; and Alois Cizek, a parliamentary deputy.

The Communist-controlled Interior Ministry had accused Krajin aof directing a spy ring for what it called "the forces of reaction." Krajina was an underground worker during the German occupation.

Vojta Benes May Be Fleeing

There were unconfirmed reports that Vojta Benes, brother of President Eduard Benes, had fled across the border. A member of the President's secretariat would neither confirm nor deny the report. Vojta Benes, a right-wing Social Democrat, resigned his seat in Parliament last week before it gave Communist Premier Klement Gottwald a unanimous vote of confidence.

The immunity committee of Parliament stripped Krajina and two prominent Slovaks of their immunity, preparatory to placing them on trial.

Reds Revise School System

The Solvaks are former Deputy Premier Jan Ursiny and Fedor Hodza, son of a former premier of Czechoslovakia.

The Communists started revising the Czechoslovak school system with a work-or-study order for children 15 years old.

Communist Education Minister Zdenek Nejedly announced the new program last night.

Nejedly said there will be compulsory kindergarten for children from 5 to 6; a lower-grade school to the age of 11, and a state high school for those up to 15. At 15, those who cannot pass strict scholarship tests will have to go to work in trades or industry. Those who pass will receive higher education.

Poles Sentence Three to Death

WARSAW, March 16 (AP).—Three persons, one a woman, were sentenced to death by a military tribunal today. They were convicted of spying on behalf of General Wladyslaw Anders, wartime Polish commander and foe of the present government. Four others were sentenced to terms of from five to fifteen years in prison. The three sentenced to death are Witold Pilecky, described by the court as "Anders's adjutant" in Poland; Tadeusz Pluzanski and Marie Szelagowska.

MORE SOVIET TROOPS FREED

6th Demobilization Decree Since War Issued

Moscow, March 16 (AP)—The Soviet Union published today its sixth demobilization decree since the end of the war.

The step was taken one month before the Italian elections and at a time when the relations of Russia with the United States, Britain and some of the other western powers are at their lowest point. The action suggested that the Soviet Union, despite this situation, does not believe there is going to be any immediate war.

The decree ordered the demobilization of all but the 21 and 22 year old classes. All older classes will be sent home by the end of March.

Seasoned Veterans

The first demobilization in June, 1945, released the thirteen oldest age groups. The second in September, 1945, released the next ten age groups. The third in March, 1946, sent six year groups home from the land forces. The fourth in October, 1946, released one more age group, and the fifth in May, 1947, freed two more age groups from army service.

The men being released by the end of March are seasoned veterans who have seen battle. They will now be a valuable addition to Russia's manpower in the drive to speed agricultural and industrial output.

Cut To Basic Size

The decree said the new demobilization would reduce the Soviet Army to its basic size. There is no information on what this size is.

The basic law on universal military service dates from September 1, 1939, and provides for the annual call-up for military training and service of 19-year-olds, or in the case of those who have completed their secondary school, the 18-year-olds.

Many who attain military age are exempted, however, because they are attending secondary and higher educational institutions or trade and industrial schools, because of their occupations or because they are rejected for physical reasons.

Greeks Smash Guerrilla Depot

Salonika, Greece, March 16 (AP)—Police today smashed a guerrilla underground recruiting station and quartermaster depot worth nearly $200,000. They said 47 persons were arrested, including eight women.

The organization was equipped with busses, trucks, motor-driven small boats, machine shops and small shoe factories which operated throughout northern Greece.

Records seized disclosed more than 160,000,000 drachmas ($32,000) had been collected recently from Communists.

Police quoted one member of the organization as saying that more than 100 persons had successfully been sent into the mountains by the group. Among these was the present Minister of Finance in the Communist Government proclaimed by Markos Vafiades. He is Vassilis Bartzokas. Another was Savas Vafiades, brother of Markos.

Chinese Reds Push Toward Changchun

Nanking, March 16 (AP)—Red forces, flushed with victory at burning Szepingkai, moved today on Changchun, Government-held former Red capital of Manchuria.

Dispatches relayed through Peiping reported Red reinforcements from Szepingkai had reached Huaiteh, highway center only 28 miles west of Changchun.

Szepingkai looks like "a sea of flames," said national pilots who continued to bomb the place.

Government reports said more than 20,000 Reds were killed or wounded there.

"No Change" At Loyang

A Government spokesman reported "no change" at Loyang, where the garrison is resisting Communist attackers in the heart of the city.

There was no report from Tsinan, 90 miles north of the United States naval base of Tsingtao. Communist columns were on the outskirts of Tsinan.

The official Central News Agency said two Chinese steamships, the Mingson and Minghou, were fired upon by Communists in the Yangtze River, 100 miles above Hangkow. The Reds lined both banks of the stream, but were finally driven into the hills by gunboats.

Military men and the governors of the central provinces opened a five-day conference here on security of the area below the Yellow River. Attending are commanders and governors of Kiangsu, Chekiang, Anhwei, Hunan, Hupeh and Kiangsi.

ATTACK SEEN ON CHANGCHUN

Szepingkai Conquerors Said To Be Preparing Assault

Nanking, China, March 16 (AP)—Manchuria's isolated capital, Changchun, braced today for an assault by Communist troops who were believed to be massing near by.

Press dispatches said Communist reinforcements were arriving from the triumph at Szepingkai to the south. These troops were reported gathering at Hwaite, 28 miles west of Changchun.

There were indications the Communists were ready to put Changchun next on the list for conquest if it could be bought cheaply.

Pro-Government press dispatches, however, insisted the Communist victory at Szepingkai, a Government fortress, was not cheap. They said 20,000 Communist troops were killed or wounded.

Yangtze River Attacks

Szepingkai is in flames, said Government pilots returning from bombing attacks.

A renewal of Communist attacks along the Yangtze River in central China was reported, meanwhile, by the Government's Central News Agency.

The agency said two Chinese steamships were attacked last Saturday about 100 miles upstream from Hankow. Shots were fired from both sides of the river. Reds in this area seized seven boats loaded with cotton.

This tended to confirm reports that the Communists had crossed the Yangtze and were infiltrating the great Tung Ting Lake area southwest of Hankow.

Laced by many small waterways, the area would provide plenty of hideouts for guerrillas.

Major Supply Source

From this region the Communists could sally for attacks on the railway which connects Hankow with south China, now a major source of supplies.

Late reports from Hankow said Government gunboats patrolling the Yangtze fought a stiff action Monday with Communists entrenched in shore positions.

A military spokesman said the garrison still was resisting Communist assaults in the heart of Loyang, railway city 310 miles northwest of Hankow. Loyang is an important city on the east-west Lunghai railroad.

Marine-Ransom Fee Reported

Shanghai, March 16 (AP)—Chinese Communists are reported to have demanded $120,000 ransom for four American Marines they captured Christmas Day.

Navy sources today refused to discuss the report.

In Tsingtao—anchorage of the United States Western Pacific Fleet—a member of Vice Admiral O. C. Badger's staff told Associated Press Photographer John Hogan there was no reason to believe the captured Marines would be released in the "near future." Badger is commander of the Western Pacific Fleet.

Meet With Negotiators

The Associated Press learned authoritatively that Marine and navy officials have had a number of meetings with Red negotiators.

Such meetings, the informant said, are held on the beach at Haiyang, Communist-held village 60 miles north of Tsingtao.

Contact In January

The Communists first established contact with Marine intelligence regarding the return of the men late in January. The Navy since has kept a continual offshore patrol at Haiyang.

Five Marines were captured by the Communists Christmas while hunting north of Tsingtao. One, wounded, died in a few days.

RANSOM REPORTED SET FOR 4 MARINES

SHANGHAI, March 16. — (AP) An American source said today the communists want $120,000 ransom for four Marines captured last Christmas, but the U. S. Embassy in Nanking said it had no information on the report.

The Marines were seized in Shantung province while on a hunting trip not far from Tsingtao, U. S. naval anchorage.

Navy sources here said they could neither confirm nor deny the ransom story.

It was reported authoritatively that the Marines and the navy have had a number of additional meetings with a communist go-between on the beach near red-held Haiyang, 60 miles northeast of Tsingtao.

It was at one of these meetings, the American informant said, that the communists put a price of $30,000 each on the Marines.

Navy sources indicated they were not free to give information on the progress of negotiations. The State department has ordered publicity kept to a minimum so as not to jeopardize the talks.

A navy officer in Tsingtao told Associated Press Photographer John Hogan there was no reason to think the Marines would be freed any time soon.

Japanese Admiral Hanged

HONG KONG, March 16 (AP)—Rear Admiral Tamura Ryukichi was hanged today in Stanley Prison for strangling Australian internees at Kavieng, New Ireland, during the war. He was convicted by an Australian war crimes court on Dec. 17, 1947.

Officers See China Aid As Inadequate

Shanghai, March 16 (AP) — The majority of American Army Advisory Group officers in China want to be allowed to give full help to the Chinese or to go home.

Few advisory group officers seem satisfied with the present program, which limits them to giving advice. Most of them question its value.

One officer, now two years in China, said he had no very strong feelings about the Chinese war, but "if we are going to help Chiang Kai-shek, we ought to help him, not just go through the motions."

The advice given the Chinese by the AAG has been helpful, but the Americans say they should be permitted to train and direct Chinese troops in the field.

41 Japanese Are Sentenced To Be Hanged

Yokohama, March 16 (AP)—The greatest mass execution order resulting from Pacific war atrocities today sentenced 41 former Japanese Navy men to be hanged.

Two others were sentenced to prison at hard labor—one for 20 years and one for five. Two were acquitted.

Defense attorneys who had struggled through the four months' trial said they were stunned by the long list of death sentences ordered by a United States military tribunal.

The charges involved the beheading of Navy Lieutenant Vernon L. Tebo, of Pensacola, Fla., and Radioman Warren H. Loyd, of Forest Hills, N.Y., and the bayoneting to death of Ordnanceman Robert Tuggle, of Brownwood, Texas. The three American airmen were shot down over a Pacific Island and captured by the Japanese in April, 1945.

Tuggle was bayonetted by 40 Japanese after he had been tied to a stake and beaten.

Jap Leftists Open Attack On U.S. Aid

Tokyo, March 16 (AP)—The Communist party made its first direct attack on American aid to Japan today—a move to form a People's Front of Left-wing parties.

The Communist effort, which has failed twice before, called for "complete independence" of Japan. It charged that loans Japan seeks for rehabilitation of its economy would make the country "a dependency of the United States."

The attempt to form a strong Left-wing bloc was seen as a move to counter yesterday's coalition of Conservatives in the Diet.

General Minami's Defense Read To Court

Tokyo, March 16 (AP)—The defense of Gen. Jiro Minami, former War Minister and commander of the Kwantung Army in Manchuria, was read today to the international military tribunal.

Only once during five days on the witness stand did the former war lord depart from an impassive attitude. That was to deny vigorously that he had part in a conspiracy of army officers to stage the Mukden incident in 1931.

His attorney contended that both the Lyton report to the League of Nations and evidence presented at the trial cleared the defendant of plotting in Manchuria and showed that he used his influence to bring about the peaceful acceptance of the Japanese surrender.

International Interlude

Partition Really Hit

Jerusalem, March 16 (AP)—Police announced John Partition was wounded here today in the Arab-Jewish fighting over partition of the Holy Land. They said Partition is an Armenian, aged 76.

Battle Ardor Cooled

Jerusalem, March 16 (AP)—A 3-inch snow blanketed Jerusalem today. The Weather Bureau said it was the heaviest fall in a generation.

Police said the snow apparently cooled both Jewish and Arab fighters. Only minor shooting incidents were reported during the night. Arabs, Jews and Britons manning gun posts and road blocks took time out to make snowmen, an occupation not often possible in Palestine.

American Slain

Jerusalem, March 16 (AP)—A United States citizen was killed today by sniper fire near Haifa.

He was identified as Arieh Lessner, 30, of New York city.

Jewish sources said Lessner was repairing a wire line on the outskirts of the village of Kfar Blum when he was shot.

He was the fourth American citizen to be killed since warfare between Jews and Arabs broke out last fall.

Zionist Currency Planned

TEL AVIV, Palestine, March 16 (AP)—A member of the Jewish Agency tonight said the agency would set up in Palestine an independent currency based on the United States dollar.

The disclosure was made by Fritz Bernstein, member of the Jewish Agency and head of the Department of Trade and Industry. This was the first hint that a new Jewish - Palestine currency was planned.

Four Brothers Freed From Prison In Iran

Tehran, March 16 (AP)—Iranian authorities have released from prison four of the five Lankarani brothers arrested last week, the press reported today.

Sheik Hossein Lankarani, a Moslem religious leader and avowed foe of Britain, was arrested with his brothers the night of March 8. The Government gave no reason for the arrest. The press speculated it might have been connected with the February 12 killing of Mohamad Massoon, an editor who opposed the Government of former Premier Ahmed Qavam.

Drop Partition, Arabs Insist

BEIRUT, Lebanon, March 16 (AP)—Secretary General Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha of the Arab League said today that "the Arabs still insist that they will not enter into discussions on the Palestine problem at Lake Success until partition is dropped."

He spoke to reporters before delegates of Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Yemen, Trans-Jordan and Lebanon gathered in a secret meeting of the League's Political Committee to "study the Palestine situation in the light of latest developments."

There were many indications that the Arab League would again suggest that a federal state was the only acceptable solution of the Palestine problem.

The Syrian representative was unable to attend the meeting because snow blocked the highway between Damascus and Beirut.

Haj Amin el-Husseini, Mufti of Jerusalem, flew here from Cairo.

Azzam Pasha said the Arabs "can't understand what Russia is trying to do" in supporting the partition of Palestine.

He said he believed that "the Jews in Palestine already are tired of the struggle and war has not started yet."

"The Arabs have excellent morale and time—they can fight for three or four years, which the Jews are not prepared to do—and numbers," he added.

MacArthur Again Invited To Australia 'As Soldier'

Canberra, Australia, March 16 (AP)—Prime Minister J. B. Chifley said today that Australia wants to see Gen. Douglas MacArthur again to thank him "as a soldier, not as a politician."

In a news conference here, the Prime Minister said General MacArthur told him two years ago he would come to Australia when returning to the United States.

Chifley declared, however, "one cannot hold a man to such a promise over two years because circumstances change."

General MacArthur was extended a personal invitation by Chifley to visit here when the Prime Minister visited Japan in 1946.

Not All Flattery

Not all opinions of General MacArthur here are flattering. A special writer for the Sydney Daily Telegraph said General MacArthur entered the political scene with "his usual flair for the dramatic," and pictured him under the caption "I Will Return . . . to America."

The Sydney Morning Herald said:

"As supreme commander in the Southwest Pacific, the General became an important figure in Australian as well as American history. But there are weightier reasons why the unfolding of the campaign will be followed with close interest here as in every country.

"American policy during the next four years probably will determine the whole future course of world affairs and the man who will determine that policy is the incoming President."

ARGENTINE SHIP ACT HITS U. S. COMPANIES

BUENOS AIRES, March 16 (AP)—The Government decreed today that all its imports and exports be handled in Argentine ships when possible.

United States shipping companies were the hardest hit. Foreign shipping circles expressed concern because nearly every country that has ships will feel the effects. Various United States shipping companies charged the measure discriminates against free trade. The manager of a British line said he believed the United States and British embassies would be asked to intervene.

The Navy Ministry announced the decree and cited "advantages it brings to the national economy." The Argentine Institute for trade Promotion, a Government agency, has a virtual monopoly on all exports except wool. It also controls large imports for the five-year industrialization program.

The decree said that when conflict arose with international treaty commitments, adjustments would be made with countries involved.

The announcement said the practice would mean an "appreciable saving in foreign exchange and in freight charges." Argentina is short on dollar exchange with which to pay the charges of United States shippers.

Several United States shipping lines were in consultation with the American Embassy about the measure. One executive recalled that the United States had protested recently a similar action by Colombia, requiring the movement of Colombian coffee by Colombian ships.

U. S. Staff Chiefs in Accord

Forrestal Reports Basic Decisions Reached at Key West—Draft Revival Weighed.

Washington, March 16 (A. P.).—Defense Secretary Forrestal said today a "general accord" has been reached by the high command on military tasks of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Forrestal took the Joint Chiefs of Staff to Key West, Fla., last week end for a showdown meeting on disagreements among the three services. These differences of opinion included such things, for instance, as whether naval aircraft should carry out strategic bombing attacks in time of war or leave that to the Air Force. The military men and Forrestal got back from Key West yesterday.

Meanwhile, the White House disclosed that Forrestal held an unscheduled meeting with President Truman yesterday afternoon, shortly after returning from Key West. Charles G. Ross, the President's press secretary, told reporters about the conference but would not go into details.

Forrestal's Statement.

Forrestal's statement said: "As stated by Secretary Forrestal at a press conference last Wednesday, the points discussed (at Key West) were subjects in an area of disagreement between the armed services upon which the joint chiefs of staff had not been able to reach a determination.

"General accord was reached in all these areas and a number of basic decisions affecting the assigned functions, duties and responsibilities of the three services were reached during the meetings. The substance of these decisions, which affect the long-term development of procurement programs for the Army, Navy and Air Force will be made public when they have been formalized and expressed in specific language and approved by the President."

May Ask Revival of Draft.

Forrestal's aids said that the phrase "procurement programs" means aircraft, weapons and other equipment. They said it does not include the question of allocating man power between the three forces. This may have been a subject discussed at the Key West session.

The military man power problem has assumed increasing proportions in recent weeks. The Army is reported to be considering a request that Congress put the Selective Service system back.

Army authorities say a return of the draft law would not mean recall to military duty of the veterans of the last war. They say the lower age brackets—men who have become of military age since the war—would provide enough man power. Others suggest that the mere presence of a draft law might boost volunteer recruiting to the point where the present 120,000 shortage in the Army would be filled.

Air Force Enlistments High.

The Air Force is having no trouble getting all the men it needs. It is reported today that it has reached the 312,000 enlisted strength ceiling set by the current budget. It is accepting recruits "no faster than it loses men through normal separations and terminations of enlistment," the Fair Force announced.

Except for high school graduates coming in under the aviation career plan, the Air Force will enlist only 5,100 men during March and 4,000 in April. More than 14,000 enlisted in January and 11,270 in February. The officer strength now stands "within a few hundred" of the 48,000 recommended figure.

'ACCORD' REACHED IN DEFENSE SETUP, FORRESTAL SAYS

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(AP) Defense Secretary Forrestal said today there is peace in the high command of America's war machine.

He said the week-end conference at Key West, Fla., of army, navy and air force commanders ended in "general accord" on the duties and responsibilities of the three arms of service.

Just what disagreements were settled, however, will not be made public unless President Truman approves.

Confers With Truman

Whether Mr. Truman will mention the new "accord" in his speech to congress tomorrow was not disclosed. However, the White House said Forrestal held an unscheduled meeting with Mr. Truman late yesterday shortly after returning to Washington.

Disagreements among commanders of the three services have existed since they were merged in a unified defense system last year. Forrestal was sworn in as the nation's first defense secretary Sept. 17, 1947, outranking both the secretary of army and secretary of navy.

The United States was the last of the big three powers to put its armed services under unified control. Russia announced the merger of her forces in February of 1946, and Great Britain in October, 1946.

Forrestal's announcement today said "the points discussed were subjects in an area of disagreement between the armed services upon which the joint chiefs of staff had not been able to reach a determination."

(He had said before the meeting that if the commanders could not agree, he would have to step in himself.)

"General accord was reached in all these areas, and a number of basic decisions affecting the assigned functions, duties, and responsibilities of the three services were reached during the meeting," the Forrestal statment added.

He said the decisions affect the long-term development of procurement programs. Forrestal's aides said this means aircraft, weapons, and other equipment, but not allocating manpower between the three forces.

The United States has approximately 1,380,000 men in uniform today. This does not include 226,300 more in the national guard.

The army has 550,000 men. Six divisions are in the western Pacific area, one in Europe, and two and a third in the United States. All divisions are under strength.

The air force has a total of 360,000 officers and men in 55 air groups, none at full strength.

The navy has 390,000 plus 80,000 Marines for a total of 470,000.

The national guard has a reported strength of 226,300 men, but plans for 271,000 by June 30.

U. S. GIVES ITALY 29 CARGO SHIPS

WASHINGTON, March 16—(AP) The United States handed 29 merchant ships to Italy today only 33 days ahead of an Italian election showdown with the Communists.

The timing was called a "happy coincidence" by a State department official. He said negotiations were just completed.

They represent vessels seized from Italy by the United States in the war. Italy signed away her rights to them in the peace treaty. But President Truman said these ships helped a lot to win the war anyway, and their return is in line with our policy of helping friendly European democracies to get on their feet without delay.

Acts Under Recent Law

The President acted under a 1947 law permitting the vessels to be replaced. Fourteen are Italian. The other 15 are coal-burning surplus Liberties handed to make up for seized Italian ships which were lost or ruined.

Two other anti-Communist moves in the direction of Italy have been taken by the administration:

1. The State department served notice yesterday that Italy won't get more help from us if she goes Communist in the election next month.

2. The Justice department announced that Italians who turn Communist forfeit any hope of migrating to the United States.

Mr. Truman said in a statement on the ships:

"In making this transfer, I am happy to express again the feeling of friendship and admiration of the American people for the Italian people who x x x have made such courageous strides forward in the democratic faith x x x."

His order banned sale of the Liberties to non-Italians, unless the United States approves.

It called on U. S. officials to get the transfer made "with all possible promptness in a manner which will effectuate the foreign policy x x x to assist friendly and Democratic European nations to rebuild their economies without delay."

Loyalists Hit Plan To Aid Franco

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Spanish Republican leaders urged today that Spain be kept out of the Marshall plan for Europe until a democratic regime displaces the Franco Government.

Juan Meana, Washington representative of the exlied Republicans, filed the request with Secretary Marshall at the State Department.

Meana and Jaime Miravitlles, Republican information director in New York, also urged that American private bankers turn down bids for loans to Franco Spain.

Meana says he is confident Britain and France would reject a proposal by Portugal that Spain be brought into the European recovery program.

$3,000,000 Held Needed

Miravitlles estimated Spain will need possibly $3,000,000,000 to restore its economy. He said he understands two representatives of Spanish bankers, the Count of Fontonar and the Marquis of Aledo, are negotiating in New York for loans to help Franco:

1. Meet instalment payments on the purchase of the International Telephone and Telegraph facilities in Spain, and

2. Pay for machinery to complete fertilizer plants started by Nazi Germany.

U.S. Denies Wallace's Steinhardt Plot Charge

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The State Department today denied Henry A. Wallace's contention that Laurence A. Steinhardt, United States Ambassador, helped plot a Rightist revolt in Czechoslovakia before the Communists seized power.

Wallace told a news conference in New York yesterday that Steinhardt issued a statement the day before the Communist coup, "hoping to precipitate a crisis." He accused Steinhardt of "thinking he was assisting in ousting the Left from the Government" of Czechoslovakia.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, told reporters "there is no basis for any charges that we know anything about."

Resigned Next Day

In Prague, Steinhardt said he would not "dignify with any comment" Wallace's statement about him.

McDermott said Steinhardt was ill in the United States, from December 4 until mid-February. He said Steinhardt returned to Prague the afternoon of February 19 and "from then on you know who was running things in Czechoslovakia." The Czech Cabinet resigned the next day and the Communists took over.

STATE DEPARTMENT REFUTES WALLACE

Washington, March 16 (A. P.).—The State Department denied today Henry A. Wallace's contention that Laurence A. Steinhardt, United States Ambassador, helped to plot a rightist revolt in Czechslovakia before the Communists seized power. Wallace told a news conference in New York yesterday that Steinhardt issued a statement the day before the Communist coup, "hoping to precipitate a crisis."

He accused Steinhardt of "thinking he was assisting in outsing the left from the Government" of Czechoslovakia. Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, told reporters that "there is no basis for any charges that we know anything about."

In Prague, Steinhardt said that he would not "dignify with any comment" Wallace's statement about him. McDermott said that Steinhardt was ill in the United States from December 4 until mid-February. He said that Steinhardt returned to Prague the afternoon of February 19, and "from then on you know who was running things in Czechoslovakia." The Czech Cabinet resigned the next day, and the Communists took over.

Won't 'Dignify With Comment.'

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 16 (A. P.).—United States Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt said today that he would not "dignify with any comment" a statement by Henry A. Wallace that Steinhardt helped plot a rightest revolt in Czechoslovakia.

U.S. To Bar Italians Who Turn Communist

Washington, March 16 (AP)—The Justice Department said today that Italians who join the Communist party will never be permitted to immigrate to the United States.

A law passed by Congress October 16, 1918, bars anyone from coming to the United States who believes in "overthrow by force or violence of the American Government."

The Justice Department thus has automatically classified Communists among the groups to be excluded from the United States.

In the last few months, some foreign-born Communists who kept their political beliefs secret in entering the United States have been arrested for deportation.

U.S. Eyes Turkey For Pressure

Washington, March 16 (AP)—American officials turned wary eyes toward Turkey today for signs of renewed Russian pressure.

They read this meaning into an announcement that Moscow has not only decided to send a new ambassador to Ankara but picked a young and vigorous Communist official for the post.

He is Alexander Lavrishtev, known as a Kremlin trouble-shooter in the Balkans. A former ambassador to Bulgaria, Lavrishtev more recently was chief of the Soviet delegation on the United Nations Greek Border Commission.

Russia has cold-shouldered Turkey for more than a year, after letting up on a campaign for joint control of the strategic Dardanelles and to take over the Turkish border areas of Kars and Ardhan. This campaign reached a peak in 1946 when the previous Soviet envoy left for Moscow and failed to return.

Records here indicate that Lavrishtev is only 36. One report, not fully substantiated, described him as an advocate of a Soviet policy of getting tough with Turkey.

However, any idea that Turkey may be next on the Soviet expansion list is pretty well ruled out by diplomatic authorities.

Critical Areas

Prevailing opinion seems to be that the most immediately critical areas are Italy, Finland and Greece, in that order.

But after the next round of prospective crises in those countries, if not before, officials look to Moscow to resume strong pressure on the Turkish Government and its reliance on American military backing.

Secretary of State Marshall supported this idea in telling the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday that Turkey is under the same Communist threat as Greece, although "in not so active a manner."

Attitude On Vifiades

Turkey's fate is bound up with that of Italy and especially Greece. As for Greece, Moscow for the first time has started referring to the guerrilla regime of Rebel General Marcos Vifiades as a "government."

This reference was made in a Moscow broadcast recorded by United States Government monitors. The broadcast quoted the Communist newspaper Pravda.

This development stirred new speculation that Yugoslavia, Albania, Romania and Bulgaria, and possibly Russia itself, might soon decide to grant formal recognition to Vifiades and thus provide a legal basis for open aid to the guerrillas.

Lodge Urges President Act Now To Forestall Red Win in Italy

WASHINGTON, March 16—Representative Lodge (R-Conn), made public today a letter to President Truman in which he urged the President to "take preventive action" to forestall a communist victory in the Italian elections April 18.

Lodge advised the president: "We must act in advance of the events. We must meet the challenge as it is presented to us in all its aspects."

The congressman, member of the Foreign Affairs committee, declared the "time has arrived" for a decision because "freedom is at stake."

Lodge wrote the president, "there is good reason to believe that the internal situation in Italy has deteriorated to an alarming extent." He added:

"The communist party in Italy has been strengthening its organization and is carrying out an active and widespread propaganda campaign. They are using all manner of means, including large sums of money and ruthless intimidation in order to subject Italy to Soviet domination."

If "Soviet aggression" is successful in Italy, Lodge asserted, "the national security of the United States will be dangerously compromised" and success of the Marshall plan will be "severly jeopardized."

Lodge urged the President to strengthen the Italian government's position. He suggested:

(1) A public declaration in the event the communists win the election that the U. S. will review its position with regard to assisting Italy further.

(2) Return to Italy of the free territory of Trieste.

(3) Back Italian "trusteeship" of pre-fascist Italian colonies.

(4) Back Italy's admission to the United Nations.

(5) Urge Russia to renounce her share of the Italian navy and

(6) Revise the Italian peace treaty to provide for a larger Italian army, navy and constabulary.

take the lead in revising the United Nations Charter which would allow the organization to "fulfill its stated mission as the principal and most effective instrument for world peace."

The proposed revision would be accomplished with or without the approval of Russia. It would provide for creation of an international military force to enforce United Nations decisions and prevent aggression.

Representative Judd (R., Minn.), one of seven House Republicans backing the proposal, said similar resolutions will be introduced in the Senate with bipartisan backing. Judd's remarks were indorsed by Representative Hays (D., Ark.), spokesman for the seven Democrats.

The proposed revision would eliminate the veto power of permanent members of the Security Council in matters of aggression, armament for aggression and admission to United Nations membership.

House Move Asks U.N. Veto Change

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Fourteen House members joined today in a bipartisan move to overhaul the United Nations setup so that Russia's veto power would be less effective.

They introduced identical resolutions urging the United States to

1,005,944 CLEARED BY FBI

Federal Workers' Records Marked 'No Disloyal Data'

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation has cleared 1,005,944 Federal workers through its loyalty inquiries, Director J. Edgar Hoover said today, announcing that his agency had returned their forms to the Civil Service Commission marked "no disloyal data."

The FBI has opened 777 full investigations under the loyalty program. These are made only in cases where there is some question of an employe's loyalty.

Of the 170 investigations completed, Mr. Hoover said, the bureau has established the employes' loyalty conclusively in thirty-three cases. Five persons were found to be no longer employed by the Government, while thirty-eight resigned during the investigations. Ninety-four cases have been referred back to the Civil Service Commission.

Under the loyalty program each Government worker must be fingerprinted and answer a questionnaire. When nothing is found in the files, that ends the investigation. If there is any question of loyalty the FBI makes a full inquiry.

Truman Reports On Lend-Lease Aid

Washington, March 16 (AP)—President Truman told Congress today that lend-lease aid provided to foreign countries since V-J day amounts to $2,075,459,880.

In a letter transmitting the twenty-fifth report on lend-lease operations, Mr. Truman said such post-war help—called "pipeline" aid because the deliveries included goods in process of transfer when the war ended—is being concluded.

Russia was cut from the list of "pipeline" countries by congressional action last year. But some other countries remain eligible. The report showed $254,091,000 in shipments to the Soviet Union since the fighting ended.

The total of war and postwar aid under the Lend-Lease Act was reported as $50,243,996,158.79.

The office of lend-lease fiscal operations now operates under the Treasury Department.

Christoffel Lacks Bail Money

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Harold Christoffel sat glumly in jail here today—with the right to leave—but with no money for bail.

Counsel for the former Milwaukee CIO union official, who has appealed his perjury conviction, said Christoffel may spend another day or more in jail while he tries to raise $5,000 bond.

Christoffel was sentenced to two to six years in prison for falsely stating under oath to a congressional committee that he was not a Communist. An appeal was filed and the United States Court of Appeals granted a motion that he be released on bail.

Cash Bond

It was expected yesterday that Christoffel would be released by using a $5,000 cash bond, originally put up by the United Auto Workers prior to his trial in Federal District Court.

District Judge Edward M. Curran signed an order permitting use of the $5,000 for the new bond. He later revoked his order and told John Davis, Christoffel's lawyer, that the $5,000 would not be released until an affidavit from the UAW is brought in approving this.

Davis said he will probably make out such an affidavit and send it by plane to UAW headquarters in Detroit to be signed. He said a local UAW official told him he expected approval will be given.

Davis said that if this does not work out an attempt will be made to obtain another bond.

U.S. Rejects Slav Horthy Protest

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Secretary Marshall rebuked Yugoslavia today for protesting against the presence of Hungary's exiled former regent at a wedding in the American occupation zone of Germany.

Marshall said in a note that a guest list for a private social function is "not a matter for representations on the part of the Yugoslav Government."

Replies To March 3 Protest

The former regent, Admiral Nicholas Horthy, attended the wedding in a Bavarian castle last month of Sam Woods, then American consul-general at Munich. Yuogslavia, in a protest submitted March 3, called Horthy a "war criminal."

Marshall's note was delivered to Ambassador Sava N. Kosanovic.

The party was held last month. Horthy attended by invitation, along with American occupation officials. He has been a refugee in the American zone in Germany since Hungary abolished its 1,000-year-old monarchy early in 1946.

The United States' position is that before any suspect is turned over to a wartime ally for trial there must be substantial evidence of guilt. And this Yugoslavia has failed to submit against Horthy.

Justice for Hawaii Nominated

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Albert M. Cristy of Hawaii, was nominated by President Truman today to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Hawaii. He would succeed Emil C. Peters, whose term has expired.

FRANCE OPPOSES PALESTINE STAND

Refuses to Join 3 Powers in Calling Strife Threat to World Peace.

LAKE SUCCESS, March 16—(AP) A tentative big power agreement on Palestine collapsed tonight when France withdrew approval on a resolution which declared there is now a threat to world peace in the Holy Land.

At a morning meeting the United States, Russia and France agreed in principle that a threat to peace existed through continued infiltration of hostile elements across Palestine borders.

China reserved her assent on the grounds that such a decision was premature and should not specifically blame the Arabs and exonerate the Jews. Britain has boycotted the big power parleys.

France Balks

After another closed meeting tonight attended by the U. S., France and China, a UN press officer told newsmen that agreement was not now nearly so evident. He said one of the conferees, which was later identified from other sources as France, had expressed the new opinion that it would be better not to proceed now to call the situation a threat to international peace.

Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko did not attend the second meeting because of what the UN described as a "misunderstanding" over the time of the session.

The UN press officer said the situation was that delegates had left open the question whether there was any agreement. He said the big powers now might take a whole new approach to the threat-to-peace program..

The press officer said further that the resolution he described as nearly agreed upon at the first session no longer was under direct discussion.

After the three-power meeting, another session to include Gromyko was set for tomorrow afternoon following the security council meeting on the Czechoslovakian case.

The four powers reported to the United Nations Security Council that they had not agreed yet upon a course of action for the council in the Palestine problem.

Meet Again Friday

The 11 council delegates then adjourned their Palestine partition debate until 10:30 A.M. (E.S.T.) Friday to give the four powers more time for consultations.

Informed sources speculated that if the council did approve the tentative agreement and finally decided that a threat to the peace existed, the U.N. then could use military force to restore order in the Holy Land.

But these sources pointed out that there is no guarantee this agreement ever would reach final approval; they cautioned that there is much to be done before the answer may be found for Palestine.

Other developments on Palestine here were:

1. Camille Chamoun, Lebanon, appealed directly to the United States to cease supporting partition. He warned indirectly that the rich oil wells of the Middle East might be closed to the U. S. and that communism might spread there through immigration if Arab resistance is weakened. He advised U. S. politicians to "stop playing with fire for the sake of their local interests."

2. There was no answer from the Jewish Agency for Palestine or the Arab Higher Committee to an appeal yesterday by the four powers for a truce in Palestine. Both sides indicated they had referred the plea back to Palestine for answer there.

3. The U. N. Palestine Partition Commission in its second monthly report predicted strife, bloodshed and chaos in the Holy Land this spring. The commission also said it could not meet the April 1 deadline, fixed by the 1947 U. N. assembly in its Palestine partition plan, for setting up provisional governments in the proposed Arab and Jewish countries.

The top delegates of France, China, the U. S. and Russia met in closed session this morning in New York for the sixth time since the security council on March 5 asked them to seek an answer to the Palestine problem.

3 Powers Agree Palestine Strife Perils Peace

New York, March 16 (AP)—The United States, Russia and France agreed in principle today that a threat to peace exists in Palestine.

The big powers did not reach a final agreement on recommendations to the United Nations Security Council, however, because China had some reservations on the wording of a proposed resolution.

Chinese Delegate T. F. Tsiang, this month's president of the Council, was authorized to report to the Council at Lake Success that no agreement had been completed by the big powers.

More Time Is Sought

He also was asked to tell the Council the four big powers wanted more time to try to reach a unanimous agreement.

Representatives of the four powers planned to meet in the offices of Secretary-General Trygve Lie at Lake Success immediately after the Council meeting.

The measure of agreement reached this forenoon was significant. If the Council finds a threat to peace actually exists, the United Nations then would be in a position to use force to restore order in Palestine.

Fresh Violence Predicted

The United Nations Palestine Commission in its second monthly report meanwhile predicted strife, bloodshed and chaos in the Holy Land this spring.

The document was circulated to delegates as the big powers staked their hopes for peace in Palestine on Jewish and Arab acceptance of truce proposals.

Less than an hour before the big powers were to reconvene to receive answers to the plea for a truce, representatives of both the Jewish Agency for Palestine and the Arab Higher Committee indicated they had not received instructions.

Conditions Deteriorating

Conditions are steadily deteriorating in Palestine, the report said, leaving little hope for an orderly transfer of authority to the United Nations when the British give up rule May 15.

The report said the refusal of Britain, as mandatory power, to co-operate in implementing partition prevented co-ordination. It added that information on present conditions in the Holy Land fully supported the commission's earlier appeal for international armed force.

"Unless security is restored in Palestine, implementation of the (partition) resolution of the General Assembly will not be possible," the report said.

Unable To Meet Deadline

"The commission, therefore, has the duty to reiterate that present indications point to the inescapable conclusion that when the mandate is terminated Palestine is likely to suffer severely from administrative chaos and widespread strife and bloodshed."

The commission also said that it would be unable to meet the April 1 deadline for establishing provisional councils of government.

Karel Lisicky, of Czechoslovakia, commission chairman, signed the report along with Raul Diez de Medina, Bolivia; Per Federspiel, Denmark; Eduardo Morgan, Panama, and Vincente J. Francisco, the Philippines.

Admiral Calls War 'Highly Improbable'

San Diego, Cal., March 16 (AP)—Admiral William H. Standley, USN (retired), said today that, despite ominous warnings from Washington, it is "highly improbable" that the United States or Russia will engage in a "shooting war now or in the immediate future."

Russia cannot support an "aggressive war, and will not be ready for many years," Standley told members of the San Diego Federal Business Association.

Standley, who was Ambassador to Russia during the last war, said the best weapon against communism is "to clean our own house."

"The United States' greatest menace comes from within," he declared. "I cannot see why we tolerate organizations which advocate the overthrow of our Government by revolution."

Votes to Let Russian Stay in U.S.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The House voted today to allow Leon Nikolaivich Volkov, former colonel in the Soviet air force, to remain in this country permanently. Volkov entered the United States at Burlington, Vt., in December, 1945. The Justice Department said Volkov admitted having been a member of a Communist youth organization until 1936 but denied membership in the Communist party. Volkov claimed he would be shot if returned to Russia. He said he escaped after crashing in Yugoslavia.

U.S. Mission Set For Visit To Japan

Washington, March 16 (AP)—A mission of business men and Government officials leaves Washington today to help the Army put Japan on a paying basis.

Under Secretary of the Army William H. Draper heads the party. Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Company and frequently mentioned as a possible choice for administrator of the Marshall plan, is a member.

The group will consider "existing plans to make Japan self-supporting and to reduce costs of occupation to the American taxpayer," said the announcement by Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall. Special attention will be given to plans to expand Japan's exports, particularly textiles.

Members of the party will spend about ten days in Japan, where they will consult with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, and then proceed to Korea. They will return April 6 or 7.

Officials of the State, Treasury and Army departments are included in the mission.

Truman Accused Of Acting As If War Crisis Were Near

New York, March 16 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace tonight accused President Truman and his Cabinet of acting "as though a war crisis were imminent" and urged congressmen to "quell the war hysteria."

Referring to the President's call for a joint session of Congress, the third-party presidential candidate asserted in telegrams to congressional committees:

"Twice before the President has convened the Congress in an atmosphere of artificially created crisis to cover up failures of his own policies. In May, 1946, the President made an inflammatory attack on the railroad workers and called for repressive legislation which the Congress wisely rejected.

Greece, Turkey Aid

"Again in March, 1947, the President created another crisis to get military aid for Greece and Turkey. He embarked us on a course which has now proved bankrupt."

Wallace asserted that "there is no evidence that any nation has threatened acts of aggression against us or threatened our national security. Yet the President and members of his Cabinet act as though a war crisis were imminent."

'Failure Of Doctrine'

His telegrams, to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the Armed Services Committees of both houses, said that "the people look to the Congress for calmness and sanity."

He told the committees that "your responsibility and that of the other members of the Congress to quell the war hysteria which is being fanned by the military members of the Administration is brought into sharp focus by the President's convening of another emergency joint session."

"The crisis in international affairs results from the complete failure of the Truman doctrine throughout the world," Wallace said. "The way out of this crisis is to renounce that doctrine as the basis of our foreign policy. We must stop finding excuses for ignoring the peace-making machinery of the United Nations."

LONDON, MARCH 16-(AP)-DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES AND NEWSPAPERS ANTICIPATED
TONIGHT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN MAY DELIVER A POSITIVE AMERICAN WARNING TO RUSSIA TO HALT COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN HIS FOREIGN POLICY MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.
A GENERAL BELIEF EXISTED MR. TRUMAN WOULD EXTEND THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY BEYOND THE PRESENT LIMITS OF ECONOMIC AID TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.
DIPLOMATS SAID THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE RUSSIAN DEMANDS UPON FINLAND AND THE COMMUNIST ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN ITALY
PROBABLY WERE FACTORS WHICH LED THE PRESIDENT TO SUMMON A JOINT CONGRESSIONAL SESSION FOR TOMORROW.
THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE UNITED STATES WILL MOVE TO MAKE ITS

THE LIBERAL LONDON EVENING STAR SAID MR.TRUMAN MAY OFFER A PLAN INCLUDING A 50-YEAR AMERICAN MILITARY ALLIANCE WITH THE FIVE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. LORD BEAVERBROOK'S EVENING STANDARD SAID "TRUMAN MAY WARN RUSSIA 'NO FURTHER.'"

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID IT HAD NO ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF THE PRESIDENT'S INTENTIONS.

MEANWHILE THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT, CARRYING OUT ITS PROGRAM OF PURGING COMMUNISTS FROM DEPARTMENTS HANDLING MATTERS OF SECURITY, ALREADY HAD A LIST OF SEVERAL SCORE CIVIL SERVANTS KNOWN OR BELIEVED TO BE COMMUNISTS.

THIS LIST WAS READY FOR SCREENING BY DEPARTMENT HEADS. SCOTLAND YARD CONFIRMED NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT SPECIAL AGENTS HAD BEEN MAKING UP THE LIST FOR MORE THAN A YEAR.

UNEASINESS WAS MANIFEST OVER HOW THE GOVERNMENT WILL CARRY OUT ITS PURGE. SEVERAL LABOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT PLANNED TO DEMAND CREATION OF A SPECIAL APPEALS COURT TO CONFIRM OR SET ASIDE DISMISSALS AND TRANSFERS. AT PRESENT THE ONLY APPEAL IS TO THE MINISTER IN CHARGE OF EACH GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

THE EVENING STANDARD, WHICH IS FIRMLY ANTI-COMMUNIST, URGED EXTREME CARE IN DISCRIMINATING AGAINST CIVIL SERVANTS FOR POLITICAL BELIEFS. BUT IT ADDED THAT DEMOCRACY IS "NO LONGER PREPARED TO GIVE FULL ROPE TO THOSE WHOSE IDEAS AND ALLEGIANCES MAY LEAD THEM TO USE THE ROPE TO HANG DEMOCRACY ITSELF."

Accra, Gold Coast, March 16-(ap)-Troops [illegible] barbed wire around electrical installations today, following a call for a general strike.

The strike was called [illegible] in placards protesting the "[illegible]" of six members of the nationalist [illegible] independence movement. The six persons were taken to an undisclosed place for "security reasons." Their removal was ordered by the British governor.

MAR 1948

The government yesterday bluntly accused the nationalist movement of being communist and announced apprehension of a "European emissary of the Communists." The government declined to name the the European.

Placards calling for the strike described the British regime as "worse than Hitler Germany." They called for Gold Coast people to unite against British Imperialism.

The government invoked an anti-strike ordinance listing services where it is illegal to strike. The list included postal and telegraph services, transportation, and food supply.

PARIS--1ST ADD FIRST LEAD CONFERENCE (A79) XXX [illegible].
THE PROGRAM WILL BE FINANCED BY THE U.S. TREASURY. THE SENATE
EARLY SUNDAY VOTED A $5,300,000,000 PROGRAM FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION.
THE ADMISSION OF GERMANY WAS ONE OF FOUR POINTS FOR ORGANIZED
RECOVERY WITH WHICH THE COMMITTEE HAD TO DEAL. THE OTHERS WERE A MULTILATERAL TREATY, A PERMANENT INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION, AND A LIST OF RECOVERY NEEDS.
THE COMMITTEE DID NOT DISCUSS THE POSSIBLE INCLUSION OF SPAIN,
AS FAR AS COULD BE LEARNED. THERE HAD BEEN TALK THAT PORTUGAL WOULD PROPOSE EXTENDING THE MARSHALL PLAN TO GENERALISSIMO FRANCO'S NATION.
BRITAIN AND FRANCE PROPOSED THE INCLUSION OF GERMANY, WHICH BEFORE THE WAR WAS THE INDUSTRIAL HEART OF EUROPE. THE WESTERN ZONES OF GERMANY ARE EXPECTED TO BE REPRESENTED BY THE OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES, ASSISTED BY GERMAN ADVISORS. THE GERMANS WOULD HAVE NO VOTES.
BUT THEY WOULD TAKE PART IN DELIBERATIONS OF THE CONFERENCE WORKING COMMITTEE. THIS MEANS THE GERMANS WOULD HAVE A VOICE IN PREPARING THE STATUTES FOR THE NEW INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION AND THE ARTICLES OF AN ALL-FOR-ONE TREATY, BINDING TOGETHER THE MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS.
A U.S. DELEGATION HEADED BY HARRY LABOUISSE OF THE STATE DEPART-MENT WILL BE AVAILABLE IN PARIS FOR CONSULTATION, IT WAS DISCLOSED.

THE CONFERENCE'S SECOND AND FINAL MEETING OPENED AT 3:15 P.M.
(9:15 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME).
FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN OF BRITAIN, THE CHAIRMAN, CALLED FIRST UPON FOREIGN MINISTER SEAN MACBRIDE OF EIRE. THE TWO HAD

MACBRIDE TOLD THE DELEGATES "IT IS NECESSARY TO RECONSTRUCT THE

PORTUGAL'S FOREIGN MINISTER, JOSE CAFIRO DA MATA LATER TOOK THE

AMS BUDGET (480)
TRUMAN
BY ROBERT EUNSON
PARIS,MARCH 16-(AP)-THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE HAS TAKEN OVER THE MARSHALL PLAN, IN THE OPINION OF OBSERVERS HERE.
THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT THAT AMERICAN FINANCIAL AID TO ITALY UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN WILL END IF THE COMMUNIST PARTY WINS THE APRIL 18 ELECTIONS IS SEEN AS POINTING TO A SIGNIFICANT CHANGE SINCE THE COMMUNISTS CAPTURED CZECHOSLOVAKIA.
A HIGHLY PLACED AMERICAN SOURCE IN PARIS TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS TODAY THAT ITALY WAS NOT THE ONLY COUNTRY THAT WOULD BE CUT OFF FROM AMERICAN HELP IF IT WENT COMMUNISTIC.
PREVIOUSLY THE MARSHALL PLAN WAS ADVANCED AS A MEANS OF HELPING EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WHO ARE IN NEED TO RECOVER FROM THE WAR. RUSSIA AND EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES IN HER ORBIT WERE INVITED TO SHARE IN IT.
THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE WAS ANNOUNCED AS A PLAN TO BEAT BACK COMMUNISM IN GREECE AND TURKEY WITH ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID.
(PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID LAST WEEK HE CONSIDERED THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE A PRELIMINARY TO THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. HE SAID THAT HIS DOCTRINE, FIRST APPLIED TO GREECE AND TURKEY, DOES NOT NEED EXPANSION. IF THE RECOVERY PLAN IS CARRIED OUT PROMPTLY, HE SAID, IT CAN ACCOMPLISH THE AIMS (OF HOLDING THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM) WHICH THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE ORIGINALLY SET FORTH.
(THE STATEMENT BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT SAYING THAT ITALY WOULD GET NO FURTHER AID IF SHE GOES COMMUNIST, EMPHASIZED THAT THIS IS A CHOICE FOR THE COMMUNISTS TO MAKE. MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID "THE COMMUNISTS IN ITALY HAVE SAID THEY DON'T WANT THE RECOVERY PROGRAM.")
THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE STEMMED FROM A SPEECH THE PRESIDENT MADE TO CONGRESS JUST OVER A YEAR AGO, ON MARCH 12, 1947, IN WHICH HE URGED AID FOR GREECE AND TURKEY TO COMBAT TOTALITARIANISM.
THE MARSHALL PLAN BLOSSOMED FROM A SPEECH SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL MADE AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY ON JUNE 5, 1947. HE SAID THE AID FROM AMERICA WAS OPEN TO RUSSIA.
RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET-DOMINATED STATES OF EASTERN EUROPE BOYCOTTED THE PARIS CONFERENCE ON THE MARSHALL PLAN, HOWEVER, AND COMMUNIST LEADERS HAVE DECLARED THEY WILL DO ALL POSSIBLE TO WRECK THE PLAN.
RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES WERE NOT INVITED TO ATTEND THE SECOND MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE HERE THIS WEEK.
THERE WAS EXCITED SPECULATION IN PARIS TODAY, WHERE THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS HAVE ADOPTED PLANS TO DRAFT A CHARTER FOR A PERMANENT ORGANIZATION, THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN HIS ADDRESS TO CONGRESS MAY ASK FOR MORE THAN ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO NATIONS WHO COMBAT COMMUNISM'S SPREAD.
A HIGHLY PLACED FRENCH SOURCE SAID HE HAD IT ON GOOD AUTHORITY THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS CONSIDERING ASKING CONGRESS TO PLEDGE MILITARY ASSISTANCE IN WESTERN EUROPE.
"ALTHOUGH THIS CONFERENCE IN PARIS DOES NOT ENTER INTO THE MILITARY FIELDS," A QUALIFIED AMERICAN SOURCE SAID, "IT DEPENDS ON HOW STRONG A UNION IS FORMED HERE AS TO HOW FAR THE UNITED STATES IS WILLING TO GO IN OFFERING SUPPORT. IF THESE COUNTRIES GET TOGETHER AND SHOW THEY ARE REALLY GOING TO FORM A SOLID PERMANENT UNION, THE UNITED STATES MAY OFFER MORE THAN JUST ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE."

AS
EVERY PARIS AFTERNOON NEWSPAPER CARRIED SPECULATION ON ITS FRONT PAGE THAT AMERICA WAS ABOUT TO GO ONE STEP FARTHER AND OFFER WESTERN EUROPE MILITARY SUPPORT.
THE BEGINNING OF A CHANGE IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY SINCE CZECHOSLOVAKIA FELL TO THE COMMUNISTS IS ALSO NOTED IN THE ATTITUDE TOWARD SPAIN.
IT WAS BELIEVED THAT JOSE CAEIRO DA MATA, PORTUGUESE FOREIGN MINISTER, WOULD NOT HAVE BROUGHT THE PROPOSAL TO INCLUDE SPAIN IN THE MARSHALL PLAN ORGANIZATION TO THE 16-NATION MEETING TODAY WITHOUT HAVING CONSULTED SOME OF THE OTHER FOREIGN MINISTERS.
AN AMERICAN INFORMANT SAID THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT OPPOSE SPAIN AS A MEMBER OF THE EUROPEAN GROUP FORMED HERE, BUT THAT "IT WOULD NOT MEAN THAT SPAIN WOULD NECESSARILY BE GETTING ANY AID FROM THE UNITED STATES."
EACH COUNTRY UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN MUST SIGN A SEPARATE TREATY WITH THE UNITED STATES.
SOME DELEGATIONS HERE BELIEVED THAT MARSHALL PLAN HELP WILL BE AVAILABLE NOW TO ANY COUNTRY THAT IS NOT RULED BY A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

CONFERENCE (650)
BY CARL HARTMAN
PARIS, MARCH 16-(AP)-A 16-NATION MARSHALL PLAN UNION BEGAN TAKING SHAPE TODAY AS HIGH RANKING DELEGATES WOUND UP PRELIMINARY SPEECH-MAKING PHASES OF THEIR CONFERENCE.
SIX OF 14 FOREIGN MINISTERS ATTENDING THE SESSIONS SPOKE YESTERDAY. THE OTHER EIGHT PROBABLY WILL BE HEARD TODAY.
THEY ARE THE MINISTERS FROM BELGIUM, AUSTRIA, EIRE, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, NORWAY, PORTUGAL AND SWEDEN.
THE LONG, TECHNICAL LABORS OF THOUSANDS OF OBSCURE EXPERTS IN MANY LANDS CAME TO LIFE TODAY UNDER KLIEG LIGHTS AND AMID THE HAZE OF CIGARETTE SMOKE.
OUT OF THE MASS OF DATA THE 14 FOREIGN MINISTERS AND TWO AMBASSADORS SEEM TO HAVE OUTLINED FOUR CONCRETE PROJECTS:
1. A PLAN FOR A TREATY ON MUTUAL ECONOMIC AID AND THE USE TO BE MADE OF MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS.
2. THE IDEA OF AN ORGANIZATION WHICH, AS BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN DESCRIBED IT, "CANNOT AND WILL NOT CEASE WHEN THE PRESSURE OF PRESENT NEEDS DIMINISHES."
3. A PROPOSAL THAT GERMANY BE INCLUDED IN THE RECONSTRUCTION EFFORT.

4. A SET OF REPORTS SHOWING WHAT EUROPE WANTS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, BASED ON AMERICAN REPORTS OF WHAT IS AVAILABLE.

DELEGATES ALREADY HAVE DISCOUNTED THE AMERICAN STATEMENT THAT ITALY WOULD GET NO MARSHALL PLAN AID IF IT GOES COMMUNIST IN NEXT MONTH'S ELECTION.

THEY ASSUMED THAT A COMMUNIST-LED ITALY, LIKE OTHER COMMUNIST-LED STATES, WOULD KEEP OUT OF THE PLAN. ITALIAN COMMUNIST LEADERS HAVE SAID AS MUCH.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL IN L'HUMANITE, NEWSPAPER OF THE FRENCH COMMUNIST PARTY, STRESSED COMMUNIST OPPOSITION TO THE PLAN.

"THE POLITICAL AND MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE BRUSSELS PACT IS NO LONGER DENIED BY THE AMERICAN PARTY," IT SAID.

"THE WESTERN POWERS NO LONGER MAKE A MYSTERY OF THEIR WILL TO SUBMIT OUR COUNTRY TO DICTATORSHIP IN ORDER TO PREPARE AN IDEOLOGICAL WAR IN THE NAME OF CIVILIZATION."

A TASS DISPATCH PREDICTED THAT A MILITARY BLOC WOULD EMERGE FROM THE CONFERENCE.

MAR 1948

THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY SAID "JOURNALISTIC CIRCLES EMPHASIZE THAT THE PARIS CONFERENCE WILL BE USED BY BEVIN AND BIDAULT TO DRAW INTO A MILITARY BLOC SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES BESIDES BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES."

MOST OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL LEAVE FOR HOME TOMORROW. THE "WORK GROUP" OF OFFICIALS WILL STAY FOR WEEKS, HOWEVER, TO HAMMER OUT DETAILS OF THE PROJECTED ACCORD.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT CAME DOWN TO CASES ON WHAT THE CHARTER SHOULD DO.

"TO BE FRUITFUL," HE SAID, "THAT ACCORD MUST INCORPORATE PRECISE PRINCIPLES CONCERNING THE DEVELOPMENT OF PRODUCTION, ITS HARMONIZATION AND THE CONCERTED EXPLOITATION OF POOLED RESOURCES, FOLLOWING A RATIONAL DIVISION THAT WILL NOT HURT NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE.

"THE MODERATION OF CUSTOMS TARIFFS, WHEN A CUSTOMS UNION IS NOT IMMEDIATELY POSSIBLE, THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF AVAILABLE MANPOWER, THE SPECIALIZATION OF INDUSTRIES AND THEIR COMPLEMENTARY ORGANIZATION CAN AND MUST ENTER NOTABLY INTO THE GOALS SOUGHT IN SUCH A COMMON ACCORD."

THIS UNION WOULD OVERLAP A SERIES OF OTHER BLOCS WHICH HAVE DEVELOPED IN NON-COMMUNIST EUROPE. IT WOULD ALSO DIFFER FROM THEM IN PURPOSE.

THEY ARE:

1. A SCANDINAVIAN GROUP INCLUDING SWEDEN, NORWAY, DENMARK, ICELAND AND FINLAND. THIS BLOC IS BASED ON HIGH LIVING STANDARDS, COMMON ECONOMIC INTERESTS AND COMMON FEAR OF RUSSIA.

2. BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG AND THE NETHERLANDS, WELL ON THEIR WAY TO A BENELUX ECONOMIC UNION.

A18

3. A REVIVED "CORDIAL UNDERSTANDING" BETWEEN BRITAIN AND FRANCE BASED LARGELY ON COMMON DEMOCRATIC IDEALS AND PROBLEMS OF COMMON DEFENSE.

4. A NEW COMBINATION OF THE BENELUX GROUP, BRITAIN AND FRANCE IN THE BRUSSELS AGREEMENT, NOT YET MADE PUBLIC, ON MUTUAL DEFENSE AND ECONOMIC COOPERATION.

5. A FRENCH-ITALIAN CUSTOMS UNION DUE TO BE SIGNED MARCH 20.

6. A SPANISH-PORTUGUESE "IBERIAN BLOC," CHARACTERIZED BY SIMILAR GOVERNMENTS, INTEREST IN LATIN AMERICA, COMMON RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL BACKGROUNDS.

SPAIN IS NOT ONE OF THE 16 COUNTRIES IN THE PLAN, BUT PORTUGAL IS. WHETHER THE LATTER WILL PROPOSE SPANISH ADMITTANCE IS NOT KNOWN.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL HAS SAID THE U.S. WOULD HAVE NO OBJECTION TO SPAIN IF THE REST OF EUROPE WANTS HER. SO FAR THE IDEA HAS RECEIVED A COLD RECEPTION.

SOME OBSERVERS SAID COMMUNISTS HAD SUFFERED A SEVERE BLOW FROM THE UNITED STATES ANNOUNCEMENT THAT MARSHALL PLAN AID WILL STOP IF ITALY GOES COMMUNIST IN APRIL.

PACCIARDI, HOWEVER, SAID HE BELIEVED THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT "WOULD NOT MAKE VERY MUCH DIFFERENCE" IN THE CAMPAIGN.

"I HOPE THERE ARE NOT MANY PEOPLE WHO ARE STILL SO SICK WITH NATIONALISM THEY WILL REGARD IT AS AN INTERVENTION IN ITALY'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS," HE ADDED.

A GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID THE U.S. ANNOUNCEMENT WOULD REFUTE COMMUNIST ASSERTIONS THAT ITALY WILL CONTINUE TO RECEIVE AID NO MATTER WHAT THE RESULT OF THE ELECTIONS. THIS INFORMANT COMMENTED THAT PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, NO.1 ITALIAN COMMUNIST, "HAS SAID HE COULD PROVE THE MARSHALL PLAN IS POLITICAL; NOW HE DOESN'T HAVE TO PROVE IT."

THE NEARLY $3,000,000,000 (BILLION) IN AMERICAN AID PROMISED UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS NOW BECOME THE DOMINANT ISSUE IN ITALY'S BITTER ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

THE DECISION WHETHER TO AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THIS AID RESTS SQUARELY WITH THIS NATION'S 27,000,000 VOTERS. THEY WILL ELECT A NEW PARLIAMENT APRIL 18.

DELEGATES TO THE CURRENT MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE IN PARIS ALREADY HAVE DISCOUNTED THE AMERICAN STATEMENT. THEY ARE CONVINCED THAT IF ITALY GOES COMMUNIST, SHE WILL SHUN THE PLAN LIKE THE COMMUNIST-BOSSED STATES IN EASTERN EUROPE.

OBSERVERS SAID THE GOVERNMENT PARTIES OPPOSING COMMUNISM NOW HAVE AMMUNITION TO ATTACK THE LEFTISTS. THEY PREDICTED THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED "POPULAR FRONT" WILL RENEW ITS ATTACKS ON AMERICAN INTERFERENCE IN ITALIAN AFFAIRS. SOME FELT THE U.S. STATEMENT REFLECTED FEARS THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE EDGING OUT IN FRONT.

THE U.S. STATEMENT ALREADY HAS HAD EFFECT.

TOKYO, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE FORTHCOMING VISIT OF UNDERSECRETARY OF THE ARMY WILLIAM H. DRAPER AND HIS PARTY MAY SOLVE THE PROBLEM OF WHAT TO DO WITH MILLIONS OF YARDS OF JAPANESE-WOVEN COTTON CLOTH.

THIS CLOTH HAS BEEN MADE FROM IMPORTED AMERICAN COTTON AND CAN BE SOLD ONLY FOR DOLLARS. ORIENTAL COUNTRIES NEED COTTON TEXTILES BADLY, BUT THEY DON'T HAVE THE DOLLARS TO BUY FROM JAPAN.

THE PROBLEM UNDOUBTEDLY WILL BE TACKLED BY DRAPER AND HIS PARTY OF EXPERTS. THEY WILL DISCUSS ECONOMIC AND EXPORT QUESTIONS WITH GENERAL MACARTHUR.

INFORMED AMERICAN SOURCES SAY DRAPER MAY ASK MAGARTHUR FOR HIS VIEWS ON CO-ORDINATING AMERICAN AID TO JAPAN WITH AID TO CHINA. CHINA, BEFORE THE WAR, WAS ONE OF JAPAN'S BEST CUSTOMERS.

ANOTHER LIKELY QUESTION IS REPARATIONS. NO PLANTS HAVE BEEN DISMANTLED FOR REMOVAL FROM JAPAN. SOME REPARATIONS HAVE GONE TO CHINA AND THE PHILIPPINES BUT THESE WERE MACHINE TOOLS FROM ARSENALS.

THESE COUNTRIES DO NOT WANT TO SEE JAPAN BECOME TOO STRONG AGAIN.

JAPANESE BUSINESS MEN BELIEVE THE AMERICAN ATTITUDE IS RELAXING ON BOTH REPARATIONS AND DECENTRALIZATION OF ECONOMIC POWER. THEY FEEL THE U.S.POLICY IS SWINGING AROUND TO THE IDEA JAPAN NEEDS HER INDUSTRIAL PLANTS FOR RECOVERY.

UNDERSECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE N.E.DODD TOLD OF THE RUSSIAN MOVE IN TESTIMONY RELEASED BY THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE. HE SAID IT IS "COMPLICATING THE SITUATION VERY MUCH."

DODD CITED A RUSSIAN DEAL TO SHIP 700,000 TONS OF GRAIN TO ENGLAND IN RETURN FOR HEAVY MACHINERY. HE ADDED:

"THE RUSSIANS ALSO OFFERED TO ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH OTHER WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES FOR WHEAT IN AMOUNTS LARGER THAN WE HAVE IN SIGHT AT THE PRESENT TIME."

WHILE ADMITTEDLY LACKING DEFINITE INFORMATION, DODD SUGGESTED THE SOVIET MIGHT BE DENYING GRAIN TO ITS OWN PEOPLE IN ORDER TO TRADE IT ABROAD.

"TWICE TO MY KNOWLEDGE," HE SAID, "RUSSIA HAS WHEN SHE WAS SHORT OF SOME COMMODITIES, DEPRIVED HER OWN PEOPLE OF THE USE OF THOSE COMMODITIES TO THE EXTENT OF STARVATION IN ORDER TO SHIP THEM ABROAD FOR FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

"YOU HAVE THAT POSSIBILITY. EVEN WITHOUT A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN THEIR PRODUCTION, YOU MIGHT HAVE THE POSSIBILITY, FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES, OR FOR FOREIGN EXCHANGE, THAT SHE MIGHT ACTUALLY MOVE INTO A MARKET AND OFFER COMMODITIES OR SUPPLIES UNDER CONDITIONS THAT WE COULD NOT MEET."

REP.JUDD (R-MINN), ONE OF SEVEN HOUSE REPUBLICANS BACKING THE PROPOSAL, SAID SIMILAR RESOLUTIONS WILL BE INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE WITH BI-PARTISAN BACKING.

JUDD'S REMARKS WERE ENDORSED BY REP.HAYS (D-ARK), SPOKESMAN FOR THE SEVEN DEMOCRATS.

THE PROPOSED REVISION WOULD ELIMINATE THE VETO POWER OF PERMANENT MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN MATTERS OF AGGRESSION, ARMAMENT FOR AGGRESSION AND ADMISSION TO UNITED NATIONS MEMBERSHIP.

IT WOULD GIVE THE SECURITY COUNCIL POWER TO FIX ANNUAL ARMAMENT PRODUCTION QUOTAS, WITH THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND RUSSIA EACH HAVING 20 PERCENT OF THE OVERALL TOTAL, FRANCE AND CHINA 10 PER CENT EACH, AND THE REMAINING NATIONS THE OTHER 20 PERCENT.

SPONSORING THE PLAN, ALONG WITH JUDD AND HAYS, WERE REPS. LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 16-(AP)-THE ARAB ANTI-PARTITIONISTS OPENED UP A STRONG ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES PALESTINE POLICY TODAY AS THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMED DEBATE ON THE HOLY LAND CRISIS.

THE ARAB ATTACK CAME SOON AFTER THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA AND FRANCE AGREED IN PRINCIPLE AT A BIG POWER SESSION IN NEW YORK THAT A THREAT TO PEACE EXISTS IN PALESTINE. CHINA HAD RESERVATIONS ON THE WORDING OF A PROPOSED BIG POWER RESOLUTION. BRITAIN 1948 NOT BEEN ATTENDING THE TALKS.

THE ARAB ATTACK ON U.S. POLICY WAS MADE BY LEBANESE REPRESENTATIVE CAMILLE CHAMOUN IN THE COUNCIL. HE DECLARED THAT AMERICAN POLICY ON PALESTINE MENACES ECONOMIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE ARAB WORLD. HE DID NOT MENTION OIL SPECIFICALLY, BUT DWELT ON ECONOMIC MATTERS.

CHAMOUN ALSO SAID PARTITIONING OF PALESTINE WOULD BRING A COMMUNIST THREAT TO THE MIDDLE EAST THROUGH IMMIGRATION. HE CHARGED FURTHER THAT AMERICAN POLITICIANS WERE "PLAYING WITH FIRE FOR THE SAKE OF THEIR LOCAL INTERESTS" IN BACKING PARTITION.

LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 16-(AP)-RUSSIA APPEARED TODAY TO HAVE LITTLE CHANCE OF BLOCKING A UNITED NATIONS AIRING OF THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE TEST COMES TOMORROW WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL MEETS TO DECIDE WHETHER TO PLACE ON ITS CALENDAR A CHILEAN PROPOSAL FOR A COUNCIL INVESTIGATION OF RUSSIA'S ROLE IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK UPSET.

INFORMED QUARTERS EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT CHILE'S MOVE WOULD GET THE NECESSARY SEVEN OF THE COUNCIL'S 11 VOTES TO ASSURE A FULL DEBATE.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND BELGIUM WERE REPORTED DEFINITELY READY TO VOTE FOR ADMISSION OF CHILE'S COMPLAINT AGAINST RUSSIA TO THE AGENDA. ONLY THREE OTHER VOTES WOULD HAVE TO BE LINED UP FROM THE REMAINING SEVEN DELEGATIONS.

SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI A.GROMYKO CONTINUED SILENT ON THE CZECHOSLOVAK QUESTION, BUT THERE WAS LITTLE DOUBT AMONG OTHER DELEGATES THAT HE WOULD FIGHT BITTERLY TO KEEP THE ISSUE OFF THE COUNCIL'S CALENDAR. THE VETO DOES NOT APPLY ON A PROCEDURAL QUESTION.

THE PROBLEM WAS COMPLICATED BY THE RIVAL CLAIMS OF TWO MEN TO BE CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S DELEGATE TO THE U.N.

JAN PAPANEK, FRIEND OF THE DEAD JAN MASARYK, WAS FIRED LAST WEEK AFTER FILING A COMPLAINT HERE CHARGING RUSSIAN COMPLICITY IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK COUP. HE REFUSED TO QUIT, BUT THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY DESIGNATED VLADIMIR HOUDEK, A MEMBER OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S WASHINGTON EMBASSY, TO REPLACE HIM.

PAPANEK REFUSED TO SURRENDER THE DELEGATION'S OFFICES AT 1775 BROADWAY, IN NEW YORK. HOUDEK, DESCRIBED BY PAPANEK AS A COMMUNIST, SET UP TEMPORARY HEADQUARTERS AT THE CZECHOSLOVAK CONSULATE ACROSS THE STREET FROM THE PAPANEK-OCCUPIED OFFICES. HE ANSWERED REPORTERS' QUESTIONS WITH "NO COMMENT."

THEIR RIVAL CLAIMS MAY BE INJECTED INTO THE SECURITY COUNCIL DEBATE. CHILEAN DELEGATE HERNAN SANTA CRUZ ALREADY HAS INDICATED HE WOULD INSIST ON PAPANEK BEING HEARD EITHER AS DELEGATE OR AS AN INTERESTED PERSON. U.N. OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, HAVE RECOGNIZED HOUDEK AS THE OFFICIAL DELEGATE.

CONDITIONS ARE STEADILY DETERIORATING IN PALESTINE, THE COMMISSION REPORT SAID, LEAVING LITTLE HOPE FOR AN ORDERLY TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY TO THE U.N. WHEN THE BRITISH GIVE UP RULE MAY ~~15~~ 15.

THE ~~GENERAL~~ REPORT SAID THAT THE REFUSAL OF BRITAIN, AS MANDATORY POWER, TO COOPERATE IN IMPLEMENTING PARTITION PREVENTED COORDINATION. IT ADDED THAT INFORMATION ON PRESENT CONDITIONS IN THE HOLY LAND FULLY SUPPORTED THE COMMISSION'S EARLIER APPEAL FOR INTERNATIONAL ARMED FORCE.

"UNLESS SECURITY IS RESTORED IN PALESTINE, IMPLEMENTATION OF THE (PARTITION) RESOLUTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE," MAR 1948 THE REPORT SAID.

"THE COMMISSION, THEREFORE, HAS THE DUTY TO REITERATE THAT PRESENT INDICATIONS POINT TO THE INESCAPABLE CONCLUSION THAT WHEN THE MANDATE IS TERMINATED PALESTINE IS LIKELY TO SUFFER SEVERELY FROM ADMINISTRATIVE CHAOS AND WIDESPREAD STRIFE AND BLOODSHED."

THE COMMISSION ALSO SAID THAT UNABLE IT WOULD BE ~~UNABLE~~ TO MEET THE

MAR 1948

Text Of Truman's Message Before Joint Session Of House And Senate

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The text of President Truman's message today to a joint session of Congress follows:

I am here today to report to you on the critical nature of the situation in Europe and to recommend action for your consideration.

Rapid changes are taking place in Europe which affect our foreign policy and our national security. There is an increasing threat to nations which are striving to maintain a form of government which grants freedom to its citizens. The United States is deeply concerned with the survival of freedom in those nations.

It is of vital importance that we act now in order to preserve the conditions under which we can achieve lasting peace based on freedom and justice.

The achievement of such a peace has been the great goal of this nation.

Almost three years have elapsed since the end of the greatest of all wars, but peace and stability have not returned to the world.

Always Difficult Task

We were well aware that the end of the fighting would not automatically settle the problems arising out of the war. The re-establishment of peace after the fighting is over has always been a difficult task.

And even if all the allies of World War II were united in their desire to establish a just and honorable peace, there would still be great difficulties of achieving that goal.

But the situation in the world today is not primarily the result of the natural difficulties which follow a great war.

It is chiefly due to the fact that one nation has not only refused to co-operate in the establishment of a just and honorable peace but—even worse—has actively sought to prevent it.

The Congress is familiar with the course of events.

Agreements Not Kept

You know of the sincere and patient attempts of the democratic nations to find a secure basis for peace through negotiation and agreement.

Conference after conference has been held in different parts of the world. We have tried to settle the questions arising out of the war on a basis which would permit the establishment of a just peace.

You know the obstacles we have encountered. But the record stands as a monument to the good faith and integrity of the democratic nations of the world. The agreements we did obtain, imperfect though they were, could have furnished the basis for a just peace—if they had been kept.

But they were not kept.

They have been persistently ignored and violated by one nation.

The United Nations

The Congress is also familiar with the developments concerning the United Nations. Most of the countries of the world have joined together in the United Nations in an attempt to build a world order based on law and not on force.

Most of the members support the United Nations earnestly and honestly and seek to make it stronger and more effective.

One nation, however, has persistently obstructed the work of the United Nations by constant abuse of the veto. That nation has vetoed 21 proposals for action in a little over two years.

But that is not all. Since the close of hostilities, the Soviet Union and its agents have destroyed the independence and democratic character of a whole series of nations in eastern and central Europe.

Pattern Is All Too Clear

It is this ruthless course of action, and the clear design to extend it to the remaining free nations of Europe, that have brought about the critical situation in Europe today.

The tragic death of the republic of Czechoslovakia has sent a shock throughout the civilized world. Now pressure is being brought to bear on Finland, to the hazard of the entire Scandinavian peninsula.

Greece is under direct military attack from rebels actively supported by her Communist-dominated neighbors.

In Italy, a determined and aggressive effort is being made by a Communist minority to take control of that country. The methods vary, but the pattern is all too clear.

Faced with this growing menace, there have been encouraging signs that the free nations of Europe are drawing closer together for their economic well-being and for the common defense of their liberties.

Self-Help Movement

In the economic field, the movement for mutual self-help to restore conditions essential to the preservation of free institutions is well under way.

In Paris, the sixteen nations which are co-[illegible] European Recovery [illegible]gram [illegible]e meeting again to establish a joint organization to work for the economic restoration of western Europe.

The United States has strongly supported the efforts of these nations to repair the devastation of war and restore a sound world economy.

In presenting this program to the Congress last December, I emphasized the necessity for speedy action. Every event in Europe since that day has underlined the great urgency for the prompt adoption of this measure.

Soviet Opposes ERP

The Soviet Union and its satellites were invited to co-operate in the European Recovery Program. They rejected the invitation. More than that, they have declared their violent hostility to the program and are aggressively attempting to wreck it.

They see in it a major obstacle to their designs to subjugate the free community of Europe. They do not want the United States to help Europe. They do not even want the sixteen co-operating countries to help themselves.

While economic recovery in Europe is essential, measures for economic rehabilitation alone are not enough. The free nations of Europe realize that economic recovery, if it is to succeed, must be afforded some measure of protection against internal and external aggression.

Self-Protection Sought

The movement toward economic co-operation has been followed by a movement toward common self-protection in the face of the growing menace to their freedom.

At the very moment I am addressing you, five nations of the European community, in Brussels, are signing a 50-year agreement for economic co-operation and common defense against aggression.

This action has great significance, for this agreement was not imposed by the decree of a more powerful neighbor. It was the free choice of independent governments representing the will of their people, and acting within the terms of the Charter of the United Nations.

Its significance goes far beyond the actual terms of the agreement itself. It is a notable step in the direction of unity in Europe for the protection and preservation of its civilization.

Action Deserves Help

This development deserves our full support. I am confident that the United States will, by appropriate means, extend to the free nations the support which the situation requires.

I am sure that the determination of the free countries of Europe to protect themselves will be matched by an equal determination on our part to help them to do so.

The recent developments in Europe present this nation with fundamental issues of vital importance.

I believe that we have reached a point at which the position of the United States should be made unmistakably clear.

The principles and purposes expressed in the Charter of the United Nations continue to represent our hope for the eventual establishment of the rule of law in international affairs. The Charter constitutes the basic expression of the code of international ethics to which this country is dedicated.

Far Wiser To Act

We cannot, however, close our eyes to the harsh fact that through obstruction and even defiance on the part of one nation, this great dream has not yet become a full reality.

It is necessary, therefore, that we take additional measures to supplement the work of the United Nations and to support its aims. There are times in world history when it is far wiser to act than to hesitate.

There is some risk involved in action—there always is. But there is far more risk in failure to act.

For if we act wisely now, we shall strengthen the powerful forces for freedom, justice and peace which are repreesnted by the United Nations and the free nations of the world.

Aid Program Is First

I regard it as my duty, therefore, to recommend to the Congress those measures which, in my judgment, are best calculated to give support to the free and democratic nations of Europe and to improve the solid foundation of our own national strength.

First, I recommend that the Congress speedily complete its action on the European Recovery Program. That program is the foundation of our policy of assistance to the free nations of Europe. Prompt passage of that program is the most telling contribution we can now make toward peace.

The decisive action which the Senate has taken without regard to partisan political considerations is a striking example of the effective working of democracy.

Training Law Is Urged

Time is now of critical importance. I am encouraged by the information which has come to me concerning the plans for expeditious action by the House of Representatives. I hope that no single day will be needlessly lost.

Second, I recommend prompt enactment of universal training legislation.

Until the free nations of Europe have regained their strength, and so long as communism threatens the very existence of democracy, the United States must remain strong enough to support those countries of Europe which are threatened with Communist control and police-state rule.

Peace Hinges On Power

I believe that we have learned the importance of maintaining military strength as a means of preventing war. We have found that a sound military system is necessary in time of peace if we are to remain at peace. Aggressors in the past, relying on our apparent lack of military force, have unwisely precipitated war.

Although they have been led to destruction by their misconception of our strength, we have paid a terrible price for our unpreparedness.

Universal training is the only feasible means by which the civilian components of our armed forces can be built up to the strength required if we are to be prepared for emergencies.

Our ability to mobilize large numbers of trained men in time of emergency could forestall future conflict and, together with other measures of national policy, could restore stability to the world.

Would Encourage Others

The adoption of universal training by the United States at this time would be unmistakable evidence to all the world of our determination to back the will to peace with the strength for peace.

I am convinced that the decision of the American people, expressed through the Congress, to adopt universal training would be of first importance in giving courage to every free government in the world.

Third, I recommend the temporary re-enactment of selective service legislation in order to maintain our armed forces at their authorized strength.

Our armed forces lack the necessary men to maintain their authorized strength.

They have been unable to maintain their authorized strength through voluntary enlistments, even though such strength has been reduced to the very minimum necessary to meet our obligations abroad and is far below the minimum which should always be available in the continental United States.

Forces In Reich Needed

We cannot meet our international reponsibilities unless we maintain our armed forces. It is of vital importance, for example, that we keep our occupation forces in Germany until the peace is secure in Europe.

There is no conflict between the requirements of selective service for the regular forces and universal training for the reserve components.

Selective service is necessary until the solid foundation of universal training can be established. Selective service can then be terminated and the regular forces may then be maintained on a voluntary basis.

The recommendations I have made represent the most urgent steps toward securing the peace and preventing war.

Must Be Prepared

We must be ready to take every wise and necessary step to carry out this great purpose. This will require assistance to other nations. It will require an adequate and balanced military strength.

We must be prepared to pay the price of peace, or assuredly we shall pay the price of war.

We in the United States remain determined to seek, by every possible means, a just and honorable basis for the settlement of international issues. We shall continue to give our strong allegiance to the United Nations as the principal means for international security based on law, not on force.

We shall remain ready and anxious to join with all nations—I repeat, with all nations—in every possible effort to reach international understanding and agreement.

Door Never Closed

The door has never been closed, nor will it ever be closed, to the Soviet Union or any other nation which will genuinely co-operate in preserving the peace.

At the same time, we must not be confused about the central issue which confronts the world today.

The time has come when the free men and women of the world must face the threat to their liberty squarely and courageously.

The United States has a tremendous responsibility to act according to the measure of our power for good in the world. We have learned that we must earn the peace we seek just as we earned victory in war, not by wishful thinking but by realistic effort.

At no time in our history has unity among our people been so vital as it is at the present time.

Unity Is Essential

Unity of purpose, unity of effort and unity of spirit are essential to accomplish the task before us.

Each of us here in this chamber today has a special responsibility. The world situation is too critical, and the responsibilities of this country are too vast, to permit party struggles to weaken our influence for maintaining peace.

The American people have the right to assume that political considerations will not affect our working together. They have the right to assume that we will join hands, wholeheartedly and without reservation, in our efforts to preserve peace in the world.

With God's help we shall succeed.

POWERFUL NATION NEEDED FOR ROLE, TRUMAN ASSERTS

Warns of Risks Involved in Meeting Challenge of Red Aggression.

MAR 1948

SPEAKS IN NEW YORK

Address Follows Appeal to Congress for Draft, UMT, Speedy ERP Action.

NEW YORK, March 17 — (AP) President Truman gravely told a gathering of 2,500 Irish-Americans tonight that the United States must be prepared for possibly unprecedented "risks" to meet the challenge of Soviet aggression. But, he emphasized, America must be strong because she is "the principal protector of the free world."

Following up his appeal to Congress for a temporary revival of the draft, universal training and quick House passage of the European recovery program, he called for "unity" at home and solemnly warned:

Warns Risks Must be Taken

"We will have to take risks during the coming year—risks perhaps greater than any this country has been called upon to assume.

"But they are not risks of our own making, and we can not make the danger vanish by pretending that it does not exist.

"We must be prepared to meet that danger with sober self-restraint and calm and judicious action if we are to be successful in our leadership for peace."

Addressing a St. Patrick's Day banquet, Mr. Truman renewed, with new explanations, the recommendations he made in an emergency address to Congress today:

1. For quick action on a temporary draft law to build the armed forces to authorized strength.

2. For enactment of universal training to provide a reserve of citizens to safeguard American security.

3. For swift passage of economic aid to Europe.

These recommendations, the President said, have one fundamental purpose—"to prevent war."

Mr. Truman spoke at a dinner of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. He flew to New York immediately after addressing Congress.

Sharp Slaps at Russia

There were sharp slaps at Russia.

There was assurance of American support for the part of Europe still outside the iron curtain.

There was a plea for unity at home.

The President explained that a peacetime draft is necessary on a temporary basis because enlistments have been dropping.

Each month, he said, the services fall further below authorized strength.

After universal training is put into effect and builds up a pool of trained reserves, the President said, the draft can be dropped.

Adoption of universal training, said the President, "would serve notice on the world that our pleas for peace were not mere idle words, but that we had the strength to back up our will for peace."

As in his address to Congress, the chief executive did not go into details of the laws he wants.

But he spoke of the willingness of the American people to "accept our new position of world responsibility" at a time when the big issue is "tyranny versus freedom."

"Our faith and our strength," Mr. Truman said, "must be made unmistakably clear to the world."

America's new role has been made plainly evident, he said, by the swift pace of events.

"Protector of Free Word"

"With few exceptions," he said, "our people now understand that the United States has become the principal protector of the free world.

"To carry out that responsibility we must maintain our strength—military, economic and moral."

The President warned against what he called "the insiduous propaganda that peace can be obtained solely by wishful thinking."

MAR 1948

He did not say who is doing it, but he said this theory is being advanced in the hope of deceiving the people so that our strength will be allowed to dwindle because of "the false belief that all is well in the world."

As in his message to Congress, Mr. Truman ticked off complaints against Russia.

Text of President's Address At St. Patrick's Fete in N.Y.

One nation, he said, time and again has blocked United Nations action by veto. One nation, he said, has obstructed the attempt of western European nations to cooperate.

"This is not all," he said. "That nation has steadily expanded its control over its neighbors. It is a tragic record. Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Rumania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Albania, Hungary. And now Czechoslovakia. One after another they have been brought under the domination of that one nation.

"Nor is this the whole story. For that nation is now pressing its demands on Finland. Its foreign agents are fighting in Greece and working hard to undermine the freedom of Italy."

In every land, Mr. Truman said, free men are asking where this leads and when it will end. He said he could provide no simple or easy answer.

"But I can express my firm conviction," the President said, "that, at this moment in history, the faith and strength of the United States are mighty forces for the prevention of war and the establishment of peace."

The President said that Communism is a threat to liberty and faith that must be faced by everyone.

"We will have to take risks during the coming year—risks perhaps greater than any this country has been called upon to assume," he said. "But they are not risks of our own making, and we cannot make the danger vanish by pretending that it does not exist.

"We must be prepared to meet that danger with sober self-restraint and calm and judicious action if we are to be successful in our leadership for peace."

Pointing to bi-partisan support in Congress and the country for economic aid to Europe, Mr. Truman called this "compelling evidence of the unity of purpose of our people." But he added:

"We must beware of those who are devoting themselves to sowing the seeds of disunity among our people. The age-old strategy of divide and conquer can be as effective now as it was in the day of the aggressors of old."

Mr. Truman did not say who he thinks is spreading disunity.

NEW YORK, March 17 —(AP) Following is the text of President Truman's speech tonight at the annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick:

Mr. chairman, distinguished guests, my fellow Americans:

It is a great honor to be a guest of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick tonight. I am deeply grateful for the hospitality of a society with such a noble history. A few days ago a friend in Washington sent me a history of this society and I read with interest and pride of the charitable and educational work it has done for over 160 years. May you be as prosperous and as successful in the next 160 years as you have been until now!

I wish I could talk with you tonight about some of the great Americans—sons of St. Patrick—whose deeds have brightened the pages of our history. Commodore John Barry—Andrew Jackson—Sergeant Mike Donaldson—Captain Colin Kelly—Admiral Dan Callaghan. We all know their stories, and we are proud of these Americans of Irish descent who defended the United States in time of peril.

Ideals Under Attack Again

The ideals for which these men fought are under attack again. And so, instead of speaking about their brave deeds in the past, I shall speak tonight about the present and the future.

As you know, at noon today I addressed a joint session of the Congress. I described the current situation in Europe which is giving all of us so much concern. In the light of this situation I made three recommendations to the Congress.

First, I recommended that the Congress complete its action speedily on economic aid to Europe under the Marshall Plan.

Second, I recommended that the Congress enact a program of universal training to provide the reserve of trained citizens which is so essential to the security of the United States.

Third, I recommended that the Congress enact temporary selective service legislation in order to build our armed forces up to their authorized peacetime strength. It is necessary that we call into service enough men to bring our armed forces up to the strength required to safeguard the United States and to meet our foreign commitments at this unsettled time.

Purpose Is to Prevent War

It is important for every citizen to understand the reason for these three recommendations.

These recommendations to the congress have one fundamental purpose. .

That purpose is to prevent war.

I know that every loyal American citizen desires lasting peace based on freedom and justice for all men.

The United States has been working steadily and diligently for such a peace.

We took a leading part in establishing the United Nations. We hoped all the nations in the world would work together in the United Nations to solve international problems and to preserve the peace.

As you know, one nation has blocked action in the United Nations by using the veto time and time again. But we have not lost faith in the United Nations. We still believe that it is the foundation for a world order based on law, not on force. And we are going ahead in our efforts to strengthen the United Nations.

Last Fall, under the leadership of the United States, the so-called "Little Assembly" was organized to meet in continuous session to handle international problems as they arise. Our delegates to the "Little Assembly" are now working with representatives of many other nations, in order to strengthen the mechanism of the United Nations within the framework of the charter by reducing the excessive use of the veto..

Taking Many Other Actions

We are taking many other actions toward peace.

Let me give one example.

Nearly a year ago Secretary of State Marshall suggested that the nations of Europe work out a cooperative plan to recover from the effects of war. Sixteen nations took up that suggestion and agreed upon a realistic plan which forms the basis for the European aid program now being adopted by the congress.

But here again one nation has obstructed cooperative effort. That one nation prevented its weaker neighbors from joining in the Marshall Plan, and is doing everything in its power to prevent the plan from succeeding.

This is not all. That nation has steadily expanded its control over its neighbors. It is a tragic record. Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Rumania, Yougoslavia, Albania, Hungary and now Czechoslovakia. One after another they have been brought under the domination of that one nation.

Nor is this the whole story. For that nation is now pressing its demands on Finland. Its foreign agents are fighting in Greece and working hard to undermine the freedom of Italy.

Urges Faith, Strength

Free men in every land are ask- "when will it end?"

I can bring you tonight no simple or easy answer.

But I can express my firm conviction that, at this moment in history, the faith and strength of the United States are mighty forces for the prevention of war and the establishment of peace.

Our faith and our strength must be made unmistakably clear to the world.

So long as democracy is threatened in the world, and during the period in which the free nations of Europe are regaining their strength this country must remain strong in order to give support to those countries of Europe whose freedom is endangered.

Universal training is the best means of building up a large pool of trained civilians who could be called upon in times of emergency.

The presence, within this country, of a strong, well-trained group of our young men would be of great importance in preventing future conflict.

The adoption of universal training by this nation at this time would serve notice on the world that our pleas for peace were not mere idle words, but that we had the strength to back up our will for peace.

Tells Why He Asked Draft

Even after we adopt universal training, however, it will take a substantial period of time before the pool of trained reserves can be developed. In the meantime our armed forces lack the necessary men to maintain their authorized strength. Voluntary enlistments have been dropping, and each month we fall further under our authorized strength.

This is why we must have a selective service law.

Our armed forces have to be kept up at the authorized level if we are to meet international responsibilities and maintain a minimum force in the continental United States.

Selective service would be used only as an interim measure until the solid foundation of universal training can be established.

That is the meaning of my recommendations to the Congress today.

The United States is not alone in its determination to achieve peace with freedom. Many nations and millions of people all over the world share our devotion to liberty and justice.

The continuing cooperation of 16 European nations working together to help themselves and to help each other is evidence of that fact.

Cites Brussels Agreement

Even more significant is the action of five free nations of Europe who signed at Brussels a few hours ago an agreement under which they will work toward economic unity and common defense of their liberty. It is important to note that this agreement is in full conformity with the charter and is within the framework of the United Nations. The willingness of free nations, with long histories of past differences, to join together in present union, is the most encouraging sign today.

The willingness of the people of the United States to accept our new position of world responsibility is equally encouraging. It was hard for some people to realize at the close of World War II that we could never again retire behind the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and rely on friends abroad to protect democracy and freedom.

But the swift movement of events has made our new role plainly evident. With few exceptions, our people now understand that the United States has become the principal protector of the free world.

To carry out that responsibility we must maintain our strength—military, economic and moral. And we must join our strength with the strength of other free men the world over who believe as we do in liberty and justice and the dignity of man.

That, too, is the meaning of my recommendations to the Congress today.

Calls for Understanding

In the present world situation, understanding and agreement among our people strengthen our influence or peace. The bi-partisan support of the Marshall Plan in the Congress and throughout the country is compelling evidence of the unity of purpose of our people. It is of central importance to the preservation of peace that this unity be maintained.

We must beware of those who are devoting themselves to sowing the seeds of disunity among our people. The age-old strategy of divide and conquer can be as effective now as it was in the day of the aggressors of old.

We must not fall victim to the insidious propaganda that peace can be obtained solely by wanting peace. This theory is advanced in the hope that it will deceive our people and that we will then permit our strength to dwindle because of the false belief that all is well in the world.

We must not be confused about the issue which confronts the world today.

Issue Is Tryanny vs. Freedom

That issue is as old as recorded history.

It is tryanny versus freedom.

Tryanny has, throughout history, assumed many disguises, and has relied on many false philosophies to justify its attack on human freedom. Communism masquerades as a doctrine of progress. It is nothing of the kind. It is, on the contrary, a movement of reaction. It denies that man is master of his fate, and consequently denies man's right to govern himself.

And even worse, communism denies the very existence of God. Religion is persecuted because it stands for freedom under God.

This threat to our liberty and to our faith must be faced by each one of us.

We will have to take risks during the coming year—risks perhaps greater than any this country has been called upon to assume. But they are not risks of our own making, and we cannot make the danger vanish by pretending that it does not exist. We must be prepared to meet that danger with sober self-restraint and calm and judicious action if we are to be successful in our leadership for peace.

The people of the United States have learned that peace will not come in response to soft words and vague wishes. We know that we can achieve the peace we seek only through firm resolution and hard work.

We can have confidence in the righteousness of our course. The great ideals of liberty and justice are powerful forces in the hearts of men in every country. The faith in God that sustains us, also sustains men in other lands. Together we can erect an enduring peace.

CONGRESSMEN RESERVED ON DRAFT REVIVAL

Bid For Prompt Action On Aid Bill Draws Better Response

Truman speech wins favorable reaction from Maryland delegation in Congress.....Page 12

Communist party of Maryland assails President Truman's speech in handbills.....Page 36

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Immediate congressional reaction to President Truman's three major recommendations in his address to Congress was approval of quick passage of the European Recovery Program but reserve over the revival of the draft and the establishment of universal military training.

The general view on the last two proposals was that the military leaders should make a case for them.

Some senators, including Taft (R., Ohio) and Ellender, of Louisiana, McClellan, of Arkansas and Edwin C. Johnson, of Colorado, all Democrats, said they were disappointed that Mr. Truman didn't recommend immediate steps to build up the Air Force.

Eaton Backs Training

Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Representative Wadsworth (R., N.Y.), author of the wartime draft law, quickly indorsed the draft and universal military training proposals.

But Representative Leo Allen (R., Ill.), chairman of the House Rules Committee, said the message "didn't change a thing." Allen's committee has refused since last summer to send the training legislation to the House floor.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee who piloted the aid bill through the Senate, said that "if we do not have the minimum of national armed security, we must provide them by the most available means."

"This is no moment for hysteria," he said. "But it is a moment for straight thinking and prudent action."

Careful Consideration

Senator Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said "the President has stated well our determination to do everything possible and practicable to stop the spread of communism. The means which he proposes will be given careful consideration."

At the same time Taft said he "regrets" the President did not say anything about "real unification of the armed forces" and establishment of an air force superior to any other in the world.

Senator Gurney (R., S.D.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, pointed out that even in advance of the address he had called a session today on universal military training, with the Secretary of State, Gen. George C. Marshall, the first witness.

Effort To Keep Peace

Senator Barkley (Ky.), Democratic leader, predicted that Congress and the American people will regard the message as "a sincere effort to keep the peace," and Representative Rayburn (Texas), House Democratic leader, said it should cause every citizen to think seriously about the world situation.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said, however, "I had hoped we'd stop shaking our fist at Russia with one hand and patting her on the back with the other."

Senator Connally, of Texas, No. 1 Democrat on the Foreign Relations Committee, expressed sympathy with the President's policies, but Senator Ferguson (R., Mich) complained that Mr. Truman ought to let Congress and the people know "exactly what our foreign policy is."

Assailed By Marcantonio

Representative Taber (R., N.Y.), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said he believes the House might approve universal military training "if we can get rid of the proposed civilian commission that's supposed to decide what the training should be." As for a draft—"I don't know. That would depend on the world situation."

Representative Marcantonio, American-Labor party member from New York, called the speech "a cheap piece of soap opera and an attempt to cause hysteria," adding:

"The prisoner of the White House did not perform well for the banker-military clique that has been ruling him and his Administration."

Developing New Crisis

Other comments included:

Senator Thye (R., Minn.)—The President seems to be developing a new crisis.

Representative Halleck (Ind.), House Republican Leader—The Administration moves from crisis to crisis, from one emergency to another. These emergencies would not occur if the Administration were competent.

Representative Arends (Ill.), House Republican whip, said Congress will have to be convinced of the need for the draft. Senator Wherry (R., Neb.) said that request would have to be "absolutely justified."

End Or Beginning

Senator Overton (D., La.)—I will go along with him (on training and temporary conscription.)

Senator Elmer Thomas (D., Okla.)—The President's speech either marks the end of World War II or the beginning of World War III.

Representative Brown (R., Ohio), Senator Taft's campaign manager — Whenever the GOP Congress is convinced it is necessary to dish out dictatorial powers, we will be here. But we are not convinced now.

'Could' Becomes 'Can' Twice In Truman Talk

Washington, March 17 (AP)—President Truman departed once from his prepared text to Congress today to emphasize the importance he places on universal military training.

The text said this country's ability to mobilize large numbers of trained men in an emergency "could forestall future conflict" and with other measures "could restore stability to the world."

In delivering the speech he substituted a firm "can" for the word "could" in each reference.

Felt 'Just Like a Kid' At Parade, Truman Says

NEW YORK, March 17—(AP) President Truman said today he felt "just like a kid" while watching the St. Patrick's Day parade.

"Everybody likes a parade," he told the "Inquiring Fotographer" of The New York Daily News. "We are all like big kids when the bands are playing and the boys and girls are strutting.

"Yes, I'm, just like a kid, too. I'm getting a big thrill out of this parade."

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who also watched the Irish from the reviewing stand, said "you never see men and women look more proud than they do in a parade.

"It is a fine spectacle seeing them pass the reviewing stand behind their bands and saluting the President as they pass."

Truman Spurns Wallace 'And His Communists'

NEW YORK, March 17—(AP) President Truman said tonight he would refuse any support from Henry A. Wallace.

Departing from his prepared address, he told the annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick:

"I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his Communists."

Mr. Truman added:

"If joining them or permitting them to join me is the price of victory, I recommend defeat. These are days of high prices for everything. But any price for Wallace and his Communists is too much for me to pay."

How Draft and UMT Laws Would Apply to Youths

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 17 — President Truman told Congress today that both a draft law and universal military training are needed.

Under a draft law men, probably youths, could be drafted directly into the armed services.

Under a miltary training law youths, about 18 to 20, would be called for military training but would not be in the armed services. Under a bill now in Congress, youths would be trained six months and then would have to take extra training in school, the National Guard or some other way. They could not be used in the armed services except in a national emergency.

The purpose of such a program would be to give the nation a big pool of militarily trained youths who could be called to service when needed.

U.S., RUSSIAN MIGHT TALLIED

Comparative Figures Given On Army, Navy, Air Force

Washington, March 17 (AP)—The Army said today that the Soviet Army will continue to be "far larger than that of the United States, even if it carries out an announced plan to discharge all but the 1926-1927 class of soldiers.

The Army authorized this answer to a reporter's question. It added:

"No exact estimates are available of new strength based on this Soviet announcement, but such estimates are constantly being made on a routine basis of military strength of all countries."

Comparative Figures Given

This presumably meant that a restudy of Soviet strength is under way.

The present strength of the United States Army is about 550,000. If brought up to authorized strength, the total would be 669,000.

The latest estimate available for Soviet army and security troops is 3,000,000 men, not including the Russian air force and navy. Of these, 2,600,000 are army ground troops, 400,000 security troops of the so-called MVD. The estimates were given Congress in December by the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which said the information was supplied by the army department.

The same estimate gave the following information on other elements of the Russian military:

Air force, 450,000 men (compared with 360,000 present strength for the United States Air Force).

Navy, 600,000 (compared with 392,000 for the American Navy).

175 Combat Divisions

The Soviet Army is formed into 175 combat divisions.

In addition to the 3,000,000 Soviet Army troops, Russia controls in eight neighboring satellite states about 1,121,600 men formed into 100 divisions, but which are believed to be of limited combat effectiveness.

Gen. Carl Spaatz, Air Force chief of staff, estimates Russian air power at 14,000 first-line combat planes. That is approximately three times the size of the United States first-line air fleet.

W. Stuart Symington, Air Secretary, has said the Russians "are reported to be producing aircraft at the rate of 75,000 to 100,000 a year. He noted that copies of B-29 Superfortresses (five of which fell into Russian hands through forced landings during the war) have appeared "in fairly sizable numbers" in Russia.

Could Start Draft In 45 Days

Salem, Ore., March 17 (AP)—The nation could begin drafting men into the armed forces within 45 to 60 days after Congress passes a new selective service law, Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national selective service director, said here today.

He said he did not know what kind of a draft law President Truman requested in his address to Congress today, but said he presumed the President meant drafting of enough men in the 18-20-year-old age bracket to make up the deficiency in voluntary enlistments.

"If we had an emergency," General Hershey told reporters, "we could begin drafting men quicker than 45 to 60 days. But that estimate is based on the job being done in an orderly way."

Not All Need Register

The General, who visited here today on a nation-wide inspection tour, said that only 1,200,000 men—or only those who became 18 years old since last April 1—would have to be registered. The 50,000,000 other men's records already are on hand, so they wouldn't have to register.

He said selective service training schools now are being held over the nation for his staff and for National Guard procurement officers. He said these schools are part of the regular program and have nothing to do with international problems.

NEW DRAFT WOULD HIT MILLION MEN

World War II Vets Likely to Be Exempt, Andrews Predicts.

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—If congress passes a new draft law, 800,000 to 1,000,000 men may be called to the colors, but veterans of World War II probably will be exempt, Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House Armed Services Committee predicted today.

30.24- 16311

He emphasized that he was not speaking for his committee, which has not yet received any draft legislation from the armed forces.

But he made plain he himself was in accord with President Truman's plea for a draft and universal military training.

18-Month Service

If a selective service law is passed this month, Andrews said at a news conference, it could begin pulling fresh manpower into the military forces by July 1. He estimated that the men might be required to serve at least 18 months, and would be picked from the 20 to 26 age group.

Andrews said his committee will not discuss the draft proposal formally until it has specific recommendations from Secretary of Defense Forrestal, and in no event until next Tuesday, its next meeting day.

He expressed belief the president's call for the draft came as a surprise to his military leaders.

"I have been told that the president's speech was his own idea and that he wrote it himself," Andrews said.

If congress should decide to permit the drafting of 800,000 to 1,000,000 men it would have to pass legislation raising the authorized strength of the armed forces.

1,392,000 Now in Uniform

The nation now has 1,392,000 persons in uniform. This is 340,000 short of the full authorized strength of 1,732,000. (In May 1945 the total was 11,119,000.)

Some of the questions asked today were: What is the difference between the draft and universal military training? How long would it take to get the two working? Who would be affected?

As to the difference:

Under the draft, youths could be taken directly into the armed services.

Under military training, youths 18 to 20 would be drafted for maybe a six-month training period in camps or on ships, but legally they would not be in the armed forces or have to fight except in an emergency.

There is a bill now in Congress to set up a universal military training program. But once passed, it might take a year to get the program going in full swing. Approximately 900,000 a year would be trained.

These youths could not be used for fighting either inside or outside of the United States except in case of a national emergency and then only by a special act of Congres. But they would be trained men.

Time Element Estimated

Aides of Defense Secretary Forrestal estimated that even if the UMT program becomes law immediately, actual start of the program would not be possible before next Jan. 1. They said another full year might elapse before the results of the training would be reflected in the army.

On the other hand, draft machinery would start operating in 60 days or so after Congress authorized it, selective service headquarters said. Rep. Andrews said by July, anyway.

Already, selective service officials have been working in various states on a voluntary basis, preparing the framework just in case. This has caused spread of rumors that "secret" draft work had started.

The draft law, Secretary of State Marshall said, would boost manpower in two days: It would encourage volunteering, as it did during the war, and it would bring in men through its regular operation.

A new registration probably would be necessary, officials said. The old selective service records would be of doubtful value. They were kept mainly for historical purposes.

LAWMAKERS PIN 'MAYBE' ON DRAFT, MILITARY TRAINING

Let Army Leaders Make Case for Such Moves, Is General Opinion.

AGREE ON ERP NEED

Taft 'Disappointed' Because Strengthened Airforce

Wasn't Urged.

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—The European recovery plan?

Certainly.

Revival of the draft, and universal military training?

Maybe. . .let the military leaders make a case for them.

That, boiled down, was the general reaction of lawmakers today to President Truman's three major recommendations in his St. Patrick's day address to a joint session of congress.

Mixed Reaction

Some senators, including Taft, of Ohio and Democrats Ellender of Louisiana, McClellan of Arkansas and Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, said they were disappointed that Mr. Truman didn't recommend immediate steps to build up the air force.

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Rep. Wadsworth (R-NY), author of the wartime draft law, quickly endorsed the draft and UMT proposals.

But Chairman Leo Allen (R-Ill) of the House Rules Committee said the message "didn't change a thing," Allen's committee has refused since last summer to send UMT legislation to the house floor.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich), of the senate foreign relations committee who piloted the ERP bill through the senate, said that "if we do not have the minimum of national armed security, we must provide them by the most available means."

"This is no moment for hysteria," he said. "But it is a moment for straight thinking and prudent action."

Ohio's Senator Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said "the president has stated well our determination to do everything possible and practicable to stop the spread of communism. The means which he proposes will be given careful consideration."

At the same time Taft said he "regrets" the president did not say anything about "real unification of the armed forces" and establishment of an air force superior to any other in the world.

Wallace Raps Talk

(In New York Henry A. Wallace, third party presidential candidate, called the Truman speech "a shameful call for world remobilization, a complete admission of the failure of the Truman doctrine and a call for an American police state. . .")

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the senate armed services committee pointed out that even in advance of the address he had called a session today on UMT, with Secretary of State Marshall the first witness.

Senate Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) predicted that congress and the American people will regard the message as "a sincere effort to keep the peace," and House Democratic Leader Rayburn said it should cause every citizen to think seriously about the world situation.

Senator Bridges (R-NH), chairman of the powerful senate appropriations committee, said however "I had hoped we'd stop shaking our fist at Russia with one hand and patting her on the back with the other."

Senator Connally of Texas, No. 1 Democrat on the foreign relations committee, expressed sympathy with the president's policies, but Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) complained that Mr. Truman ought to let congress and the people know "exactly what our foreign policy is."

Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the house appropriations committee said he believes the house might approve universal military training "if we can get rid of the proposed civilian commission that's supposed to decide what the training should be." As for a draft—"I don't know. That would depend on the world situation."

Other comment included:

Senator McMahon (D-Conn): "He wisely pointed out the seriousness of the European situation. I regret that he didn't suggest reassembling the United Nations to revise the charter so as to make it a more effective instrument to keep the peace."

Senator Flanders (R-VT) said the suggestion of a draft gave him most concern but declared present conditions must not be allowed to continue. He suggested possibility of enlisting aliens for occupation duty and hiring more civilians to free soldiers for active duty.

"In the probable event these procedures do not quickly and completely bring our armed forces up to their peacetime complement," Flander's statement said, "There would seem to be nothing else to do but to reinstate selective service."

Rep. Patterson (R-Conn): "Our first need is for a greatly strengthened air force. The need for selective service has not been shown."

House Committee Approves 5.3 Billion European Aid Plan

WASHINGTON, March 17—(AP) Responding to President Truman's plea for speed, the House Foreign Affairs Committee gave sudden approval today to a $5,300,000,000 European aid program.

It is the same amount approved by the senate for 12 months of aid to noncommunists nations. It gave an immediate lift to hopes of leaders that the House can clear the bill by April 1—in two weeks.

Action came within five hours after the president had gone before congress with an appeal for "prompt passage of the program." It also came amid new warnings of communist danger in Italy where crucial elections will be held April 18.

Other Items Held Up

After a closed door committee session, Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) told reporters that decisions were held up on other foreign aid proposals. The administration has asked $275,000,000 in military aid for Greece and Turkey, and $570,000,000 economic aid for China.

These are part of the same bill. Thus the committee had yet to approve the measure as a whole.

But the administration's appeal was for speed on the Marshall Plan to buck up 16 western European nations to ward off communism.

Eaton and Rep. Vorys (R-NJ) said the Foreign Affairs Committee directed that $1,000,000,000 of the $5,300,000,000 European aid be in a lending authority for the Export-Import Bank.

Thus Congress would need to appropriate directly only $4,300,000,000.

The committee has been holding hearings on all phases of foreign aid for some time.

Conducts Night Session

It was called back into session tonight to continue work on the measure as a whole. The committee previously expressed intentions of handling all foreign aid in one package. No immediate intention to change this procedure was announced.

Tonight's committee session was the third in a row running within an hour of midnight.

At its close acting Chairman Vorys (R-Ohio) told newsmen the group will finish its task Friday "definitely—I think."

Vorys said the House group made a slight change from the Senate plan on the handling of money paid for U. S. goods sent to the Marshall plan countries.

The senate provided that goods not paid for in dollars should be paid for in the foreign country's own currencies, and the money held in joint accounts to the credit of the United States and the recipient countries.

Vorys said the House went a step further to provide that the joint accounts funds will be specifically used:

1. For the development of production in the recipient countries.
2. For internal monetary stabilization in the Marshall Plan nations.

Republican members of the committee expressed conflicting opinions on whether the House committee bill represents a $1,000,000,000 "cut" from the Senate version.

Rep. Lodge (R-Conn) told reporters that the Export-Import bank loan provision is not a cut. "We'll still be paying for it in deferred taxes instead of present taxes," he said.

Rep. Jonkman (R-Mich) deferred. He said it represents a definite cut because the $1,000,000,000 authority fo rthe export-import bank calls for the export-import bank calls

Inverchapel Calls It 'Apprehension'

Boston, March 17 (AP)—Lord Inverchapel, the British Ambassador, said today that war with Russia "is by no means inevitable or even probable."

Asked if the British share the fear of such a war widely expressed by Americans, the Ambassador termed it "apprehension" among his countrymen.

"There is a good deal of annoyance too in that apprehension We've tried very hard to find common ground," Inverchapel, who is here for a speech tomorrow at Harvard University, declared.

Asked what he believed could be an alternative to war, he said:

"I have a great faith in the ultimate good sense of man. . . . But war is always possible."

Inverchapel predicted a United States of Europe, "not in my time, but in yours," motioning to the newsmen as he said it.

He called the five-power 50-year western European treaty signed in Brussels today "only the first step, but a very important step."

Byrnes Views Truman Speech As Aid to Peace

Says Draft Plea Will Be Understood in Russia; Inverchapel Hails Talk

SPARTANBURG, S. C., March 17 (AP).—James F. Byrnes said this afternoon that if Congress carries out the program recommended today by President Truman, "I am confident peace will be preserved."

The former Secretary of State issued the following formal statement from his home here:

"I am glad the President has served notice upon the Soviet Republic that its acts of aggression, direct or indirect, against European states must stop. If Congress will promptly carry out the program he announced, I am confident peace will be preserved.

"I am particularly glad that he urged the re-enactment of the Selective Service Act to bring the Army up to its authorized strength. The Soviets will understand that action better than any words he uttered. We owe it to 100,000 American soldiers in Germany to provide additional divisions of combat troops to go to their assistance in case it should be necessary."

Mr. Byrnes, in a speech last Saturday at Charleston, S. C., also urged re-enactment of the draft.

Inverchapel Welcomes Statement

BOSTON, March 17 (AP).—British Ambassador Lord Inverchapel today termed a "welcome and very Truman's assertion of this nation's determination to help free countries of Europe "to protect themselves."

Lord Inverchapel, here for a speech tomorrow at Harvard University, added: "We naturally welcome the President's suggestion that swift Congressional action should be taken on E. R. P."

The Ambassador said that war with Russia "is by no means inevitable or even probable."

Asked if the British share the fear of such a war widely expressed by Americans, the Ambassador termed it "apprehension" among his countrymen. "There is a good deal of annoyance, too, in that apprehension. We've tried very hard to find common ground," Lord Inverchapel told a news conference.

Asked what he believed could be an alternative to war with Russia, he said: "I have a great faith in the ultimate good sense of man. . . . But war is always possible."

He predicted a United States of Europe, "not in my time but in your's," motioning to the newsmen as he said it.

He called the five-power fifty-year western European treaty signed in Brussels today "only the first step, but a very important step."

The "American Legion Language"

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 17 (AP).—James F. O'Neil, National Commander of the American Legion, commenting on President Truman's speech today, said Mr. Truman spoke the "American Legion language."

Talk Is Cheering To Wall Street

New York, March 17 (AP)—Wall Street greeted the President's message to Congress today with relief.

The message temporarily interrupted a morning advance but there was no violent reaction either way. Financial circles have been jittery for days over the situation abroad and many had looked for a more war-like address.

Stocks in the air group started the day by hitting new highs for the year, then slipped a notch or two after the President started talking, and finally rallied slightly in closing trade.

Trading Is Slow

Other stocks, including issues of steel, motor, oil, metal and railroad companies, closed with all or most of the gains made before the President spoke. Trading was slow throughout the session.

The President had been expected to back up his remarks with specific requests for more money for aircraft purchases and even general industrial mobilization.

His failure to refer directly to the aircraft industry, it was suggested in some quarters, was the reason for the slight setback in aircraft stocks. Prices for most air stocks have been moving steadily higher recently, which many brokers claimed was in anticipation of a presidential request.

Tax Stand Is Relief

Another phase of the President's talk which drew favorable comment was the absence of any discussion of taxes. Many had anticipated a firm stand against tax relief.

Issues closing higher included Boeing Aircraft $27, Douglas Aircraft $59.25, United Aircraft $27.87, Lockheed $19.25, Consolidated Vultee $15, Curtiss-Wright $5.87, United States Steel $68.50, Westinghouse Electric $27.12, Chrysler $54.87, Pure Oil $28.

1,500,000 Cheer Colorful N. Y. St. Patrick's Day Parade

NEW YORK, March 17—(AP) Thousands of sons and daughters of Erin streamed up sunlit Fifth Avenue before a beaming President Truman today—the first time a Chief Executive ever watched a St. Patrick's Day parade here.

More than 1,500,000 persons lined the avenue.

The President, sporting a green carnation in his lapel and a green tie with white dots, won an ovation from the throng as he reached the reviewing stand midway through the 118th renewal of the traditional Irish celebration.

Among those who greeted him in the stand was Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, titular head of the Republican party and a leading possibility for the G.O.P. Presidential nomination this year.

Mr. Truman, who made a one hour, two-minute flight to New York after delivering an address to Congress, was greeted by Dewey with these words:

"You've had a trying day, Mr. President."

The two shook hands and Mr. Truman's reply was lost in the noise of the crowd.

The President's plane reached La Guardia Field at 2:26 P.M. (EST) and the President was driven at once to the reviewing stand at 64th Street and Fifth Avenue at the edge of Central Park. He reached there at 3:07 P.M. and left for his hotel after watching the parade for a little more than an hour.

Asked by a reporter upon his arrival at the airport if he was "happy about your speech to Congress," Mr. Truman replied solemnly:

"I'm not happy over it but it was necessary. It had to be said."

Some 80,000 persons marched in the parade, which veteran police officers described as the biggest in their memory for such an occasion. Chief Police Inspector Martin W. Brown estimated the watchers at more than 1,500,000.

The Irish have marched up the avenue in sleet, snow and howling winds to honor their patron saint in the past, but the weather man beamed on them today.

Dancing sunlight played on the skyscraper-lined reaches of the city's traditional parade street in the Forties and Fifties. The temperature was about 50.

A steady northwest breeze rippled the green-gold and green-white banners.

Irish societies, military and police units, school groups — all swung rhythmically up the 52-block parade route.

Many a marcher stepped out of ranks at St. Patrick's Cathedral, opposite Rockefeller Center, to kiss the ring of Francis Cardinal Spellman.

Older men stepping stiffly in the line of march—men from counties Mayo, Down, Armagh and many others—mostly wore somber black with an occasional silk topper glistening in the sun.

But the younger paraders, whose forebears came from the Emerald Isle, stepped gaily in kilts or bright uniforms always tinged with green.

The magic of "Killarney" and "O'Donnel Abu" and "Young Molly Bawn" and many another Celtic tune swirled along the parade route, echoing and re-echoing from the shrill fifes and hoarse bagpipes.

First unit to swing out as the parade got under way shortly after 1 p.m. was New York's own Irish regiment, the 69th of the New York National Guard. It finished the march in about one hour.

A delegation of County Tyrone men passed up the avenue carrying high a large banner with the legend: "England, get out of Ireland."

The parade ended in the dusk at 8:40 p.m. (EST), about five hours and 35 minutes after it began.

WESTERN EUROPE HAILS TRUMAN'S REARMING CALL

LONDON, March 17—(AP) Western Europe welcomed both President Truman's call for rearming America and the Brussels five-power pact tonight as twin bulwarks against communist expansion.

"Communism has lost its bet on the ineptitude and un-readiness of democracy," said the London Daily Telegraph.

The President's message, the paper added, "may well rank among the greatest pronouncements in history."

Strengthen Peace Hopes

In this nation—filled more with forebodings since the Czechoslovak crisis recalled the pre-war year of Munich—Mr. Truman's pronouncement strengthened hope that war may be avoided.

A foreign office spokesman refused to go on record concerning President Truman's address. He said it was 'too important for off-hand comment" and that an official statement might be issued tomorrow.

High French officials in Paris said congressional approval of the President's request for the temporary draft and universal military training would leave no room for misunderstanding, either in the east or west, that the United States means business about stopping Communism.

One French official, approving the President's support of the Brussels alliance signed today by Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, said, "We know that we cannot stand up against a major-scale aggression unless assisted by the United States."

In Rome, a spokesman for Premier Alcide De Gasperi said President Truman's speech was very interesting to Italy and contained good news for the democratic countries of Europe.

The rightist afternoon newspaper Giornale Della Sera said "aggressive Soviet policy has called for the Truman doctrine. It was inevitable."

Praised by Dutch

A Netherlands foreign office spokesman at the Hague said the President's speech "was the best blessing of the western pact."

He said it was a great encouragement to Europe and new proof of American interest in the development of Europe.

The Daily Mail, conservative, said "less than three years after the second world war, a third is not merely thinkable but possible. Some statesmen think it probable—if nothing is done to stop it.xxx

"Who is the 'enemy?' President Truman x x x says bluntly that it is Russia who has bedevilled Europe—and he is right. x x x So why not say so? Why not face the truth squarely and courageously as the President did yesterday? We gain nothing by hiding our heads in the sand. We have done that too often and too long."

In a debate in the House of Lords tonight on the budget for the armed forces, Lord Teynham, conservative, declared "Britain is living in the shadow of another war which may break out at any moment."

The Earl of Lindsay, independent, said the current tension had turned the calendar back to 1938—the year of the Hitler crisis over Czechoslovakia and the Munich pact.

Prime Minister John A. Costello of Eire in a St. Patrick's Day message of greetings to the United States and Canada, hailed them as defenders against communism, "that corrosive heresy of the modern world."

MOSCOW RADIO SILENT ON TALK

Makes No Comment Yet On Truman's Message

London, Thursday, March 18 (AP). The Moscow radio has made no comment yet on President Truman's call for military preparedness.

The radio, monitored in London by Russian operators, usually is the first agency to disclose official Soviet reaction to foreign events.

Last night and early today the Moscow broadcasters kept busy by reporting the news of Bulgarian Premier Georgi Dimitrov's current visit to the Russian capital.

Charges "Interference"

One commentator, however, branched off on the coming Italian elections and said "Britain and American officials are guilty of the grossest interference" in Italy.

Swedes Veer in Position

Paper Cites Truman and Europe Pact, Ask "Revalution"

STOCKHOLM, Thursday, March 18 (AP).—Sweden's largest daily, "Dagens Nyheter," asked today about President Truman's speech: "Is Truman's speech, bearing in mind that the U. S. A. now has taken over Britain's role as the foremost defender of democracy and humanity . . . a sign that war is imminent? No, in all probability it is not so."

Mentioning the Western bloc treaty signed in Brussels and the President's address, the newspaper said: "Before these facts a revaluation of the Swedish and Scandinavian position ought to be self-evident."

Backing in Berlin

BERLIN, Thursday, March 1 (AP)—Berlin Socialists who are th strongest opponents of Commu nists here welcomed the Truma speech today as "evidence of Amer ican realization that the Marsha Plan is not enough to secur peace."

Canada Sees Arms Demand

M. P.s Expect Calls for Larger Army After Truman Speech

OTTAWA, March 17 (AP).—Members of Parliament expresse the opinion today that President Truman's speech to Congress will bring demands for strengthening the Canadian armed forces, which now total only 34,000. During World War II there were 1,086,771 in service.

There was no suggestion here, however, that the government would advocate compulsory military training.

Press Reaction To Talk

MAR 1948

[By the Associated Press]

President Truman's congressional proposals yesterday for steps to cope with the world situation brought editorial response ranging from "appeasement is past" to "not sufficiently drastic."

Some of the reaction:

Portland Oregonian: "His (Truman's) program for implementing America's position is not sufficiently drastic to meet a situation already almost out of hand."

Detroit Free Press: "As one listened to Mr. Truman's speech, it was impossible to kep his mind from running back seven years. Then we were told lend-lease would 'stop Hitler.' It didn't. . . .

'Timed Perfectly'

"As a statement of American policy, the speech lacked the authority it would have had if Republican and Democratic leaders of the Senate and House had been associated in framing it."

Los Angeles Times—"If the principle of President Truman's address—the most effective he has made—is indorsed by the Congress to which he spoke, and by the people of the United States, it will surely be reckoned as one of the most important statements of history. The President's statement was timed perfectly for his countrymen—and for the Kremlin."

'Responsibility Of Congress'

Oregon Journal, Portland, Ore.—"Appeasement is past. The paramount question is action. We believe that threatened peace-loving nations can take new hope and undertake new unity heartened by the President's showdown message."

Kansas City Star—"President Truman made a reasoned and effective plea yesterday for measures calculated to preserve peace by stopping Russian aggression.

"As Mr. Truman said, action involves risk, but failure to act involves even greater risk. The emergency calls for Congress to act without a day's unnecessary delay."

Syracuse (N.Y.) Herald-Journal—"Congress is bound to consider carefully Mr. Truman's call for a temporary revival of the draft and for enactment of universal military training. It is the responsibility of Congress to find some ways to bring our armed forces up to adequate strength."

'The Only Restrainer'

St. Paul Pioneer Press—"The penny-wise, pound-foolish policy of Congress on universal military training has now brought it face to face with emergency restoration of the draft. Congress can fuss, fume and protest as it pleases. It cannot escape from this dilemma any more than could the President."

Nashville (Tenn.) Banner—"Wisdom decrees no empty rattling of sabers, but prompts the buckling on of armor and sword in preparedness, which is the only restrainer such an enemy respects. . . .

"For the first time, Mr. Truman mentioned the Soviet Union by name. . . . That is a significant departure from outworn niceties of powder-puff diplomacy."

Seattle Times: "Perpetual and invincible readiness for war appears to be our current destiny. Only let us resolve one thing: that when election approaches we shall not fall again for that old line in crisis we musn't change horses in mid-stream."

Ohio State Journal, Columbus, Ohio: "Most of the things the President said needed to be spelled out for the notice they gave Russia of our continued resolve, for any encouragement they may have brought to the nations of western Europe who are taking steps of mutual assistance among themselves, and for their effects on the American people who had become increasingly uneasy under the secretiveness and seeming double-talk of our top policy-makers."

"A Clear Warning"

Charlotte (N.C.), Observer — Truman's message . . . shows in cold reality that the United States is at last through fighting windmills, has recognized the situation that confronts us, and is ready to face the facts. President Truman has given Stalin a clear warning that it is time to stop.

New Orleans, Times-Picayune—The national unity Mr. Truman terms of vital importance will have to be reforged under the pressure of menacing events and their threat to our national safety and free institutions, as well as the world freedom and peace. . . . The country looks to its Congress to take the essential first steps without the needless loss of a single day.

Buffalo, Courier-Express—President Truman's affirmation of confidence that "the determination of the free countries of Europe to protect themselves will be matched by an equal determination on our part to help them to do so" can be interpreted only as a declaration of American support to the western European alliance.

Refers To "Disappointment"

Rochester (N.Y.) Democrat and Chronicle—"Those who had hoped for a more definite statement must have been disoppointed. A compulsory military training program, backed by selective service, probably is necessary, but the machinery of setting it up will take time. How about our other defenses?"

Richmond Times-Dispatch — "President Truman has offered a program which should have immediate and earnest consideration from Congress and people. . . . The fate of Western civilization may hang upon the outcome."

Five Western Powers Sign Treaty for Armed Support

MAR 1948 MFL MOST

BRUSSELS, March 17. — (AP) Five European nations today entered into a 50-year partnership to defend their democratic way of life against any aggressor, with arms if necessary. President Truman swiftly endorsed it.

Against a background of rapid communist expansion in the east, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg bound themselves in a military, political and economic treaty which laid the cornerstone for an even wider European union.

Mr. Truman told the American congress he was confident the United States would, by appropriate means, extend them the support the situation requires. He added:

"I am sure that the determination of the free countries of Europe to protect themselves will be matched by an equal determination on our part to help them do so."

Council Created

The pact created a "consultative council" to consider any situation which may constitute a threat to the peace anywhere in the world. Four of the signers—Britain, France, the Netherlands and Belgium—are the world's greatest colonial powers.

The treaty is without precedent in European history. Its signers were the countries which in the past have borne the brunt of attacks from the east.

Its defense provisions were not limited to another attack by Germany, although that possibility was specifically mentioned. The signers bound themselves against "any policy of aggression."

Defense was only part of the pact. Far reaching economic coordination was envisaged which one signer said would bind the countries together to make their power equal to any others—such as the United States and Russia.

Its purpose did not stop there. Both Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain and George Bidault of France hailed it as the foundation of future developments and the cornerstone of European rebirth.

The pact was signed at 5:04 p. m. (11:04 a. m. EST) in the solemn sessions hall of the Palace of Acadames. Besides Bevin and Bidault the other foreign ministers who signed were Joseph Bech of Luxembourg, Baron C. C. W. Van Boetzelaer of the Netherlands and Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium.

Main Points of Pact

The main points of the pact:

1. The powers commit themselves to preserving fundamental human rights, democracy, personal freedom and their western constitutional traditions.

2. They will come to each others' defense if any of them is attacked in Europe, join on alliance against one of them, and settle their own disagreements peacefully, if need be through the world court at the Hague.

3. They will eliminate conflict in their economic policies, coordinate their production and develop their mutual trade; they will similarly make agreements developing their social legislation and improving living standards.

4. They will encourage tighter cultural ties, bringing their populations as well as their national activities closer together in spirit.

5. To accomplish all this the five countries will set up a permanent super-council which will meet continuously. Other countries may join the pact if all members agree.

6. The treaty goes into effect as soon as ratified by each country. No country may withdraw before at least 50 years have passed.

Symbol Of Support

The Foreign Ministers at the treaty-signing ceremony sat on five armchairs arranged in a slight arch—the symbol of mutual support.

Bevin, who fathered the pact, said: "This treaty is not as we see it, the end. It is the beginning. It is a foundation, a kind of foundation that has not been attempted before."

Bidault painted a picture of post-war ruin in Europe and declared "this drama has lasted long enough. We are here to put an end to it by all means at our disposal."

He described the creation of a European union as "the great political act through which is expressed our will, and from which there is no turning back."

No Internal Intervention

Spaak said the treaty had "a scope never reached before" among sovereign powers.

"We do not intend to intervene in the internal affairs of anybody, but we demand of all others the same abstention," he declared. "By putting together all our resources we will be equals of the biggest powers of the world."

The military aspects of the treaty was stated in the fourth article. It said:

"If any of the high contracting parties should be the object of an armed attack in Europe, the other high contracting powers will, in accordance with the provision of Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, afford the party so attacked all the military and other aid and assistance in their power."

Stability Threat

The pact specified that the consultative council determine "steps to be taken in case of renewal by Germany of any aggressive policy or with regard to any situation constituting a danger to the economic stability."

Nowhere did the Soviet Union or communism come in for direct mention.

In obvious reference to the European recovery (Marshall) plan, the pact said the common aims "shall not involve any duplication of, or prejudice to, work of other economic organizations" of which they are members. It promised to assist the work of these groups.

5 Nations Sign Arms Assistance Treaty

Brussels, March 17 (AP) — Five western democracies bound themselves together today in a 50-year military, political and economic alliance.

Foreign Ministers of Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg signed the treaty pledging mutual military aid if any one of the nations is attacked. The accord was signed in the sessions hall of the Brussels Palace of Academes. The way was left open for other nations to join. A specific objective cited was co-operation to make economic recovery effective.

Russia was not mentioned. The pact specified that it was drafted within the scope of the United Nations Charter, which provides for regional security combines.

To Consult On Threats

The five nations ordered the formation of a continuing "consultative council" which is to meet immediately "to consult with regard to any situation which might constitute a threat to peace."

The countries represent a combined area of 333,000 square miles and 106,000,000 persons.

[Prime Minister Attlee said in London that the alliance was "directed against none." He said "it is rather an association of like minded neighbors."

[Winston Churchill called Attlee's statement in the House of Commons "momentous."]

The alliance was forged last week while communism was advancing westward, absorbing Czechoslovakia and grasping for Finland.

Parliaments Must Approve

The accord forbids any adhering nation to enter an alliance or coalition directed against any one of the signing countries.

Parliaments of each country must approve the treaty.

[The French Foreign Ministry denied newspaper reports that a "secret military protocol" setting up a joint general staff had been agreed upon.]

Paul-Henri Spaak, of Belgium, who signed first, said the treaty "has a scope never reached before now." The alliance, he vowed, is in defense of "political democracy."

"We have avoided every provocation," he said. "We do not intend to intervene in internal affairs of anybody, but we demand of all others the same abstention. . . .

"By putting together all our resources, we will be equals of the biggest powers of the world and thereby capable of filling our full role."

Lasting Benefits Are Seen

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault spoke of the postwar ruin in Europe and said:

"Our accord came of our own will, without interference or call from anybody. We are laying the cornerstone of European reconstruction without fear or favor."

Then, in obvious reference to Russia's sway over eastern Europe, Bidault said:

"We do not want to talk of blocs or even to mention there is a precedent."

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said the treaty was not fashioned for short-term benefits. He added:

"We are laying the foundations of a structure which will be of lasting benefit. We are preparing measures to give the structure lasting security.

"No Time To Lose"

"There is no time to lose. The problems of the postwar world are great."

Joseph Bech spoke for Luxembourg and Baron C. C. W. van Boetzelaer for Holland.

The treaty's fourth article was the crux of the agreement. It said:

"If any of the high contracting parties should be the object of an armed attack in Europe, the other high-contracting powers will, in accordance with provisions of Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, afford the party so attacked all the military and other aid and assistance in their power."

Although the five powers did not mention Russia by name, the text did specify that the consultative council would determine "steps to be taken in case of a renewal by Germany of any aggressive policy."

Significantly, the treaty added:

"Or with regard to any situation constituting a danger to economic stability."

In seven points of the prelude to the treaty, the five western democracies pledged themselves to work together "in maintaining international peace and security and in resisting any policy of aggression."

May Invite Others

Leaving the door ajar for additions to the alliance, the pact said the five countries "may, by agreement, invite any other state" to agree to its terms.

Under the plan, any such country invited could become a party to the agreement by depositing its acceptance with the Belgian Government.

The countries formally declared their "close community of interests" and expressed their belief in the "necessity of uniting in order to promote the economic recovery of Europe."

The treaty promised to "organize and co-ordinate their economic activities to produce the best possible results by the elimination of conflict in their economic policies, the co-ordination of production and the development of commercial exchanges."

Co-Operation Offered

Obviously bearing in mind co-operation with the other eleven nations and western Germany under the European Recovery Program, the accord said the common aims "shall not involve any duplication of, or prejudice to, work of other economic organizations" of which they are members. On the contrary, the treaty said the alliance would assist such organizations.

This in line with Bevin's announced goal of building a hard core for a future western European union, while developing economic co-operation among the sixteen Marshall-plan nations.

The agreement on mutual military aid referred directly to resistance against "an armed attack on Europe."

Aid Is Pledged

The preamble to the treaty reaffirmed the nations' faith in fundamental human rights and the principles of democracy, personal and political liberty and constitutional traditions. It cited the five countries' determination to further economic recovery in western Europe and to assist each other in maintaining peace and resisting "any policy of aggression."

Britain, France, Belgium and the Netherlands—all have scattered colonial possessions. Some of the territories even now are troubled by internal dissension and pressures from without. Presumably, the provision for common action would not apply to these.

The Text of Fifty-Year Pact Signed in Brussels

LONDON, March 17 (AP)—Following is the text of the treaty among Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, signed at Brussels today:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Belgium, the President of the French Republic, President of the French Union, Her Royal Highness the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg, Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands and His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas:

Resolved:

To reaffirm their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in other ideals proclaimed in the Charter of the United Nations:

To fortify and preserve the principles of democracy, personal freedom and political liberty, the constitutional traditions and the rule of law which are their common heritage:

To strengthen, with those aims in view, the economic, social and cultural ties by which they are already united:

To cooperate loyally and to coordinate their efforts to create in Western Europe a firm basis for European economic recovery:

To afford assistance to each other, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, in maintaining international peace and security and in resisting any policy of aggression:

To take such steps as may be held necessary in the event of a renewal by Germany of a policy of aggression:

To associate progressively in the pursuance of these aims other states inspired by the same ideals and animated by the like determination:

Desiring for these purposes to conclude a treaty for collaboration in economic, social and cultural matters and for collective self-defense, they have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Belgium: Paul-Henri Spaak;

The President of the French Republic, President of the French Union: Georges Bidault:

Her Royal Highness the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg: Joseph Bech;

Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands: Baron van Boetzelaer;

His Majesty, the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland: Ernest Bevin;

Who, having exhibited their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

Convinced of the close community of their interests and of the necessity of uniting in order to promote the economic recovery of Europe, the high contracting parties will so organize and coordinate their economic activities as to produce the best possible results, by the elimination of conflict in their economic policies, coordination of production and development of commercial exchanges.

The cooperation provided for in the preceding paragraph, which will be effected through the consultative council referred to in Article VII as well as through other bodies, shall not involve any duplication of or prejudice to the work of other economic organizations in which the high contracting parties are or may be represented, but shall on the contrary, assist the work of those organizations.

ARTICLE II

The high contracting parties will make every effort in common, both by direct consultation and in specialized agencies, to promote the attainment of a higher standard of living by their peoples and to develop on corresponding lines the social and other related services of their countries. The high contracting parties will consult with the object of achieving the earliest possible application of the recommendations of immediate practical interest relating to social matters, adopted with their approval in the specialized agencies. They will endeavor to conclude as soon as possible conventions with others in the sphere of social security.

ARTICLE III

The high contracting parties will make every effort in common to lead their peoples toward better understanding of the principles which form the basis of their common civilization and to promote cultural exchanges by conventions between themselves or by other means.

ARTICLE IV

If any of the high contracting parties should be the object of an armed attack in Europe, the other high contracting parties will, in accordance with the provisions of Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, afford the party so attacked all military and other aid and assistance in their power.

ARTICLE V

All measures taken as a result of the preceding article shall be immediately reported to the Security Council. They shall be terminated as soon as the Security Council has taken the measures necessary to maintain or restore international peace and security.

The present treaty does not prejudice in any way the obligations of the high contracting parties under the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations. It shall not be interpreted as affecting in any way the authority and responsibility of the Security Council under the Charter to take at any time such action as it deems necessary in order to maintain or restore international peace and security.

ARTICLE VI

The high contracting parties declare, each so far as he is concerned, that none of the international engagements now in force between him and any other high contracting party or any third state is in conflict with the provisions of the present treaty. None of the high contracting parties will conclude any alliance or participate in any coalition directed against any other of the high contracting parties.

ARTICLE VII

For the purpose of consulting together on all questions dealt with in the present treaty, the high contracting parties will create a consultative council which shall be so organized as to be able to exercise its functions continuously. The Council shall meet at such times as it shall deem fit. At the request of any of the high contracting parties, the Council shall be immediately convened in order to permit the high contracting parties to consult with regard to any situation which may constitute a threat to peace, in whatever area this threat should arise, with regard to the attitude to be adopted and the steps to be taken in the case of a renewal by Germany of an aggressive policy, or with regard to any situation constituting a danger to economic stability.

ARTICLE VIII

In pursuance of their determination to settle disputes only by peaceful means, the high contracting parties will apply to disputes between themselves the following provisions:

The high contracting parties will, while the present treaty remains in force, settle all disputes falling within the scope of Article 36, Paragraph 2 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice by referring them to the court, subject only in the case of each of them to any reservation already made by that party when accepting this clause for compulsory jurisdiction to the extent that that party may maintain the reservation.

In addition, the high contracting parties will submit to conciliation all disputes outside the scope of Article 36, Paragraph 2 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice. In the case of a mixed dispute involving both questions for which conciliation is appropriate and other questions for which judicial settlement is appropriate, any party to the dispute shall have the right to insist that the judicial settlement of the legal questions shall precede conciliation. The preceding provisions of this article in no way affect the application of relevant provisions or agreements prescribing some other method of pacific settlement.

ARTICLE IX

The high contracting parties may, by agreement, invite any other state to accede to the present treaty on conditions to be agreed between them and the state so invited. Any state so invited may become a party to the treaty by depositing an instrument of accession with the Belgian Government. The Belgian Government will inform each of the high contracting parties of the deposit of each instrument of accession.

ARTICLE X

The present treaty shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be deposited as soon as possible with the Belgian Government.

It shall enter into force on the date of deposit of the last instrument of ratification and shall thereafter remain in force for fifty years.

After the expiry of the period of fifty years, each of the high contracting parties shall have the right to cease to be a party thereto provided that he shall have previously given one year's notice of denunciation to the Belgian Government.

The Belgian Government shall inform the governments of the other high contracting parties of the deposit of each instrument of ratification and of each notice of denunciation.

In witness whereof the above mentioned plenipotentiaries have signed the present treaty and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at Brussels this 17th day of March, 1948, in English and French, each text being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Belgian Government and of which certified copies shall be transmitted by that Government to each of the other signatories.

Americans to Issue Funds as Soon as Truman Signs Assistance Bill.

Marshall Plan Countries Report Interim Funds Forestalled Serious Collapse.

Paris, March 17 (A. P.).—Short term aid from the United States prevented a serious collapse in Europe, representatives of the sixteen Marshall plan nations said today.

The interim aid, they said in an official report, enabled stricken countries to pull through. The report added: "This aid was designed with limited objectives and could not modify the situation as a whole.

The French version of the report used the word "brutal" to describe the threatened collapse. The official English translation changed the word to "serious."

The report, approved at yesterday's final session of the "Big 16," said that European countries have been able to help one another "in certain directions but in others co-operative progress is closely linked with the availability of external aid."

"Nor is the production picture by any means one of unrelieved gloom," the report said. "In certain important items, for instance coal, iron and steel, wheat sowings, &c., in which self help was possible, energetic action has been taken with positive and encouraging results."

External Aid Vital

The report said recent developments confirmed forecasts of both the American Government and the Committee of European Economic Co-Operation and demonstrated that without external aid the economic situation of the European Continent would continue to deteriorate.

The report said European countries have been able to help one another "in certain directions, but in others co-operative progress is closely linked with the availability of external aid."

Mutual Help Upheld

It added the sixteen nations have shown "their realization of the importance of carrying through measures of mutual help which lay within their own power" and have done what they could to get results.

The "working party," including experts from all sixteen nations, starts work today. These officials will be joined soon by representatives from the British-American and Frenche zones of Germany. The delegates voted yesterday to include western Germany in the so-called Marshall Plan Union.

The working party's job will be to:

1. Write a treaty for all to sign.
2. Lay out the shape of a permanent organization.
3. Prepare for the next conference.

The group is under strict secrecy orders from the CEEC.

Its instructions did not include anything concerning Portugal's proposal that the committee consider the admission of Spain to work on "the economic reconstruction of Europe." British delegates considered the move merely a friendly gesture by Portugal. The British said that there had been too much opposition, including their own, for the proposal to be considered seriously at the present time.

Aid Due To Be Put Into Effect Quickly

Paris, March 17 (AP)—American dollars will start clanking on European counters almost as soon as President Truman's pen is dry after signing the European reconstruction bill.

A high American source in Paris said today the machinery is all set to begin parcelling out the long-awaited Marshall plan aid as soon as the program gets past the House of Representatives and the President signs it.

Eventual Checkup

"All America demands of the organization now being born in Paris is a serious indication that these countries are willing to work together and help themselves," the informant said. "They can start receiving aid even before they have an organization of their own if we feel sure they are going to have one eventually."

"Eventually," he added, the United States wants countries receiving Marshall plan aid to have a strong administration unit setup in some European capital where a close check can be kept on the expenditure of the funds.

To start things rolling, as soon as President Truman signs the bill, this informant said, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has set aside a billion dollars to be applied to the European aid fund.

Once the bill has been signed in the White House, he said, diplomats in Washington representing the countries participating in the program will be summoned to the State Department. Each will be asked his country's immediate needs and then will be asked to sign an agreement that he is willing to sign a bilateral treaty with the United States.

16-NATIONS GROUP MEETS

Officials Writing More Detailed Economic Basis

Paris, March 17 (AP)—Officials of the sixteen nations in the Marshall plan met twice today to write a more detailed basis for their permanent organization for mutual economic defense.

The officials were acting as deputies for their Foreign Ministers, who yesterday agreed to build such a structure and underwrite it with a treaty on economic co-operation.

Their specific task was to complete instructions for the international working committee. This committee is to draft plans for the organization and the treaty within the next month. Claude Bouchinet-Serreules, secretary general of the sixteen-nation group, said the working committee will be at work in two or three days.

Representatives From Germany

In Frankfurt steps already were being taken to name the representatives of western Germany to the committee. The American Military Government announced that Lawrence Wilkinson, economic adviser to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, and Dr. Karl W. Bode would represent the American zone.

The British are sending Sir Cecil Weir, economic adviser to General Sir Brian Robertson, and Brigadier E. V. Daley. German experts in the negotiations will be named in about a week.

A high American source said the machinery is all ready to start distributing Marshall-plan dollars as soon as the House of Representatives approves the measure and President Truman affixes his signature.

He said the United States wants the countries receiving aid to have a strong organization of their own to keep a close check on expenditure of the funds. But "they can start receiving aid even before they have an organization if we feel sure they are going to have one eventually," he said.

Billion Is Set Aside

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has set aside $1,000,000,000 to be applied to European aid as soon as the measure is passed, he added. It will not be necessary for a country receiving aid to sign first a treaty with the United States. It will only need to signify its willingness to sign a treaty.

An official report declared American interim aid before the Marshall plan had prevented a "serious collapse" in Europe this winter.

France, Austria and Italy were named as the countries rescued by more than $500,000,000 in interim aid.

Britain Denies U.S. Urged Ouster

London, March 17 (AP)—A Government spokesman denied today that Britain's decision to eject Communists from Government posts handling state secrets resulted from American pressure.

The London Daily Express said the Cabinet ordered the purge after the United States threatened to stop sending Britain information on weapon research.

"There's absolutely no truth whatsoever in the report," the spokesman said. "The matter was not discussed with the United States. There was no pressure, suggestion or interference from the outside."

He said the action had been under contemplation "for some time" and the decision reached "with considerable reluctance."

He added "I cannot deny that recent decisions in Europe helped the decision at this time."

U.S. Writer Thinks Czechs Trailed Her

London, March 17 (AP)—Mrs. Marcia Davenport, American novelist, said today that she believed she had been trailed by four Czechs when she went to an airport yesterday to meet a former employé of Jan Masaryk.

Masaryk, Foreign Minister of Czechoslovakia, died in a fall from his Prague office after the Communist coup.

Mrs. Davenport lived in Prague for a number of years and came here March 7 after the Communists took over. She wrote "Valley of Decision" and "East Side, West Side."

The writer said she complained to police after one of the men questioned her chauffeur about her identity. She said she left the airport immediately without waiting for her friend. The four men disappeared.

London newspapers displayed the story prominently.

British Airbases In Trans-Jordan

London, Thursday, March 18 (AP). Britain traded money, military material and aircraft for the right to maintain airbases and train troops in Trans-Jordan under a new twenty-year joint defense treaty, it was disclosed today.

Terms of the pact signed Monday at Amman provide that either country would "invite" the other to bring in forces in the event of war "or a menace of hostilities." A joint defense board is established to decide where British troops may be stationed in the country. RAF airbases are to be maintained at Amman and Mafrak.

Arab Legion Grant

Britain agreed to provide arms, ammunition, aircraft and other war material to Trans-Jordan and continue financial assistance to King Abdullah.

Diplomatic sources said this meant continuance of Britain's annual £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) grant for maintenance of the Arab Legion, a 15,000-man desert fighting force.

Britain will supply personnel for training Trans-Jordan forces.

The pact with Palestine's next-door neighbor replaces one of two years ago. Arab leaders criticized the old treaty because it allowed Britain to station troops anywhere in the country without consultation.

BRITISH FOOD OUTLOOK

London, March 17 (A. P.).—Minister of Food John Strachey said today the "non-dollar world is beginning to recover in the nick of time" for Britain, but she still needs food from hard currency countries.

At a news conference attended by Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps, Strachey said Britain is now buying "dollar foods" only from Canada. He estimated that 46 per cent of the food to be imported in the first six months of 1948 would come from the sterling area and only 25 per cent from hard currency countries, with medium and soft currency areas providing 29 per cent.

London, March 17 (A. P.).—Prime Minister Attlee told the House of Commons today that the five-Power alliance was "directed against none." He said that "it is rather an association of like-minded neighbors." Winston Churchill called Attlee's statement "momentous."

Mannerheim Denies He Has Gone Into Exile

Says Trip From Finland to Switzerland Was Urged by His Doctor in January

STOCKHOLM, March 17 (AP).—Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, arriving here today from Finland to see his personal physician, strongly denied published reports he was going into exile. The former President of Finland said he would continue to Switzerland to take care of his health. He is suffering from a duodenal ulcer.

"I categorically deny all rumors I am going abroad as an exile," he said. For emphasis he repeated the word "categorically."

Baron Mannerheim, the eighty-year-old field marshal who led his country in three wars against Russia, arrived aboard the Wellame from Helsinki. He will confer here with Dr. Nanna Swartz. He said the Switzerland trip was decided upon when he conferred with the well known woman physician here last December and January.

Grenade Toss Is Deplored

Copenhagen, March 17 (AP)—Police said an unidentified man threw a grenade at Communist party headquarters here today, and broke a window. Premier Hans Hedtoft issued a statement deploring the incident.

Italy Red Labor Boss Sees New U.S. Pressure

Rome, March 17 (AP)—Italy's Communist labor boss, Giuseppe di Vittorio, accused the United States today of applying "new electoral pressure in favor of Italian reactionary parties."

The secretary general of the Left-ist-led 6,000,000-member Confederation of Labor (CGIL), reacted swiftly to a United States Department of Justice statement yesterday barring the immigration of Italian Communists.

"Recall of this old measure," di Vittorio said, "is a new manifestation of partisanship not worthy of the traditions of the democratic United States.

"Absolutely Useless"

"Democracy means understanding toward those who do not have your own ideas. Publicity given this old measure is an attempt to exert even in this field (emigration) electoral pressure in favor of the Italian reactionary parties and is absolutely useless."

A spokesman for the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service in Washington yesterday said a 1918 law bars anyone from entering the United States who believes in the overthrow by force or violence of the American Government.

The Justice Department has placed Communists among the groups to be excluded from the United States.

The announcement by the Justice Department followed by 24 hours after a State Department declaration that American aid would be halted if Italy goes Communist in the April 18 elections.

Italy Takes A Stand

These Washington developments were matched in Rome by Italy's stand against Russian demands that the question of $100,000,000 in Italian reparations be tied to negotiations for a Soviet-Italian trade treaty.

A Foreign Office spokesman last night accused Russia of seeking to divert part of Italy's industry "to the sole advantage of the Soviet Union." The statement, in effect, rejected Soviet insistence that payment of the reparations be arranged in advance.

Under the peace treaty, Italy is not obliged to begin reparations payments until September 15, 1949.

Private Dollars for Spain

Credits Available, "Other Changes Possible," Says U. S. Diplomat

BARCELONA, Spain, March 17 (AP).—Paul Culbertson, Charge d'Affaires of the American Embassy at Madrid, said tday that Spanish business and industry now may negotiate for private dollar credits.

"Commercial exchange between Spain and the United States can be an incentive for private credits," he told the American Chamber of Commerce. "Concession of such credits is now possible. Their negotiation will be a matter of interested parties.

Russ-Sector 'Terror'

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—Col. Frank L. Howley, American commandant of Berlin, charged today that a "reign of terror" is being waged against non-Communist Germans in the Soviet sector of the city.

Howley told a news conference this terror is being conducted by the Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party with the support of Russian authorities.

Campaign Of Insults

He asserted that by kidnappings, unwarranted arrests and other terroristic acts the Communists in the Soviet sector are "making it practically impossible for the three democratic (non-Communist) parties to operate there."

Howley said the Socialist Unity party was "waging a campaign of violent, insulting lies against the United States military government, the United States Army and the American people."

He said Berlin's anti-Communist Socialists had reported that 1,600 persons had vanished in Berlin in recent months under circumstances "suggesting political persecution."

Communists Warned

The commandant warned the Communists and reassured anti-Communists that civil liberties and human rights of Germans would be protected in the United States sector of the city.

"The American military government and American troops here feel entirely competent to maintain law and order in our sector," he said.

Discussing openly expressed Socialist fears that the Communists would attempt a "Prague-like coup" to seize full control in Berlin, Howley asserted:

"I don't believe the Socialist Unity party would be silly enough to try it."

A. M. G. Jails 3 Germans Trying to Kidnap Ex-Red

BERLIN, March 17 (AP)—Two German policemen and a woman were convicted today of trying to abduct a former Communist youth leader of the Soviet Zone from the American sector of Berlin. The intended victim was Guenther Makosch, who fled the Soviet Zone and is reported to be an employee of the American military Government.

Judge John A. Sabo, presiding over the A. M. G. court, said the attempted abduction was "another in a long series of invasions of freedoms guaranteed by United States forces to citizenry."

Othmar Lutz was sentenced to five years. Kurt Mueller drew a four-year sentence, and Mrs. Kaethe Schmidt, a telephone operator who the court said was used as a lure, three years. All are from Potsdam.

Lutz, employed by the Potsdam criminal police in the Russian Zone, said he acted under orders of superiors who received them from a Russian major. He said he was told to pick up Makosch and take him to the Russian occupation zone. Members of the United States Counter-Intelligence Corps prevented the seizure.

Russ Families Told To Quit Berlin, Report

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—Die Welt, official German newspaper of the British Military Government, said today Russian families in Berlin have been told to return to Russia.

Mothers and children must leave by May, the paper said. It added that similar orders have been issued to families of Soviet occupation personnel in Dresden.

Noted Czechoslovak Trial Lawyer Flees

Frankfurt, Germany, March 17 (AP)—Jaroslav Drabek, famed Czechoslovak prosecutor, has fled safely into the United States zone of Germany. Drabek's arguments sent to the gallows Karl Frank, the German "protector" of Bohemia. Drabek slipped across the heavily guarded border with his wife and two sons last week. His presence was concealed until the Czechoslovak Government announced last night he had fled.

3 Powers To Study Armored Tactics

Frankfurt, Germany, March 17 (AP)—United States, French and British army officers will attend an eight-day conference in France on cavalry and armored warfare tactics. It starts March 30.

United States constabulary headquarters announced the meeting, sponsored by French Army headquarters. The statement said other unspecified "western European armies" will be represented.

Col. William M. Greear, of Clovis, N.M., constabulary chief of staff, will represent the United States.

Austria Plans Amnesty Bill

VIENNA, March 17 (AP)—Th Austrian Cabinet agreed today o a law providing termination of a penalties for former minor mem bers of the Nazi party. The am nesty bill, to be presented to th Austrian Parliament immediately will affect approximately 300,00 persons.

Death Terms Given 2 Co-Operative Leaders

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 17 (AP)—Two leaders of a large state food co-operative were sentenced to death today as saboteurs and another was given a life term at forced labor.

The defendants were accused of speculating with the peoples' money, black marketing Yugoslav products in Trieste and foreign countries, selling state secrets and sending inferior materials to contractors outside Yugoslavia, thus damaging the country's commercial reputation.

America to sail from New York February 11 and consequently arrived in Cherbourg February 18 and did not arrive in Prague until February 19.

"The Government crisis in Prague began February 17, when non-Communist ministers left the cabinet, and thereafter did not participate in further cabinet meetings. Furthermore I did not see or communicate in any manner whatsoever with any members of the Czechoslovak Government, Communist or non-Communist, between November 24 and until long after the govern-

Steinhardt Refutes Wallace

Envoy Says Candidate Must Have Been Well Briefed by Reds on Czech Crisis.

Prague, March 17 (A. P.).—United States Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt said today "Henry Wallace appears to have been well briefed by his Communist associates" on affairs in Czechoslovakia.

Steinhardt issued a formal statement denying that he had helped provoke the Government crisis in which the Communists seized power in Czechoslovakia. He wasn't even there at the time, the Ambassador said.

Wallace, third party candidate for President, told a news conference in New York Monday that Steinhardt had issued a statement the day before the Communist coup "hoping to precipitate a crisis." He declared Steinhardt was "thinking he was assisting in ousting the left" from the Prague Government.

Steinhardt's reply said:

"For an individual who has no personal knowledge of recent events in Czechoslovakia, Henry Wallace appears to have been well briefed by his Communist associates."

"His wholly unfounded assertion merely discloses his recklessness in failing to inform himself that I departed from Czechoslovakia for the United States November 24, 1947, and entered Mount Sinai Hospital in New York city for a surgical operation.

"Early in December I had booked my passage on the S. S.

ment ca[illegible] was over and the new Comm[illegible]ist government in power."

Wallace's Cha[illegible] Flimsy, Says

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Ma[illegible] 17 (AP)—United States Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt said tonight a charge by Henry A. Wallace that Steinhardt aided in provoking the Czech Government crisis was "pretty flimsy."

Wallace, third-party candidate for President, said Monday in New York that Steinhardt issued a statement the day before the Czech Communist coup "hoping to precipitate a crisis." Wallace amplified this statement today by saying he referred to a statement by the Ambassador February 20 in which he said he hoped Czechoslovakia would participate in the Marshall plan.

Steinhardt said tonight that upon his return to Czechoslovakia after a visit of almost three months, he told Czech newsmen that he believed Czechoslovakia might receive some indirect benefits from the Marshall plan and that he hoped the Czech Government "might still join this effort."

Saying that a mere expression of hope that the Marshall plan may succeed amounts to provoking a Government crisis is pretty far-fetched," Steinhardt said.

PRAGUE RADIO GIBES AT TRUMAN ADDRESS

PRAGUE, March 17 (AP)—The Government-controlled radio said tonight that it was significant that President Truman had called for universal military training when Russia was demobilizing soldiers.

[Dispatches Tuesday said Russia had demobilized all but the 21 and 22-year-old classes. There is no information about what the permanent size of the Soviet Army will be.]

The radio commentary tonight was the first hint of the trend of official thinking in this latest European land to pass into Communist control. Excerpts from Mr. Truman's address to Congress will not be published until tomorrow. Many Czechs who heard a broadcast of summaries said they felt East-West relations had deteriorated further.

The radio commentator said the President had made his proposals to Congress "at a time when Greece is an American colony and Germany is being given a place among the beneficiaries of the Marshall Plan."

He added that "it is believed in Czechoslovakia that there are other ways to preserve peace than to introduce universal military service."

He added that "it is believed in Czechoslovakia that there are other ways to preserve peace than to introduce universal military service."

Vlado Clements, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said in an address today that never since the days of Hitler Germany has "international reaction" been so vicious in attacking Czechoslovakia.

CZECH REDS TO END IMMUNITY OF FIVE

Prague, March 17 (A. P.).—A parliamentary committee demanded that immunity be stripped from five legislators at today's session of Parliament.

The body also is expected to vote on the arrest and trial for treason of the five. Two of the five are reported to have fled the country.

The accused deputies include Vladimir Krajina, former general-secretary of the Czech National Socialist party; Jan Ursiny, former Deputy Premier; Fedor Hodza, former Secretary-General of the Slovak Democratic party, and Alois Cizek, accused of being Krajina's aid in an alleged plot to spy on the security police. The name of the fifth person was not disclosed. The leftist paper, Prace, reported that Krajina and Cizek fled after the recent Communist coup. Prace added that Jarosalv Drabek, a national socialist, former procurator of the people's court, who obtained the conviction and execution of Karl Frank, Nazi "protector" of Bohemia, also had fled.

There were unconfirmed reports that Votja Benes, brother of President Eduard Benes, had escaped over the border.

Justice Minister Alexaj Cepika said in a broadcast over the government-controlled Prague radio that 200 civilians were arrested during and after the recent coup which brought the Communists to power.

ENVOY TO REWARD REDS FOR RUNNING

Warsaw, March 17 (A. P.).—United States Ambassador Stanton Griffis today offered a pair of nylons to the Pole who sets the speed record in a Communist-backed police athletic meet here next week.

"I want to see how fast a Communist can run," he said.

Russo-Swiss Trade Pact Signed

Moscow, March 17 (AP)—Switzerland and the Soviet Union signed a trade agreement today. Details will be announced tomorrow.

FOUR SLAIN AS REBELS SHELL 2 GREEK CITIES

ATHENS, March 17 (AP)—The Greek general staff announced tonight that guerrillas had shelled the northern Greek cities of Xanthe and Comitini. Four persons were killed and eight were injured.

The communiqué said 100 shells fell in Xanthe, northeast of Salonika, last night and 200 in Comotini. Comotini is a city of 30,000.

The army and the guerrillas were being pursued.

Press dispatches said that the Greek Air Force attacked two guerrilla landing strips recently discovered in the Lake Prespa area at the junction of the Albanian, Yugoslav and Greek borders.

The American Aid Mission said that a new airfield costing $120,000 was being built at Bisdouni in the north and was being surfaced with steel nets.

Press dispatches reported guerrilla activity in several northern areas. A band of about 1,200 was being attacked from the air at Servia and Livadion at the foot of Mount Pierria. A group of 120 looted four villages in the Pharsala area and abducted twenty persons, including fourteen young girls, the dispatches said. Thirty-eight dead guerrillas were found in the village of Yerma, north of Kozane, and a communiqué said forty-five more were killed around Servia.

Pleasure in Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey, March 17 (AP)—Government quarters said tonight that President Truman's message to Congress "either will check Russian activities or bring about a showdown."

Foreign Office spokesmen declined specific comment until they have the official text, but their first reaction was pleasure.

"Truman could not do or say more now," one spokesmen said. He asked not to be identified by name.

Turks found particularly interesting Mr. Truman's support for a Western alliance and extension of help to "all free nations" of which Turkey feels herself to be one.

CHINESE ARMY EASES MUKDEN'S BLOCKADE

PEIPING, March 17—(AP) Mukden's long blockade has been eased by government troops who have opened a highway leading to China proper, press dispatches said today.

These accounts said the government wedge in Manchuria also had been widened by the capture of Sinlitun, a main bulwark 70 miles west of Mukden. They predicted a railroad link to Mukden soon would be reopened to supplement the new highway route.

Against these successes, the Peiping press reported the outer defense of Changchun, Manchuria's capital, were being harassed by communists who may be preparing a full-scale attack.

In North China, martial law was proclaimed in Tsinan, capital of Shantung Province. Communist troops were advancing on the city from positions 15 miles away.

Six Marines Hurt in Accident

TSINGTAO, China, March 17 (AP)—Six United States Marines were wounded, three seriously, when a rifle grenade exploded accidentally yesterday. Marine headquarters withheld their names.

Army Doctor Dies In Fire

Tokyo, March 17 (AP)—The Army announced today Capt. William H. Weldin, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., perished in a week-end fire in the officers' quarters at Johnson Air Base, west of Tokyo.

Tokyo Has Al Fresco Courts

TOKYO, March 17 (AP)—Tokyo police set up open-air courts on busy downtown streets today to slap instant fines on jaywalkers, two-on-a-bike riders, reckless drivers and speeders. Fines ranged up to 3,000 yen ($60). A few offenders were taken to jail.

10,000 Chinese Reds Reported in Manila

Manila, March 17 (A. P.)).—Senator Salipada Pendatun told the Senate last night that Government intelligence reports showed there are 10,000 Chinese Communists in this area. He accused them of responsibility for the murder of 200 Chinese in the islands since 1945, but did not elaborate.

Pendatun also said there were 145 Russians registered with the Bureau of Immigration.

SNIPER KILLS EX-NEWYORKER

Ari Lashner Slain Near Palestine Village.

Jerusalem, March 17 (A. P.).—A former Brooklyn, N. Y., resident, the fourth American citizen to be killed since communal fighting broke out in the Holy Land, was shot by sniper fire, it was disclosed today.

Ari Lashner was shot while repairing a wire line yesterday at the village of Kfar Blum, Jewish informants said.

The police said that ten Arabs were killed and forty-eight persons were injured when Jews manning a road block near Kiriath Motzkin blew up an Arab truck full of explosives. Seven Arabs, thirty-nine Jews and two British soldiers, the report said, were injured. The soldiers were in a truck passing the scene in the Haifa Bay area.

Consul's Daughter Detained.

The police also announced that the 13-year-old daughter of the Ethiopian vice-consul, missing for two hours yesterday, had been detained for questioning by the Jewish Civil Guard. The police said that the girl was suffering from shock when found after two hours of detention in a schoolhouse.

Her detention followed by only two days a consular corps statement deploring what it termed the failure of both Jews and Arabs to accord diplomatic immunity to consular staffs' families and property.

A Jewish Agency spokesman said that a board of three lawyers investigating the Ben Yehuda street bombing in Jerusalem on February 22 had charged that an armored car occupied by Britons led the bomb trucks to the scene. The report said that no Arabs were in evidence at the time. The document was signed by David Goiten, Asher Levitsky and I. Ilshan.

Blast Kills 10 Arabs As Jews Riddle Truck

Jerusalem, March 17 (AP)—Jews manning a road block near Haifa today blew up an Arab truck packed with explosives, killing ten Arabs and wounding 48 other persons, police said.

The wounded included 39 Jews, seven Arabs and two British soldiers. Many of the victims were believed to be passersby. The soldiers were riding on a passing truck. Seven Arabs and ten Jews were in a serious condition.

Houses Damaged

The blast occurred when the Jews fired on the truck, one of three vehicles in a convoy. The explosion left a crater 40 feet in diameter, caused electric cables to collapse and damaged near-by houses. The other two vehicles in the convoy were wrecked.

An official statement said the Jews fired at the Arabs as the latter sought to force their way past the road block near Kiriath Motzkin, a coastal village midway between Haifa and Acre.

The blast and other violence in the Holy Land brought to 1,804 the unofficial death toll since the November 29 United Nations decision to partition Palestine.

Arab Leader Voices Threat

Abdul Kader Husseini, commander of the Palestinian Arab Army, told newsmen that Arabs would capture or destroy Hebrew University and Hadassah Hospital on Mount Scopus outside Jerusalem if the Jews continued to use them as bases for attacks.

He was reported also to have informed the American consulate that the Arabs were not planning any attacks against it but that he learned the Jews might bomb American property "in such a way as to make it look like the Arabs are guilty."

Scrap Partition Plan, Arab Leaders Warn

Beirut, Lebanon, March 17 (AP)—Arab leaders said today there would be no truce in Palestine until the plan to partition the Holy Land was abandoned.

The Chinese, French, Russian and United States delegates to the United Nations Security Council issued an appeal at Lake Success Monday for a truce in the Arab-Jewish fighting.

Abdelu Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, said the four-power appeal had not been received here and that the league would take no formal action until it arrived.

The Arab higher executive decided, however, that nothing could be done until "the reason for fighting (partition) is dropped by the United Nations," it was reported.

JAVA CENSORSHIP CHARGED

Correspondents Protest to Lie on News of U. N. Commission

BATAVIA, Java, Thursday, March 18 (AP)—The foreign correspondents' committee protested to Trygve Lie today that United Nations public relations policy here was resulting in "virtual censorship."

The committee asked that the United Nations Good Offices Committee, engaged in seeking a political settlement between the Dutch and the Indonesian Republic, assign a press officer to function in the same manner as the Lake Success press staff.

The formal protest to the Secretary General of the United Nations followed months of individual and collective protests to the committee here.

The committee members have refused to talk to correspondents regarding the negotiations. Information to the press has been limited to communiqués submitted beforehand to both the Dutch and the Indonesians. As a result they have been uninformative.

Burma Reds Plan Strikes, Officials Say

Rangoon, Burma, March 17 (AP)—Labor Ministry officials said today that Burmese Communists are planning strikes to paralyze Burmese industry and then hope to seize the Government.

In a statement to reporters, officials said Communists hope strikes on a national scale will wreck the country's economy and disrupt the Government, opening the way for a coup.

Meanwhile, as the Government-formed Industrial Court prepared to convene in the two-week-old strike of Burma oil workers, a strike was threatened by workers at the British-owned Rangoon Electric Supply Company.

The electrical workers said they will strike unless demands are met by Friday. Their demands include one for payment of salaries during the war years.

Canada Removes Curbs On Uranium Prospecting

OTTAWA, March 17 (AP).—Private prospecting for uranium and other radioactive minerals is to be permitted and encouraged by the Canadian government under a plan announced in the House of Commons by Reconstruction Minister C. D. Howe.

Announcing removal of restrictions by which the crown reserved title to these minerals, he said the United States Atomic Energy Commission's policy is "along parallel lines."

Mr. Howe said the radioactive ores, when mined, will be purchased by the government through Eldorado Mining and Refining, Ltd., or any other designated government-operated agency.

To encourage the search for and development of atomic materials the government will pay $2.75 a pound, based on uranium content.

Canadian House Hears Of Communist Threat

Ottawa, March 17 (AP)—The Canadian House of Commons launched an emergency debate today on the subject that the nation's peace is menaced by Communist agents inside Canada.

John Bracken, leader of the official Government opposition, the Progressive Conservative party, proposed the debate to "emphasize the seriousness of the Communist menace to Canada."

Bracken added he wished to give Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King's Government a chance to state what measures it proposed to take.

Bracken said there was reason to suppose that espionage revealed during the 1945 spy trials was continuing.

MARSHALL SEES POWER NEEDED TO BACK POLICY

Lack of Military Strength Leads to Appeasement, He Tells Senators.

CALLS FOR U. M. T. AND DRAFT

Reconsideration of Air Plans Also Held Necessary—Concerned by Trend.

Washington, March 17 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall told members of Congress today that "diplomatic action without the backing of military strength in the present world can lead only to appeasement."

Marshall testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee in support of universal military training and temporary enactment of a selective service law.

The committee opened hearings on these proposals only two hours after President Truman had appealed for them in a personally delivered message to Congress.

Marshall said that in addition to these man power measures "a reconsideration of our air program is also necessary."

"The combination of two things, enactment of the European Recovery Program on the one hand and a decision by the American people that clearly indicates that they are determined in their course, are necessary now, I think, to the maintenance of peace in the world," he told the Senators.

Accelerated Trend.

He expressed concern over what he called the "accelerated trend" of events in Europe, specifically mentioning the communization of the Balkan States, except Greece, and the fact that both Hungary and Czechoslovakia "have been forced into complete submission to the Communist control."

He reminded the committee that within a month—on April 18—Italy will hold a national election. This, he said, "has an important far beyond local Italian affairs."

"It will decide not only whether Italy will continue with its restoration into a true democracy," he said, "It will foretell whether the disintegrating trend to which I have referred may reach the shores of the Atlantic."

Further Advance Implied.

Since Italy does not touch the Atlantic, the plain implication of Marshall's words was that Communism would advance still further west if it engulfed Italy.

Arguing for the military man power measures, Marshall gave this summary of the position he considers the United States to be in the world:

"The clear cut issue is whether or not this country will stand before the world for at least the next five or ten years in a position appropriate to its leadership in furthering the perpetuation of free governments, and avoiding their transition into police States.

"We desire a state of affairs which would make repetitons of the fate of Hungary and Czechoslovakia, the intimidation of Finland, the subversive operations in Italy and France, and the cold-blooded efforts to destroy the Greek government unlikely, because they would definitely be fraught with real danger to those who would attempt such action."

Secretary Marshall's Plea for Universal Military Training

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 17—The text of Secretary Marshall's statement to the Senate Armed Services Committee today was as follows:

You gentlemen have asked me to give my views on the need of our country taking at this time further measures to assure the national security. Any such measures must obviously relate to the foreign policy of the United States. In the world in which we live our national security can no longer be effectively weighed and dealt with in terms of the Western Hemisphere alone.

The President has spoken to the Congress this morning in joint session. You have before you the text of his address. It is not necessary for me to repeat what he said.

I wish to express in person to you my own concern over the accelerated trend in Europe. In the short years since the end of hostilities this trend has grown from a trickle into a torrent. One by one, the Balkan States, except Greece, lost all semblance of national independence. Then two friendly nations—first Hungary and last week Czechoslovakia—have been forced into complete submission to the Communist control.

Within one month the people of Italy, whose government we had a large part in reconstituting, will hold a national election. The outcome of that election has an importance far beyond local Italian affairs. It will decide not only whether Italy will continue with its restoration into a true democracy. It will foretell whether the disintegrating trend to which I have referred may reach the shores of the Atlantic.

It is said that history never repeats itself. Yet if these free people one by one are subjugated to police state control even the blind may see in that subjugation of liberty a deadly parallel.

The Government of the United States has undertaken steps to meet this disintegrating trend in the heart of Europe. The comprehensive proposal in this regard is the recovery program legislation now under active consideration in the House. This program, I believe, is a fundamental requirement for the strengthening of the western nations of Europe.

But this economic program in the existing situation is not a complete answer. It is said that one cannot buy peace and prosperity with dollars. The accelerating march of events in European areas has now made it clear that reliance for the future safety of those areas cannot be placed alone on the slow processes of reconstruction financed with our help.

There is something more for the United States to do. We must show, conclusively, by decisive legislative action to all the nations of the world that the United States intends to be strong and to hold that strength ready to keep the European world both at peace and free.

Diplomatic action, without the backing of military strength in the present world, can lead only to appeasement. The President today indicated that we have made every effort of negotiation, and of organization in the United Nations, to find a way to understandings and agreement. I said in my final report as Chief of Staff in 1945 "war is not the choice of those who wish passionately for peace; it is the choice of those who are willing to resort to violence for political advantage."

I regard the present military policy of this Government as one based largely on meeting the problems of attrition, with the contrasting necessity for larger and larger appropriations to give us security.

Perhaps my meaning could be made clearer by a comparison of the German procedure under Hitler with that proposed under a policy of universal military training. The Nazis devoted all the resources of Germany in preparation for war on a given date, Sept. 1, 1939. The purpose and procedure under universal military training is exactly the opposite.

We would be striving to avoid such dates. We want peace, we we want to avoid war. Therefore, among other things, we want a system which will be bearable financially, which will not bankrupt the country, a system which, adjusted to world conditions, can be continued at a minimum of cost and personal contribution, a system in accordance with our traditions and strong desires.

I see no possible way financially to maintain a reasonable military posture except on the foundation of universal military training the consideration of this subject has been confused by discussions of amounts, requirements, administration and various conflicting beliefs. The clear-cut issue is whether or not this country will stand before the world for at least the next five or ten years in a position appropriate to its leadership in furthering the perpetuation of free governments, and avoiding their transition into police states.

We desire a state of affairs which would make repetitions of the fate of Hungary and Czechoslovakia, the intimidation of Finland, the subversive operations in Italy and France, and the cold-blooded efforts to destroy the Greek Government unlikely, because they would definitely be fraught with real danger to those who would attempt such action.

Many of the measures complementary to universal military training would be strengthened and facilitated by the latter. The maintenance of the Army, the Navy and the Air Force at suitable strength on a volunteer basis would be made easier, I am sure. But what is much more important, the National Guard would be greatly strengthened and made a vital citizen force immediately in an emergency, which it cannot be under existing conditions. The quality of the ROTC would be much improved, the training put on a higher level and the time for such training materially shortened.

Finally, universal military training would bring to millions of American families a sense of individual and collective responsibility of the duty to help assure security and peace for ourselves and for the world. There is evidence that the majority of American men and women are ready to follow courageous leadership toward that end.

Due to the rapid dwindling in the strength of the armed forces, the temporary application of selective service is necessary. A reconsideration of our air program is necessary, but first of all, I am convinced that the decision of the American people to adopt the democratic procedure of universal training would strengthen every free government.

The combination of two things, the enactment of the European Recovery Program on the one hand and a decision by the American people that clearly indicates that they are determined in their course, are necessary now, I think, to the maintenance of peace in the world.

Referring to a discussion of universal military training in my final report as Chief of Staff in September 1945, I closed with these words: "We can fortify ourselves against disaster, I am convinced, by the measures I have here outlined. In these protections we can face the future with a reasonable hope for the best and with quiet assurance that even though the worst may come, we are prepared for it."

PIPELINE STEEL EXPORTS EYED BY FORRESTAL

Survey Ordered In Check Of Oil Resources In Middle East

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Uncertain world conditions today led the United States to double-check the oil setup at home and in Saudi Arabia:

1. Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a Senate Small Business Committee that he has asked military experts whether it is advisable to continue shipping steel to build pipelines in the Middle East.

2. The National Petroleum Council said the American oil industry must have 15,571,500 tons of steel during the next eighteen months and must drill a record total of 37,600 new wells this year.

3. Secretary of Commerce Harriman promised he will not grant export quotas for the second quarter of this year until Forrestal has completed his study.

4. Harriman said an American owned company building the Saudi Arabian pipeline has changed the design and routing of the line so the entire flow could go to Persian Gulf ports instead of Lebanon "if conditions required." The concern is the Trans-Arabian Pipeline Company.

Touches Broad Issue

Senator Taylor (R., Idaho) bluntly asked if it would be possible to keep oil flowing from the Middle East to western Europe in case of war with Russia. Forrestal said he was not qualified to answer that.

The Defense Secretary said the survey he has requested deals only with the broad question of whether it is more desirable to employ a pipeline or tankers to carry oil to the Mediterranean. He said he expected an answer this week.

Forrestal said he was influenced by the world scarcity of oil last October when he recommended that steel be shipped to Saudi Arabia to complete the pipeline.

"In the light of events of the last several weeks," he said, he had asked for a new survey.

Steel Would Be Help

Even if the steel exports are stopped, he said, there is no guarantee that it will increase oil output here because there are no controls to route the material to the oil industry.

But Walter S. Hallanan, chairman of the National Petroleum Council, indicated in his estimate of needs for domestic use that an increase in steel here could help solve the shortage.

The council advises the Interior Department on oil matters. Its 15,571,500-ton steel figure was designed to cover the period from April 1, 1948, to September 30, 1949.

The council worked from estimates by the Interior Department that the United States will use oil at the rate of 6,250,000 barrels a day this year, 6,550,000 next year and 6,800,000 daily in 1950.

United States oil consumption in 1946 was 5,321,000 barrels a day, and in 1947 it was 5,900,000 barrels daily.

To meet their share of the national demand, American producers must drill 37,600 new wells this year, the greatest drilling development in United States history.

U. S. MAY STOP AID TO MID-EAST

OIL PRODUCTION

Forrestal Tells Senators Recent Events Call for Restudy of Plan.

STEEL SHIPMENTS INVOLVED

Defense Secretary Says Military Experts Will Have to Advise Him on Situation.

Washington, March 17 (A. P.).—Defense Secretary Forrestal said today that events in the last several weeks may force this country to change its plans to boost the production of Middle Eastern oil. He has already asked military experts to say whether it is advisable to continue shipping steel to build pipelines in Saudia Arabia, and "within the next forty-eight hours, certainly by the end of the week, I shall have an answer to it," he told a sub-committee of the Senate Small Business Committee.

This answer, he emphasized, will deal only with the broad question of whether it is more desirable to employ a pipeline or tankers to carry oil from Saudia Arabia to the Mediterranean. "The conclusion of the appropriate military people is not the only consideration," he declared, and added that even if it were decided to halt steel exports to the Middle East, there was no guarantee that the steel saved could be more effectively used to build up oil production in this country. There are no Government controls over the domestic use of steel.

Asked About Soviet.

Senator Taylor (D.-Idaho) asked whether it would be possible to keep oil flowing from the Middle East to Western Europe in the event of a conflict with Russia. Forrestal said he was not qualified to answer that—that he would have to consult the military experts. He added: "The answer would be a highly complex one."

Recalling that he had told the committee last October it was advisable to keep on shipping steel to Saudia Arabia, Forrestal declared that he was influenced then by the world scarcity of oil, the need for Middle Eastern oil to aid Europe and purely military considerations. "Taking all these things into account,I said it was desirable to complete the pipeline," he testified, but added. "In the light of events in the last several weeks I have asked the appropriate military authorities to make a new survey."

May Switch Outlet.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman promised the committee that he will not grant export quotas for the second quarter of this year until Forrestal completes his study.

Without mentioning Russia by name, Harriman disclosed that an American-owned company building the Saudi Arabian pipeline has revised its plan. The pipeline was designed originally to carry 300,000 barrels of crude oil daily from Saudi Arabia to the Mediterranean Sea near Sidon, Lebanon, but recently Harriman received this advice, he said, from the builder, the Trans-Arabian Pipeline Company: "The design and routing of the line have been altered somewhat so that, if conditions require it, the netire output of the pipeline can be made available at the Persian Gulf."

At present, Harriman said, the Western Hemisphere supplies, roughly, 15 per cent of the petroleum needs of western Europe and the Middle East about 25 per cent. He added: "With the expansion projects now under way in the Middle East, it is expected that by 1951 this ratio will be reversed. In other words Europe would then draw over 80 per cent of all its oil needs from the Middle East and less than 20 per cent from the Western Hemisphere.

Lehman Says U.S. Aids Arabs

In War on U. N.

Urges End to Embargo on Arms in Plea for Funds for United Jewish Appeal

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP). —Former Governor Herbert H. Lehman of New York accused the Arab countries of making war on the United Nations tonight. He said the United States is giving them "aid and comfort."

Opening the Washington drive in the nation-wide $250,000,000 United Jewish Appeal campaign, Mr. Lehman called on the United States to lift immediately its embargo on arms shipments to Palestine, and urged the U. N. Security Council to send an international police force to Palestine "to prevent breach of the peace and nullification of its own decision" on partition of the country to form a Jewish state.

Mr. Lehman said the Arab forces opposing partition "can without difficulty get all the arms they need" from neighboring countries while the Jews are left defenseless by the ban on arms exports here.

He urged the United States "to reexamine the effects of its embargo and to see that we do not give aid and comfort to aggressors who constitute a threat not only to peace in Palestine but to peace everywhere."

"Surely the nations of the world must recognize that if the aggressors are victorious not merely Jewish Palestine but the United Nations will suffer moral defeat," he said.

The opening of the Jewish fund drive here coincided with its start in 3,500 communities over the nation. The United Jewish Appeal supports the reconstruction programs of the Joint Distribution Committee, United Palestine Appeal and United Service for New Americans.

REDS WON'T START WAR, IS STIMSON'S BELIEF

WASHINGTON, March 17—(AP) Henry L. Stimson believes America's best answer to Communism is to prove that the Democratic way of life is here to stay, growing richer and more stable as the years pass.

The former Secretary of State and of War says he doesn't expect Russia to start a war. He writes in the Ladies Home Journal that if the Democratic philosophy wins out in the non-Communist nations the Russian leaders will have to either "change their minds, or lose their jobs."

To help along the success of democratic nations he counsels quick American aid to Europe and belief that the United States is now committed to a role of world leadership.

This Stimson discussion of Russia-versus-Western democracies is the last excerpt from his book "On Active Duty" which has been appearing serially.

56 NEW SHIPS 1948 MAJOR U.S. URGED

Washington, March 17 (A. P.). —The immediate building of fifty-six ships to restore the competitive world position of the American Merchant Marine was urged upon Congress today. Representative Wolverton (R.-N. J.), chairman of the House Commerce Committee, told the Merchant Marine Committee that the domestic shipbuilding industry "is gasping and dying for lack of work."

The Merchant Marine Committee has no legislation before it, but is studying the whole maritime picture. The need for ship construction was emphasized by John Green, president of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America.

"In prewar 1939," Green said, "the annual average employment in new ship construction was 45,000 (men). The war lifted the level to 1,225,000 in 1943. As of last December, it is estimated that less than 30,000 men were engaged in New York.

"Just as important as maintaining a stable industry is the problem of maintaining a core of experienced, skilled, and trained shipyard workers."

To Ferry Planes to China.

Oakland, Cal., March 17 (A. P.). —Transocean Air Lines announced today it will begin ferrying 150 transport planes to Shanghai next month for delivery to the Chinese Air Force. China purchased the planes, all Curtiss Commandoes, in this country.

Reds Have Killed Liberty In Romania, Mihai Says

New York, March 17 (AP)—Former King Mihai says Russia, resorting to "fraud and terror," has wiped out the "last vestiges of liberty" in Romania.

The abdicated Romanian ruler, speaking last night at the annual dinner of the Overseas Press Club of America, said, however, that all his countrymen "join me in this faith—that, under leadership of the Western democracies, the nations of the world can regain independence and their citizens individual liberty."

Recalls Assurances

The 26-year-old Mihai, who recently repudiated his abdication, said he had received Soviet assurances in 1944 that there would be no interference in Romania's domestic affairs, but declared:

"Our powerful neighbors, with whom we had hoped to collaborate peacefully and freely, imposed upon us a government which in no way represented the will of the people.

"...It has seen fit to jail the most popular representatives of Romanian democracy. It has falsified elections. And, through fraud and terror, it has foisted upon Romania institutions that are absolutely alien to the spirit and life of the people."

Hope In Economic Aid

Another speaker, John J. McCloy, president of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, expressed belief that economic aid to Europe still could save the peace.

Other speakers included Bernard M. Baruch and Brig. Gen. Charles T. Lanham, chief of the information and education division of the Department of the Army.

UN VOTES TO AIR CZECH RED COUP

MAR

Council Beats Down Bitter Soviet Objections to Probe of Chilean Charges

LAKE SUCCESS, March 17. —(AP) The Security Council beat down bitter Soviet objections today and began probing into the communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

The vote to take up the case was 9 to 2. Seven affirmative voters were needed.

Only Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, and his Soviet Ukrainian colleague, Vassily A. Tarasenko, voted no.

The United Nations thus began a full airing of Chilean charges against Russia a few hours after President Truman told congress in Washington that Russia is trying to dominate all of Europe.

Calls Speech "Propaganda"

Just before the council convened Gromyko told reporters he considered President Truman's speech to be "propaganda mainly for internal consumption."

Mr. Truman's address plainly overshadowed the tense developments here. The largest crowd to attend a council meeting in months applauded three separate times as delegates answered Gromyko and Tarasenko.

The complaint against Russia was brought before the council by Hernan Santa Cruz, Chilean delegate and vice president of the U.N. economic and social council, on the personal and direct orders of the president of Chile.

Gromyko lost no time telling the council that the complaint was "pure slander." Gromyko charged that "influential external circles" were acting through "puppets" and "lackeys" to bring the Czechoslovak case here.

Santa Cruz, Warren R. Austin of the United States, Dr. Alfonso Lopez of Colombia and Dr. T. F. Tsiang, of China, teamed up in a sharp rebuke to Gromyko for using what they called aggressive language.

The council adjourned the Czechoslovak debate until 2:30 p. m. (E.S.T.) Monday after hearing Santa Cruz declare Chile does not want the U.N. to suffer the same fate as the League of Nations.

Santa Cruz said his country believed it had a moral obligation to sponsor the charges against Russia originally made a week ago today by Dr. Jan Papanek. Papanek was Czechoslovakia's delegate then but the Prague government fired him last Saturday. He has declined to accept dismissal.

Before the council convened 14 demonstrators calling themselves "American Friends of Slovak Freedom" paraded in a parking lot on U.N. grounds.

They carried banners denouncing Premier Stalin of Russia and what they called Russian imperialism. One of the group described the organization as a separatist group which seeks sovereignty for Slovakia.

Gromyko caused a flare-up with Austin when he attacked American newspapers. They clashed on whether Gromyko called the American press "yellow."

The official United Nations verbatim record of the meeting showed Gromyko said the Chilean document "is drafted in the frivolous language of some of the editorials appearing in the "yellow" part of the United States press."

Austin answered that Gromyko's statement had reflected upon the press of the United States. He said that Gromyko had levelled a charge at "yellow" newspapers.

"I could not follow this fast enough to get the exact language," Austin said to the council, "but you recall 'yellow press of America' and the charge of 'warmongering' against people in the United States of America, including very highly placed persons."

Austin said all of these charges must be given a hearing.

Gromyko replied in the council that he did not use the word "yellow" and that he was not referring to all of the American press. He did not mention any names.

Gromyko declared that he actually had said that the Chilean document is written "in the frivolous language of editorials in certain cheap boulevard American newspapers."

U.N. Czech Debate Seen As Crisis

Lake Success, March 17 (AP)—The United Nations faced a grave crisis today as the Security Council prepared to open debate on the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

The issue was so explosive that some delegates feared it might lead to a irreparable break between Russia and the Western powers.

The specific question before the Council was a Chilean proposal that the Council investigate Russia's role in the Czechoslovak situation.

Gromyko Is Silent

Prior to the meeting, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko remained grimly silent. There was little doubt, however, that he would fight bitterly to bar debate on the Chilean proposal. The veto does not apply on a question of procedure.

At least five of the Council's eleven members are reported definitely lined up in favor of putting the issue on the Council's agenda for a full airing. These are the United States, France, China, Britain and Belgium.

The attitude of Argentina, Canada, Colombia and Syria still is uncertain. Two of these four must vote for a debate on the Chilean proposal to give it the necessary seven votes.

Ousted Delegate On Hand

The Soviet Ukraine is expected to vote with Russia.

Jan Papanek, friend of the late Jan Masaryk, planned to be on hand despite the fact he has been fired by the new Prague Government. He maintains he still is Czechoslovakia's delegate to the United Nations.

Vladimir Houdek, who was named Monday as Papanek's successor, also expected to be there.

Palestine Accord In Offing

Lake Success, N.Y., March 17 (AP). The big powers were reported in virtual agreement tonight on a compromise report covering the fighting in Palestine.

A United Nations press officer said delegates of the United States, Russia, France and China have drafted a set of joint conclusions to present to the Security Council Friday morning. He said the near agreement was reached at a two-hour session tonight and that only a minor point remained unresolved.

It was understood that the compromise conclusion came after efforts for Jewish-Arab conciliation or a truce failed.

The press officer said the conclusions included these basic points:

1. The Security Council would make it clear that it is determined not to permit the existence of a threat to peace in Palestine.

2. The Security Council would take every step within its power to end violence and disorder in the Holy Land.

The report was described as preliminary to later big-power efforts on what to do about the situation.

Britain boycotted tonight's big-power meeting as usual, but it was believed that any suggestions carrying the support of the other four major countries would be adopted by the eleven-nation council.

Arms Loaded Aboard Turkish Ship In N.Y.

New York, March 17 (AP)—Tanks, trucks, guns and ammunition were loaded aboard the Turkish freighter Yazgat today in the Erie basin, Brooklyn. The New York port of embarkation said the material was part of United States military aid to Turkey.

The tanks were army-type M-24 light tanks, armed with 77-mm. guns. Approximately 60 were to be put aboard. The guns were 105-mm. cannon.

The ship is expected to sail Friday for Istanbul.

But Pole 'Thinks Nothing Of It'

Lake Success, N.Y., March 17 (AP). Western-nation delegates to the United Nations hailed President Truman's address to Congress.

The first comment from the eastern Europe bloc was by Dr. Juliusz Katz-Suchy, of Poland, who said:

"I think nothing of it."

The Polish delegate stressed the word "nothing."

Joao Carlos Muniz, Brazilian delegate, said:

"A very strong speech. It sets forth the need for action in view of a situation that calls for action."

Camille Chamoun, of Lebanon, a leading Arab spokesman, said:

"The President was 100 per cent right in giving a realistic picture of what has been happening in Europe during the past years and to some states in the Middle East. Whether it (the speech) will strengthen or weaken the United Nations depends on future events."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD TRUMAN (ROUNDUP)

BY ED CREAGH

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 17-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN PROCLAIMED THIS COUNTRY "THE PRINCIPAL PROTECTOR OF THE FREE WORLD" TODAY AND CALLED FOR FULL MILITARY STRENGTH, BACKED BY A NEW DRAFT LAW, TO GIVE FORCE TO HIS DECLARATION.

MR. TRUMAN SAID "THE VERY EXISTENCE OF DEMOCRACY" IS THREATENED BY COMMUNIST EXPANSION. THE TIME HAS COME, HE SAID, TO "JOIN OUR STRENGTH WITH THE STRENGTH OF OTHER FREE MEN THE WORLD OVER" TO STOP IT.

WITH SCORN AND INDIGNATION IN HIS VOICE, THE PRESIDENT ACCUSED "ONE NATION"--RUSSIA--OF TRYING TO SABOTAGE THE PEACE AND OF SEEKING TO SPREAD TOTALITARIAN RULE OVER THE STILL-FREE DEMOCRACIES OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THESE COUNTRIES, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WE MUST SUPPORT WITH OUR FULL STRENGTH--"MILITARY, ECONOMIC AND MORAL."

HE SAID THE SITUATION IN EUROPE IS "CRITICAL." AND HE WARNED THAT THE U.S., IN THE COMING YEAR, MAY HAVE TO TAKE RISKS "GREATER THAN ANY THIS COUNTRY HAS BEEN CALLED UPON TO ASSUME."

BUT HE DECLARED:

"WE MUST BE PREPARED TO PAY THE PRICE OF PEACE OR ASSUREDLY WE SHALL PAY THE PRICE OF WAR."

THE PRESIDENT'S GRIM, FAR-REACHING EXTENSION OF HIS "TRUMAN DOCTRINE" CAME IN TWO INSTALLMENTS. HE ADDRESSED A HUSHED JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS AT 12:30 P.M., EST, AND THEN FLEW TO NEW YORK TO SPEAK AT A ST.PATRICK'S DAY DINNER.

HE RECOMMENDED TO CONGRESS THREE "MOST URGENT STEPS TOWARD SECURING THE PEACE AND PREVENTING WAR":

1. QUICK ADOPTION OF THE $5,300,000,000 (B) EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. CONGRESS STEPPED UP ACTION ON THAT RIGHT AWAY.

2. UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING--FOR ALL YOUNG MEN. CONGRESS WAS DIVIDED ON THAT, ALTHOUGH THERE WAS SOME STRONG SUPPORT FOR IT IN THE SENATE ESPECIALLY.

3--SELECTIVE SERVICE--TO GIVE THE ARMED FORCES THE MEN THEY NEED, PRESUMABLY NON-VETERANS UP TO THE AGE OF 26 OR 30, UNTIL UMT GETS ROLLING. MANY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS HAD THEIR DOUBTS. THEY ASKED FOR FURTHER PROOF THAT IT IS NECESSARY.

IN HIS NEW YORK SPEECH, PREPARED FOR THE FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK, MR.TRUMAN DECLARED THAT THE ISSUE CONFRONTING THE WORLD TODAY "IS AS OLD AS RECORDED HISTORY."

"IT IS TYRANNY VERSUS FREEDOM," HE SAID.

AND BY TYRANNY, THE PRESIDENT SAID, HE MEANT COMMUNISM--WHICH HE ASSAILED AS A DENIAL OF GOD AND OF MAN'S RIGHT TO GOVERN HIMSELF.

IT WAS THERE THAT HE DECLARED: "WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, OUR PEOPLE NOW UNDERSTAND THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS BECOME THE PRINCIPAL PROTECTOR OF THE FREE WORLD."

TO CONGRESS, MR.TRUMAN SAID GRAVELY:

MAR 1948

"THE TIME HAS COME WHEN THE FREE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE WORLD MUST FACE THE THREAT TO THEIR LIBERTY SQUARELY AND COURAGEOUSLY X X X

"WE MUST BE PREPARED TO PAY THE PRICE OF PEACE OR ASSUREDLY WE SHALL PAY THE PRICE OF WAR."

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL BACKED THE PRESIDENT'S WORDS BY TELLING THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE LATER IN THE DAY:

"DIPLOMATIC ACTION WITHOUT THE BACKING OF MILITARY STRENGTH IN THE PRESENT WORLD CAN ONLY LEAD TO APPEASEMENT."

THE PRESIDENT SPOKE IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CHAMBER, WHICH WAS PACKED TO OVERFLOWING. SPONTANEOUS APPLAUSE, CARRIED TO THE NATION AND THE WORLD BY RADIO, CRACKLED OUT WHEN HE ANNOUNCED THE SIGNING OF A MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT BY FIVE OF THESE NATIONS IN BRUSSELS.

FIRMLY, THE PRESIDENT SAID:

"I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL, BY APPROPRIATE MEANS, EXTEND TO THE FREE NATIONS THE SUPPORT WHICH THE SITUATION REQUIRES.

A212WX

"I AM SURE THAT THE DETERMINATION OF THE FREE COUNTRIES OF EUROPE TO PROTECT THEMSELVES WILL BE MATCHED BY AN EQUAL DETERMINATION ON OUR PART TO HELP THEM DO SO."

BESIDES UMT AND SELECTIVE SERVICE--THE DRAFT IS NEEDED ONLY UNTIL UMT IS PUT ON A "SOLID FOUNDATION," HE SAID--MR.TRUMAN APPEALED FOR STILL FASTER ACTION ON THE $5,300,000,000 (B) EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

"TIME IS NOW OF CRITICAL IMPORTANCE," HE WARNED.

SOVIET PRESSURE, MR.TRUMAN DECLARED, IS BEING BROUGHT ON FINLAND "TO THE HAZARD OF THE ENTIRE SCANDINAVIAN PENINSULA."

GREECE, HE SAID, IS UNDER "DIRECT MILITARY ATTACK" BY REBEL FORCES "SUPPORTED BY HER COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NEIGHBORS."

AND IN ITALY, WHERE CRUCIAL ELECTIONS ARE COMING APRIL 18, "A DETERMINED AND AGGRESSIVE EFFORT IS BEING MADE BY A COMMUNIST MINORITY TO TAKE CONTROL," THE PRESIDENT SAID.

CONGRESS LISTENED INTENTLY TO MR.TRUMAN'S 20-MINUTE ADDRESS AND WAS OBVIOUSLY IMPRESSED BY HIS WARNING THAT THE SITUATION IS "CRITICAL."

BUT MANY SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES SHOWED UNWILLINGNESS TO GO ALONG WITH HIS PROPOSAL TO BRING BACK THE DRAFT--PARTICULARLY IN AN ELECTION YEAR--WITHOUT THOROUGH STUDY. SOME SAID THEY WOULD NEED MUCH MORE EVIDENCE THAN MR.TRUMAN OFFERED THAT THE DRAFT WAS NECESSARY.

THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE CALLED SECRETARY MARSHALL TO TESTIFY, SHORTLY AFTER MR.TRUMAN'S ADDRESS, ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING. THERE WAS NO PARALLEL ACTION, HOWEVER, IN THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE WHERE A UMT BILL HAS BEEN BOTTLED UP FOR MONTHS.

ON SPEEDING THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM THERE WAS GENERAL AGREEMENT. THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE CALLED ITS THIRD NIGHT SESSION IN A ROW IN THE HOPE OF COMPLETING ITS FOREIGN AID BILL THIS WEEK AND GETTING ACTION BY THE FULL HOUSE BEFORE EASTER. THE SENATE ALREADY HAS PASSED THE ERP MEASURE.

MR.TRUMAN WORE A LIGHT GREY SUIT WITH A GREEN NECKTIE AND MATCHING BREAST POCKET HANDKERCHIEF. LIKE MOST OF THE SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, HE WORE A GREEN ST.PATRICK'S DAY CARNATION IN HIS LAPEL.

HE SMILED AND NODDED ACKNOWLEDGEMENT TO THE APPLAUSE THAT GREETED HIM WHEN HE ASCENDED THE MARBLE DAIS, BUT HIS EXPRESSION GREW SOBER AND EVEN GRIM WHEN HE BEGAN SPEAKING--WITH A REFERENCE TO THE "CRITICAL NATURE OF THE SITUATION" IN HIS OPENING SENTENCE.

TRUMAN INTERPRETIVE
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "STOP RUSSIA" PROGRAM APPEARS DESIGNED TO CONFRONT MOSCOW WITH THE DANGER OF WAR IF COMMUNIST POWER TRIES TO EXPAND INTO WESTERN EUROPE.

THE ADMINISTRATION IS REPORTED TO HOPE THAT STRONG U. S. ACTION NOW WILL (1) CAUSE SOVIET PREMIER STALIN TO CALL A HALT TO COMMUNIST AGGRESSION, AND (2) STRENGTHEN RESISTANCE IN WESTERN EUROPE.

HOWEVER, IT WAS LEARNED AUTHORITATIVELY THAT SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL AND HIS RUSSIAN EXPERTS ARE HIGHLY UNCERTAIN AS TO WHETHER EVEN STALIN CAN STOP THE COMMUNIST DRIVE.

THERE IS DEEP OFFICIAL CONCERN HERE, ACCORDING TO RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS, THAT THE COMMUNISTS' SUCCESSES IN EASTERN OFFICIALS, THAT THE COMMUNISTS' SUCCESSES IN EASTERN EUROPE MAY LEAD THEM TO ACTS WHICH COULD CAUSE WAR.

IN ADDITION MARSHALL IS KNOWN ALSO TO MAKE ONE GREAT RESERVATION REGARDING THE RUSSIANS THEMSELVES--EVEN THOUGH THEY MAY NOT WANT WAR, THEY ARE PRESUMABLY AFRAID OF THE SUCCESS OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM AND MAY FEEL COMPELLED TO EXTEND THEIR CONTROL AS FAR AND FAST AS THEY CAN BEFORE IT BECOMES EFFECTIVE.

TWO INCIDENTS CAN NOW BE REPORTED AS EVIDENCE OF THE SITUATION WITH WHICH OFFICIALS FELT THEY HAD TO DEAL URGENTLY.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF POWER IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MARSHALL WAS EXCHANGING VIEWS WITH BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER BIDAULT ON WHAT THE THREE WESTERN POWERS OUGHT TO DO.

THEY FINALLY DECIDED ON A JOINT STATEMENT DENOUNCING THE COMMUNIST COUP BUT BEVIN SAID, AND MARSHALL AGREED, THAT THE STATEMENT ACTUALLY WOULD AMOUNT TO NOTHING MORE THAN "A CONFESSION OF IMPOTENCE" ON THE PART OF THE THREE NATIONS.

WITHIN THE HOUR, MARSHALL RECEIVED A MESSAGE FROM AMBASSADOR WALTER BEDELL SMITH IN MOSCOW URGING THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HERE GET CONGRESS TO TAKE PROMPT ACTION ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING. SMITH ARGUED IN EFFECT THAT SUCH ACTION "IS THE ONLY LANGUAGE" MOSCOW WOULD UNDERSTAND.

AT THE SAME TIME THE ADMINISTRATION WAS RECEIVING A FLOOD OF REPORTS (A) ON RUSSIAN PRESSURE ON FINLAND FOR A MILITARY ALLIANCE AND (B) THE HIGH STATE OF TENSION EXISTING IN OTHER COUNTRIES WEST OF THE "IRON CURTAIN."

THE ADMINISTRATION IS PREPARED TO ARGUE IN CONGRESS FOR THE UTMOST SPEED IN PUTTING THE EUROPEAN AID-DRAFT-MILITARY TRAINING PROGRAM INTO EFFECT. OFFICIALS APPEAR CONCERNED AS MUCH FOR THE EFFECT ON WESTERN EUROPE AS FOR THE REACTION IN MOSCOW.

THERE HAS BEEN, FOR INSTANCE, CONSIDERABLE SPECULATION, BOTH HERE

AND ABROAD, THAT THE RUSSIANS MIGHT MAKE DEMANDS ON NORWAY TO RING
HER INTO THE SOVIET ORBIT.
SO FAR AS IS KNOWN NO SUCH DEMANDS HAVE YET BEEN MADE BUT THE JITTERY NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT APPARENTLY FEARS THAT THEY WILL COME IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

A51WX

IN SUCH A CASE, NORWAY PRESUMABLY WOULD BE INFLUENCED GREATLY BY THE SUPPORT WHICH OSLO COULD EXPECT FROM WASHINGTON.
IN THE CASE OF ITALY, THE PROBLEM IS DIFFERENT. THE ADMINISTRATION'S FEAR IS EITHER THAT THE COMMUNISTS MIGHT SHOW GREAT STRENGTH IN THE APRIL ELECTIONS OR THAT, IF THEY BELIEVED THEY COULD NOT WIN POWER AT THE POLLS, THEY WOULD TRY TO TAKE IT BY FORCE.
THE PRESIDENT'S STATE DEPARTMENT ADVISERS BELIEVE THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST TAKE ACTION TO MEET EITHER KIND OF DEVELOPMENT. THEY EVIDENTLY FEEL THAT IF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE ARE CONVINCED WE ARE BEHIND THEM THEY WILL VOTE AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS. IF THE COMMUNISTS TRY TO SEIZE POWER BY FORCE THE ADMINISTRATION EVIDENTLY BELIVES THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST PROVIDE WHATEVER HELP IS NECESSARY TO ITALY'S NON-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT TO KEEP IT FROM BEING OVERTHROWN.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 17-(AP)-SENATOR TAYLOR (D-IDAHO), HENRY WALLACE'S

TAYLOR, VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE ON THE WALLACE THIRD PARTY

FOR GREATER ARMED STRENGTH TO BLOCK THE SPREAD OF RUSSIAN COMMUNISM.
BUT SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS) AND OTHERS DEFENDED THE PRESIDENT AND CRITICIZED TAYLOR.

SALTONSTALL SAID MR.TRUMAN SPOKE AS A CITIZEN "INTERESTED IN THE

"I AM NOT SURE WHO THE GENTLEMAN FROM IDAHO WAS JUST SPEAKING

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) SAID HE RECOGNIZED TAYLOR'S RIGHT TO SPEAK,
BUT HE ADDED "THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT BUT THAT THE PRESIDENT LAID DOWN BEFORE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THE GREAT ISSUE WE ALL MUST FACE."

MAR 1948

SENATOR HOLLAND (D-FLA) EXPRESSED HIS "DEEP APPRECIATION" TO SALTONSTALL AND MORSE. HE SAID MEMBERS OF CONGRESS SHOULD HAVE LISTENED TO THE PRESIDENT "AS TRUE AMERICANS AND NOT AS APOLOGISTS FOR A FOREIGN IDEOLOGY."

HOLLAND SAID TAYLOR "UNFORTUNATELY SITS ON THE SAME (PARTY) SIDE OF THE AISLE AS I DO." BUT HE SAID HE WANTED "TO DISASSOCIATE MYSELF AS STRONGLY AS I CAN FROM WHAT I REGARD AS OVER-FRIENDLY EXPRESSIONS" TOWARD RUSSIA.

IN ATTACKING MR.TRUMAN'S APPEALS FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING AND A RENEWED DRAFT, TAYLOR SAID THIS COUNTRY IS FILLED "WITH WARLIKE TALK" WHILE RUSSIA IS DEMOBILIZING ITS FORCES.

HE ALSO NOTED THAT MR.TRUMAN SAID THE TIMES ARE TOO CRITICAL TO LET POLITICAL DIFFERENCES INTERFERE WITH NATIONAL SAFETY. HE CONTINUED:

"IF HE MEANT BY THAT THAT WE MUST ALL UNITE FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING, IF HE MEANT WE MUST ALL UNITE FOR THE DRAFT, I CAN GUARANTEE THERE WILL BE POLITICAL OPPOSITION. I CAN GUARANTEE THERE WILL NOT BE POLITICAL UNANIMITY."

SHOULD THE NEED FOR COMMON ACTION AGAINST AN ATTACK BE INVOKED, THE PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES WOULD BE REQUIRED TO REPORT IMMEDIATELY TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL OF THE U.N. THE DEFENSIVE MEASURES TAKEN.

DELEGATE ANDREI A.GROMYKO BEGAN HIS FIGHT A LITTLE OVER TWO HOURS AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD TOLD CONGRESS RUSSIA WAS TRYING TO DOMINATE ALL OF EUROPE.

GROMYKO TOLD REPORTERS HE BELIEVES THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH WAS "PROPAGANDA MAINLY FOR INTERNAL CONSUMPTION."

THEN GROMYKO TOLD THE COUNCIL IN ITS JAM-PACKED CHAMBER THAT THE CHANGE IN THE PRAGUE REGIME WAS AN INTERNAL MATTER, OUTSIDE U.N. JURISDICTION.

HE SAID ANY CHARGES THAT RUSSIA INTERFERED IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA WERE A LIBEL.

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO CHILE'S PROPOSAL THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL INVESTIGATE RUSSIA'S ROLE IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

GROMYKO SAID THE PRESENCE OF THIS PROPOSAL BEFORE THE COUNCIL PROVED THAT SOME NATIONS ARE READY TO USE ALL MEANS TO EXPLOIT THE U.N. AGAINST RUSSIA.

HE SAID CONSIDERATION OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK ISSUE MIGHT BRING "SERIOUS HARM" TO THE U.N. HE BLAMED WHAT HE CALLED "THE VENAL CLIQUE NOW IN CHARGE IN CHILE" FOR FILING THE COMPLAINT.

GROMYKO ASSERTED THIS WAS PART OF A CAMPAIGN AGAINST RUSSIA WHICH WAS "BEING USED TO STRENGTHEN THE WAR FEVER IN SOME COUNTRIES, ESPECIALLY IN THE UNITED STATES."

HE SAID CHILE'S COMPLAINT WAS DRAFTED IN "THE FRIVOLOUS LANGUAGE OF SOME OF THE YELLOW PRESS IN AMERICA."

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 17-(AP)-THE BIG POWERS WILL MEET TONIGHT FOR ANOTHER EFFORT TO UNSCRAMBLE THE PALESTINE SITUATION.

THEY ALREADY HAVE RUN OVER THE 10-DAY LIMIT SET MARCH 5 WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL ASKED THEM TO WORK ON THE PROBLEM. THEIR PRIMARY GOAL IS TO FIND SOME WAY OF CARRYING OUT PARTITION OF THE HOLY LAND, BITTERLY OPPOSED BY THE ARABS.

SO FAR, DELEGATES OF THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, FRANCE AND CHINA HAVE DISCUSSED CONCILIATION, A TRUCE AND A FINDING THAT THE PALESTINE SITUATION IS A THREAT TO WORLD PEACE.

DEBATE WILL BE CONTINUED (ABOUT 6 P.M. EST) AFTER TODAY'S SECURITY COUNCIL SESSION ON CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

YESTERDAY DELEGATES HELD A MORNING MEETING IN NEW YORK CITY AND A NIGHT MEETING HERE, WITH THESE DEVELOPMENTS:

1. AT THE FIRST SESSION A U.N. PRESS OFFICER SAID THE U.S., RUSSIA AND FRANCE HAD AGREED IN PRINCIPLE THAT THERE IS A THREAT TO WORLD PEACE IN PALESTINE THROUGH CONTINUED INFILTRATION OF HOSTILE ELEMENTS ACROSS THE BORDERS OF THE HOLY LAND. CHINA REFUSED TO GO ALONG ON THE GROUND THAT SUCH A FINDING WAS PREMATURE AND THAT IT LAID ALL THE BLAME ON THE ARABS RATHER THAN BRINGING OUT THAT THE JEWS ALSO WERE FIGHTING. BRITAIN BOYCOTTED THE MEETING AS USUAL.

2. SHORTLY BEFORE THE SECOND SESSION, RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO SAID "MISUNDERSTOOD" THAT A LATER MEETING WAS PLANNED. HE SAID HE HAD ANOTHER ENGAGEMENT AND LEFT.

3. FRANCE WITHDREW ITS APPROVAL OF THE THREAT-TO-PEACE RESOLUTION ON THE GROUND THAT IT WAS PREMATURE. THE U.S. AND FRANCE ATTEMPTED TO MEET CHINESE OBJECTIONS. THE RESULT, A U.N. PRESS OFFICER TOLD NEWSMEN, IS THAT THE EARLIER RESOLUTION IS NO LONGER UNDER DIRECT DISCUSSION, THAT A WHOLE NEW APPROACH TO THE THREAT-TO-PEACE ISSUE IS IN PROSPECT; AND IT IS AN OPEN QUESTION NOW WHETHER ANY DELEGATES AGREE.

Swedish, Norwegian And Danish Leaders Affirm Decision To Protect Freedom With All Means Against Aggression

GUSTAV SVENSSON

Stockholm, March 18 (AP)—The Premiers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark tonight jointly affirmed their decision to defend, with all means, the freedom of their countries against any outside aggression.

The three Premiers spoke before an audience of 2,000 in the Stockholm Concert Hall after a day-long confidential conference. Well-informed sources said there was no doubt they had discussed President Truman's warning of yesterday that "pressure is now being brought to bear on Finland to the hazard of the entire Scandinavian peninsula."

Denounce Communism

The three Premiers, Hans Hedtoft of Denmark, Einar Gerhardsen of Norway and Tage Erlander of Sweden, strongly denounced communism and dictatorship in their statements.

Officially, the three Premiers were having one of their periodic get-togethers as leaders of the Social Democratic parties of their nations, and not as heads of their countries. They had arranged the meeting at their last gathering in February. Consequently they issued no communiqué after their discussions.

Well-informed quarters said, however, their talks probably "touched upon all vital topics of the day," including the "momentous declaration made by President Truman, the Brussels pact, the Marshall plan, defense policy" and the traditional Scandinavian policy of neutrality in big-power politics.

Marshall Plan Co-Operation

The three Premiers in their speeches deplored "fear of a new war" and all pledged co-operation in the Marshall plan.

Describing the international situation as so tense that many doubt a peaceful solution can be found, Premier Hedtoft said there were "two main tendencies in western Europe today."

On one side, he said, were "forces striving to create stability and social peace through co-operation and reconstruction, and on the other side Communists doing their utmost to increase social unrest and block peaceful development."

[In Copenhagen, H. C. Hansen, Danish Finance Minister, called for rearmament of Denmark to safeguard the country against a possible coup. He spoke at a Social Democrat rally.]

Communists "Grave Danger"

Premier Gerhardsen said the international situation was "undeniably serious" and Communists were "a grave danger to freedom and peace."

"Every single worker in Scandinavia ought to know with scorching certainty that the workers also will lose their freedom under Communist dictatorship," he said.

Although he thought the Communists "too weak for a coup or revolutionary upheaval in Scandinavia," he warned that they would "put all their organized strength into the task of undermining the economy of the Scandinavian countries."

All three Premiers strongly denounced the Communist coup in Czechoslavakia.

"It is good to know there is no Fierlinger in our parties," Gerhardsen said. Zdenek Fierlinger is a Czechoslovak Social Democrat and co-operated with the Communists.

Communists Unmasked

Erlander said events in Czechoslovakia had unmasked Communists. "One need not any longer be in doubt as to where communism stands," he said. "It has placed itself outside of the democratic community. The fight against communism is hardening. But it will be carried out with democratic means."

"The fight against Swedish Communists," Erlander added, "will become part of the guarding of liberty and independence in Sweden."

"Everybody knows that Denmark wants to live in peace with all countries," Hedtoft said, "but if need be we will defend our independence and freedom against any attacks wherever they might come from."

Scandinavian Chiefs Hold Secret Parley

Stockholm, March 18 (AP)—The Premiers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark met today for confidential discussion of world conditions.

They are Tage Erlander, of Sweden; Hans Hedtoft, of Denmark, and Einar Garnardsen, of Norway. They decided last month to hold the meeting.

Well-informed sources said the talks "certainly will touch upon all vital topics, including the momentous declaration made by President Truman, the Brussels pact, the Marshall plan, defense policy and neutrality."

Mr. Truman said yesterday that "pressure is now being brought to bear on Finland to the hazard of the entire Scandinavian peninsula."

An informant close to the Swedish Government said it is unlikely the Premiers will consider seriously joining the 50-year military alliance signed yesterday in Brussels by Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. The informant foresaw "no change in Sweden's policy of neutrality."

NEXT MOVE PUT UP TO RUSSIA

HAL COOPER

Europe Poses Question After Truman's Speech

LONDON, March 18—(AP) President Truman's glove-off speech on Communism brought the comment in Europe tonight that the next move is up to Russia.

The question was: Will the Russians take heed and put the world Communist revolution under wraps, or will they decide that trouble is coming anyway and go full speed ahead?

The President's request for peacetime conscription and universal military training, coupled with his call for the United States to back up the free countries of Europe, was widely interpreted to mean that if all else fails the White House is ready to oppose Communism with force.

The strong stand brought its most decisive reaction from the northern countries of Europe.

In Stockholm the three premiers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark declared before a public audience after a day of secret conferences that they would defend their countries by all means against aggression. They denounced Communism and dictatorship.

From Helsinki it was reported that Finnish sentiment had hardened against any entangling military alliance with Soviet Russia. President Juho Paasikivi's instructions to the delegation going to Moscow soon were reported to include strict rules against sending Finnish troops abroad or admitting Russian troops into Finland without an invitation.

In Brussels, a spokesman for the new five-power alliance of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg expressed satisfaction at President Truman's expressed confidence the United States would help the free countries of Europe defend themselves.

In some capitals there were signs of caution or even hints of disappointment in appraising the President's remarks. Some had hoped that he would go even farther.

Defensive Policy

A Foreign Office spokesman in London said Britain welcomed the speech, "in particular the emphasis on the essentially defensive character of the American policy."

The weekly Statesman and Nation, which speaks for the moderate Left in the British Labor party, said:

"It is possible that (a military pact) by the western powers will lead to a decision by the U.S.S.R. that it is dangerous to hasten the Communist revolution. Russia may seek an agreement with America on the basis of spheres of influence.

"It is to be hoped that the effect is not to persuade the Kremlin that war is inevitable."

In Stockholm the Liberal afternoon newspaper Expressen said the time has come for "the Russian dictator" to make "a tactical retreat."

Comment In Bern

Paris evening newspapers emphasized American manpower resources with headlines like "150,000 Americans will be called to the colors," and "80,000 American recruits to be mobilized every year."

The Bern newspaper Der Bund in neutral Switzerland said Mr. Truman has practically made the United States a signer of the Brussels five-power pact.

L'Humanite, Paris Communist organ, said:

"The western bloc as soon as it was signed became the Atlantic bloc."

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, quoted from New York adverse criticism of the speech by Henry A. Wallace, third-party presidential candidate; his running mate, Senator Glen Taylor, of Idaho; Representative Dewey Short (R., Mo.), and Representatives Vito Marcantonio and Leo Isacson, only American Labor Party members of Congress.

Irrevocably War

The press in Czechoslovakia, newly dominated by communism, gave the President's program little space or ignored it.

The Dutch Socialist newspaper Het Vrije Volk said "the Russians now know exactly what they are up against when they would try to do in Italy what they did in Czechoslovakia. It will mean irrevocably war."

In Brussels the independent newspaper Nation Belge declared Mr. Truman's "words were clear" and were "a last warning to Russia and also a forecast that a United States guarantee will be extended to all democratic nations."

Spurs Reconstruction

In Frankfurt, a spokesman for the Social Democratic party of Germany said "imperialistic communism" forced Mr. Truman to ask for conscription.

Dr. Bruno Doerpinghaus, secretary of the conservative Christian Democrat-Christian Socialist Union of the Anglo-American zones, said:

"America seems to safeguard the peace of the world with force after an agreement could not be reached. The United States promises their help to European nations. This spurs us Germans to put all our strength in the reconstruction of Germany and Europe."

U.S. Press Unit Seeks To Lift Iron Curtain

London, March 18 (AP)—The United States delegation to the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information and the Press will concentrate on methods of securing easier movement of foreign correspondents through the world, William Benton said today.

Benton, former Assistant Secretary of State, is chairman of the delegation. Sixty nations are expected to take part in the conference, which will open in Geneva March 23.

A dispatch from Geneva today said Soviet Russia and the nations within her sphere of influence will participate in full strength.

More News Desired

Benton said the American delegates are "greatly interested in the movement of more news into the United States."

At the suggestion of Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor and a member of the delegation, Benton explained that he meant more news should enter the United States from countries where free reporting now is restricted.

"If we could get correspondents into Russia, it would be of immense interest in the United States," Benton said.

Reporters Restricted

American correspondents work in Moscow, but only in a few instances have they been allowed to make tours into other parts of the country.

Benton said specific United States proposals for increasing the flow of news and easing the movement of correspondents had not yet been completely formulated. He said the conference will be "dedicated solely to freedom of news" and will not cover books, movies or other ways of spreading information.

"It would be a mistake to expect too much," he said. "If we just make progress in clarifying and dramatizing the problems of freedom of the press, the conference will have been a success."

Benton said the immediate problem in increasing the flow of information is "to lower barriers."

He did not specify the barriers beyond saying that "the greatest danger is from monopoly—either private or Government." The delegation, he said, is "formulating specific recommendations against monopoly."

claimed to be fighting," Hyde said in a statement.

"It became obvious equally that Communism was incapable of providing a cure for an extremely sick world.

"I have since the end of the war been increasingly disturbed by the U. S. S. R.'s foreign policy and by events in eastern Europe. I am appalled at what has happened during recent weeks in Czechoslovakia, a country which, despite its 'western' outlook and culture, has been made to follow the rest. The way in which it was done is an indication of what may be expected in Italy, France and even Britain should the circumstances arise."

William Rust, editor of the Daily Worker, said that Hyde quit suddenly Sunday "on the grounds of policy differences."

FRENCH HOLD 11 RUSSIANS

Arrests Made At The Home Of One Of The Group

Paris, Friday, March 19 (AP)—A spokesman for the Sureté National (security police) said early today that eleven Russians had been arrested.

The arrests were made at the home of one of the group, Dimitri Odinetz, the spokesman said. The Communist newspaper Ce Soir identified Odinetz as a 70-year-old professor.

No further details were divulged.

It could not be determined whether the eleven Russians were the leaders of the supposedly defunct "Union of Soviet Citizens," who, the Interior Ministry said yesterday, will be deported to Russia.

Arrested At Meeting

The ministry said the Government ordered the organization dissolved three months ago, but learned recently a new board of directors had been formed and was meeting secretly.

The directors were arrested at one of these meetings, the ministry said, and were taken to police stations for questioning. It was not stated how many were involved.

The "union consists largely of exiled "White Russians" who have been living in France since the Russian revolution. Recently they have accepted Soviet passports.

A ministry communiqué said the directors specified they wished to return to Russia and take their families with them.

Some of the group's leaders were expelled from France last December for interference in French politics.

Fist Fights End French Session

Paris, March 18 (AP)—A session of France's upper house of Parliament ended in fist fighting today after a Rightist deputy demanded the expulsion of Communists from the nation's atomic research council, which is headed by Frederic Joliot-Curer, son-in-law of the discoverer of radium.

The fisticuffs, between Communists and Rightists, continued in the corridors for a half hour. Guards finally restored order.

The Rightist deputy, Col. Phillips Monnet, had said:

"It is regrettable to find, practically everywhere in research organizations, representatives of the Communist cells. The Communist group which refuses to vote military credits shows particular solicitude for scientific research, especially with regard to atomic energy. I demand that atomic research for national defense be confined to a group of independent men, free of Communist obedience."

ITALY CHARGES RUSSIAN PLOT

Communist Conduct Synchronized, De Gasperi Says

Rome, March 18 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi said tonight Russia and four other Cominform countries had founded "a special secret committee" to "synchronize the conduct of Communists in Italy and France."

In an open air political speech at Bologna, de Gasperi told an audience of 70,000 that "it is a fact that within the Cominform a special secret committee for France and Italy was founded."

Cominform is the short name for the Communist International Information Bureau. The Communist parties of nine European nations are members.

Preliminary Session

"This committee," de Gasperi said, "must issue directives to synchronize the conduct of Communists in Italy and France.

"It is true that a preliminary session was held before the general conference (at which Cominform was organized several months ago) with a limited number of countries adhering."

He said these delegates attended the Cominform committee's secret meeting in Poland last September: Col. Gen. Andrei A. Zhdanov, secretary general of the Russian Communist party; Milovan Djilas, of the Yugoslav Communist party; Jacques Duclos, French Communist leader, and Ana Pauker, Romanian Foreign Minister.

Defends American Aid

De Gasperi, opening his election campaign in Communist strong points of northern Italy, defended American aid to Italy. He said Italy already has received $1,800,000,000 from UNRRA and other organizations which was given by "the American people and not from American capitalists."

Yugoslavs Accused Of Violating Treaty

Rome, March 18 (AP)—Yugoslavia stood accused today of "constant violations" of the Italian peace treaty in old Italian territory the treaty gave her.

A telegram from the Italian Committee of National Liberation for Istria to Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza said Yugoslav authorities are denying Italians "fundamental rights" guaranteed by the treaty.

The committee, the group which directed the underground war against the Nazi armies, urged that a United Nations inquiry commission be sent to Istria.

The Foreign Ministry said Count Sforza "took the steps that the situation required." The ministry did not elaborate. The Count got the telegram on the eve of his departure from Paris yesterday after the sixteen-nation Marshall-plan conference there.

Italian Election Campaign In Last Month

Rome, March 18 (AP)—An event of vital international importance will occur a month from today—when Italy elects its first Parliament under the new republic.

The issue is communism.

A clear Communist victory would upset the delicate balance of power between the East and West in Europe, a balance already rocked by Czechoslovakia's full incorporation into the Soviet sphere.

Opponents of communism in Italy, including Premier Alcide de Gasperi, are telling voters clearly that, if communism wins, Italy will go the way of Czechoslovakia.

Communist Position

The Communists and their allies declare that Russia represents "real, progressive democracy," and that "Italy must belong to no bloc."

They condemn western democracy as the tool of "American imperialists," and the Marshall plan as the instrument of "Wall Street capitalists," meant to "enslave Europe."

Principal opponents in the elections are the Communist-led Popu-

Quits London Daily Worker To Join Catholic Church

London, March 18 (A. P.).—Douglas A. Hyde said today that he had resigned as news editor of the Communist Daily Worker and is joining the Catholic Church.

His action recalled that of Louis F. Budenz, who resigned as managing editor of the Daily Worker in New York in 1945, and returned to the Catholic Church.

Hyde, a Communist for twenty of his thirty-eight years, has been news editor of the Daily Worker five years.

"It became obvious to me that the movement for which I had fought and worked so long was destroying those very freedoms and decencies for which it

British Laborites Split Over Communist Ban

London, March 18 (AP)—Britain's ban on Communists and Fascists in Government security departments has produced a growing rift within the Labor Party.

Forty-two Left-wing labor members of Parliament offered a resolution last night criticizing Prime Minister Attlee's order. The resolution said it was a "departure from the principles of democracy and civil liberty."

Tonight 22 moderate and Right-wing labor MP's proposed a counter resolution congratulating Attlee. They did so, they said, in view "of evidence which exists that Communists and Fascists are prone to allow their political convictions to override their loyalty to the national well being."

lar Front and the Christian Democrat party of Premier de Gasperi. The Popular Front is composed of the Communist party, pro-Communist Socialists and a handful of minor far-left parties.

Front Agreement

The Popular Front slate combines candidates from member parties. Any parliamentary seats won by the Front are to be divided among members, under an agreement already reached.

With the Christian Democrats allied against the Communists are all non-front parties. They are not in a formal alliance, however.

Formation of the Popular Front was a major Communist pre-campaign objective. It is a Communist theory that many will vote for a Leftist front who might not vote for either Communists or pro-Communist Socialists.

In the last elections, held in June, 1947, the Christian Democrats won approximately 37 per cent of parliamentary seats and the Communists and Socialists together almost 40 per cent. Since then the Socialists have split.

Government Organization

The republic is governed by a parliamentary system in which the President of the republic is chosen and the Cabinet approved by Parliament. The Government must have a majority of both houses of Parliament behind it to get in power and stay there.

The new Parliament will meet May 10 to choose a president. He will select a leader of what he judges to be the strongest faction in Parliament to form a cabinet. If the politician picked by the President can form a cabinet and get approval of both houses, the new government is completed.

Power For Five Years

The new government will remain in power for five years, or as long as it commands a parliamentary majority.

More than 26,000,000 voters are registered.

Swiss Disclose Terms Of Pact With Russia

Geneva, Switzerland, March 18 (AP)—The Swiss Government disclosed terms tonight of a trade agreement with Russia.

The pact runs for a year with provision for extension. Russia will deliver grain, wood and fuel oil. Switzerland will send Russia machines, precision instruments, watches, chemicals and textiles.

Marshall Plan Nations Agree To Set Up Economic Board

MAR 1948 MPL MOST

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 18—(AP) The 16 Marshall plan powers agreed today to set up a permanent economic commission for a European customs union before they adjourn.

This was one of a series of developments speeding the organizing of Europe the day after conclusion of the five-power Western European alliance which President Truman said he was sure the United States would support.

Brussels buzzed with international activity. These were the other major happenings:

Deputies from Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—the members of the new alliance—will begin work immediately next week on fulfilling the military and other sweeping provisions of the pact, it was announced.

A spokesman for the Brussels powers said they were "highly pleased" by President Truman's expression of confidence of American support for the defensive pact. It was the first time a single spokesman had been authorized to make political comment for all five powers.

It was disclosed that Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, chief of the British imperial general staff, will visit Brussels in two weeks. The Belgian defense ministry said it would be "quite natural" if he engaged in discussions on European union defense while here. But the ministry denied a union general staff was contemplated.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who fathered the political aspects of the Brussels pact, lingered on in the Belgian capital tonight. He conferred at lunch with Belgian Premier Paul Henri Spaak. French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault did not return to Paris until today. The other three foreign ministers remained until afternoon.

Continuing Session

The union deputies at their session next week will begin organization of the consultative council created by the pact and other machinery for economic and military collaboration.

The council is to be in continuing session to deal with any aggression or threat against any one of the five powers anywhere in the world, and to co-ordinate the economic and cultural policies of the five nations.

In Paris, nations in the Marshall plan agreed on the general principles underlying their projected permanent organization. Foreign ministers' deputies completed their instructions to a working committee which will draft the charter of the organization and a treaty for economic co-operation among the sixteen powers.

The project for a permanent economic commission was adopted as an item on the agenda of a sixteen-nation study group here which is examining the possibilities of a European customs union. ADD

Dane Urges Rearmament

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 18 (AP)—Finance Minister H. C. Hansen called today for rearmament in Denmark to guard against any possible coup by Communists.

Reich Reds Tell Of Plans For Regime

LYNN HEINZERLING

Berlin, March 18 (AP)—German Communists announced today their intention of replacing the four-power Allied Control Council with a "German Government." The Council has been functioning by wartime agreement among President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Stalin and Winston Churchill.

Herman Matern, Berlin leader of the Communist-controlled Socialist Unity (SED) party, told a Soviet-led "People's Congress" that a constitution for a German republic must be worked out "very quickly."

Thousands massed here to celebrate the centennial of the 1848 revolution and honor those who fell in that unsuccessful effort to establish a constitutional German Government.

People's Council

The Congress is expected to set up a 400-member people's council late today. The Communists have claimed for this council the right to speak for all Germans.

"In view of developments and the fact that the Inter-Allied Control Council is losing its foundation continually," Matern said, "it is understandable that it also is losing its character as a lawmaking body for all Germany.

"I, therefore, consider it fitting that the commission which the People's Congress will establish should move very quickly to work out a constitution for the German Republic, considering the lessons of the Weimar Republic, in order that we can replace the Allied Control Council as soon as possible with a German Government on the basis of a new constitution."

Rival Demonstrations

Two rival demonstrations were planned for late afternoon of this public holiday. Communist-led crowds were to march to a cemetery in the Soviet sector, where the dead of 1848 lie buried. Anti-Communist Social Democrats, Christian Democrats and Liberal Democrats scheduled a mass meeting before the gutted Reichstag, symbol of Hitler's perfidy. A heavy morning rain threatened to dampen both demonstrations.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky today announced pardon for all persons in his jurisdiction serving jail terms of one year or less except "speculators and black marketeers." The Soviet Military Governor's amnesty applied only to prisoners in the Soviet sector of Berlin and the Soviet occupation zone.

Arrests Reported

The Berlin Socialist press declared the Russians and German Communists are again arresting non-Communist German political leaders in the Soviet zone.

These allegations followed closely upon information that the Russian-zone Communists had established "action committees" to remove from public offices and party posts all non-Communists and other "unreliable elements."

American authorities charged yesterday that a "reign of terror" was being waged against non-Communists in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

The Socialist newspaper Telegraf said the zonal purge was aimed chiefly at the conservative Christian Democrats and the rightist Liberal Democrats.

The arrest wave, the Telegraf said, centered in the city of Hally, in Saxony province. It asserted that, by reliable estimate, 32 persons, mostly industrial leaders and public officials, had been arrested there in the last few days. ADD

RED-BACKED PARTY SETS OUT TO FORM GERMAN REPUBLIC

BERLIN, March 18 — (AP) A communist-controlled Peoples Congress met here today with the avowed purpose of setting up a German republic. HEINZERLING

Hermann Matern, Berlin leader of the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity party, said the "republic" should be ready to take over power from the present four-power government of all Germany.

Anti-communist forces held a rival demonstration a mile away before the burned out Reichstag on the hundredth anniversary of the 1848 revolution which failed to bring democracy to Germany.

Jakob Kaiser, Christian Democrat, told the rival throng "the erection of a totalitarian system in the Soviet zone is in full swing" and the communist coup in Czechoslovakia was "the last signal for all those who still believed themselves able to halt, through understanding, the brutal striving for power."

The Peoples Congress met to set up a peoples council which would design a constitution for the "republic" and act as its executive body. About 2,500 delegates, some from the Western zones, but most from the Russian zone, attended. The council would consist of 300 delegates from the Russian zone and 100 from Western Germany.

The delegates marched through rain to the cemetery in Friedrichshain in the Soviet sector where the dead of the 1848 revolution are buried.

"Should Move Very Quickly"

From behind a flaming altar to the dead, Wilhelm Pieck, Moscow-trained Communist, delivered a castigation of "monopoly capitalists of the West."

Matern said, "in view of developments and the fact that the inter-Allied Control Council is losing its foundations continually it is understandable that it also is losing its character as a lawmaking body for all Germany.

"I therefore consider it fitting that the commission, which the Peoples' Congress will establish, should move very quickly to work out a constitution for the German "republic," considering the lessons of the Weimar Republic, in order that we can replace the Allied Control Council as soon as possible with a German government on the basis of a new constitution."

Burned By Nazis

The rival meeting was held before the Reichstag because that structure, burned down by the Nazis, has become a warning of how dictatorship was established in Germany.

Warning Germans not to be lulled into complacency toward communism, Kaiser referred to Czechoslovakia and said, "We do not want despairing Democrats to jump out of the window in Berlin because they stood up too late to save freedom."

He said the People's Congress was "nothing more than a pacemaker for a new one-party system—nothing more than a preparation for a new enslavement of our people."

Kaiser recently was deposed as leader of his party in the Soviet zone.

9 AMERICANS LEAVE PLANE OVER BERLIN

General, 3 Women Among Those Landing On Rail Tracks, Roofs, Streets

RICHARD KASISCHKE

Berlin, March 18 (AP)—Nine Americans, including three women and Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, parachuted from a crippled C-47 plane over Berlin today and landed on rooftops, railroad tracks and city streets.

Taylor and his wife and three other occupants of the plane were in a hospital tonight with injuries. He is the chief United States counsel for the Nuernberg war-crimes trials.

One of the injured, a member of the plane's crew, was in critical condition. All nine who made the jump suffered some shock and bruises in their rain-swept and wind-blown descent, which carried them into the French and Russian occupation sectors of Berlin.

Woman Lands On Roof

Two of the aircraft's eleven occupants, the pilot and co-pilot, remained with the plane. They made a safe emergency landing at the RAF's Gatow airfield in the British sector of the city.

Mrs. Taylor said she was "half pushed and half jumped" as one of the plane's two engines failed. She landed on a roof in the French sector and skidded to the ground. She was hospitalized with cuts and bruises.

Taylor, of Chevy Chase, Md., suffered a back injury. Doctors said he would be laid up for about four weeks. He landed in the middle of a street in Pankow, Russian-occupied territory in the northeast section of Berlin. He was brought to a United States Army hospital by a German doctor.

Radio Operator Hurt

Telling of her experience, Mrs. Taylor said:

"When I pulled the rip-cord and the parachute ring came off in my hand I thought I was going to die. I didn't know it was supposed to come off."

In addition to the Taylors, others injured were:

The plane's radio operator, who has a fractured skull. His name was withheld by the Army.

Sergt. Ray L. Duddley, crew chief, from Tiggott, Ark., dislocated shoulder.

Mrs. Benjamin B. Ferencz, of New York city, cut leg. Her husband, deputy chief of counsel at Nuernberg, escaped injury.

Others who jumped were James M. McHaney, of Little Rock, Ark., also a deputy chief of counsel, his wife, Marilyn, and Capt. James M. Moore, of Gilbertsville, N.Y., navigator.

Engine Goes Dead

The plane encountered trouble shortly after its takeoff in the rain from the United States Army's Tempelhof Airfield at 1.50 P.M., to return Taylor and his party to Nuernberg. Taylor had conferred in Berlin with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor.

Crew members said an oil line broke and one of the engines went dead when the plane was flying at 6,000 feet. The plane began to lose altitude and there was danger of fire.

British sector of Berlin. The plane had carried five crewmen and six passengers. One of the crewmen, a sergeant, was injured.

The plane took off in a rain from Tempelhof Airfield here, bound for Nuernberg, site of the war-crimes trials. It developed engine trouble within a few minutes. Taylor had been conferring here with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor.

Landed On Roof

Mrs. Taylor said she was "half pushed and half jumped" from about 600 feet as one engine of the plane failed. She landed on a roof and skidded to the ground.

"When I pulled the ripcord and the parachute ring came off in my hand I thought I was going to die," Mrs. Taylor said. "I didn't know it was supposed to come off."

Army hospital sources, in a partial listing, said others who jumped were:

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Ferencz, of Arverne, N.Y. He is executive counsel to Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. McHaney, of Little Rock, Ark. He is deputy chief counsel at Nuernberg.

One of the crewmen, identified by a hospital official as Staff Sergeant Alexander Nyrath, was reported to have suffered a skull fracture.

The pilot was Lieut. Thomas L. Squyres, of Lubbock, Texas, and the copilot Capt. W. J. Grady, of Seattle, Wash.

nutrition, British army doctors reported. Another ten per cent hospitalized immediately on arrival suffered from tuberculosis, old wounds requiring treatment and accidental injuries.

Others "Undernourished"

Sample checks taken among the 80 per cent who did not go to hospital revealed many men were "undernourished to the point of emaciation." Others showed "loss of weight, with dry, wrinkled skin and pallid or grayish complexions."

The repatriation trains arrive at irregular intervals at Friedland, the British side of the Russian border. There the stretcher cases and weakest men are removed to local German hospitals. The remaining "fit" men are then taken to an old German army training camp at Muenster Lager. Within 24 hours they are processed and released.

An examination of a trainload of arrivals at Muenster Lager resulted in 52 being sent to the hospital. There were 22 cases of defective vision and 96 of muscle wasting, all due to malnutrition, the doctors reported.

Hospital Rate Of 42 P.C.

Two contingents, each of 1,000 prisoners, arriving at Friedland, had a hospital rate of 42 per cent and "a considerable number were unit for further travel," the British Control Commission said.

Communists, would receive the appointment. These quarters believe Clementis will remain, for a time at least, as Fierlinger's closest coworker.

A procession of top-flight Government leaders has been visiting President Eduard Benes at Sezimovo Usti.

Benes, who has still made no statement to the Czechoslovak people since the Communists took control of the Government, was visited Tuesday by Communist Premier Klement Gottwald. Yesterday he received Defense Minister Gen. Ludwig Svoboda, and other high Czech Army officers.

Josef David Elected

Parliament, dominated by the Communists since the Government crisis, re-elected Josef David, National Socialist, as its President.

The Communists had the power to defeat David if they wished. The decision to retain him in the high office was regarded by some observers as an effort to give some dignity to the minority parties.

David, widely known abroad, has been a member of the Leftist group of his party. He co-operated closely with President Benes during the war years and immediately afterward.

PRAGUE, March 18—(AP) Czech political leaders failed today to choose a successor to the late Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk.

A foreign office spokesman said this morning the selection of a new foreign minister would be made "within a matter of hours." Masaryk committed suicide March 10, two weeks after communists took over control of the government following a political crisis.

Negotiations to name a new minister took place in an atmosphere charged with concern over international developments.

There was no open comment on President Truman's proposals for strengthening the United States' armed forces. It was obvious, however, that government leaders were considering carefully his message to Congress.

There was considerable speculation that the foreign portfolio would go to Zdenek Fierlinger, leftist social democrat. No decision was reached tonight, but Fierlinger got another post.

The executive committee of the Social Democrats elected him party chairman. He accepted the place, thereby strengthening the bond between that group and the communists.

It was questioned in some political circles whether Fierlinger could serve both as party chairman and foreign minister.

A foreign office spokesman said "you can be pretty sure the foreign minister will be chosen from the ranks of the people now in the government."

U.S. Aide Hurt Bailing Out

Berlin, March 18 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor and his wife were injured today when they and seven other Americans bailed out of a C-47 plane and landed in Russian-occupied territory in or near Berlin.

Taylor, chief United States war-crimes prosecutor in Germany, suffered a wrenched back and a hip injury. His wife had a leg injury. Ambulances were sent to bring them and the others back to the United States sector of Berlin.

Safe Landing

The pilot and copilot stayed with the plane and made a forced landing safely at Gatow Airport in the

British Hit Russ PW Treatment

Hamburg, Germany, March 18 (AP)—The physical condition of German prisoners of war returning from Russia is causing British medical authorities here grave concern.

Reports from British army doctors show that twenty per cent of prisoners returned from the Russian zone have had to be hospitalized. Similar complaints have been made by American Military Government authorities.

Of the 29,400 prisoners repatriated to the British zone from the east since last September, ten per cent have been suffering from mal-

Prague, March 18 (AP)—Czechoslovak Government sources said today a successor to the late Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk will be named "within a matter of hours."

A Government spokesman said: "The matter has been arranged."

There seemed to be general agreement the post, made vacant when Masaryk fell to his death from a Czernin Palace window March 10, will not be filled by Vlado Clementis. Clementis, a Communist, was Masaryk's chief assistant.

GREECE MOBILIZES FOR ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST REBELS

ATHENS, March 18—(AP) Greece took a stride toward complete civilian mobilization today as plans matured for a Spring offensive against leftist guerrillas.

Premier Themistokles Sophoulis proclaimed a "national rally" and empowered government ministers to "take all measures imposed towards serving the imperative needs of the country."

The first decree under the sweeping proclamation ordered doctors and druggists to give free medical service to families of conscripts for the fight against the communists.

Officials said the order would permit requisition of factories or any other private enterprise organization or services needed. They declared it the most drastic mobilization of national resources since the dictatorial decrees of the late Gen. John Metaxas of the eve of the war with Italy in 1939.

The premier, cabinet and senior government officials will hold a special meeting within 10 days to formulate precise details of their action under the order.

The agenda of the meeting includes mobilization of "intellectual" resources, relief for refugees from guerrila areas, a review of agricultural resources, utilization of woman for work and a census of manpower.

The general purpose of the order, it was understood, would be to stiffen the morale of the army and strengthen the home front, and may be used to prevent a strike of civil servants such as the 24-hour strike by government employes in some places yesterday.

An official of the American aid mission said the mission had been advocating stronger civilian support for the army, but that the proclamation had not been discussed with American officials.

Greece Proclaims Civil Mobilization

Athens, March 18 (AP)—The Greek Government took its first step today toward civilian mobilization with a measure giving Cabinet ministers full power to take emergency action.

Premier Themistokles Sophoulis signed a proclamation of civil mobilization last night, empowering Cabinet ministers to act. The decision was based on a compulsory law passed in 1939 and amended last year.

The new order specifically instructs the Ministers of Hygiene and Welfare to take immediate care of destitute families of men in the armed forces. Physicians will be required to provide care without charge, and druggists must furnish medicine free, or at cost.

Unions Must Aid Needy

Well-to-do families may make private donations and philanthropic organizations and unions also are ordered to aid needy families.

Under authority of the proclamation, ministers of the Cabinet can mobilize all employés.

RUSSIA REPORTED SPEEDING WORK ON SIBERIAN RAILWAY

MOSCOW, March 18—(AP) A Communist youth publication said today the Soviet government is speeding construction of the 2,200-mile South Siberian railway.

Komsomol Pravda published telephone interviews with construction chiefs of the vast project which is scheduled to be completed by 1950.

Engineers said these would be the chief construction problems in 1948:

1. Opening traffic on an important stretch from Stalinsk in the Kuznetsk basin to Barnaul in Altai.
2. Constructing an immense bridge over the Irtysh river near Pavlodar in Kazakhstan to complete the 105 mile link between Akmolinsk and Pavlodar.

The engineers said 70 miles of the latter link already serve traffic.

The paper said the line when completed would run from Kuibyshev (Samara) on the Volga to Taishev on the old Trans-Siberian railway line in west Baikal. It will provide an alternate route for the movement of coal from the Kuznetsk basin to the Urals and European Russia and for iron ore and other products from the Urals.

It will halve the burden of the Trans-Siberian railway, Komsomol Pravda said.

Recent Soviet maps indicate the Mongolian people's republic also has acquired a railway system. The republic is south and southeast of the area served by the south Siberian railway.

Russian Press Briefly Notes Truman Speech

Moscow Radio Reports U.S. Anxiety Aroused; Other Reaction by Europe Reds

MOSCOW, March 18 (AP).—President Truman's address to Congress was reported briefly today in the Communist party newspaper "Pravda" and the Soviet government paper "Izvestia."

Both published a Washington report by Tass, the Soviet official news agency, which said the speech "contained attacks on the Soviet Union and eastern Europe." The report, about seventy words long, factually indicated the main subjects raised by the President.

In neither paper was the item displayed prominently. Much more attention was given to a conference of United States military leaders at Key West, Fla.

2 Years Of Aid 'Needed To Give China Victory'

Shanghai, March 18 (AP)—Chinese and informed neutrals disagree on how soon and how sharply American military aid could affect China's civil war—but most of them say it will take at least $2,000,000,000 and two years more of fighting.

To assess opinion throughout the country, Associated Press correspondents interviewed foreigners and independent Chinese in Shanghai, Hong Kong, Nanking and Peiping.

Here are their findings:

SHANGHAI — American military help can have little effect unless (1) Chinese army leadership is thoroughly shaken up, (2) the Chinese foot soldier undergoes intensive, American-supervised training, and (3) American advisers accompany Chinese armies into the field—down to everything short of firing guns.

"10,000 Advisers Needed"

If the United States is prepared to spend an amount equal to her wartime outlay in China—over two billions—and if she is willing to send 10,000 advisers, results would be apparent within two years, informed observers said. But it would take the Government at least four years to defeat the Communists decisively.

NANKING—Associated Press Correspondent Harold K. Milks found most sources "Dubious that American military asistance, at any expectable level, could produce a clearcut victory. But it should be able to reopen communications and re-establish Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's military superiority."

These sources said any assistance approved today would be unlikely to produce important results on Chinese battlefields for six months to a year, and that any lasting change would take twice that long.

"Depends On Amount Of Aid"

HONG KONG—"American military aid could swing the battle in the Government's favor," Associated Press Correspondent Wayne Richardson was told. "How soon such a victory would come depends mainly on the amount of aid." The popular estimate, Richardson related, is two years—if the aid approximates $2,000,000,000.

One prominent financier said the military aid recommendations of Generals MacArthur and Wedemeyer should be followed.

PEIPING—"In the opinion of neutral and Chinese circles," Associated Press Correspondent Spencer Moosa reported, "American military aid in the form of war supplies would bring about a military victory (1) if American advisers were attached to the army, from the Nanking command down to field units; and (2) if such aid were synchronized with economic help—particularly toward stabilizing China's currency. Without such economic aid, other assistance might be nullified."

War Crisis Looms In Central China

Nanking, March 18 (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek said today that this is "the hour of decision" in the Government's campaign to defeat the Communists in Central China.

"Unless an all-out effort is made to turn the tide of war in Central China, the last reservoir of Kuomintang (Government party) power faces complete collapse," he told a conference of military leaders and governors of six central provinces.

Chiang's pessimism surprised neutral observers. There has been little news of fighting in that area for weeks. It apparently has been overshadowed by Government losses in Manchuria, marked by the recent fall of the big cities of Szepingkai and Kirin.

Reds Drive On Capital

Pro-Government dispatches to Peiping reported that Communists were converging on isolated Changchun from every direction. Residents of outlying villages were flocking into the Manchurian capital.

The Chinese press said Government troops had opened a highway to Mukden.

Mobile Red units were said to be active within 10 miles of Changchun, where the food supply was low. They attacked an airfield only 5 miles south of Changchun but were reported routed.

central China, his Government's last reservoir of strength against the Communists.

The Chinese Government leader addressed an urgent conference of his highest generals and the governors of six central China provinces.

"The military situation in all central China has reached the hour of decision in our efforts to put down the rebellion," he said.

Reports of renewed heavy fighting in Shantung province placed the Communists 15 miles east of Tsinan, provincial capital, and 25 miles north of Tsingtao, base of the United States Western Pacific fleet.

Chiang shook up his northwest command, naming Gen. Chang Chihchung to succeed Gen. Hu Tsung-nan. Hsu remains as deputy commander.

'MATA HARI OF ASIA' AWAITS HER EXECUTION

PEIPING, March 18—(AP) Penniless and bereft of her once disarming beauty, the "Mata Hari of Asia" is awaiting with resignation her imminent execution.

Her last appeal to the courts had just been rejected when the Manchu Princess Yoshiko Kawashima was interviewed in her barren cell today.

She was convicted last October of espionage, the Chinese court holding that she worked closely with Gen. Kenji Doihara, noted Japanese agent, in Manchuria and North China. Last winter she vainly asked that her execution be hastened, lest she freeze to death in jail.

She started her autobiography to while away the two years she has spent in prison.

It is about half done, she said, but probably never will be finished, for any day now she will face a firing squad at the bridge of heaven.

She said she had never married—"I don't like men; they only make trouble for women."

Japanese Food Chief Admits Ration Cheating

Tokyo, March 18 (AP)—Japan's Minister of Agriculture got caught in one of Tokyo's popular "man in the street" broadcasts today and was asked by a bystander how he managed to live, the food situation being what it is.

"On black-market rice," replied the Minister, Kazuo Nagae, who directs the rice-collection program and has much to do with rationing. The crowd roared approval as someone shouted, "Good! At least, you're honest!"

2 U. S. Fliers Killed in Japan

TOKYO, March 18 (AP)—The Army announced today two American fliers were killed Monday in the crash of a P-61 night fighter plane in the hills of northern Okinawa. The victims were Lieut. William H. Becker of Philadelphia, pilot, and Lieut. Kenneth P. Gaines of Glendale, Calif., an observer.

Admiral Badger at Tokyo

TOKYO, March 18 (AP).—Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger, commander of United States naval forces in the Western Pacific, arrived today for conferences with General Douglas MacArthur and Vice-Admiral Robert M. Griffin, commander of naval forces in the Far East. Admiral Badger's headquarters are at Tsingtao, China. There was no indication of significance in the admiral's visit—his first here since he assumed the Western Pacific command.

ARAB TROOPS MOVE INTO HOLY LAND

HEBRON, Palestine, March 18—(AP) Troops of Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion moved into Palestine today and took over security control in two Arab districts.

They are the first soldiers belonging to a regular army of a neighboring Arab state to enter the Holy Land in their own uniform "under authority of the Arab league." In the presence of a Legion officer, the turbaned mayor of Hebron told a reporter:

"They (the Legionnaires) are here representing and under orders of the Arab league not King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan. There is now no difference between Trans-Jordan and Palestine Arab soldiery. The presence of these men here is evidence of this."

Until recently the British mandate government in Palestine had employed Arab Legion troops in the Holy Land for policing duties. Those troops had been on loan to the Palestine government.

The Arab legionnaires moved into evacuated British army barracks in the Hebron district in the Judean Hills and into quarters in Nablus in the Samarian hills.

Hebron's mayor, Sheik Mohammed Ali Jabari, said the Arab Legion troops were obliged to protect Jews as well as Arabs. He added that his own militia also would safeguard Jews if they surrendered their arms and did not fight.

CANADA IS SEEN WILLING TO JOIN IN BRUSSELS PACT

OTTAWA, March 18 — (AP) A source who often speaks the official views of the government said today Canada might be willing to join in the Brussels five-power security pact if other countries do.

He called attention to Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King's statement yesterday that Canada intends to play a full part to aid and give substance to such agreements as that signed in Brussels yesterday by Britain, Frange, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

"My government hopes that this or similar regional pacts will be opened to all free democracies," he said. "A general collective security guarantee would be valuable insurance against inactivity by the (United Nations) Security Council."

He said it was no secret that the way the Security Council has been functioning the last two years "does not give any guarantee of security to anybody."

Collective security pacts within the United Nations has been urged by Canada for some time although she has carefully refrained from joining the Pan American union. Canadians said they felt it was not necessary to join the Pan American union because Canada already has a joint defense arrangement with the United States.

MILITARY LEADERS ASK SWIFT ACTION TO REVIVE DRAFT

Conscription, UMT Only Means of Meeting 'Red March,' They Say.

URGE LARGER AIR FORCE

Senate Group Expected to Back Military Training; House Prospects Dark.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Leaders of America's army, navy and air forces urged the Senate Armed Forces committee today to vote promptly for a temporary peacetime draft.

They backed President Truman's call for both a temporary draft and universal military training as a means of meeting the world march of communism.

MAR 1948

There seemed to be enough votes in the committee to approve military training. There was less certainty about the draft, strongly endorsed by Secretary of Defense Forrestal today.

House Prospects Dark

Prospects in the House were even darker for both measures.

Forrestal outlined as a "target":

1. Immediate boosting of ceilings on army, navy and air forces manpower—by more than 350,000 men.
2. Expansion of the air forces, as urged by some congressmen, but maintenance of a balance between the three powers.
3. Stockpiling of strategic materials and scientific research, plus industrial mobilization planning. He said this work already has started.
4. Adequate air bases.

And, he said, the draft is the only way to get the needed manpower quickly.

Royall, Sullivan Agree

Secretary of Army Royall and Secretary of Navy Sullivan also testified today. They agreed with Forrestal.

The secretaries testified:

If Russian forces decide to move into Germany or other parts of Europe, our forces there could not stop them.

There are less than 30,000 "usable" army combat troops in the United States at this time.

The present total number of men in uniform is 1,392,000 plus 226,300 in the national guard.

Forrestal said today he wanted the authorized strength of the army boosted from 670,000 to 900,000. Today the army numbers 560,000 men.

(Forrestal, under questioning, estimated Russia's strength at above 100 combat divisions. Army men estimate Russia has an army of 4,050,000 men.)

He said the navy and air forces should be boosted, too, but said the figures would be presented later.

The "authorized strength" of each service is a ceiling Congress has put on the number of men it can have. The present ceiling was fixed two years ago, when conditions were far different. At present this adds up to 1,732,000.

Sees 3 Million Available

Forrestal estimated there is a "gross reserve" of about 3,000,000 men available for selective service now.

Royall said this includes men eligible for World War II who were not taken because of cutbacks, and youths who become 19 years of age before UMT is established.

Royall said there was some talk of making men who served only a month or two in the last war, serve again.

(Gen. Omar Bradley, Army chief of staff said he believes manpower needs can be met by drafting men reaching military age since selective service calls were ended.)

So far, Congress has not studied the question of costs of the program. It is estimated that it could cost about $729,300,000 just to fill out the air force, navy and marines to their authorized manpower strength.

Tells Senators Rise in Authorized Strength of Services Will Be Requested—Royall Talks of 2-year Duty for Draftees.

Washington, March 18 (A. P.).—Secretary of Defense Forrestal said today the military high command wants "ceilings" on Army, Navy and Air Force man power lifted. This would clear the way for possible drafting of far more than 340,000 men—if Congress approves a draft.

Forrestal was before the Senate Armed Services Committee backing President Truman's request for revival of the draft and for universal military training. A draft, he said was the only way to get needed man power.

He told the Senators that recommendations will be submitted later for increases in authorized strength of the services. He said he could not say now what increases would be asked, but he believed the Army would ask that its ceiling be raised from 670,000 to 900,000 men. It now has about 560,000. He offered no figures on the Navy or air Force.

Congress Limit.

The authorized strength of each service is a limit Congress has put on the number of men it can have. The present ceilings add up to 1,732,000 men. Actually, the services have 1,392,000. The draft is asked to get the 340,000 men needed to bring strength up to present limits.

Under questioning, Forrestal also said:

1. If Russian forces decided to move into Germany or other parts of Europe the United States forces there could not stop them.
2. There are less than 30,000 "useable" Army combat troops in the United States at this time.

Secretary of the Army Royall and Secretary of the Navy Sullivan were before the committee with Forrestal. They were not able to give definite answers to questions about how it is planned to operate a draft.

Forrestal estimated there is a "gross reserve" of about 3,000,000 men available for selective service.

Royall said this includes (1) men who were eligible for world war II draft but who, because of cutbacks were not taken, and (2) youths who become 19 prior to any establishment of U. M. T.

Royall said, too, that some thought is being given to making men who served only a month or two in the last war eligible for the new draft.

"We're just discussing it," he said.

Senator Maybank (D.-S. C.) asked Royall how long a term of service was contemplated under selective service.

"Our present thinking is that it should not be less than two years," Royall replied.

Senator Byrd (D.-Va.) told Forrestal that Marshall said there were only 12,000 combat troops available in this country and that the Secretary of State referred to this country's military strength as a "hollow shell." He asked how this was possible in view of a $11,000,000,000 military expenditure. Byrd did not receive a complete answer. The testimony, instead, vered off into a discussion of troop strength.

Royall told the committee this nation can't "sensibly decrease our occupation in either the East or West." These troops, he said,

MAR 1948

MAR 1948 30.24- 16343

are not available as a practicable matter for a mobile force in this country.

Grass Roots Backing Needed.

Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) put in that draft and U. M. T. legislation has not a ghost of a chance unless the people at the grass roots are convinced it is necessary.

Senator Saltonstall (R.-Mass.) asked if voluntary enlistments would end with return of the draft. Royall replied that both systems could operate together.

Saltonstall said this caused difficulty during the recent war with plenty of volunteers for the Air Force, Marines and Navy while the ground forces were short and required draftees.

"I anticipate no difficulties," Royall said.

Gurney told reporters after the hearing that he thought the informtaion produced "will go a long way toward answering the questions in the minds of the moms and dads in the United States, and in the minds of the boys themselves."

Asked for his views on the minimum two-year service hinted by Royall for draftees, Gurney said he did not know what the committee would decide.

"But in my personal opinion," he added, "the country cannot afford the continued, expensive short-term enlistments."

Royall had testified that eighteen-month enlistments for men being sent overseas cost American taxpayers about $1,000 a month, a man. For men retained in this country, he added, the amount is slightly less.

Text of Forrestal's Appeal for UMT and a Stopgap Federal Draft

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18—The statement by Secretary of Defense Forrestal on universal military training and revival of Selective Service before the Senate Armed Services Committee was as follows:

There are now before the Congress the recommendations of the President, made in his special message yesterday, for the immediate enactment of legislation providing for universal training and also for a temporary program of Selective Service.

In his message the President outlined the need for enacting certain military measures if we are reasonably to insure that the objectives of our foreign policy can be attained. Both the President and Secretary of State, in their statements to you yesterday, have stated in clear and unmistakable terms that we must show conclusively and by decisive legislative action providing for an immediate as well as long-range strengthening of the military establishment, that the United States intends to be strong and to hold that strength ready to keep the world both at peace and free.

It is not necessary for me to repeat here what they said.

In considering the measures which must be taken without delay in order to establish a military police commensurate with our national responsibilities, there are two principal aspects to bear in mind. These are that there must be a long-range program and a short-range program.

Commission Report Stressed

The short-range program must be designed to meet the immediate problems requiring immediate solution. The long-range program embodies those measures the attainment of which will be possible only by action also instituted now.

I must first advert to the report of the President's Commission on Universal Training, for outlined there is the blueprint, to which I wholeheartedly subscribe, for a program of national security with its component parts, all of which, put together, form an integrated whole. You will doubtless hear later during the course of your deliberations from Admiral Hillenkoetter, Mr. Hargrave and Dr. Bush whom I understand you will ask to make statements.

I shall, therefore, not discuss today the subjects of industrial mobilization, stockpiling of critical materials, scientific research and development, or the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency, which lie within their respective special fields of responsibility.

While a strong, united, educated and healthy nation is our number one security requirement, this, of course, underlies the objectives of all our security measures. The measures include, as stated by the Compton Commission, adequate armed forces—both regular and reserve—and universal training.

In addition the commission called for coordinated intelligence, stockpiling of critical materials, industrial mobilization, and scientific research and development which I have just mentioned.

The armed forces considered adequate by the commission consisted of a strong mobile striking force of balanced land, sea and air elements; strong, well-trained reserve components in readiness; and the final requirement upon which success or failure of the entire program depends—an effective system of universal training.

Air-Warning System Asked

To these I might add an effective civilian defense organization—to which UMT would make a major contribution—and an air-warning system.

The subjects which I have enumerated are all integral parts of the defense program, and none can safely be dispensed with. At most, the emphasis can be varied and then only within fairly narrow limits.

Air power affords an excellent example of the difficulties with which we are confronted when we attempt to strike a balance between the services. The studies of the Congressional Aviation Policy Board and of the Finletter Commission have recommended greatly increased air strength. Necessary as such an increase is, there are other important requirements.

Airplanes cannot operate without air bases. We cannot hope to hold, maintain and supply such bases without a strong Navy, a sizable and well-equipped Army, and the many supporting services. All of these are essential and they all cost money.

Thus the provision for any one element of the security structure must be weighed in the light of the limitation upon our national military budgets, the strategic situation, and the over-riding necessity for balanced strength on the part of our armed forces as a whole. Without such balanced strength we cannot have security.

In this statement I shall deal mainly with the legislative measures recommended by the President as necessary steps for our security—limited selective service and universal training. What are the deficiencies in the military establishment requiring such legislation?

Benefits of UMT Emphasized

This brings us to a brief exposition of the principal reasons behind the need for prompt adoption of the first of these two measures, universal military training.

I need not re-state in detail the searching analysis embodied in the Compton Commission report respecting the place which universal military training should occupy in our military policy. The case for UMT, despite numerous collateral benefits, rests on its military justification. UMT is designed to make fully effective our reserve components.

In the first place, it would provide the National Guard and the Organized Reserves with the necessary numbers of men which they cannot otherwise obtain by voluntary means. Secondly, it provides them with men trained to a sufficient degree of proficiency to make the civilian components an effective force—a degree of training which cannot be obtained through the present voluntary means alone.

A third important benefit to be obtained from UMT is the creation of a training plan adequate to meet the demands of full mobilization without costly delay. Finally, it would provide a foundation of trained manpower for civilian defense in the event of emergency.

I will now address my remarks to certain assumptions that the atomic bomb, guided missiles and germ warfare have rendered unnecessary the training of large numbers of men.

This claim has a special appeal for those who would like to grasp some reason for not facing the need for UMT. Upon it is founded the specious argument that UMT is obsolete in that it would produce a so-called "mass" army.

Argument Called Unfounded

The argument is without foundation and ignores the plain fact that, with every scientific development in the weapons of war since the spear gave way to the rifle, more and more trained manpower has been required.

The important point is that the great size of modern military forces has been misconceived as signifying "mass." A large army of specialists is not a "mass" army. The simple truth is that more and more men must be trained to meet the threat of war in which weapons of mass destruction may be employed.

Such weapons promise only that any future war will be indiscriminate in its targets and universal in its effect. This emphasizes that training on a universal basis is essential.

The universal scope of modern warfare raises the question of civilian defense and its relationship to the national military program. I have recently appointed Mr. Russell J. Hopley, the president of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company, as director of a unit for civil defense planning in the national military establishment. This unit was recommended by the Army Department Civil Defense Board, headed by Maj. Gen. Harold R. Bull, and its functions will be to investigate the subject fully and to develop the basis for a permanent program with recommendations for such legislation as may be necessary.

The civil-defense program will be integrated with the military program to the fullest possible extent. This is important because, in the event of a national emergency or disaster, the trained manpower pool produced by UMT may be as important from the standpoint of civilian defense as it certainly will be for the purpose of manning our civilian components.

I come now to a consideration of these immediate needs and a discussion of why temporary selective service is necessary to their fulfillment.

Enlistments Seen Inadequate

The pressing needs of the regular establishment for manpower cannot be filled through voluntary enlistments.

We may well be proud of the magnificent response to the appeal for volunteers. However, despite the most successful volunteer recruiting program in the history of the world our forces are as of today approximately 350,000 below the strengths which were set nearly two years ago.

Moreover, these strengths were based upon assumptions which failed to materialize. So far as the Army is concerned these strengths were fixed on the assumption, among others, that the early conclusion of peace treaties would permit more rapid withdrawal of our occupation forces than circumstances have permitted.

After careful analysis the Joint Chiefs of Staff have recommended that the strength of the armed forces be increased. Principal among the additional requirements are the establishment of a mobile general reserve or alert force to meet emergency situations and some increase in our overseas base system. An exact determination of the size of the over-all force that our national security requires today is in process of formulation and will be submitted to the committee in the immediate future.

Any discussion of such measures raises the vital question of cost. I have already furnished your committee with estimates of the cost of UMT and the civilian-components programs projected through fiscal year 1953. Estimates are in the course of preparation covering the projected costs involved in the immediate programs recommended by the President yesterday.

For a "Sound Insurance"

I recognize that the cost in dollars of the steps here invisaged will be heavy. But if we are correct in our hypothesis—the converse of which has twice proved false in the tragic years behind us—then with our increasing military strength we may dare to hope that the tide of aggression will recede. As the threat to peace and freedom diminishes so will the cost of security abate.

Thus if war is averted by timely and decisive action to build our strength we may at some future date be able to curtail our program for national security proportionately. But if despite these outlays our efforts fail to avert war, this program and its cost will have been sound insurance.

I should like to emphasize the conviction expressed by the President and Secretary Marshall that neither UMT nor the proposal for a limited Selective Service will alone provide a solution to the manpower requirements of the military establishment. Each proposal is designed to meet a different need.

The two programs can operate simultaneously in complete consonance with one another. They would draw upon two separate manpower sources. Selective Service would have application to a reservoir of approximately three million men who were too young for service in World War II and who will be beyond the age for universal military training.

On the other hand, UMT will relate to a younger group than will be drawn upon under the Selective Service proposal. This younger group subject to UMT will undergo training only, after which they may revert to the civilian reserves. They will not be liable for service in the active regular forces as will the older group which Selective Service will affect.

In short, the enactment of UMT now will create a progressively increasing military strength in the future. Hence, it will fill a continuing but long-range need. That need is to attain adequate military strength at the lowest cost consistent with our responsibilities as a nation.

But UMT will not fulfill the compelling and immediate short-range needs for adequate regular forces in being. These latter needs can be met only through a limited Selective Service.

That terminates the substance of my statement. I have attempted to appraise the balanced elements of the national security program. Within that broad program I have highlighted the problems which are fast upon us.

My colleagues and I are at your service to supply any further information you may wish.

3 RUSSIAN-BACKED DIVISIONS HELD SET TO ATTACK GREECE

Athens Informs Washington 30,000 Troops Are Poised in Balkans.

Washington, March 18 (A. P.).—Three Soviet-backed divisions were reported in official dispatches today to be poised in the Balkans for a threatened attack across the border into Greece.

Reports from Athens to the State Department estimated the force at 30,000 men. The dispatches included other evidence that Russia's Balkan satellites may be planning a major aggressive move in Greece.

Uncertainty whether an attack actually will be launched or whether the reports are part of a Communist war of nerves added to official worries over a world situation which President Truman has termed critical.

The dispatches gave the first confirmation to rumors that an international force has actually been recruited to support the guerrillas within Greece. As summarized by responsible officials, the dispatches said:

1. The divisions are believed to number roughly about 10,000 men each, with the strongest in Yugoslavia near the Greek border, and others in Albania and Bulgaria. They are believed to be composed largely of Albanians and Greek expatriates, with a sprinkling from Yugoslavia and the other Balkan States which are backing the effort to keep Greece in chaos and bring the country into the Soviet sphere.

2. An attack is believed most likely from Albania, and directed toward Ioannina, capital of the Greek province of Epirus. This town of 25,000 is thirty miles from the border. Albania already has opened a propaganda offensive against Greece, alleging nearly 600 Greek "provocations" and stressing that a state of hostilities still prevails from world war II.

3. Other preparations considered ominous include recent repairing of two air strips just inside Greece on the shores of Lake Prespa. Reports also have told of combat planes lying along the frontier and the presence of Russian or Czech military physicians in Tirana, Albania's capital.

Ioannina Seen Target.

4. A two-fold purpose is foreseen for any attack across the border. The short-range aim presumably would be to throw off balance the Greek Army's forthcoming spring offensive to disperse an estimated 25,000 guerrillas within Greece. As the second stage, officials figure the capture of Ioannina would be followed by proclaiming that town as the guerrilla capital and then extending diplomatic recognition to "Gen." Marcos Vafiades's rebel regime by Albania and possibly other Soviet satellites.

Officials said evidence indicated Russian over-all military direction of the stepped-up anti-Greek campaign. They doubted, however, that the international divisions had Russian tactical officers.

Pending more critical developments, the guerrillas have been using terrorist methods to hamper Greek and American efforts to restore Greek refugees to their villages in time to plant crops. The support of nearly 500,000 refugees has put a heavy burden on American aid.

Soviet May Rush Its Grab Before U.S. Can Act

By John M. Hightower

Washington, March 18 (AP)—Diplomatic officials agreed today that President Truman has flashed a powerful stoplight on Premier Stalin.

But what has them worried is this: will—or can—Stalin apply the brakes to bring Russia's Communist aggression in Europe to a quick halt in the face of possible steps to build up America's military might?

Or will he decide to grab while the grabbing is good?

There is some fear here that the Kremlin may try to step up its offensive operations in a hurried attempt to extend its control over one or two more countries of western Europe before the United States can act.

Next Month May Tell

Hence on the central issue of peace or war, the next month may be the most critical since the Summer of 1939.

A month from today, on April 18, the Italians are scheduled to hold national elections in which the Communist party is making an all-out bid for power.

Moreover, this is the period in which Russia and Finland will be negotiating over a Soviet-proposed military alliance and in which the Russians may make any demands they have in mind on Norway.

Two Big Questions Asked

In all these prospective events two big questions stand out:

1. What moves will the Russians make to meet the President's new diplomatic offensive.

2. Will Congress underwrite the President's program by approving more or less the military proposals he laid down or will it decide that this is an improper course for the United States?

On the second question, officials concede Mr. Truman took a big risk in advocating both universal military training and a temporary draft as measures to meet the Russian challenge.

Failure Would Be Exploited

These Administration leaders contend that, if he fails to get his proposals through, the fact will be jumped on abroad as evidence of a lack of real support at home for this country's new stop-Russia foreign policy.

But even more troublesome to diplomatic experts at the State Department is the uncertainty over what Russia will do. Speculation takes several lines.

One is that the Soviets may protest through propaganda means their innocence of any aggressive action in Europe. Coupled with this is their almost certain claim that the United States is deliberately trying to make war on the Soviet Union.

Brakes Might Not Work

Another possibility seen here is that Stalin actually may try to put the brakes on some of the Communist parties outside the Russian sphere of eastern Europe but may be unable to do so.

Secretary of State Marshall is known to feel that this is a real danger; that the success of the Communists in Czechoslovakia may persuade their colleagues in Italy, for example, that they, too, can get away with a coup if they try hard enough.

In the case of Norway, however, the decision is directly up to the Kremlin. That is because the Norwegian Communists are not a powerful group in the country's political life.

The Russians have made no demands on Oslo, although the Norwegians evidently fear they are in the making.

Russ Army 'Not Reduced'

MAR 1948

Washington, March 18 (AP)—The State Department said today reported Russian demobilization moves do not change the size of the Soviet Army.

Press Officer Michael McDermott told reporters there is "no significance" in Russian announcements that all men in the Red Army are being returned to civilian life except those in 21-22-year-age group.

"As far as we can tell, these mean no change at all in the number of troops in the Soviet Army," McDermott said.

Red Army Put At 4 Million

Recent estimates by American military experts have placed Soviet army strength at 4,050,000.

McDermott said it is standard Russian procedure to demobilize one class as another comes in. He said that was all that was happening so far as the United States could learn in the present case.

However, both State and defense department officials have been disturbed by the propaganda the Russians have been making out of the demobilization report.

The Russians have used the announcement in Europe especially, State Department officials said, in an effort to prove they are trying to return to a peacetime army basis while the United States is preparing to build up a powerful military machine.

Greatest Standing Army

Actually, reports from American diplomats in Moscow to the State Department show the Soviet Union intends to maintain the greatest standin garmy in the world, plus a huge trained reserve.

The Russian announcement was issued only a day before President Truman went before Congress to appeal for a greater armed strength to check the march of Russian communism.

Whether the armed forces can be made strong enough to achieve that goal was a question for the high command.

All of Mr. Truman's emphasis was on peace, not war. But he said the risks involved are "perhaps greater than any this country has been called upon to assume."

Secretary of Defense Forrestal and the Army, Navy and Air Force can measure some of the American strength in exact figures.

1,392,000 In U.S. Forces

From what has been disclosed, this picture emerges:

Under arms in the regular services (the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines) are 1,392,000 men—and comparatively few WACs and WAVES. The total authorized strength is 1,732,000.

The Army, at a present strength of 550,000, is 119,000 short of authorized strength. The Navy, with 392,000, says it is 160,000 under the set figure; the Marines, at 90,000, are 20,000 under. The Air Force has 360,000 men, which is all its current budget allows.

100,000 Face 2,823,000

The Army's 550,000 men are spread across half the world. In the United States, the Caribbean area and the Panama Canal Zone are 275,000, in Europe 100,000, in the Pacific (Japan, Korea, Alaska, Hawaii and small islands), 175,000.

The Army estimated for the House Foreign Affairs Committee last December that the Russians had 1,702,000 troops in western Russia and the occupied zones of Europe. This did not include an estimated 1,121,000 soldiers of satellite countries.

Thus, 100,000 American troops confront 2,823,000 potentially hostile troops in Europe.

Troops in Korea and elsewhere brought the grand total of Red Army forces to 3,000,000, according to the December estimate.

It has been estimated officially that Russia has in her air force 450,000 men and 14,000 planes ready for combat. The United States air force has 360,000 men, 5,500 planes in operating condition and 7,500 more in mothballs.

RUSSIA MAINTAINING FULL ARMY, U.S. SAYS

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) The State department said today Russia appears to be maintaining its armed forces at full strength despite a decree ordering release from military service of men over 22 years old.

Officials said the point of Russian army strength is important mainly because Soviet propagandists in the past two days have tried to show the Soviet Union is reducing its forces at a time the United States is considering strengthening its army.

This propaganda line is regarded by authorities here as fitting into a pattern of Soviet argument designed to show the United States is embarking on a warlike course, while the Soviet Union is instituting peaceful measures.

$275,000,000 Help For Japan Is Asked

Army Seeking Funds for Rehabilitation

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP).—An Administration bill to provide $275,000,000 to aid the natives of Japan, Korea and the Ryukyu Islands was introduced today by Senator Chan Gurney, Republican, of South Dakota. Senator Gurney said he offered the measure at the request of Administration officials.

The money would be used during the year beginning July 1, 1948, for "rehabilitation, reorientation and re-education" of the people in areas now under American military administration. Senator Gurney is chairman of the Armed Services Committee.

Funds from this source would be in addition to any appropriations for relief and government costs. They would be spent under the direction of the President.

Army officials said the funds will be used to carry on a greatly expanded program to teach natives democracy and the American way of living. Instructions will be sent to Japan, Korea and the Ryukyu Islands. Books and other necessary school equipment will be furnished. Native students will be brought to the United States for further study.

The campaign will be under the direction of the Army.

Blast At Wallace Puts President On Offensive

Washington, March 18 (AP)—President Truman took the political offensive against Henry Wallace today with strong indications that he well open up soon on the Republicans.

The President's declaration that he would prefer defeat to the backing of his ousted Cabinet officer marked a quick shift in campaign tactics.

It acted as a shot in the arm for Administration Democrats, gloomy over the Dixie civil-rights revolt and the threat of Wallace's third-party presidential race.

Departs From Text

New York's Loyal Sons of St. Patrick responded with applause and yells when the President went outside his prepared text last night to tell them bluntly:

"I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his Communists. If joining them or permitting them to join me is the price of victory, I recommend defeat."

Wallace, who already has announced his plans to reply to Mr. Truman's foreign-policy address to Congress with an ABC radio address at 10.45 P.M. tonight, declined comment.

Wallace Plans Reply

But a spokesman said Wallace had asked the four major networks for "equal facilities to those given Harry Truman for his personal and political attack on me and the millions of Americans who support our program for peace."

Most politicians thought the President's move marked a deliberate turning point in his campaign strategy. They expect him to come up slugging soon against the Republicans.

Not for long, they predict, will Mr. Truman be content to remain silent in the face of attacks such as the one launched against him by a bloc of House GOP members.

Patience Running Low

They accused the President of Drumming up an international crisis in his address to Congress yesterday to distract attention from his faltering political fortunes.

Mr. Truman largely has kept silent after other attacks of this nature. But the President showed by his last blast at Wallace that his patience with political enemies is running low.

It was a challenge to Wallace with no quarter. It was remarkable in some respects because it came only a few weeks after repeated invitations by Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath for Wallace to come home. These bids hardly could have been issued without the President's tacit approval.

Renounces Red Support

By classing Wallace's followers as Communists, Mr. Truman picked up an issue the Republicans have been using against both him and his former Cabinet member. By his stroke the President renounced what neither he, nor the Republicans, seem likely to get in any event—Communist support.

Meanwhile, his military-preparedness message to Congress prompted a proposal by Senator Stewart (D., Tenn.) that the President drop his civil-rights program as a step toward domestic unity in the face of a world crisis.

Democrats publicly praised the President's fifteen-minute outline of world affairs.

GOP Block Attacks

But the group of Republican House members jumped on it with both feet.

Said Representative Brown (Ohio), manager of the presidential nomination campaign for Senator Taft:

"The President is trying to take the attention of the people from the political deficiencies of Harry Truman and turn them onto the possibility of war."

"Move To Create Emergency"

Representative Owens (Ill.): "Just another move to create an emergency and keep control of the Administration."

Representative Elston (Ohio) said he suspects Mr. Truman "is trying to follow Roosevelt in creating one crisis after another."

Representative St. George (N.Y.) said the speech proves that "the Democratic party is the war party."

"National Hysteria"

Representative Smith (Ohio) commented:

"Truman is creating national hysteria in order to win back support . . . and keep himself in power."

Representative Goff (Ohio) said he would take the President's statement "more seriously if his political prospects weren't so bad."

Stewart added that the President ought to "let Henry Wallace and his fellow appeasers continue to moan and groan about civil rights."

Senator Morse (R., Ore.) said the President had "laid down before the American people the great issue we must face."

In the House, Representative Marcantonio (A.L., N.Y.), a Wallace backer, called the President's appearance "a cheap piece of soap opera."

And Representative Isacson (A.L., N.Y.), elected with Wallace's support, said the speech was "a desperate effort to cover up the complete bankruptcy of the Truman doctrine. . . ."

Strictly 'White'

Russ Music For Truman

Washington, March 18 (AP)—President Truman, who yesterday asked Congress for the resources to stop Soviet aggression, spent this evening listening to a Russian choir, the Don Cossack Chorus.

His surprise visit to Constitution Hall with Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, set off a burst of applause from an audience which filled about half the auditorium. Many rose to cheer the presidential party.

Secret Service men said the singers were "all White Russians," and are naturalized American citizens.

Before the President attended the concert, the Secret Service had the true names, the stage names and the birthplace of every member of the 28-man chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman shook hands with the director, Nicholas Kostrukoff, before entering the presidential box.

Christoffel Freed On $5000 Bail

Washington, March 18 (A. P.).—Harold Christoffel, former Milwaukee C. I. O. union official convicted of perjury for denying he was a Communist, was released from jail today on $5,000 bond. A United States Court of Appeals clerk said Christoffel posted the money originally put up by the C. I. O. United Auto Workers when he was inducted last summer.

Christoffel was convicted in Federal District Court on March 3 of falsely swearing to a congressional committee that he was not a Communist. He was sentenced to spend two to six years in prison. He has appealed his conviction.

CONGRESS UPHELD ON INQUIRY RIGHT

Communist Question Proper, U.S. Appeals Court Rules

Washington, March 18 (AP)—The United States Court of Appeals ruled today the House Committee on Un-American Activities has the right to ask questions which may show that a witness is a Communist.

The two-to-one ruling was given in upholding the conviction of Chairman Edward Barsky, of New York, and fifteen other members of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee on charges of contempt of Congress.

The Anti-Fascist Committee has been labeled subversive by Attorney General Clark.

The sixteen were accused of failing to produce records subpoenaed by the House committee. However, their appeal raised the Communist inquiry issue. They argued that the resolution setting up the House committee was unconstitutional because it authorized investigation of political expressions and opinions.

Challenged In Other Cases

The right of the House committee to ask witnesses whether they are or have been Communists has been challenged in other contempt proceedings. One case involves several Hollywood writers and producers cited after they refused to answer such a question.

Associate Justice E. Barrett Prettyman wrote the majority opinion, in which Associate Justice Bennett Champ Clark joined.

Associate Justice Henry W. Edgerton dissented, saying that the House committee inquiry "abridges freedom of speech and inflicts punishment without trial."

The majority opinion held that: "Congress has power to make an inquiry of an individual which may elicit the answer that the witness is a believer in Communism or a member of the Communist party."

Reasons For Stand

The majority took that stand, the opinion said, "in view of the representation to the Congress as to the nature, purposes and program of Communism and the Communist party, and in view of the legislation proposed, pending and possible in respect to or premised upon that subject, and in view of the involvement on that subject in the foreign policy of the Government."

Dr. Barsky and the others were cited for contempt March 28, 1946, for withholding the refugee group's records from the Un-American Activities Committee.

Sentences Varied

They were subsequently convicted in Federal Court and given varying sentences. Barsky drew a $500 fine and six months in jail. The others including Author Howard Fast, were sentenced to serve three months and pay $500 fines.

Sentences of five defendants were suspended after they indicated they had resigned from the refugee committee. They were Herman Shumlin, theatrical producer; Leverett Gleason, publisher; Dr. Jesse Tolmach, physician; Mrs. Bobbie Weinstein, housewife, and Louise Cansley.

All are from the New York area.

U.S. PLANS TO SIGN CZECH TRADE PACT, HARNESS REPORTS

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) Rep. Harness (R-Ind) said today the State department plans to sign a reciprocal trade treaty with Czechoslovakia March 20—a step he called a "stupid blunder." Department officials disputed his interpretation.

Harness told the House the agreement will admit shoes, glassware and rubber footwear, among other items, from Czechoslovakia.

"In return," he said, "we will be obliged to ship to Russia, through Czechoslovakia, heavy equipment, automobiles, trucks and other critical materials."

At the state department, officials said that Czechoslovakia had announced its intention to sign in New York on March 20 a tariff reduction treaty which the United States negotiated with 22 nations, including Czechoslovakia, at Geneva last fall.

However, the officials added, the treaty simply provides for reciprocal reductions in tariff rates by the 22 nations. If private buyers in the United States want to import goods from Czechoslovakia they can do so at lower rates. But if Czechoslovakia wants to buy goods in this country it still must obtain export licenses, the officials said, and thus this country is in a position to curb these exports or cut them off entirely.

ACTION IS SPEEDED ON EUROPEAN AID

House Committee Work Virtually Completed; Passage Expected by April 1.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) The House Foreign Affairs committee virtually completed action on the $5,300,000,000 European recovery program tonight, scarcely 24 hours after President Truman appealed for full speed ahead.

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), acting chairman, said the committee expects to tackle the question of aid to China, Greece and Turkey tomorrow. It may make a few further changes in the European aid legislation.

Final House action on the omnibus aid bill is expected by April 1.

The Senate already has approved an ERP bill, with the same $5,300,000,000 ceiling. The House bill, however, will include military and economic aid to the other three countries.

This and other differences between Senate and House versions will go to a joint conference committee for ironing out—supposing that the aid bill is passed by the House.

U.S. TO DEPORT WOMAN HELD FOR ESPIONAGE

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP) The justice department today announced that Grace Buchanan Dindeen, in prison since 1944 as a wartime espionage agent, will be deported to her native Canada tomorrow.

She was born in Toronto in 1909, and is described by the department as the daughter of wealthy French-Canadian parents.

Miss Dineen was convicted at Detroit March 25, 1944 on an indictment wich charged that she had "conspired and agreed" with other described as enemy aliens "to obtain and transmit to Germany vital information on the defense of the United States."

MARSHALL FLYING TO WEST COAST

Washington, March 18 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall left today for California to make two addresses on the administration's new stop-Russia program.

He will speak tomorrow morning at charter day exercises at the University of California, in Berkeley. On Saturday afternoon he will speak at the University of California, at Los Angeles.

Marshall is making the trip to the West Coast in President Truman's plane, the Sacred Cow. He left at 9:38 A. M. and is expected to reach Oakland at about 9 P. M., California time. He expects to return to Washington on Sunday.

Before his departure, Marshall declined to comment on the world situation. "I've said enough already," he told reporters.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Marshall. However, she planned to leave the plane at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., a refueling stop.

The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission said the Germans failed to produce an atomic bomb because of such actions. And he said that may contain a lesson and a warning to Americans.

He did not amplify these remarks in a speech on "The Business Side of the Atom" prepared for delivery before the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

However, other administration officials have been openly critical of the House Un-American Activities Committee for its attack on Dr. Edward U. Condon. Condon, head of the Bureau of Standards, has done work on atomic projects.

Atomic Power Plant.

Lilienthal detailed the commission's efforts to provide a new source of electric energy through atomic power plants. Although he did not present a date for achieving this goal, he did say that a practical demonstration plant will be in operation within the next five or ten years. But he added "If we fiddle and fool around with it, it will take a hundred years."

Lilienthal said that the United States already has spent $3,000,000,000 on atomic research and development. The total will increase to $5,000,000,000 in the next few years, he said, "if this country really means business and intends to keep well ahead in this new field upon which our industrial and military position so largely depends."

Lilienthal Hits 'Gestapo' Way

Says Star Chamber Proceedings on Scientists Could Stop U. S. Atom Progress 'Dead.'

Boston, March 18 (A. P.).—David E. Lilienthal said today that using "star chamber proceedings and gestapo methods" on scientists could "stop this country's atomic energy progress dead in its tracks."

HOLLYWOOD FIGURE AND SEVEN SEIZED

Los Angeles, March 18 (A. P.).—Jaroslaw Dmytryk, Hollywood writer and brother of Edward Dmytryk, director, was arrested today by the Immigration Service, which said that he and seven others would be held for deportation hearings.

All are accused, said W. A. Carmichael, regional director of the service, of being aliens and members of an organization advocating the overthrow of the United States Government by force and violence. Carmichael said that the eight are members of various organizations, none of which was named. He identified Jaroslaw Dmytryk as a native of Austria.

His brother, Edward, is one of ten Hollywood film figures facing charges in Washington of contempt of the Thomas Un-American Activities Committee, which alleges that they refused to answer yes or no to questions in hearings there as to whether they are Communists. The Immigration Service said that a consolidated hearing, to determine if the organizations are Communistic in nature, already has been held, and that another may be scheduled later.

The others were identified by Carmichael as:

Esther Sazar, native of Russia, former secretary of a union here.

Paul Kline, native of Russia, former executive secretary of the Communist party here.

Joseph Boross, native of Hungary.

Jose[illegible]f, native of Yugoslavia.

Aa[illegible]sberg, native of Poland, a waiter.

Francisco Espinoza Corona, native of Mexico.

Joseph Modotti, native of Italy.

STASSEN EXPANDS TRUMAN PROGRAM

Cleveland, March 18 (A. P.).—Harold E. Stassen today called President Truman's new proposed foreign program "entirely inadequate for the menace he describes."

Here to make his first personal bid for Ohio's presidential delegates, Stassen said he agreed generally with the President's program as far as it went.

But he said he thought these four points should have been added:

1. "The Communist party organization should be promptly outlawed in America."

2. The United States should "not contribute to the military potential of Russia. This country and others are continuing to ship vital machine tools . . . to Russia."

3. "The President's program . . . lacks any reference to a stronger air force."

4. "Finally, and most important of all, the President's message does not present the alternative method by which all nations can best climb toward peace rather than slide down the tragic road toward the holocaust of a third world war."

Mme. Joliot-Curie Held By U.S. At Ellis Island

Washington Says Nobel Prize Winner Is Detained On Temporary Exclusion Order

New York, March 18 (AP)—Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, 50, noted French scientist whose parents discovered radium, was detained by immigration agents upon her arrival from Paris early tonight. In Washington, a spokesman for the Department of Justice said she was held on a "temporary exclusion" order.

The spokesman, Leo Cadison, did not amplify the statement except to say Mme. Joliot-Curie was being held on Ellis Island.

Immigration officials here had declined to make any comment. They referred inquiries to representatives of Air France, the airline on which she arrived.

Institute Director

Airline spokesmen, in turn, said they were authorized to say only that Mme. Joliot-Curie was "being detained by immigration authorities."

Mme. Joliot-Currie, whose husband, Frederick, also is a scientist, succeeded her mother as director of the renowned Curie Institute in Paris. She is a Noble Prize winner.

An official of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, who was at the airport to meet her, said she had come to the United States to "acquaint the American people with the immediate needs of the Spanish Republicans in exile."

Given No Information

Airline representatives said they were not told why she was detained. They said they had been told she was not to be available to reporters.

Later, airline spokesmen said Mme. Joliot-Curie had been taken to Ellis Island. Two Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee lawyers who had come to the airport were told by immigration officials that if they wanted to see her they would have to do so at Ellis Island. They said they were given no information about her.

The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee was one of the organizations recently listed by Tom C. Clark, Attorney General, as "subversive."

Doctor Indicted

The official who was at the airport to meet her was Dr. Edward Barksy, chairman. Dr. Barksy himself was indicted for refusal to yield records of the organization for inspection by the House Un-American Activities Committee. He was convicted of contempt of Congress, along with other members of the committee. The convictions were appealed but upheld today by the United States Court of Appeals in Washington.

During the trial there were accusations that the committee was "honeycombed" with Communists. Dr. Barsky, a New York surgeon, has declared it is nothing more than "a humanitarian organization."

Marked Red Army Day

On February 28, Mme. Joliot-Curie's husband, who is chief of 30.24- 16347

France's Commission for Study of Atomic Energy, presided at a meeting celebrating the thirtieth anniversary of Russia's Red Army. The meeting was called by the French Friends of the U.S.S.R. Joliot-Curie was flanked on the platform by top Communist officials of France and Russian diplomats.

Last June 12, the Joliot-Curies were named for corresponding memberships in the Academy of Sciences of the Soviet Union. No candidates from the United States or Britain were included.

In the past, the Joliot-Curies have listed themselves as Socialists, but Joliot-Curie once said they rarely attended political meetings. In 1937 his wife pronounced herself disillusioned with politics, after having served as France's first woman Cabinet member.

BENES A PRISONER, EX-CZECH ENVOY SAYS

NEW YORK, March 18—(AP) Juraj Slavik, who resigned as Czech ambassador to the United States in protest of the Red coup in his country, said today he believed President Edward Benes of Czechoslovakia was a prisoner of the communists.

He said an a radio interview:

"Benes is certainly a prisoner. I am sure that President Benes cannot act as he would like to act now. I have important information that he was not permitted to speak. It was announced that he would speak over the Prague radio. He was not allowed. He wrote his speech. He submitted it to the minister of the interior. It was not allowed. He made two records. Both were rejected by the minister of the interior. This shows how free he is to act."

TRUMAN DOCTRINE MENACES WORLD, WALLACE ASSERTS

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace declared tonight that President Truman yesterday expanded the Truman Doctrine "to a point where it threatens the life of every human being in the world."

"Why have we reached this crisis in world affairs?" he demanded in a radio talk replying to Mr. Truman's two St. Patrick's day speeches.

"Is there a single reason why we cannot make a peace to end the cold war?

"Is there any evidence that Russia has aggressive designs against our country or that our national security is threatened from any source?

"These are questions which were left unanswered in the hysteria-breeding speeches of St. Patrick's day, 1948."

Mr. Truman interrupted a prepared text in a speech here last night to assert "I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his communists."

Wallace said tonight "grave issues of war and peace" were raised yesterday but added "these issues will not be settled by name-calling."

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace will go on the air again tomorrow night to reply to President Truman's St. Patrick's day speeches.

A Wallace spokesman said the talk, over the Mutual network at 8:15 p.m. (EST), would contain an answer to Mr. Truman's personal reference to Wallace in the President's speech here last night.

MR. WALLACE'S ADDR

Yesterday we heard a c... universal military training.

Tonight I plead the case for universal peace.

The grave issues of peace and war were thrown into sharp focus on St. Patrick's Day. Those issues will not be settled by name-calling.

Three years ago Franklin Roosevelt died. And in those thirty-five months the hopes of the people of the world have been undermined by those who talk of war and turn their backs upon the policies for which he worked.

Two years ago Winston Churchill, sponsored by the President, laid down the policy which has been followed ever since. One year ago the President announced the Truman Doctrine to contain communism by using American arms to bolster corrupt and reactionary regimes a long way from home.

Yesterday Americans were asked to give their sons to enforce that Doctrine.

Yesterday that Doctrine was expanded to a point where it threatens the life of every human being in the world.

Why have we reached this crisis in world affairs?

Is there a single reason why we cannot make a peace to end the cold war?

Is there any evidence that Russia has aggressive designs against our country or that our national security is threatened from any source?

These are the questions which were left unanswered in the hysteria-breeding speeches of St. Patrick's Day, 1948.

The men who are stirring up hate and fear traffic in a word. That word is "communism." They hope that it will provoke a hostile response from great masses of the people. They think that it is capable of blotting out reason.

But you can't fool most of the people any of the time. We know that ideas can't be licked with guns. America's mothers and sons know that millions of soldiers won't cure the social and economic conditions which turn many peoples of the world to Socialist and Communist parties. They rightfully believe that a draft and compulsory military training are not the way to preserve freedom at home or to guarantee democracy abroad.

Let us answer the questions which others have left unanswered as they cry for militarization of America and the world.

First, why have we reached this crisis in world affairs?

We have reached this state because the men who are running our Government fear the power of the common men and women the world over. They have recognized that the world is changing; that the peoples of the world are on the march. They know that the people of France, Italy, Czechoslovakia—yes, and the people of China and Greece, want to try a new approach. They are afriad of this demand for change and they are standing against it. They are using our resources, our science, our productive facilities—and soon they hope to use the bodies of our young men—to stop the demands of the people everywhere.

One year ago I said that President Truman was the greatest salesman communism ever had. I repeat that charge tonight. He has ignored the deep, underlying nature of the people's problems. His approach to fighting ideas is wrong, totally wrong. Ideas are like nails; the harder you hit them on the head, the deeper they go.

Fundamental land reform is long overdue in both China and Italy. The Commuunists recognize this situation and use it, but they did not create it. Our Government is tacking the phrase "Russian aggression" onto movements which are essentially the expression of an inevitable historical trend. I don't want to see billions of American dollars—and what is far more important, millions of American lives—wasted because American politicians will not accept these simple facts.

We have come to this world crisis because willful men with private interests are dictating our foreign policy. Their interest is profits, not people. They seek to protect and extend their foreign investments against the democratic actions of people abroad. They have had the assistance of other men who do not understand the problems of the people—either here at home or overseas.

Some of these men pose as humanitarians as they ask for the militarization of America. They say we must militarize to fight for freedom. But their records do not reveal that they have led fights for a secret ballot in South Carolina, or free elections in the poll tax states, or for an end to the divisive practices of segregation and discrimination.

In accusing another nation of sole responsibility for the undermining of the United Nations, this Administration tries to cover up facts which have brought us shame and cost us friends throughout the world. It was our State Department which killed the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, which circumvented the United Nations to give military aid to Greece and Turkey, which ignored the United Nations Economic Commission in planning what it called European Recovery, and which is ignoring even today the decision of the United Nations on Palestine. We have a heavy share of the responsibility for the weakening of the United Nations. We shall have to assume that responsibility. It is on the record. It can't be wiped out.

If we stand self-righteously — and stubbornly insist that the responsibility for the world crisis rests entirely with others, we shall make peace impossible.

It is openly proclaimed in high places that we shall, sooner or later, fight the Russian people; yet no reason for such a war is advanced.

Why should we fight Russia?

Does anyone really believe that we are helping the growth of civil liberties in Russia or Eastern Europe by threatening their governments with our armed power and economic boycotts? Such actions actually curtail civil liberties there and here. We can't extend civil liberties by war and preparations for war.

There are some who want a Holy War for the propagation of their faith. To them we must say we are against baptism by atomic bombs.

Shall we fight Russia because she offers us competition in world markets? Obviously not. The Soviet Union is in no position to compete with us for world markets. Quite the contrary. She offers us a great market for our own goods.

Shall we fight Russia because we are competing for the raw materials of the world? We shall dissipate more raw materials in such a war and in preparation for such a war than they are worth to either the United States or Russia. There is no competition for raw materials which cannot be settled by peaceful means.

Is there a single reason to militarize America—to deprive our young men of freedom and throw them under the domination of Army and Navy authoritarianism? There is not.

The attempt to make the fight for peace subversive will not succeed. We shall seek as earnestly for the common ground for peace as others seek the reasons for conflict.

The program to militarize America, if carried out, will impose a police state. Already men and women are paying a high price to speak forthrightly for peace. Speech is not free when it costs a man his job. Preparations for another world war will undermine American freedom just as surely as if the enemy had conquered us in the war just ended.

If we believe in democracy we have to support the free flow of ideas here at home and everywhere in the world. The ideas of Communists and Socialists for the solution of basic problems can only be countered with other ideas—positive ideas. They can't be licked with guns or standing armies.

It is shameful when high officials of the United States imply that a free, democratic election in Italy is a threat to freedom. We can't counter the propaganda of others by saying that we only believe in democracy when the election results please us. We can't win friends anywhere in the world by telling needy people that they shall vote as the Administration wants them to vote or they shall be deprived of aid. It is an exhibition of a lack of faith in the democratic process.

It is not our job to attack or defend actions of any other nation as we insist that our American policies conform to American principles. We can't in good conscience point our fingers at others when our own Government has perpetuated civil war in Greece and China, forced major parties from the Cabinets of France and Italy, armed Latin-American dictators, and violated every fundamental American principle while it has used the words freedom and democracy.

I say that our only national defense lies in a return to a foreign policy which is American in principle and practice.

National defense cannot be founded on arms and weapons of terror.

The production of those weapons is profitable business. We must take the profits out of defense. The young men who are asked to give up years of their lives make no profits from defense and war, nor should any American.

We must take the offensive for peace. As we fight against the draft and compulsory military training, we must also fight to eliminate the conditions which make war and derense profitable for private interests. We must bring under control—strict public control—the private foreign investments of the monopolists.

We must demand that our Government accept its share of the responsibility for the world crisis. We must demand firm allegiance to the United Nations. The price of self-righteousness is war and depression.

Speak up now. Speak up for peace. Pay the price for forthright expression. Don't let the fear-makers intimidate you into silence. Be heard—be heard now—for the voice of peace-loving, freedom-loving people is our only national defense.

Let us remember that military might has never imposed a good idea nor sustained a bad one. Recall with me the words of the prophet Isaiah:

"Woe to those who trust in chariots,
Because they are many
And in horsemen, because they are mighty."

Arab Charges Soviet Seeks To Create 'Red Palestine'

Carpenter

LAKE SUCCESS, March 18—(AP) The chief Arab spokesman at United Nations headquarters charged today that Russia wants to create a communist nation in Palestine.

This charge was made in a statement to the press by Faris El Khoury, Syria's delegate on the Security Council. He said Russia covets and has designs on Middle East oil resources now under American control.

It was the first time the Arabs have raised so openly a spectre of communism in the Holy Land and the Middle East.

UN delegates speculated that the Arabs now would shift the emphasis of their attack on the Palestine partition plan to a fight against communism.

Before President Truman spoke to Congress yesterday against communism the Arabs had concentrated on attacking the United States for supporting partition and had only somewhat tentatively suggested that communism might creep into Palestine through immigration in the event of partition.

If a Jewish country is created in Palestine, El Khoury said, it would probably be a "communistic state through the influence of trained communistic individuals coming with the Jews form Eastern Europe and Russia. Russia would have the means of obliging them to be communistic by threats of mistreatment of hostages held in Russia."

The Syrian said also that the Russians want to stir up hatred between the Arab world and the U. S. and deprive the U. S. of Middle East Oil.

AOD

decided when the council resumes its Czechoslovakia discussions Monday will be whether to hear Dr. Jan Papanek. Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko has called Papanek a traitor to Czechoslovakia.

Papanek was Czechoslovak delegate to the United Nations before the communist coup. He was fired last week by the new Prague government but has refused to quit.

Chilean Delegate Hernan Santa Cruz, who brought the Czechoslovak question before the Council, was reported planning a vigorous effort to have Papanek seated as an individual witness if not as a delegate.

Meanwhile, Dr. Gertruda Sekaninova, special envoy from the Prague government, arrived here to join Dr. Vladimir Houdek, who is named Czechoslovak delegate last week, replacing Papanek. Dr. Sekaninova and Houdek conferred this morning with Gromyko but declined to talk with reporters afterwards.

Dr. Sekaninova's status here was an officially acknowledged mystery but informed sources said she had been sent to take part in the Security Council debate.

The working committee today began a general debate on Russian proposals for immediate prohibition of atomic weapons and for a separate agreement setting up controls. The United States and Britain demand that the prohibition and the controls must be contained in the same convention.

Frederick H. Osborn, United States deputy on the working committee, did not answer Tarasenko in the meeting but afterwards he told newsmen that Miles had submitted an adequate reply.

TRUMAN REACTION ROUNDUP (500)
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON, MARCH 18-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PREPAREDNESS SPEECH MET WITH GENERAL APPROVAL FROM WESTERN EUROPE TODAY, BUT THE COMMUNIST EAST MAINTAINED ALMOST COMPLETE SILENCE.

THE GENERAL VIEW IN THE WEST WAS THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD TAKEN A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION IN ASKING CONGRESS FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING AND THE DRAFT AND URGING SUPPORT FOR "FREE NATIONS" AGAINST COMMUNISM.

SOME QUARTERS CONCLUDED HE HAD LAID DOWN A HISTORIC UNITED STATES POLICY. OTHERS COMMENTED THE PAYOFF WAS UP TO CONGRESS.

THE SOVIET UNION TOLD ITS PEOPLE ABOUT THE SPEECH OVER THE MOSCOW RADIO BUT DID NOT COMMENT.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA, WHERE THE COMMUNISTS TOOK CONTROL LAST MONTH, PRODUCED THE FIRST COMMUNIST CRITICISM. THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT RADIO SAID LAST NIGHT, "THERE ARE OTHER WAYS TO PRESERVE PEACE THAN TO INTRODUCE UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE."

ITALY, WHERE THE COMMUNISTS ARE CAMPAIGNING FOR AN ELECTION APRIL 18, FINDS THE SPEECH VERY INTERESTING, A SPOKESMAN FOR CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI SAID. HE SAID THE MESSAGE HELD GOOD NEWS FOR EUROPE'S DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES.

APPROVING COMMENT CAME FROM SPOKESMEN OF SOME OF THE FIVE COUNTRIES WHICH SIGNED A 50-YEAR MUTUAL-DEFENSE TREATY IN BRUSSELS YESTERDAY. THE SIGNERS WERE BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. MR. TRUMAN NOTED THE DEVELOPMENT IN HIS ADDRESS.

A FRENCH OFFICIAL SAID, "WE KNOW THAT WE CANNOT STAND UP AGAINST A MAJOR-SCALE AGGRESSION UNLESS ASSISTED BY THE UNITED STATES." HIGH FRENCH OFFICIALS FOR THE MOST PART AGREED THAT CONGRESSIONAL ADOPTION OF UMT AND A TEMPORARY DRAFT WOULD LEAVE NO DOUBT OF U. S. DETERMINATION TO STOP COMMUNISM COLD IN EUROPE.

A DUTCH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN CALLED THE ADDRESS A BIG ENCOURAGEMENT TO WESTERN EUROPE AND "THE BEST BLESSING OF THE WESTERN PACT."

THE MOSCOW RADIO BROADCAST AN 80-WORD SUMMARY OF THE SPEECH ON ITS EARLY-MORNING NEWSCAST FOR RUSSIAN LISTENERS, WITHOUT COMMENT. THE SUMMARY, AS RECORDED BY THE SOVIET MONITOR IN LONDON:

"AT YESTERDAY'S JOINT SESSION OF THE CHAMBERS OF CONGRESS PRESIDENT TRUMAN MADE A SPEECH IN WHICH HE ASSERTED THAT RAPID CHANGES TOUCHING UPON FOREIGN POLICY AND THE NATIONAL SECURITY OF THE U.S. A. WERE TAKING PLACE IN EUROPE.

"TRUMAN RECOMMENDED THE IMMEDIATE INTRODUCTION OF MILITARY CONSCRIPTION, ESTABLISHMENT OF GENERAL MILITARY TRAINING AND THE RAPID PASSING OF THE MARSHALL PLAN.

"TRUMAN'S SPEECH CONTAINED ATTACKS ON THE SOVIET UNION AND COUNTRIES OF EASTERN AND CENTRAL EUROPE. TRUMAN WELCOMED THE SIGNING OF THE BRUSSELS MILITARY PACT."

THE PRAGUE RADIO'S COMMENTATOR SAID IT WAS SIGNIFICANT THAT MR. TRUMAN'S CALL FOR UMT CAME WHILE RUSSIA WAS DEMOBILIZING. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DECREED TUESDAY DEMOBILIZATION OF ALL BUT THE 21 AND 22-YEAR-OLD CLASSES, BUT GAVE NO INDICATION OF HOW BIG AN ARMY WOULD REMAIN.

IN BRITAIN, THE INFLUENTIAL TIMES OF LONDON COMMENTED: "IF THE AMERICAN CONGRESS AND PEOPLE X X X DO NOT RESPOND PROMPTLY AND IN FULL TO ITS APPEAL FOR PRACTICAL MEASURES, MORE HARM THAN GOOD

MAY WELL BE GAINED."
THE LONDON DAILY TELEGRAPH SAID: "COMMUNISM HAS LOST ITS BET ON THE INEPTITUDE AND UNREADINESS OF DEMOCRACY. X X X (THE SPEECH) MAY WELL RANK AMONG THE GREATEST PRONOUNCEMENTS IN HISTORY."
THE COMMUNIST LONDON DAILY WORKER SAID MR. TRUMAN WAS CALLING FOR SOLDIERS "TO SUPPORT THE COUNTRIES OF EUROPE WHERE CAPITALISM IS IN DANGER."
DECLARED THE LONDON DAILY EXPRESS: "THE DANGER EXISTS THAT RUSSIA WILL NOW CONSIDER HERSELF MORE CLOSELY THREATENED THAN BEFORE AND REACT ACCORDINGLY."
IN HOUSE OF LORDS DEBATE LAST NIGHT ON THE ARMED FORCES BUDGET, CONSERVATIVE LORD TEYNHAM SAID, "BRITAIN IS LIVING IN THE SHADOW OF ANOTHER WAR WHICH MAY BREAK OUT AT ANY MOMENT."

OTHER REACTIONS TO THE PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATIONS:
GERMANY
"WE HOPE IT'S NOT TOO LATE" WAS THE CONSENSUS OF GERMANS IN FRANKFURT, WESTERN GERMAN CAPITAL ONLY 70 MILES FROM THE NEAREST RUSSIAN-ZONE OUTPOST.
A WOMAN DOCTOR WANTED "TO SEE THINGS DONE INSTEAD OF JUST HEARING WORDS."
"AMERICA," SHE SAID, "SHOULD SEND OVER A COUPLE OF WELL EQUIPPED DIVISIONS AND SOME SQUADRONS OF HEAVY BOMBERS WHICH SHOULD ROAR OVER THE COUNTRY TO BE SEEN BY EVERYBODY."
"TRUMAN'S BRAVE WORDS ARE COMING A LITTLE BIT TOO LATE," INTERRUPTED HER HUSBAND, ALSO A DOCTOR.
THE BRITISH-SPONSORED GERMAN NEWSPAPER DIE WELT IN HAMBURG SAID "REINTRODUCTION OF MILITARY CONSCRIPTION XXX WILL ENABLE THE WORLD POWER OF THE UNITED STATES TO LET HER STERN WARNINGS BE FOLLOWED BY STERN ACTIONS."
TURKEY --
GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THE SPEECH "EITHER WILL CHECK RUSSIAN ACTIVITIES OR BRING ABOUT A SHOWDOWN."
SWEDEN --
THE LIBERAL STOCKHOLMS-TIDNINGEN SAID, "TRUMAN WANTS TO PUT AMERICA AT THE HEAD OF A GROUP OF ALL FREE PEOPLE XX X PREPARED TO BUILD A SOLID DAM AGAINST X X X COMMUNISM."
NORWAY --
THE OSLO ARBEIDERBLADET, NEWSPAPER OF THE RULING LABOR PARTY, SAID, "WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSE WITHOUT AMERICAN HELP IS NONSENSE."
DENMARK --
THE LIBERAL COPENHAGEN POLITIKEN SAID, "NOW THE QUESTION IS WHETHER THE MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IS READY TO TAKE UPON ITSELF SUCH FAR-REACHING OBLIGATIONS TOWARD EUROPE X X X."
THE CONSERVATIVE COPENHAGEN NATIONALTIDENDE DECLARED THE SPEECH "MEANS THE U.S. TELLS SOVIET RUSSIA: THE TIME OF NOTES OF PROTEST AND APPEALS IS OVER."
AUSTRALIA --
THE SYDNEY SUN SAW "HOPE FOR ALL LOVERS OF FREEDOM."
NEW ZEALAND --
PRIME MINISTER PETER FRASER SAID IN A WELLINGTON INTERVIEW:
"THE PRESIDENT HAS MADE IT CLEAR THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS DETERMINED TO FACE UP TO THE HEAVY RESPONSIBILITIES OF A GREAT AND POWERFUL NATION."
BRAZIL --
OSWALDO ARANHA, PRESIDENT OF THE 1947 UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY, SAID: "IF THE EFFORTS OF TRUMAN BRING RESULTS X X X, THIS WILL STRENGTHEN THE DEMOCRATIC WORLD MOVEMENT AND HIS WORDS WILL CONTRIBUTE TO THE CESSATION OF DEFEATISM OF PEOPLES AND TO WORLD PEACE."

THE COMMENTATOR, WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS DR.LEMIN, SAID THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE WAS "AN UNDISGUISED MILITARY AND POLITICAL WEAPON OF INTERNATIONAL REACTION."
"IT IMPOSES TREMENDOUS MILITARY BURDENS ON THE PEOPLE OF WESTERN EUROPE," HE ADDED, "AND INEVITABLY BRINGS IN ITS TRAIN A FURTHER ATTACK ON THE LIVING STANDARDS OF THE WORKING MAN."
IN HIS ONLY REFERENCE TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS WEDNESDAY, LEMIN SAID:

HELSINKI, FINLAND, MAARCH 18-(AP)-PRESIDENT JUHO PAASIKIVI COMPLETED TODAY HIS INSTRUCTIONS TO FINNISH NEGOTIATORS ON A RUSSIAN TREATY.

RESPONSIBLE SOURCES SAID THESE INCLUDED "RESERVATIONS" FOR DEALINGS IN MOSCOW ON PRIME MINISTER STALIN'S REQUEST FOR A FRIENDSHIP AND MILITARY ACCORD.

ON THE MILITARY PHASE, THE INFORMANTS SAID PAASIKIVI'S INSTRUCTIONS ARE VERY STRICT. THEY GIVE THE DELEGATION LITTLE LEEWAY WITHOUT CONSTANT CONSULTATION WITH HELSINKI.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE INSTRUCTIONS PROBABLY FOLLOWED THESE LINES:

1. FINLAND CANNOT PROVIDE ANY MILITARY BASES BECAUSE THIS WOULD VIOLATE HER NEUTRALITY. RUSSIA ALREADY HAS A NAVAL BASE AT PORKKALA, ACQUIRED ON A 50-YEAR LEASE UNDER THE ARMISTICE. THIS BASE, OUTSIDE HELSINKI, SERVES AS A CONSTANT PRESSURE POINT ON THE FINNS.

2. FINLAND CAN ACCEPT NO MILITARY OBLIGATION OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY, AS FOR EXAMPLE, SENDING TROOPS ABROAD.

3. FINLAND'S CONTRIBUTION TO A MUTUAL ASSISTANCE AGREEMENT SHOULD BE ONLY OF A LOCALIZED CHARACTER. IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK, IN OTHER WORDS, FINLAND WOULD DEFEND HER OWN BORDERS.

4. IN THE EVENT OF WAR, FINLAND SHOULD DETERMINE WHETHER OUTSIDE HELP, FROM RUSSIA FOR EXAMPLE, SHOULD BE BROUGHT INTO THE COUNTRY.

PARLIAMENT MUST RATIFY ANY TREATY. ITS ACTION ON EVEN A LIMITED PACT IS DOUBTFUL. THE MAJORITY FEELING THERE WAS REPORTED IN THE LAST WEEK TO HAVE HARDENED AGAINST ENTANGLING MILITARY ALLIANCES.

THIS APPEARED EVEN MORE TRUE TODAY AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH WHICH MADE CLEAR, IF THERE WAS ANY DOUBT IN THE FINNISH MIND, THAT A PACT WOULD FORMALIZE ADHERENCE TO THE SOVIET BLOC.

"IS THERE A SINGLE REASON WHY WE CANNOT MAKE A PEACE TO END THE COLD WAR?

"IS THERE ANY EVIDENCE THAT RUSSIA HAS AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS AGAINST OUR COUNTRY OR THAT OUR NATIONAL SECURITY IS THREATENED FROM ANY SOURCE?"

THE LOAN DRIVE WILL OPEN FORMALLY ON APRIL 15 AND RUN THROUGH JUNE 30.

"NOW IS THE TIME TO SAVE," UNION CHIEF SAID. DECLARING THAT "TODAY WE ARE RIDING A BOOM," HE ADDED "INFLATION HAS MELTED THE PURCHASING POWER OF WAGES" BUT WORKERS CAN HELP CHECK HIXH PRICES BY BUYING BONDS RATHER THAN GOODS.

"THE ENEMIES OF AMERICAN DEMOCRACY ARE CONFIDENTLY EXPECTING AN ECONOMIC COLLAPSE IN THIS COUNTRY AND ARE COUNTPNG ON IT TO DESTROY AMERICA'S INFLUENCE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM," GREEN SAID.

"THE DEGREE OF SUCCESS ACHIEVED BY THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM DEPENDS UPON THE REESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE MARKET ECONOMY THROUGHOUT WESTERN EUROPE," THE NEW YORK BANKER SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR A SECURITY LOAN RALLY.

THE RALLY, SPONSORED BY THE TREASURY, IS TO MAP PLANS FOR THE NEW SAVINGS BOND DRIVE APRIL 15-JUNE 30 TO COMBAT INFLATION IN THIS COUNTRY.

WESTERN EUROPE'S BIG PROBLEM IN CHECKING INFLATION IS "ESSENTIALLY A DOMESTIC MATTER AND NATIONS MUST HAVE THE COURAGE AND WILLINGNESS TO TAKE THE NECESSARY CORRECTIVE MEASURES," ALDRICH SAID.

HE ADDED THAT TO KEEP SPENDING WITHIN THEIR INCOMES, THE COUNTRIES "SHOULD NOT HESITATE TO REMOVE SUBSIDIES ON CONSUMPTION GOODS AND, WHEREVER POSSIBLE, TO REDUCE EXPENDITURES."

HE RECOMMENDED THAT TAXES BE USED THERE TO DISCOURAGE INFLATED CONSUMER BUYING, AND THAT THEY BE DEVISED TO REACH FARM GROUPS "WHOSE POST-WAR INCOMES HAVE INCREASED WITH GREAT RAPIDITY THROUGHOUT WESTERN EUROPE."

"CERTAINLY THERE SHOULD BE NO THOUGHT OF TAX REDUCTION AS LONG AS INFLATIONARY PRESSURES PERSIST," HE ADDED.

ALDRICH SAID THAT THE REMEDY FOR POSTWAR INFLATION LIES "NOT IN RELIANCE UPON RATIONING OR PRICE CONTROLS BUT RATHER IN THE TWOFOLD ACTION OF INCREASING PRODUCTION AND REDUCING THE QUANTITY OF PURCHASING POWER."

"REMOVAL OF INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL CONTROLS WILL PERMIT WESTERN EUROPE TO UNIFY ITS PRODUCTION TARGETS," ALDRICH SAID. "THE PRICE SYSTEM CAN FUNCTION FREELY AND COSTS AND PRICES CAN BE BROUGHT INTO BALANCE.

"NOT ONLY WILL TOTAL PRODUCTION BE STIMULATED BUT PRODUCTION IN ITS MANY DIVERSE FORMS WILL BE DIRECTED INTO THE MOST USEFUL CHANNELS."

ALDRICH ALSO SUGGESTED THAT EUROPEAN NATIONS PERMIT INTEREST RATES TO RISE SO THEY WILL "PLAY THEIR HISTORIC ROLE IN THE RESTRICTION OF CREDIT AND THE STIMULATION OF SAVINGS."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-CHANCES FOR IMMEDIATE AGREEMENT ON THE INDIA-PAKISTAN DISPUTE OVER KASHMIR STATE FADED TONIGHT WHEN A NEW CHINESE PLAN RAN INTO DIFFICULTIES.
PAKISTAN SAID CHINA'S PLAN APPEARED UNACCEPTABLE BUT DEFERRED A FINAL DECISION UNTIL THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMES DEBATE ON THE ISSUE NEXT TUESDAY. INDIA APPROVED THE PLAN GENERALLY BUT WANTED SOME MODIFICATIONS.
MAJOR POINTS IN THE DETAILED PLAN:
1. CREATION OF A SPECIAL INTERIM ADMINISTRATION BY INDIA TO CARRY OUT A PLEBISCITE IN KASHMIR ON WHETHER THIS STATE WOULD JOIN INDIA OR PAKISTAN.
2. VERIFICATION OF THE IMPARTIALITY OF THE PLEBISCITE BY THE U.N. "GOOD OFFICES" COMMITTEE, ALREADY VOTED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL.
3. AN UNDERTAKING BY PAKISTAN TO TRY TO WITHDRAW ALL INVADING TRIBESMEN AND PAKISTAN NATIONALS FROM KASHMIR.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMES DEBATE TODAY ON THE INDIA-PAKISTAN DISPUTE.
THE COUNCIL WAS CALLED FOR 2:30 P.M. (EST) TO CONSIDER DIFFERENCES BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN OVER THE FUTURE OF PRINCELY KASHMIR STATE.
THE HINDU MAHARAJAH OF KASHMIR ACCEDED TO INDIA FOLLOWING CLTHE PARTIONING OF BRITISH INDIA LAST AUG.15. THE KASHMIR POPULATION IS 78 PER CENT MOSLEM AND PAKISTAN INSISTS THAT A PLEBISCITE BE HELD UNDER A NEUTRAL ADMINISTRATION TO PERMIT THE PEOPLE TO CHOOSE BETWEEN THE TWO DOMINIONS.
THERE WAS SOME OPTIMISM THAT AFTER MORE THAN 20 COUNCIL SESSIONS ON THE INDIA-PAKISTAN CONFLICTS AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT MIGHT BE REACHED.
INDIA HAS REFUSED TO AGREE TO REMOVE TROOPS FROM KASHMIR PRIOR TO A PROPOSED PLEBISCITE BUT PROMISED TO COOPERATE IN ANY U.N. MEASURES TO NEUTRALIZE THE OCCUPATION FORCE SO IT WOULD NOT AFFECT THE VOTING.
INFORMED SOURCES CLOSE TO THE DISPUTING PARTIES SAID OFF-THE-FLOOR CONFERENCES AMONG DELEGATES SINCE THAT REFUSAL INDICATED BOTH DOMINIONS DESIRE A SETTLEMENT.
DURING THE PAST WEEK THESE PRIVATE TALKS CENTERED ON THREE SALIENT QUESTIONS ON WHICH OBSERVERS SAID A TENDENCY TOWARD CONCILIATION EXISTED.
THEY ARE:
1--A KASHMIR PLEBISCITE UNDER U.N. SUPERVISION.
2--A GRADUAL WITHDRAWAL OF THE TROOPS, LEAVING ONLY SKELETON SECURITY FORCES IN KASHMIR.
3--AN INTERIM ADMINISTRATION IN THE DISPUTED AREA.
ONE POINT OF CONTENTION HAS BEEN WHETHER THE SUGGESTED INTERIM ADMINISTRATION SHOULD BE CHOSEN BY THE PEOPLE OR BY THE U.N.
INDIAN DELEGATE N.GOPALASWAMI AYYANGER PREVIOUSLY TOLD THE COUNCIL HIS GOVERNMENT COULD NOT AGREE TO WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM KASHMIR BEFORE A PLEBISCITE WAS HELD TO DECIDE ON AFFILIATION WITH INDIA OR PAKISTAN. HE ALSO SAID INDIA WOULD NOT AGREE TO PUTTING AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT INTO POWER TO ESTABLISH THE VOTING MACHINERY.
THESE HAVE BEEN THE TWO MAIN POINTS AT ISSUE. PAKISTAN HAS CLAIMED THE PRESENT KASHMIR ADMINISTRATION IS PRO-INDIA AND THAT A FREE VOTE COULD NOT BE TAKEN WHILE INDIAN TROOPS REAMIN IN THE STATE.
INDIA ORIGINALLY BROUGHT THE CHARGES AGAINST PAKISTAN, CONTENDING THE MOSLEM DOMINION OF PAKISTAN WAS ASSISTING TRIBAL INVADERS OF KASHMIR.

U.N.-PALESTINE (240)

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-THE BIG POWERS SOUGHT FINAL AGREEMENT TODAY ON A COMPROMISE REPORT OF THEIR FINDINGS ON THE PALESTINE SITUATION.
A PRESS OFFICER SAID THEY ARE DETERMINED TO END THE FIGHTING IN THE HOLY LAND.
NO MEETING WAS SCHEDULED BUT DELEGATES OF THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, FRANCE AND CHINA HOPED TO REACH COMPLETE AGREEMENT BY TONIGHT THROUGH INFORMAL CONVERSATIONS.
THEIR REPORT, REPRESENTING TWO WEEKS OF CONSULTATIONS, IS TO BE PRESENTED TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TOMORROW.
IT WAS UNDERSTOOD A COMPROMISE FINDING WAS PUSHED THROUGH LAST NIGHT AFTER EFFORTS TOWARD JEWISH-ARAB CONCILIATION AND AN AGREED TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND FAILED. BOTH APPROACHES WERE UNSUCCESSFUL

BECAUSE THE JEWS INSIST ALL AGREEMENTS MUST BE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE U.N. PLAN TO PARTITION PALESTINE AND THE ARABS HOLD THAT PARTITION MUST BE SHELVED.

A U.N. PRESS OFFICER SAID THE CONCLUSIONS INCLUDED THESE BASIC POINTS:

1- THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST MAKE IT CLEAR THAT IT IS DETERMINED NOT TO PERMIT THE EXISTENCE OF A THREAT TO PEACE IN PALESTINE.

2. THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST TAKE EVERY STEP WITHIN ITS POWER TO END VIOLENCE AND DISORDER IN THE HOLY LAND.

THE EXACT EFFECT OF THE REPORTED AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE CLEAR PENDING A STUDY OF THE TEXT AND THE COUNCIL'S REACTION. BRITAIN, AS USUAL, BOYCOTTED THE BIG POWER TALKS.

IT APPEARED THE COMPROMISE REPORT MEANT PRINCIPALLY THAT THE FOUR POWERS WERE CONVINCED THAT SOMETHING WOULD HAVE TO BE DONE TO STOP FIGHTING IN PALESTINE BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER MAY 15 WHEN THE BRITISH GIVE UP RULE AND THE U.N. TAKES OVER. STILL UNANSWERED WAS THE QUESTION OF EXACTLY WHAT THE COUNCIL SHOULD DO.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-A SOVIET SOURCE DECLARED TODAY THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST TAKE CONCRETE STEPS TO PREVENT A THREAT TO PEACE IN PALESTINE.

THIS SOURCE SAID THAT THE REPORTED AGREEMENT AMONG THE BIG POWERS ON A COMPROMISE REPORT OF THEIR FINDINGS ON THE PALESTINE SITUATION WAS VAGUE AND WAS ONLY A "HALF-STEP" FORWARD.

TALKING WITH NEWSMEN AT UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS HERE, THIS SOVIET SOURCE, WHO DECLINED TO PERMIT FURTHER IDENTIFICATION, SAID THE FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT WAS A WARNING THAT A THREAT TO THE PEACE NOW, YESTERDAY, OR TOMORROW, THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW OR ANYTIME IN THE FUTURE WOULD NOT BE TOLERATED IN PALESTINE.

HE SAID THAT WHAT HE CALLED THIS VAGUE THESIS SHOULD BE DEVELOPED FURTHER AND MORE CONCRETE STEPS SHOULD BE TAKEN IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF STEPS AGAINST A THREAT TO THE PEACE.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE MAINTAINED THAT THE U.N. ASSEMBLY'S PLAN TO PARTITION PALESTINE INTO JEWISH AND ARABIC COUNTRIES MUST BE CARRIED OUT.

AFTER THE BIG POWERS MET LATE YESTERDAY A PRESS OFFICER SAID THEY WERE DETERMINED TO END THE FIGHTING IN THE HOLY LAND.

THE SOVIET DEMAND FOR "CONCRETE" ACTION BY THE COUNCIL WAS SEEN BY OBSERVERS HERE AS AN INDICATION THAT RUSSIA IS READY TO BRING THIS POINT UP IN THE COUNCIL WHEN IT MEETS TOMORROW AT 10:30 A.M. E.S.T. FOR FURTHER DEBATE ON PALESTINE. THE BIG POWERS, MEANWHILE, SOUGHT FINAL AGREEMENT ON THEIR COMPROMISE REPORT.

FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA, SECURITY COUNCIL DELEGATE AND CHIEF SPOKESMAN OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES AT THE U.N. HEADQUARTERS, CHARGED IN A STATEMENT TO NEWSMEN THAT RUSSIA IS ATTEMPTING TO MAKE THE PROPOSED JEWISH NATION IN PALESTINE A COMMUNISTIC STATE.

EL KHOURY SAID THAT RUSSIA HAS FOUR OBJECTIVES IN SUPPORTING THE PARTITION PLAN. HE LISTED THESE IN THIS STATEMENT:

"1. RUSSIA WISHES TO SPOIL THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE ARAB WORLD AND THE UNITED STATES. RUSSIA WISHES TO CREATE HATRED BETWEEN THEM.

"2. RUSSIA LOOKS WITH ENVY AT THE OIL CONCESSIONS GRANTED BY THE ARAB WORLD TO THE U.S. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS THESE CONCESSIONS DETRIMENTAL TO ITS CAUSE AND WISHES TO DEPRIVE THE U.S. OF THIS SOURCE OF OIL.

"3. THE IMPLEMENTATION OF PARTITION NEEDS AN INTERNATIONAL FORCE. WHEN AND IF THAT FORCE IS SENT TO PALESTINE THE RUSSIANS WOULD HAVE A CHANCE TO "PUT THEIR NOSES IN." ONCE IN PALESTINE, THE RUSSIANS WOULD FIND THEIR WAY TO THE MIDDLE EAST.

"4. IF A JEWISH COUNTRY IS CREATED IN PALESTINE, IN ALL PROBABILITY IT WILL BE A COMMUNISTIC STATE THROUGH THE INFLUENCE OF TRAINED COMMUNISTIC INDIVIDUALS COMING WITH THE JEWS FROM EASTERN EUROPE AND RUSSIA. RUSSIA WOULD HAVE THE MEANS OF OBLIGING THEM TO BE COMMUNISTIC BY THREATS OF MISTREATMENT OF HOSTAGES HELD IN RUSSIA."

EL KHOURY DECLARED THAT RUSSIA HAS PRACTICALLY ATTAINED THE FIRST AND SECOND OBJECTIVES.

HE SAID THAT THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE ARAB WORLD AND THE U.S. IS BEGINNING TO WANE AND THAT THERE ARE SIGNS THAT THE OIL MIGHT BE OBSTRUCTED.

EL KHOURY DECLARED HE WAS PUZZLED BY THE REPORTED FINDINGS OF THE BIG POWERS. HE SAID HE HAD NOT BEEN INFORMED JUST WHAT HAD BEEN DONE YESTERDAY.

UNITED NATIONS

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 18-(AP)-RUSSIA SEEMED GRIMLY DETERMINED TODAY TO FIGHT ON AGAINST A UNITED NATIONS INQUIRY INTO THE COMMUNIST GRAB OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

A DECISIVE EAST-WEST CLASH OVER SOVIET EXPANSION IN EUROPE IS IN PROSPECT.

THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL VOTED YESTERDAY, OVER STRENUOUS SOVIET OBJECTIONS, TO HEAR ALL THAT CAN BE TURNED UP ON THE CZECHOSLOVAK CRISIS.

THE DECISION WAS TAKEN AGAINST A BACKDROP OF BITTER NAME-CALLING BY SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A. GROMYKO. APPLAUSE FOR SPEAKERS ANSWERING GROMYKO'S THRUSTS ECHOED THREE TIMES IN THE PACKED, USUALLY STAID COUNCIL CHAMBER.

THE COUNCIL SET NEXT MONDAY FOR THE START OF DEBATE ON THE CASE, FILED LAST FRIDAY BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE AGAINST RUSSIA.

GROMYKO CALLED THE CHILEAN COMPLAINT A DIRTY AND SLANDEROUS DOCUMENT; HE SAID CHILE WAS A LACKEY OF INFLUENTIAL FOREIGN CIRCLES; AND HE CALLED DR. JAN PAPANEK, U.N. DELEGATE FIRED BY THE NEW PRAGUE COMMUNIST REGIME, A TRAITOR.

TWICE GROMYKO EMPHASIZED THAT HE WAS ACTING ON DIRECT INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE KREMLIN. BUT HE DID NOT WALK OUT--AS HE DID TWO YEARS AGO IN THE IRANIAN CASE.

THE COUNCIL VOTED TWICE--TO PUT THE CASE ON ITS OFFICIAL AGENDA AND TO GIVE A NON-VOTING SEAT TO HERNAN SANTA CRUZ, DELEGATE OF CHILE. BOTH TIMES GROMYKO GOT ONLY THE SUPPORT OF THE SOVIET UKRAINE; THE OTHER NINE MEMBERS VOTED SOLIDLY AGAINST HIM. SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES WERE NEEDED TO ADOPT THE CASE FOR CONSIDERATION. THE VETO DID NOT APPLY.

GROMYKO APPEARED TO BE TRYING TO TIE THE CHILEAN COMPLAINT TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH, DELIVERED TO CONGRESS TWO HOURS BEFORE YESTERDAY'S COUNCIL MEETING. BEFORE ENTERING HE TOLD NEWSMEN THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH WAS "PROPAGANDA MAINLY FOR INTERNAL CONSUMPTION." INSIDE HE TOLD THE DELEGATES THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION WAS BEING HEATED UP BY STATEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICIALS, INCLUDING VERY HIGHLY PLACED PERSONS.

THE MOST PROLONGED APPLAUSE FROM THE CROWDED SPECTATOR SECTION BROKE OUT WHEN DR. ALFONSO LOPEZ OF COLUMBIA LOOKED AT GROMYKO AND SAID SLOWLY:

A12

MAR 1948

"I BELIEVE IT IS HIGH TIME THAT SOMEBODY SHOULD QUESTION THE PROPRIETY OF USING THIS KIND OF LANGUAGE WHEN REFERRING TO SOME OF THE NON-PERMANENT MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL OR TO OTHER MEMBERS OF THIS (U.N.) ORGANIZATION, AND I, FOR ONE, SHOULD LIKE TO REGISTER MY PROTEST AGAINST THAT KIND OF LANGUAGE IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL."

T. F. TSIANG OF CHINA, THIS MONTH'S PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, SPOKE IN A SIMILAR VEIN BUT GROMYKO QUICKLY REPLIED THAT HE WAS NOT PREPARED "TO TAKE LESSONS IN LANGUAGE."

GROMYKO PRODUCED ONLY ONE DIRECT ARGUMENT AGAINST HEARING THE CASE. HE SAID THE U.N. CHARTER PROHIBITED INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF A NATION AND THAT THIS WAS STRICTLY A CZECHOSLOVAK AFFAIR. THE REMAINDER OF HIS SPEECH WAS MAINLY AN ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES, ITS NEWSPAPERS, ITS HIGH OFFICIALS AND ON THE NOW FAMILIAR "WARMONGERS."

HE SAID THE CHARGES WERE BEING USED TO STRENGTHEN A WAR FEVER AFFLICTING THE UNITED STATES.SANTA CRUZ LAID THE CASE BEFORE THE COUNCIL WITH A SPEECH REPEATING THE ACCUSATIONS MADE AGAINST RUSSIA BY PAPANEK. THE ORIGINAL PAPANEK COMPLAINT HAD BEEN RULED OUT BY SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE ON LEGAL GROUNDS LAST WEEK.

THE CHARGES ARE THAT RUSSIA SENT HIGH OFFICIALS INTO PRAGUE TO ENGINEER THE FEBRUARY COUP AND STATIONED RED ARMY TROOPS ON THE CZECH BORDERS AS A THREAT.

SANTA CRUZ MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE CHILEAN CASE WAS BEING BUILT ON PAPANEK'S ACCUSATIONS. HE ASKED THE COUNCIL TO SEAT PAPANEK FOR THE DEBATE.

PAPANEK SAT SOMBER-FACED THROUGH THE THREE-HOUR MEETING ONLY A FEW FEET FROM DR. VLADAMIR HOUDEK, THE NEW DELEGATE NAMED BY THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

U. S. Asks UN to Drop Palestine Partition, Calls for Trusteeship

MAR 1948

CHAOS, FIGHTING SEEN AT END OF BRITISH MANDATE

~~NIGHT~~

UN Not Prepared to Carry Out Split Plan, Austin Declares.

CAUSES PROTEST STORM

Reversal of American Policy Stirs Jews. Members of Congress.

F. W. CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, March 19 (AP) —The United States urged the United Nations today to abandon the Palestine partition project.

The United States called instead for a United Nations trusteeship as soon as possible to prevent chaos in the Holy Land.

It was understood here that the move was made on direct orders from President Truman and his cabinet.

It was a back-down from the American position on the petition plan which was put through the 1947 U. N. assembly under joint American-Russian leadership last Nov. 29.

Speedy Action Urged

The U. S. also asked that the U. N. security council to recommend a special session of the U. N. to set up the trusteeship. It hopes for this session early in April.

A high U. N. administrative official declared "this means the end of partition."

The U. S. proposed that the security council instruct the U. N. Palestine Partition Commission to stop trying to carry out the assembly plan. A small advance party of the partition commission already is in Palestine.

The Jewish Agency for Palestine attacked the surprise shift in U. S. policy as an "amazing reversal." The agency said the Jews of Palestine would resist trusteeship by force.

The first reaction from London was a comment by a high British source that the U. S. move might change Britain's determination to get out of Palestine finally by Aug. 1.

Protests Arise

A storm of protest arose from many members of congress in Washington. Only a few endorsed the administration's new plans for Palestine.

U. N. delegates generally would not comment pending a study of the American plan, disclosed in full to the security council by Warren R. Austin, chief American delegate to the U. N.

Austin's speech was received in silence by the council and by the public, which occupied about three-fourths of the council chamber.

Austin first tipped his hand at a secret meeting of the five big powers in the mahogany-panelled offices of U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie. He gave the other powers a general outline of his proposals.

In statements before the council and in the secret big power meeting Russia and Britain said they would have to get instructions from their governments.

France and China indicated their governments would go along with the American trusteeship plan.

Adjourn to Wednesday

The security council adjourned its Palestine debate at 6:02 p.m. (E.S.T.) until next Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. (E.S.T.) without action on the American proposals. The council must decide whether it wants to call for a special session.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister who has been demanding that the U. N. carry out the 1947 U. N. assembly's partition decision, said the U. S. proposals were a "striking contradiction" to the assembly plan. He said he would have to ask Moscow for instructions.

Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain whose government has served notice it would end the Palestine mandate by May 15 and withdraw completely by Aug. 1, said he too would have to ask for orders.

Alexandre Parodi of France, whose vote for partition in the assembly last Nov. 29 was greeted by cheers from the audience, said he believed his government would accept the new American proposals.

Dr. T. F. Tsiang of China, this month's president of the council, said he believed China too would agree with the U. S. China has abstained on all important votes in the U. N. in the Palestine issue.

Austin then took his proposals to the full 11-nation security council, where they evoked as much apparent surprise as was reported seen in the closed big five meeting.

Austin told the council there seems to be general agreement that the 1947 assembly's program to divide Palestine into Jewish and Arab countries by next Oct. 1, and tie them together in an economic union, could not be carried out by peaceful means.

Sees Chaos, Fighting

He said it is clear also that the Security Council is not prepared to go ahead with efforts to carry out the project in the existing situation. He contended that chaos and heavy fighting will result when the British terminate the mandate.

"The United Nations cannot permit such a result," Austin said. "The loss of life in the Holy Land must be brought to an immediate end. The maintenance of international peace is at stake."

Unofficial tabulations based on reports from Palestine show that 1,877 persons have been killed in fighting and violence since the U.N. assembly approved partition last Nov. 29.

Austin said the U. S. agrees fully with the other big powers that the Security Council must take action by all means available to stop the violence and restore peace in Palestine.

"In addition," Austin said, "my government believes that a temporary trusteeship for Palestine should be established under the trusteeship council of the United Nations to maintain the peace and to afford the Jews and Arabs of Palestine further opportunity to reach an agreement regarding the future government of that country.

"Such a United Nations trusteeship would, of course, be without prejudice to the character of the eventual political settlement, which we hope can be achieved without long delay. In our opinion the Security Council should recommend the establishment of such a trusteeship to the general assembly and to the mandatory power (Britain). This would require an immediate special session of the general assembly, which the Security Council might call under the terms of the charter.

"Pending the meeting of the special session of the general assembly, we believe that the Security Council should instruct the Palestine Commission to suspend its efforts to implement the proposed partition plan."

Big Powers Urge Palestine Peace

Lake Success, March 19 (AP)—The big powers today recommended that the United Nations Security Council take immediate steps to restore peace in Palestine.

No mention was made as to how this should be done.

Warren R. Austin, chief American delegate, presented the findings which emerged from two weeks of closed-door consultations among the four powers on the Palestine crisis. Austin said the United States, France and China were in full agreement, but that the Soviet Union would state its own case to the Council.

DAY

May Extend Talks

Britain boycotted the big power talks and had no part in the report.

Austin said the big powers hoped to continue their private talks in efforts to reach some agreement on how to carry out the recommendations.

The big power majority report said it was apparent that the United Nations Assembly's plan to partition the Holy Land into independent Jewish and Arab nations could not be carried out by peaceful means. It was noted that the Jewish agency would accept no modifications in the partition plan and that the Arab Higher Committee, spokesman for Palestine Arabs, rejected any solution based on partition.

INSERT.

A United Nations press officer said the sole point of disagreement was over whether the phrase "by land or sea" should be used in describing infiltration into Palestine of persons intent on violence. Russia alone objects to this clause.

Without the additions of the land-or-sea phrase, the report would in effect lay all the blame for fighting on the Arabs, bitter foes of partition.

Two Basic Points

The press officer said the conclusions in the report included these basic points:

1. The Security Council must make it clear that it is determined not to permit the existence of a threat to peace in Palestine.

2. The Security Council must take every step within its power to end violence and disorder in the Holy Land.

The Council asked the Big Powers for help March 5 after the United Nations Palestine Commission requested an international armed force to carry out partition in the face of Arab opposition.

Britain insists she will give up rule in the Holy Land May 15, turning over authority to the United Nations Commission.

MAR 1948

Text of Austin's Speech

From the Herald Tribune Bureau

LAKE SUCCESS, March 19.—Following is the text of the statement on Palestine by Warren R. Austin, American representative, in the United Nations Security Council this afternoon:

The resolution adopted by the Security Council on March 5, 1948 requested the permanent members of the Council first to consult and inform the Security Council regarding the situation with respect to Palestine, and second to make, as a result of such consultations, recommendations to it regarding the guidance and instructions which the Council might usefully give to the Palestine Commission with a view of implementing the resolution of the General Assembly.

In support of the position agreed on by at least some of the permanent members, it might be helpful to the Council, Mr. President, for me to summarize briefly, as we understand them, the present positions of the Palestine Commission, the mandatory power and the Jews and Arabs of Palestine concerning implementation of the partition plan recommended by the General Assembly.

During the consultations of the past two weeks the Palestine Commission was asked whether it had found sufficient acceptance of the partition plan on the Jews, the Arabs and the mandatory power to afford a basis for its peaceful implementation. The commission's answer was no. It observed, in this connection, that the Jews of Palestine generally accepted the plan, that the Arabs of Palestine generally opposed the plan; and that the mandatory power had declined to take any action which might be interpreted as involving implementation of the plan.

No Peaceful Means Seen

The commission has repeated its view that it could not discharge its responsibilities on the termination of the mandate without the assistance of an adequate non-Palestinian armed force for the preservation of law and order. The commission does not consider it possible to implement the plan by peaceful means either as a whole or in substantial part so long as the existing vigorous Arab resistance to partition persists.

The commission considered itself unable, within the terms of the resolution of the General Assembly, to consider whether any modification of the recommended plan might offer a basis for agreement among the people of Palestine.

With regard to the establishment of the provisional councils of government in the proposed Jewish and Arab states by April 1, 1948, the commission has concluded: (a) That the attitude of the Arab Higher Committee and Arab resistance in Palestine preclude any possibility of selecting a Provisional Council of Government or the proposed Arab state by the first of April, (b) That while the commission can take and in fact has taken some preliminary steps toward the selection of the Provisional Council of Government for the Jewish state, the provisional council will not be able to carry out its functions, in the sense of the plan, prior to the termination of the mandate, (c) the position of the mandatory power precludes any possibility of fulfilling by April 1 the provisions of the plan as regards either the Arab or the Jewish Provisional Council of Government.

With regard to the city of Jerusalem the commission's view is that the administration of the city of Jerusalem by the United Nations is possible if the plan of partition with economic union is generally accepted by the Arab and Jewish communities of Palestine and peacefully implemented.

Tells of Arab Infiltration

The permanent members held two discussions with the representative of the mandatory power. One of these was devoted to security problems and the other to the implementation of the partition plan.

From the information supplied by the mandatory government it appears that several thousand Arabs have entered Palestine, in bands of varying size, and have infiltrated the Palestinian population. The identification of these Arabs has not been firmly established but it appears to be common knowledge in Palestine that they include nationals of most of the neighboring Arab states and that they have entered from Lebanon, Syria, Trans-Jordan and Egypt. The United Kingdom reports that these bands are irregular formations and are not organized units of any national armed force.

The representative of the mandatory was asked whether his government considers that there is a threat of force against Palestine which now constitutes a threat to international peace and also whether the existing situation in Palestine is a situation which constitutes a threat to the peace. He replied that his government would furnish all the facts available but that the question of what constitutes a threat to the peace is for the Security Council to decide.

In response to questions concerning implementation of the General Assembly recommendation, the mandatory power stated that it has "accepted" the plan of partition wth economic union recommended by the General Assembly, but that it cannot participate in its implementation. While it wished to avoid any action which might be considered as obstructive, it could not itself be instrumental in putting into effect a plan which is not accepted by both the Arabs and the Jews of Palestine.

The representative of the mandatory power informed the permanent members that his government considered that it would be very difficult to carry out the plan without the backing of force; that even if the Jewish militia were sufficiently armed to ensure the organization and protection of the Jewish state, such action would not be the equivalent of a settlement; that the United Kingdom did not believe that there were any modifications in detail which would make the plan acceptable both to the Jews and Arabs of Palestine; and that no change in the timetable of British withdrawal from Palestine is contemplated by the United Kingdom. The representative of the United Kingdom further stated that his government had no suggestions to make with regard to means by which the Jews and Arabs of Palestine might be brought together, although successful efforts in this direction would be welcomed.

Representatives of the mandatory government further indicated that there would be a very substantial deficit in the Palestinian budget following British withdrawal and that, while the Palestinian government has been financially self-sufficient, the cost of maintaining British forces in Palestine is considerably larger than the total Palestinian budget of $96,000,000 annually.

Representatives of the Jewish Agency stated that the Jews of Palestine accept the partition plan. The Agency claimed that the plan represents, however, an irreducible minimum for the Jews of Palestine since it already involves a great reduction in what they consider their rightful claims. Also, that, although there is no perfect or easy solution, the present plan is the only practical solution reached after many other plans had failed of acceptance. The Agency representatives stated that it should now be taken as a postulate that any plan whatever will require enforcement. No modifications in the plan would commend themselves to the Jews and the Jewish Agency does not see any possibility of modifications which would make the plan acceptable to the Arabs.

The Jewish Agency stated that the Jews of Palestine would be ready to undertake the responsibilities for government and for the maintenance of law and order within the proposed Jewish state. They expressed confidence that they could assert the authority of the Jewish state and maintain essential public services. This would presuppose the establishment and equiment of the militia contemplated in the plan and the removal of restrictions on the importation of arms. They believed that an international force would be necessary, and that if no international force were provided much more serious losses both to Arabs and Jews would result.

Want Control of Immigration

On the question of implementation by peaceful means, the Jewish Agency stated that it did not believe it would be possible to obtain a formal public agreement wtih the Arabs of Palestine in advance of implementation. They believed, however, that if left alone, considerable sections of Palestinian Arabs would be willing to co-operate or acquiesce; but that armed intervention by neighboring states completely changed that situation.

With respect to economic union, the Jewish Agency stated that they accepted economic union as a part of the plan although they themselves did not ask for it. The Agency does not consider the principles of the proposed economic union essential to the economic life of Palestine as a whole or to creation of the Jewish state. The Agency considers that economic union should not be an obstacle to the creation of the Jewish state.

The representatives of the Jewish Agency stated that the Jews would co-operate in the administration of Jerusalem by the United Nations, considered, however, as part of the partition plan; that the United Nations administration of Jerusalem apart from the plan would create a serious obstacle to such co-operation.

The Jews insist upon the control of immigration because that was a question of sovereignty and was a most essential part of the whole scheme. The Jews, they said, must have the keys to their own homeland in their own hand. The exclusive control of immigration was the most powerful argument in persuading the Jews to accept the partition plan. They had in mind a rate of immigration of 80,000 to 100,000 a year (roughly 1,000,000 over a ten-year period) subject to changing conditions both inside the Jewish state and in areas outside. They pointed out that there no longer is a great reservoir of Jews in Europe and that Arab fears that Palestine would be inundated can no longer be considered as well grounded.

A representative of the Arab Higher Committee made a formal statement on behalf of the committee which observed that all of the questions which had been directed to the committee revolved around partition which, with the clear and unequivocal support of Arab states, the Arabs of Palestine have categorically rejected. This statement went on to say that the Arab Higher Committee wished to reiterate its rejection of solutions based on partition in any form, including creation of a separate provisional or permanent administration for the city of Jerusalem.

The Arab Higher Committee further wished to emphasize that the only solution compatible with the ideals of the United Nations Charter and which would guarantee peace and security in Palestine would be the formation of one independent state for the whole of Palestine whose constitution would be based on democratic principles and which would include adequate safeguards for minorities and the safety of the holy places. The Arab Higher Committee stated in this connection that such a state would be prepared to accept full responsibility for governmental administration and maintenance of law and order in the whole of Palestine and that it would be prepared to treat all citizens and residents of all creeds with justice which befits a truly democratic country.

An identical question was submitted to the Jewish Agency, the Arab States, and the Arab Higher Committee, viz: "Would the (addressee) be prepared to enter into the necessary agreements for an effective truce in Palestine"; summarized, the replies were as follows: the Jewish Agency: Yes, if carried out within the framework of implementation of the resolution of the General Assembly and in strict conformity with the timetable provided in that resolution. The Arab States: Yes, if partition is suspended. No reply has been received from the Arab Higher Committee. However, that committee has categorically rejected partition.

Having considered the results of the consultations of the past two weeks, we must also reflect upon the situation in Palestine on May 15, 1948, on which date the mandatory power now plans to terminate the mandate.

In his statement to the Security Council on Feb. 24, 1948, the representative of the United Kingdom said, "My government are bringing to an end the discharge of their responsibilities towards Palestine under the mandate and are leaving the future of that country to international authority."

Gives British Position

On March 2, 1948, the representative of the United Kingdom referred, in his statement to the Council, to "whatever procedure the United Nations may decide to adopt with a view to assuming responsibility for the government of Palestine on May 15," and concluded with the statement, "Finally, I must repeat that the United Kingdom cannot enter into any new or extended commitment in regard to Palestine. Our contribution has already been made over the years and the date of termination of our responsibility is irrevocably fixed."

The status of Palestine will be equivocal because the United Kingdom seeks to give up the mandate. Article 5 of the mandate in respect of Palestine provides: "The mandatory shall be responsible for seeing that no Palestine territory shall be ceded or leased to, or in any way placed under the control of, the government of any foreign power."

In the premises there is the urgent need for early clarification of the United Nations responsibility toward Palestine.

The General Assembly and the Security Council have broad responsibilities in fidelity to the principles of justice and the aims of the charter to assist in bringing about a pacific settlement of situations and disputes placed before them. The Security Council has specific obligations and powers where it finds a threat to the peace, breach of the peace, or act of aggression. I have already dealt, in my statements to the Security Council on Feb. 24 and March 2, with these responsibilities.

The assumption of administrative or governmental responsibility by the United Nations is another matter. If the United Nations is to act as a government, a large administrative task is involved. The organization itself becomes directly responsible for all phases of the life of the people over whom such powers are exercised. It is a formidable responsibility, and a heavy financial commitment is incurred by all fifty-seven members of the organization.

No Transfer of Mandates

The United Nations does not automatically fall heir to the responsibilities either of the 30.24- 16363

League of Nations or of the mandatory power in respect of the Palestine mandate. The record seems to us entirely clear that the United Nations did not take over the League of Nations mandate system.

The League of Nations Assembly on April 18, 1946, at its final session, passed a resolution which included the following two paragraphs:

"The Assembly . . .

"3. Recognizes that, on the termination of the League's existence, its functions with respect to the mandated territories will come to an end, but notes that Chapters XI, XII, and XIII of the Charter of the United Nations embody principles corresponding to those declared in Article 22 of the Covenant of the League;

"4. Takes note of the expressed intentions of the members of the League now administering territories under mandate to continue to administer them for the well-being and development of the peoples concerned in accordance with the obligations contained in the respective mandates, until other arrangements have been agreed between the United Nations and the respective mandatory powers."

At the first part of the first session of the United Nations General Assembly, on Feb. 12, 1946, the Assembly passed a resolution regarding the transfer of certain functions, activities, and assets of the League of Nations to the United Nations. No transfer of functions concerning mandates was mentioned. The resolution included the statement that:

Trusteeship System

"The General Assembly will itself examine, or will submit to the appropriate organ of the United Nations, any request from the parties that the United Nations should assume the exercise of functions or powers entrusted to the League of Nations by treaties, international conventions, agreements, and other instruments having a political character."

Provision was made in the United Nations Charter for the voluntary placing of mandates under a trusteeship system by means of trusteeship agreements between the General Assembly or the Security Council and the states directly concerned, including the mandatory power. By such an agreement, the United Nations itself, under Article 81 of the Charter, could become the administering authority for a trust territory. No such proposal has been made by the mandatory power with respect to Palestine and no action has been taken by the United Nations itself which would have that result.

A unilateral decision by the United Kingdom to terminate the Palestine mandate can not automatically commit the United Nations to responsibility for governing that country. We think it clear that the United Nations does not succeed to adsignatories to a contingent liability for mandates, to become operative by the decisions of mandatory powers to abandon their mandates. On the facts reported by the permanent members, Palestine is a land falling under Chapter XI of the United Nations Charter, a non-self-governing territory.

Does the General Assembly recommendation of Nov. 29, 1947, constitute an acceptance by the United Nations of governmental responsibility for Palestine?

British Request to U. N.

On April 2, 1947, the United Kingdom directed a request to the Secretary General of the United Nations the first part of which states:

"His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom request the Secretary General of the United Nations to place the question of Palestine on the agenda of the General Assembly at its next regular annual session. They will submit to the Assembly an account of their administration of the League of Nations mandate and will ask the Assembly to make recommendations, under Article 10 of the Charter, concerning the future government of Palestine."

Thus, the question of Palestine came before the General Assembly only as a request for a recommendation. No proposal was made by the United Kingdom to the General Assembly that the United Nations itself undertake responsibility for the government of Palestine.

Following consideration of the question of Palestine in a special session, in a special committee (U. N. S. C. O. P.), and at its second regular session, the General Assembly passed a resolution which recommended "to the United Kingdom, as the mandatory power for Palestine, and to all other members of the United Nations, the adoption and implementation, with regard to the future government of Palestine, of the plan of partition with economic union" set forth in the resolution.

Under the plan, the United Nations agreed, as a part of the recommended general settlement, to undertake administrative responsibilities for the City of Jerusalem. Further, the General Assembly agreed that a commission elected by it would perform certain functions to effect the transfer of responsibility from the mandatory power to the successor governments in Palestine. The limited responsibilities of the United Nations set forth in the plan are inseparable from the plan as a whole and are dependent upon the adoption and implementation of the entire plan. This essential unity of the General Assembly recommendation was emphasized by the chairman of the Palestine Commission in his statement to the Security Council on Feb. 24:

"I have put some stress upon the words 'plan of partition as it has been envisaged by the General Assembly,' since it is with the implementation of such plan that our commission has been intrusted. It is quite natural—and legitimate—for interested parties to concentrate their efforts preponderantly, if not exclusively, on such parts of the plan as are intended more especially for their sake. The commission is not in such a position; its duty, according to its terms of reference, is to provide for the implementation of the whole plan which has been conceived by the General Assembly as a whole. . . .

Plan Seen as a Unit

"Since the plan has been envisaged as a whole, the realization and sound functioning of one part of the plan has been made, in a substantial degree, dependent upon the establishment and functioning of its other parts."

The limited functions which the General Assembly offered to undertake in connection with its Palestine recommendation stand or fall with that resolution. If it proves impossible to give effect to that resolution, the United Nations will have, on May 15, 1948, no administrative governmental responsibilities for Palestine, unless further action is taken by the Assembly.

The plan proposed by the General Assembly was an integral plan which would not succeed unless each of its parts could be carried out. There seems to be a general agreement that the plan cannot now be implemented by peaceful means. From what has been said in the Security Council and in consultations among the several members of the Council, it is clear that the Security Council is not prepared to go ahead with efforts to implement this plan in the existing situation. We had a vote on this—only five votes could be secured for that purpose.

Says Strife Must End

The Security Council now has before it clear evidence that the Jews and Arabs of Palestine and the mandatory power cannot agree to implement the General Assembly plan of partition through peaceful means. The announced determination of the mandatory power to terminate the mandate on May 15, 1948, if carried out by the United Kingdom, would result, in the light of information now available, in chaos and heavy fighting and much loss of life in Palestine. The United Nations cannot permit such a result. The loss of life in the Holy Land must be brought to an immediate end. The maintenance of international peace is at stake.

The United States fully subscribes to the conclusion reached by four permanent members that the Security Council should make it clear to the parties and governments concerned that the Security Council is determined not to permit the situation in Palestine to threaten international peace and, further, that the Security Council should take further action by all means available to it to bring about the immediate cessation of violence and the restoration of peace and order in Palestine.

Under the Charter, the Security Council has both an inescapable responsibility and full authority to take the steps necessary to bring about a cease-fire in Palestine and a halt to the incursions being made into that country. The powers of Articles 39, 40, 41 and 42 are very great, and the Council should not hesitate to use them—all of them—if necessary, to bring about peace.

Trusteeship Favored

In addition, my government believes that a temporary trusteeship for Palestine should be established under the Trusteeship Council of the United Nations to maintain the peace and to afford the Jews and Arabs of Palestine, who must live together, further opportunity to reach an agreement regarding the future government of that country. Such a United Nations trusteeship would, of course, be without prejudice to the character of the eventual political settlement, which we hope can be achieved without long delay. In our opinion, the Security Council should recommend the establishment of such a trusteeship to the General Assembly and to the mandatory power. This would require an immediate special session of the General Assembly, which the Security Council might call under the terms of the Charter.

Pending the meeting of the special session of the General Assembly, we believe that the Security Council should instruct the Palestine Commission to suspend its efforts to implement the proposed partition plan.

Mr. President, I now bring to the attention of the Security Council three points, three propositions, which are being submitted by the United States. I think that they will be handed to you now if they have not already been handed to you. The permanent members have seen them. I am not making any representation for any of the other permanent members.

1. The plan proposed by the General Assembly is an integral plan which cannot succeed unless each of its parts can be carried out. There seems to be general agreement that the plan cannot now be implemented by peaceful means.

2. We believe that further steps must be taken immediately not only to maintain the peace but also to afford a further opportunty to reach an agreement between the interested parties regarding the future government of Palestine. To this end we believe that a temporary trusteeship for Palestine should be established under the Trusteeship Council of the United Nations. Such a United Nations trusteeship would be without prejudice to the rights, claims or position of the parties concerned or to the character of the eventual political settlement, which we hope can be achieved without long delay. In our opinion, the Security Council should recommend the establishment of such a trusteeship to the General Assembly and to the mandatory power. This would require an immediate special session of the General Assembly, which the Security Council should request the Secretary General to convoke under Article 20 of the Charter.

3. Pending the meeting of the proposed special session of the General Assembly, we believe that the Security Council should instruct the Palestine Commission to suspend its efforts to implement the proposed partition plan.

Mr. President, draft resolutions which would give effect to the above suggestions will be circulated shortly for the consideration of the Security Council.

Dr. Silver's Statement

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 19 — Following is the statement made today for the Jewish Agency for Palestine by Dr. Abba Hillel Silver to the United Nations Security Council:

The proposal of the United States Government to suspend all efforts to implement the partition plan approved by the United Nations General Assembly last November, under the leadership of the United States, and to establish a temporary trusteeship for Palestine is a shocking reversal of its position.

Up to the last few days the spokesman for the United States delegation has told the Security Council that the United States Government firmly stands by partition. Both the President of the United States and the Secretary of State have repeatedly within recent weeks maintained that the position of the United States on partition remained unaltered. We are at an utter loss to understand the reason for this amazing reversal, which will bring confusion, is likely to lead to increased violence in Palestine and will incalculably hurt the prestige and authority of the United Nations, the reversal of a plan whose effectiveness the President of the United States pleaded again as recently as Wednesday last.

It is clear from the statement of the United States delegation that the reason for scrapping a decision of the United Nations General Assembly, overwhelmingly approved by its members, was the threat on the part of some member states to alter that decision by violence. This will be a fateful capitulation on the part of the world organization to threats and intimidation, which will completely destroy all of its future effectiveness as an instrument of the settlement of international disputes and for the maintenance of world peace.

It should be clear to everyone that the establishment of a trusteeship by the United Nations in Palestine will not automatically insure peace in that country and that force will have to be used to maintain that arrangement, just as it would have been necessary to carry out the partition decision of the United Nations.

The statement that the plan proposed by the General Assembly is an integral plan which cannot succeed unless each of its parts can be carried out is incorrect. This conception was never part of the plan. Indeed, it is contrary to the statement made by the representative of the United States during the General Assembly.

The setting up of one state was made conditional upon the setting up of the other state. Mr. Herschel Johnson, representing the United States delegation, speaking in a subcommittee of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Palestinian Question on 28 October 1947, stated, in discussing this very matter in connection with economic union:

"The element of mutuality would not necessarily be a factor, as the document might be signed by one party only."

It is clear that an attempt is being made to force a solution upon the Jewish people of Palestine which would diminish its sovereignty, territory and immigration, such as was provided for in the partition plan. Otherwise, no new proposals would now be made by the United States delegation looking toward a new solution. The United States knows full well that the Arabs have opposed and continue to oppose every solution which offers any satisfaction to the legitimate rights of the Jewish people in Palestine.

The Jewish Agency has repeatedly been under the necessity of stating that the partition plan represented the maximum sacrifice on the part of the Jewish people beyond which it cannot go. Any proposals calling for further sacrifices will have to be imposed upon the Jewish community of Palestine by force. We hope that the United Nations will not knowingly assume the role of the British mandatory in an effort to carry out the kind of restrictive, crippling and discriminatory measures under which the country has been administered in recent years.

We are under the obligation at this time to repeat what we stated at a meeting of the Security Council last week: The decision of the General Assembly remains valid for the Jewish people. We have accepted it and we are prepared to abide by it. If the United Nations Commission is unable to carry out the mandates which were assigned to it by the General Assembly, the Jewish people of Palestine will move forward in the spirit of that resolution and will do everything which is dictated by considerations of national survival and by considerations of justice and historic rights.

It is with deep sorrow that we state that the world will not profit by the lesson which is now being read to it by the United States: that a revision of an international judgment, maturely arrived at after prolonged and objective investigation and discussion, can be extorted by threats and armed defiance.

Arabs Are Credited With Shrewd Move

LAKE SUCCESS, March 19—(AP) Arabs smiled with satisfaction and the Jewish Agency called it an amazing reversal of American policy. C.A. GRUMICH

This was the reaction of the main contenders over Palestine after U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin asked the United Nations today to recall the Palestine partition project voted by 33 to 13 in the UN assembly last Nov. 29.

Looking into the recent background, some observers credited the Arabs with a shrewd political move geared to big power politics and seeking some such result as the American reversal on Palestine.

The apparent purpose of the Arab campaign was to place the Arab nations of the Middle East in the role of supporters of President Truman's anti-communist stand. Zionists in the end found Russia their only big ally for partition.

BRITISH STAND MAY CHANGE

Determination To Leave May Be Modified By U.S. Move

MAR 1948

London, March 19 (AP)—A high British source tonight said the move by the United States to shelve partition might change Britain's determination to get out of Palestine by August 1.

Up to now, Britain has steadfastly maintained she intended to quit Palestine by that date no matter what action the United Nations took.

"That was the line until tonight," said the informant who has been close to the Palestine situation. "I cannot say whether it will or will not be tomorrow."

[Editor's Note—A Reuter dispatch from London reports other well-informed sources as maintaining that Britain will adhere to its withdrawal decision despite the change in American policy.]

Complete Surprise

The Colonial Office, which administers Palestine under a League of Nations mandate which Britain plans to surrender May 15, preparatory to leaving, refused comment tonight.

"The United States proposal is a complete surprise to me," a spokesman for Arthur Creech Jones, Colonial Secretary, said.

The United States proposal for an interim United Nations trusteeship came as Britain was faced with a grave policy decision regarding the Arab world. This came as a result of the reported occupation of Arab districts of Palestine by the British subsidized Trans-Jordan Arab Legion.

In Name Of League

An Associated Press dispatch last night said these troops occupied two all-Arab areas in the name of the Arab League.

A British Foreign Office spokesman implied tonight that Britain's attitude on the United States proposal would hinge on whether Arabs, as well as Jews, would agree to the interim trusteeship plan.

The spokesman reminded questioners that Creech Jones, in laying down British policy to the United Nations last September 26, emphasized that Britain willingly will take responsibility for "giving effect to any plan on which agreement is reached between the Arabs and Jews."

Tass Report On Arabs

The Russian Tass news agency distributed a report in London quoting Lebanese newspapers as saying that the Arab League political committee was discussing a new American proposal for Palestine's future. The committee is meeting in Beirut.

"In this plan they back out of partition of Palestine and propose formation of a federated Palestine state," Tass quoted one paper as saying.

"It is clear . . . that this proposal aims at attracting the Arab countries to the side of the imperialist powers," the Russian agency commented.

CONGRESSMEN PROTEST SHIFT

Only Few Indorse Change In Palestine Stand

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The American proposal to shelve the partitioning of Palestine brought an immediate storm of protest from many members of Congress today.

Only a few indorsed the Administration's plan, to set up a United Nations trusteeship for the Holy Land instead.

The White House said there would be no comment today on the change of plans.

Senator Taft (R., Ohio), a GOP presidential aspirant, said he thinks this country should have stood firm in its support of partitioning.

Compared To Munich

"If the new plan is accepted, the Security Council will have to send an armed force to Palestine to support the United Nations trusteeship," Taft said. "All of the objection raised by the Administration to the use of armed force when it was to enforce partitioning will apply just as strongly to this plan."

Representative Klein (D., N.Y.) called the decision "the most terrible sellout of the common people since Munich."

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) said it was "unbelievable" that the United States should back down on partition. "The Administration can't seem to get a policy and stand by it," he declared.

Approved By Gurney

The Senate's assistant Democratic leader, Senator Lucas, of Illinois, said: "This is a shock and a surprise."

However, Senator Gurney (R., S.D.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said:

"I approve of the action. It relieves me no end."

Senator Elbert Thomas (D., Utah) said: "This is what we should have done in the first place."

Abandons United Nations

Other comment: Representative Javits (R., N.Y.): "By this action the United States takes the first step to abandon the United Nations as a working instrument for world peace. . . . If the United States has to walk downhill because of the threats and illegal resistance of a few weak Arab states and ask the United Nations to follow, it is a tragic spectacle."

Senator Ives (R., N.Y.): "Most unfortunate."

Russia, Oil Seen Top Factors in Decision

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) Russia and oil were believed tonight to be the two factors in the minds of U. S. policymakers when they decided to back down on the partition of Palestine.

No comment was forthcoming from the White House or State Department. Secretary of State Marshall, who was in California, also declined comment.

But it was evident that the original decision to support partition was made in the hope that if the Arab nations were confronted with the full prestige of the United Nations they actually would not resist the plan to split the Holy Land up into Jewish and Arab states.

What actually happened was that Arab opposition stiffened and violence has been frequent.

It became apparent that force would have to be used to maintain peace while partition was being carried out.

The policymakers here, it was indicated, were unwilling:

1. To risk the possibility that Soviet as well as American troops might be sent to Palestine on a police mission.
2. To take a chance on upsetting important American oil sources in Arab lands.

DIPLOMATS WATCH 3 TROUBLE SPOTS

A. SINGLETON

LONDON, March 19—(AP) Western European diplomats braced themselves today for bad news from anyone of three potential trouble spots in the Mediterranean—Greece, Turkey and Italy.

Two Turkish military attaches returned home from Bulgaria suddenly and without public explanation. Hungary was reported to have ordered three of its diplomatic staff home from Turkey. Diplomats here speculated whether the two-way shift had anything to do with stiffening relations between Turkey and Russia's balkan neighbors and the standing Soviet demands for Turkish border changes and a big hand in the Dardanelles.

Troops on Greek Border

Constantine Rentis, Greek minister of public order, supported U. S. State Department reports that an international brigade of several thousand men is stationed on Greece's northern border. Rentis said in Athens that the Greek government had received reports communist guerrillas planned an attack on Salonika between March 22 and 30. The Greek foreign ministry said it had reports of considerable military movements in Yugoslavia and Albania.

NIGHT

U. S. State Department dispatches had said there were reports of 30,000 men in an international brigade in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria. These reports suggested that any attack across the border might nave the purpose of capturing Ioannina for a communist Greek capital or of throwing a projected government spring offensive off balance.

Tempers shortened in Italy where political campaigners took full advantage of a holiday to plead for the voters' support in the critical communist versus anti-communist elections April 18. Riot squads were called out at a huge leftist rally in Rome, but fist-fighting was broken up without any casualties.

High ranking British officials in London were reported gravely concerned lest a communist "blunder" in one of these three places or elsewhere might result in a minority uprising or intervention which would grow into real trouble.

Scandinavia's Stand Is Lauded By Britain

London, March 19 (AP)—The British Foreign Office said today that Britain welcomes the stand of Scandinavia's premiers against communism.

The premiers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark last night jointly affirmed their decision to defend their countries against any outside aggresion. Their statements denounced communism and dictatorship.

The British spokesman said:

"We welcome their awareness of the attitude of the Communist party and its implicatons, and of communism generally."

"What do you mean by implications?" he was asked.

"I could give you a lecture for an hour on that, but I am afraid I might bore you," the spokesman replied.

The premiers of Scandinavia expressed their views at a Social-Democratic rally in Stockholm which followed a day-long confidential conference.

Co-Operation Pledged

Informed sources said there was no doubt that the leaders discussed President Truman's warning before Congress Wednesday that "pressure is now being brought to bear on Finland to the hazard of the entire Scandinavian Peninsula."

The three premiers deplored in their speeches the "fear of a new war," and pledged co-operation with the Marshall plan for European recovery.

In Helsinki today, most newspapers' editorials said President Truman had bluntly put the blame on Russia for Europe's present state. The independent Helsingin Sanomat expressed wonder if the speech did not come too late. The leftist Vapaa Sana said:

"President Truman makes clear that the United States openly puts itself at the head of a military, political and economic Western bloc."

U.S. Suggests Parley Bypass Russ Claims

London, March 19 (AP)—The United States suggested today the four-power Foreign Ministers deputies bypass temporarily a dispute over Russia's financial claims against Austria and tackle other issues blocking an Austrian peace settlement.

United States Deputy Samuel Reber advanced the proposal after the deputies' seventy-ninth meeting failed to produce agreement on how much Russia should get from Austria in return for surrendering her claim against former German property in Austria.

Britain and France indorsed Reber's suggestion. But Soviet Deputy N. P. Koktimov said he would have to think it over. He said he would let the other deputies know his position Monday.

Other issues include Austria's future boundaries, reparations and evacuation of occupation troops.

Britain-To-Japan Air Service Is Begun

Poole, England, March 19 (AP)—British Overseas Airways Corporation inaugurated a weekly service to Japan today with the departure of the flying boat Penzance to Iwakuni.

The 10,625-mile trip will be via Augusta (Sicily), Cairo, Karachi, Calcutta, Bangkok and Hong Kong. It will take seven days.

Iwakuni will be used as a temporary terminal. Later flights are planned to Tokyo.

Two-Man Jet Trainer Test

LONDON, March 19 (AP).—A Gloster VII represented as the first two-place jet trainer plane in the world, flew its first test flight today. Test pilot Bill Waterton reported that the flight had been entirely satisfactory. He said the aircraft's performance was identical with that of the standard one-man Meteor IV fighter.

Siam's Envoy To Britain Quits

London, March 19 (AP)—The Siamese Embassy today said Nai Direk Jayanam has resigned as Siam's ambassador to Britain and will "stay at Plymouth for the time being."

British Air Vice Marshal To Fly To United States

Bracknell, Berkshire, England, March 19 (AP)—The RAF Staff College announced today Air Vice Marshal T. M. Williams will fly to the United States March 28 to lecture at the United States Air University, Maxwell Field, Ala. He is commandant of the RAF College.

Williams received a communication from the RAF association of Reading, Berkshire, for delivery to the Reading squadron of Berkshire county, Pa. The acquaintance between American and Reading airmen sprang up when the United States 8th Air Force had its headquarters at Aldermaston, near Reading.

Marshall Plan Nations Plan Charter Draft

Paris, March 19 (AP)—French Foreign Minister George Bidault leaves tonight for Turin to sign France's customs union agreement with Italy. Italian Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza will sign for Italy.

In Paris, meanwhile, the working committee of the sixteen Marshall-plan nations and delegates from the western zones of Germany held the first of their sessions to prepare a draft charter for a permanent European reconstruction organization.

Robert Marjolin, of France, and Eric Berthoud, of Britain, were named cochairmen. The committee's studies are aimed at producing projects for a general treaty of economic co-operation.

FRANCE, POLAND SIGN TRADE AGREEMENT

PARIS, March 19—(AP) France and Poland signed a trade agreement today.

France will ship $60,000,000 worth of automobiles and machinery to Poland in the next four years in return for about 4,500,000 tons of coal. The accord also fixes compensation for French property nationalized by Poland.

Yank Says Russ Grilled Him On 'Chute Leap

Berlin, March 19 (AP)—A GI who parachuted into the Soviet sector of Berlin said today that the Russians asked him "a whole lot of foolish questions" before releasing him.

The soldier—Sergt. Ray L. Dudley, formerly of Piggott, Ark., and San Francisco—was crew chief of the C-47 from which nine Americans jumped yesterday when it developed engine trouble.

Five of the jumpers suffered injuries which required hospital treatment. A sergeant whose name is withheld is in a critical condition with a skull fracture.

Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, United States chief counsel at the Nuernberg war-crime trials, chipped a small bone in his back when he landed in a Berlin street. His wife suffered a minor leg injury.

Landed Atop Building

Sergeant Dudley landed atop a seven-story building in the Russian sector and dislocated a shoulder.

He was rescued by Germans, who "wanted to get me back to the American sector without letting the Russians know about my presence."

"But they couldn't manage it," he said, "because a lot of German policemen came along, took me to a German hospital and then notified the Russians."

When his shoulder had been set, Dudley said, two Russian soldiers took him to Soviet headquarters for questioning.

"For an hour, or perhaps 90 minutes three Russians—an officer, a civilian and a female interpreter—asked me a whole lot of foolish questions," he said.

"The Engine's Fault"

"They asked me what happened to the plane and whose fault it was. I said I supposed it was the engine's fault. They wanted to know why we flew in the rain. They asked me who was aboard, what rank the officers were and, for some mysterious reason, repeated to [illegible] me whether the plane was a Douglas.

"I answered as patiently as I could because I was still full of ether from the hospital."

Dudley has been in the Army almost ten years. His wife, Marie, and two children live in Frankfurt.

Whitney R. Harris Appointed

Berlin, March 19 (AP)—Whitney R. Harris, former Los Angeles attorney, today was appointed associate director of the American Military Government legal division.

Typhoid Outbreak in Germany

STUTTGART, Germany, March 19 (AP)—Health authorities reported 180 cases of typhoid today in Goeppingen, in the American-occupied zone of Germany. The town's water supply was chlorinated heavily to check the outbreak.

Anti-Communist Feeling Grows In Holland

Amsterdam, March 19 (AP)—Anti-Communist sentiment blossomed throughout the Netherlands today in the wake of President Truman's speech.

Both government and opposition parties were unanimous in their determination to boycott Communist representatives in legislative government bodies.

The Labor party last night made a formal proposal in the second chamber (House of Representatives) of Parliament to ban Communists from membership in the Parliamentary Committee for Foreign Affairs. There are ten Communists in the 100-member second chamber; four in the 50-member first chamber (Senate).

Banned Co-Operation

After the Czechoslovak coup, all parties, including the Socialists, forbade their members to co-operate with Communists in any organization.

The Rotterdam City Council passed a resolution asking a Communist alderman to resign, "since his party subordinated Dutch interests to the interests of a foreign power."

The Hague City Council decided to exclude Communist members from all consultative activities.

Prof. C. P. M. Romme, leader of the Catholics, the strongest party, praised the Government's decision to strengthen police forces to combat possible internal disturbances. He asked for additional anti-Communist measures.

Urge Party Be Outlawed

Catholic students in a mass meeting urged the Government to outlaw the Communist party.

Political parties starting their campaign for general elections to be held in July are making anti-communism their first goal.

In the 1946 elections the Communists won eleven per cent of the votes.

The Communists are trying to increase their influence by setting "welfare committees." Their enemies immediately labeled them "action committees," after the Czech example.

Belgian Commission Backs 5-Power Pact

Brussels, March 19 (A. P.).—The Belgian Senate Foreign Affairs Commission approved the five-Power military and economic alliance today. Communist J. L. Taillard cast the only dissenting vote. Premier Paul-Henri Spaak has asked quick ratification of the accord with Great Britain, France, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, and both houses of Parliament are expected to approve next week.

Communists Battle Youth Group In Naples

Naples, Saturday, March 20 (AP)—Armed Communists battled Government party youth members near here yesterday and reports said one person was killed and ten wounded.

The reports said police arrested some of the Communists who, it was charged, started the fighting by breaking into a parade of Christian Democraitc party youths.

The Leftists later tried to wreck trucks which brought the Christian Democrats to the parade at Castellamare di Stabia. When police intervened shots were fired. Reports said at least one of the wounded was a policeman.

The incident occurred as political orators took advantage of a holiday to speed up the pace of the campaigning for the April 18 election being fought on the issue of communism.

Yesterday, which was St. Joseph's

Day, throngs in many Italian cities packed theaters, auditoriums and public squares to hear political speeches.

Fighting broke out in Rome, but riot squads quickly restored order.

Police Break Up Leftist - Rightist Clash In Rome

'Duce' Crier Stripped

Rome, March 19 (AP)—A young man yelled "Viva il Duce" at a Leftist rally in Milan last night. He yelled it just once.

The crowd seized him, stripped him of everything but his shirt, then hoisted him up to the top of a monument and jeered him.

Rome, March 19 (AP)—Fighting broke out at a big Leftist rally in the middle of Rome today and police riot squads were summoned.

The battle erupted after a speech by Luigi Longo, Italy's No. 2 Communist.

DAY

The Popular Front rally, in Rome's Piazza Santi Apostoli, not far from Piazza Venezia, was one of three political meetings being held almost simultaneously on this holiday—St. Joseph's Day.

Rightists In Two Meetings

One Rightist meeting was addressed by Marshall Giovanni Messe, one-time commander of Italian forces in Russia. Another heard Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the anti-Communist wing of the Socialist party, and Ivan Matteo Lombardo, of the Socialist Unity ticket.

Police quickly quelled the disorders at the Leftist rally and no casualties were reported.

The trouble began when crowds leaving the rally in the Piazza Santi Apostoli met those leaving a near-by Socialist meeting. Jeers and catcalls were exchanged and then fists began to fly. Police split the two groups and sent them on their way.

3 Hurt In Arrest Attempt

Ansa news agency said that two policemen and a bystander were seriously wounded when the officers attempted to arrest a Communist leader at Porto Gruaro.

The dispatch, from Venice, quoted police as saying that Angelo Marson, Communist party secretary, fired on police when they tried to arrest him for theft. It said Marson, slightly wounded, fled on a bicycle.

With Army's Offensive Aim, Athens Orders Evacuation of Children in Civil War Zone

L.S. CHARLES

ATHENS, March 19 (AP)—Senior Greek and United States Army officers have mapped plans for stepped-up Greek operations against the Communist-led guerrillas, it was learned tonight.

The Greek Government has ordered the evacation of all children from northern Greece, the main battleground in the civil war.

The military plans were developed during the past forty-eight hours. Greek commanders of the First, Second and Third Corps and division heads met with the Greek Chief of Staff, Lieut. Gen. Demitrios Yantzis.

United States military observers from Larissa, Trikkala, Yanina, Salonika, Kavalla and other points in northern Greece held discussions with Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, chief of the military section of the American Aid Mission. The American and Greek viewpoints then were coordinated.

The Government acted under powers of the new civilian mobilization measure in ordering the evacuation of children. The Welfare Ministry sent telegrams to officials of northern Greece telling them to use all available facilities to carry the movement out immediately.

Gen. Markos Vafiades' guerrillas have been taking children from villages in their hands and sending them northward to countries in the Soviet sphere of influence.

The Greek General Staff has agreed to assist in the evacuation of the children. Some observers suggested the area was being cleared for large-scale military operations. add

Arms Action Noted North Of Greece

DAY

Athens, March 19 (AP)—Constantine Rentis, Minister of Public Order, said today the Government had learned guerrillas planned an attack on Salonika between March 22 and March 30.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said considerable military movements had been reported in Yugoslavia and Albania.

Salonika is a major port and military headquarters at the waist of Greek Macedonia. It lies about 180 miles north of Athens and 40 miles south of the Yugoslav frontier.

Threatened Attack

Rentis said reports had been received of an international brigade in neighboring countries. Official dispatches from Athens to the United States State Department, made public in Washington yesterday, said three Soviet-backed international brigades were reported poised in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria for a threatened attack. The forces were estimated to total 30,000 men.

Dwight Griswold, chief of the American Mission to Aid Greece, said he has received no report of an international brigade. He said he believed the Greek Army could repel any such invasion without the help of Americans.

Fighting Near Kozane

The mission said four 170-foot motor patrol boats were expected today for delivery to the Greek Navy. The boats left Norfolk 24 days ago, each with a crew of Greek officers trained there.

The army said 30 guerrillas were killed and 26 captured in heavy fighting at the base of Mount Pierria, east of Kozane. Dispatches from northwestern Greece said the guerrillas lost another 30 dead and wounded left on the field near Philiates. The report said 40 other dead and wounded rebels were taken into Albania.

Troops searched woods and caves of Mount Parnes, 19 miles north of Athens, for a group of guerrillas who clashed with gendarmes last night. The band was estimated to total 30. Reports of the fighting caused some excitement in Athens, but by morning the guerrillas had faded away to hideouts. No casualties were reported. add

Coast Middies Bear Gifts To The Greeks

Piraeus, Greece, March 19 (AP)—The California Maritime Academy training ship Golden Bear docked today with 280 tons of gift milk and clothing.

Greek officials and Commander Morton Sunderland, United States naval attaché, greeted Capt. Russell M. G. Sany and the 125 midshipmen aboard. The Golden Bear will remain until March 25.

The ship previously unloaded gifts in France and Italy from her 1,200 tons of cargo collected in California.

Receptions and other entertainments are planned for the Californians. A boat race has been arranged for Tuesday between the middies and the Greek Maritime Academy midshipmen.

CZECHS APPOINT RED LAWYER TO SUCCEED MASARYK

A. STEINHOFF

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, March 19—(AP) A communist journalist and lawyer, Vlado Clementis, succeeded the late Jan Masaryk as Czechoslovakia's foreign minister today.

He joined Ana Pauker of Romania, Eric Molnar of Hungary, Vassil Kolarov of Bulgaria, and Zygmunt Modzielewski of Poland in the line-up of communist foreign ministers in eastern Europe. NIGHT

Clementis, a 46-year-old Slovak, was deputy foreign minister under Masaryk who died nine days ago in what the government said was a suicide plunge from his apartment window in the foreign ministry palace. Masaryk was a non-party man whose father founded the democratic Czechoslovak republic.

'Disciplined Party Man'

Known as a "disciplined party man," the pipe-smoking Clementis is expected to make cominform leadership more evident in Prague.

Completion of the Soviet-sponsored network of defense treaties in eastern Europe may now become easier. Under Masaryk's foreign policy, Czechoslovakia held back against signing any unconditional mutual assistance pacts.

MAR 1948

The appointment of Clementis came after an apparent tug-of-war in which political leaders debated the choice. It seemed obvious that President Truman's address on Wednesday was weighed seriously by the leaders in making the selection. Early yesterday foreign office spokesmen said the decision would be made in a "matter of hours" but it was not until noon today that the announcement was made.

For a time it was speculated in well-informed quarters that Zdenek Fierlinger, a Social Democrat who has followed a pro-communist policy, might be named. The executive committee of his party confirmed his selection last night as leader of the party. He was ousted as leader last November when the party broke away temporarily from its communist alliances.

Is Lawyer, Journalist

An energetic worker for the communist cause for many years, Clementis nevertheless retains many connections with western nations and speaks English and French fluently. For a time he was a journalist in France and England though his profession is that of lawyer.

He became a deputy in the Prague parliament, representing a Slovak district, in 1935. He fled to Poland when the Germans occupied Czechoslovakia, then went to Russia and France, and finally escaped to England when the Germans overran western Europe.

In England he became a member of the Slovak state council and made frequent broadcasts from exile to his homeland.

He returned to Czechoslovakia at the time of the liberation, and is now a member of the Slovak National Council, the legislature of the semi-autonomous Slovak state.

When communist Premier Klement Gottwald formed his communist-ruled cabinet three weeks ago, Clementis was named a secretary of state in the cabinet. He keeps the old job along with his new one.

The American Embassy announced today that the United States service bulletin carrying the text of President Truman's address to the joint session of Congress had been barred from the mails here.

Red Chosen Czech Foreign Minister

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 19 (AP)—The Prague radio announced today that Vlado Clementis, a Communist, has been appointed Foreign Minister of Czechoslovakia.

Clementis, who had been the No. 2 man in the Foreign Ministry, succeeds Jan Masaryk, who died in a plunge from his apartment in the Foreign Office Building March 10.

The new Foreign Minister, a Slovak, has been Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and had been Masaryk's chief assistant for several years. He is a lawyer, 46 years old.

DAY

Combines Offices

The Prague radio broadcast said the offices of Foreign Minister and Secretary of State are being combined and that Clementis will fill both posts.

The appointment was made public just four weeks after the start of a Cabinet crisis which resulted in complete Communist control of the Government. It came three weeks after President Eduard Benes swore in the new Cabinet, of which Masaryk was a member.

Though for many years an energetic worker for Communist causes, Clementis has many associations with Western nations. He speaks English and French fluently.

Fled To Russia From Nazis

In 1935 he was a Communist deputy representing a Slovak district in the Prague Parliament. Upon occupation of the country by the Germans he fled to Poland and Russia and ultimately reached France. There the Deladier Government interned him.

After France fell he went to England. From there for several years he broadcast news of world events to his homeland. For a time he was a journalist in France and England.

In 1942 Clementis became a member of the Slovak State Council in London. Now he is a member of the Slovak National Council, a provincial legislature which sits in Bratislava.

Party Elects Fierlinger

The appointment does not change the composition of the Communist-dominated cabinet. As Secretary of State Clementis previously had cabinet rank. Masaryk was affiliated with no party.

Zdenek Fierlinger, leftist Social Democrat who helped the Communists in their rise to power, was elected chairman of his party last night.

The executive committee chose him to succeed Bohumil Lausman, right-winger who resigned. This gave him back the job that was taken from him last November when the party reversed its policy of working with the Communists.

In his letter of resignation, Lausman, a former industry minister, said a recent party purge had shown "symbolic mistakes" of the November meeting. He proposed Fierlinger for his successor.

Truman Text Is Banned

Prague, March 19 (AP)—The American Embassy announced today that a United States bulletin carrying the text of President Truman's address to Congress has been barred from the mail in Czechoslovakia.

A Prague post office official telephoned to say that yesterday's issue of the bulletin had been confiscated.

The United States Information Service issues daily a bulletin in the Czech language reporting developments of American policy. Normally several hundred copies are mailed to libraries, schools and interested individuals.

Red Posters Attack Figl

VIENNA, March 19 (AP).—Russian soldiers stopped Austrian police today from removing Communist posters at Baden, Soviet headquarters in Austria. The Austrian Interior Ministry had ordered the removal of the posters, which attacked Chancellor Leopold Figl and Vice-Chancellor Adolf Schaerf. The posters read: "The people's democracies have butter, bread and meat—We have Figl, Schaerf and only filth to eat."

30 PERSONS DIE IN BITTER FIGHTS IN PALESTINE NIGHT

JERUSALEM, March 19—(AP) Thirty persons were slain today in a series of bitter communal clashes.

Sixteen Arabs, 13 Jews and a British constable were included in the day's toll. The heaviest fighting occurred in the Haifa-Acre region. The unofficial death count since the United Nations voted for partition Nov. 29 rose to 1,977.

Arab demolition guards cut the east-west highway into the Beisan Valley.

By blowing up three bridges on the highway, the Arabs posed a threat to beleaguered Jewish settlements there. Those villages now have been cut off from the Jews in the Haifa area.

Some Arab strategists look on the Beisan Valley as an attack route to the northern Palestine plain of Esdraelon (Armageddon), and the Jewish-held seacoast.

Twelve Arabs were killed when their truck, filled with explosives, blew up when Jews fired on it. The Arabs had tried to crash through a Jewish road block near Acre.

Two Jews and the British constable were killed in Haifa. The constable was shot while trying to rescue the Jewish driver of an armored truck caught in heavy Arab fire. A police car and a British army car finally got the driver to safety.

Five Jews died in a shower of Arab bullets at the Ain Harod quarries in the plain of Esdraelon. Police said the Jews were at work when the Arabs opened fire.

Other deaths were reported in scattered incidents.

8 Jews, 12 Arabs Killed In New Clashes DAY

Jerusalem, March 19 (AP)—Eight Jews and twelve Arabs were slain today in new clashes throughout Palestine.

Arab demolition squads cut the east-west highway into the strategically important Beisan Valley, Southeast of Haifa, posing a threat to wipe out the valley settlements.

Nine Arabs were killed and three injured when two Arab trucks were fired on by a party of 50 Jews north of Acre, in upper Galilee.

Five Jews died in a shower of Arab bullets at the Ain Harod quarries in the north Palestine Plain of Esdraelon, police reported. In Haifa, two Jews were killed and a British civilian injured. Three Arabs and one Jew met death in other scattered incidents.

Some Arab strategists look on the Beisan Valley as an attack route to the Plains of Esdraelon (Armageddon) and the Jewish-held seacoast.

Threat To Arabs Now

If the valley settlements are wiped out it would eliminate a threat to Arab troop movement across the upper Jordan.

Police reported the bodies of seven Jews kidnapped and killed by Arabs have been found at Mount Tabor in the Nazareth district.

One Jew killed in fighting at Beit Kesher was identified as Eli Ben Zvi, son of Isaac Ben Zvi, executive chairman of the Jewish National Council (Vaad Leumi).

Arab Troops Enter Holy Land

Yesterday, Arab Legionnaires from Trans-Jordan moved into Palestine and took over security control of two Arab districts in the Hebron region. They are the first soldiers belonging to a regular army of a neighboring state to enter the Holy Land in their nation's uniforms.

A Hebron official told reporters they came under orders of the Arab League, and not those of King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan.

Czech Arms For Arabs Reported In Lebanon

Beirut, Lebanon, March 19 (AP)—A reliable source said a large shipment of Czechoslovak arms arrived today for the Palestine Arab Army.

The shipment of rifles and machine guns came to the small port of Djouneh near here in a large schooner which sailed from Genoa, the informant said. The original destination was Tyre on the Lebanese coast 15 miles north of Palestine, but bad weather prevented discharge of the cargo. Launches took the materiel ashore.

The source would not give the name of the vessel. The movement of the ship and the unloading were guarded closely. The informant said the Government is "taking steps to keep it secret."

Military Committee

Leaders here met with the military committee directing the Palestine volunteer army. Iraqi Gen. Taha Hashimi Pasha, inspector general of the volunteer liberation army, and Egyptian Gen. Ismail Safwat Pasha, commander, attended.

Persons close to the committee said it is drafting a report to the Arab League political committee which is in session here. The informant suggested the military committee is "putting final touches on a plan for an all-out war against the Jews in Palestine."

Singapore Ready oFr First Election

Singapore, March 19 (AP)—The first election in the history of this British Crown colony takes place tomorrow.

Voters will select six representatives to the colony's 22-member legislative council. The body also includes nine Government officials, four unofficial members, nominated by the governor, and three members selected by the Chambers of Commerce.

Only 23,000 persons of Singapore's 800,000 population registered to vote.

The All-Malaya Council of Joint Action—a federation of all major Left-wing organizations—is boycotting the election on the ground that the right to vote was unduly restricted.

B-24's Are Used In Defense Of Changchun DAY

Peiping, March 19 (AP)—The Government today threw heavy bombers into its defense of Changchun, capital of Manchuria.

Progovernment dispatches described them as American-made B-24's. The number used was not reported. Neither were results.

The dispatches said the B-24's attacked Communists near Changchun, and also bombed the large hydroelectric plant at Hsiaofengman, near Kirin. The Reds captured both Hsiaofengman and Kirin, 70 miles east of Changchun, a few days ago, cutting off the supply of power to most Government held cities in Manchuria.

First Mention Of B-24's

[This was the first specific mention of the use of the four engined B-24 Liberators in the Chinese civil war. Previously, the Government has used P-51 Mustang fighters and various types of transport planes.]

Ground activity around Changchun was confined to skirmishes.

A major battle for Changchun is not expected to develop until April. Some dispatches said the Reds are cautious because Changchun was reinforced by troops from Kirin.

The Government was reported mobilizing more than 800 vehicles to haul freight between the big southwestern Manchuria base at Chinhsien and Mukden, Manchuria's largest city.

Was Isolated For Months

Mukden was isolated for months, except by air, until highway connections were restored to Chinhsien last week. Rail connections remain out.

The highway route requires two days.

North China delegates to the National Assembly were here awaiting transportation to Nanking. They said they would urge transfer of China's capital from Nanking to this ancient city.

The delegation also plans to protest alleged violations of the Sino-Soviet treaty of 1945, and to demand the dismissal of corrupt officials in North China.

Broad Powers For Pai

[Meanwhile, in Nanking, the Government gave broad powers to Pai Chung-hsi, Minister of National Defense, to combat the Communists in Central China.

[A conference of provincial governors and military leaders approved extension of Pai's authority to cover provincial administration, including district appointments. This is comparable to giving a military man in the United States control over individual states, even to the naming of mayors of small cities.]

China Sends Second Protest To Russia

Nanking, March 19 (AP)—China told Russia again today that it regards as "an unfriendly action" the recent attack by Soviet fighter planes on a Chinese transport over Manchuria.

In a memorandum to the Soviet Embassy, the Foreign Office sharply reminded Russia that China has sovereignty over Manchuria. The note reiterated China's protest of the "wanton attack."

The plane was one of Claire L. Chennault's commercial airliners operated under contract with the Chinese Government.

Reported Five "Attacks"

The American pilot said the Russian planes made five bullet-splitting passes at his craft March 8 but obviously had no intention of scoring a hit. He said the attack occurred south of Russian-occupied Dairen, but over Chinese territory.

The Foreign Ministry expressed surprise at a Russian memorandum which rejected China's recent protest on grounds that the Chennault plane was "unidentified."

The ministry said the plane bore Chinese and international markings that were plainly visible.

Cites Sovereignty

"China enjoys full sovereignty over the northeastern (Manchurian) provinces, including the Port Arthur naval base, which is clearly recognized by the Sino-Soviet treaty," said the official note.

"China cannot but consider such interference on the part of Soviet military authorities as an unfriendly action."

Jap Premier May Lose Most of Farm

Tokyo, March 19 (A. P.).—Prime Minister Hitoshi Ashida may lose most of his two-acre farm in Kyoto because he has become an absentee landlord.

When Ashida took the post recently, his village farm reform committee decided to let him keep the two acres because his sister was working it. But the Agriculture and Forestry Ministry today said nothing doing, he must sell all except a half-acre to the Government under its land reform program.

Japanese Hunters Bag 1,321 Whales

Tokyo, March 19 (AP)—Allied Headquarters reported today the Japanese Antarctic whaling expedition bagged 1,321 mammals.

The catch will yield an estimated 17,829 tons of oil and 30,000 tons of food. Some of the vessels already have returned with 8,500 tons of whale oil, which will be offered to the International Emergency Food Council for allocation to nations short of oil.

Last year, Japanese whalers killed 1,175 mammals.

Secretary Marshall Warns Russia Encroachment On Free Peoples Can No Longer Go Unchecked

NIGHT

Berkeley, Cal., March 19 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, warned Russia today that Communist encroachment upon free peoples can no longer go unchecked.

With equal bluntness, he cautioned Italy and other free European nations that election of a Communist government automatically cuts them off from American recovery aid.

Marshall, speaking at the University of California, described the "dangerous situation" now existing in Europe, one which duplicates "the high-handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime."

Urges Understanding

He did not mince words in delineating the spread of Communist doctrine and urging a prompt decision in the United States economic recovery plan for Europe.

But, in a brief departure from his prepared text at the conclusion of his words, he urged an understanding among peoples—above all an American understanding "of other people," difficult though it may be to achieve.

His address had but one conciliatory note:

"I would say that our purpose, our policy is to stand firm on basic principles but at the same time to keep the door open for any general conciliatory moves."

The Secretary of State spoke at Charter Day ceremonies at the University of California in observance of its eightieth anniversary.

More than 10,000 persons filled the Greek theater where he spoke.

Not a sound came from his intent audience until he concluded. Then a storm of applause broke from his listeners, including additional thousands unable to gain admittance and who listened over a public-address system at the university auditorium.

Marshall's speech enlarged upon American foreign policy enunciated Wednesday to Congress by President Truman.

In detailing the main points of what he called the "general strategy" for meeting the Russian challenge, Marshall went beyond his chief.

"Never before in history has the world situation been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present time," he declared at the outset.

This is now "a world-wide struggle between freedom and tyranny, between self rule of the many as opposed to the dictatorship of a ruthless few."

"It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice must not be allowed to spread further unchecked," he declared.

And again:

"Until such time as a real settlement (of ideological conflict) can be reached, it must be our policy to discourage and oppose further encroachment on the rights and lives of free peoples."

Marshall outlined these main points in present foreign policy:

1—Prompt enactment and immediate application of the European recovery plan. More than a year has elapsed since its inception, and the "problem is how, with the rapid march of events in Europe, to meet the situation." There must be no delay while weighing other proposals for related matters.

2—Automatic withdrawal of economic assistance to Italy or other free nations voting a Communist Government into power. Should Italy in its national elections next month go Communist, then:

"This Government would have to conclude that Italy had removed itself from the benefits of the European recovery plan."

3—The European situation parallels that which existed under Nazi expansion prior to World War II. The techniques involve the organization of satellite states under Communist doctrine and "police state formula."

4—The critical situation is not confined alone to Europe, but is world wide in scope. It exists as well in the Middle East, Indonesia and in China. "And we cannot ignore Latin America, or our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea."

5—Retention of the open door in the hope of "general conciliatory moves" on the part of Russia or its Communist satellites.

MARSHALL SAYS RUSSIANS USE NAZIS' TACTICS

MAR 1948

'Never Before Has World Situation Been More Threatening to Us.'

BUT HE LEAVES DOOR OPEN

Warns Italy Any Nation Putting Reds in Power Cuts Itself Off From American Aid.

DAY

Berkeley, Cal., March 19 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall accused Russia today of using high-handed Nazi methods in the Communist drive to engulf free European nations.

Before a University of California audience, Marshall stated the Soviet threat to America in these words:

"Never before in history has the world situation been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present time.

"A depressing aspect of the situation is the duplication in Europe of the high-handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime."

Goes Beyond His Chief.

It was Marshall's first public speech since President Truman appealed on Wednesday for Congress to enact universal military training and a temporary draft, and to speed action on the European Recovery Program.

But Marshall went beyond his chief in further detailing what he called today the general strategy of meeting the Russian challenge.

The Secretary made these main points:

1. Personally warned Italy and all other free European nations that any country which puts the Communist party in power automatically cuts itself off from American aid. Marshall said the Communists have so strongly opposed the recovery program that their victory would be evidence of a nation's desire "to dissociate itself from the program."

2. The present conflict is "world-wide struggle between freedom and tyranny." Marshall said the Russians should be stopped short in the positions they now hold—"It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice must not be allowed to spread further unchecked."

An Open Door Policy.

3. The United States is maintaining an "open door" policy toward any conciliatory moves by Russia and is "sincerely anxious" for a settlement. But until a settlement is possible "it must be our policy to discourage and to oppose further encroachment on the rights and lives of free peoples."

4. The crisis in which the United States now finds itself is worldwide. It presents grave threats to American interests not only in Europe, but also in the Middle East and Far East. Marshall argued against trying "to disperse our efforts" to meet all threats equally.

5. The great need now is for prompt enactment of the European Recovery Program in Congress. He said this should so strengthen free nations as to give them a better chance to defend themselves "against transition into police state dominated by the Central Committee of the Communist party in Europe."

Refers to New Conceptions.

Marshall said he agreed—evidently with critics of his strategy—that "the economic reinforcement of the free nations will not alone guarantee their safety under existing conditions."

However, he said, his chief concern "is to see us reach a decision promptly in regard to this (recovery) program and not delay action while discussing new conceptions of proposals regarding related matters."

The Senate has passed a $5,300,000,000 ERP bill and the House Foreign Affairs Committee has approved that sum. The House committee, however, still is working on other sections of a bill which also embraces China and other foreign aid.

Issues Are World Flung.

Marshall pointed a parallel between the present need for determining "just where and how we should exert our influence" and his wartime problems as chief of staff in deciding the priority of men and material for various war theaters.

"Unfortunately, critical situations are not confined to Europe," he said. "They exist in the Middle East, in Indonesia, in China—and we cannot ignore Latin America or our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea.

"Rich and powerful as we are, we cannot afford to disperse our efforts to a decree which would render all ineffective. Our means are not unlimited—we must not spend our efforts unwisely."

Need for Prompt Action.

The need for prompt congressional action on the European Recovery Program was pointed up by a comment that the plan was first broached on June 5, 1947.

Citing "the initial advantage of dictators in dealing with democracies such as ours," Marshall emphasized "the importance of timely action on our part in the face of the dictatorial procedure with which we are confronted in Europe."

"In the long run, I am sure, the democracies will invariably win out," he declared. "But the trouble is that the lapse of time may result in such a serious loss of position and strength that the tack of the democracies may involve a long, hard struggle to recover the ground thus lost."

The Secretary took note of "the frank declaration of the Soviet Government and Communist parties to oppose in every way possible the development of the European Recovery Program." However, he indicated willingness to reach an agreement with Russia, "which will terminate once and for all the present dangerous situation."

Stresses Case of Italy.

Marshall said prompt action on ERP was necessary, particularly for Italy. He warned that a Communist victory in the Italian election next month would cut off that country from American economic aid.

The Secretary pointed out that ERP is based on economic factors and added: "I agree that the economic reinforcement of the free nations will not alone guarantee their safety under existing conditions.

"But it should so strengthen them that they will have a far better chance of defending themselves and their governments against transition into police States dominated by the Central Committee of the Communist party in Europe."

Reviews Conditions Abroad.

In reviewing the situation abroad, the Secretary, who received an honorary degree of doctor of laws at Charter Day exercises, said:

"The organization of the satellite states—under the Communistic doctrine and the methods of the police state formula—was carried out rather quietly. The take-over of Hungary was a bolder exhibition of the same technic. The directed and fomented strikes of last December in France and Italy were another evidence of the same direction and procedure, but adapted to quite different circumstances.

"The Czechoslovakia incident, however, was both bold and truculent in procedure, quite evidently staged to impress the people of Finland and the remainder of the free states of western Europe. The procedure is in accordance with the frank declaration of the Soviet Government and Communist parties to oppose in every way possible the development of the European Recovery Program.

"In view of all that has already been said and the statement by the President on Wednesday before the joint session of the Congress, I am uncertain as to what I might add to convince the American people that this is a world-wide struggle between freedom and tyranny, between the self-rule of the many as opposed to the dictatorship of a ruthless few. It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice must not be allowed to spread further unchecked.

Speed Indicates Advantage.

"The speed with which the campaign of the Communist parties in Europe has developed in a well-ordered sequence of events demonstrates the initial advantage of dictators in dealing with democracies such as ours. The decision of a small group of men, possibly a dozen, quickly and conclusively determines the action to be taken on a large scale throughout Europe, and everything is co-ordinated with that decision—the absolute control of the press, the domination of the people, the conduct of a skillful campaign of propaganda, the complete misrepresentation of the attitude and purposes of any country opposed to the procedure—all is arbitrarily decided upon.

"Our decisions, our actions in regard to these developments are of great importance. We have an acknowledged position of leadership in the world. We have been spared the destruction of war which literally flattened Europe. We are enjoying a high degree of prosperity. These things being so, the character and strength of our leadership may well be decisive in the present situation. We cannot evade the issue by the negative procedure of inaction. By so doing we would vacate our dominant position of leadership and thereby revert to a secondary role—a role which inevitably would deprive each of us of those American principles of freedom and justice we have always upheld by every means available.

Need for Timely Action.

"One factor I especially wish to make clear today is the importance of timely action on our part in the face of the dictatorial procedure with which we are confronted in Europe.

"Our problem is how, with the rapid march of events in Europe, to meet the situation. The initial advantage is almost always on the side of the dictators, as it was overwhelmingly in the last war. In the long run, I am sure, the democracies will invariably win out. But the trouble is that the lapse of time may result in such a serious loss of position and strength that the task of the democracies may involve a long, hard struggle to recover the ground thus lost.

"In connection with the electoral campaign now in progress in Italy, the leaders of the Communist party have given their interpretation to the policy of the United States in connection with the outcome of these elections. They publicly asserted that, if their party, the Communist party, is victorious at the polls, American assistance to Italy will continue without change.

"I have only this comment to make regarding that interpretation of the policy of the United States:

"The European Recovery Program has been created on the basis of the voluntary association of sixteen nations who came together of their own free will and drew up a program of mutual self help for their economic recovery. There has been no compulsion or pressure of any sort in regard to association in this great co-operative effort. The United States has undertaken to assist these co-operating nations in this large task.

"However, on the other side, the record is unmistakable. Every European nation under the influence of the Communists has been prevented from participation in the European Recovery Program. Some have been deprived of the right to participate, clearly against their own wishes.

"Since the association is entirely voluntary, the people of any nation have a right to change their mind and, in effect, withdraw. If they choose to vote into power a government in which the dominant political force would be a party whose hostility to this program has been frequently, publicly and emphatically proclaimed, this could only be considered as evidence of the desire of that country to disassociate itself from the program. This government would have to conclude that Italy had removed itself from the benefits of the European Recovery Program."

BERKELEY, Calif., March 19 (AP).—A partial text of Secretary Marshall's address at charter ceremonies at the University of California:

Every one's thoughts turn today to the situation abroad—Europe, the Middle East and the Far East. Never before in history has the world situation been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present time. A depressing aspect of the situation is the duplication in Europe of the high-handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime. The organization of the satellite states—under the Communistic doctrine and the methods of the police state formula—was carried out rather quietly. The take-over of Hungary was a bolder exhibition of the same technique. The directed and fomented strikes of last December in France and Italy were another evidence of the same direction and procedure, but adapted to quite different circumstances.

The Czechoslovakia incident, however, was both bold and truculent in procedure, quite evidently staged to impress the people of Finland and the remainder of the free states of western Europe. The procedure is in accordance with the frank declaration of the Soviet government and Communist parties to oppose in every way possible the development of the European Recovery Plan.

World-Wide Struggle

In view of all that has already been said and the statement by the President on Wednesday before the joint session of the Congress, I am uncertain as to what I might add to convince the American people that this is a world-wide struggle between freedom and tyranny, between the self-rule of the many as opposed to the dictatorship of a ruthless few. It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice must not be allowed to spread further unchecked.

The speed with which the campaign of the Communist parties in Europe has developed in a well ordered sequence of events demonstrates the initial advantage of dictators in dealing with democracies such as ours. The decision of a small group of men, possibly a dozen, quickly and conclusively determines the action to be taken on a large scale throughout Europe, and everything is co-ordinated with that decision—the absolute control of the press, the domination of the people, the conduct of a skillful campaign of propaganda, the complete misrepresentation of the attitude and purposes of any country opposed to the procedure—all is arbitrarily decided upon.

Position of Leadership

Our decisions, our actions in regard to these developments are of great importance. We have an acknowledged position of leadership in the world. We have been spared the destruction of war which literally flattened Europe. We are enjoying a high degree of prosperity. These things being so, the character and strength of our leadership may well be decisive in the present situation. We cannot evade the issue by the negative procedure of inaction. By so doing we would vacate our dominant position of leadership and thereby revert to a secondary role—a role which inevitably would deprive each of us of those American principles of freedom and justice we have always upheld by every means available.

I would make the same comment regarding the general world situation, but in this case applying it more to the problem of just where, and how we should exert our influence. Unfortunately, critical situations are not confined to Europe. They exist in the Middle East, in Indonesia, in China—and we cannot ignore Latin America, or our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea. Therefore, very important decisions must be made by our government as to exactly what we should do to meet these various crises. Our means are not unlimited—we must not spend our efforts unwisely.

Pressures Increased

As a matter of fact, I find the present situation disturbingly similar to that with which I labored as Chief of Staff. I watched the Nazi government take control of one country after another until finally Poland was invaded in a direct military operation. For several years I had to withstand heavy pressures from various theaters of operation in the world for assistance, support in the form of materiel, without regard to our then extremely limited resources available in the United States. Later, after our entry into the war, these pressures greatly increased in the demand for support to an extent which if met would have rendered us ineffective, I think, on almost every field of action. This situation continued up to the time of our landings in Normandy, and even after the liberation of France still continued regarding our forces in Italy and in the western Pacific.

I find myself in virtually the same position today as I was during those war years and the decisions are just as difficult and equally important. Rich and powerful as we are, we cannot afford to disperse our efforts to a degree which would render all ineffective. Every region has its claims and its proponents and it is therefore necessary to decide on a general strategy to be employed, having in mind the entire world situation.

Stresses Timely Action

One factor I especially wish to make clear today is the importance of timely action on our part in the face of the dictatorial procedure with which we are confronted in Europe. . . . (Here Mr. Marshall reviewed steps by which the Marshall plan was proposed and has progressed in Congress.)

Our problem is how, with the rapid march of events in Europe, to meet the situation. The initial advantage is almost always on the side of the dictators, as it was overwhelmingly in the last war. In the long run, I am sure, the democracies will invariably win out. But the trouble is that the lapse of time may result in such a serious loss of position and strength that the task of the democracies may involve a long, hard struggle to recover the ground thus lost.

A special effort is now being made to carry through the European Recovery Program promptly to final approval. This program, as you know, is based on economic factors. I agree that the economic reinforcement of the free nations will not alone guarantee their safety under existing conditions. But it should so strengthen them that they will have a far better chance of defending themselves and their governments against transition into police states dominated by the central committee of the Communist party in Europe. My concern is to see us reach a prompt decision in regard to this program and not delay action while discussing new conceptions or proposals regarding related matters.

Policy on Aid to Italy

In connection with the electoral campaign now in progress in Italy, the leaders of the Communist party have given their interpretation to the policy of the United States in connection with the outcome of these elections. They publicly asserted that if their party, the Communist party, is victorious at the polls American assistance to Italy will continue without change.

I have only this comment to make regarding that interpretation of the policy of the United States:

The European Recovery Program has been created on the basis of the voluntary association of sixteen nations who came together of their own free will and drew up a program of mutual self help for their economic recovery. There has been no compulsion or pressure of any sort in regard to association in this great co-operative effort. The United States has undertaken to assist these co-operating nations in this large task.

However, on the other side, the record is unmistakable. Every European nation under the influence of the Communists has been prevented from participation in the European Recovery Program. Some have been deprived of the right to participate, clearly against their own wishes.

Since the association is entirely voluntary, the people of any nation have a right to change their mind and, in effect, withdraw. If they choose to vote into power a government in which the dominant political force would be a party whose hostility to this program has been frequently publicly and emphatically proclaimed, this could only be considered as evidence of the desire of that country to disassociate itself from the program. This government would have to conclude that Italy had removed itself from the benefits of the European Recovery Program.

MAR 1948

Self-Help Encouraging

Referring again to the suggestion of last June and what has followed, I think it was most encouraging to find that a group of sixteen nations could reach an agreement for co-operative action involving great concessions in their traditions and local points of view for the good of the many. Representatives of these sixteen nations now are in session to work out an agreement for a continuing organization which will supervise the implementation of their joint effort to assure the success of the European Recovery Program.

In further evidence of their determination to co-operate for the common good, Belgium, France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Great Britain have just entered into a treaty providing for extensive cultural, economic, social and military cooperation and affirming their determination to stand together for the common defense of their freedom.

Such concerted actions as these are very encouraging factors in the struggle for freedom and for peace and security, and demand our co-operation and assistance.

Prompt Decision Needed

There are a number of suggestions for other methods of economic or political procedure for us to take regarding Europe. All must be carefully considered but the point I would make is that we have started on a carefully developed program which practically everybody acknowledges is of great importance, and virtually all agree that time is a critical factor, particularly for Italy. A prompt decision is what is urgently needed.

In conclusion I would say that our purpose, our policy is to stand firm on basic principles but at the same time to keep the door wide open for any general conciliatory moves. We are sincerely anxious to find a sound basis for reaching agreement which will terminate once and for all the present dangerous situation. We shall continue to do everything possible to reach an agreement. But until such time as a real settlement can be reached, however, it must be our policy to discourage and to oppose further encroachment on the rights and lives of free peoples. The immediate means for effective assertion of that policy is the prompt enactment and immediate application of the European Recovery Program. This is fundamental to all our future decisions in dealing with a situation as grave as any that has ever confronted this nation. The President has presented to the Congress the further measures which should be taken.

GLOBAL AID BILL GIVEN APPROVAL

All - Inclusive Six Billion Measure Endorsed by House Committee. (AP)

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—A $6,205,000,000 global foreign aid bill was approved late today by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The bill includes:

$5,300,000,000 for the European recovery program.

$275,000,000 for military aid to Greece and Turkey.

$420,000,000 for economic help and $150,000 000 for military help for China.

$60,000,000 for the international children's fund of the United Nations.

This all-inclusive foreign aid program is to be brought to the house floor next week with the idea of pushing it to passage before April 1.

The timing is important, particularly in view of the administration's new stop-Russia policy and the fact that communists are reported trying desperately to win the Italian elections April 18.

When the big bill came to a final showdown in the committee, all 15 members present voted unanimously for the program. Rep. Kee (D-WVA), senior Democratic member, said his side balloted against its better judgment to include China, Greece and Turkey in a bill with a European recovery program. The senate foreign aid bill passed last week was for Europe only.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee put further force behind the president's anti-communism words today by approving 13 to 0 a bill to give Greece and Turkey $275,000,000 in military aid to strengthen them against communism.

The house committee made several changes before voting.

The Chinese aid program was split into two parts. This was done deliberately, Rep. Judd (R-Minn) told reporters, to avoid any interpretation that countries participating in the European program might be involved in any military alliance with China.

The result, he said, was to provide $420,000,000 of help for China on the same terms that economic aid would go to Europe and provide the $150,000,000 of military aid on the same conditions now applying to such help for Greece and Turkey.

One important amendment adopted today would ban strategic materials shipped by this country to European nations from being turned into products which could be sold Soviet bloc countries. It was sponsored by Rep. Mundt (R-SD).

Greek, Turk Aid Is Okayed By Senate Unit (D)

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved $275,000,000 aid for Greece and Turkey.

Senator George (D., Ga.) said that the thirteen senators lined up unanimously for the full amount President Truman asked for the Greeks and Turks.

George said the committee then began a closed-door discussion of the proposed $570,000,000 aid for China.

Still Undecided In China

After this session, Chairman Vandenberg (R., Mich.) said no final decision was reached on China aid. The committee will meet again tomorrow.

Vandenberg said that besides approving $275,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid, the committee agreed to rewrite the original act for aid to those countries. He said the purpose is to "simplify" the language. The first Greek-Turkish aid bill was passed last May and provided for $400,000,000 to help them resist communism.

As a bulwark to the Marshall plan for European recovery, President Truman has asked $275,000,000 extra to help the two Mediterranean countries keep fending off the Red menace to the north.

Hustling Legislation

And to help combat communism in China, he has asked for $570,000,000 in economic assistance but nothing for military aid.

Both Senate and House Foreign Affairs committees hustled into the drafting of the necessary legislation for Greece and Turkey, but with this difference:

The House committee is putting all foreign aid into a single bundle, including help for China and the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program.

Separate Senate Bill

The Senate committee is writing a separate bill. When the Senate passed the European aid bill it stuck to Europe alone and to economic rather than military help.

But even before Mr. Truman's address to Congress Wednesday, the House group took the stand that economic aid must be bolstered with military assistance if America is to keep Communism from grabbing more of the world.

U.S. Urged To Protect Pope In Case Italy Goes Red

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Representative O'Toole (D., N.Y.) urged today that this Government take the lead in guaranteeing the future safety of Pope Pius XII.

Commenting on the possibility of a change occurring in the Italian Government after the April elections, O'Toole said in a statement a "terrible fear has been placed in the hearts of more than 25,000,000 Roman Catholics."

"If the Italian Government should change and some fanatic, or group of fanatics, should invade the Vatican and bring harm to this holy man it would be a world tragedy," O'Toole said.

Cites Vatican As Haven

He added that during the war years the Vatican—the Pope's residence—was the haven of thousands of Protestants, Jews, Catholics and atheists.

"It was the isle of safety," O'Toole, a Catholic, said, "for all people who were endeavoring to escape the tyranny of the dictators.

"Since the German collapse, Pope Pius has worked night and day to bring about, a just and lasting peace. He has been the dominant force in the prevention of the total collapse of Europe."

Proposes Immediate Steps

"I say," O'Toole asserted, "that our Government and the other governments comprising the Western bloc of free peoples should and must take immediate steps to insure that the Pontiff he safeguarded both as to person and as to action."

He said that if the Pope is made a prisoner it would be a "blot upon the national honor of every nation that did not take action." He added:

"Our State Department should, in forthright manner, take the lead in sternly warning the forces of evil that our Government and the other governments of the Western bloc intend to, and will, guarantee the security of the papal state and our holy father."

American 'Man In Street' Set To Warn Italy On 'Reds'

Washington, March 19 (AP)—American housewives, farmers and workers are being lined up for "voice of America" broadcasts to Italy against Communism.

Representative Mundt (R. S. D.), author of the law setting up a broad United States Foreign Information Service, said today these groups will try to give Italians a full picture of American democracy before the Italian elections April 18. Communists are bidding for power in the elections.

Italian-American Speakers

Mundt declared:

"In New York this week I visited Voice of America headquarters to assist in mapping programs.

"We expect to have broadcasts by prominent Italian-Americans from the business world. We'll have labor leaders talking to the Italian workingman. There'll be farmers on, and five broadcasts by American housewives. A few leading educators will tell about this country's educational system."

Mundt said there will also be broadcasts to Italy from three American stations in Germany and one in Trieste. In addition, American news will be broadcast on the main Italian network.

per cent of our export surplus of goods and services in 1946-47," it added.

The department predicted that private aid probably would remain at a relatively high level, assuming a continued high national income in the United States, as long as the foreign need is present."

After that, it said, personal gifts to foreigners will "almost certainly resume the decline" that prevailed between world wars, while institutions will revert to their chief normal functions of financing missionary and educational activities.

BRITAIN EXPORTS MORE GOLD TO U. S.

Washington, March 19 (A. P.)—Great Britain shipped $104,263,897 of gold to this country in February, just before withdrawing the last $100,000,000 of her $3,750,000,000 United States loan, according to a report on gold movements during February, issued by the Department of Commerce.

Belgium and Luxembourg shipped $31,301,236 of gold to the United States in that month, while the Union of South Africa, world's leading gold producer, shipped $23,673,939.

The United States in turn exported $2,559,973 of gold for the month with Portugal and French Indo-China getting the major shares of it, $1,166,232 and $689,043 respectively.

GIFTS SENT ABROAD PUT AT $447,000,000

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—Private gifts by persons in this country to foreigners amounted to $447,000,000 last year, the Commerce Department reported today.

Gift parcels, chiefly food and clothing, made up $205,000,000 or about 46 per cent of the total value. Most of the rest was cash.

Organizations devoted to religious, educational or charitable activities sent $113,000,000 worth of gifts abroad last year, of which $100,000,000 went to Europe.

Of these shipments, 39 per cent was food, 48 per cent clothing, and the rest medical supplies and relief articles.

Private aid for 1946 and 1947 totaled $1,600,000,000, which was one-third as much as the Government gave during that period in aid not requiring repayment, the department said.

Would Revive Selective Service Machinery But Delay Inductions.

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) An increase in voluntary enlistments, was reported today in a few scattered cities as Senate leaders studied—but delayed action—on a compromise draft plan.

Army officials said enlistments in Minneapolis jumped from an average of five a day to 30 immediately after President Truman's message to Congress. A sharp increase in inquiries was reported here, too.

Senate Republican leaders seemed near agreement on a plan that would revive the machinery of selective service, but not put it in full operation.

In other words, a law would be passed quickly to revive selective service. But once revived, under the Senate plan, it would merely choose selectees and put them on notice.

They would not be inducted unless voluntary enlistments continued to lag, or unless the world situation grows so grave that partial or full mobilization of a citizen army is deemed necessary.

The compromise plan seemed to have made most headway in the Senate. But GOP leaders there today postponed final decision on their policy on both a draft and military training until a full study is completed by the Senate Armed Forces committee.

The committee late today decided to ask Secretary of State Marshall and Secretary of Defense Forrestal to testify on the urgency of President Truman's call for UMT and the draft. They will testify Monday.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) are reported inclined to favor the wait-and-see program. Its backers argue it will spur enlistments, and bring the armed forces up to the strength Mr. Truman desires.

Taft Wants Top Airforce

Taft still opposes a universal military training program, and wants the nation to build the world's biggest airforce.

Vanderberg sounded out Senate Republican leaders on the compromise draft and received a mostly favorable reaction.

An informal poll of the House Armed services committee shows 15 out of 33 members favor outright revival of the draft, with only four definitely opposed.

President Truman in his message to Congress Wednesday asked for both universal military training (UMT) and a temporary draft.

Under UMT, men would be trained with the understanding they would not serve in the regular army except in an emergency. Under the draft, they would be taken directly into the regular army and trained.

The draft plan would be quicker. It could be put in operation and boost fighting manpower in a matter of months. UMT would be a far slower process.

And administration leaders believe speed is necessary, for psychological reasons if no other.

More Women Than Men Seek To Join The Navy

Worcester, Mass., March 19 (AP)—More women than men in the Worcester area want to join the Navy. According to Chief Joseph R. Parenteau, recruiter in charge, the local office has received more than a hundred calls from eager female applicants since President Truman's speech to Congress Wednesday.

Thirty-five men have sought enlistment in the same period. Pending passage of a bill now before Congress, however, the Navy is not accepting women for enlistment in the WAVES.

WATERWAYS URGED AS AID IN DEFENSE

Truman and General Wheeler Stress Development Needs to National Congress

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—The National Rivers and Harbors Congress was told today by President Truman and the Chief of Army Engineers, Lieut. Gen. R. A. Wheeler, that waterway development was necessary to national defense.

Meanwhile, the organization's projects committee gave its endorsement to thirteen proposed developments involving an expenditure of more than $200,000,000. The congress will be asked to approve the committee's findings tomorrow at its business session.

Mr. Truman's message, saying that America must remain strong to carry out its national and international obligations, was read by Senator John L. McClellan of Arkansas, president of the congress. The President said he had

Phila. Cardinal Opposes UMT; Lists Nine Reasons

Philadelphia, March 19 (AP)—Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, archbishop of the Philadelphia Roman Catholic Diocese, today reaffirmed his opposition to peacetime universal military training.

Cardinal Doughtery is the spiritual leader of 978,870 Catholics in the archdiocese.

His view is opposite to that of Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, who told a dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in New York Wednesday night he favors universal military training.

Lists Nine Reasons

Cardinal Dougherty, in a statement, gave nine reasons for opposing U.M.T.:

"1. It is against the traditions of our country.

"2. Where it is in existence is precisely where most wars have taken place.

"3. It would remove young men at a critical age from their home surroundings and safeguards.

"4. It would throw them, with all their inexperience and without ade-

Army Enlistments Gaining

Washington, March 19 (AP)—First reports from a few scattered cities show a quickened interest in voluntary enlistments in the army.

Army officials noted this today, but said it is too soon for anythink like complete reports to reach Washington. Thus they could not say what the national trend of recruiting might be after President Truman's call for a draft law and universal military training.

One of the reports received was from Minneapolis. Enlistments moved up there from an average of about 5 a day to 30 immediately following Mr. Truman's message to the Congress.

The Washington recruiting office, army officials said, reported a large number of inquiries about enlistment yesterday. But they said no corresponding upswing in the actual number of recruits was noted.

recommended "an accelerated program" of waterways development.

In urging widespread development of waterways, General Wheeler said:

"We cannot escape consideration of the international situation and the imperative need of keeping our nation strong."

The congress, a private organization, heard half a dozen Senators and Representatives laud its program and pledge their cooperation. Also heard were reports from spokesmen for the Interior and Agriculture Departments.

Representative Homer D. Angell of Oregon and General Wheeler said Congress had authorized a rivers and harbors program containing 270-odd projects which would cost more than $1,830,000,000.

Mr. Angell, chairman of the Rivers and Harbors subcommittee of the House Public Works Committee, added:

"The authorized river and harbor construction program includes 200 projects on which work has been undertaken although not fully completed, and seventy-six authorized new river and harbor projects for which no funds have been appropriated by Congress."

The Representative said that at the present time some 1,200 rivers and harbors projects were actively in force. From 1802 through this June 30, he added, total funds appropriated for rivers and harbors projects in the United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Hawaii amounted to $3,370,000,000.

Sullivan Rallies Veterans To Back Truman's Policy

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The Democrats called on war veterans and all other citizens tonight to unite behind President Truman for peace and prosperity.

The call was sounded by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the party's National Committee. He said in a broadcast speech that there now are nearly 19,000,000 veterans, most of them of voting age.

Their goals in life are the same as everybody's, Sullivan said. He added:

"Perhaps the foxhole vote is a little stronger for the same goals than the vote of its elders.

"The more they have seen of war the more they desire peace.

"The more they have seen of war the more they support the President's program for military preparedness."

To parents, Sullivan said:

"You may have to face this choice:

"One year of peacetime universal military training for your son, as insurance for peace, or—

"Untrained, frontline service for your son as a combat soldier in an age of atomic and biological warfare."

Sullivan said Republican isolationists want to revise the European Recovery Program into something too little and too late.

Public 'In Favor' Of Truman Talk

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The White House said today that public comment on President Truman's address to Congress Wednesday has been "perceptiby in favor of the President's position."

The President's press secretary, Charles G. Ross, said about 500 messages have been received and that the comment was "mixed." He added:

"I looked over about 100.

Most Favor Talks

"These ran rather perceptibly in favor of the President's position—I'd say they were almost two to one in favor of the President."

But Ross said most of those who wrote solely on the proposal to revive the draft were overwhelmingly against it.

"The fact that about 50 messages in opposition to selective service were almost identical indicated they were inspired by a single organization, even though they were signed by individuals," he said.

"Then there were still others who simply telegraphed that they were in favor of peace, without amplifying at all."

Ross also said a radio survey indicated 17,625,000 radio listeners heard the broadcast of Mr. Truman's address.

Truman Names Delegates To Attend Bogota Parley

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP).—President Truman today named a ten-member delegation, headed by Secretary of State George C. Marshall, to attend the conference of American states at Bogota, Colombia, beginning March 30.

The other delegates are Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder, Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman; Norman Armour, Assistant Secretary of State for Political Affairs; William McC. Martin jr., chairman of the board of the Export-Import Bank; Paul C. Daniels, director of the State Department's Office of American Republic Affairs; Willard L. Beaulac, Ambassador to Colombia; Ernest A. Gross, State Department legal adviser; William J. Donnelly, Ambassador to Venezuela, and William D. Pawley, retiring Ambassador to Brazil.

Boeing President Confers With Truman

Washington, March 19 (AP)—William M. Allen, Boeing Airplane Company president, talked with President Truman today about problems of expanding airplane production in the event of an emergency.

Allen said later he discussed the matter generally with Mr. Truman in connection with the presentation of a model of new Boeing commercial airliner, the Stratocruiser.

"Then we talked a bit about the military requirements for aviation," Allen added. He was accompanied to the White House by Senator Magnuson (D., Wash.).

MME. JOLIOT-CURIE FREE TO CONDUCT U. S. LECTURE TOUR

NEW YORK March 19—(AP) Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, whose communist husband heads France's atomic energy commission, was freed from Ellis Island today to go ahead with a lecture trip in this country.

The internationally-known woman physicist, daughter of the discoverers of radium and herself a Nobel prize winner, was detained by immigration officials yesterday upon her arrival from Paris by plane.

Sympathetic to Communism

She said at a news conference today that she was not a communist but was sympathetic to communism in many respects.

Another French visitor, Louis Saillant, secretary-general of the World Federation of Trade Unions, was questioned at length today by immigration officials when his plane landed.

After being released to continue tomorrow his trip to a labor conference in Mexico City, March 22-27, the 37-year-old Frenchman told reporters he would "say what I think" of the incident to French Ambassador Henri Bonnet, and Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general.

Mme. Joliot-Curie's release from Ellis Island was ordered by Attorney General Clark.

He gave no reason, but the justice department said no strings were attached to the release.

She aparently had been caught in a no man's land of conflicting authority between the state and justice departments.

The consulate section of the American Embassy in Paris, which is under jurisdiction of the state department, had issued Mme. Joliot-Curie a visa for a 15-day stay in this country.

Immigration officials, who are under the justice department, are not bound by actions of American consuls abroad and it was they who held up Mme. Joliot-Curie last night at LaGuardia Field.

The immigration authorities did not explain the detention except to say they were investigating whether her entry would be "prejudicial to the best interests of the United States."

However, a justice department spokesman said no notice had been received from the state department of the visa granted Mme. Joliot-Curie. The spokesman also noted that she came here under the auspices of the joint Anti-Fascist Refugee committee.

Replying to questions today, Mme. Joliot-Curie said she knew nothing about whether Russia had an atomic bomb but declared it was sheer folly to believe the Soviets would attack the United States.

Husband a Communist

She added, however, that her husband, Frederic Joliot-Curie, head of France's atomic energy commission, was a communist.

The news conference was held at offices of the joint Anti-Fascist Refugee committee, which sponsored her trip to this country. This group was included in a list of alleged subversive organizations recently by the attorney general.

The committee, which announced Mme. Joliot-Curie had come here to speak in behalf of the Spanish Republicans in exile, said she would go on a tour which will take her to seven American cities.

She will talk Monday at Portland, Ore., then visit San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston before returning here to speak March 31.

Clark Releases Kin Of Curies

MAR 1948

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Attorney General Tom C. Clark today authorized the release of Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, the French scientist, who had been detained by immigration officials at Ellis Island.

Mme. Joliet-Curie was taken into custody and removed to the island shortly after her arrival late yesterday in New York from Paris.

Waiting at LaGuardia Field to greet her were officers of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which has been listed by Clark as a subversive organization.

A committee spokesman said she had come to this country "to acquaint the American people with the immediate needs of the Spanish Republicans in exile."

Has 15-Day Visit Visa

The order for Mme. Joliot-Curie's release followed earlier indications from the Justice Department that she would be detained until it could be determined whether her entry would be "prejudicial to the best interests of the United States."

She was released on her own recognizance (without bond) for fifteen days. This is the exact period of her proposed visit to the United States which was authorized in a State Department fifteen-day visitor's visa issued at Paris.

In response to a question concerning an apparent reversal in the exclusion plan, the Justice Department said Mme. Joliot-Curie will remain at liberty "while her case is being studied."

Free To Make Tour

An official said the first word the Justice Department had on Mme. Joliot-Curie's visit was when she arrived at the airport. He said there was no advance information that diplomatic authorities in Paris had issued the visa.

She came here for a speaking tour under the auspices of the Joint Anti-Facist Refugee Committee.

Asked whether she would be permitted to go on the tour now, the department said she was at liberty to do so and that no strings had been attached to the release.

French Assemb... To Get Data On Joliot-Curie

Paris, March 19 (AP)—A defense official said today the Communist sympathies of atom expert Frederic Joliot-Curie would be called to the attention of the French National Assembly.R. FUNSON

The statement was made by Paul Anxionnaz, chairman of the Assembly's defense committee. Anxionnaz said he was uneasy over the French scientist's "open Communist sympathies." A high American official in Paris said the United States has "long been concerned" over Joliot-Curie's politics.

The scientist's wife, Irene, herself a leading physicist, was held for a time by United States immigration authorities at Ellis Island and then ordered released today without bond for fifteen days by Attorney General Tom Clark.

Exact Period Of Visit

This is the exact period of her proposed visit to the United States. She was removed to the island shortly after her arrival in New York late yesterday.

Before her release was announced the Paris Communist newspaper Ce Soir described her detention as "an outrage to science and an affront to France." She is the daughter of the discoverers of radium.

NIGHT

Her husband was named to head France's Atomic Energy Commission while Gen. Charles de Gaulle was head of the provisional government. De Gaulle now is the leader of the French People's party, arch foe of the Communists.

Joined Party In 1945

A fist fight broke out yesterday in the Council of the Republic, upper house of the French Parliament, after a follower of de Gaulle demanded that the commissariat for atomic research be purged of Communists.

Joliot-Curie announced publicly in 1945 that he was joining the Communist party. The party secretary said he is still a member in good standing. He has declared repeatedly that the United States failed to give him credit for early experiments in atomic research.

Recently France appropriated $10,000,000 for Joliot-Curie's commission. Most of the money will be spent in an experimental station near Versailles. Joliot-Curie said his experiments would be along industrial lines and not with bombs.

French Official Alarmed

Paris, March 19 (AP)—A French defense official voiced alarm today over the Communist sympathies of Frederic Joliot-Curie, atom expert whose wife, herself a leading physicist, is held by United States immigration authorities.

Paul Anxionnaz, chairman of the French Assembly's national defense committee, said he is "extremely uneasy over the fact that our atomic research is headed by M. Joliot-Curie, who has open Communist sympathies."

A fight erupted in the Council of the Republic, France's upper house, last night after a follower of Gen. Charles de Gaulle demanded that the commissariat for atomic research be purged of Communists.

"Outrage To Science"

"I intend to bring this matter up in the National Assembly," Anxionnaz said.

Ce Soir, Communist newspaper, protested the Ellis Island detention of Mme. Joliot-Curie as "an outrage to science and an affront to France." The newspaper said she was detained because "Frederic Joliot-Curie is a member of the Communist party."

Joliot-Curie announced publicly in 1945 that he was joining the Communist party. He is still a member in good standing, the party secretary said today. Joliot-Curie's headquarters refused to make a statement now, but said one might be issued later.

A high United States official here said the United States has "long been concerned" over Joliot-Curie's politics.

Has Attacked U.S.

Joliot-Curie was named to head France's atomic-energy commission under the provisional government of General deGaulle, who now heads the French People's party, arch foes of the Communists. Joliot-Curie repeatedly has attacked the United States as having failed to give him credit for early experiments in atomic research.

Joliot-Curie presided at a meeting February 22 celebrating the thirtieth anniversary of Russia's Red Army. A few days later, he filed an official protest with the French police over their investigation of the Friends of Poland Committee, of which he is a member. He is also a member of the French Friends of Soviet Russia.

France recently appropriated $10,000,000 for Joliot-Curie's commission.

Most of the money will be spent in an experimental station near Versailles. Joliot-Curie has said the experiments will be along industrial lines rather than with bombs.

Curie Added To Name

The scientist, formerly Frederic Joliot, added the Curie name when he married Irene Curie. Her sister, Eve Curie, wrote "Madame Curie," which was made into a motion picture. Eve now is editor of Paris-Presse, Conservative daily which backs de Gaulle.

Paris police announced today that eight of eleven Russians arrested for violation of a 1907 law against secret organizations are on their way back to Russia. They decided originally to expel nine, but reversed the decision in the case of one whose son died in service of the French Army.

The Russians were members of the Union of Soviet Citizens, which authorities say had no legal permission to organize. The deportees are being driven to Kehl, across the Rhine in Germany, and will be turned over to police in the French occupation zone.

SENATE DELAYS VOTE ON TAX CUT

String of Democratic Amendments Postpones Action To Monday.

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP) The senate agreed tonight to vote at 5 p.m. (EST) Monday on the Republican bill to cut income taxes $4,800,000,000.

The agreement was reached after a string of Democratic amendments—all rejected—had occupied most of the debate and caused GOP leaders to abandon hope for a vote today.

But before the Democrats' proposals came up, the Republicans won voice vote approval of an amendment by its finance committee which pared $1,700,000,000 off the house-passed bill to cut taxes $6,500,000,000.

This section as well as all other committee changes are subject to ratification when the bill comes up for a vote Monday.

GOP Predicts Passage

Republicans predicted easy passage. They were backed up by announcements of several Democrats they would vote for the measure.

The main interest centered on changes for overriding an expected presidential veto. That would require a two-thirds majority in both the senate and house.

Some backers of the bill—Democrats as well as Republicans—have expressed confidence congress would kill a veto. Other senators, mostly Democrats, predict that the expected extra expense of the military preparedness program Mr. Truman wants would cause congress to sustain a veto.

Announcing his support of the GOP-backed measure, Senator George (Ga), top Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee, told the senate:

"I feel a very definite moral obligation to support a reduction in individual income tax rates.

"I am willing to vote for this bill even if war comes tomorrow and we have to vote to increase taxes again."

But Senators Lucas (D-Ill) and O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) assailed the measures.

Lucas told his colleagues the Republicans were trying to push a tax cut through "for political purposes in an election year." O'Mahoney said a section cutting estate and gift taxes was designed to "split a mellon intended for the very wealthy families."

Senator Millikin (R-Colo), floor manager of the bill, said the measure included provisions the Democrats demanded last year.

Amendments Beaten

GOP senators lead the way in batting down the following Democratic amendments.

1. By Senator O'Mahoney (Wyo) to revive the excess profits tax. The vote was 38 to 26. Also defeated on the same ballot was a companion measure by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (Colo) to free $10,000 from taxation in the case of small businesses which ploughed that amount back into the operation.

2. By Senator McCarran (Nev) to remove the 15 per cent federal tax on rail, air, bus and other transportation fares. It was defeated 67 to 13.

3. By Senator Connally (Tex) to make an inheritance tax cut provision of the bill retroactive to 1942. The vote was 45 to 33.

The senate approved an amendment to make proposed new withholding tax rates on wages and salaries effective May 1 instead of April 1 as the house measure provides.

The withholding amendment would not affect the total amount of income taxes one pays, as both senate and house bills say the tax cut itself would be effective as of last January 1.

WALLACE AGAIN RAPS TRUMAN'S 'RED' CHARGES

NEW YORK, March 19—(AP) Henry A. Wallace said tonight President Truman "appealed to prejudice, because he could not answer us with reason," when he "attempted to brand as 'communists' those who support our fight for peace."

"Millions of Americans who stand firmly opposed to his (Mr. Truman's) policies know that they are not communists and they will not be freightened into accepting militarism because someone calls them communists," Wallace declared in a radio talk.

His Second Reply

The speech was his second on consecutive nights in reply to the President's two addresses on St. Patrick's Day.

In a New York speech to the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, Mr. Truman had asserted he would not accept "the political support of Henry Wallace and his communists."

The third party presidential candidate said Mr. Truman "was trying to give the impression that it is only the communists who disapprove of his policies of supporting fascists, kings and reactionaries around the world, that it is only communists who stand for repudiation of the Truman doctrine, that it is only communists who fight his plans to draft our young men and militarize the country."

"Mr. Truman," Wallace added, "has done what other professional politicians have done before him—he has given the communists credit for all the decent ideas which are advocated in this land of ours.

"I don't like to have the President give them credit for ideas that come from Isaiah and Christ, from Jefferson and Lincoln. We all remember the many times Franklin Roosevelt was charged with 'communism.'

"Like those who used this tactic against Roosevelt, he presents no evidence that I have ever advocated a single policy inconsistent with the most fundamental American concept of freedom.

"Either the communists are better folks than we have been told to believe, or Mr. Truman is giving them such a reputation."

people any of the time. We know that ideas won't be licked with guns. We know that millions of soldiers won't cure the social and economic conditions which turn many peoples of the world to Socialist and Communist parties.

Questions Russ Designs

Wallace said that many Americans "rightfully believe that a draft and compulsory military training are not the way to preserve freedom at home or to guarantee democracy abroad."

"Why have we reached this crisis in world affairs?" the third-party candidate demanded. "Is there any evidence Russia has aggressive designs against our country or that our national security is threatened from any souree?"

"Is there any evidence that Russia has aggressive designs against our country or that our national security is threatened from any source?"

He said these questions went unanswered in the "hysteria-breeding speeches St. Patrick's Day."

Fell Short, Stassen Says

Another presidential aspirant took issue with Mr. Truman's latest foreign-policy pronouncements, but for an entirely different reason.

Harold E. Stassen told a Cleveland audience yesterday that the Chief Executive had not gone far enough; that he should have asked for (a) outlawing the Communist party, (b) a halt to all "war machinery" shipments to Russia, (c) a stronger air force and (d) steps to strengthen the United Nations.

Stassen carried his campaign for the GOP presidential nomination into the home state of Senator Taft. He said he has a "high regard" for Taft "but I find myself repeatedly in basic disagreement with him as to the policies which our Republican party should follow."

Wallace To Answer Jab At 'Him And His Reds'

(UNDATED) [By the Associated Press]

Henry A. Wallace stuck to his peace-with-Russia guns today as he prepared to fire a fresh salvo in his word war with President Truman.

The third-party presidential candidate lined up his second radio address in two days. He will go on the air tonight to answer specifically the President's denunciation of "Wallace and his Communists."

The ousted Cabinet member made no direct reference to that remark in a talk last night challenging Mr. Truman's St. Patrick's Day call for greater military strength to reassure free peoples against Soviet domination.

Chafing Under Attack

But politicians said the Wallace speech left little doubt that he is beginning to chafe under the President's line of attack.

They noted Wallace's complaint that "men who are stirring up hate and fear" are trafficking in a single word.

"That word is 'communism,'" he said. "They hope that it will provoke a hostile response from great masses of the people. They think that it is capable of blotting out reason.

"But you can't fool most of the

'Wallace Is A Dope': Reuther

Memphis, Tenn., March 19 (AP)—Henry Wallace was characterized as a "plain, everyday dope" here last night by Walter Reuther, CIO union head.

Reuther, president of the International Union of Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America, was addressing members of the Memphis local.

"Henry Wallace," he said, "is being used by persons whose interests lie outside the United States. He is doing the greatest service possible to the enemies of labor."

Speculation, Lack Of Controls Blamed For Soaring Prices

MAR 1948

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Republicans and Democrats split sharply today in trying to pin down the blame for soaring grain prices.

GOP members of a House committee insisted the Government's grain-buying policies are responsible. Representative Mitchell Jenkins (R., Pa.) said Clinton P. Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, has "too much power for any one man" in dictating the Government's multi-dollar grain purchases.

Led by Representative McCormack (D., Mass.), Democratic members retorted that lifting of price controls caused speculation and wild price fluctuations in the nation's grain marts.

The House committee was named late in 1947 to investigate commodity speculation. It heard Jesse B. Gilmer, Federal marketing administrator, testify today that Secretary Anderson has the sole responsibility for deciding when the Government should buy or get out of the market.

Agrees With Buffet

Gilmer agreed with Representative Buffet (R., Neb.) that Anderson's decisions "could have a terrific influence on the market." He acknowledged also that the upward surge in grain prices came after the Government launched its heavy buying program for shipments overseas.

But, he said: "We have taken no action to run the prices up or down. We have tried to follow an intelligent program to get wheat at the most favorable prices."

"If the Government's purchases were spread out more, wouldn't it have a less violent effect on the market?" Buffet asked.

"Possibly," Gilmer said, grinning.

Says Millers Had To Bid

Buffet contended that the Government "set the stage" for the upsweep in prices when it "cleaned the market of all available wheat" by offering to buy from all comers at a set price in January, 1947.

"Yes," agreed Chairman Andresen (R., Minn.), "and then the millers had to go out and bid up the price because of the shortage of grain."

McCormack said if price controls had not been killed, there would have been no speculation in the grain markets.

"That's right," Gilmer said. "Prices rose sharply after the controls were taken off in September, 1946."

Administrator Will Testify

But Andresen insisted that prices remained level for several months until the Government started its heavy buying in January, 1947.

As the hearing recessed until next week, Andresen announced that J. M. Mehl, commodity exchange commission administrator, will testify Tuesday on "abuses" in commodity market speculation.

Andresen told a reporter that his committee is also gathering information on "who is responsible for upping the price of butter."

Nation's Trade Shows a 2-Way Dip in January

Exports Down From Month Before to All Continents With Exception of Africa

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP).—American exports in January declined to all continents except Africa. Imports were down from all continents except South Africa and Asia.

The Commerce Department reported today that total exports, excluding the Army's civilian relief supply program, declined to $1,017,900,000 in January. This compares with $1,112,100,000 in December. Imports slipped to $543,700,000 from December's record $601,100,000.

Shipments to Europe fell from $362,000,00 in December to $357,200,000. European countries showing decreased receipts from the United States included Belgium and Luxemburg, down from $44,800,000 to $33,300,000; Sweden, $18,100,000 to $9,100,000; Holland, $37,500,000 to $28,200,000, and Russia, $15,300,000 to $7,500,000.

Those getting bigger receipts from the United States were Britain, up from $58,100,000 to $72,400,000; France, $56,100,000 to $70,900,000; western Germany, $14,700,000 to $19,000,000, exclusive of Army civilian relief supplies.

Exports to South America dropped 10 per cent below the 1947 monthly average, falling from $198,000,000 in December to $175,800,000 in January. Declines included Venezuela, $40,200,000 to $35,400,000; Brazil, $55,300,000 to $45,400,000, and Argentina, $57,000,000 to $51,100,000.

Imports from South America rose to 45 per cent above the 1947 monthly average, increasing from $137,300,000 in December to $149,900,000 in January. Principal increases were Argentina, $17,200,000 to $31,700,000, and Colombia, $23,800,000 to $27,800,000. Imports from Brazil declined from $48,600,000 to $42,900,000.

January exports to North America—Canada, Mexico, Cuba and the Canal Zone—were off from $310,000,000 in December to $257,000, in January.

U.N.-PALESTINE (160)

LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 19-(AP)-IF THE UNITED NATIONS DECIDES ON TRUSTEESHIP FOR PALESTINE, SOME COUNTRY STILL MUST KEEP TABS ON THE HOLY LAND.

TRUSTEESHIP WORKS THIS WAY:

THE ASSEMBLY WOULD DECIDE THAT PALESTINE SHOULD BECOME A TRUST TERRITORY UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL. THIS COUNCIL IS ONE OF THE THREE MAIN COUNCILS OF THE U.N. THE OTHER TWO ARE THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL.

THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WOULD DESIGNATE SOME COUNTRY AS THE ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY FOR THE TRUST TERRITORY.

THE COUNTRY WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE FOR MAINTAINING ORDER. IT WOULD RUN PALESTINE JUST AS IF IT ACTUALLY WAS SOVEREIGN THERE--BUT EVERYTHING THE ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY DOES MUST BE CHECKED AND APPROVED BY THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL.

IF BRITAIN DECIDES TO REMAIN IN PALESTINE, SHE COULD BE DESIGNATED AS THE ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY.

THE OBJECTIVE OF THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP SYSTEM, ALREADY AT WORK ON SOME FORMER LEAGUE OF NATIONS MANDATES, IS TO PREPARE NON-SELF-GOVERNING PEOPLES FOR SOVEREIGNTY.

ACCORDING TO PERSONS WHO HAVE FOLLOWED U.N. PROCEEDINGS CLOSELY, HERE IS THE WAY THE ARAB CAMPAIGN WENT:

CAMILLE CHAMOUN OF LEBANON, AN ORATOR HELD IN RESERVE BY THE ARAB COUNTRIES FOR THEIR BIG APPEALS IN THE UNITED NATIONS, WAS PUT FORWARD IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TUESDAY.

HIS SPEECH WAS BILINGUAL. THE GENERAL PARTS WERE IN FRENCH. ONE SECTION WAS WRITTEN AND DELIVERED IN ENGLISH AND ADDRESSED DIRECTLY TO THE AMERICAN DELEGATE, AUSTIN, AT THE COUNCIL TABLE.

CHAMOUN TOLD AUSTIN PARTITION MENACES ECONOMIC RELATIONS (MEANING OIL DEVELOPMENT) BETWEEN THE U.S. AND THE ARAB WORLD AND PROBABLY WOULD BRING COMMUNISM THROUGH IMMIGRATION TO THE HOLY LAND. HE TOLD AUSTIN AMERICAN POLITICANS WERE "PLAYING WITH FIRE FOR THE SAKE OF THEIR LOCAL INTERESTS." THIS WAS AN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO THE CONTENTION OF ANTI-PARTITIONISTS THAT AMERICAN POLITICANS WERE FISHING FOR JEWISH VOTES IN NEW YORK IN THEIR PREVIOUS SUPPORT OF PARTITION.

CHAMOUN SPOKE THE DAY BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN LET GO HIS DOUBLE BLAST AT RUSSIA IN CONGRESS AND IN NEW YORK.

A54 add-L. Success-(Arab Spokesman name)-xxx partition

THE DAY AFTER MR.TRUMAN SPOKE THE ARABS' REGULAR HEADLINE PERFORMER TOOK OVER. HE IS FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA, DEAN OF THE ARAB DELEGATIONS TO THE U.N. AND ONLY REGULAR ARAB COUNTRY DELEGATE ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

EL KHOURY IN A STATEMENT TO THE PRESS TOOK CHAMOUN'S CAMPAIGN A STEP FURTHER: HE MENTIONED OIL, WHERE CHAMOUN HAD NOT, AND HE SAID FLATLY THAT RUSSIA WANTS A COMMUNIST NATION CREATED IN PALESTINE.

THE SYRIAN SAID RUSSIA WANTS THE OIL AMERICANS NOW ARE DEVELOPING AND MEANS TO GET TO IT BY FIRST STICKING THEIR NOSES INTO PALESTINE, THROUGH IMMIGRATION, AND THEN MOVING IN ON THE WHOLE MIDDLE EAST.

EL KHOURY SAID THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A JEWISH NATION IN PALESTINE WOULD DRAW IMMIGRANTS FROM EASTERN EUROPE AND RUSSIA AND WITH THEM WOULD COME COMMUNISM.

"RUSSIA," HE SAID, "WOULD HAVE THE MEANS OF OBLIGING THEM TO BE COMMUNISTIC BY THREATS OF MISTREATMENT OF HOSTAGES HELD IN RUSSIA."

OBSERVERS COMMENTED ON THESE MOVES BY THE ARABS EVEN BEFORE THE U.S. MADE ITS SURPRISE REVERSAL OF POLICY TODAY.

THEY AGREED THAT UNDER THE ARAB REASONING THE UNITED STATES BY CONTINUED SUPPORT OF PARTITION FOR PALESTINE WOULD BE ENCOURAGING A COMMUNIST ENCROACHMENT ON THE MIDDLE EAST AND ITS RESOURCES.

JERUSALEM,MARCH 19-(AP)-PALESTINE JEWS AND ARABS DID NOT LEARN IMMEDIATELY TONIGHT THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD ABANDONED ITS SUPPORT OF THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE.

THE NEWS BROKE ON A NIGHT WHEN OFFICES WERE CLOSED AND NEWSPAPERS WERE NOT PUBLISHING BECAUSE OF THE JEWISH SABBATH. THE FIRST WORD CAME TOO LATE FOR THE NIGHTLY PALESTINE RADIO NEWS BROADCASTS.

STREETS THROUGHOUT THE CITIES IN PALESTINE WERE DARKENED AND DESERTED BECAUSE OF THE HAZARD OF GUNFIRE. ALREADY 1,877 PERSONS HAVE BEEN KILLED IN THE BATTLE OVER PARTITION.

JEWISH AGENCY OFFICES AND NEWSPAPER EDITORIAL ROOMS WERE CLOSED. MEMBERS OF THE ARAB HIGHER EXECUTIVE WERE OUT OF TOWN--IN BEIRUT FOR SESSIONS OF THE ARAB COUNCIL.

IN EFFECT, THREE MONTHS OF BATTLING HAVE ALREADY PARTITIONED PALESTINE. BARBED WIRE HAS BEEN ERECTED, AND ROAD BLOCKS AND GUN POSTS SET UP.

IT WAS AN OPEN QUESTION TONIGHT WHETHER EVEN A CHANGE IN THE UNITED NATIONS PROGRAM COULD AVERT A BATTLE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THAT DIVISION WOULD CONTINUE.

THOSE JEWS WHO WERE INFORMED OF THE LAKE SUCCESS ACTION SAID THAT IT HAD BECOME OBVIOUS THAT SOME FORCE WOULD BE REQUIRED TO IMPLEMENT ARTITION. THEY SAID IT WAS EQUALLY LIKELY THAT FORCE WOULD BE REQUIRED TO BREAK UP PARTITION, NOW THAT THE JEWISH STATE IS ALL BUT LEGALLY CONSTITUTED HERE.

THEY REGARDED IT JUST AS IMPROBABLE THAT A UNITED NATIONS FORCE WOULD BE SENT HERE TO BREAK DOWN THE JEWISH STATE AS IT HAD BEEN THAT SUCH A FORCE WOULD BE SENT HERE TO ESTABLISH IT.

THE SUCCESS OF THE NEW PROPOSAL SEEMED TO HINGE THUS ON THE NATURE OF WHAT EMPORARY TRUSTEESHIP WAS INTENDED, AND THE FORCE BEHIND IT.

EUROPE (480)
BY GLENN WILLIAMS

LONDON, MARCH 19-(AP)-THE FIVE POWERS UNITED UNDER THE BRUSSELS PACT FACED UP TO THE PROBLEM TODAY OF TRANSLATING THE TREATY'S WORDS INTO ACTION.

SO FAR THE AGREEMENT BINDING BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG IS ONLY A BLUE PRINT. THE STRUCTURE TO BE BUILT FROM IT DOES NOT EXIST.

THE PACT WAS INSPIRED BY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, WHO SAW IN IT A CORE AROUND WHICH WESTERN EUROPE WOULD CONSOLIDATE AGAINST THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM.

FIRST BRICKS IN THE STRUCTURE MAY BE LAID NEXT WEEK BY A COUNCIL OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FIVE COUNTRIES.

HOW FAST AND STRONGLY WILL THEY BUILD?

THE PROBLEMS ARE TREMENDOUS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT PHASES OF JOINT ACTIVITY ARE IN ECONOMIC COOPERATION AND MUTUAL DEFENSE. WORDS COME EASILY. DEFINITE ACTION PROBABLY WILL BE MORE DIFFICULT.

FOR INSTANCE, THE TREATY CALLS FOR THE FIVE COUNTRIES TO UNDERTAKE "ELIMINATION OF CONFLICT IN THEIR ECONOMIC POLICIES, THE COORDINATION OF PRODUCTION AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF COMMERCIAL EXCHANGES."

THAT'S A BIG ORDER AND IT MAY TAKE A LONG TIME TO ACCOMPLISH.

BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, TIED TOGETHER IN A CUSTOMS UNION CALLED BENELUX, PIONEERED THAT PATH. THEIR EXPERIENCE MAY SPEED UP THE PROCESS. BUT THESE THREE LITTLE NATIONS BEGAN WORK ON THEIR UNION EARLY IN THE WAR AND WEREN'T ABLE TO PUT A WORKABLE PLAN IN OPERATION UNTIL JANUARY. THEY ARE STILL WORKING OUT SOME OF THE KINKS.

"ELIMINATION OF CONFLICT" IN ECONOMIC POLICIES IS A TOUGH SUBJECT.

BRITAIN HAS TARIFF TIES IN HER DOMINIONS. HOW WILL THEY FIT INTO EUROPEAN ECONOMICS?

WHEN FRANCE PROPOSED TO DEVALUE THE FRANC BRITAIN WAS SO FEARFUL OF ITS EFFECT ON THE POUND AS A WORLD CURRENCY THAT SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS RUSHED TO PARIS TO REMONSTRATE.

HIS PROTEST DID LITTLE GOOD. FRANCE WENT AHEAD WITH ITS PLAN.

UNDER THE TREATY SUCH CONFLICTS WILL HAVE TO BE WORKED OUT. THEIR SOLUTION WILL DEPEND ON SOMEBODY GIVING WAY OR RISKING POSSIBLE RUIN OF THE NEW STRUCTURE.

MILITARY CLAUSES SAY EACH OF THE NATIONS WILL OFFER "ALL THE MILITARY AND OTHER AID AND ASSISTANCE IN THEIR POWER" IF ANY OF THEM IS ATTACKED.

THE COUNCIL OF REPRESENTATIVES, DESIGNED TO MEET CONTINUOUSLY, IS EMPOWERED TO DEAL WITH ALL PHASES OF THE TREATY.

WILL THAT MEAN THE CREATION OF JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, STANDARDIZATION OF ARMS, COOPERATIVE TRAINING OF FORCES, JOINT DISCUSSIONS OF MILITARY POLICY?

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THESE NATIONS SCOUTED A PARIS PRESS REPORT THAT A JOINT STAFF UNDER BRITAIN'S FIELD MARSHALL LORD MONTGOMERY WOULD BE ESTABLISHED.

IF SUCH JOINT ACTION IS NOT TAKEN IN ADVANCE, WOULD THE NATIONS FIND THEMSELVES IN THE SAME POSITION AS IN 1940 WHEN FRANCE FELL, BRITAIN EVACUATED AT DUNKERQUE AND BELGIUM'S ARMY SURRENDERED?

THE TREATY IS OPEN TO OTHER NATIONS. WILL SCANDINAVIA'S TRIO OF DENMARK, SWEDEN AND NORWAY JOIN? WILL ITALY JOIN? HOW FAST WILL THE UNION SPREAD AND HOW TIGHTLY WILL ITS MEMBERS BIND THEMSELVES TOGETHER?

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS IS THAT THE UNION MIGHT BE ACCEPTABLE IN SOME PHASES TO SOME NATIONS, UNACCEPTABLE IN OTHER PHASES. SCANDINAVIA, FOR INSTANCE, IS WARY OF JOINING A MILITARY BLOC UNLESS THE UNION'S DEFENSES ARE POWERFULLY UNDERWRITTEN BY U.S. GUARANTEES.

MANY IDEAS OF UNITY OF VARYING EXTENT AND POWER ARE CIRCULATING THROUGH EUROPE.

MORE THAN 100 MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT -- MEN OF MOST BRITISH PARTIES -- ARE PUSHING UNITY, WITH A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS TO SET UP A FULL FEDERAL UNION OF EUROPE.

MAR 1948

BUT IN ALL PLANS FOR EUROPEAN UNITY THERE ARE QUESTIONS STILL TO BE ANSWERED BY ACTIONS: HOW SOON? HOW STRONG? HOW EFFECTIVE?

MOSCOW, MARCH 19-(AP)-A BULGARIAN-SOVIET TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP AND MUTUAL ASSISTANCE WAS SIGNED HERE LAST NIGHT.

ITS PROVISIONS ARE CONSIDERED IN MOSCOW TO BE A GOOD INDICATION OF THE GENERAL TYPE OF AGREEMENT WHICH THE RUSSIANS WILL DISCUSS WITH A FINNISH DELEGATION HERE BEGINNING MONDAY.

THE PACT IS SIMILAR TO BOTH THE ROMANIAN-SOVIET AND THE HUNGARIAN-SOVIET TREATIES, TO WHICH PRIME MINISTER STALIN REFERRED IN A LETTER TO PRESIDENT JUHO K. PAASIKIVI OF FINLAND PROPOSING THE MOSCOW-HELSINKI ACCORD.

PART I OF THE BULGARIAN-SOVIET TREATY OBLIGES BOTH SIDES TO TAKE MEASURES TO REMOVE A THREAT OF AGGRESSION FROM "GERMANY OR ANY OTHER STATE UNITED WITH GERMANY, DIRECTLY OR IN ANY OTHER FORM," AND ALSO TO SUPPORT "ALL INTERNATIONAL ACTIONS WITH THE PURPOSE OF SECURING PEACE AND SECURITY."

PART II OBLIGES EACH OF THE SIGNERS TO GIVE FULL MATERIAL ASSISTANCE TO THE OTHER IN THE EVENT THE LATTER BECOMES "INVOLVED IN MILITARY ACTION WITH GERMANY OR WITH ANY OTHER STATE UNITED WITH GERMANY IN ANY FORM." THE CLAUSE ALSO STATES THE TREATY MUST CONFORM TO THE STATUTES OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

U. S., BRITAIN, FRANCE URGE TRIESTE FREE TERRITORY BE RETURNED TO ITALIANS

MAR 1948

Washington, March 20 (AP)—United States, Britain and France today proposed the return of the territory of Trieste to Italy through a major revision of the Italian peace treaty.

The proposal was made on behalf of the American Government to the Russian and Italian embassies here at 10 A.M. Trieste is an important port city and shipbuilding center on the Adriatic Sea between Italy and Yugoslavia.

The first announcement came at Turin, Italy, where Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France expressed hope for a "prompt and favorable reply from the Soviet Government."

Under the Italian peace treaty, Trieste was established as a free territory under the protection of the United Nations.

Plan Not Working Out

Today's joint announcement of the Western powers said this plan for an independent Trieste is not working out very well.

It said Yugoslavia has already virtually incorporated that area of the territory occupied by Yugoslav troops.

The proposal to "place the Free Territory of Trieste once more under Italian sovereignty" apparently is a major move by the Western powers in Italian political strategy. The Italians are to hold a national election April 18, with a Communist bid for power the big issue.

Alberto Tarchiani, the Italian Ambassador to the United States, said Italians "will receive with joy this very important news" about Trieste. He said in a statement:

"I have informed Rome of this very good news. I consider it of very great importance to my country. I am very grateful for what the United States has done in this connection.

"Welcomed By Trieste"

"I know this decision will be welcomed by the great majority of the inhabitants of Trieste who never wanted to be separated from Italy and also by the Italian people who will receive with joy this very important news."

In Rome the newspapers reacted quickly.

The Communist-line newspaper la Repubblica under a huge one-word headline, "Trieste," declared, "the news will fill Italian souls with exultation and stupor." The exultation, it said, would be understandable, but the stupor would be because of the "absolutely singular circumstances" of the announcement. The Western powers' move, it said, was aimed at Italy's elections.

"To Reinforce Peace"

The rightist Giornale d'Italia called the announcement an effort by the Western powers to "reinforce peace by again bringing Italy among the nations which guide Europe toward its rebirth." It said the move was caused by "recognition of an injustice which must be mended."

The Western powers' decision to propose return of Trieste to Italy was attributed to two main causes:

1. "Discussions in the Security Council have already shown that agreements on the selection of a governor (for Trieste) is impossible." The peace treaty provides that a governor for the new free territory should be chosen by the United Nations Security Council.

2. The three powers "have received abundant evidence to show that the Yugoslav zone has been completely transformed in character and has been virtually incorporated into Yugoslavia by procedures which do not respect the desire expressed by the powers to give an independent and democratic status to the territory."

Compromise Agreement Reviewed

The joint statement reviewed the compromise agreement between the Western powers and Russia more than a year ago by which the Free Territory of Trieste was created and then concluded:

"The governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France have therefore decided to recommend the return of the Free Territory of Trieste to Italian sovereignty as the best solution to meet the democratic aspirations of the people and make possible the re-establishment of peace and stability in the area.

"Inasmuch as the Security Council has assumed the responsibility for the independence and territorial integrity of the Free Territory of Trieste, the governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France will submit to the Security Council for approval the arrangements to be jointly agreed upon."

Population Estimate: 330,000

The free territory is an area of 430 square miles with an estimated population of 330,000, including both Italians and Slavs. Italians mainly inhabit the city of Trieste and Slavs the country area.

The territory is bounded on the east and south by Yugoslavia, and on the north by Italy, with an arm of the Adriatic Sea to the west.

The disposition of the territory was one of the most bitterly fought issues in the Italian peace treaty. Both Yugoslavia and Italy claimed the area. The Western powers contended that such facts as historical and ethnical associations made it properly an Italian area. But the Yugoslavs argued similarly that it should belong to them. And Yugoslavia had the support of Russia.

Agreement Necessary

In the end the compromise solution of a free territory was agreed upon. The only chance it had to work was that the Western powers and Russia should compose their major differences so that they would be able to agree on such relatively minor issues as the selection of a governor in the Security Council.

Failing East-West agreement, Trieste, as the southern anchor of the dividing line between Communist-controlled land and the western nations of Europe, has no future except as a pawn to be constantly fought over.

It is now occupied by 5,000 American troops and an equal number each of Yugoslav and British troops. The Americans and British share the occupation of the northern zone of the territory and the Yugoslavs occupy the southern zone. It is this zone which the Western powers now accuse the Yugoslavs of trying to absorb into Yugoslavia.

The 5,000 United States troops in Trieste remained when the 88th Division was withdrawn under terms of the Italian peace treaty.

The American naval force in the Mediterranean at this time consists of one carrier, three light cruisers and ten destroyers. They include the carrier Philippine Sea and the cruisers Rochester, Dayton and Manchester.

The Philippines Sea recently relieved the 45,000-ton carrier Midway. Like the Midway, the Philippines Sea carries a contingent of Marines. The Philippines Sea is a 27,000-ton carrier.

Based In Germany

The only United States Air Force in Europe at this time is based in Germany. It consists of one fighter group, two troop-carrier groups, a reconnaissance squadron and some weather service units.

However, the Strategic Air Command has been rotating squadrons of B-29 Superfortresses in Europe for training purposes. This rotational training program has resulted in the presence of a squadron of the big bombers in the American occupation zone of Germany most of the time. A B-29 squadron usually consists of nine planes.

Under a policy instituted in recent months, some of the planes from squadrons visiting the German zone have been sent on practice flights to Dharan, in Saudi Arabia. The route flown by these planes has been southward across France, thence southeastward over Rome, then swinging in an arc to avoid the Balkan area, and thus eastward to Dharan.

Altogether, United States troops in Europe number about 100,000.

Less than 25,000 of this total can be rated as combat troops. The others have constabulary and occupation duties.

Estimate Of Russ Strength

On the other hand, the Army estimated to the House Foreign Affairs Committee last December that the Soviets have 1,702,000 troops in western Russia and the occupied zones of Europe. In addition, Soviet satellite countries have an estimated 1,121,000 soldiers.

Thus 100,000 American troops compare with 2,823,000 ,pontentially hostile troops in Europe. It is to be assumed, of course, that in event of trouble military help would be forthcoming from Britain and other friendly nations.

Major General Bryant E. Moore commands United States troops in Trieste.

Bidault made his announcement about the Trieste decision in a speech following a ceremony at which he and the Italian Foreign Minister, Carlo Sforza, signed an agreement for a customs union between their countries.

"A communiqué to be published at the end of the day will confirm this," Bidault continued.

"I hope that a prompt and favorable reply from the Soviet Government will permit us to go forward without delay."

France decided Trieste should be returned to Italy, Bidault said, because since the peace treaty was ratified circumstances have revealed that the free territory regime "cannot function without the confident co-operation of the interested and guaranteeing powers.

3-Power Statement on Trieste

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP).—Following is the text of a statement by the governments of the United States, Great Britain and France proposing Free Territory of Trieste be returned to Italy.

The governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France have proposed to the governments of the Soviet Union and Italy that those governments join in agreement on an additional protocol to treaty of peace with Italy which would place the Free Territory of Trieste once more under Italian sovereignty.

The governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France have come to this decision because discussions in the Security Council have already shown that agreement on the selection of a governor is impossible and because they have received abundant evidence to show that the Yugoslav zone has been completely transformed in character and has been virtually incorporated into Yugoslavia by procedures which do not respect the desire expressed by the powers to give an independent and democratic status to the territory.

During the Council of Foreign Ministers' discussion of the Italian peace treaty it was the consistent position of the American, British and French representatives that Trieste, which has an overwhelmingly Italian population, must remain an Italian city. Given the impossibility of securing the adoption of such a solution, the three governments agreed that the city and a small hinterland should be established as a Free Territory under a statute which it was hoped would guarantee, with the co-operation of all parties concerned, the independence of the people of the area, including the Italian city of Trieste.

Pending the assumption of office by a governor, the Free Territory has been administered by the Commander, British-United States forces in the northern zone of the territory, and by the Commander, Yugoslav forces in the southern zone. In the British-American zone the Anglo-American military authorities have acted as caretakers for the governor to be appointed and for the democratic organs of popular representation for which the permanent statute of the territory makes provision. At the same time Yugoslavia has taken in the zone under her charge measures which definitely compromise the possibility of applying the statute.

In these circumstances the three governments have concluded that the present settlement cannot guarantee the preservation of the basic rights and interests of the people of the Free Territory.

The governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France have, therefore, decided to recommend the return of the Free Territory of Trieste to Italian sovereignty as the best solution to meet the democratic aspirations of the people and make possible the re-establishment of peace and stability in the area.

Inasmuch as the Security Council has assumed the responsibility for the independence and territorial integrity of the Free Territory of Trieste, the governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France will submit to the Security Council for approval the arrangements to be jointly agreed upon.

Russ Agreement On One Zone Seen

Trieste, March 20 (AP)—High Allied military government officials watched intently tonight for the first Communist reaction to the Western powers' proposal to turn this free state back to Italy.

One official said he would not be surprised if Russia would agree to the return of the British-American zone, since it would offset the political effect of the British-American-French move in the Italian elections.

He said it was doubtful, however, if she and Yugoslavia would agree to the return of the Yugoslav zone since it is mostly inhabited by Slovenes and already part of the Yugoslav economy.

Informants said one factor that might influence Soviet agreement to a return of Trieste to Italy is the consistent Communist demand for the withdrawal of British-American troops.

Bidault In Gesture To Italy

Turin, Italy, March 20 (AP)—Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, chose Communist-governed Turin today to make the first announcement that the Western Powers proposed to return to Italy all of Trieste—including the part occupied by Yugoslavs.

It was one of three moves the French Foreign Minister made in this strongly Communist industrial north to win friends for the western nations only four weeks before Italians choose between communism and anti-communism in national elections.

Bidault coupled his sensational gesture on Trieste, sorest point in the Italian peace treaty for Italians, with the formal signing of a pact with Carlo Sforza, Foreign Minister, undertaking to conclude an Italian-French customs union. They also signed a trade agreement.

Sforza Greatly Pleased

Bidault also indicated French approval of the return to Italy of jurisdiction over her former African colonies.

Sforza shouted "very good" as Bidault made his announcement concerning Trieste, and afterwards declared in an interview that it would have a "tremendous effect" on Italy's elections.

Bidault, as he made the announcement, turned to Sforza and the two smiled broadly.

Later in an interview Sforza said he had "anticipated France's firm support concerning colonies, but this firm declaration on Trieste had been kept a complete secret. It pleases me enormously."

Crowds Gather In Turin

Bidault had said he hoped a solution which would "give maximum satisfaction to the new democratic Italy" would be found for her former African territories. He passed on immediately, however, to the "more burning" question of Trieste.

No newspapers were publishing in Turin today because of a strike, but within an hour the news had spread throughout the city. Crowds of from 20 to 200 gathered everywhere, discussing the news.

It was reported that Premier Alcide de Gasperi was coming to Turin to talk to Bidault.

The Communist press in Rome declared the Trieste move filled Italians "with exultation and stupor." The Communists said it was an electioneering move and was made under "singular circumstances."

Il Giornale d'Italia, independent and Rightist, said it was "recognition of an injustice" and an effort to "reinforce peace."

"A Great Italian City"

The Frenchman spoke just before it was announced in Washington, Paris and London that the United States, France and Britain propose to make a major revision of the Italian peace treaty and return Trieste to Italy.

The decision, while it is to be placed formally before the Russians, probably means that the 6-month-old Free State of Trieste will be scrapped. The pawns in this latest move are 330,000 people living in about 450 square miles of strategic territory at the head of the Adriatic in the disputed dividing line between Italy and Yugoslavia, between east and west.

Bidault referred to the port, shipbuilding and marine banking center as "a great Italian city."

In Agreement On Conclusion

His Government said Marshal Tito's occupying force in the southern zone of the free territory had virtually incorporated it into Yugoslavia already. His Government, in its joint proposal to Russia, would turn this zone back to Italy, along with the main section and city now ruled by a British-American military government and occupied by 5,000 American troops.

Bidault said the "French Government has come to the conclusion that this (free state) regime is no longer tenable, and in the interest of peace between Italy and Yugoslavia it is important to find another solution.

"This solution, it believes, cannot but be the return purely and simply of Trieste to Italy."

'Cause Of Justice Making Its Way,' De Gasperi Says

Rome, March 20 (AP)—Italians rejoiced tonight that their beloved Trieste may be returned to them.

The news that Britain, France and the United States have asked Russia to join in restoring the Adriatic city interrupted political rallies in Rome. Motion-picture houses flashed the news on their screens. Huge crowds gathered at radio sets and rushed news stands for afternoon extras.

Flags On Display

Shouts of "Viva Trieste Italiana" echoed in the ancient streets.

Flags of the republic were displayed on humble homes and as well as public buildings.

Tonight the average Italian, who in the April 18 elections may decide Italy's and perhaps western Europe's fate on the Communist issue, was asking "what will Russia and the Communists say now."

Communists were discouraged.

Premier Expresses Joy

A Communist orator in Piazza Colonna stopped and sighed, "now we will have to do it all over again."

Premier Alcide de Gasperi said "the news has filled me with joy. I have certainty the cause of justice is making its way."

Major Giuseppe Ronga, war veteran and member of the Government's motorized troops, commented, "the first good news since the end of the war."

Il Giornale D'Italia said "it was as if a new wave of Italian spirit had submerged the city."

SLAV ENVOY ASSAILS U.S. ON PLAN TO GIVE TRIESTE TO ITALY; ROME REJOICES

London And Paris Join Washington In Proposal; Kosanovic Fears Direct Action By Nations; Italian Communists Discouraged

Sava N. Kosanovic, Yugoslavian Ambassador to Washington, yesterday attacked the United States for its part in proposing the return of Trieste to Italy. Britain and France also participated with the United States in the Trieste announcement.

Meanwhile, many Italians rejoiced in the first reaction to the Western powers' proposal with crowds gathering in Rome. Communists generally were discouraged.

Diplomats Call Plan A Shrewd Political Move

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Sava N. Kosanovic, Yugoslav Ambassador to the United States, said today he was "deeply shocked" at the proposal of the United States, Great Britain and France to return Trieste to Italy.

The Ambassador aimed his criticism at "both the substance and form of the (United States) State Department's proposal."

Kosanovic said in a statement:

"I do not know if it is intended to seek to provoke Yugoslavia into a step which might provide the excuse for direct action by other nations in this situation. I do not know why here, as in other matters, the Government of the United States prefers not to avail itself of the machinery of the United Nations.

Sees Prejudice Flourishing

"But I do know that this action is certain to create an atmosphere of nervousness and tension in which prejudice flourishes and in which the employment of reason and calmness and justice is made more difficult."

The Ambassador said that "it was Yugoslavia which liberated Trieste from the Germans on May 2, 1945." He said his country sought unsuccessfully to bring about "what it believed to be a truly democratic solution for Trieste."

He said Yugoslavia "wanted to find a solution that would be as easy as possible for the Government and the people of Italy to accept.

"It was for this reason that Marshal Tito, in November, 1946, proposed to the Italian Government that Trieste be returned to Italy as part of a general border correction. This proposal was rejected. . . ."

Would Require Change In Treaty

[Editor's Note—The quid pro quo involved in Marshal Tito's proposal was that Trieste be given to Italy provided that Gorizia was ceded to Yugoslavia. This, said Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi, in rejecting Tito's offer, was simply "the barter of one Italian city for another Italian city."]

Kosanovic also denied as "completely false" reports that an international brigade from Yugoslavia is ready to take part in the civil war in Greece. He said the aim of these reports is "provocation, and the creation of suspicion and unfriendliness toward Yugoslavia."

The three-power proposal would require a surgical operation on the six-month-old Italian peace treaty. That treaty set up the 430-square-mile area between Italy and Yugoslavia as an independent state under the United Nations.

Trieste, long a storm center, has been coveted by both the Italians and by the Yugoslavs under the Soviet-backed Marshal Tito.

Called Shrewd Move

Diplomatic authorities said that the proposal was among the shrewdest moves yet made to try to help the anti-Communist forces in Italy win the April 18 national election. It was not the first such move and officials said it would not be the last.

At the same time, the proposal was interpreted as the second action within 24 hours to bring American diplomacy into line with the "stop-Russia" program which now dominates Washington's foreign policy.

American officials have given up hope of operating Trieste as a truly independent area under the protection of the United Nations, and are anxious now to settle this issue.

Thus the Trieste move was compared by officials here to the dramatic abandonment by the United States yesterday of its support for partition of Palestine. The contention on partition was that it did not afford a peaceful and workable solution for one of the great problems in which both America and Russia are primarily concerned.

Italian Ambassador Pleased

To have insisted on partition at this time, in the American view, would have been out of line with policy toward Russia. It would have increased the chance of having to send United Nations armed forces, including Soviet troops, to the Holy Land. Also, it possibly would have increased American military commitments and jeopardized American oil sources in the Middle East.

Alberto Tarchiani, the Italian Ambassador here, expressed gratitude "for what the United States has done."

He added: "I know this decision will be welcomed by the great majority of the inhabitants of Trieste who never wanted to be separated from Italy and also by the Italian people who will receive with joy this very important news."

The announcement was made by the State Department here an hour after the formal proposal reached the Russian and Italian embassies. The United States, Britain and France had decided to act after ten days of consultation undertaken at an American suggestion.

Dangerous Location

Trieste was for more than a year the main stumbling block between the great powers in their efforts to write an Italian peace treaty. The treaty, which finally became effective September 15, created the free territory with its port city of Trieste, and its 330,000 people of both Italian and Slavic descent.

Establishment of the free territory had been originally suggested by the French as a compromise measure in order to get some kind of Italian treaty written. Russia had consistently backed Yugoslav claims to possession of Trieste and the Western powers up to the French compromise had demanded Trieste for Italy.

At the time the compromise decision was made, diplomats generally agreed that it never would work. They pointed to Trieste's dangerous location between Italy and Yugoslavia, at the southern end of the iron curtain between the Russian world and the Western world.

Two Reasons For Proposal

The peace treaty provided that Yugoslavia and the United States and Britain each should have 5,000 troops in Trieste. The territory was divided into two zones and the Yugoslavs occupied the southern zone by themselves while the United States and Britain settled down in the northern territory.

Today's announcement accused the Yugoslavs in effect of violating the arrangement. It said that "Yugoslavia has taken, in the zone under her charge, measures which definitely compromise the possibility of applying the statute."

Difficult Choice For Russia

Illegal Yugoslav absorption of part of the Trieste territory was given as one of two reasons for the proposal to scrap the whole arrangement. The other was that the United Nations Security Council has shown itself unable to select a governor for the area as the Italian peace treaty provided it should do.

For these reasons, the joint announcement of the Western Powers declared, they would submit to the Security Council arrangements for ending the free territory plan and giving Trieste entirely over to Italy.

Officials said the only way for this action to become legal would be for the great powers all to agree upon it and then get other nations which signed the Italian peace treaty to adhere to the revision.

The move of the Western nations presented the Russians with very little choice of reaction. If they support the Western powers they will in effect be turning their backs on all their previous arguments for a Yugoslav Trieste and thereby be kicking their Yugoslav satellite in the face.

But if Russia sides with Yugoslavia that will be a slap in the face for the Italian Communists. Possession of Trieste is a great political issue in Italy. The Italian Communists themselves are put on the spot of waiting to see anxiously what the Kremlin may do.

Little Comment From Trieste

Other moves which the United States has made with the evident purpose of strengthening anti-Communist forces in Italy includes the warning of Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, yesterday that any nation which went Communist would lose American economic help.

People who have least of all to say in this whole business are the residents of Trieste. They consist of farmers in the hinterland, mostly Slavs, and tradesmen and artisans in the city itself, which is mostly Italian. The city in the past has been important both as a trading port for a large area of Europe lying north of there and also has been a shipbuilding center.

If the Russians and the Western powers are unable to agree on Trieste the practical solution probably will be an indefinite partitioning of the territory between the Anglo-American troops and the Yugoslav forces. That would create a potentially dangerous situation which officials here would be happy to end.

Trieste Dispute Started Before End of the War

New Zealanders Occupied City in May, '45, as Tito Claimed He Captured It

By The Associated Press

The dispute between Italy and Yugoslavia over Trieste began before the Allies captured the prize city on the Adriatic in the last days of the war.

On May 3, 1945, Allied Headquarters announced that New Zealand troops had occupied Trieste. Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia promptly declared his forces alone captured Trieste, and also Gorizia, in northeast Italy, and said the New Zealanders entered without Yugoslav consent. Highlights in the bitter dispute that has raged since then:

May 11, 1945—Tito lays claim to Trieste.

June 9, 1945—Yugoslav troops agree to quit Trieste pending settlement of issues in peace treaty.

July 3, 1946—Foreign Ministers' Council in Paris agrees on internationalization of Trieste; within week, rioting flares in Trieste.

Oct. 10, 1946—Peace conference of twenty-one nations approves Italian draft treaty and compromise proposals for government of Free Territory of Trieste.

Nov. 27, 1946—Foreign Ministers' Council resolves deadlock over issues involving administration of Free Territory of Trieste, seeks U. N. administration.

Jan. 10, 1947—United Nations Security Council agrees to take over administration of Free Territory of Trieste.

Sept. 16, 1947—Marshal Tito moves troops up to provisional Yugoslav-Italian frontier as soon as terms of Italian peace treaty go into effect.

Nov. 25, 1947—Yugoslav troops seize six American soldiers, release them after 24 hours.

Jan. 23, 1948—U. N. Security Council unable to agree on governor for free territory although at least seventeen names are suggested.

March 20, 1948—United States, France and Great Britain propose to Russia that free territory of Trieste be returned to Italy.

Most Lawmakers Seem Surprised

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Most lawmakers have appeared surprised today at the Trieste announcement and said they wanted to study the proposal before commenting.

But Representative Bloom (D., N.Y.), of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said—It's stupid to restore Trieste to Italy under present world conditions. It would mean trouble the way things are now in Europe.

Representatives Kee (D., W.Va.) and Mansfield (D., Mont.) called it "a very fine thing" and "a good suggestion," respectively.

Senator George (D., Ga.) called it "a bit of international politics."

Senator Wiley (R., Wis.) commented: "It just shows how deep we are now in the international poker game."

Senator Connally (D., Texas), American representative on the Paris Peace Conference Committee which decided the disposition of Trieste, said:

"I am strong for Trieste going to Italy. It is predominantly Italian in population and tradition, and should be awarded to Italy in behalf of peace and order in that area."

U.N. Surprised At Trieste Proposal

Lake Success, March 20 (AP)—The Western powers' note on Trieste caught the United Nations secretariat and delegates by surprise today. It quickly won indorsement from the Arab group.

Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, was obviously surprised when informed that the United States, France and Britain had dispatched a note to Russia suggesting that Trieste be returned to Italy.

"I must think it over," Lie said, declining further comment.

Faris el Khoury, Syrian delegate on the Security Council and chief Arab spokesman at the United Nations, told a reporter:

"It is a very good idea. It is an opening of the conflict between the Western powers and Russia. I don't know to what extent it will develop."

U.N. TO HAVE SEVERE TEST ON TRIESTE

MAR 1948

Fresh Battle Over Free Territory Expected In Security Council

Lake Success, N.Y., March 20 (AP). The unexpected Western power proposal for the return of Trieste to Italy put a new strain on the United Nations tonight.

The general feeling here is that the Trieste development, plus the surprising American backdown on the partition of Palestine and the East-West clash over Czechoslovakia, has put the severest tests upon the United Nations since the Security Council opened shop in America two years ago.

Recognition that the United Nations is going through a time of travail came from Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australian Foreign Minister, who played a prominent role in creating the United Nations.

Calls For Support For U.N.

Evatt warned against power politics operating outside United Nations machinery and declared that only the United Nations can "arrest the drift toward war."

He called for loyal and consistent support for the United Nations.

Evatt's remarks were made in a message to the new Australian national committee for the United Nations. They were made public here.

Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate to the United Nations, sent to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, the statement by the United States, Britain and France proposing that the territory of Trieste be returned to Italy.

Fresh Battle Expected

Lie was caught by surprise at the three-power move, just as he was surprised by the American decision against going on with the Palestine partition plan at this time. He would not comment.

Faris el Khoury, of Syria, who has joined hands with President Truman's attack on communism, indorsed the action of the three powers. He is the chief Arab spokesman at the United Nations.

Since January, 1947, the Security Council has tried vainly to agree on a Trieste governor.

Soviet Russia refused to accept candidates of the Western countries; the three Western nations declined to agree on Russia's nominees.

It was expected that the three-power note would precipitate a fresh battle over Trieste in the Security Council. The Italian peace treaty made the Council responsible for Trieste.

A British spokesman said that British and American troops certainly would remain in their area in Trieste until a new arrangement is made.

American Sources Confident

United States sources, meanwhile, were confident the United Nations would accept their proposal to turn aside from the Assembly's partition plan and set up a temporary trusteeship for the Holy Land.

Palestinian Jews indicated they may proclaim a Hebrew republic.

The Security Council will take up Wednesday the United States' proposal for a special session of the Assembly to reconsider the situation.

In the Czechoslovak case, Herman Santa Cruz, of Chile, said he had a pledge from one Security Council member to demand that the Council hear Dr. Jan Papanek, who has been fired as Czechoslovakia's delegate to the United Nations.

Debate On Papanek

The Security Council will debate Monday whether to invite Papanek to appear and present his charges that Russia interfered in Czechoslovakia's affairs. Santa Cruz took up the Papanek charges after the United Nations shelved them.

Evatt said the committee is being created in a period of "growing international tension and at a time when many enemies of peace, almost with relish, are foretelling the breakdown of the United Nations."

"The present situation can only be described as a 'drift' toward war," he said.

"The present conditions of 'drift' are therefore a challenge to all responsible leaders. War can only come as a result of the absence of leadership in world affairs," Evatt added.

Against Power Politics

He declared that the United Nations is the main hope for peace. He said it has its faults of procedure but that "attacks made upon it now are reminiscent of attacks made upon the League of Nations by those who found it expedient to sidestep the league and act independently of it and who contributed to its weakening and to the second World War."

"In my opinion," he continued, "there is no problem in the world which cannot be settled in terms of peace and justice, but the way to settle it is through the United Nations and not along the line of power politics which have no regard to the facts and justices of each dispute . . . we must at all costs arrest the drift toward war, which is wanted by no responsible human being in the world."

In New York, the American Association for the United Nations declared in a statement that the United States Government position on Palestine "will rise to plague this country in the future."

The statement was signed by Sumner Welles, honorary president of the association and former Under Secretary of State; Clark Eichelberger, director of the association, and William Emerson, association president.

The statement said that the United States had appeared "unwilling to bear the burden necessary to the full support of the United Nations."

If the United States "throws away collective security for what it hoped may be strategic or economic advantage in the Arab countries, it will have made a most tragic exchange to the detriment of American security," the association added.

Clashes In Italy Kill 1, Wound 10

Rome, March 20 (AP)—One person was reported killed and ten wounded near Naples yesterday when Communists fought young Government party members.

Violence also broke out in Rome and other parts of Italy as parties speeded up their campaigning for the April 18 election. Communism is the prime issue.

The fatal clash occurred as Communists reportedly tried to break up a St. Joseph's Day parade of Christian Democratic party youths at Castellamare Di Stabia, south of Naples. When police moved in shots were fired. At least one policeman was reported wounded.

Leftists, Socialists Clash

In Rome fighting started yesterday but riot squads restored order. Leftists who had just heard a speech by Communist Leader Luigi Longo, clashed with Moderate Socialists homeward bound from a meeting. There were no casualties.

These incidents and reported disorders the previous night in Palermo marred the uneasy truce agreed upon by Italy's leading political parties.

Political orators took advantage of the holiday yesterday to address their followers. In many Italian cities crowds packed theaters, auditoriums and public squares to hear speeches.

De Gasperi, Truman Assailed

Leftist orators accused Premier Alcide de Gasperi of subservience to the United States and said President Truman was "war mongering." Followers of de Gasperi acclaimed United States aid to Italy and called attention to Russian expansion in eastern Europe.

In Berkeley, Cal., yesterday, Secretary of State George C. Marshall warned that Italy if she put the Communists in power, automatically would cut herself off from American aid.

Parties completed their lists of candidates for Parliament yesterday by presenting nominees for the "National College."

RUSSIA WALKS OUT ON BERLIN COUNCIL TALKS

MAR 1948

Future Of 4-Power Rule In Germany Left In Doubt By Soviet

'Ready To Fight'

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States commander in Germany, said today that "strong forces in Germany are ready to fight and even die for freedom and democracy."

He said this had been demonstrated by the thousands of non-Communists who held a mass meeting Thursday celebrating the centennial of the 1848 German revolution.

"We can derive encouragement from the courage of those Germans," he said. "Many thousands braved the cold and pouring rain to show their faith in democracy."

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—Russia's delegation walked out angrily on an Allied Control Council meeting today and left the future of the four-power government for Germany in doubt.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, the Soviet delegate, charged the western powers had "broken away from Control Council machinery." He said their actions proved "the Control Council no longer exists as an organ of government."

Sokolovsky, who was chairman, adjourned the meeting abruptly, without consulting with the other delegates. Then, as if by prearrangement, he and his staff arose together and strode from the chamber, leaving the British, American and French representatives sitting at the conference table.

"Improperly Adjourned"

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the United States military governor, said:

"It is apparent at a minimum that the Soviet delegation intended to be discourteous to its colleagues. We will just have to wait and see whether the Russians intend to hold another meeting or not."

The British, French and American delegates noted in the official minutes that the session had been "improperly adjourned."

It is customary for the chairman to set the date for the succeeding meeting of the council before adjourning.

The walkout followed a long Russian tirade against the west. Sokolovsky charged the three powers with sabotaging four-power government for Germany. A similar Soviet attack occurred yesterday in the Allied Kommandantur meeting here.

No Idea Of Intention

Western officials said the Soviet manner was "obviously planned and staged."

The question arises now whether the Russians intend to end four-power government here. General Clay and other western officials said they have no idea what the Russian intention is.

Sokolovsky had submitted a long memorandum criticizing the other three powers. This memorandum had been adopted by the Slav foreign ministers at their recent meeting in Czechoslovakia.

Then Sokolovsky said the recent American-British-French conference in London on western Germany was a usurpation of the rights of the Control Council. He demanded a full report on the London conference.

30.24- 16391

No Sense In Continuing

After the heated discussion, he announced:

"Since the British and United States representatives refuse to report to the Control Council on the questions discussed at the London conference, I see no sense in continuing this meeting, and I declare it adjourned."

Sokolovsky had called this meeting especially because he had two matters to present. He has been chairman for this month.

He began with the Prague resolution adopted by the Foreign Ministers of Poland, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, criticising the German occupation policies of the western powers and charging that Germany was not being properly demilitarized or democratized.

Propaganda Purposes

General Clay and Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, the British delegate, refused to admit the memorandum. They contended it already had been sent to their governments and should be handled on that level. General Clay and General Robertson both suggested the memorandum was introduced by the Russian for propoganda purposes.

Sokolovsky hotly denied this. He charged his western colleagues with using the propoganda charge as a smokescreen, and then withdrew the issue from the agenda.

From this point, Sokolovsky launched into an attack on the London three-power conference, which he said made "unilateral and illegal decisions" regarding the future of Germany.

Russ Zone Actions

General Robertson replied that the London talks still are in adjournment and when they were concluded a report would be given the Control Council.

Robertson demanded that Sokolovsky inform the council on "unilateral actions which have been taken in the Russian occupation zone," including the establishment this week of the Communist-controlled "German People's Council." This group, set up with Russian indorsement, has the announced purpose of drafting an all-German constitution and replacing the Control Council with a German government.

This action was presumptuous, Robertson said, suggesting to Sokolovsky that "you spank your baby."

Sokolovsky rejected Robertson's demand.

Reds In Huff Quit Session On Control

MAR 1948

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—The Russians abruptly walked out of an Allied Control Council meeting today after charging the Western Powers had proved by their actions "that the Control Council no longer exists as an organ of government."

The charge was made by Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky after a heated session. The Russions adjourned the meeting and strode out, leaving the representatives of Britain, France and the United States sitting at the table.

There was no indication, however, that the Russians had walked out of the Council for good.

Rush To Mythical Army

Earlier in the day the British Military Government reported that German volunteers are rushing to enlist in a mythical German army which the Russian-controlled press alleged is being recruited by the western powers.

The Russian propaganda apparently had boomeranged.

Earlier this week Russian-controlled German newspapers and radio stations broadcast a Tass (official Soviet agency) report which was attributed to the Czechoslovak press. This report claimed that Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, had submitted plans to Washington for building a German army of 500,000 men in western Germany.

Germans Rush To Join

The Tass report alleged that this should be a "regular army for the future West German states" and would be constructed under the guise of police and work battalions and would be supplied through the Marshall plan.

General Clay and his deputy, Major George P. Hays, immediately upon seeing the Tass report in print, branded it as "ridiculous nonsense" and "pure Russian propaganda."

Many Germans apparently took it seriously and rushed to join up with the West.

British Publish Denial

Today the British Military Government in Berlin complained that it is being "pestered" by these volunteers and, to shut off the stream, issued the following formal statement:

"A stream of German volunteers has been visiting Military Government headquarters asking particulars about the mythical German Army the Western Allies are alleged to be raising in the bizonal area of western Germany.

Called "Absurd Rumor"

"The absurd rumor that General Clay is planning an army of 500,000 Germans in western Germany originated in the Czechoslovakian press and Moscow radio. It has since been quoted in the (Communistic) Socialist Unity party press in Berlin.

"In spite of the fact that General Clay has emphatically refuted these ludicrous reports, it appears that some people will still believe the fantastic lies that are quoted by the Socialist Unity party press."

West Allies Hold German Unity Parley

Berlin, March 20 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France were reported today to have discussed plans for speeding the unification of Germany.

Military governors for the three nations held a special conference yesterday. They reportedly arranged to establish working committees to carry out the program set up at a British-French-United States parley on Germany ended in London March 6.

The program called for economic co-ordination of the French zone with the British and American zones, international control of the Ruhr, and a federal German government.

West Germans Seeking To Enlist in New 'Army'

BERLIN, March 20 (AP).—The British Military Government reported today that German volunteers are rushing to enlist in a mythical German army which the Russian-controlled press alleged is being recruited by the Western powers.

Earlier this week Russian-controlled German newspapers and radio stations broadcast a Tass (official Soviet agency) report, attributed to the Czechoslovak press saying that General Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, had submitted plans to Washington for building a German army of 500,000 men in Western Germany.

General Clay and his deputy, Major General George P. Hays, immediately branded the report as "ridiculous nonsenses" and "pure Russian propaganda."

But many Germans apparently took it seriously and rushed to join up with the West. Today the British Military Government in Berlin complained that is is being "pestered" by these volunteers."

Mass Smuggling Perils Economy Of Bizonia

MAR 1948

Berlin, March 17 (AP)—American and British authorities are waging a concerted drive against huge smuggling rackets which are gnawing into the struggling economy of western Germany's Bizonia.

The smuggling, aided by German police and customs guards, moves two ways. Into western Germany come millions of cigarettes for dumping in the black market. Out of Bizonia go manufactured products and other items diverted from German consumers or authorized trade channels.

See Syndicate Involved

The effect is the plundering of an economy which is so shaky it requires subsidy of hundreds of millions annually from the two occupying powers to keep it afloat.

The cigarette smuggling racket is an enormous one in which, United States and British criminal investigation agents believe, several international black market syndicates are involved. For the last six months, according to one estimate, these rings have shipped from two to three million cigarettes daily into the combined Anglo-American zones.

Orders Are Forged

United States Army investigation agents say the main source of these illegal cigarettes is the free port of Antwerp, and other points in Holland, Switzerland and Luxembourg.

Criminal investigators on the trail of the syndicates say they operate in this fashion:

American cigarettes are purchased in huge lots from bonded warehouses in the Benelux countries, chiefly Belgium. Payment is in dollars at the rate of about 80 cents for 200 tax-free cigarettes. Usually the cigarettes are shipped under consignment orders, often forged, for Czechoslovakia in transit across Germany, by truck or rail.

Issue False Certificates

But the black-market cigarettes never reach Czechoslovakia. At some point in Germany, usually Munich, they disappear. Agents of the syndicates then bribe guards at the German-Czech border to give a certification stamp that the cigarettes have left Germany and entered Czechoslovakia.

Meanwhile, the cigarettes, good as gold in the German black market, are sold or bartered at inflated values for money or valuable articles. With the German marks obtained in cash sales, the black-market operators usually seek to buy American dollars, silver, hides and leather products.

A large volume of this illegal trading is carried on through displaced-persons camps. Within a one-week period 14,000,000 cigarettes were confiscated in the British zone. Six million of these were impounded in a raid on the Bergen-Belsen Jewish displaced-persons camp, where seven persons were arrested.

Czechs Hope to Form A Government in Exile

SCHWABACH, Germany, March 20 (AP).—Tentative moves toward creation of a Czechoslovak government in exile were reported today.

An official of a Czech refugee committee here said two commissions of fugitives from Czechoslovakia hope to go to London and Paric next week. There, they will first seek permission for Czech refugees to leave Germany.

"There are enough former government members now in Germany to form an exile government," the official said. He asked not to be quoted by name.

Greece Mapping Major Drive On Rebels

Athens, March 20 (AP)—A sharply increased tempo in the Greek Army's war on Communist-led guerrillas appeared in prospect today.

The Greek high command drew the plans less than 48 hours after President Truman told the United States Congress Greece is "under direct attack from rebels actively supported by her Communist-dominated neighbors."

It was last night that high American Army officers had helped the Greek chief of staff plan a quickening of the campaign against Rebel Chieftin Markos Vafiades and his self-proclaimed Communist goverhment.

Children To Be Moved

Greek commanders of the 1st, 2d and 3d Army Corps and division heads were called into the conference with Maj. Gen. James Alward Van Fleet, military chief in the American Mission to Aid Greece.

The Government, meanwhile, ordered all children moved out of northern Greece, principal battleground in the civil war. It used powers of the civilian-mobilization decree issued this week. The order led to speculation it was to clear the area for a major military operation.

Orders were that the evacuation be carried out immediately with the use of all available facilities. The general staff agreed to help. Government officials charge guerrillas have been kidnapping children and sending them north into Communist countries.

317 Abducted In Thrace

Since early last year the United States has been pouring $400,000,000 in military and civil aid into Greece and Turkey. Yesterday a House committee completed action on the European recovery plan bill, which includes another $275,000,000 in military aid to the two countries.

Press reports said 317 children have been abducted in western

Thrace in the past few days and taken to Sofia, Bulgaria. Nearly 200 were reported seized from seven villages in western Macedonia.

Some 200 women are reported to have been freed from rebel forces near Katerini.

Eleven persons who participated in the Mount Parnes attack north of Athens were sentenced to death by a military court here. Eighty persons were arrested by police in Lamia.

Today's general staff communiqué said 66 guerrillas were killed and 21 captured in clashes around Mount Olympus.

WAR IS UNLIKELY, GREEK KING STATES

But Nation Will Defend Self Alone if Need Be — Athens Seeks U. N. Border Force

The first officially authorized statement by King Paul of Greece to a news reporter since Paul took the throne April 1, 1947, was obtained by John P. Leacacos, European correspondent of The Cleveland Plain Dealer. Mr. Leacacos' dispatch, herewith, was made available to The Associated Press by The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ATHENS, March 20—King Paul I of Greece tonight stated he did not believe an international war would take place in the near future, but added that Greece, if attacked, would defend herself and fight alone independently of any outside help.

The Greek King's statement came in response to this reporter's question of what the King thought of the imminence of war, an anxiety which is widespread in Greece.

The King replied textually.

"I don't think a war will take place in the near future, but in the unforeseen event of foreign aggression Greece will defend herself to the last man independently of outside help, and if we have to fight alone we will do it."

Further amplification of his remarks was denied by the King on the grounds the international situation was "too delicate."

It was reported tonight that the Greek Government had laid a new proposal concerning sealing the Greek border with Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria before the nine governments represented on the United Nations Special Committee on the Balkans.

The proposal was that each of the five nations now actually on the spot in Greece provide a contingent of armed guards of its own nationality for the five United Nations observer teams now in operation. The nations personally represented are the United States, Britain, France, China and Brazil.

Similar requests were made to the four nations who have not yet sent in representatives for the observer teams. These are Mexico, the Netherlands, Australia and Pakistan.

Although a request for a mixed international border police force has been cooking since December, the new Greek approach, it was pointed out, aims to circumvent delays by the United Nations General Assembly and to put the necessary action before each individual government concerned.

The Greek maneuver was also decribed as being the start of a Greek diplomatic offensive following President Truman's speech Wednesday to Congress, which was interpreted here as portending likely military guarantees. The specific object is to try to neutralize the long Greek border, across which guerrillas freely come and go, before the Greek Army's spring drive gets rolling.

Czechoslovak Workers Remain On Jobs Today

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 20 (AP)—Workers in Czechoslovakia will go to their jobs as usual tomorrow instead of enjoying a Sunday rest.

Factories and offices will be open for a so-called "victory shift." Leaders of the new Communist Government said the workers will "demonstrate their elation over the victory of progressive forces" in the recent political crisis.

The workers will get no extra pay. Part of the money earned by their effort will go to the United Nations International relief for children and to the Communist-led Greek partisans opposing the present Greek Government.

Bulgaria Ousts 11 Ex-Diplomats

Sofia, March 20 (AP)—Eleven former Bulgarian diplomats and legation officials have been deprived of Bulgarian citizenship, and their property confiscated, it was officially announced today. Among them is Boyan Choukanov, former press attaché in Washington.

Churches Alliance Will Be Dissolved

Geneva, Switzerland, March 20 (AP)—The World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Church, founded in 1914, will be dissolved June 30, organization headquarters announced today.

The difficulty of carrying on in the Balkans was listed as one cause of dissolution.

"Many of the national councils of the World Alliance disappeared with their countries," said a prepared statement, "and others found it impossible to resume activity after the war, particularly those in the Balkans, and still others felt that their task could be better performed in co-operation with other organizations."

Between the wars the national councils of 34 countries were affiliated with the alliance. Among the founders was J. Allen Baker, father of Philip Noel-Baker, British Secretary for Commonwealth Relations.

Muscovite Jailed For Bootleg Vodka

MOSCOW, March 20, (AP).—The publication Moscow Bolshevik reported today the case of a Muscovite sentenced to one year in jail for making bootleg vodka out of sugar.

The prosecutor charged that operation of the illegal distillery was "socially dangerous under new conditions following the abolition of the rationing system."

Vienna Hotel Blast Kills Man

VIENNA, March 20 (AP).—A basement explosion in the guest hotel for British headquarters here killed an Argentine citizen and injured a dozen Britons last night.

The blast, in the Hotel Schoenbrunn, destroyed two rooms near the bar. One official said there was no doubt a time bomb had been placed in the basement. British and Austrian police made no statement.

New York, March 20 (AP)—Bishop Paul Neff Garber, of Geneva Switzerland, says he has been informed that the governments of Bulgaria, Hungary, Yugoslavia and Poland regard all churches as equal.

Bishop Garber, the Methodist bishop of eleven European nations, said at a news conference yesterday that his church is free to carry on its work in those four countries.

Czechoslovakia, another nation in the Russian sphere of influence, has had "normal" religious life in the past, he said, adding that he believed this would continue.

A former dean of the divinity school at Duke University, Bishop Garber has been in Europe three years. He returned to the United States to attend the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Church at Boston next month.

Britain Stands Firm on Getting Out of Palestine

Will Yield Mandate May 15, Remove Troops by Aug. 1 Regardless of Partition

London, March 20 (AP)—The Colonial Office announced today Britain stands pat in its determination to surrender the Palestine mandate May 15.

British troops, the office said, will be pulled out not later than August 1, regardless of the situation created by the withdrawal of American support for partition.

The text of the Colonial Office statement:

"The new situation created by the United States proposal is now being studied in London. Nothing in the new situation affects the determination of his Majesty's Government to terminate the mandate not later than May 15 and withdraw all our troops by August 1."

Trusteeship Studied

A Foreign Office spokesman, asked whether Britain would feel obliged to participate with other nations in a trusteeship, said that question will have to be studied.

This spokesman said:

"We tried hard to avoid the difficulties by a settlement which would be reasonable and acceptable to all inhabitants, both the Jews and Arabs.

"Our Settled Policy"

"It has been our endeavor to bring about arrangements which would permit them to live and to work together."

Asked whether there is any possibility of a change in Britain's plans, the spokesman declared:

"They remain our settled policy."

"No matter what happens at Lake Success?" asked a newsman.

"There will be no deviation," he said.

Plan For Withdrawal

Only yesterday the House of Commons wrote in "May 15" as the definite date for termination of the British Mandate over the Holy Land.

Although it was not included in the bill, the date for withdrawal of the last British troops has been set for early August. The bill outlined withdrawal procedure for the British administration.

A British cabinet review of the situation is expected Monday. Meanwhile at least four departments—Foreign, Colonial, War and Admiralty—began consultations.

Jewish Board Meeting

One informant said evacuation of the British troops is "already in full swing and it would be difficult to reverse the process."

The Jewish Board of Deputies meets tomorrow to discuss the situation.

Israel Cohen, former secretary general of the World Zionist Organization, said the United States change of position was "most astonishing and disappointing."

A British Foreign Office spokesman last night had indicated Britain's attitude would depend on whether both Jews and Arabs agreed to trusteeship.

London, March 20 (AP)—Britain stuck tightly today to its decision to quit Palestine.

Both the Foreign and Colonial offices served notice the timetable for pulling out of Palestine will not be changed by the United States withdrawal of support for the United Nations plan to divide the Holy Land between Jews and Arabs.

Under that timetable Britain will give up its mandate on May 15 and move out the last British troops by August 1—sooner if possible.

The full Cabinet will review the Palestine situation Monday. A Foreign Office spokesman discounted the chance for a change in the British position.

Surprised By U.S. Move

Asked if Britain would stand pat, he replied:

"There will be no deviation no matter what happens at Lake Success."

Government officials reported they were surprised by the American announcement withdrawing support for partition and suggesting a temporary United Nations trusteeship over Palestine.

The Colonial and Foreign Offices refused to commit themselves on possible future developments in a search for a Palestine peace formula.

Trusteeship Discussion

These questions were asked:

Would Britain feel obliged to participate in discussions for creating a temporary trusteeship? Would she take part in such a trusteeship? Would she take on a trusteeship herself—obviously an unlikely possibility?

The Foreign Office sidestepped direct answers, pending detailed study of the American announcement and Cabinet consideration.

Asked whether the Foreign Office thought it was possible to reach a settlement acceptable to both Jews and Arabs, he replied: "Anything is possble."

Jewish Palestine State Proclamation Expected

Fighting Forces To Try To Hold Boundaries Of Such Setup—Arabs Confused

Jerusalem, March 20 (AP)—Jewish leaders are expected to proclaim at once a Hebrew state in Palestine following abandonment of the partition plan by the United States, informants said tonight.

Jewish fighting forces made it clear they would try to hold the boundaries of such a state by force of arms. The Arabs were confused as to whether they would keep on shooting.

But bitter fighting continued in the Holy Land despite the moves at Lake Success. In at least a dozen places Jewish and Arab warriors clashed as Christians prepared for tomorrow's Palm Sunday worship. Two unidentified planes were reported involved in one action.

To Hold Positions

In Beirut, Lebanon, an official of the Palestine Arab Higher Executive said Arab forces in Palestine would hold their positions and await the ultimate result of the change in American policy.

However, Fawzi Bey al Kaukji, commander of the Arab People's Army, threatened to launch a major field operation against the Jews in the next few days.

At his headquarters in Palestine's Samarian mountains, Al Kaukji said:

"We did not come here to fight partion but to fight zionism. Whether America supports partition or opposes it makes no difference in our plans."

Rejects Trusteeship

Jewish leaders are meeting in Tel Aviv. There David Ben Gurion, chairman of the Jewish Agency, said the Jewish state has already come into being and will be defended by Jewish force. He rejected United Nations trusteeship for Palestine, either temporary or permanent.

The Jewish militia, Haganah, also issued a statement, saying:

"The attempt of the United States to make invalid the United Nations (partition) decision on Palestine is a blow to the United Nations more than to the Jewish state. . . . We built Jewish Palestine with sweat and will defend it with blood."

Both Jewish and Arab informants suggested that the importance of the Middle East's vast oil resources influenced the United States decision to abandon partition.

Hashim Bey Jaousy, mayor of Arab Turkarm, said:

"Personally I agree with the Arab spokesman at Lake Success who said the United States was afraid Russia's support of partition is a means for Russia to invade the Middle East and obtain its oil resources."

"Oil More Important Than Blood"

A spokesman of the Jewish Agency said: "Oil has apparently become more expensive and more important to the United States than Jewish blood. It is not altogether surprising that the United States should sell out the Jewish state in favor of its own aims."

In Beirut, where Arab leaders are in session, Premier Jamil Mardam Bey of Syria, indicated the change in American policy may help clear the way for the $200,000,000 pipeline from Saudi Arabian oilfields to the Mediterranean.

Predictions that Jewish leaders were readying a proclamation of a Hebrew republic were based on the fact that a framework for a Jewish Government already exists.

Cabinet Posts Assigned

A 32-member provisional council was established several weeks ago by the Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Council (Vaad Leumi). Persons have been designated for most of the fifteen cabinet chairs.

In the words of one Jewish spokesman, when such a state is proclaimed it will be up to the United Nations to recognize it, ignore it or suppress it.

Both Arabs and Jews rejected with some reservations the American proposal of a United Nations trusteeship for the Holy Land.

The Arab Higher Committee said any solution of the Palestine question "short of full independence and final liquidation of Zionist dangers in any form is not a solution the Arabs would accept."

Arab League Trusteeship

There were other indications, however, that the Arabs might be inclined to accept a trusteeship for the time being—provided it is an Arab League trusteeship and is established as a step to independence.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general, told a news conference in Beirut it was possible for the Arabs to reach an agreement with the Jews. He added:

"The Jews are our cousins and it is the foreign interference in the Palestine question which has brought bad relations. Face to face with the Jews we will always find a way out."

Some Palestine Jews said they were willing to talk about the trusteeship proposal, but would not even discuss Britain's continuance as trustee.

Aircraft Involved

Fighting which began during the day in the Hartuv area, 18 miles west of Jerusalem, increased in fury after dark. Poilce said two unidentified aircraft were involved in the action.

British army and police units at the scene were trying to halt the battle. There was no immediate report on the number of casualties.

Eleven Jews were killed in an Arab attack Thursday on the Hartuv settlement. Police said at least 500 Arabs, including some Syrians and Iraqis, were involved in the new assault. Hartuv lies a few miles from the Arab village of Artuf which has been under Jewish fire recently.

Eighteen-Hour Battle

On Jerusalem's outskirts the Arabs of Katamon and the Jews of Mekor Haim have been locked in an eighteen-hour battle. Casualties there are now believed to be one Jew and five Arabs.

Elsewhere in Jerusalem Arab fighters sniped from Wadi Joz toward Mount Scopus. Their bullets whined over the Garden of Gethsemane and but a few yards from the old city's sealed Golden Gate. It was through this gate that Jesus was said to have made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on a day to be commemorated the world over tomorrow in Palm Sunday prayer.

Jews and Arabs dueled with mortars and heavy automatic weapons in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv border area. Three Arabs were reported killed.

Five Bodies Mutilated

Throughout northern Palestine Arabs sniped at Jewish traffic and severed two highways. These operations were believed to be part of a plan to isolate scattered Jewish settlements in the Beisan area south of the Sea of Galilee to pave the way for an Arab offensive next week.

Ten Jews were killed yesterday in the Tiberian area and five of the bodies were badly mutilated, police said.

Since November 29 when the United Nations voted to partition Palestine, 1,883 persons have been killed in communal violence, an unofficial tabulation showed.

Jews Threaten To Set Up Own Republic

Jerusalem, March 20 (AP)—Palestine's Jews may proclaim a Hebrew republic as an answer to United States abandonment of partition, an informed Jewish source said today.

Then "it will be up to the United Nations to recognize it, ignore it or suppress it," the informant said.

Jewish leaders are meeting in Tel Aviv. A framework for a Jewish government already exists. It is a 32-member provisional council established several weeks ago by the Jewish agency and the Jewish National Council (Vaad Leumi).

Haganah Prepared

Haganah, the Jewish militia, says it is ready and able to take and to hold Jewish sovereignty in predominantly Jewish areas of the Holy Land.

Both Arabs and Jews turned thumbs down on the United States proposal of trusteeship for Palestine. Both said they will fight on.

Jewish-Arab warfare continued today. A Jew and an Arab were killed in the Jerusalem area. The toll of death since partition first was voted by the United Nations now is almost 1,900.

Justice Always Prevails

Arabs hailed the American abandonment of partition. Secretary General Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, of the Arab League, said the United States action was wonderful.

"Justice always prevails in the long run," he said. "We always wanted peace.

"I'm afraid the Zionists will lose their heads," Azzam Pasha said. "They will fight. If the Jews fight we will accept the challenge."

Azzam Pasha said in Beirut, Lebanon, that Arabs would agree to a short, definitely limited trusteeship period, "but if they're going to shelve independence for Palestine indefinitely, then we will never agree to that." He said it is even possible to reach agreement with the Jews.

Jews, Arabs "Cousins"

"The Jews are our cousins and it is the foreign interference in the Palestine question which has brought bad relations," he said. "Face to face with the Jews, we will always find a way out."

Azzam Pasha said the United States is on the right track, adding that the United Nations "never meant to plunge Palestine into bloodshed or to impose a government which would not work."

But the war in Palestine may grow even more fierce. In the Holy Land itself, Arab officialdom is largely silent. Leaders are saying privately they would accept trusteeship if the trust power were the Arab League, but meanwhile would fight to wipe out Zionism completely.

Natural Rights Recognized

A statement of the Palestine Arab Higher Committee said:

"We find in this withdrawal by the United States of its support of the Jews a return to recognition of the natural rights of Arabs.

"It is nevertheless only one step in reaching the Arab aim in this struggle, which may be summarized as one Arab, completely independent state in Palestine capable of joining the Arab League and United Nations."

Won't Stop Struggle

The Jewish army Haganah said of the United States stand:

"This in no way changes our plans. We must fight on to establish and hold Jewish sovereignty in whatever parts of Palestine we can.

"If the United Nations now erases the boundary line it drew November 29, we shall try by our arms to draw it again in the parts of Palestine which are Jewish."

A spokesman for the Jewish Agency said:

"Oil has apparently become more expensive and more important to the United States than Jewish blood. It is not altogether surprising that the United States should sell out the Jewish state in favor of its own aims."

Another Jew referred to a temporary draft constitution now being written for a transitory Jewish state to function between the planned end of the British mandate May 15 and a constitutional assembly meeting next October. He said:

"It will continue to be based on the United Nations partition recommendation of November 29."

Reference To Remain

He said the temporary draft constitution refers to the partition decision, the United Nations implementation commission and economic union with the proposed neighboring Arab state.

Jews lashed at Arab strongpoints, meanwhile, in the Jerusalem suburb of Katamon. Two explosions and a tatoo of gunfire were heard.

After nearly a whole night of fighting between Jewish and Arab suburbs on Jerusalem's south side, the attack took on big proportions. Sappers moved in to blast an Arab house already damaged by bombing and another the Jews called a sniper's nest.

Word of the new United States stand came to Palestine last night, but did not get around much until today. Most Jews seemed shocked and bewildered when they first heard it. Later, it appeared, their reaction was a resolution to fight for Jewish statehood with or without support.

The news reached Palestine on the Jewish Sabbath, when newspapers do not publish, and too late for news broadcasts.

It is pointed out that three months of fighting already has partitioned the Holy Land in effect.

U.N. Is Expected To Drop Plan

Lake Success, March 20 (AP)—Americans expressed confidence today that the United Nations will accept the surprise American proposal to abandon the Palestine partition plan.

The reversal of American policy came with dramatic suddenness late yesterday. The United States now wants a temporary United Nations trusteeship over the embattled Holy Land. A special session of the United Nations Assembly was asked immediately to approve the interim plan and consider a permanent solution.

Most delegates were stunned by the move and hurriedly cabled their governments for instructions. Russia, however, announced immediate opposition.

The Jewish Agency for Palestine called the move an "amazing reversal." Jews will resist trusteeship by force, it said.

Will Meet Wednesday

Arab delegates smiled and said little. They still demand one independent country in Palestine, but welcomed the blow to partition.

The eleven-nation Security Council will meet next Wednesday to start debate on the new American stand.

It was understood here that the American decision came from the White House and was of Cabinet level. American spokesmen dodged queries as to the bipartisan aspects of the move.

Can Dodge Veto

Warren R. Austin, chief American delegate, anticipated Russian opposition, but is understood to feel that the program is veto-proof. It was conceded that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko might exercise the big-power veto in the Council to stop any of the three requests. However, alternate routes were open.

If the Soviet Union blocks a Council call for the special session, the United States or any other nation can quickly ask for one and have the 57 members polled. If Gromyko whips out vetoes to hold up Council acceptance of trusteeship and the stand-by instructions to the Palestine commission, the Council could be bypassed and the issue taken to the full Assembly.

Proposals need seven of the eleven Council votes and two-thirds of the 57 Assembly votes to pass. The United States is said to feel it could muster enough ballots either place. The support of China and France already appeared likely. There is no veto in the Assembly.

The United States hopes the Assembly will be convened by the first week in April. Britain plans to give up its mandate over Palestine May 15. A high London source said last night, however, it now may change its plans.

Arabs Again Urge Free Palestine

Cario, March 20 (AP)—A Palestine Arab Higher Committee spokesman said today, "The United States should not correct one mistake with another."

The spokesman, Dr. Yacoub Khouri, made this comment on the United States proposal yesterday to shelve the Palestine partition plan voted by the United Nations November 29 and substitute trusteeship.

Asking Full Independence

"America's move is to return to the principle of right and justice," Khouri said. "Palestine Arabs, however, cannot accept any solution of the Palestine problem short of complete independence.

"The United Nations commission which visited Palestine last year said in its report recommending partition that Palestine deserves independence.

"Palestine's status should be identical to that of other Arab countries—a status of complete independence with a Democratic government."

Syrian Premier Sees Pipeline Hastened

Beirut, Lebanon, March 20 (AP). Syria's Premier indicated today American abandonment of Palestine partition may help clear the way for the $200,000,000 pipeline from Saudi Arabian oil fields to the Mediterranean.

Premier Jamil Mardam Bey was asked if Syria now might agree to permit the pipeline, a project of the Arabian-American Oil Company, to cross his country.

"Everything has its own good time," the Premier replied. "Once the cloud is lifted, all barriers are lifted."

Pleased By Decision

The Premier obviously was happy over the development in the United Nations. He is here attending a meeting of the Arab League political committee.

"We hope it is the first step toward putting the Middle East into a position to contribute to world peace and international progress," Mardam Bey said.

"It has removed a cloud which has been hanging between the democracies and the Arab world. The Jews need fear no injustice from Arabs. In Europe when they were persecuted we were the only people to give them shelter."

Ben-Gurion's Statement

TEL AVIV, Palestine, March 20 (AP).—Mr. Ben-Gurion said in his statement:

"I have heard today over the radio the statement of the American representative in the U. N. Security Council.

"Up to now I have not received details. But I will say in my own name: The American declaration is more harmful to the U. N. and the authority of this international organization than it is to the Jews.

"America has surrendered to the terror of Arab gangs who were armed by the British Foreign Office and invaded Palestine under its auspices.

"But the American attitude does not change fundamentally the situation in Palestine, nor does it prevent the creation of a Jewish state. The creation of the Jewish state was actually not dependent on the decision of the U. N. Nov. 29, although that decision had great political and moral value.

"But the creation of a Jewish state is dependent on our ability to create. . . . Only by our force, if we will be ready and if we will have sufficient time to utilize it in full the Jewish state will be established.

"We will decide the fate of this country. We have laid the foundations. We will erect it. . . . We will not accept any trusteeship at all, either temporary or permanent. We will not accept any foreign rule of our state.

"We will insist on a speedy liquidation of British rule in Palestine and on British evacuation without any delay.

"The Jewish state exists already, and it will continue to exist if we know how to defend it. We will find a way for mutual understanding with the Arab peoples."

Says Arabs Will Wait

BEIRUT, Lebanon, March 20 (AP).—Emil Ghoury, of the Palestine Arab Higher Executive, said tonight that the Arab forces in Palestine would "stand by" awaiting the results of the United States' decision to abandon partition.

"We are all very happy the United States has relinquished its position of partition, and hope the U. N. will be able to find a Palestine solution acceptable to all," he said.

The Haj Amin el-Husseini, exiled Mufti of Jerusalem, met tonight with the Arab League's political committee to discuss the sudden change in American policy.

Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, said the Arabs want peace but will fight if the Jews do.

Commenting on the American proposal that Palestine be administered as a trusteeship by the U. N., he said the Arabs would agree to a brief, definite trusteeship period.

"But if they are going to shelve independence for Palestine indefinitely, then we will never agree to that," he declared.

Palm Sunday To Bring Few Pilgrims To Holy City

Jerusalem, March 20 (AP)—Only a handful of Christian Arabs are expected to brave the turbulence of the Holy City tomorrow to commemorate Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

Services this Palm Sunday will not be as they were in years of peace. The tradtitional palm procession following the path it is believed Christ trod from Bethany to Jerusalem's gate, has been canceled.

Now Almost Suicide Route

In the past, tens of thousands walked in the procession. Now, with the Holy Land's bitter communal warfare, it is almost a suicide route.

Only Protestant and Roman Catholic services will be held. Eastern churches observe their equivalent Holy Day April 25 because of calendar differences.

Christians who make daily Holy Week pilgrimages along the Way of the Cross, which Christ followed going to his crucifixion on Mount Calvary, will pass beneath the gun muzzles of warring Arabs—most of them Moslems.

Guns Frown At Statians

Gun emplacements are atop many of the nine stations of the cross which are located outside of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher.

British officialdom has been negotiating for weeks with Arab leaders for the security of Christians, the Government reported. The district commissioner, a kind of British governor of the Jerusalem district, plans to attend Palm Sunday services at Holy Sepulcher. But the traditional hundreds of British soldiers will be absent. The old city is out of bounds to all uniformed men except policemen.

Christians wishing to attend the services first must telephone Arab guards at the old city gate for permission to enter.

Arab Guards At Sepulchre

Armed Arabs are posted at the door of Holy Sepulchre, guarding the most sanctified spot in Christendom—the ancient church covering the traditional site of Christ's burial and resurrection.

Holy Week services begin at dawn tomorrow with the blessing of the palms by Msgr. Vincent Galat, the Arab prelate who is now the highest ranking Roman Catholic in the Holy Land. The blessing will be before the marble structure which houses a replica of Jesus's tomb. Solemn pontifical mass will be said in the chapel outside the holy tomb.

Principal Protestant services on Palm Sunday will be a devotional walk on the Mount of Olives by the Anglican church.

Daily Roman Catholic services during the week will include pontifical high mass Thursday a few hours before the hour of Christ's betrayal and arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane centuries ago.

Usually services are held in Gethsemane at 7 P.M., the traditional hour when Christ was betrayed. They were canceled because of the danger.

Moslem warriors have pledged themselves not to harm Christian worshipers during holy week.

Chiang's Forces Report Recovery of Liaoyang

PEIPING, March 20 (AP).—Recovery of Liaoyang, thirty-five miles south of Mukden, from the Chinese Communists was reported today by pro-government dispatches from Manchuria. They said the Red forces had abandoned the city three days earlier for unknown reasons.

Twenty miles farther south, they said, the Communists were working around the clock with Japanese technicians to produce steel at the big Anshan mills. Anshan fell to the Communists a month ago.

The paper "Hsin Sheng Pao" said the nationalists had abandoned the important coal mining town of Fuhsien, ninety-five miles west of Mukden, after dismantling machinery.

Other dispatches said Communists from the Yinghow seaport area were moving northwest in an apparent attempt to interfere with the newly-opened government corridor to Mukden.

Inconclusive skirmishes were reported continuing around Changchun, the Communist-surrounded Manchurian capital.

Nanking dispatches said Communists were within six miles of Weihsien in Shantung province but arrival of the government's veteran 12th Army had relieved an enemy threat to Tsinan, provincial capital.

Steel For China Communists

Peiping, March 20 (AP)—Pro-Government dispatches reported today Japanese technicians are turning out steel for the Chinese Communists at Anshan, large South Manchurian industrial center which fell to the Reds several weeks ago.

Chinese Currency Put At 500,000 To $1

Shanghai, March 20 (AP)—You could become a millionaire in China today for less than two United States dollars. Chinese national currency fell to a rate of more than 500,000 to $1 on the black market.

Most black-market traders said the sudden change was because President Truman's speeches Wednesday did not include "one word" about China.

U Saw Execution Scheduled April 9

Rangoon, Burma, March 20 (AP)—U Saw, former Burmese Premier, and eight others are scheduled to die April 9 for the assassination of Gen. U Aung San, top Burmese leader, officials said today.

Aung San, then slated to become first Prime Minister of the projected independent Burma, and a group of his aides were killed by machine-gun fire in Rangoon last July 19.

U Saw, a leader of the Myochit party, was found guilty of abetting the slayings. He has not filed for permission to appeal his conviction to the Supreme Court.

His execution is to be at Insein jail, the scene of his trial last year. Condemned to die with him are eight Myochit party men.

U.S., China Aides Honor Slain Gandhi

Rangoon, Burma, March 20 (AP)—The Ambassadors of the United States and China and other foreign representatives today placed wreaths in Bandoola Square, where an urn holds part of Mohandas K. Gandhi's ashes.

Some ashes of the assassinated India religious leader will be immersed in Rangoon waters tomorrow.

Australian To Leave Japan

Tokyo, March 20 (AP)—Patrick Shaw, head of the Australian mission in Japan, plans to leave for Australia shortly, but will return sometime in April.

Draper Arrives In Japan

Tokyo, March 20 (AP)—William H. Draper, Under Secretary of the Army, and his staff arrived from the United States today, but gave no details of their prospective economic survey of Japan.

India May Make Delhi Dry

NEW DELHI, March 20 (AP).—The twin cities of Old and New Delhi have seventy-three liquor shops, yielding an annual excise revenue of 42,359,739 rupees a year (about $13,000,000), said Finance Minister R. K. S. Chetty in the Indian Parliament. He added that the government is considering introducing prohibition in New Delhi, the Indian capital.

Geneva Press Freedom Parley

Lake Success, N.Y., March 20 (AP)—Working newspapermen will have their innings in the struggle for freedom of information at the world conference opening in Geneva Tuesday.

For perhaps the first time in the history of newspapers, editors and reporters will sit down on equal footing with diplomats and censors at a council table and talk over their problems.

The issues will be thrashed out at the United Nations conference on freedom of information meeting in the capital of the old League of Nations.

The newspapermen, the diplomats and the United Nations acknowledge that the world conference cannot do anything binding. It cannot bind any country or any newspapermen by any decision.

Proposed Two Years Ago

But the United Nations people and some delegates are going to Geneva with the expressed hope that the actions of the conference eventually will be given force, either by United Nations resolutions or by individual governments.

All 57 members of the United Nations and thirteen nonmembers were invited to the conference.

This meeting has been in the mill more than two years. It was proposed first at the London United Nations Assembly by the Philippines.

The United Nations took particular pains to see that persons directly concerned with freedom of information were included in the delegation. The United Nations Assembly specified that delegates shall include in each instance persons actually engaged or experienced in press, radio, motion picture and other media for the dissemination of information. Five delegates and five alternates were allotted for each nation.

Benton Heads U.S. Delegation

The United States sent a delegation headed by William Benton, a public relations man and former Assistant Secretary of State.

Benton has with him as delegates: Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, Zechariah Chafee, Jr., professor of jurisprudence, Harvard University Law School; Harry Martin, president of the American Newspaper Guild, and Sevellon Brown, editor and publisher of the Providence (R.I.) Journal and Bulletin.

Alternates on the United States delegation are: John Carter Vincent, United States Minister to Switzerland; Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, executive vice president of the Houston Post and former head of the WAC; Walter Graebner, European director of Time-Life International; Frank McCarthy, European manager of the Motion Picture Association of America; Howard K. Smith, chief European correspondent of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

U.N. Subcommission

Chafee helped prepare for the conference as a member of the United Nations subcommission on freedom of information and of the press.

The Russians and the Chinese have not yet turned in the names of their delegates but United Nations officials expect them to be represented in full force.

Britain is sending Hector McNeil, Minister of State and a former Glasgow reporter, as top delegate.

Britain's delegation will include A. R. K. MacKenzie, advisor to the British delegation here who sat on the subcommission in the absence of Robert J. Cruickshank, editor of the London News-Chronicle.

Other Delegates

Jean Le Tourneau, former Minister of Communications and director of the MRP party newspaper L'Aube, will head the French delegation.

With him will be Vladimir D'Ormesson, French Ambassador to Argentina and former political reporter for the newspaper Le Figaro; Gerard Jouve, Socialist deputy and former head of the French news agency; Colonel Felix, Rightist, president of the National Assembly Commission on the Press ("Colonel Felix" is the name inscribed in parliamentary records by Jacques Chombart de Lauwe, of the Republican Party of Liberty, or P.R.L); Huttin Desgraves, member of the Chamber of Deputies; Albert Bavet, president of the French Newspaper Guild; Herbert Beuve Mery, director of the semi-official afternoon newspaper Le Monde; Claude Bellenger, director of the newspaper Parisien Libere; Paul Louis Bret, head of the French Government news agency; Raymond Offrey, press spokesman for the Foreign Office; Roger Vaurs, press spokesman for Georges Bidault, Foreign Minister.

The chief Argentine delegate is Emilio D. Cipolletti, Under Secretary for information in the offices of President Perón.

The Philippines sent a former Manila editor, Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo, permanent Philippine Delegate to the United Nations.

With Romulo went Salvador P. Lopez, a member of the subcommission on freedom of information and of the press.

The head of Sweden's delegation is Ambassador Erik Boheman. The Union of South Africa is sending Maj. Gen. F. H. Theron, Minister to Rome.

Both Sweden and South Africa also are sending a number of newspapermen in the delegations.

Benjamin Cohen, assistant secretary general in charge of the department of public information, is representing Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, at the conference.

The meeting is expected to continue about five weeks.

World Trade Talks In Havana

Havana, March 20 (AP)—A trade charter will be offered next week to a world in economic turmoil.

They call it the Havana Charter. Its authors believe it will help solve nations' quarrels over trade. In that case, they think other agencies of the United Nations can keep countries from fighting shooting wars.

Whether it succeeds or fails, they say, will depend on two things:

1. Formal adoption by the nations of the world.
2. Ability and good faith in putting its principles into effect.

To Vote On Charter

A final act of the United Nations Trade Conference will be to vote on the charter. The conference is scheduled to adjourn in the next four days.

The deep-seated disagreements which have marked many of the conference's discussions carried over into the final few days. A twenty-nation interim commission was elected today but Argentina declined to serve on it and refused to take part in voting on its membership. Bolivia followed Argentina's lead.

Eric Wyndham White, an official of the United Nations at Lake Success, was elected executive secretary of the commission. He has been executive secretary of the conference.

Three Main Purposes

Dr. Diego Luis Molinari, chief of the Argentine delegation, said he would disclose Monday whether Argentina would sign the charter itself.

The charter, about which peoples of the world may hear much in the next few years, has three main purposes:

To promote world trade, improve living standards, and keep men employed.

The code says in plain language what trade practices are beneficial or harmful. Nations adopting the charter pledge themselves to help establish good practices and discontinue bad ones as soon as possible.

Open To All Nations

It creates the International Trade Organization, known as ITO. This would be a new agency of the United Nations, something in the nature of a club, or trade association. Its membership, however, would be open to every nation. Members would tell ITO about trade problems, work together toward eliminating bad practices and call on ITO in some cases to settle their misunderstandings before they become quarrels.

The charter itself is not light reading. It deals with technical matters such as customs charges, tariffs, quotas, currency problems and the like. To a large extent it is a legal document.

Every important trading nation in the world—60 in all—except Russia and Spain had a hand in the charter. Russia and most of the nations that have fallen under Communist domination refused to participate in the conference. Spain, read out of the United Nations chiefly at Russia's insistence, was not invited.

A place was left for Russia on the executive board of the ITO the charter creates. Czechoslovakia and Poland took an active part in the Havana discussions.

Spain's future with respect to the ITO is uncertain.

Another—and greater—problem facing the charter is the time of its birth. It appears when commerce is in the most confused state in history.

The war left many factories in Europe and Asia in ruins. The Red Army took many industrial plants to Russia.

There are shortages of machines, tools, production, transport, food, and other things.

Have Currency Problems

Most nations of the world are having currency problems. War upset their trade and production. They are finding it difficult to get acceptable foreign currencies to pay for the goods they need.

These are a few of the problems of a world in this period of political and economic uncertainty.

The charter had to take these things into account.

Its authors foresee the day when nations exchange goods with each other in the greatest freedom.

Whether the charter is the tool with which to do the job is yet to be decided by the peoples and nations of the world.

On the success of their efforts, in one way or another, may depend jobs, standards of living, and whether the world is to be at peace or at war.

TRUSTEESHIP ONLY U.N. HOPE TO MARSHALL

Urges Arab And Palestine Recommendation, General Says

Los Angeles, March 20 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, said tonight that the United States proposal for a temporary United Nations trusteeship for Palestine "is the only suggestion thus far presented which appears to offer any basis for action by the United Nations to meet the existing situation in Palestine."

In a statement released here, the Secretary said:

"I recommended it to the President and he approved my recommendation."

The United Nations was faced, said Marshall, with the prospect that no successor government will be in position to maintain law and order on May 15 when Great Britain abandons its mandate.

Within U.N. Framework

"A truce is essential," said the Secretary. "A military truce can not be achieved under existing circumstances without a parallel truce in the political field. A political truce, however, would bring us up to May 15 without elementary arrangements for keeping order."

The Secretary said the United States suggestion is that a temporary trusteeship should be established in order to maintain the peace while a settlement is being reached.

Marshall reaffirmed "the United States is not going to act unilaterally in the matter," but will seek a solution for Palestine within the framework of the United Nations.

Barred By Council

Marshall emphasized that the United States had "explored every possibility of a peaceful implementation" of the Palestine partition plan which was set up last autumn in the United Nation General Assembly.

"We sought to have the Security Council accept the plan," said Marshall, but "this it refused to do on March 5."

The Secretary said that consultations among the five principal powers also failed to develop any agreement on how the partitioning plan might proceed. He said that informal consulations with other members of the Security Council made it clear that the Council would not now pass a resolution to put the plan into effect.

U.S. Decisive Factor

Earlier Marshall told a university audience that "the decisive factor for good in the present circumstances of Europe will be the action of the United States."

"In the world-wide struggle now taking place," he said in a Charter Day address at the University of California's Los Angeles campus, "the United States cannot stand aloof and see the other free nations destroyed one by one."

And he warned: "Every day of delay increases not only the risks of failure but also the probable total cost of achieving our objective."

Advantage With Dictators

"Unquestionably, the initial advantage lies with the dictators," Marshall said. "A small group of men make decisions affecting the lives of millions, and these decisions are put into effect by a network extending throughout Europe.

"The controlled press carries on a calculated campaign of propaganda and misrepresentation, the people are over awed and active opposition is terrorized or destroyed."

Experience has shown that the democracies, "once aroused to concerted action, possess the material and spiritual strength to overcome the initial advantage of the dictator," he added.

He referred to the development of the pending European recovery plan, first proposed almost a year ago, and said:

"This is all a part of the democratic process—the very thing we are striving to preserve. But in this particular situation, if the process is unduly prolonged, the time advantage enjoyed by dictatorial governments is greatly increased and we have lost ground to recoup, once we are able to take effective action."

The Secretary cited agreements among five European nations for joint action and among the sixteen countries that have accepted the recovery program as "concrete evidences of the determination of the free peoples of Europe to organize to defend themselves against aggression and subversion at the same time they devote their energies to a co-operative task of rehabilitation."

Tyranny Shall Be Checked

"We know here and abroad," he added, "that the Soviet Union and the Communist parties of Europe will go to extreme lengths to defeat the recovery and the revival of a strong, democratic and independent Europe.

"Despite their aggressive opposition, we and the western nations of Europe are determined that recovery shall be achieved, that tyranny of government shall be checked and that the people who wish to govern themselves shall remain free to do so."

Only Interruption

Applause greeted this remark from the 7,500 listeners who filled the Greek theater to about three-fourths of its capacity. It was the only time his address was interrupted.

At the conclusion of his prepared speech, General Marshall voiced a personal plea for a better understanding of the spiritual side of the problem in western Europe.

Text of Marshall's Call for Resolute Action by U. S.

LOS ANGELES, March 20—(AP)—Following is the text of an address by Secretary of State Marshall at the University of California today:

Yesterday I expressed my appreciation of the honor accorded me by the invitation of the University of California to participate in the charter day celebration. I referred there to my brief contacts with the University of Berkeley. I am sorry to say I have had no previous contact with the university in Los Angeles.

I also mentioned that for a number of years I had been deeply interested in educational procedures. You may not have realized it, but effective and expeditious instructional procedure has been a very important requirement imposed by our military policy—a policy which has always involved the hasty development of military forces after the arrival of the emergency. Your tremendous plant, instructional procedure and large student body are, therefore, of great interest to me, particularly during these days when so many former service men are students in the colleges and universities.

In mentioning this interest yesterday, I commented on the fact that at Amherst last June I addressed a graduating class of which 80 per cent were veterans, and the experience there has led me to speculate regarding the future effect on this country of a citizenship dominated by men and women who have seen much of the world, not hurriedly, but intimately for years at a time; have had their own characters tested by the hardships and dangers to which they were exposed. This broad experience, followed later by a college or university education at a mature age, will be productive of a new brand of citizen, whose wisdom and foresight may avoid the dangers of our past mistakes.

Sees Urgent Action Essential

Turning to the European situation, the President's message to the Congress three days ago, coming close after momentous developments in Europe, emphatically impressed on the American people the seriousness of the present situation. The recommendations of the President demonstrate as nothing else could that urgent and resolute action by the United States is necessary if we are to safeguard our own security and protect the civilization of which we are a part.

In this connection, I wish to draw your special attention to the fact that no nation in modern history has ever occupied a position of responsibility comparable to that of this country today nor has any country had such vast responsibility thrust upon it in so short a time.

In the past, nations have risen to positions of leadership through a gradual process over a period of years usually measured in centuries. This has allowed for a commensurate growth of national understanding of what such responsibility entails. We in this country have been given no such opportunity. In a single decade the United States has been projected into a position involving responsibility greater, perhaps, than any nation in modern history.

Before this abrupt transition, we could indulge our prejudices and feelings regarding foreign relations with the knowledge that what we said or even did would not be an immediately determining factor in one situation or another. Foreign affairs were of secondary importance to our people. We could afford the role of critic, which is for those who do not bear immediate and primary responsibility for the development of events.

We enjoyed the great advantage of having strong friends who not only shared our concept of civilization but, being close to the scenes of trouble, furnished the first line of defense of our common society.

Says Responsibility Is Ours

Those democratic nations formed a strong buffer between the United States and the hostile or unfriendly purpose of aggressive nations.

The world scene today is vastly different. We did not suffer the destruction which was visited upon others in the last war. They have been greatly weakened, some all but destroyed. We, on the other hand, have emerged from that struggle stronger economically than ever before and, in relation to the world, far stronger.

This position of preeminence demands on our part a full realization of the degree to which future events depend upon what we say and upon what we do. We can no longer count upon others to carry the initial burden of safeguarding our civilization. They will share our burdens, but the primary responsibility is now clearly ours. The fact is, the decisive factor for good in the present circumstances of Europe will be the action of the United States.

It is now clearly evident that mankind is engaged once more in the age-old struggle between freedom and tyranny, between independence and subjugation, and nowhere is the issue more clearly drawn than in Europe.

Unquestionably, the initial advantage lies with the dictators. A small group of men make decisions affecting the lives of millions, and these decisions are put into effect by a network extending throughout Europe. The controlled press carries on a calculated campaign of propaganda and misrepresentation, the people are overawed and active opposition is terrorized or destroyed.

In the worldwide struggle now taking place, the United States cannot stand aloof and see the other free nations destroyed one by one.

Points to Dangers in Delay

How can men relying upon the democratic processes successfully defend themselves against the calculated and sudden action of dictators? Experience has proved that the democracies, once aroused to concerted action, possess the material and spiritual strength to overcome the initial advantage of the dictator. But a late awakening to danger, failure to act promptly, add immeasurably to the costs of ultimate success.

The present situation is a case in point. By the power of our decision we can strengthen the free nations of Europe in the defense of their freedom. Every day of delay increases not only the risks of failure, but also the probable total cost of achieving our objective.

Almost a year ago I advanced the proposal that has taken form as the European Recovery Program. Sixteen nations responded to the suggestion by meeting in Paris and agreeing on a coordinated program for self-help and mutual help. There was absolutely no dictation from us as to which nations would or would not participate in the program. The original suggestion applied to all. The sixteen nations which voluntarily associated themselves together drew up their own commitments and proposals, which were submitted to us last September. Independent studies of the problem were made in this country by groups of distinguished citizens and the estimates of the Paris conference were carefully reviewed. After thorough study of the matter, the executive branch submitted specific recommendations to the Congress in December.

Extensive hearings were conducted by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the measure was fully debated and discussed in the Senate, which last week gave its approval by an overwhelming vote. Now the matter is under final consideration by the House Committee and will then be debated by the House itself before legislative action is completed.

For Swift Adoption of Bill

After that, much the same procedure will be repeated on the bills actually appropriating funds to carry out the program.

This is all part of the "democratic processes"—the very thing we are striving to preserve. But in this particular situation if the process is unduly prolonged, the time advantage enjoyed by dictatorial governments is greatly increased and we have more lost ground to recoup once we are able to take effective action. Incidentally, the present indications are that the House of Representatives intends to move rapidly to a decision.

As the President stated to the Congress Wednesday, the first requirement for the defense of Europe is speedy enactment of the recovery program. This is wholly an economic endeavor, but its effects will extend far beyond the economic sphere. The whole organization of Western Europe will be reinforced and bulwarked against the advances of communism.

Already the mere prospect of American assistance has led Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg to conclude a formal agreement for joint action extending over the next fifty years. The sixteen countries that elected to participate in the recovery program are developing a continuing organization for close cooperation along the lines they have set for themselves.

These are concrete evidences of the determination of the free peoples of Europe to organize to defend themselves against aggression and subversion at the same time they devote their energies to a cooperative task of rehabilitation. They should be assured of our complete understanding and support in their great effort. They must know that they are firmly backed by a united, alert and strong America. The President in his message spoke for the nation, I feel sure, in giving them that assurance.

Urges No Unwise Spending

We now know here and abroad that the Soviet Union and the Communist parties of Europe will go to extreme lengths to defeat the recovery and the revival of a strong, democratic and independent Europe. Despite their aggressive opposition, we and the western nations of Europe are determined that recovery shall be achieved, that tyranny of government shall be checked and that the peoples who wish to govern themselves shall remain free to do so.

As to our relation to the entire world situation, the critical problem for us is: Just where and how we should exert our influence? In Europe, in the Middle East, in Indonesia, in China? What about Latin America and our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea? Very important decisions must be made by this Government as to exactly what we should do to meet these various situations. Our means are not unlimited, we must not spend our efforts unwisely.

I remarked yesterday that I find the present situation very similar to that with which I labored as Chief of Staff. I watched the Nazi Government take control of one country after another until finally Poland was invaded in a direct military operation. For several years I had to withstand heavy pressures from the governmental officials or our representatives in various sections of the world for assistance or support, without regard to our pathetically limited resources then available in this country. After our entry into the war these pressures greatly increased in the demand for support of both men and material to an extent which, if met, would have rendered us ineffective on almost every field of action.

Calls for Prompt Judgment

This situation continued up to the time of our landings in Normandy, and even after the liberation of France heavy pressure was brought to bear regarding our forces in Italy and the Western Pacific.

I find myself in the very situation today that I was in during the war years and the decisions are just as difficult and just as important. I must keep in mind that, rich and powerful as we are, we cannot afford to disperse our efforts to a degree which not only might seriously weaken us but would render all our efforts ineffective. Every region has its claims and its proponents and it is therefore necessary to reach a firm decision on the general strategy to be employed, economic or otherwise, having in mind the entire situation.

It is difficult to make plain the facts of the situation without arousing the emotions of our people to a point where anger or fear might lead us into hasty or unwise decisions. It is important that we judge the situation and the issues in a very sober fashion and then come to a definite conclusion with the firm determination to stand by that conclusion without hesitation or vacillation. If there ever was a time for cool judgment, it is today. But it must be a prompt judgment, a courageous judgment.

The unity of our people at this time is of the greatest importance. War times, in a sense, compelled unity, but it is unity in a peacetime effort to prevent war that is now necessary. If we can keep all considerations regarding our international problem above the turmoil of a Presidential campaign, we will demonstrate that unity essential to resolute action and will justify our position of acknowledged leadership. The President has made his appeal. The Senate has pointed the way. Let every American do his part to demonstrate in this great crisis that we are truly a great people, citizens of the world.

Stassen Calls U.S. Palestine Policy Change 'Disgraceful'

St. Paul, March 20 (AP)—Harold Stassen tonight called United States moves to give up Palestine partition a disgraceful countermarch in our foreign policy in the Palestine situation.

Stassen is a candidate for the Republican nomination for president. He made the statement in a speech before a public rally following the Republican state convention.

"A confused change is proposed to the Security Council for the amazing reason that lawless Arab resistance to the United Nations decision persists. What an invitation to international anarchy that turns out to be.

Censures Foreign Policy

"It is distressing and saddening to observe that the characteristic of our present Administration's foreign policy appears to be that when a decision is needed there is delay and confusion; that when finally made it is established in secret; that when it is exposed, bipartisan support is requested, and finally when it is understood it is abruptly reversed.

"I plead the urgent necessity of an open presentation to the American people of the true facts of the world situation, of genuine bipartisan discussion and constructive agreement, and then firm support and implementation on a basis of the great moral principles on which America is founded."

The convention was called to complete Minnesota's delegation of 25 to the National Republican Convention. Eighteen Stassen-pledged delegates were chosen earlier in district meetings. Seven at-large delegates were elected today.

"I want to report to you, with humility," Stassen said early in his talk, "that the prospects are bright today that the people of America will do in 1948 what the people of Minnesota did in 1938." Stassen was elected governor of Minnesota.

The next eight years, the former Governor said, will be years which will try men's souls.

Discusses U.S. Outlook

"They will be years which will determine whether we can win through for the fundamental principles of freedom of men without the tragedy of World War III," he said.

"They will be years which will determine whether we can maintain, amid all the advances of modern science, the dynamics of a free economy without the suffering of depression crashes.

"It is my humble belief that both of these objectives can be realized. It is to them that I have dedicated my total efforts. It appears to me that the only hope of progress toward these objectives is through a constructive and forward looking program carried on by a Republican national administration of the affairs of our nation."

Truman Gets 100 Words, Wallace 1,500, in Moscow

By The Associated Press.

MOSCOW, March 20—President Truman's address to Congress Wednesday did not get prominent display in the Moscow press. But the radio speech of Henry A. Wallace last night did.

The President's message was covered in about a hundred words.

Today Moscow's dailies devoted about 1,500 words to Mr. Wallace's reply to Mr. Truman.

Both Izvestia, Soviet Government newspaper, and Pravda, organ of the Communist party, quoted Mr. Wallace's speech almost in its entirety.

These papers also reported criticism of Mr. Truman's speech by Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's Communist chief, and Konni Zilliacus, Leftist Labor member of the British Parliament.

U.S. Asks Russia To Stop 'Voice' Radio Jamming

Mysterious Transmitters Are Blocking Out Far East Relay From Philippines

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The United States is asking the Soviet Union to stop jamming the Voice of America broadcasts destined for eastern Russia and the Orient, the State Department announced today. The department said it is instructing Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith at Moscow to ask the Soviet government to take "effective remedial measures."

The announcement was made after reports had been received from Manila telling of mysterious radio transmitters that have been blacking out the American broadcasts during the last three weeks. Sources at American Occupation Headquarters in Tokyo confirmed the reports, but as far as they know the jamming transmitters have not yet been located.

A State Department statement said:

"Since the end of February, reports have been reaching the department of unusual interference on its radio relay of the Voice of America broadcasts in that (Far Eastern) area. These reports indicate that the interference is concentrated during the period when the department's relay system is carrying the Russian language program beamed to the Far East over its Manila and Honolulu relay stations.

"The department is calling the attention of the Soviet government to these circumstances and is instructing Ambassador Smith to request that effective remedial measures be taken."

The jamming begins when United States Information Service Russian language broadcasts from New York start up. These are beamed for the powerful information service radio station at Malolos, twenty-four miles northwest of Manila. Malolos then relays the broadcasts on to the Orient. The Malolos station has been in operation since last September. The jamming is so thorough and so many transmitters are used that experts suspect some of them may be aboard ships at sea.

It was not clear from the information available here whether the jamming is done because of a desire to prevent the information in the broadcasts from reaching Far Eastern listeners or whether the interfering transmitters object to the use of various frequencies for the voice of America programs.

Information reported to the State Department on the Far Eastern situation indicates the stations which are doing the jamming are in eastern Siberia. Officials said this is the first time since the war there has been any evidence of deliberate interference with American radio broadcasts. The State Department has not received any reports of jamming of "voice" broadcasts to European Russia.

Jamming is a common practice between enemy nations in war time.

Radio frequencies are registered at Berne, Switzerland, under an international agreement originally made at Cairo. In 1932-33, one informant said, the Russians registered at Berne for every conceivable frequency they could, regardless of whether they planned to avail themselves of them.

Senators Delay Action On Aid

Washington, March 20 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today postponed action until Monday on the $570,000,000 China aid bill.

Chairman Vandenberg (R., Mich.) said Secretary of State Marshall is being recalled to testify Monday at a closed meeting.

Vandenberg said the committee talked over the measure but arrived at no decision.

He did not comment on the action of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, splitting China aid into $420,000,000 for economic relief, and $150,000,000 for military supplies.

House Debate Tuesday

The Senate group has not indicated whether it plans to set aside any money for military aid to China. But it has approved a $275,000,000 military-help measure for Greece and Turkey.

The House is expected to begin debate Tuesday on a $6,205,000,000 single-package foreign-aid measure.

Its Foreign Affairs Committee has approved the bill which includes the European recovery program, military help for Greece, Turkey and China, and additional economic aid for China. It also provides $60,000,000 for the United Nations International Children's Fund.

Pressure has been on all week to push the foreign-aid programs through Congress.

Swifter Action Is Due

And the drive is on for swifter action. Congressional and Administration leaders want final action on foreign aid as early as possible before the April 18 Italian elections—in which ERP might be one of the most potent weapons against the Communists.

For an up-to-the-minute report on conditions in Europe, the House committee called Lewis Douglas, Ambassador to Britain, into a closed session.

The committee approved its single-package foreign-aid bill late yesterday, 15 to 0. That was a day ahead of the deadline that Republican leaders had set for committee action.

SENATE UNCERTAIN OVER DRAFT, UMT

Majority of Members in Poll Are Undecided and Seeking More Light on Proposals

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)—A majority of Senators remain to be convinced that Congress should write into law President Truman's proposals for universal military training and revival of the draft. This was shown today by an Associated Press poll of ninety-one of the ninety-six Senators.

The survey disclosed that some form of selective service has relatively a better chance of Senate passage than UMT. The training proposal got more support, but more opposition, among those willing to give their views publicly.

The results were as follows:

UMT—32 favorable, 12 opposed, 47 undecided or noncommittal.

Draft—31 favorable, 3 opposed, 57 undecided or noncommittal.

Twenty Republicans and eleven Democrats were willing to say publicly that they favor some kind of draft law, if it is found to be necessary. Two Republicans and one Democrat announced their opposition.

On UMT the Democrats willing to come out in the open in support outnumbered the Republicans 17 to 15. Seven Republicans and five Democrats said publicly they are opposed.

More Testimony Awaited

This did not represent the full strength, however, of those willing to back the President's proposals. Four Democratic Senators who insisted on being listed publicly as undecided told reporters they will vote for both.

When the poll was taken, Senator Robert A. Taft, Republican, of Ohio, was noncommittal on the question of the draft, but he said today at Springfield, Ohio:

"If it can be shown that there is no other way in which to get the men necessary for the force determined to be essential for defense, there seems no escape from setting up temporarily the selective draft machinery."

He is opposed to universal military training.

Among the Senators who were unwilling to go on record, on one or both of the issues, most said they want to hear more about the need for increasing the military forces than they learned from President Truman's address to Congress last week or from the testimony of Secretary of State George C. Marshall and Secretary of Defense James Forrestal.

Mr. Marshall and Mr. Forrestal will go before the Senate Armed Services Committee Monday afternoon in a closed session in an effort to fill in some of the gaps.

A majority of the ninety-one polled said they want to do what is necessary to keep this country's military strength at par in the face of Russian encroachments in Europe.

But many of those who gave public support to the draft and UMT, or both, attached their own conditions. Many said they would support one, but not both, of the proposals.

Statements of Views

Senator Burnet R. Maybank, Democrat, of South Carolina, a member of the Armed Services Committee, said:

"I'll vote for the best possible draft system to defend the United States, eliminating the boys who fought the battles of World War II. But if we have selective service, I don't see much sense in having universal military training too."

Some Democrats, including Senators J. Howard McGrath, Democrat, of Rhode Island, his party's national chairman, Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico, Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island and James O. Eastland of Mississippi, said they will vote for both.

Other senators cited certain conditions under which they would vote for one or both.

Senator Edward J. Thye, Republican of Minnesota, a supporter of Harold E. Stassen, Presidential aspirant, said he will vote for either or both if the Armed Services Committee recommends them.

Senator Henry C. Dworshak, Republican of Idaho, said he is against UMT but will support the draft "if the need is as acute as represented." Senator E. H. Moore, Republican of Oklahoma, had about the same slant.

Senator Homer E. Capehart, Republican of Indiana, said:

"I won't hesitate on a temporary draft, if, in the opinion of the President war is imminent, but I want more information before saddling the nation with UMT for the next 100 years."

Results of the Polling

In the poll the Senators willing to express opinions were recorded as follows:

TEMPORARY DRAFT

FAVORABLE—31

Republicans—20
Baldwin	Dworshak	McCarthy
Ball	Ecton	Moore
Buck	Flanders	Reed
Butler	Ives	Thye
Cain	Knowland	Watkins

Congress Talks Up Draft Law Compromise

MAR 1948

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Talk of a compromise draft law—registering men without an immediate call to arms—grew in volume today on Capitol Hill.

One Democratic leader said a compromise might be the only draft measure Congress would approve.

President Truman appealed for prompt passage of a temporary draft measure to fill the gaps in military manpower until a universal military training system can be set up—Congress willing.

The lawmaker, in discussing the possible draft law outcome, talked about registering all men 18 through 25 not now on wartime draft rolls, but with no actual draft call unless the armed forces proved unable to fill their quotas with voluntary enlistments.

Ferguson Favors Compromise

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) observed that such a compromise "sounds reasonable because then we could study the facts as to whether the men are actually needed."

Some congressional leaders deplored Mr. Truman's tactics in asking for both the draft and universal training.

One ardent supporter of U.M.T. said the double request may have killed the long-range training program.

"A lot of senators and representatives have been on the fence on U.M.T.," he said. "This will give them a chance to duck and dodge by voting for a temporary draft."

Gurney Asks Facts, Figures

Even Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said "we have not had enough facts and actual details presented to us."

Gurney said his committee has asked Secretary of State Marshall and Secretary of Defense Forestal to return "late Monday afternoon with facts and figures for a closed hearing."

The Republican policy committee decided yesterday to let Gurney's committee continue its hearings before trying to decide priority in the Senate for either the draft or U.M.T.

2,156,000 Subject To Call

Meanwhile, a check of National Guard and reserve forces showed 2,156,000 men who could join the 1,392,000 now under arms if war comes.

Presidential action would be necessary to summon the guard to Federal duty in this nation. Congress would have to approve its going overseas. And Congress would have to consent before reserves could be called up against their will.

Any decision Congress makes on the draft or U.M.T. will take into consideration the availability of the citizen soldiers in the National Guard and reserves.

Data Given On 5 Sources

These men are in various stages of readiness. National Guard units have full equipment and train weekly. Air and naval reservists keep in trim with brief workouts.

Here are the civilian components to which the country could look for quick help in a war:

National Guard — Present strength, 226,000 men and officers; to be increased to 271,000 by next June 30. The present force is made up of 206,000 ground troops and about 20,000 airmen.

Air Force Reserve—232,694 officers and men, of which 98,000 officers are pilots.

Army Reserve — 665,000, of which 440,000 are enlisted men.

Organized Naval Reserve—952,000, of which 662,000 are enlisted men.

Marines — Approximately 80,000 reserves.

The Army made plain it doesn't consider the 10,022,367 men drafted in World War II as reserves subject to recall. It has said that army personnel and legal experts believe special legislation would be needed to recall those men.

Taft To Support Draft Only As Last Resort

Springfield, Ohio, March 20 (AP). Senator Robert A. Taft declared today that he would favor a temporary selective draft if other methods for obtaining armed-services manpower could be proved inadequate.

The Senator, appearing here in his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, outlined a five-point program which he said embraced essentials of an adequate national defense.

The points were:

1. An administration determined to preserve a peace consistent with freedom.

2. A unified and efficient Army and Navy of the size necessary for defense.

3. Adequate research and intelligence services.

4. An up-to-date Air Force stronger than any other in the world.

5. A well-planned practical system of providing reserves in reasonable amount for national defense.

Reiterates Opposition

The Senator, in his first public speech since President Truman last Wednesday called for universal military training and a temporary selective service, said of the armed services' manpower needs:

"If it can be shown that there is no other way in which to get the men necessary for the force determined to be essential for defense, there seems no escape from setting up temporarily the selective-draft machinery."

He reiterated his opposition to universal military training, but told his audience, the Clark County Women's Republican Organization, that he had favored every proposal to provide an adequate defense.

Challenges Marshall Charge

Taft challenged Secretary of State Marshall's assertion that the national defense is a shell.

"If this were true," the Senator said, "it is a final indictment of an administration" to which Congress has given $10,500,000,000 for defense.

TAFT WANTS LEGAL TEETH IN U.N. CHARTER

Senator Would Rewrite It; Calls Council Action One Of 'Expediency'

MAR 1948

Middletown, Ohio, March 20 (AP). United States Senator Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) tonight urged that the United Nations Charter be rewritten with legal teeth in it.

In a speech at a Butler county Republican organization dinner, Taft declared the United Nations Security Council's present action is one of "policy and expediency rather than of law," with nothing to prevent the destruction of any nation.

Taft, a candidate for the Republican nomination for President, added, "We should proceed to sit down with all of those nations willing to do so and write a law governing the relations of nations with each other.

Follows Springfield Speech

"When that is done, we should agree on an interpretation of that law by an impartial tribunal and agree to abide by the decisions of that tribunal.

"The only hope of lasting peace in this world lies not so much in force as in the universal acceptance of the necessity of accepting decisions made by impartial courts set up to interpret a law of the nations."

Taft's speech here followed one at Springfield, where he expressed hope that the tension between this country and Russia would "remain a battle of ideology."

The two speeches were in congressional districts—Third and Seventh—where Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, also a candidate, is contending for Republican Convention delegates.

Opposes World Super-State

Taft declared a world super-state "would defeat the very purpose of our foreign policy—the freedom of our own people."

Interest in building an association of nations now, he continued, "has been subordinated by our concern about the policy adopted by the U.S.S.R."

30.24- 16399

"That policy prevents the establishment of any kind of world-wide association of nations and makes a smaller international association infinitely more difficult," he said.

"I do believe, however, that we should proceed to perfect the Charter of the United Nations along the lines in which you and I believe, and I will support a resolution to accomplish that purpose."

Sees House O.K. Of Senate Tax Cut

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP).—Representative Harold Knutson (R., Minn.) predicted today that the House would accept the Senate's $4,800,000,000 tax cut bill without change and send it to the White House Tuesday.

Knutson is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee which handles tax bills in the House.

The Senate votes on the bill at 5 P. M. (EST) Monday. Its passage was conceded in advance; the Republican sponsors are trying to line up a two-thirds majority or better on the final roll call.

The House voted for a $6,500,000,000 tax cut. Normally, a joint committee of Senators and Representatives would be appointed to adjust the differences in the two versions. But the sponsors expect President Truman to veto any tax reduction bill sent him, and figure they have a better chance to override a veto if the Senate figure is accepted.

A two-thirds vote in both Houses is required to make the measure law over the President's objections. The House passed its bill 297 to 120, a ratio of well over two-thirds.

Republican Senators believe they can roll up a comfortable two-thirds margin Monday. There remains the possibility they may not have such a margin when the veto is voted on.

The Senators based their prediction on the 58 to 26 tally by which they beat back an effort to restore the wartime excess profits tax on business.

Prober Alleges Lard Dealings By Insiders

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Representative Andresen (R., Minn.) said today that "certain Government people" bought lard just six days before big Federal purchase plans were disclosed.

Andresen said they will be called to explain. He is chairman of a House committee investigating commodity market speculation.

In a hot verbal skirmish with Representative Carroll (D., Col.), Andresen suddenly declared:

"It happens that certain Government people bought lard last September 4. That was six days before public announcement of the fact that the Government was going to double its purchases of lard for shipment overseas."

Charge Follows Protest

Andresen's statement came after Carroll had protested angrily that Andresen was "injecting innuendoes" into the hearing.

"If Government officials speculated, they should be called before the committee," Carroll said.

"They will be," Andresen snapped, "but first we want to get the facts."

Andresen said later that Edwin W. Pauley, former special assistant to Army Secretary Royall, was one of those who bought lard on September 4 but, he said:

"There were others."

Pauley's market operations were studied in a Senate investigation of commodity speculation by public officials some time ago. He contended that he never had or used inside Government information in his trading.

Lard Deal Related

Pauley told the senators of three years of speculation which netted him $932,703. One of his transactions was the purchase of 500,000 pounds of lard on September 3 for $91,000, and its sale within six weeks at a $28,475 profit.

Pauley joined the Army Department on September 3. He told the Senators that he began liquidating his trading operations at once. The lard purchase was one of a number of buying orders already entered and executed by his brokers, he explained.

G. L. Pritchard, chief of the Agriculture Department's fats and oils division, testified today that his staff made every effort to keep secret the Government's decision to double its purchases of lard.

85 Capies Distributed

"We had been told very definitely that it was confidential information and not to discuss it with anyone."

But, he added, "we were required" to send 85 copies of the secret data to a review board before it was made public September 10.

Andresen told Pritchard:

"I don't think you people at your level were responsible for the leak, but higher-ups may have passed the information on."

He asked Pritchard if Secretary of Agriculture Anderson was in Hawaii at the time the decision was made to double lard exports. It was established in the Senate investigation that Anderson was visiting Pauley at his Hawaii estate in August 1947. [Pauley denied emphatically that they had discussed commodity trading.]

Anderson Out Of Town

"All I know is that Mr. Anderson was out of town," Pritchard said.

"Did you receive any message, any telephone call or cable from Anderson while he was in Hawaii ordering you to increase overseas shipments of larr?" Carroll asked.

"No," Pritchard replied.

O. W. Herrmann, former chief of Pritchard's division, said he "never heard of Anderson making such a request at anytime."

82d Air-Borne Now Far From War-Time Peak

Only 150 Combat Veterans Still in Most Decorated Outfit in World War II

FORT BRAGG, N. C., March 20. (AP).—If America went to war tomorrow, what veteran outfits does it have ready to throw a punch?

There aren't many. One of the best is the famous 82d Air-Borne division, now back in training here at the "cradle of the air-borne force."

This "All America" paratroop and glider unit represented the Army in the 1946 victory parade in New York City and claims more battle decorations than any other United States division in the second world war.

It was an infantry outfit in the first World War and suffered 6,000 casualties in the Meuse-Argonne offensive alone. It had in its ranks such soldiers as a major called "Skinny" Wainwright and a Tennessee sergeant named Alvin York.

First Action in Sicily

General Omar Nelson Bradley, now Army Chief of Staff, commanded the 82d before it sprouted wings as the first full-fledged United States air-borne division.

Its men first "hit the silk" in combat when they parachuted down in Sicily in July, 1943, and the Germans immediately formed a grudging respect for "those devils in baggy pants."

In its next jump the 82d was called on to help save the imperilled 5th Army beachhead at Salerno. The "All Americans" leaped again to spearhead the ormandy invasion, and were later rushed up to bolster the 1st Army during the critical Battle of the Bulge. They made their final jump in Holland durring Field Marshall Montgomery's fruitless dash for the north German plain.

The swaggering 82d paratroopers ended the war with a record of having successfully completed every major mission assigned them.

But how "veteran" is this famous veteran fighting division today? How hard a punch could it throw?

Certainly it is nowhere near its war-time fighting peak. Most of the old men are gone. There are only 150 combat men left who saw service overseas—and an air-borne division numbers about 17,000 men at full strength.

Like the few other American divisions still activated, the 82d has the job now of training thousands of youngsters. And it is busy also testing new equipment and studying fresh techniques of warfare.

One innovation has been the incorporation of an all-Negro battalion in the division. With the exception of the battalion commander and his executive all officers are Negro.

This battalion is one of the snappiest on the post, and division officers are enthusiastic over its performance in training.

"The troops get along very well together," one officer said. "We haven't had a single case of violence between a white and Negro paratrooper."

Get Jump-Pay Differential

There has been no difficulty getting high caliber recruits for the Negro unit. One attraction is the pay differential for paratroopers. Enlisted men get $50 and officers $100 extra a month for jump duty.

Army promotions have recently removed many war-time leaders from the 82d, including Major General "Slim Jim" Gavin, its commander.

Another was Lieutenant Colonel Robert H. Wienecke, its chief of staff in Holland, who directed Exercise Snowdrop at Pine Camp, N. Y., this winter.

"I hate to leave the division," said Colonel Wienecke, a former Northwestern University football captain and Chicago insurance executive. "We all do."

The 82d has always been that kind of an outfit.

WORLD RULE PLAN MAPPED

Eleven Educators Draft Constitution For Government

Chicago, March 20 (AP)—Eleven United States educators today submitted their answer to the atomic age—a constitution for a world government.

They have been working on the document for two years. Although conceding the nations of the earth are not yet willing to "surrender sovereignty" in forming a workable world republic, the group predicted:

"Yet world government shall come . . . whether in five years or 50, whether with conflagration or after it."

Hutchins Heads Group

Headed by Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, the group carried out its project under the name of the Committee to Frame a World Constitution.

It has framed a charter which it says "should provide usable tracks for further study and discussion of the problem of world government, which is basically and ultimately the problem of the atomic age."

The constitution, which contains 48 articles, is patterned to a large extent after the American and British forms of government.

It provides for a world president, a one-chamber legislature, world courts, an armed force and a federal convention or electoral college.

World Electoral College

Here is how they would be chosen:

The world's voters would elect delegates to the federal convention (or electoral college) on the basis of one delegate for each 1,000,000 population, or fraction thereof above 500,000.

The delegates, who would represent nine prescribed geographical regions of the earth, would nominate from each region three candidates for president of the world.

The entire convention would then choose a president from the 27 nominees. It would also elect the 99 members of the unicameral legislature, which would be known as the world council and would serve as the world's lawmaking body.

Unlike U.S. System

Unlike the United States Constitution, the world charter provides that the world president shall [illegible] a chancellor, or legislative representative, who would in turn name the executive cabinet.

The chancellor would be subject to recall through two successive votes of the legislature, with the votes taken three months apart.

The president also would appoint — with legislative approval — 60 justices, for terms of fifteen years, to a so-called "grand tribunal," or judicial arm. The president himself would serve as chief justice.

The tribunal would elect seven members to a world supreme court.

"Tribune Of The People"

It also would form various lower courts, and five special functional benches set up to hear special types of international litigation.

Also in the judicial branch would be the office of the "tribune of the people," a sort of public defender named by the federal convention.

The job of this tribune, the constitution says, in part, is to "defend the natural and civil rights of individuals and groups against violation or neglect by the world government or any of its component units. . . ."

The world's armed force would be headed by the president and would be under control of a six-member civilian "chamber of guardians," elected for three-year terms by the legislature and the grand tribunal. No professional soldier could be a "guardian."

To Regulate Militias

The "guardians" would regulate sizes of member state militias (which would be comparable to United States National Guard units). They would also control the manufacture of arms above specified levels.

With concurrence of two-third votes of the legislature, the "guardians" could grant "extraordinary powers" to the world president to deal with emergencies.

In one section, it says:

"The four elements of life—earth, water, air, energy—are the common property of the human race. The management and use of such portions thereof as are vested in particular ownership . . . shall in all cases be subordinated to the common good."

However, the document emphasizes throughout the rights of individuals rather than rights of government, and sets up safeguards for specific freedoms, such as press, speech and assembly. It reserves to member states powers not specifically given the world government.

The committee, which holds that national sovereignty is the prime cause of war, says in an appendix to the constitution:

"If a world constitution is to be desirable and feasible alike, it must try a middle road, pointing to the survival of extant states in a framework of local initiatives . . . while depriving them of functions and powers which cannot be trusted to entities driven by nature and tradition to wreck any world union. . . ."

Committee Members

Besides Hutchins, framers of the harter included:

G. A. Borgese, Chicago University professor.

Mortimer Adler, Chicago law professor.

Stringfellow Barr, former president of St. John's College, Annapolis.

A. L. Guerard, Stanford University professor emeritus of literature.

Harold A. Innis, chairman of the University of Toronto department of political economy.

Erich Kahler, Cornell University visiting professor.

Wilber G. Katz, Chicago dean of law.

Charles H. McIlwain, Harvard University professor emeritus in government.

Robert Redfield, Chicago anthropologist.

Rexford Guy Tugwell, Chicago political science professor.

Under their plan the world government would be launched by a constitutional convention to be called by the United Nations General Assembly.

U.S. To 'Show The Flag' In Strategic Mid-East

New York, March 20 (AP)—When the United States aircraft carrier Valley Forge drops anchor in the Persian Gulf March 24, the United States will be "showing the flag" in a strategic area of the greatest importance.

After a three-day visit the 27,000-ton carrier and its two escorting destroyers will proceed around the Arabian Peninsula and up through the Red Sea and Suez Canal to the Mediterranean.

Officially, the Valley Forge and its escorts are en route from Tsingtao, China, to San Diego Cal.

F.D.R. Visit Recalled

Their stop at Ras Tanura, American-built refinery port near the vital United States-operated Damman oil fields, is the first such visit since 1945 when President Roosevelt received Ibn Saud, king of Saudi Arabia, aboard a Navy vessel on his way home from the Yalta conference.

Recently the Navy has been concerned about the possibility of trouble in Arabia, where nearly all the oil for the Pacific fleet is obtained. Tension over Palestine has caused fears for Arab-American relations, because of Arab resentment over United States support of the partition plan. However, Ibn Saud long has been friendly toward America, and reports say that he has kept his Arabs firmly in check during recent Mid-East disturbances. Nevertheless, he emphasizes his loyalty to the Arab League which currently is passing out guns for a "holy war" against the Palestine Jewish state.

U.S. Arabian Stake

The American stake in vast, arid Saudi Arabia is based on oil—an increasingly scarce commodity of which the Arabs have the greatest known reserves.

Back in 1933 the Standard Oil Companies of California, New Jersey and New York and the Texas Company made a deal with Ibn Saud which gave a subsidiary, the Arabian-American Oil Company, sole rights to oil exploitation in Saudi Arabia until 1993. This vast concession covers 450,000 square miles of desert which experts say may contain as much as 100,000,000,000 barrels of petroleum.

Already operations in Saudi Arabia have become the largest American oil enterprise outside the United States.

Dhahran Airfield

During the war a mighty airfield for heavy bombers, was started at Dhahran, in the center of the oil development. Completed after V-J Day, this base is visited almost daily by United States Superfortresses flying from Germany. Only 950 miles from the Soviet Kuban oilfields, it is regarded as of great possible value as a military outpost. By the terms of the wartime agreement this base is under United States control only until April 1, 1949. The Air Force hopes to extend this time, though Arabs are being trained to operate the field.

All this American activity has transformed the desert kingdom of Ibn Saud. His tremendous oil royalties, gifts and lend-lease handouts completely overshadow the tribute of Mohammedan pilgrims to Mecca, formerly the chief source of revenue in Saudi Arabia.

If anticipated oil reserves develop as expected, experts reckon that the barren kingdom may collect a total of $23,000,000,000 in royalties alone from the American firms.

Never, perhaps, has so much self-interest linked two countries of such differing cultures.

Berlin Editor Arrives In U.S.

New York, March 20 (AP)—The army civil affairs division announced today the arrival here of Erik Reger, editor in chief of Der Tagesspiegel, American-licensed Berlin newspaper. His trip is to cover final congressional action on the European Recovery Program.

2-Month-Old Flies To U.S. Unaccompanied

New York, March 20 (AP)—Jacques P. Hall, of London, a manly 2-months-old, arrived by plane today, unaccompanied. Described by airline officials as "the youngest child ever to fly the Atlantic unaccompanied," he is the son of Jacques and Madeleine Hall, who appear on the English variety stage.

Jacques was met by his grandmother, Mrs. O. J. Villere, of New Orleans, who said the child would remain with her until his parents came here in six months. His mother and father met in Alabama in 1941, while Hall was entertaining RAF troops there.

Stewardess Patricia Willkie said she fed Jacques his formula five times on the trip and he only cried when he was hungry.

Copper 'GI' Keeps Tab On Weather

Washington, March 20 (AP)—A copper "soldier" is reporting the weather atop 6,288-foot Mount Washington (N.H.) for the Army.

The 350-pound metal figure has under his copper skin a variety of gadgets to record temperature, wind, humidity and the amount of solar radiation.

From this information, the Army Quartermaster Corps said today, it is determining the amount of heat needed through clothing and other equipment in order to keep skin temperature at 92 degrees. This is the temperature at which man is comfortable, it said.

The Army said it likes this soldier "because he never complains about the army chow, has never asked for a week-end pass, and hasn't even bucked for corporal's stripes."

Illona Now To Stay In America; She's Married To A Veteran

Minneapolis, March 20 (AP)—Illona may stay in the United States. She will not be deported to her native Hungary. A newspaper columnist and a locomotive engineer have seen to that.

The railroader was the one she chose from 1,789 ex-GI's who proposed marriage within a week after Illona arrived in Minneapolis to wed a former soldier—and found him married.

Columnist Cedric Adams, of the Minneapolis Star, brought the engineer and girl together with a story of her disappointment in love and imminent deportation. He withheld her identity, calling her Illona.

Sent Money For Plane

Pretty, 22-year-old Illona attended a party in Salzburg, Austria, two years ago. There she met an American soldier, fell in love, and promised to marry him.

The soldier was ordered home three months later.

The soldier ultimately sent money for her plane passage. He posted bond necessary to bring her over. But it took seven months to arrange a visa.

Illona arrived in Minneapolis a month ago. When she met her intended husband he told her, "I've been married three months."

Illona was crushed. But she determined not to return to Europe.

"I cannot go back," she told Adams. "My family disapproved of my contemplated marriage from the beginning. We are in the Russian zone.

"I Am Now Their Enemy"

"The Communists have lists of people who fraternized with Americans. They have posted all who went to capitalistic America. I am now their enemy."

Marriage seemed to be the only way to avoid deportation.

The day Adams's story of the girl appeared in print, hundreds of telephone calls came in from former soldiers. Within a week there were 1,789 proposals, 2,000 pieces of mail, telegrams and gifts of candy, roses and cash.

Illona chose the railroad engineer. They were married in neighboring St. Paul and were honeymooning today. They will live in a small Minnesota town.

THE FRENCH COMPROMISE PROPOSAL ON TRIESTE WAS MADE AFTER MONTHS OF STALEMATE IN THE FOREIGN MINISTERS COUNCIL AND THE PARIS PEACE CONFERENCE IN WHICH RUSSIA FIRMLY BACKED YUGOSLAV CLAIMS TO THE CITY AND THE WESTERN POWERS AS RESOLUTELY SUPPORTED ITALIAN CLAIMS.

THE TREATY, RATIFIED BY THE BIG FOUR POWERS ON SEPT. 15, 1947, MADE THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL GUARANTOR OF THE FREE STATE'S SOVEREIGNTY. THE FOUR MAJOR POWERS, HOWEVER, NEVER HAVE BEEN ABLE TO AGREE UPON A GOVERNOR, AND THE CIVIL ADMINISTRATION NEVER HAS BEEN SET UP.

NIGHT LEAD TRIESTE
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, IN A SURPRISE MOVE, PROPOSED JOINTLY WITH FRANCE AND BRITAIN THAT THE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE BE RETURNED TO ITALY. THEY THEREBY PUT BOTH THE ITALIAN COMMUNISTS AND THEIR YUGOSLAV AND RUSSIAN BACKERS ON THE SPOT.

THE PROPOSAL WOULD REQUIRE A SURGICAL OPERATION ON THE SIX-MONTHS OLD ITALIAN PEACE TREATY. THAT TREATY SET UP THE 430 SQUARE MILE AREA BETWEEN ITALY AND YUGOSLAVIA AS AN INDEPENDENT STATE UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS.

TRIESTE, LONG A STORM CENTER, HAS BEEN COVETED BY BOTH THE ITALIANS AND BY THE YUGOSLAVS UNDER THE SOVIET-BACKED MARSHAL TITO.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID THAT THE PROPOSAL WAS AMONG THE SHREWDEST MOVES YET MADE TO TRY TO HELP THE ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES IN ITALY WIN THE APRIL 18 NATIONAL ELECTION. IT WAS NOT THE FIRST SUCH MOVE AND OFFICIALS SAID IT WOULD NOT BE THE LAST.

AT THE SAME TIME THE PROPOSAL WAS INTERPRETED AS THE SECOND ACTION WITHIN 24 HOURS TO BRING AMERICAN DIPLOMACY INTO LINE WITH THE "STOP RUSSIA" PROGRAM WHICH NOW DOMINATES WASHINGTON'S FOREIGN POLICY.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAVE GIVEN UP HOPE OF OPERATING TRIESTE AS A TRULY INDEPENDENT AREA UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE UN AND ARE ANXIOUS NOW TO SETTLE THIS ISSUE.

THUS THE TRIESTE MOVE WAS COMPARED BY OFFICIALS HERE TO THE DRAMATIC ABANDONMENT BY THE UNITED STATES YESTERDAY OF ITS SUPPORT FOR PARTITION OF PALESTINE. THE CONTENTION ON PARTITION WAS THAT IT DID NOT AFFORD A PEACEFUL AND WORKABLE SOLUTION FOR ONE OF THE GREAT PROBLEMS IN WHICH BOTH AMERICA AND RUSSIA ARE PRIMARILY CONCERNED.

MOST LAWMAKERS APPEARED SURPRISED AT THE TRIESTE ANNOUNCEMENT AND SAID THEY WANTED TO STUDY THE PROPOSAL BEFORE COMMENTING.

BUT SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) SAID "IT APPEARS TO BE A BIT OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS."

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) SAID THE ANNOUNCEMENT "JUST SHOWS HOW DEEP WE ARE NOW IN THE INTERNATIONAL POKER GAME."

THE ITALIAN AMBASSADOR HERE, ALBERTO TARCHIANI, EXPRESSED GRATITUDE "FOR WHAT THE UNITED STATES HAS DONE."

HE ADDED: "I KNOW THIS DECISION WILL BE WELCOMED BY THE GREAT MAJORITY OF THE INHABITANTS OF TRIESTE WHO NEVER WANTED TO BE SEPARATED FROM ITALY AND ALSO BY THE ITALIAN PEOPLE WHO WILL RECEIVE WITH JOY THIS VERY IMPORTANT NEWS."

THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT HERE AN HOUR AFTER THE FORMAL PROPOSAL REACHED THE RUSSIAN AND ITALIAN EMBASSIES. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAD DECIDED TO ACT AFTER TEN DAYS OF CONSULTATION UNDERTAKEN AT AN AMERICAN SUGGESTION.

TRIESTE WAS FOR MORE THAN A YEAR THE MAIN STUMBLING BLOCK BETWEEN THE GREAT POWERS IN THEIR EFFORTS TO WRITE AN ITALIAN PEACE TREATY. THE TREATY, WHICH FINALLY BECAME EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 15, CREATED THE FREE TERRITORY WITH ITS PORT CITY OF TRIESTE, AND ITS 330,000 PEOPLE OF BOTH ITALIAN AND SLAVIC DESCENT.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FREE TERRITORY HAD BEEN ORIGINALLY SUGGESTED BY THE FRENCH AS A COMPROMISE MEASURE IN ORDER TO GET SOME KIND OF ITALIAN TREATY WRITTEN. RUSSIA HAD CONSISTENTLY BACKED YUGOSLAV CLAIMS TO POSSESSION OF TRIESTE AND THE WESTERN POWERS UP TO THE FRENCH COMPROMISE HAD DEMANDED TRIESTE FOR ITALY.

AT THE TIME THE COMPROMISE DECISION WAS MADE, DIPLOMATS GENERALLY AGREED THAT IT NEVER WOULD WORK. THEY POINTED TO TRIESTE'S DANGEROUS LOCATION BETWEEN ITALY AND YUGOSLAVIA, AT THE SOUTHERN END OF THE IRON CURTAIN BETWEEN THE RUSSIAN WORLD AND THE WESTERN WORLD.

THE PEACE TREATY PROVIDED THAT YUGOSLAVIA AND THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN EACH SHOULD HAVE 5,000 TROOPS IN TRIESTE. THE TERRITORY WAS DIVIDED INTO TWO ZONES AND THE YUGOSLAVS OCCUPIED THE SOUTHERN ZONE BY THEMSELVES WHILE THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN SETTLED DOWN IN THE NORTHERN TERRITORY.

TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT ACCUSED THE YUGOAVS IN EFFECT OF VIOLATING THE ARRANGEMENT. IT SAID THAT "YUGOSLAVIA HAS TAKEN, IN THE ZONE UNDER HER CHARGE, MEASURES WHICH DEFINITELY COMPROMISE THE POSSIBILITY OF APPLYING THE STATUTE."

ILLEGAL YUGOSLAV ABSORPTION OF PART OF THE TRIESTE TERRITORY WAS GIVEN AS ONE OF TWO REASONS FOR THE PROPOSAL TO SCRAP THE WHOLE ARRANGEMENT. THE OTHER WAS THAT THE UN SECURITY COUNCIL HAS SHOWN ITSELF UNABLE TO SELECT A GOVERNOR FOR THE AREA AS THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY PROVIDED IT SHOULD DO.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE JOINT ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE WESTERN POWERS DECLARED, THEY WOULD SUBMIT TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL ARRANGEMENTS FOR ENDING THE FREE TERRITORY PLAN AND GIVING TRIESTE ENTIRELY OVER TO ITALY.

A169WX

OFFICIALS SAID THE ONLY WAY FOR THIS ACTION TO BECOME LEGAL WOULD BE FOR THE GREAT POWERS ALL TO AGREE UPON IT AND THEN GET OTHER NATIONS WHICH SIGNED THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY TO ADHERE TO THE REVISION.

THE MOVE OF THE WESTERN NATIONS PRESENTED THE RUSSIANS WITH VERY LITTLE CHOICE OF REACTION. IF THEY SUPPORT THE WESTERN POWERS THEY WILL IN EFFECT BE TURNING THEIR BACKS ON ALL THEIR PREVIOUS ARGUMENTS FOR A YUGOSLAV TRIESTE AND THEREBY BE KICKING THEIR YUGOSLAV SATELLITE IN THE FACE.

BUT IF RUSSIA SIDES WITH YUGOSLAVIA THAT WILL BE A SLAP IN THE FACE FOR THE ITALIAN COMMUNISTS. POSSESSION OF TRIESTE IS A GREAT POLITICAL ISSUE IN ITALY. THE ITALIAN COMMUNISTS THEMSELVES ARE PUT ON THE SPOT OF WAITING TO SEE ANXIOUSLY WHAT THE KREMLIN MAY DO.

OTHER MOVES WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS MADE WITH THE EVIDENT PURPOSE OF STRENGTHENING ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES IN ITALY INCLUDE SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL'S WARNING YESTERDAY THAT ANY NATION WHICH WENT COMMUNIST WOULD LOSE AMERICAN ECONOMIC HELP.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE LEAST OF ALL TO SAY IN THIS WHOLE BUSINESS ARE THE RESIDENTS OF TRIESTE. THEY CONSIST OF FARMERS IN THE HINTERLAND, MOSTLY SLAVS, AND TRADESMEN AND ARTISANS IN THE CITY ITSELF, WHICH IS MOSTLY ITALIAN. THE CITY IN THE PAST HAS BEEN IMPORTANT BOTH AS A TRADING PORT FOR A LARGE AREA OF EUROPE LYING NORTH OF THERE AND ALSO HAS BEEN A SHIP BUILDING CENTER.

IF THE RUSSIANS AND THE WESTERN POWERS ARE UNABLE TO AGREE ON TRISTE THE PRACTICAL SOLUTION PROBABLY WILL BE AN INDEFINITE PARTITIONING OF THE TERRITORY BETWEEN THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TROOPS AND THE YUGOSLAV FORCES. THAT WOULD CREATE A POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS SITUATION WHICH OFFICIALS HERE WOULD BE HAPPY TO END.

EDITORS: THE WORLD IS WATCHING AND WAITING FOR THE FORTHCOMING ITALIAN ELECTIONS WHICH HAVE BECOME A TEST OF STRENGTH BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA. JOHN P. MCKNIGHT, VETERAN ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER, EXPLAINS THE ISSUES OF THE BALLOTING WHICH MAY DETERMINE WHETHER ITALY WILL FACE EAST OR WEST. THIS ACCOUNT IS ONE OF AP'S STORIES BACKGROUNDING MAJOR NEWS OF THE DAY).

BY JOHN P. MCKNIGHT

ROME, MARCH 20-(AP)-ITALY'S NERVES ARE JUMPY TODAY FOUR WEEKS BEFORE HER ELECTIONS APRIL 18--THE NEXT MAJOR BATTLE OF THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR.

ITALY IS RESTLESS AND SOMEWHAT SHORT TEMPERED UNDER THE MILLIONS OF EYES STARING AS SHE GETS READY TO CHOOSE HER NEW REPUBLIC'S FIRST PARLIAMENT AND HER FUTURE WAY OF LIFE.

IF THIS AVID ATTENTION HELPS AN INFERIORITY COMPLEX DERIVED FROM THE SHATTERING OF FASCISM'S GAUDY DREAM OF EMPIRE, IT IS ALSO DISCONCERTING. ITALY WOULD PREFER COMFORTABLE OBSCURITY AT THIS MOMENT; BUT THE WINDS LOOSE IN THE WORLD PRECLUDE THAT.

AGAINST THE WILL OF MOST ITALIANS ITALY HAS BECOME THE BATTLEGROUND WHERE THE CAPITALIST DEMOCRACY OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE COMMUNISM OF RUSSIA MAY ENGAGE.

INCREASING HER IRRITATION IS HER FEELING THAT, BECAUSE OF HER NEW IMPORTANCE IN AN EMBATTLED WORLD, THE ELECTION GIVES HER ONLY THIS DIFFICULT CHOICE:

IF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED POPULAR FRONT WINS MANY ITALIANS THINK THEIR COUNTRY IN TIME WILL BECOME ANOTHER ROMANIA, BULGARIA, HUNGARY OR CZECHOSLOVAKIA. IF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THEIR ANTI-COMMUNIST ALLIES WIN CIVIL WAR WILL BE HARD TO AVOID.

GEOGRAPHY, FOR ONE THING, MAKES THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS MOMENTOUS.

ITALY THRUSTS FAR DOWN INTO THE MEDITERRANEAN, AND SO BULWARKS GREECE, TURKEY AND THE VITAL NEAR EAST. SHE FACES COMMUNIST YUGOSLAVIA ACROSS THE NARROW ADRIATIC. SHE ABUTS TRIESTE, POLITICAL POWDER BARREL WHICH THE WESTERN POWERS NOW PROPOSE TO RESTORE TO HER. SHE CONNECTS THROUGH THE BRENNER PASS WITH OCCUPIED AUSTRIA. SHE FLANKS SWITZERLAND AND FRANCE.

IF ITALY GOES COMMUNIST, MANY HERE BELIEVE FRANCE AND ALL WESTERN EUROPE WILL FOLLOW. THEN RUSSIA WOULD STAND ON THE SHORES OF THE ATLANTIC.

BUT ITALY IS VITAL FOR OTHER REASONS.

MAR 1948

A BRITISH OBSERVER SAID: "HERE FOR THE FIRST TIME WE ARE PLAYING ON OUR HOME GROUNDS--AND UNDER OUR RULES. IF THE COMMUNISTS WIN IN AN HONEST ELECTION (AND I THINK IT WILL BE THAT) WHAT DO WE DO? REIMPOSE OUR OWN BRAND OF DEMOCRACY BY FORCE? WHAT IS LEFT OF DEMOCRACY THEN? WE BECOME THE TOTALITARIANS."

THE DILEMMA IS DIRE, U.S. DIPLOMATS SAY RUEFULLY.

FINALLY, ITALY HAS SENTIMENTAL VALUE. ROME IS THE ANCIENT MOTHER OF THE WEST. THE COUNTRY BOASTS SOME OF THE PROUDEST MONUMENTS TO WESTERN CIVILIZATION'S CULTURAL ACHIEVEMENTS. HERE IS THE SEAT OF THE CHURCH OF 350,000,000 CATHOLICS.

AN UNEASY TRUCE ON VIOLENCE TREMBLES IN SPORADIC OUTBREAKS LIKE LAST NIGHT'S NEAR NAPLES WHERE ONE MAN DIED AND 10 WERE HURT. CAMPAIGN ORATORS, TAKING THEIR CUE FROM PRONOUNCEMENTS ABROAD, PAINT ELECTION DAY AS THE DAY OF JUDGMENT.

THIS BODES ILL FOR THE WEEKS LEFT BEFORE THE VOTE, AND--TAKEN TOGETHER WITH THE COMMUNISTS' WELL-AUTHENTICATED RESORT TO INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS--FOR ELECTION DAY ITSELF.

MOREOVER, THERE ARE RUMORS THAT THE LEFT, IF IT DISLIKES THE WAY THING SHAPE UP, MAY RETURN TO THE TACTICS OF THE NOVEMBER-DECEMBER "WAR OF THE PLAZAS." A CROP OF NEW STRIKES IS SPROUTING. SOME ARE MANIFESTLY ECONOMIC. OTHERS LOOK POLITICAL. IT IS JUST POSSIBLE, SOME OBSERVERS SAY, THAT WIDESPREAD VIOLENCE MAY PROMPT POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS.

AND THAT, THEY BELIEVE, IS ALL THE LEFT WANTS TO TOUCH OFF PLAN-K, OR WHATEVER IT NOW CALLS THE PLAN FOR REVOLUTION ITS OPPONENTS SAY IT HAS READY FOR USE. THE LEFT DOES NOT DENY SUCH A PLAN EXISTS.

THE WORLD SITUATION HAS PRETTY WELL DICTATED THE ELECTION ISSUES. DOMESTIC QUESTIONS HAVE BEEN SUBMERGED. BOTH SIDES PLEDGE AGRARIAN REFORMS, SOCIAL BENEFITS AND BETTER DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH. PREMIER DE GASPERI EVEN ACCEPTS, WITH SOME RESERVATIONS, THE LEFT'S INSISTENCE ON GIVING LABOR A SHARE IN MANAGEMENT. AS OF TODAY THE ISSUES ARE:

1--THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA. THE LEFT DESCRIBES AMERICA AS THE

30.24- 16403

CENTER OF CAPITALIST REACTION SEEKING WAR. TO THE RIGHT IT IS THE HOME OF THE FREE. THE LEFT REFERS TO RUSSIA AS THE TRUE DEMOCRACY. THE RIGHT CALLS IT A TOTALITARIAN STATE.

2--CZECHOSLOVAKIA. THE LEFT DESCRIBES THE COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF POWER THERE AS POPULAR DEMOCRACY IN ACTION. THE RIGHT CALLS IT A HORRIBLE EXAMPLE.

3--THE MARSHALL PLAN. THE LEFT SAYS IT IS AN INSTRUMENT OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM TO ENSLAVE ITALY. THE RIGHT SAYS IT IS ITALY'S SOLE PATH TO ECONOMIC SALVATION.

4--THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. THE LEFT INSISTS IT IS NOT AGAINST RELIGION. NOT SO SAYS THE RIGHT, ADDING: VOTES FOR COMMUNISM ARE VOTES AGAINST GOD.

NINETY-NINE PARTIES ARE REGISTERED FOR THE ELECTION. A DOZEN PARTIES OR BLOCS HAVE NATION-WIDE TICKETS. HALF OF THESE--GROUPS LIKE THE AVOWEDLY FASCIST ITALIAN SOCIAL MOVEMENT--HAVE CHIEFLY NUISANCE VALUE. SIX ARE IMPORTANT.

MAR 1948

A163

THEY ARE DE GASPERI'S VATICAN-BACKED CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS; THE POPULAR FRONT OF COMMUNISTS, FELLOW-TRAVELING SOCIALISTS AND MINOR PARTIES; GIUSEPPE SARAGAT'S AUTONOMOUS OR LABOR SOCIALISTS; RANDOLFO PACCIARDI'S REPUBLICANS; THE RIGHT'S NATIONAL BLOC AND THE MONARCHISTS

THE BATTLE, OF COURSE, IS BETWEEN THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED FRONT AND ALL THE OTHER PARTIES.

THE BEST GUESS IS THAT THE FRONT WILL RECEIVE 35 TO 40 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL VOTE AND THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS 30 TO 35 PER CENT. THE AUTONOMOUS SOCIALISTS AND REPUBLICANS PERHAPS ARE EXPECTED TO GET 10 PER CENT TOGETHER, THE MONARCHISTS AND RIGHT BLOC 10 PER CENT AND SPLINTER PARTIES FIVE PER CENT.

AT THE MOMENT THE CENTER AND RIGHTIST PARTIES ARE CAUTIOUSLY OPTIMISTIC. THEIR LEADERS THINK THEY ARE GAINING IN THE INDUSTRIAL NORTH.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPEECH WEDNESDAY, THE MARSHALL PLAN'S MARCH TOWARD ENACTMENT, CATHOLIC ACTION'S VIGOROUS ANTI-COMMUNIST DRIVE, POPE PIUS' RECENT SPEECH AND BRITISH AND AMERICAN LABOR'S ANTI-COMMUNIST STAND ALL HAVE HELPED, THEY SAY. IN REFERRING TO WASHINGTON'S EFFORTS TO HELP DE GASPERI, THESE MEN OCCASIONALLY SAY THAT YOU CAN GET TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING, THAT YOU CAN KILL WITH KINDNESS.

THE LEFT, TOO, IS OUTWARDLY CONFIDENT. A MAN CLOSE TO NO. 1 COMMUNIST PALMIRO TOGLIATTI TALKS OF WINNING 48 PER CENT OF THE SEATS IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES. WITH MAVERICKS HE THINKS THAT WILL LET THE LEFT CONTROL THE HOUSE.

ON APRIL 18, ITALY'S 26,000,000 QUALIFIED VOTERS, OF WHOM PERHAPS 90 PER CENT WILL VOTE, WILL ELECT 574 DEPUTIES FROM AMONG 5,614 CANDIDATES AND SOME 400 SENATORS FROM AMONG 1,128 CANDIDATES.

THE DEPUTIES ARE CHOSEN BY PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION WHICH MEANS THE NUMBER EACH PARTY GETS CORRESPONDS TO ITS TOTAL VOTE. THE ELECTIVE SENATORS, AS DIFFERENTIATED FROM THOSE WHO WILL SIT IN THE SENATE BECAUSE OF SERVICES TO THE NATION, ARE CHOSEN MUCH AS IN THE UNITED STATES BY THE VOTE IN THEIR DISTRICTS.

ON MAY 8 THE TWO BODIES CONVENE. TWO DAYS LATER THEY MEET JOINTLY TO ELECT THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNTRY. AFTER THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURATION, DE GASPERI RESIGNS. THE PRESIDENT THEN PICKS A PREMIER HAVING STRENGTH IN PARLIAMENT. THIS MAN PUTS TOGETHER A CABINET FROM HIS OWN AND ALLIED PARTIES AND GOES BEFORE PARLIAMENT. THE GOVERNMENT STANDS OR FALLS ON THE HOUSES' VOTE.

A STALEMATE MAY BRING NEW ELECTIONS, OR IT MAY LEAD TO TRIAL BY ARMS--AS MAY, ALSO, THE RIGHT'S REFUSAL TO TAKE THE LEFT INTO THE GOVERNMENT IF THE LEFT GETS THE LARGE NUMBER OF VOTES ALL EXPECT IT WILL.

DE GASPERI AND TOGLIATTI ARE THE DOMINANT PERSONALITIES. THEY REPRESENT COMPLETE ANTITHESIS. OF THE REST, THE MAN MOST IN THE PUBLIC GAZE IS PERHAPS MARSHALL GIOVANNI MESSE, WHO LED ITALIAN FORCES IN RUSSIA DURING THE WAR AND SURRENDERED THE AXIS ARMIES IN TUNISIA. HE IS RUNNING ON THE RIGHTIST NATIONAL BLOC TICKET.

ROME, MARCH 20-(AP)-FUEL WAS THROWN ON THE BIGGEST BATTLE OF THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR TODAY BY THE WESTERN POWERS' PROPOSAL TO RETURN TGIESTE TO ITALY.

MAR 1948

THE FIRST REACTION WAS THAT THIS PLAY HAD GIVEN EFFECTIVE AMMUNITION TO ITALY'S ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES WHICH ARE BATTLING TO FIGHT OFF THE LEFTIST CHALLENGE IN THE CRITICAL APRIL 18 ELECTIONS.

RUSSIA, NO MATTER WHAT HER FEELINGS ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS ELECTION, MOST LIKELY WILL HAVE TROUBLE IN CONVINCING COMMUNIST YUGOSLAVIA SHE OUGHT TO STRING ALONG WITH THE AMERICAN-BRITISH-FRENCH PROPOSAL ON THE TRIESTE FREE STATE.

HERETOFORE COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA HERE HAS TOLD THE VOTERS: "ELECT US AND WE SHALL BE ABLE TO WORK OUT SOMETHING WITH MARSHAL TITO ABOUT TRIESTE."

THAT LINE WAS STRICKEN FROM THEIR ARSENAL TODAY.

THE POSSIBILITY WAS SEEN, HOWEVER, THAT THE NEW DEVELOPMENT MIGHT SPARK NEW DISORDERS, IF IT DOES NOT INCREASE THE POSSIBILITY OF A LEFTIST PRE-ELECTION RESORT TO VIOLENCE.

AND ITALY'S NERVES ALREADY ARE JUMPY ENOUGH. #

UNDATED TRIESTE

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

(NY) THE WESTERN POWERS PROPOSED YESTERDAY (SATURDAY) THAT THE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE, CREATED BY THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY LAST SEPT. 15, BE RETURNED TO ITALY.

ITALIANS REJOICED AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT, FIRST MADE BY FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT IN A SPEECH AT TURIN, ITALY. THE 450-SQUARE-MILE TERRITORY AT THE HEAD OF THE ADRIATIC AND ITS PORT CITY, TRIESTE, HAD BEEN TAKEN FROM ITALY AND NOW IS OCCUPIED BY SOLDIERS OF THE U.S., BRITAIN AND YUGOSLAVIA.

THIS NEWEST WESTERN MOVE TO WIN ANTI-COMMUNIST VOTES IN ITALY'S NATIONAL ELECTIONS APRIL 18 BROUGHT NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT FROM RUSSIA OR FROM THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT IN BELGRADE. BUT IN WASHINGTON YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR SAVA N.KOSANOVIC SAID HE WAS "DEEPLY SHOCKED." HE ADDED THE ACTION WAS CERTAIN TO CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE OF TENSION.

IN ROME, SHOUTS OF "VIVA TRIEESTE ITALIANA" ECHOED IN THE STREETS AS THE WORD SPREAD, AND THE AVERAGE ITALIAN ASKED, "WHAT WILL RUSSIA AND THE COMMUNISTS SAY NOW?"

IN TRIESTE ITSELF, WHERE THE YUGOSLAVS OCCUPY ONE ZONE AND THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS ANOTHER, THE NEWS WAS EXPECTED TO AROUSE

PRO-ITALIAN DEMONSTRATIONS TODAY (SUNDAY).

ONE ALLIED MILITARY OFFICIAL IN TRIESTE EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT RUSSIA MIGHT AGREE TO THE RETURN OF THE NORTHERN ZONE TO ITALY, BUT HE EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA WOULD AGREE TO THE RETURN OF THE ZONE OCCUPIED BY YUGOSLAV TROOPS. HE SAID THE LATTER ZONE LARGELY IS INHABITED BY SLOVENES AND ALREADY HAS BECOME PART OF THE YUGOSLAV ECONOMY.

INABILITY OF RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS--THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE--TO AGREE UPON A GOVERNOR FOR THE FREE TERRITORY OF ABOUT 330,000 PEOPLE HAS PREVENTED THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A TRIESTE GOVERNMENT, IT WAS TO HAVE BEEN UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE UNEXPECTED REOPENING OF THE TRIESTE PROBLEM BROUGHT NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT FROM U.N. OFFICIALS. BUT DR. HERBERT V.EVATT, AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER WHO HELPED CREATE THE U.N., SAID THAT POWER POLITICS OPERATING OUTSIDE U.N. MACHINERY MUST BE STOPPED TO "ARREST THE DRIFT TOWARD WAR." #

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 20-(AP)-THE WESTERN POWER'S NOTE ON TRIESTE CAUGHT THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIAT AND DELEGATES BY SURPRISE TODAY. IT QUICKLY WON ENDORSEMENT FROM THE ARAB GROUP.

TRYGVE LIE, U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL, OBVIOUSLY WAS SURPRISED WHEN INFORMED THAT THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE AND BRITAIN HAD DISPATCHED A NOTE TO RUSSIA SUGGESTING THAT TRIESTE BE RETURNED TO ITALY.

"I MUST THINK IT OVER," LIE SAID, DECLINING FURTHER COMMENT.

FARIS EL KHOURY, SYRIAN DELEGATE ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND CHIEF ARAB SPOKESMAN AT THE UNITED NATIONS, TOLD A REPORTER:

"IT IS A VERY GOOD IDEA. IT IS AN OPENING OF THE CONFLICT BETWEEN THE WESTERN POWERS AND RUSSIA. I DON'T KNOW TO WHAT EXTENT IT WILL DEVELOP.

"I PROPOSED LONG AGO THAT AS LONG AS WE (THE SECURITY COUNCIL) COULD NOT AGREE WE SHOULD LET THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES HAVE A PLEBISCITE AND ELECT THEIR OWN GOVERNOR."

HE EXPRESSED CERTAINTY THAT THE SOVIET UNION WILL NOT ACCEPT THE PROPOSAL OF THE WESTERN NATIONS.

DR.T.F.TSIANG, OF CHINA, PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL THIS MONTH, RECEIVED THE NEWS WITH INTEREST BUT HAD NO COMMENT.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE BRITISH DELEGATION SAID THAT UNTIL A NEW ARRANGEMENT IS AGREED UPON THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS WILL REMAIN IN THEIR ZONE IN THE TRIESTE TERRITORY. #

THE TASS REPORT ALLEGED THAT THIS SHOULD BE A "REGULAR ARMY FOR THE FUTURE WEST GERMAN STATES" AND WOULD BE CONSTRUCTED UNDER THE GUISE OF POLICE AND WORK BATTALIONS AND WOULD BE SUPPLIED THROUGH THE MARSHALL PLAN.

"A STEADY STREAM OF GERMAN VOLUNTEERS HAS BEEN VISITING MILITARY GOVERNMENT HEADQUARTERS ASKING PARTICULARS ABOUT THE MYTHICAL GERMAN ARMY THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE ALLGED TO BE RAISING IN THE BIZONAL AREA OF WESTERN GERMANY.

"THE ABSURD RUMOR THAT GEN.CLAY IS PLANNING AN ARMY OF 500,000 GERMANS IN WESTERN GERMANY ORIGINATED IN THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN PRESS AND MOSCOW RADIO. IT HAS SINCE BEEN QUOTED IN THE (COMMUNISTIC) SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY PRESS IN BERLIN.

"IN SPITE OF THE FACT THAT GEN.CLAY HAS EMPHATICALLY REFUTED THESE LUDICROUS REPORTS, IT APPEARS THAT SOME PEOPLE WILL STILL BELIEVE THE FANTASTIC LIES THAT ARE QUOTED BY THE SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY PRESS."

THE RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA APPARENTLY HAD BOOMERANGED. #

STUTTGART, GERMANY, MARCH 20-(AP)-A HIGH GERMAN OFFICIAL OF THE SOVIET ZONE OF GERMANY SAID TODAY A PURGE OF NON-COMMUNISTS IS IN PROGRESS IN EASTERN GERMANY.

THE STATEMENT WAS MADE BY DR.WERNER HENNEMANN, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE IN SAXONY-ANHALT. STUTTGART POLICE SAID HE FLED TO THIS CITY IN THE AMERICAN ZONE A FEW DAYS AGO. HE WAS THE LATEST OF MORE THAN A DOZEN HIGH GEMAN OFFICIALS WHO HAVE SOUGHT HAVEN IN THE AMERICAN ZONE IN RECENT WEEKS.

BERLIN, MARCH 20-(AP)-COL.GLYNNE M.JONES OF 4601 MANDEVILLE ST., NEW ORLEANS, CHIEF OF THE CIVIL AVIATION BRANCH OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT, SAID TODAY HE WILL RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES NEXT WEEK FOR A NEW ASSIGNMENT. HE WILL TAKE A POST IN WASHINGTON WITH THE U.S. AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, OFFICE OF DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF FOR OPERATIONS.

JONES' SUCCESSOR HERE IS THOMAS D.JOHNSON OF LAKE ODESSA, MICH. #

PRAGUE, MARCH 20-(AP)-VLADO CLEMENTIS, NEW COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTER TOLD THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE TONIGHT THE POSSIBILITY OF WAR DOESN'T WORRY HIM TOO MUCH.

"THE SOVIET UNION AND THE OTHER PEOPLES' DEMOCRACIES ASSOCIATED WITH RUSSIA WILL NEVER ATTACK ANYONE," HE SAID IN A RADIO ADDRESS.

"AT THE SAME TIME THEIR STRENGTH IS SO GREAT THEY CAN AFFORD TO WAIT, AND BRUSH OFF ANY ATTACK THAT MIGHT BE MADE."

HE CONCEDED THAT CONSIDERABLE INTERNATIONAL TENSION HAS DEVELOPED BUT ADDED:

"THIS STRAINED SITUATION CANNOT LAST VERY LONG. IT IS BEING KEPT ALIVE BY THE PRESS OF WESTERN LANDS. BUT SOONER OR LATER THE TRUTH MUST EMERGE--AND IT IS THAT THE PEOPLES OF ALL NATIONS WANT PEACE, NOT WAR."

CLEMENTIS SUCCEEDED JAN MASARYK AS FOREIGN MINISTER YESTERDAY.

CLEMENTIS RIDICULED THE CHILEAN REQUEST FOR A SECURITY COUNCIL AIRING OF CHARGES THAT RUSSIA INTERFERED IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO BRING ABOUT COMMUNIST-LED REGIME.

"I HAVE JUST RECEIVED THE TEXT OF THE CHILEAN COMPLAINT AND IT IS QUITE FUNNY," HE SAID.

HE SUGGESTED THAT SOME OTHER POWER--NOT NAMED--PROMPTED CHILE TO MAKE THE REQUEST.

"CHILE MERELY HANDED IT OVER," HE ADDED. "I AM ASHAMED THAT AN ORGANIZATION AS IMPORTANT AS THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST DEAL WITH SUCH NONSENSE."

MEANWHILE PROPOSALS WERE MADE FOR A PLEBISCITE ON A NEW CONSTITUTION BEING DRAFTED BY PARLIAMENT. A CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEE AIMS TO FINISH DRAFTING THE DOCUMENT BY MAY 23 AND CONTEMPLATES SUBMITTING IT TO A VOTE OF THE PEOPLE AS WELL AS PARLIAMENT.

TOMORROW WILL BE WORK AS USUAL IN THE NATION. ALL FACTORIES AND OFFICES WILL OPERATE IN WHAT THE COMMUNIST REGIME SAID WOULD BE A DEMONSTRATION OF JOY OVER THE VICTORY OF "PROGRESSIVE FORCES" IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

WORKERS WON'T GET EXTRA PAY, BUT MONEY EARNED BY THEIR EFFORTS GO IN PART TOO FUNDS FOR COMMUNIST-LED GREEK PARTISANS AND THE UNITED NATIONS INTERNATIONAL RELIEF FOR CHILDREN. #

MAR 1948

BY L.S.CHAKALES

ATHENS, MARCH 20-(AP)-HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS INDICATED TODAY THAT GREEK NATIONAL FORCES AND COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS ARE RACING TO STRIKE THE FIRST BLOW IN DECISIVE SPRING OPERATIONS.

WHILE SHIPLOADS OF AMERICAN MILITARY SUPPLIES FOR THE GREEK ARMY ARRIVED IN STEADY STREAM, ALL TOP-RANKING MILITARY LEADERS HAVEHELD CLOSELY GUARDED CONFERENCES IN ATHENS FOR THE PAST TWO DAYS.

ANOTHER INDICATION THAT A MAJOR GOVERNMENT DRIVE MAY NOT BE FAR OFF WAS THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL CABINET MEETING TO BE HELD AS SOON AS VICE PREMIER CONSTANTIN TSLADARIS RETURNS FROM THE PARIS MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE. INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE MEETING WILL DISCUSS THE RESULTS OF THE MILITARY CONFERENCES AS WELL AS NEW CIVILIAN MOBILIZATION MEASURES.

SPIROS DAMASCHINOS, DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE GREEK AIR FORCE, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT OBSERVATIONS FROM THE AIR AND MOUNTAIN TOPS DISCLOSED THE COMMUNIST REBELS ALONG THE NORTHERN FRONTIERS WERE MAKING LARGE-SCALE PREPARATIONS FOR ATTACK.

DAMASCHINOS SAID CONCENTRATIONS OF MEN AND SUPPLIES HAD BEEN SPOTTED AND "FOREIGN PLANES" WERE DROPPING SUPPLIES BY NIGHT TO ISOLATED GUERRILLA BANDS IN THE RUGGED MOUNTAINS OF NORTHWESTERN GREECE.

HE SAID THE GUERRILLAS HAD ESTABLISHED A SMALL AIR STRIP SUITABLE FOR LIGHT LIAISON-TYPE PLANES THREE MILES INSIDE GREEK TERRITORY IN THE LAKE PRESBA REGION WHERE THE FRONTIERS OF GREECE, ALBANIA AND YUGOSLAVIA CONVERGE.

THE AIR OFFICIAL'S STATEMENT CAME AFTER U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT REPORTS HAD BEEN MADE PUBLIC THAT AN INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE OF ABOUT 30,000 MEN IS GATHERED IN ALBANIA AND YUGOSLAVIA. THIS REPORT HAS BEEN PARTIALLY CONFIRMED BY GREEK MILITARY SOURCES, WHO SAID THEY HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION THE COMMUNISTS INTENDED TO DRIVE ON SALONIKA BETWEEN MARCH 22 AND 30.

BOTH GREEK AND AMERICAN SOURCES EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT GEN. MARKOS VAFIADES' COMMUNISTS MIGHT GET IN THE FIRST BLOW IN THE SPRING OPERATIONS IN AN EFFORT TO THROW THE PROJECTED GOVERNMENT OFFENSIVE OFF BALANCE.

RELIABLE AMERICAN SOURCES HERE SAID INTELLIGENCE REPORTS SHOWED THE

"NUCLEUS OF AN INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE," COMPOSED OF GREEKS, FRENCH, ITALIANS, CZECHOSLOVAKS, POLES, GERMANS AND SPANIARDS HAD BEEN ASSEMBLED IN YUGOSLAVIA FOR SOME TIME.

ALL GREEK CORPS AND DIVISION COMMANDERS MET HERE IN THE LAST TWO DAYS WITH LT.GEN.DEMETRIOS YADJIS, GREEK CHIEF OF STAFF, AND MAJ. GENS.JAMES A.VAN FLEET AND S.B.RAWLINS, CHIEFS OF THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH MILITARY MISSIONS. SENIOR AMERICAN MILITARY OBSERVERS RETURNED TO THEIR POSTS WITH ARMY UNITS TODAY AFTER CONFERENCES WITH GEN. VAN FLEET.

GOVERNMENT SOURCES CAUTIONED THAT FORTHCOMING OPERATIONS MIGHT NOT BE OF SPECTACULAR NATURE. THEY SAID RATHER THERE MIGHT BE A SERIES OF MOVES BY SEMI-INDEPENDENT COLUMNS TO ENCIRCLE AND CUT UP GUERRILLA BANDS, AND DIG THEM OUT OF THEIR CAVES AND MOUNTAIN STRONG-HOLDS.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS ORDERED THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF NORTHERN GREECE TO EVACUATE ALL CHILDREN IN A WIDE AREA. PRESS REPORTS SAID GUERRILLAS ABDUCTED 317 CHILDREN IN WESTERN THRACE THE LAST FEW DAYS AND CARRIED THEM OFF TO SOFIA. #

Helsinki, March 20--(AP)--The finnish delegation for the talks in Moscow on a finnish-soviet treaty of friendship and mutual aid will leave Helsinki tonight in a special railway car.

JERUSALEM, MARCH 20-(AP)-ARAB-JEWISH WARFARE OVER THE PARTITION PLAN WAS STILL ON TODAY. SOME PALESTINIANS EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT GIVING UP THE PLAN WOULD STOP THE FIGHTING.

THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY RECOMMENDED LAST NOV. 29 THAT THE HOLY LAND BE SPLIT BETWEEN ARABS AND JEWS. THE UNITED STATES URGED IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY THAT THIS PLAN BE SHELVED AND TRUSTEESHIP SUBSTITUTED.

THIS NEWS REACHED PALESTINE ON THE JEWISH SABBATH, WHEN NEWSPAPERS DO NOT PUBLISH, AND TOO LATE FOR NEWS BROADCASTS. SO FEW IN THIS COUNTRY HEARD IT.

THOSE THAT DID POINTED OUT THAT THREE MONTHS OF FIGHTING ALREADY HAS PARTITIONED THE HOLY LAND IN EFFECT.

SOME JEWS SAID THE PROPOSED JEWISH STATE IS ALL BUT LEGALLY CONSTITUTED HERE ALREADY. JUST AS FORCE SEEMED NEEDED TO CARRY OUT PARTITION, THEY SAID, IT NOW IS LIKELY TO BE NEEDED TO STOP THE PROCESS. THEY DID NOT EXPECT THE U.N. TO RESORT TO FORCE IN ANY CASE.

THIRTY PERSONS WERE KILLED IN THE HOLY LAND YESTERDAY. SIXTEEN WERE ARABS, 13 JEWS AND ONE A BRITISH CONSTABLE.

AN UNOFFICIAL COUNT SHOWS 1,877 VIOLENT DEATHS IN THE COUNTRY SINCE THE ASSEMBLY VOTED FOR PARTITION.

MAR 1948

THE JEWISH AGENCY, OFFICIAL ADVISER TO THE BRITISH ADMINISTRATION FOR PALESTINE'S JEWS, HAS BEEN STRENGTHENING ITS MILITIA, HAGANAH. ARABS HAVE BEEN DRIFTING IN FROM NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES FOR A VOLUNTEER ARMY WITH HEADQUARTERS IN NORTHERN PALESTINE. THE TWO PEOPLES HAVE ERECTED BARBED WIRE BARRICADES, ROADBLOCKS AND GUNPOSTS.

THE MILITARY COMMITTEE OF THE VOLUNTEER ARMY, THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE AND THE PALESTINE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE ALL WERE IN BEIRUT, LEBANON, FOR MEETINGS YESTERDAY. AN INFORMED SOURCE SUGGESTED THE MILITARY COMMITTEE WAS "PUTTING FINAL TOUCHES ON A PLAN FOR AN ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST THE JEWS IN PALESTINE."

A RELIABLE INFORMANT SAID A BIG SHIPMENT OF CZECHOSLOVAK RIFLES AND MACHINEGUNS FOR THE ARAB ARMY REACHED A LEBANESE PORT YESTERDAY ABOARD A SCHOONER FROM GENOA. #

PALESTINE REACTION (365)

LONDON, MARCH 20-(AP)-BRITISH OFFICIALS ADMITTED TODAY THE UNITED STATES' MOVE TO SHELVE PARTITION CAME AS A "COMPLETE SURPRISE" AND MIGHT ALTER BRITAIN'S PLAN TO QUIT PALESTINE BY AUG. 1.

BRITAIN PREVIOUSLY HAD SAID SHE WOULD WITHDRAW HER TROOPS FROM PALESTINE BY THAT DATE NO MATTER WHAT ACTION THE UNITED NATIONS TOOK.

"THAT WAS THE LINE UNTIL TONIGHT," A HIGH BRITISH SOURCE SAID LAST NIGHT. "I CANNOT SAY WHETHER IT WILL OR WILL NOT BE TOMORROW."

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN INDICATED BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE WOULD DEPEND ON WHETHER BOTH ARABS AND JEWS AGREED TO THE U.S. PROPOSAL FOR AN INTERIM UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP.

THE SPOKESMAN RECALLED THAT COLONIAL SECRETARY ARTHUR CREECH JONES TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS SEPT. 26 THAT BRITAIN WOULD TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR "GIVING EFFECT TO ANY PLAN ON WHICH AGREEMENT IS REACHED BETWEEN THE ARABS AND JEWS."

THE COLONIAL OFFICE REFUSED TO COMMENT LAST NIGHT. A SPOKESMAN PROMISED TO TRY TO HAVE A STATEMENT TODAY.

THE OFFICE, HEADED BY CREECH JONES, ADMINISTERS PALESTINE UNDER A LEAGUE OF NATIONS MANDATE WHICH BRITAIN PLANS TO SURRENDER MAY 15, PREPARATORY TO LEAVING.

THE U.S. MADE ITS PROPOSAL AS BRITAIN FACED A SERIOUS DECISION REGARDING THE ARAB WORLD. THIS WAS BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE REPORTED OCCUPATION OF TWO ARAB DISTRICTS OF PALESTINE THIS WEEK BY THE BRITISH-SUBSIDIZED TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION, ACTING IN THE NAME OF THE ARAB LEAGUE.

BRITISH MORNING PAPERS GAVE BANNER PLAY TO THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL. HEADLINES READ "U.S. THROWS OVER PARTITION," "AMERITEET

HEADLINES READ "U.S. THROWS OVER PARTITION," "AMERICA BACKS OUT OF PALESTINE PARTITION" AND "U.S. SOMERSAULTS ON PARTITION PLAN."

THE TIMES OF LONDON SAID:

"THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS ACCEPTED THE HARD LOGIC OF FACTS IN PALESTINE X X X. BOTH THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE ASSEMBLY HAVE BEEN DISCUSSING THIS GRAVE MATTER WITH THEIR HEADS IN THE CLOUDS. THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL SHOULD BRING BOTH BODIES DOWN TO EARTH. WHAT IS NEEDED ABOVE ALL IS THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD HAVE A WORKABLE PLAN FOR ASSUMPTION OF FULL AUTHORITY WHEN BRITAIN LAYS DOWN ITS MANDATE. TIMEIS SHORT."

THE YORKSHIRE POST OF LEEDS SAID, "THE PROPOSAL IS CLEARLY AN ATTEMPT TO AVOID INVOLVING THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE DIFFICULT AND EMBARRASSING TASK OF ENFORCING PARTITION."

TASS, SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, QUOTED LEBANESE PAPERS AS SAYING THE ARAB LEAGUE POLITICAL COMMITTEE WAS DISCUSSING A "NEW AMERICAN PROPOSAL" FOR PALESTINE'S FUTURE. THE COMMITTEE IS MEETING IN BEIRUT.

"IT IS CLEAR X X X THAT THIS PROPOSAL AIMS AT ATTRACTING THE ARAB COUNTRIES TO THE SIDE OF THE IMPERIALIST POWERS," TASS SAID.

THE PREMIER OF LEBANON, RIAD EL SOLH, SAID "THE IMPORTANT THING OF THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL IS THE ABANDONMENT OF PARTITION, SHOWING AN APPRECIATION OF THE WORLD SITUATION."

"AMERICA IS SEEING THROUGH THE FALSE IMPRESSIONS CREATED BY THE ENEMIES OF THE ARABS," HE SAID. "THERE STILL, NATURALLY, WILL BE DIFFICULTIES FOR THE ARABS. THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING."

REPORTS FROM DIPLOMATIC TRAVELERS SAID TRAFFIC HAS HALTED IN NORTHERN PALESTINE BETWEEN ACRE AND THE LEBANESE BORDER. A U.S.CONSULAR OFFICER, WILLIAM P.PORTER OF 1642 SOUTH 26TH STREET, PHILADELPHIA, WAS GIVEN A SPECIAL POLICE ARMORED CAR ESORT TO ENABLE HIM TO TRAVERSE A BLOCKED SECTOR AND REACH BEIRUT. SYRIA'S PREMIER JAMIL MARDAM BEY WAS ASKED IF THE CHANGE IN AMERICAN POLICY MIGHT HELP CLEAR THE WAY FOR A $200,000,000 OIL PIPE LINE TO CROSS HIS COUNTRY. HE REPLIED:

"EVERYTHING HAS ITS OWN GOOD TIME. ONCE THE CLOUD IS LIFTED, ALL BARRIERS ARE LIFTED."

THE PIPELINE IS A PROJECT OF THE ARABIAN-AMERICAN OIL COMPANY. IT WOULD RUN FROM SAUDI ARABIAN FIELDS TO THE MEDITERRANEAN.

(IN CAIRO THE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER AKHBAR EL YOM DESCRIBED THE DEVELOPMENTS IN THE UNITED NATIONS AS AN "ARAB VICTORY OVER AMERICA." IT ADDED: "THE ARABS SCORED THE FIRST VICTORY WHEN THEY DISPELLED THE MYTH OF THE ZIONIST MILITARY STRENGTH. THEY WON AGAIN WHEN THEY WERE ABLE TO STOP THE SECURITY COUNCIL FROM SUPPORTING PARTITION BY FORCE." #

ARABS, JEWS AND BRITISH SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES SWITCH AGAINST PARTITION OF PALESTINE WILL NOT CHANGE THEIR PLANS.

THE HOLY LAND'S WARFARE WENT ON. AN ARAB AND A JEW WERE KILLED IN THE JERUSALEM VICINITY.

BY NOW, THE UNOFFICIAL TOLL IS 1,879 DEAD BY VIOLENCE IN PALESTINE SINCE THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY VOTED LAST NOV. 29 TO SPLIT THE COUNTRY INTO ARAB AND JEWISH STATES. THE UNITED STATES BACKED THE DECISION.

BUT YESTERDAY THE U. S. URGED THE U. N. SECURITY COUNCIL IN LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., TO DITCH THAT PLAN AND WORK OUT A TRUSTEESHIP FOR PALESTINE INSTEAD.

THE BRITISH COLONIAL OFFICE SAID IN LONDON TODAY IT IS GOING AHEAD WITH THE TIMETABLE IT HAS SET UP: GIVE UP BRITAIN'S 25-YEAR-OLD LEAGUE OF NATIONS MANDATE OVER PALESTINE MAY 15; GET ALL BRITISH TROOPS OUT BY AUG. 1.

A JERUSALEM ARAB SPOKESMAN SAID, "WE WILL NOT STOP OUR STRUGGLE." THE PALESTINE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE THERE SAID THE NEW U. S. STAND, WHILE "A RETURN TO RECOGNITION OF THE NATURAL RIGHTS OF ARABS," WAS ONLY ONE STEP TOWARD THE ARAB AIM OF AN INDEPENDENT ARAB STATE IN PALESTINE.

A SOURCE IN THE JEWS' HAGANAH ARMY COMMENTED, "WE MUST FIGHT ON TO HOLD JEWISH SOVEREIGNTY IN WHATEVER PARTS OF PALESTINE WE CAN."

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE OFFICIAL JEWISH AGENCY SAID, "OIL HAS APPARENTLY BECOME MORE EXPENSIVE AND MORE IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES THAN JEWISH BLOOD."

IN THE UNITED STATES, REPUBLICAN SENATORS TAFT AND THYE AND DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATIVES BLOOM AND KLEIN AND OTHER CRITICIZED THE U. S. CHANGE IN POLICY.

DEMOCRATS ADMITTED PRIVATELY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD LOST MUCH POLITICAL SUPPORT IN THE BIG CITIES.

HENRY A.WALLACE, THIRD-PARTY CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT, SAID ON THE RADIO LAST NIGHT THE ANNOUNCEMENT "SHOCKED THE WORLD." HE SAID THE U. S. MUST KEEP ITS WORD OR LOSE MORAL LEADERSHIP. #

TRUSTEESHIP SEPARATE (120)

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 20-(AP)-PALESTINE IS UNDER A MANDATE GRANTED BRITAIN BY THE OLD LEAGUE OF NATIONS. BUT BRITAIN IS GETTING OUT.

NOW THE UNITED STATES WANTS THE HOLY LAND PUT UNDER A TRUSTEESHIP OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

IF THIS HAPPENS, HOW WILL IT COME ABOUT?

FIRST THE U.N. ASSEMBLY WILL DECIDE PALESTINE IS TO BE A TRUST TERRITORY.

THEN THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WILL STEP IN AND PICK SOME COUNTRY TO ADMINISTER THE TRUST TERRITORY.

THIS COUNTRY WILL RUN PALESTINE BUT CHECK BACK WITH THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL FOR AN OKAY ON EVERYTHING IT DOES THERE.

THE IDEA BEHIND THE SYSTEM IS TO GET NON-SELF-GOVERNING PEOPLES READY TO GOVERN THEMSELVES.

THE PALESTINE ISSUE IS STILL ALL UP IN THE AIR. THE ASSEMBLY HASN'T EVEN BEEN CALLED TO MEET ON THE PROPOSAL YET.

TOKYO,SUNDAY,MARCH 21-(AP)-EMPEROR HIROHITO'S CHARCOAL RATION FOR HIS SEASHORE VACATION HAS BEEN CUT IN HALF.

THE GOVERNMENT OF KANAGAWA PREFECTURE, IN WHICH TOKYO IS LOCATED, TRIMMED THE IMPERIAL REQUEST FOR 200 BALES OF CHARCOAL TO 100 BALES.

THE IMPERIAL HOUSEHOLD PROTESTED. IT SAID THE CHARCOAL HAD TO BE USED FOR BOTH HEATING AND COOKING FOR 70 PERSONS, INCLUDING SERVANTS OF THE EMPEROR.

THE PREFECTURAL GOVERNMENT STANDS FAST. IT SAYS THE EMPEROR ALWAYS CUTS SHORT HIS MARCH VACATION AT HIS HATAYAMA VILLA AND HIS ENTOURAGE GRABS ALL THE LEFTOVERS. #

MANILA, MARCH 20-(AP)-PRESIDENT MANUEL A. ROXAS CHARGED TODAY THAT RUSSIA HAD DESTROYED THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND URGED FILIPINOS TO "CLOSE RANKS AND PREPARE THIS NATION FOR THE WORST EVENTUALITY."

THE PRESIDENT SPOKE IN RECEIVING AN HONORARY DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS.

"THE UNITED NATIONS, ESTABLISHED TO PREVENT FUTURE WARS, HAS BEEN POWERLESS TO AVERT THE POSSIBILITY OF COMING STRUGGLE," ROXAS DECLARED.

"RUSSIA, THROUGH HER VETO OF MEASURES INTENDED TO IMPLEMENT PEACE, HAS DESTROYED THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THAT WORLD ORGANIZATION.

"THE RESULT IS THE CREATION OF CONDITIONS WHICH ARE THE PRELUDE TO WAR. . .

"THE UNITED STATES AS WELL AS ENGLAND, FRANCE AND OTHER DEMOCRACIES OF EUROPE, HAVE RECENTLY ADOPTED MEASURES INDICATING UNEQUIVOCALLY THAT, IF RUSSIA SHOULD PERSEVERE IN HER PRESENT COURSE---HER ATTEMPT TO SUBJUGATE EUROPE AND OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD--SHE WOULD BE RESISTED BY THE COMBINED POWER OF ALL LIBERTY-LOVING PEOPLES OF THE EARTH.

MANILA, MARCH 20-(AP)-MYSTERIOUS RADIO TRANSMITTERS HAVE BEEN BLACKING OUT VOICE OF AMERICA BROADCASTS DESTINED FOR EASTERN RUSSIA AND THE ORIENT THE PAST THREE WEEKS, IT WAS LEARNED RELIABLY TODAY.

THE JAMMING IS SO THOROUGH AND SO MANY TRANSMITTERS ARE USED THAT EXPERTS HERE SUSPECT SOME OF THEM MAY BE ABOARD SHIPS AT SEA.

AMERICAN DIRECTION FINDERS ON LAND AND SEA ARE TRYING TO TRACK DOWN THE SOURCE OF THE INTERFERENCE.

SOURCES AT GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS IN TOKYO CONFIRMED THE REPORT. THEY SAID AS FAR AS THEY KNOW THE JAMMING TRANSMITTERS HAVE NOT YET BEEN LOCATED.

THE JAMMING BEGINS WHEN U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE BROADCASTS FROM NEW YORK START UP. THESE ARE BEAMED FOR THE POWERFUL U.S.I.S. RADIO STATION AT MALOLOS, 24 MILES NORTHWEST OF MANILA. MALOLOS THEN RELAYS THE BROADCASTS ON TO THE ORIENT. THE MALOLOS STATION HAS BEEN IN OPERATION SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER.QAS

WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-THE ADMINISTRATION'S ABOUT-FACE ON PALESTINE STIRRED UP A STORM IN CONGRESS TODAY WITH A THREATENED POLITICAL BACKLASH AGAINST PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, LAWMAKERS CONDEMNED IN VIGOROUS LANGUAGE THE AMERICAN MOVE TO SHELVE PARTITIONING OF THE HOLY LAND AND SEEK A UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP.

AND DEMOCRATS CONCEDED PRIVATELY THAT MR.TRUMAN--AS THE MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACTION--LOST POLITICAL GROUND IN THE BIG CITIES WHERE THERE ARE MANY SUPPORTERS OF THE JEWISH HOMELAND PROPOSAL.

SOME THOUGHT THE ACTION WOULD MAKE VOTES FOR HENRY WALLACE'S THIRD PARTY BID FOR THE PRESIDENCY. OTHERS WERE INCLINED TO BELIEVE THE REPUBLICANS WOULD REAP ANY HARVEST OF THIS KIND.

WALLACE WAS QUICK TO SEIZE THE OPENING TO BID FOR SUCH SUPPORT. IN A RADIO ATTACK ON MR.TRUMAN LAST NIGHT HE DEPARTED FROM HIS TEXT TO SAY "THE UNITED STATES SHOCKED THE WORLD" BY ABANDONING THE PARTITION PLAN.

WALLACE SAID AMERICANS MUST "KEEP OUR WORD AND CARRY OUT DECISIONS ONCE ARRIVED AT" OR "WE ARE GOING TO LOSE ALL THE GREAT MORAL LEADERSHIP WE HAD AT THE END OF THE WAR."

LEON HENDERSON, CHAIRMAN OF AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION WHI H OPPOSES WALLACE'S THIRD PARTY RACE, TOOK THE SAME STAND IN THIS INSTANCE.

HENDERSON SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT THE POLICY SHIFT IS A "SUBTERFUGE WHICH UNDERMINES IMMEDIATE HOPE OF PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND BETRAYS THE HOPE OF PEOPLES EVERYWHERE THAT THIS NATION IS PREPARED TO PLACE WORLD ORDER AHEAD OF POWER POLITICS." AND HE ASSAILED MR. TRUMAN'S POLICY AS "PASSIVE AND DILATORY."

MEANWHILE, IN ANOTHER QUARTER, THE PRESIDENT TOOK A POLITICAL SHELLACKING FROM A FORMER SUPPORTER--SENATOR SPARKMAN, ALABAMA DEMOCRAT.

SPARKMAN, WHO HEADED THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS' BUREAU IN 1946, CALLED ON MR.TRUMAN TO WITHDRAW FROM THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE. UNLESS HE DOES, SPARKMAN PREDICTED, "THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WILL BE CUT TO RIBBONS IN NOVEMBER." SPARKMAN TERMED THE PRESIDENT'S CIVIL RIGHTS PROPOSALS "A COLOSSAL BLUNDER."

ON THE PALESTINE FRONT, SENATOR TAFT OF OHIO, A CONTENDER FOR THE GOP PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION, IMMEDIATELY LINED UP AGAINST THE CHANGED-AMERICAN POLICY.

TAFT TOLD REPORTERS HE DOESN'T THINK ANYTHING WAS GAINED BY REVERSING THE PREVIOUS STAND FOR PARTITION OF PALESTINE INTO JEWISH AND ARAB STATES.

"OF COURSE," HE SAID, "IF THE NEW PLAN IS ACCEPTED, THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL HAVE TO SEND AN ARMED FORCE TO PALESTINE TO SUPPORT THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP.

"ALL OF THE OBJECTIONS RAISED BY THE ADMINISTRATION TO THE USE OF ARMED FORCE WHEN IT WAS TO ENFORCE PARTITIONING WILL APPLY JUST AS STRONGLY TO THIS PLAN."

ONE OF THESE OBJECTIONS IS SAID TO BE THAT RUSSIAN TROOPS COULD ENTER PALESTINE AS A PART OF ANY POLICE FORCE STATIONED THERE.

SENATOR THYE (R-MINN), SUPPORTING THE GOP PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRATIONS OF HAROLD E.STASSEN, JOINED TAFT IN CRITICIZING THE MOVE.

"THIS ACTION LEAVES CONGRESS IN COMPLETE BEWILDERMENT ABOUT WHERE WE ARE GOING AND WHERE IS OUR LEADERSHIP," THYE SAID. "THE SENATE HAS NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S DECISIONS OR WHAT ITS NEXT MOVE WILL BE."

SOME DEMOCRATS WERE EQUALLY CRITICAL.

REP.BLOOM (NY), TOP MINORITY MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, SAID HE "CAN'T AGREE TO THAT PROPOSAL IN ANY WAY, SHAPE OR FORM.

"WHAT ASSURANCE IS THERE THAT TRUSTEESHIP IS GOING TO BE ANY MORE SUCCESSFUL THAN PARTITIONING HAS BEEN?" HE DEMANDED.

REP.KLEIN (D-NY) SAID THE AMERICAN ACTION ADDS UP TO "THE MOST TERRIBLE SELL-OUT OF THE COMMON PEOPLE SINCE MUNICH."

BUT SENATOR GURNEY (R-SD), WHO HEADS THE ARMED FORCES COMMITTEE AND THUS IS IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH MILITARY DEVELOPMENTS, SAID HE APPROVES THE AMERICAN ACTION.

"IT RELIEVES ME NO END," HE SAID.

AND SENATOR ELBERT THOMAS (D-UTAH) SAID THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP SHOULD HAVE BEEN UNDERTAKEN IN THE FIRST PLACE.

TAXES

BY MARVIN L.ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-SENATE REPUBLICANS GAINED NEW RECRUITS TODAY IN THEIR DRIVE TO CUT INCOME TAXES $4,800,000,000 (B).

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) THAT HE INTENDS TO VOTE FOR THE BILL LEFT LITTLE DOUBT THE REPUBLICANS WOULD LINE UP SOLIDLY FOR IT. AND MORE DEMOCRATS PLEDGED THEIR SUPPORT WHEN THE SHOWDOWN COMES MONDAY.

THE SENATE AGREED LAST NIGHTTOHVOTE ON ANY REMAINING AMENDMENTS AND THE BILL ITSELF STARTING AT 5 P.M. (EST) MONDAY.

THIS AGREEMENT WAS REACHED AFTER REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAD SPENT NEARLY SEVEN HOURS SUCCESSFULLY FIGHTING OFF A SERIES OF DEMOCRATIC PROPOSALS TO AMEND THE BILL.

MORSE'S DECISION WAS CONSIDERED SIGNIFICANT. HE WAS ONE OF THE TWO REPUBLICANS WHO LAST YEAR VOTED AGAINST THE SECOND GOP TAX CUT BILL WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN VETOED. AND HE ALSO VOTED TO SUSTAIN THE VETO.

HOWEVER, THE OREGON LAWMAKER TOLD THE SENATE YESTERDAY THAT HE NOW FAVORS A REDUCTION SINCE IT SEEMS TO BE "THE PREDOMINANT WILL OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

SENATOR LANGER (R-ND), WHO JOINED MORSE'S VOTE LAST YEAR, ALSO HAS INDICATED THAT HE PLANS TO VOTE FOR THE $4,800,000,000 MEASURE.

SEVERAL DEMOCRATS ALSO SPOKE UP FOR THE BILL.

SENATOR GEORGE (GA), RANKING DEMOCRAT ON THE FINANCE COMMITTEE, TOLD THE SENATE HE FEELS "A VERY DEFINITE MORAL OBLIGATION" TO VOTE FOR A TAX CUT. HE ADDED:

"I AM WILLING TO VOTE FOR THIS BILL EVEN IF WAR COMES TOMORROW AND WE HAVE TO VOTE TO INCREASE TAXES AGAIN."

AND SENATOR BYRD (VA) TOOK THE SAME POSITION. "IF FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS REQUIRE ADDITIONAL EXPENDITURES FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE OR OTHERWISE, I WILL THEN SUPPORT INCREASED TAXES," HE SAID IN A STATEMENT.

BUT SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) TOLD A REPORTER HE WILL VOTE AGAINST THE BILL AND TO SUSTAIN A VETO. HE SAID TAX REDUCTION NOW CAN'T BE JUSTIFIED IN VIEW OF THE POSSIBILITY THAT EXTRA BILLIONS MAY BE REQUIRED FOR MILITARY PREPAREDNESS.

THE HOUSE ALREADY HAS PASSED A BILL TO CUT TAXES $6,500,000,000 (B). SENATE GOP LEADERS HAVE SAID PRIVATELY THEY HAVE ASSURANCES THE HOUSE WILL ACCEPT THE SENATE $4,800,000,000 VERSION WHEN THE TWO MEASURES GO TO CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK.

THE SENATE YESTERDAY REJECTED THESE DEMOCRATIC AMENDMENTS WHICH WOULD HAVE:

1. REVIVED THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX. THE VOTE AGAINST IT WAS 58 TO 26. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD PROPOSED A REVIVAL OF THIS LEVY TO OFFSET ANY LOSS IN GOVERNMENT TAX REVENUES.

2. EXEMPTED $10,000 FROM TAXATION IN THE CASE OF SMALL BUSINESSES WHICH PUT THAT MUCH BACK INTO THEIR ENTERPRISE. IT ALSO WAS DEFEATED 58 TO 26.

3. REMOVED THE 15 PER CENT FEDERAL EXCISE TAX ON RAIL, AIR AND BUS FARES. THE VOTE WAS 67 TO 13.

4. MADE AN INHERITANCE TAX CUT PROVISION OF THE BILL RETROACTIVE TO 1942. THE VOTE: 45 TO 33.

5. GRANTED CORPORATIONS A SPECIAL $15,000 EXEMPTION. IT WAS REJECTED 46 TO 21.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 20-(AP)-SENATOR BUTLER (R-NEB) TODAY DENIED THAT SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) "IS A ME-TOO REPUBLICAN FISHING WITH TRUMAN FOR TROUBLE IN FOREIGN WATERS."

BUTER SAID IN A TELEGRAM TO THE OMAHA WORLD-HERALD THAT TAFT'S ADVOCACY OF BUILDING UP THE WORLD'S LARGEST AIRFORCE HAD CAUSED MANY OF HIS NEBRASKA CONSTITUENTS TO ASK ABOUT THE OHIONA'S VIEWS ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

MAR 1948

TAFT IS ENTERED IN THE APRIL 13 NEBRASKA PRIMARY WHEN VOTERS WILL EXPRESS THEIR PREFERENCE BETWEEN SEVEN POSSIBLE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEES. BUTLER IS BACKING TAFT IN THAT RACE.

"BOB TAFT REPEATS TEDDY ROOSEVELT'S WISE COUNSEL--'TALK SOFTLY AND CARRY A BIG STICK,'" BUTLER SAID. "THE PRESIDENT DOES NOT. MR. TRUMAN SEEMS TO SAY 'TALK BIG AND CARRY AN UNWIELDLY STICK.'

"TAFT, IN MY SINCEREST OPINION, IS THE ONE MAN ON THE NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL SCENE WHO IS SAFE, SOUND AND UNHYSTERICAL IN THESE UNEASY TIMES. TAFT HAS REPEATEDLY STATED THAT HE WANTS THIS NATION ARMED EFFECTIVELY AND QUICKLY FOR ABSOLUTE DEFENSE AND FOR RAPID COUNTER ATTACK.

"THAT KIND OF ARMAMENT IS OBVIOUSLY IN THE AIR." #

WASHINGTON, MARCH 20-(AP)-AN OLD DISPUTE BETWEEN CONGRESS AND THE WHITE HOUSE FLARED UP AGAIN TODAY WHEN A HOUSE COMMITTEE ACCUSED THE ADMINISTRATION OF SHUTTING OFF VITAL INFORMATION.

CHAIRMAN HOFFMAN (R-MICH) OF THE HOUSE EXPENDITURES COMMITTEE SAID IN A REPORT TO CONGRESS:

"THE PRACTICE OF THE EXECUTIVE IN DENYING TO CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES INFORMATION SOUGHT BY THOSE COMMITTEES HAS GRADUALLY WIDENED IN SCOPE.

"TODAY, COMMITTEES OF BOTH THE SENATE AND HOUSE FIND THEIR EFFORTS TO ASCERTAIN HOW MONEY APPROPRIATED BY CONGRESS IS BEING SPENT, HOW THE LAWS ARE BEING INTERPRETED AND ADMINISTERED X X X ARE BEING HINDERED OR DELAYED BY THE REFUSAL OF VARIOUS OFFICIALS AND DEPARTMENTS OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH TO MAKE AVAILABLE THE INFORMATION SOUGHT."

HOFFMAN CITED THIS "AS BACKGROUND" FOR A BILL ALREADY APPROVED BY HIS COMMITTEE, WHICH WOULD DIRECT ALL FEDERAL DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES CREATED BY CONGRESS TO SUPPLY ANY INFORMATION REQUESTED BY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

TO PROTECT AGAINST LEAKS OF SECRET OR CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION FURNISHED TO CONGRESS, THE BILL PROVIDES PENALTIES OF UP TO A YEAR'S IMPRISONMENT AND $1,000 FINE FOR DISCLOSING SUCH DATA.

AMONG OTHER INCIDENTS, HOFFMAN CITED THE RECENT REFUSAL OF JOHN R. STEELMAN, ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT, TO ANSWER A SUBPOENA FROM HOFFMAN'S OWN COMMITTEE.

THE REPORT SAID CONGRESS "NOT ONLY HAS THE RIGHT BUT THE DUTY TO SEEK AND OBTAIN X X X ALL INFORMATION NECESSARY TO THE ENACTMENT OF PROPER LEGISLATION."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS DIRECTED AGENCY HEADS TO REFUSE TO TURN OVER TO THE COURTS OR CONGRESS ANY SECRET DATA ON LOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES. #

WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-A $6,205,000,000 (B) BILL TO HELP EUROPE AND CHINA HOLD THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM SAILED SUCCESSFULLY PAST ITS FIRST HOUSE DEADLINE TODAY.

IT INCLUDES A EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, MORE MILITARY HELP FOR TURKEY AND GREECE, AND BOTH MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID FOR CHINA.

AND THE DRIVE IS ON FOR SWIFTER ACTION FROM HERE ON. CONGRESSIONAL AND ADMINISTRATION LEADERS WANT FINAL ACTION ON FOREIGN AID AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE BEFORE THE APRIL 18 ITALIAN ELECTIONS--IN WHICH ERP MIGHT BE ONE OF THE MOST POTENT WEAPONS AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS.

FOR AN UP-TO-THE-MINUTE REPORT ON CONDITIONS IN EUROPE, THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE CALLED LEWIS DOUGLAS, AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN, INTO A CLOSED DOOR SESSION (11 A.M., EST).

THE COMMITTEE APPROVED ITS SINGLE PACKAGE FOREIGN AID BILL LATE YESTERDAY, 15 TO 0. THAT WAS A DAY AHEAD OF THE DEADLINE REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAD SET FOR COMMITTEE ACTION.

DEBATE ON THE FLOOR IS SCHEDULED TO START TUESDAY. AND PASSAGE THE FOLLOWING WEEK--THE TARGET DATE IS MARCH 31--IS ABOUT AS CERTAIN AS ANYTHING CAN BE IN CONGRESS.

THEN IT WILL BE UP TO SENATE AND HOUSE TO GET TOGETHER ON ONE OR SEVERAL FOREIGN AID BILLS.

WHAT THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE APPROVED IN ONE MEASURE IS THIS:

1. FOR A PROGRAM TO HELP LIFT WESTERN EUROPE BACK TO HER FEET ECONOMICALLY, $5,300,000,000 (B) FOR THE FIRST YEAR, INCLUDING $20,000,000 FOR TRIESTE.

2. FOR A SIMILAR PROGRAM OF ECONOMIC AID TO CHINA, $420,000,000 (M)

3. FOR MILITARY AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY, AN ADDITIONAL $275,000,000 (M), AS REQUESTED BY THE ADMINISTRATION.

4. FOR MILITARY AID TO CHINA ON THE SAME BASIS AS FOR THE MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES, $150,000,000 (M).

THE ADMINISTRATION HAD ASKED FOR $570,000,000 (M) FOR ECONOMIC HELP FOR CHINA. THE COMMITTEE APPROVED THE TOTAL, BUT DECIDED $150,000,000 OF IT SHOULD BE FOR MILITARY PURPOSES.

A15WX

MAR 1948

COMMITTEE DEMOCRATS COMPLAINED ABOUT (1) THE ONE-BUNDLE BILL AND (2) THE SPEEDY HANDLING OF THE PROGRAMS FOR CHINA, GREECE AND TURKEY. BUT IN THE END, THEY VOTED FOR THE SINGLE MEASURE.

IN AMOUNT, PURPOSE AND OPERATING MACHINERY, THE HOUSE VERSION OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM IS ALMOST THE SAME AS THAT PASSED LAST WEEK BY THE SENATE. DIFFERENCES ARE LARGELY IN DETAIL.

BUT THE SENATE PROGRAM COVERED ONLY EUROPE. SENATORS ARE FIGURING ON GOING AHEAD NEXT WEEK WITH SEPARATE BILLS FOR GREECE AND TURKEY AND FOR CHINA.

THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE APPROVED A $275,000,000 GREEK-TURKISH MILITARY AID BILL YESTERDAY, 13 TO 0. IT MET TODAY (10 A.M., EST) TO CONSIDER AID FOR CHINA.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), SENIOR DEMOCRAT ON THE COMMITTEE, PREDICTED TO REPORTERS THE COMMITTEE WOULD GO ALONG WITH THE ADMINISTRATION ON $570,000,000 (M) FOR ECONOMIC AID ALONE.

BUT A DRIVE TO PUT IN MILITARY HELP IS EXPECTED ON THE FLOOR. SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) HAS SAID HE FAVORS AT LEAST "TOKEN" MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE CHINESE. AND CHAIRMAN BRIDGES (R-NH) OF THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE IS TALKING ABOUT INCLUDING $100,000,000 (M) FOR THAT PURPOSE.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 20-(AP)-A BILL WHICH WOULD SET UP A $150,000,000 REVOLVING FUND FOR THE PURCHASE OF FIBERS AND HIDES FOR PROCESSING IN OCCUPIED COUNTRIES WILL BE SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE MONDAY, SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC) SAID TODAY.

HE TOLD A REPORTER THAT 30 SENATORS ARE EXPECTED TO SPONSOR THE LEGISLATION.

MAYBANK AND SENATOR EASTLAND (D-MISS) BEGAN DRAFTING THE LEGISLATION LAST TUESDAY FOLLOWING A CONFERENCE WITH DR.W.P.JACOBS OF CHARLOTTE, N.C., PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN COTTON MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION.

AT THAT TIME, MAYBANK SAID IT WAS ESTIMATED THE PLAN WOULD SEND 1,000,000 (MILLION) BALES OF COTTON TO JAPAN EACH YEAR UNTIL A PEACE TREATY IS SIGNED. EASTLAND TOLD REPORTERS THAT IT WOULD KEEP THE JAPANESE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, WHICH IS ABOUT TO SHUT DOWN FOR LACK OF COTTON, IN OPERATION.

MONEY DRAWN FROM THE REVOLVING FUND TO PURCHASE COTTON AND OTHER MATERIALS HERE WOULD BE REPAID THROUGH THE SALE OF PROCESSED ARTICLES IN OTHER COUNTRIES. LOANS WOULD BEAR INTEREST AT TWOO AND ONE-HALF PER CENT. #

BUFFALO, N.Y., MARCH 20-(AP)-REP.CHARLES A.HALLECK (R-IND) SAID TONIGHT THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN CONGRESS WILL CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THE BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY, BUT WILL NOT "RUBBER STAMP" ALL ADMINISTRATION PROPOSALS.

THE GOP FLOOR LEADER OF THE HOUSE SAID IN A PREPARED ADDRESS COOPERATION "DOES NOT MEAN WE WILL WRITE BLANK CHECKS FOR WHATEVER SUMS THE ADMINISTRATION MAY REQUEST IN CARRYING OUT A FOREIGN AID PROGRAM."

MAR 1948

"WE HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY TO THE PEOPLE WE REPRESENT," HE SAID. "WE ARE MEETING THAT RESPONSIBILITY AND SHALL PROTECT THEIR INTERESTS."

HALLECK SPOKE AT A REPUBLICAN CLUB DINNER. #

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-A TENTATIVE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED WITH UNITED AIRCRAFT CORPORATION FOR LEASING THE NAVY INDUSTRIAL RESERVE PLANT AT GRAND PRAIRIE, TEX., THE NAVY ANNOUNCED TODAY.

NO DETAILS WERE DISCLOSED. UNITED IS THE PARENT COMPANY OF THE CHANCE-VOUGHT AIRCRAFT CO., BRIDGEPORT, CONN., WHICH HAS BEEN REPORTED INTERESTED IN ACQUIRING THE TEXAS PLANT FOR ITS MANUFACTURING OPERATIONS.

THE NAVY SAID ONLY THAT NEGOTIATIONS BEEN COMPLETED AMONG REPRESENTATIVES OF UNITED, THE NAVY AND THE TEXAS ENGINEERING AND MANUFACTURING CO., WHICH IS ACTING AS CARETAKER OF THE PLANT.

THE PAPERS ARE BEING RETURNED TO TOP UNITED AND NAVY OFFICIALS FOR FINAL CONSIDERATION AND AGREEMENT, THE NAVY SAID.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 20-(AP)-"TOBACCO SEEMS TO BE TAKEN CARE OF ADEQUATELY IN THE SENATE VERSION OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM," TOBACCO-STATE CONGRESSMEN SAID TODAY.

THE SPECIAL CONGRESSIONAL TOBACCO COMMITTEE AND GROWERS, WAREHOUSEMEN AND DEALERS CONSIDERED THE ERP (MARSHALL PLAN) AT A MEETING TODAY.

REP.MCMILLAN (D-SC), A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, TOLD A REPORTER:

"IT SEEMS BEST NOT TO SPELL OUT TOBACCO IN THE BILL. THE LANGUAGE (OF THE SECTION ON PROTECTION OF DOMESTIC ECONOMY) SEEMS TO US TO BE SUFFICIENT TO TAKE CARE OF ALL FARM PRODUCTS IN THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM."

REP.FLANNAGAN (D-VA), CHAIRMAN OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE, SAID THE GROUP, HOWEVER, "IS CAREFULLY GOING OVER THE BILL."

TOBACCO LEADERS IN OTHER MEETINGS FORMULATED PLANS THEY HOPED WILL INCREASE YEARLY SHIPMENTS 25,000,000 (MILLION) POUNDS ABOVE THE PREWAR AVERAGE OF 340,000,000 (M) POUNDS.

J.B.HUTSON, PRESIDENT OF TOBACCO ASSOCIATES, INC., AN ORGANIZATION OF GROWERS, DEALERS AND WAREHOUSEMEN FORMED TO BOOST EXPORTS, HAS POINTED OUT "NO NEW MACHINERY IS NEEDED TO PROVIDE TOBACCO MARKETS IN THE COUNTRIES FOR WHICH FOREIGN AID IS PROPOSED UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN."

HOWEVER, HUTSON AGREED "IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT SOME ARRANGEMENT BE MADE THAT TOBACCO CONTINUE TO FLOW TO WESTERN EUROPE, WHERE THREE-FOURTHS OF AMERICAN TOBACCO EXPORTS HAVE GONE PREVIOUSLY." #

SALT LAKE CITY, MARCH 20-(AP)-TWO 18-YEAR-OLD MARINES WERE SENTENCED TO TERMS OF 18 MONTHS IN FEDERAL REFORMATORIES AFTER U.S. JUDGE TILLMAN D. JOHNSON SAID "THERE IS NO WAY TO PUT THEM ON PROBATION."

PFC DUANE A. CHARTER OF SANDY, UTAH, A MARINE RIFLE INSTRUCTOR AT GREAT LAKES NAVAL TRAINING STATION, ILL., AND PFC CLIFFORD E. MESSENGER, ROCKFORD, ILL., WERE CHARGED WITH INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF A STOLEN CAR. CHARTER ALSO WAS CHARGED WITH THEFT OF AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FROM THE GREAT LAKES ARSENAL.

JUDGE JOHNSON PRONOUNCED THE SENTENCE YESTERDAY DESPITE AN APPEAL BY CHARTER'S ATTORNEY THAT THE MARINE BE RELEASED TO CUSTODY OF HIS PARENTS.

"THE NAVY WOULD JUST TAKE YOU BACK AND DISCIPLINE YOU AGAIN IF I PLACED YOU ON PROBATION," JOHNSON SAID. HE SAID THE MARINE CORPS HAD DECLINED TO DISCHARGE THE TWO TO PERMIT THEIR BEING GRANTED CIVILIAN PROBATION. #

ALBANY, N.Y., MARCH 20-(AP)-NEW YORK MUST GRANT UNITED NATIONS REPRESENTATIVES IMMUNITY FROM ARREST, STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL NATHANIEL L. GOLDSTEIN SAYS.

THE IMMUNITY APPLIES ONLY TO AN ESTIMATED 250 ACCREDITED U.N. DELEGATION OFFICIALS AND NOT TO LESSER STAFF MEMBERS, A.J. WORSDELL, JR. DEPUTY STATE COMMERCE COMMISSIONER, SAID HE UNDERSTOOD.

LOS ANGELES,MARCH 20-(AP)-EDWIN W.PAULEY, APPRISED TONIGHT OF CHARGES THAT HE HAD SPECULATED IN LARD ONLY A FEW DAYS BEFORE A BIG GOVERNMENT PURCHASING PROGRAM WAS ANNOUNCED, TOLD A REPORTER:

"THE ENTIRE RECORDS OF MY TRANSACTIONS ARE BEFORE THE SENATE AT THE PRESENT TIME, AND ALMOST ANYONE COULD HAVE ACCESS TO THEM. IN REPLY TO ANDRESEN'S CHARGE ABOUT BUYING LARD, I DON'T SAY THAT I DID, I DON'T SAY THAT I DIDN'T."

MAR 1948

NEW YORK, MARCH 20-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN, HENRY A. WALLACE SAYS, HAS PLACED THE COMMUNIST BRAND ON ALL THOSE WHO OPPOSE HIS POLICIES OF "MILITARISM" AND "SUPPORT OUR FIGHT FOR PEACE."

THE THIRD PARTY PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SPOKE OVER A RADIO NETWORK (MBS) LAST NIGHT IN ANSWER TO MR. TRUMAN'S ST.PATRICK'S DAY DECLARATION THAT HE WOULD NOT "ACCEPT THE SUPPORT OF HENRY WALLACE AND HIS COMMUNISTS." HIS BROADCAST WAS THE SECOND ON CONSECUTIVE NIGHTS IN REPLY TO THE TWO SPEECHES MADE LAST WEDNESDAY BY THE PRESIDENT.

WALLACE ACCUSED PRESIDENT TRUMAN OF TRYING TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT ONLY COMMUNISTS DISAPPROVE HIS POLICIES OF "SUPPORTING FAS ISTS, KINGS AND REACTIONARIES AROUND THE WORLD" AND HIS PLANS TO "DRAFT OUR YOUNG MEN AND MILITARIZE THE COUNTRY."

"BUT MILLIONS OF AMERICANS, WHO STAND FIRMLY OPPOSED TO HIS POLICIES, KNOW THAT THEY ARE NOT COMMUNISTS AND THEY WILL NOT BE FRIGHTENED INTO ACCEPTING MILITARISM BECAUSE SOMEONE CALLED THEM 'COMMUNISTS.'" THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT SAID.

WALLACE ALSO ATTACKED THE PROPOSAL OF WARREN AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, FOR A TEMPORARY U.N. TRUSTEESHIP OVER PALESTINE RATHER THAN PARTITION.

"TODAY THE UNITED STATES SHOCKED THE WORLD BY ABANDONING HER SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS DECISION TO PARTITION PALESTINE," HE SAID.

WALLACE ADDED THAT UNLESS AMERICANS "KEEP OUR WORD AND CARRY OUT DECISIONS ONCE ARRIVED AT," THE U.S. STANDS TO LOSE ALL "THE GREAT MORAL LEADERSHIP" IT HELD AT THE END OF THE LAST WAR.

THE THIRD PARTY LEADER ASSERTED THAT THE CHARGE OF COMMUNISM AGAINST ADMINISTRATION CRITICS WAS A RED HERRING DESIGNED TO CONFUSE THE ELCTORATE.

"MR. TRUMAN HAS DONE WHAT OTHER PROFESSIONAL POLITICIANS HAVE DONE BEFORE HIM--HE HAS GIVEN THE COMMUNISTS CREDIT FOR ALL THE DECENT IDEAS WHICH ARE ADVOCATED IN THIS LAND OF OURS.

A35

"I DON'T LIKE TO HAVE THE PRESIDENT GIVE THEM CREDIT FOR IDEAS THAT COME FROM ISAIAH AND CHRIST, FROM JEFFERSON AND LINCOLN. WE ALL REMEMBER THAT MANY TIMES FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT WAS CHARGED WITH 'COMMUNISM.'

WALLACE ASSERTED THAT MR. TRUMAN HAD PRESENTED NO EVIDENCE TO PROVE THAT THE FORMER VICE-PRESIDENT "EVER ADVOCATED A SINGLE POLICY INCONSISTENT WITH THE MOST FUNDAMENTAL AMERICAN CONCEPT OF FREEDOM."

THE "CRY OF 'COMMUNISTS'" IS RAISED "AGAINST US BECAUSE WE ARE ATTACKING INTRENCHED INTERESTS, BECAUSE WE BELIEVE THAT IT IS POSSIBLE

30.24- 16413

TO MAKE PEACE WITH RUSSIA, AND BECAUSE WE KNOW THAT YOU CAN'T FIGHT THE ECONOMIC THEORIES OF KARL MARX WITH ATOM BOMBS."

IN BRANDING AS COMMUNISTS THOSE WHO "SUPPORT OUR FIGHT FOR PEACE," PRESIDENT TRUMAN "APPEALED TO PREJUDICE, BECAUSE HE COULD NOT ANSWER US WITH REASON," WALLACE DECLARED.

AT THE END OF HIS SPEECH, WALLACE PRESENTED SIX PROPOSALS WHICH HE SAID COULD CONTRIBUTE TO ESTABLISHMENT OF A DURABLE PEACE:

CALL OFF THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE, ESTABLISH INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF MIDDLE EAST OIL AND "OTHER GREAT RESERVOIRS OF RAW MATERIALS," REPAIR "OUR SHARE OF THE DAMAGE DONE TO THE UNITED NATIONS," FIGHT RESTRICTIONS ON U.S. CIVIL LIBERTIES, HALT "THE TREND TOWARDS MILITARIZATION OF AMERICA," AND "LOOK THE SITUATION OVER CAREFULLY, AND CALMLY FIND OUT JUST WHAT MAJOR DIFFERENCES WE HAVE WITH THE RUSSIANS."

WALLACE SAID THIS COUNTRY AND RUSSIA MUST REALIZE THAT "IN THESE DAYS WHEN WAR ENTAILS WIDESPREAD CIVILIAN DESTRUCTION BY RADIANT GAS, CLOUDS AND BACTERIA, THE ONLY SOUND MILITARY DEFENSE IS A WORLDWIDE GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY." #

NEW YORK, MARCH 20-(AP)-MME. IRENE JOLIOT-CURIE, FREE TODAY TO MAKE A TWO-WEEK UNITED STATES LECTURE TOUR, SAYS HER OVERNIGHT DETENTION AT ELLIS ISLAND DID NOT SURPRISE HER.

"HELP TO ANTI-FASCISTS IS NOT LOOKED UPON WITH AS MUCH FAVOR AS HELP TO FASCISTS--GERMANS," THE NOBEL PRIZE WINNER SAID. SHE SAID FORMER COLLABORATORS WITH GERMANS, HERE AND IN EUROPE, WERE FOSTERING A "WAVE OF REACTION."

MME. JOLIOT-CURIE, WHOSE HUSBAND, FREDERIC, HEADS FRANCE'S ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, DISCUSSED HER DETENTION, THROUGH AN INTERPRETER, AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER HER RELEASE WAS ORDERED YESTERDAY BY ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM C.CLARK.

THE 50-YEAR-OLD SCIENTIST, DAUGHTER OF PIERRE AND MARIE CURIE WHO FIRST ISOLATED RADIUM, SAID SHE WAS NOT A COMMUNIST. BUT, SHE ADDED, SHE WAS SYMPATHETIC TO COMMUNISM "FOR MANY THINGS--YES--BUT NOT ALWAYS AND NOT IN ALL THINGS." SHE SAID HER HUSBAND WAS A COMMUNIST.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS, MME. JOLIOT-CURIE SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER RUSSIA HAD AN ATOMIC BOMB AND SAID IT WAS "SHEER FOLLY" TO BELIEVE RUSSIA MIGHT ATTACK THIS COUNTRY.

MEANWHILE, IN PARIS, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY'S DEFENSE COMMITTEE, PAUL ANXIONNAZ, SAID HE WAS UNEASY OVER FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE'S "OPEN COMMUNIST SYMPATHIES" AND PLANNED TO BRING THE MATTER BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY.

JOLIOT-CURIE WAS NAMED TO THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION WHILE GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE HEADED THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT. DE GAULLE NOW LEADS THE FRENCH PEOPLE'S PARTY, WHICH IS STRONGLY ANTI-COMMUNIST.

MME. JOLIOT -CURIE MET REPORTERS IN THE OFFICE OF THE JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, SPONSOR OF HER TOUR AND ONE OF THE ORGANIZATIONS LISTED BY CLARK AS SUBVERSIVE. SHE HAD COME HERE WITH A STATE DEPARTMENT 15-DAY VISITOR'S VISA. CLARK ORDERED HER RELEASED WITHOUT BOND FOR 15 DAYS.

MME. JOLIOT-CURIE SAID SHE CAME HERE TO SPEAK IN BEHALF OF THE SPANISH REPUBLICANS IN EXILE. SHE SAID SHE WOULD OPEN HER LECTURE TOUR MONDAY AT PORTLAND, ORE., AND WOULD VISIT SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, CHICAGO, PHILADELPHIA AND BOSTON BEFORE RETURNING TO SPEAK HERE MARCH 31.

LOUIS SAILLANT, 37, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS, ALSO WAS QUESTIONED BY IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS UPON HIS ARRIVAL BY PLANE FROM FRANCE YESTERDAY. THEY SAID SAILLANT WAS RELEASED IN TIME TO BOARD HIS SCHEDULED PLANE FOR MEXICO, BUT HE PUT OFF UNTIL TODAY THE NEXT LEG OF HIS TRIP.

SAILLANT, THROUGH A REPRESENTATIVE, TOLD NEWSMEN HE WAS EN ROUTE TO A LABOR CONFERENCE IN MEXICO CITY MARCH 22-27. HE SAID HE WOULD COMPLAIN TO FRENCH AMBASSADOR HENRI BONNET AND TRYGVE LIE, U.N. SECRETARY GENERAL, AND ASK LIE IF HE "MUST UNDERGO SUCH INTERROGATION WHEN I AM DELEGATED TO COME HERE IN AN OFFICIAL CAPACITY OR AS A LABOR DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE IMMIGRATION OFFICERS, SAILLANT SAID, "ASKED ME IF I WAS A COMMUNIST AND I SAID 'NO' AND THAT I NEVER HAVE BEEN A MEMBER OF THE PARTY." #

Allies Beat Russians To Punch on Trieste, Italian Leaders Say

CHARGE SOVIETS PLANNED MOVE AS ELECTION 'BAIT'

Milan Paraders Clash Over Proposal to Return Area to Rome.

FIRST FIGHTS STAGED

Red-Inspired Printer's Strike Suspends All Papers in Italy.

ROME, March 21. — (AP) Cries of "viva Trieste" touched off fist fights in Milan today between Italian communists and anti-communists. It was the first violence reported in the wake of the western powers' proposal to return Trieste to Italy.

The Moscow radio, in the first official Russian reaction to the proposal, accused the western powers of "acting behind the back of the Soviet Union." The Russian language broadcast was heard in London. There was no further direct comment by the Soviet broadcaster.

Communist newspapers in Europe described the proposal as a scheme by the United States, Britain and France to influence the Italian parliamentary election April 18. That election is being contested on the issue of communism.

"Beat Reds to Punch"

According to some Italian sources the western allies beat the communists to the punch on the Trieste issue. Informants in Turin said French Foreign Minister George Bidault's announcement of the proposal there yesterday was staged with great secrecy and haste because of a belief that Russia might offer to hand the Adriatic city back to Italy.

One diplomat said:

"I think U. S. agents found out some weeks ago the Italian communist leaders were doing everything in their power to persuade Moscow to do it, in order to give the communist cause a tremendous election boost."

Other informants said the Trieste announcement was made purposely in the region of Italy where the communists have the greatest strength. They said the move originally was Bidault's idea but the announcement was made when and where it was at the suggestion of the United States.

Now "Morally" In Union

One highly placed Italian diplomat said: "Italy is now morally in the Western union." This is the Brussels defense-economic pact linking Britain, France and the Low Countries.

Bidault said he was pleased over the reaction in Italy to his announcement. Asked in Turin if the proposal had been timed to influence the Italian election, the Frenchman smiled and said: "No answer."

The fighting in Milan occurred as a parade entered the cathedral square bearing the city's banner, to which had been affixed Italy's gold medal of heroism. The medal was awarded the Milanese for their feats when the city was liberated from the Germans.

Immediately behind the flag-bearing group came Communist partisan brigades carrying red flags. There were shouts of "Viva Trieste" and derisive whistles at the Communists. The Communist marchers tangled with those who had taunted them. Police riot squads quickly restored order.

A crowd estimated at 30,000 pro-Italians paraded through Trieste today shouting praise of the United States and hailing the Western powers' proposal. There were a few fist fights, but the demonstration generally was peaceful.

There was a negative reaction to the proposal in some quarters. Some business men said they felt the economic assistance the Trieste free territory gets from the United States and Britain probably is greater than Italy could afford to give.

Jointly Administered

Zone A of the free territory, which includes the city proper, is jointly administered by the United States and Britain. The United States alone pours $20,000,000 worth of relief supplies a year into the area.

Only one Trieste Communist newspaper, the Slovene language Primorski Dnevnik, appeared today. It branded the move an "imperialist election maneuver."

A similar headline appeared in Belgrade's Communist newspaper Borba. Apparently the Yugoslavs and the Communists in Trieste are waiting for Russia to state her position.

Jacques Duclos, secretary of the French Communist party, said the Trieste announcement constituted "interference in the Italian election campaign and a wormonger's provocation." He spoke in Laval, France.

"Morning-After Gift"

The Russian-controlled Berline Zeitung, published in the Soviet zone of Berlin said: "This gesture is intended as the western morning-after gift to the bride if Italy yields to the Truman doctrine. At the same time it should be regarded as a sharp slap at Italy's neighbors."

Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's No. 1 Communist, conceded that a majority of Italians aspire to a settlement of the Trieste question. He said such a settlement could be easily achieved "as soon as Italy has a free and independent government."

Speaking in Ragusta, Sicily, the Communist boss said the problem was primarily one concerning Italy and Yugoslavia. The western powers, he declared, are "trying to sow discord between the two countries."

Togliatti's brother-in-law, Mario Montagnana, told a Leftist rally in Turin that the Trieste proposal was an attempt by the western powers to tie Italy into the western bloc.

Religion A Major Italian Issue

Rome, March 21 (AP)—Trieste had the headlines in Italy today, but religion remained one of the biggest issues in the April 18 elections to choose the republic's first parliament.

The country's predominantly Catholic voters have been told that their choice lies between Communism and Christianity. The quiet work of parish priests, backed by the church hierarchy, may have a major influence on the way the vote goes.

Palmiro Togliatti, Moscow-trained Communist chief, long ago lowered his sights from the Catholic church. He voted for including in the republic's constitution the Lateran pacts, which give the church a favored position.

Checks Attack On Prelate

More recently he chided members of the Communist-led Popular Front who attacked Alfredo Ildefonso Cardinal Schuster, archbishop of Milan. The prelate was attacked when he ordered priests of his diocese to refuse absolution —forgiveness of sins—to adherents of Communism.

Togliatti's Socialist ally, Pietro Nenni, although strongly anti-church, has taken a similar line.

But against these attitudes and statements, Catholics had the words of their parish priests, bishops, archbishops and Pope Pius. The Pope told the Roman clergy March 10 they had the "right and duty" to impress upon their parishioners the "extraordinary importance" of the coming elections.

Vatican Decree Distributed

The 4,000,000 strong nonpolitical but avowedly anti-communism organization Catholic Action gave widespread public distribution to a decree of the Vatican's Sacred Consistorial Congregation. This said:

"Catholics may give their votes only to those candidates or lists of candidates from which there is certainty they will respect and defend observance of the divine law and rights of religion and the church in private and public life."

Threat Whispered In North

In the industrial north, Communists were reported whispering that the ballot "will not really be secret. We will know how you vote." The suggestion—for those who wanted to take it that way—was "either vote Communist or stay home."

The Christian Democrats countered with leaflets at Sesto San Giovanni—Communist stronghold near Milan. The leaflets said:

"In the voting booth God sees you, Stalin does not."

Moscow Radio Finds Duplicity In Trieste Plan

Charges Three Powers Act Behind Russia's Back to Influence Italian Voting

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 21. — The Moscow radio said tonight that the proposal of the United States, Great Britain and France to return Trieste to Italy was made by "acting behind the back of the Soviet Union."

The news report in the Russian Language came more than twenty-four hours after announcement of the proposal by the Western powers. It was the first Russian reaction.

"The United States, Britain and France are acting behind the back of the Soviet Union in proposing to revise the peace treaty with Italy," the broadcast said.

Reports U.S. Announcement

"The State Department has stated the United States, Britain and France have proposed revision of the peace treaty with Italy for the purpose of putting Trieste under Italy's control," the brief broadcast summary continued.

"The State Department has stated it has sent the proposal for this revision of the treaty to the Soviet and Italian ambassadors to the United States."

The radio quoted interpretations by a diplomatic correspondent of the Reuter news agency.

Viewed As Election Prize

It quoted the correspondent of the British news agency as saying Trieste "is now being presented to the Italian voters as a prize, receipt of which may actually depend on the results of the elections."

"Thus it is frankly admited," the broadcast said, "that the most important purpose of the Anglo-Franco-American declaration is to influence Italian voters so as to force them at the forthcoming parliamentary elections in Italy April 18 to vote for the reactionary party which represents an agency of the United States and does not care for the Italian people as this declaration tries to make out."

"War Psychosis" Charge

London, March 21 (AP)—The Moscow radio declared: "Fresh fuel for the war psychosis," today in comment on President Truman's message to Congress calling for a temporary draft and universal military training.

"In contrast to the demobilization in the U.S.S.R.," Moscow said, "this week brought President Truman's speech on St. Patrick's Day calling for conscription and compulsory military training. Fresh fuel for the war psychosis is being added by the ruling circles of the United States of America."

Russia has announced that all Russian troops but the 21-and 22-year-old classes will be demobilized by the end of this month. A Moscow dispatch today said 1,000 of the latest group mustered out of the army has been sent to jobs at the Stalin auto factory.

Washington authorities estimate the Russian Army at more than 4,000,000 men.

Italian Socialists Boycott Meeting

Communist Allies Walk Out of London Parley

LONDON, March 21 (AP).—Italian Socialists allied politically with the Communists boycotted today a Marshall plan discussion by Socialist leaders of fifteen European countries.

The meeting was called by the British Labor and French Socialist parties to discuss the part Socialists can play in making the European Recovery Plan work.

Tullio Vechietti and two fellow delegates from the Italian Socialist party first walked out of a separate thirteen-nation international Socialist conference last night. They were protesting against a resolution which appeal to Polish and Italian Socialists to regain freedom of action from the Communists.

Then Vechietti and his delegation failed to appear today for the opening session of the Marshall plan meeting. Italy was represented, however, by a delegation headed by Matteo Lombardo, of the new Socialist Union, which is opposed to co-operation with the Communists at the Italian election April 18.

REDS AGAIN URGE WESTERN POWERS TO QUIT BERLIN

BERLIN, March 21 — (AP) The Russians' abrupt walkout on a meeting of the four-power Allied control council was followed today by renewed suggestions in the Soviet-controlled press that the three western powers should get out of Berlin.

The Russians charged that the western Allies had "destroyed" the control council by taking secret actions regarding western Germany.

Thereby, claimed the Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung, the U. S., Britain and France had "destroyed their reason for being here" as joint occupiers with the Russians. Berlin is the seat of four-power administration for Germany.

Walkout "Follow-up" Awaited

The first indication whether the Russians intend to extend their walkout into a permanent boycott of the Allied control authority is expected tomorrow when a meeting of the manpower directorate is scheduled. If Russian representatives fail to attend it may mean a pulling out of four-power machinery.

U. S. and British authorities adopted a "wait and see" attitude. Some were inclined to believe that the Russian walkout applied only to yesterday's heated meeting, when Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky accused the western powers of sabotaging the control council.

The Allied coordinating committee, composed of the four deputy military governors, is scheduled to meet at mid-week under Russian chairmanship. The control council, also under Russian chairmanship for this month, does not meet again until March 30.

The official Soviet account of yesterday's unprecedented events in the control council indicated that Sokolovsky's abrupt action adjourned only that single session.

Soviet-controlled newspapers ignored the sharp denials of Sokolovsky's charges given by the U. S. and British representatives, Gen. Lucius D. Clay and Gen. Sir Brian Robertson.

The people of Berlin, often in the past beset by nervous fears that the western powers might withdraw and leave their city entirely under Russian control, anxiously watched the control situation.

RUSSIANS PLUG BORDER LEAKS

Guard Tightened Along Edge Of U.S. Zone In Germany

Berlin, March 21 (AP)—The Russians have posted guards 100 yards apart along the border between the American and Russian zones in the area of Hof, Germans who slipped across the border said today.

They reported new border police units moved up to the frontier in the last 48 hours.

German press reports said the Russians had sharply strengthened their border guards to check the flight of Germans from the Soviet zones into the British-American zones.

American Military Government and German police in the United States zone said they had received no notification of an increase in the Russian zone border guard.

Russian Border Measures

The French-licensed newspaper Kurier, in a dispatch datelined Magdeburg in the Soviet zone, said border measures included establishment of a long chain of police posts, block houses, watch towers and earth huts. It said 1,500 trained police, mostly young Communists, had been installed in them.

There was no indication that the move had any purpose besides halting illegal border crossing. American Military Government authorities said such illegal crossings into the American zone range from 12,000 to 13,000 monthly.

Dr. Werner Hennemann, a leader of the Conservative Christian Democratic Union who fled to Stuttgart, said many members of his party and the Rightist Liberal Democratic party had been arrested recently in Saxony.

Neue Zeitung, official German newspaper of the American Military Government, said action committees similar to those in Czechoslovakia conducted the roundup.

Printers' Strike Shuts All of Italy's Papers

ROME, Monday, March 22 (AP).—A nation-wide printers' strike started at midnight, forcing all of Italy's daily newspapers to shut down.

The big Communist-directed Union of Typographers ordered government and newspaper printers off their jobs for at least twenty-four hours.

The strike was called in support of demands by printers in small private shops for a 34 per cent wage increase.

An estimated 1,000 daily newspapers were affected. Ansa, Italy's largest news agency, also was struck.

30,000 Italians March In Trieste, Hailing West

TRIESTE, March 21 (AP)A crowd estimated at 30,000 pro-Italians paraded through Trieste today, hailing the Western powers' proposal that the city be returned to Italy.

There were a few fist fights, but the demonstration generally was peaceful. Police did not attempt to disperse the demonstrators, who marched three miles.

Thousands of Italian flags fluttered from house windows.

Communists here were silent, apparently awaiting their cue from higher up as to the line they should take on the issue which France, Great Britain and the United States presented to them yesterday.

Demonstration in Milan

MILAN, March 21 (AP).—The cry of "long live Trieste" was raised in Milan's Duomo (Cathedral) Square this afternoon and started fist fighting between Communists and anti-Communists. Police riot squads put an end to the fighting.

The short-lived scuffle took place just after noon. A parade was entering the square bearing the city's banner. To the flag had been affixed Italy's gold medal of heroism, awarded to the Milanese for their feats in the five days which liberated the city from the Nazis. A watching crowd greeted the banner with applause.

CZECHS START LAND REFORMS

Confiscate Large Estates, With Peasants To Profit

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 21 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Parliament enacted a land-reform measure today. Land holdings in excess of 50 hectares (125 acres) are being confiscated.

Landless peasants will receive an opportunity to acquire the excess acreage under favorable terms. Extensive holdings by the church are included in the measure, but the church will be compensated for lands taken.

Provide Loans For Farmers

A set of new agricultural laws also reformed the system of land taxation and provided Government loans for small farmers.

Communist legislators called the measure "the final victory of peasants over entrenched landlords."

Rudolf Slansky, general secretary of the Communist party, told a party meeting today that 93 per cent of Czechoslovak industry will be nationalized in a matter of weeks.

Legislation to provide nationalization of all undertakings employing more than 50 persons will be ready for parliamentary consideration in two weeks. Slansky predicted prompt passage.

The second "Premier Gottwald Week" —a campaign to strengthen the Communist party—brought in 55,597 new members, party headquarters announced today. Membership was increased by 245,735 in the two weeks. There was no announcement of the total membership, but that in Prague was given as 284,000. Goal of the drive is 2,000,000 members in the country.

Belgrade Sees "Maneuvers"

BELGRADE, March 21 (AP).—Yugoslavia's official attitude on the Western powers' proposal for returning Trieste to Italy was indicated today in a headline in the Communist newspaper, "Borba": "Imperialist Maneuvers With Trieste Before Italian Elections."

The headline appeared over a bulletin-like paragraph on the front page, which gave only the barest facts and made no other comment.

Although it is certain that nearly all Yugoslavs, regardless of politics, are indignant at the mere thought of losing hope of getting the rest of what they call their "beloved Istria," no manifestation of any kind was reported anywhere in the country. The people are so rigidly disciplined they will do nothing without specific orders.

A radio announcement of the Trieste proposal took the people by complete surprise. The diplomatic corps appeared unanimous in the opinion that the Yugoslav authorities will not react in any way until they learn what Russia's line will be.

Finns Go 'Formal' At Soviet Request

Helsinki, Finland, March 21 (AP)—The six-man Finnish delegation which is en route to Moscow for treaty talks took along formal clothes and all their official decorations—at Soviet request.

Traveling in a special railway train, the delegation is expected to reach Moscow tomorrow to begin negotiations for the treaty of friendship and mutual aid requested by Prime Minister Stalin.

The Russians asked that the delegation bring its formal duds—an indication that a full round of dinners and receptions is planned for them.

Onni Peltonen, Social Democratic member of the delegation, was caught short by the request. He is a locomotive engineer and had to get a special permit from the Supply Ministry in order to buy the necessary outfit.

52 Guerrillas Doomed By Greek Army Court

50 Men And 2 Women Draw Death Sentences—New Salonika Defense Program Established

Salonika, Greece, March 21 (AP)—Fifty men and two women have been sentenced to death by a Greek military court in connection with the February 10 shelling of Salonika, it was disclosed today.

The court sentenced two men and five women to life imprisonment. Seven men and one woman drew lighter sentences. Thirty-eight men and six women were found innocent.

The defendants were among a group of guerrillas captured after the Communist-led insurgents bombarded this second city of Greece.

Salonika Girds For Attack

Meanwhile, it was revealed that the Greek Army has established a new defense program to protect Salonika. An American military source said the city may be attacked by 2,000 to 3,000 guerrillas in the next few weeks.

Informants here said they had no official information that the Communists were concentrating an international brigade in the countries north of Greece. Reports on the existence of such an international force were received last week in Washington and Athens.

Guerrilla Preparations

The Salonika sources gave this description of guerrilla preparations:

Large numbers of guerrillas have been massed near the Greek frontier in Yugoslavia and Albania. Six divisions of the 5th Yugoslav Army also have been stationed in the area.

While the ranks are filled with veteran Greek guerrillas, the units are led by non-Greek officers including Albanian mercenaries.

Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria are stockpiling military supplies for eventual use by the guerrillas in zones near Greece. Civilians have been forbidden to enter those areas.

"The main object of this preparation, according to our information, is a big scale attack to be launched from Albania on Epirus," one military official said.

Col. Robert B. Deans, of New York city, today advised the United Nations special committee on the Balkans that his United Nations observation group was subjected to machinegun fire from Albanian soil yesterday. The group was watching the border about 27 miles northwest of Ioannina.

Heavy Blow Dealt Guerrillas

Athens, March 21 (AP) — The Greek Army reported heavy new blows today against a force of 2,500 guerrillas in north central Greece, bringing to more than 600 the casualties inflicted in two weeks of bitter mountain fighting.

General staff communiqués indicated the Army was chalking up one of its greatest successes in the last two years against the Communist-led foes.

Today's bulletin said 66 guerrillas were killed and 21 were wounded during fighting in a snowstorm on Mount Pierria, which lies west of famed Mount Olympus.

A recapitulation of communiqués since contact was established with the guerrillas in the Mount Olympus region fourteen days ago showed these casualties inflicted on the guerrillas: 258 killed, 21 wounded, 270 captured and 56 surrendered. Government losses were reported under 50.

GREEKS RECEIVING ARMS FROM U. S. IN STEADY STREAM

ATHENS, March 21.—(AP) High government officials indicated today that Greek national forces and communist-led guerrillas are racing to strike the first blow in decisive spring operations.

While shiploads of American military supplies for the Greek army arrived in steady stream, all top-ranking military leaders have held closely guarded conferences in Athens the past two days.

Another indication that a major government drive may not be far off was the calling of a special cabinet meeting to be held as soon as Vice Premier Constantin Tsladaris returns from the Paris Marshall Plan conference. Informed sources said the meeting will discuss the results of the military conferences as well as new civilian mobilization measures.

Spiros Damaschinos, deputy chief of staff of the Greek air force, said in an interview that observations from the air and mountain tops disclosed the communist rebels along the hostile northern frontiers were making large-scale preparations for attack.

Damaschinos said concentrations of men and supplies had been spotted and "foreign planes" were dropping supplies by night to isolated guerrilla bands in the rugged mountains of northwestern Greece.

REDS OPEN ATTACK IN INNER MONGOLIA

Campaign Is 'All-Out,' Says Government—Communists Report Shantung Drive

PEIPING, China, March 21 (AP)—The Chinese Government command announced tonight that the Communists had begun an "all-out" campaign in Inner Mongolia northwest of Peiping.

The announcement, from Gen. Fu Tso-yi's headquarters, said four Communist columns attacked the Suiyuan railway Saturday night and took four points between Kalgan and Tatung.

Kalgan, the gateway to Inner Mongolia, is 100 miles by air and 116 by rail from Peiping. Tatung, important rail junction in northern Shensi Province, is 150 miles by air west of Peiping, but is 230 miles by rail via Kalgan.

The Government announcement said both cities were "seriously threatened." It also said that General Fu had anticipated the attacks and had been moving troops up to meet it for the last several days.

Inner Mongolia borders the so-called Outer Mongolian People's Republic, a Soviet satellite.

Reports circulated in Nanking that the Communists had captured Chefoo and Weihsien, important cities in Shantung Province, northeast China.

Reports And Denials

[Government sources denied it, but acknowledged "very heavy" pressure against Weihsien and general fighting along the railway between Tsingtao and Tsinan, Shantung provincial capital.

[The Communist radio, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, called the Shantung operations a "spring offensive" and said ten large towns had fallen northeast and southeast of Tsinan in the last eight days.

[Silent on Inner Mongolia, the Communist radio broadcast a review of the Manchurian campaign. It said recent capture of Szepingkai had cut off hope of retreat for the Government garrison in Changchun. It declared 130,000 men composing eight Government divisions had been destroyed in the Manchurian winter war.

[The broadcast predicted early capture of all Manchuria, which it said would "become the strategic general base for supporting the war throughout the country."

[The Government ordered special precautions against Communist infiltration and sabotage in Nanking, which it feared might be timed to coincide with the National Assembly meeting March 29.]

Chinese Reds Open Drive In Mongolia

Shanghai, Monday, March 22 (AP)—The price of rice, China's main food, reached a new peak today—4,500,000 Chinese dollars ($9 U.S.) per 133 pounds. Dealers said they saw no prospect of an early decline.

Government officials blame manipulations by merchants. Merchants blame price hikes by farmers and increasing transportation costs.

EMPEROR PASSES UP 'ANCESTORS' SPIRITS'

TOKYO, March 21 (AP)—Today was the annual "spring festival of the imperial ancestors' spirits," but Emperor Hirohito gave it the go-by.

Court officials said it was the first time he had ever had missed a traditional ceremony except for a few urgent occasions during the war. This time there was no reason except that he just didn't bother.

The Emperor vacationing at Hayama, 30 miles south of Tokyo.

Philippines To Buy Cement From Russia

Manila, March 21 (AP)—The Philippines authorized Russia today to ship in $1,610,000 worth of cement from Dairen, Manchuria.

It may be a two-way transaction, however. The Philippines Government has been looking for some way to deport three Russians held as undesirable aliens. The Republic has no diplomatic relations with Moscow.

Now it expects to put the three aboard the first Russian vessel which arrives with the first of 1,000,000 bags of cement. The sale of the cement to the Cebu Portland Cement Company was arranged in Shanghai.

6 KILLED, 26 HURT AS ARABS BLAST JEWISH QUARTERS

Cooperative Building in Haifa Wrecked by Terrific Explosion.

OTHER VIOLENCE FLARES

Jews Expected to Proclaim Hebrew State Today or Tomorrow.

JERUSALEM, March 21 — (AP) Six Jews were killed and 26 injured today in the blasting of a Jewish building in Haifa.

In an upsurge of Jewish-Arab warfare, thousands of bullets whined over Jerusiaem as Arabs from the old city battled Jews in embattled Montefiora for two hours. British artillery was called in to quell the fighting.

Lead splattered off the walls of the press headquarters and public information office. Tracers, flares, star shells and smoke bombs spewed and sputtered over the King David Hotel and British military headquarters.

A Jew fell wounded 30 yards from the press room. Five wounded Arabs were taken through the Jaffa gate.

Police Appeal to Arabs

The fighting on this Palm Sunday did not cease until police appealed to the Arabs. The Arabs charged Jews with starting hostilities by firing at Arab crowds around Jaffa gate.

The Haifa blast and other violence claimed the lives of 15 Jews and 11 Arabs. The unofficial death toll since the Nov. 29 U.N. decision on partition reached 1,926.

Police said a truck loaded with 500 to 600 pounds of explosives drew up before a building in Haifa occupied by a Jewish Building Workers' Cooperative. Four minutes before the explosion an Arab was seen leaving the truck, police added. A guard of Haganah, the Jewish militia, was killed in a vain effort to remove the truck from the area.

Fifteen trucks and private cars in the area were burned. The ground floor of the building was gutted. Most of the people inside were rescued by ropes which they lowered into the streets. The cooperative is affiliated with Histadrut, the trade union of Jewish labor in Palestine.

One Arab was killed and one wounded when Jews blew up two unoccupied houses in downtown Haifa during the day.

10 Arabs Slain

Jewish sources said 10 Arabs and five Jews were killed in a clash in the Rosh Pinna-Safad area of northern Palestine. The fighting began with an Arab attack on Jewish motor traffic.

A British officer and five Arabs were killed when British troops engaged Arabs near Beit Naballa in the Lydda district on the coastal plain, an official source said.

One Jew was killed when 500 Arabs in khaki uniform attacked a Jewish convoy on its way from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. Another Jew died in Jaffa-Tel Aviv borderland sniping.

Hebrew State Expected To Be Proclaimed Soon

TEL AVIV, Palestine, March 21.—(AP) A reliable informant said today a formal order of the Jewish National Council proclaiming the existence of a Hebrew state in Palestine is expected tomorrow or Tuesday.

No official announcement came from the council but David Ben Gurion, chairman of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, said here yesterday the Jewish state already has come into being and will be defended by Jewish arms.

[In New York, Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American section of the agency, said today that proclaiming a Jewish state is "the logical thing" for Zionists to do. The action of the Jews in Palestine, he said, will depend on whether they are strong enough to back up such a proclamation.]

Partition A Fact

Arab resistance to the United Nations decision to partition Palestine has driven home to the Jews the realization that their state never would be formed out of the ordinary process of United Nations decisions.

They are determined now their state will have to be created in blood and sacrifice.

This only all-Jewish city in the world is the administrative center of the new state. There is no particular resentment evident here against Americans as the result of the United States reversal on partition. The Jews realize peaceful partition has already failed, with almost 2,000 slain in bloody civil war since November 29. But partition to them is a physical fact.

Has Army And Laws

As it stands today the Jewish area it cannot be called as yet a state—has its own frontiers and guards them. They are outlined in barbed wire, pillboxes and road blocks. They guard a line of natural division between slightly less than half of Palestine which the Jews have been able to hold, and slightly more than half which Arab arms control.

That frontier almost certainly will change when the end of the British mandate gives armed forces on both sides their first real test of strength against each other.

Disarm Haganah, Arabs Demand

Beirut, Lebanon, March 21 (AP)—The Arab League called today for dissolution and disarmament of Haganah, the Jewish militia, as a step toward achieving a truce in the Holy Land.

"If this is done we'll disarm the Arabs," said Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the league.

A communiqué issued by the political committee of the league asked also for an immediate halt of further Jewish immigration to Palestine.

"The Arabs still definitely oppose partition but are ready to co-operate in any solution that would result in Palestine becoming one democratic state where peace and order were maintained," the communiqué said.

Burma Press Seeks Help

Asks Protection Against Mobs and Repeal of All Restrictions

RANGOON, March 21 (AP).—Burmese journalists have appealed to President Sao Shwe Thaik and to the People's Volunteer Organization for protection against mob violence, as a result of a March 12 peasant riot, in which three newspaper offices here were wrecked.

Executives of five Burma press associations have adopted resolutions calling for repeal of the press emergency act and withdrawal of all restrictions affecting newspapers directly or indirectly. Under the press act, the government is empowered to suspend opposition newspapers.

Strengthen U. N. and Halt Soviet, Dr. Aranha Urges

By The Associated Press.

PETROPOLIS, Brazil, March 21—Dr. Oswaldo Aranha, president of the United Nations General Assembly, said tonight that the United Nations must be strengthened "so that Russia will be incapable of expansion."

"The Russian people, of belated liberty and culture and with the industry of the nineteenth century, do not want to adapt themselves to democratic order, but to subvert it," Dr. Aranha told a world convention junior chambers of commerce.

"Our task," he said, "is to halt the march of war and revolution.

"I recognize the gravity of the moment. Russian expansion and Communist violence have provoked in me the same repugnance as in others of the Western world. However, I am convinced peace still is possible.

"Democracy has a moral and material force to put away fear and fatalism. The Soviets and their satellites lack this moral and material force."

TEST SLATED ON CHINA AID

Senate Unit To Weigh Allotment For Military Help

Washington, March 21 (AP)—The question of military aid for China comes to a vital testing point tomorrow.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee tackles the problem of how China can best be helped at this time.

The Administration has asked $570,000,000 economic aid. But there is strong sentiment in House and Senate to earmark a sum for military use.

The argument is that economic help alone is not enough to enable Chiang Kai-shek's Government to whip the Chinese Communists.

Military-Aid Proposal

This belief found expression in recommendations of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that the $570,000,000 be divided into $420,000,000 for economic aid and $150,000,000 military. The House is expected to concur.

Whether the Senate committee will go along is apparently a question to be decided at tomorrow's closed-door session. Should it agree, the issue may well be virtually at rest.

The committee has called back Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, for his views on China again tomorrow.

To date, some committee members have shown a marked distaste for mixing military assistance with economic aid.

Committee's United Front

Thus far the committee headed by Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) has presented a united front in sending its foreign-relief measures to the Senate floor. The $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program, passed by the Senate March 13, carried unanimous indorsement of the committee. Last Friday the group voted unanimously to recommend an additional $275,000,000 military assistance for Greece and Turkey.

It will be a momentous week on Capitol Hill for foreign aid in all its aspects.

The House is expected to begin debate of a $6,205,000,000 bill containing the entire program of assistance in Asia and Europe. The Senate is handling it in a series of separate measures.

Debate Due On Greece

In the Senate, debate probably will start during the week on military aid to Greece and Turkey.

A prediction of House passage of the bundled-up aid program just about "as is" came from Representative Vorys (R., Ohio).

Vorys is slated to carry much of the load of piloting the bill through the House for Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee.

Vorys said he thinks the bill to help Europe and China hold off communism will become a law without any big changes.

Items In House Bill

The House bill includes the $5,300,000,000 for a European program, the $275,000,000 for Greece and Turkey, the $420,000,000 for economic and $150,000,000 for military help for China, and $60,000,000 for the United Nations Children's Fund.

In general, the House and Senate bills stick fairly well together on the plan to help western Europe. But there are spots for possible controversy.

For instance:

Under the House bill, the foreign-aid issue would be threshed out every year as long as the program lasts. Under the Senate bill, the annual scrap would be limited to money, not authority for keeping the program going.

No Outright Promises

Both bills contemplate that the aid will continue until the middle of 1952, but they make no outright promises on that score. The $5,300,000,000 would be for the first year of operations.

Two more House committees dig into the foreign-aid problem tomorrow.

The Rules Committee considers arrangements for getting the program before the House. The plan is to start debate Tuesday, keep it going through Thursday, begin voting on amendments the following Monday and pass the bill in another two days—by March 31.

The Appropriations Committee goes into the question of keeping some of the pipelines filled to countries now getting help. President Truman has asked for an extra $55,000,000 to tide over Italy, France and Austria.

"Efficiency Expert" Role

The American Enterprise Association meanwhile submitted a report in which it said: "The neglected item in European Recovery Program planning is application of American industrial knowledge and techniques."

The association is a business and university group engaged in research, with headquarters in New York. It said the United State should be the "efficiency expert and consulting enigneer of European recovery."

It proposed joint consulting committees to be made up of Government, industry and labor representatives from the United States and each country receiving help.

If aid results in higher European living standards and greater purchasing power, it said, in the long run this "should more than repay the entire cost of the program."

PREDICTS LOSS BY U.S. FRIENDS

Senator Taylor Pessimistic On Italian Elections

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Senator Glen Taylor (D., Idaho) predicted today that the Italian election probably will go against parties friendly to this country.

He blamed this outlook on Washington's Greek military aid program.

"This," he said in a letter to President Truman, "apparently has so discredited the American Government that the Italian political parties oriented towards America will probably suffer a severe defeat in the coming elections."

He referred to the April 18 voting in Italy where the United States and other Western non-Communist powers are striving with extraordinary measures to keep the country from going Communist.

Points To Oil Holdings

Taylor, who expects to run for vice president on the Henry Wallace third-party ticket, said that an important factor a year ago in sending military aid to Turkey and Greece appeared to be a desire to "protect the interests of certain large oil companies."

Taylor said that "the same question of Middle East oil holdings" figured in weakening our support for Palestine partitioning.

The Senator made his assertions in voicing a demand that Mr. Truman fire James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, because of what he described as Forrestal's stand on Middle East oil.

Taylor charged that Forrestal "has been most aggressive in seeking to have American foreign and military policy directed to the interests of the oil companies."

Criticizes Forrestal

Taylor wrote that Forrestal was connected with the New York investment firm of Dillon, Read Company from 1916 to 1940. He said this firm is the investment banker for Texas Corporation and Standard Oil Company of California which jointly own the Arabian-American Oil Company operating in the Middle East.

"In the matter of Middle East oil concessions, Mr. Forrestal has taken a position which has coincidence with the personal financial interests he once held," Taylor asserted. "This conduct has been all the more reprehensible because of the excessive zeal he has displayed in this particular matter and because the matter so vitally affects world peace and national security."

Wallace Is Taken To Task By Lodge

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) today accused Henry Wallace of harming his country and "the plain people of the world" by his foreign-policy statements.

Lodge also told the third-party presidential candidate in a letter that Wallace is offering "direct encouragement to the masters of the Soviet police empire to continue their campaign of extending the iron curtain."

Reply To Wallace Telegram

Lodge's accusations were in reply to a telegram sent by Wallace to members of Congress. In it, the former Vice President called upon Congress, among other things, "quell the war hysteria which is being fanned by the military and cartelist members of the administration."

Lodge, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, wrote Wallace, "I cannot hope by any reply of mine to make you admit the great wrong you are committing."

Interpretation Abroad

"But as one citizen whose whole life is bound up with America and who seeks, as best he can, to serve and protect her, I feel I must in reply record my opinion of the great harm you have done your country and the plain people of the world," he said.

Lodge also told Wallace that his activities are interpreted abroad as signs of "American disunion."

RESCUE HELICOPTER TRIED

Navy Reports on Ship for Carriers—Adapted Also to Scouting

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—The Navy is testing a new helicopter designed for utility, rescue and observation work from aircraft carriers, battleships and cruisers.

The department's announcement said that the new craft is the XHJS-1, built by the Sikorsky Division of United Aircraft Corporation at Bridgeport, Conn. It will carry five persons, has a top speed of 110 miles an hour, a maximum range of 330 miles at a cruising speed of ninety miles an hour, and a service "ceiling" of 19,000 feet. The ship weighs 4,750 pounds fully loaded.

But the helicopter differs from other types in that it has these features:

All-metal rotor blades.

A new method for folding and locking the blades to the tail cone.

An elevated tail rotor placing the blades above ordinary head height.

A special floor hatch for mounting a camera or for hauling in cargo. This hatch may be used also in rescuing persons from the sea.

LOAN FUND PROPOSED FOR COTTON TO JAPAN

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—A bill which would set up a $150,000,000 revolving fund for the purchase of fibers and hides for processing in occupied countries will be submitted to the Senate this week, Senator Maybank, Democrat, of South Carolina, said today. He told reporters that thirty Senators are expected to sponsor the legislation.

Senator Maybank and Senator Eastland, Democrat, of Mississippi, began drafting the legislation last Tuesday following a conference with Dr. W. P. Jacobs of Charlotte, N. C., president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association.

At that time, Senator Maybank said it was estimated the plan would send 1,000,000 bales of cotton to Japan each year until a peace treaty is signed. Senator Eastland told reporters that it would keep the Japanese textile industry, which is about to shut down for lack of cotton, in operation.

Money drawn from the revolving fund to purchase cotton and other materials here would be repaid through the sale of processed articles in other countries. Loans would bear interest at 2½ per cent.

U. S. PALESTINE SHIFT ATTACKED BY BOWLES

ESSEX, March 21—(AP) Chester Bowles, former stabilization director, today issued a statement criticizing this country's recent action "in reversing its former support of the Palestine partition plan."

Said Bowles:

"In my opinion, this action represents the sheerest cynicism, and its weakening effect on the United Nations cannot be exaggerated."

"Three weeks ago," said Bowles, whose name has been mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, "the United States led the way in swinging world support behind the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine. As recently as three days ago, top administration leaders denied reports that any retreat was in the cards.

"On Friday, we not only retreated—we surrendered. At a time when the world is seeking desperately for moral leadership, we sacrificed principle for the narrow strategy of the militarists and the oil companies."

Gen. Marshall Returns From Trip To Coast

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, returned tonight from a two-day trip to California, where he spoke in support of the Administration's new stop-Russia program.

Marshall told reporters the proposal to return the free territory of Trieste to Italy, advanced unexpectedly by the United States, Britain and France, was decided on "more or less unanimously" before he left on the trip Thursday.

ARABS PONDER NEW STRATEGY

Expected To Revive Plea In U.N. For Unified Palestine

Lake Success, N.Y., March 21 (AP)—The Arabs were reported today to be planning a new effort to get United Nations approval for an independent unified Palestine.

The new Arab strategy was adopted after the United States told the Security Council Friday that it was abandoning its support of the General Assembly's 1947 plan to partition the Holy Land.

Representatives of the Arab countries here were awaiting instructions on policies agreed upon at Beirut, Lebanon, by the political committee of the Arab League.

Will Seek Special Session

There still was no definite indication whether the Arabs would support the United States proposal to place Palestine under United Nations trusteeship. It was understood, however, that they would back the United States' move for a special Palestine session of the General Assembly.

A communique, issued after the Arab League meeting in Beirut, said the Arab countries were "ready to co-operate in any solution that would result in Palestine becoming one democratic state where peace and order were maintained."

This was interpreted here as indicating the Arabs would take advantage of the new turn of events to renew their efforts for a federated government in the Holy Land.

Hopes for a Jewish-Arab truce in Palestine faded when the Arab League announced it would disarm the Arabs only if Haganah, the Jewish militia, is disarmed and Jewish immigration is halted.

Meanwhile, the United States was reported ready to press for adoption of its trusteeship plan despite a promise of Jewish resistance.

ROME, MARCH 21-(AP)-CHRISTIANITY VERSUS COMMUNISM HAS BECOME A VITAL ISSUE OF THE APRIL 18 ELECTIONS, WHEN ITALIANS WILL CHOOSE THEIR FIRST REPUBLICAN PARLIAMENT.

THIS DEVELOPMENT IS ONE THAT THE COMMUNIST-LED POPULAR FRONT HAS NOT DESIRED.

ASTUTE, MOSCOW-TRAINED COMMUNIST CHIEF PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, CALCULATING EFFECTS OF AN ELECTORAL BATTLE ON A RELIGIOUS FRONT IN ALMOST SOLIDLY CATHOLIC ITALY, LONG AGO LOWERED HIS SIGHTS FROM THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

HE VOTED FOR INCLUDING IN THE REPUBLIC'S CONSTITUTION THE LATERAN PACTS WHICH GIVE THE CHURCH A FAVORED POSITION.

MORE RECENTLY HE CHIDED MEMBERS OF THE POPULAR FRONT WHO ATTACKED ALFREDO ILDEFONSO CARDINAL SCHUSTER, ARCHBISHOP OF MILAN, WHEN THE LATTER ORDERED PRIESTS OF HIS DIOCESE TO REFUSE ABSOLUTION--FORGIVENESS OF SINS--TO ADHERENTS OF COMMUNISM.

TOGLIATTI'S SOCIALIST ALLY, PIETRO NENNI, ALTHOUGH STRONGLY ANTI-CHURCH, HAS TAKEN A SIMILAR LINE. HE SAID:

MAR 1948

"THE ELECTIONS ARE NOT FOR CHRIST OR AGAINST CHRIST. THEY ARE NOT FOR OR AGAINST AMERICA; FOR OR AGAINST RUSSIA...THE CHURCH DOES NOT ENTER INTO IT AND NEED NOT FEAR THE POPULAR FRONT."

BUT AGAINST THESE ATTITUDES AND STATEMENTS, CATHOLICS HAD THE WORDS OF THEIR PARISH PRIESTS, BISHOPS, ARCHBISHOPS AND POPE PIUS. THE POPE TOLD THE ROMAN CLERGY MARCH 10 THEY HAD THE "RIGHT AND DUTY" TO IMPRESS UPON THEIR PARISHIONERS THE "EXTRAORDINARY IMPORTANCE" OF THE COMING ELECTIONS.

WHO FAILS TO VOTE BECAUSE OF "INDOLENCE OR COWARDICE," HE SAID, COMMITS A "GRAVE SIN, A MORTAL FAULT." THEN HE ADDED:

"THE CHURCH REMAINS OUTSIDE AND ABOVE POLITICAL PARTIES. BUT, HOW CAN IT BE INDIFFERENT TO THE MAKEUP OF THE ITALIAN REPUBLIC'S FIRST PARLIAMENT IF IT IS TO LEGISLATE ON MATTERS WHICH SO DIRECTLY AFFECT THE HIGHEST INTERESTS AND CONDITIONS AND LIFE OF THE CHURCH ITSELF IN ITALY?"

CATHOLIC ACTION--THE SHOCK TROOPS OF THE CHURCH'S FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM--HAS SAID AGAIN AND AGAIN:

"THE FIGHT IS FOR CHRIST OR COMMUNISM."

HAMMERING ON THAT THEME, THE FOUR-MILLION STRONG NONPOLITICAL BUT AVOWEDLY ANTI-COMMUNISM ORGANIZATION GAVE THE FIRST WIDESPREAD PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION TO A DECREE OF THE VATICAN'S SCARED CONSISTORIAL CONGREGATION. THIS SAID:

"CATHOLICS MAY GIVE THEIR VOTES ONLY TO THOSE CANDIDATES OR LLISTS OF CANDIDATES FROM WHICH THERE IS CERTAINTY THEY WILL RESPECT AND DEFEND OBSERVANCE OF THE DIVINE LAW AND RIGHTS OF RELIGION AND THE CHURCH IN PRIVATE AND PUBLIC LIFE."

FOR MONTHS CATHOLIC ACTION HAS STRESSED THIS THEME IN ITS NEWS SERVICE TO MORE THAN 150 PERIODICALS THAT REACH INTO EVERY ITALIAN PARISH. IT STRESSED IT IN SOCIAL MISSIONS TO ITALY'S AGRICULTURAL SOUTH WHICH IN JUNE, 1946 ELECTIONS GAVE MANY VOTES TO THE MONARCHY.

THESE MISSIONS BEGAN LAST FALL AND ENDED RECENTLY WITH THE TRIUMPHANT TRANSPORT OF THE MADONNA OF POMPEY FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 7(;

THERE THE REV. RICCARDO LOMBARDI GAVE ONE OF HIS IMPASSIONED SPEECHES. MORE THAN 200,000 KNELT IN THE STREETS AS ALESSIO CARDINAL ASCALESI, ARCHBISHOP OF NAPLES, CONSECRATED THE CITY TO THE VIRGIN MARY.

MAR 1948

B5

CATHOLIC ACTION HAS ALSO GIVEN WIDE DISTRIBUTION TO A PASTORAL LETTER ON SOCIAL CONDITIONS IN THE SOUTH, SIGNED BY ALL 78 SOUTHERN PRELATES, HEADED BY CARDINAL ASCALESI.

THIS DOCUMENT, SAID A SPOKESMAN FOR CATHOLIC ACTION, IN ITS THEME AND NUMBERS OF SIGNATURES IS PROBABLY WITHOUT PRECEDENT IN THE HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

IT SPEAKS OF SOCIAL REFORMS, AND REITERATES THE WORDS OF POPE PIUX XI, THE PRESENT PONTIFF'S PREDECESSOR, THAT "WE CANNOT BUT CONDEMN COMMUNISM AS WELL AS SOCIALISM." IT ADDS: "NO ONE CAN BE A GOOD CATHOLIC AND AT THE SAME TIME A TRUE SOCIALIST."

IN THE INDUSTRIAL NORTH, COMMUNISTS WERE REPORTED WHISPERING THAT THE BALLOT "WILL NOT REALLY BE SECRET. WE WILL KNOW HOW YOU VOTE." THE SUGGESTION--FOR THOSE WHO WANTED TO TAKE IT THAT WAY--WAS "EITHER VOTE COMMUNIST OR STAY HOME."

TWO CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PLANES COUNTERED WITH LEAFLETS AT SESTO SAN GIOVANNI--COMMUNIST STRONGHOLD NEAR MILAN--WHERE FATHER LOMBARDI WAS SPEAKING. THE LEAFLETS SAID:

"IN THE VOTING BOOTH GOD SEES YOU, STALIN DOES NOT."

BERLIN, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN WALKOUT ON YESTERDAY'S MEETING OF THE FOUR-POWER ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL ADDED TODAY TO A "WAR OF NERVES" AGAINST THE THREE WESTERN ALLIES IN BERLIN.

THE OFFICIAL SOVIET PRESS ACCUSED THE WESTERN POWERS OF "DESTROYING" THE CONTROL COUNCIL AS THE GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY AND SAID THEY OUGHT TO GET OUT OF BERLIN.

"TRULY THEY REMAIN HERE ONLY AS PENSIONERS OF SOVIET PATIENCE," THE RUSSIAN CONTROLLED BERLINER ZEITUNG SAID, "AND OBVIOUSLY THE DAY IS FORCEFULLY APPROACHING WHEN THIS PLAY-ACTING MUST END."

RETORTED THE BRITISH-LICENSED SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER TELEGRAF:

"THIS IS A THREAT AND THE POLITICS OF FEAR, BUT THEY WON'T FRIGHTEN US WITH THEIR TERROR TACTICS."

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL INDICATION FROM THE RUSSIANS THAT THEY INTEND TO BOYCOTT FUTURE MEETINGS OF THE ALLIED CONTROL AUTHORITY. BY FAILING TO CLARIFY THIS POINT THEY LEFT IN DOUBT THE FUTURE OF FOUR-POWER ADMINISTRATION OF GERMANY AND BERLIN. THIS CLEARLY AROUSED NEW NERVOUSNESS AMONG THE GERMAN PEOPLE.

U.S.AND BRITISH AUTHORITIES ADOPTED A "WAIT AND SEE" ATTITUDE. SOME WERE INCLINED TO BELIEVE THAT THE RUSSIAN WALKOUT APPLIED ONLY TO YESTERDAY'S HEATED MEETING.

THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE, MARSHAL VASSILY SOKOLOVSKY, ACCUSED THE WESTERN POWERS OF SABOTAGING THE CONTROL COUNCIL BY TAKING ONE-SIDED ACTIONS REGARDING WESTERN GERMANY AND REFUSING TO DISCLOSE FACTS CONCERNING THEM.

THE FIRST INDICATION OF THE RUSSIAN'S FUTURE PLANS IS EXPECTED TOMORROW MORNING WHEN THE MANPOWER DIRECTORATE OF THE ALLIED CONTROL AUTHORITY IS SCHEDULED TO MEET. IF THE RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES ON THIS DIRECTORATE DO NOT ATTEND IT MAY INDICATE THEY ARE PULLING OUT OF THE FOUR-POWER MACHINERY.

THE ALLIED COORDINATING COMMITTEE, COMPOSED OF THE FOUR DEPUTY MILITARY GOVERNORS, IS SCHEDULED TO MEET AT MID-WEEK UNDER RUSSIAN CHAIRMANSHIP. THE CONTROL COUNCIL, ALSO UNDER RUSSIAN CHAIRMANSHIP FOR THIS MONTH, DOES NOT MEET AGAIN UNTIL MARCH 30.

THE OFFICIAL SOVIET ACCOUNT OF YESTERDAY'S UNPRECEDENTED EVENTS IN THE CONTROL COUNCIL INDICATED THAT SOKOLOVSKY'S ABRUPT ACTION ADJOURNED ONLY THAT SINGLE SESSION. HOWEVER, THE OFFICIAL ACCOUNT ADDED:

"THEREUPON, THE SOVIET DELEGATION EN MASSE LEFT THE CONTROL COUNCIL CHAMBER. IT WAS AS IF A BOMBSHELL HAD DROPPED. THE AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CONTROL COUNCIL HAD CONDUCTED THEMSELVES IN SUCH A AWAY THAT THEY UNSCRUPULOUSLY UPSET THE DECISIONS OF THE CONTROL MECHANISM FOR GERMANY AND THEY APPEARED TO FEEL ENTIRELY SECURE IN THIS PRACTICE.

SOVIET-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS IGNORED THE SHARP DENIALS OF SOKOLOVSKY'S CHARGES GIVEN BY THE U.S.AND BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES, GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY AND GEN.SIR BRIAN ROBERTSON. NEWSPAPERS LICENSED BY THE WESTERN POWERS CALLED THE RUSSIAN WALKOUT A "SOVIET DEMONSTRATIO

THESE FEARS, WHICH REACHED A PEAK SEVERAL MONTHS AGO, WERE LARGELY QUELLED BY STATEMENTS FROM U.S., BRITISH AND FRENCH AUTHORITIES THAT THEY HAD NO INTENTION OF SURRENDERING THEIR JOINT OCCUPATION HERE.

THE WESTERN POWERS FOLLOWED THIS UP BY GIVING STRONGER SUPPORT TO ANTI-COMMUNIST GERMANS AND TO BERLIN'S SOCIALIST-CONTROLLED GOVERNMENT. THE RESULT WAS THE CONSTRUCTION OF A VIRTUAL UNITED FRONT OF NON-COMMUNIST PARTIES WHICH LAST THURSDAY STAGED A "DEMOCRACY AND FREEDOM" DEMONSTRATION ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF GERMANY'S 1848 REVOLUTION.

TEL AVIV, PALESTINE, MARCH 21-(AP)-A HEBREW STATE IS BEING BORN IN PALESTINE, WHATEVER ITS CHANCES FOR SURVIVAL, EVENTUAL SOVEREIGNTY OR INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION.

ARAB RESISTANCE TO THE UNITED NATIONS DECISION TO PARTITION PALESTINE HAS DRIVEN HOME TO THE JEWS THE REALIZATION THEIR STATE WOULD NEVER BE FORMED OUT OF THE ORDERLY PROCESS OF U.N. DECISIONS.

THEY ARE DETERMINED NOW THEIR STATE WILL HAVE TO BE CREATED IN BLOOD AND SACRIFICE.

THIS ONLY ALL-JEWISH CITY IN THE WORLD IS THE ADMINISTRATIVE CENTER OF THE NEW STATE. THERE IS NO PARTICULAR RESENTMENT EVIDENCE HERE AGAINST AMERICANS AS THE RESULT OF THE UNITED STATES REVERSAL ON PARTITION. THE JEWS REALIZE PEACEFUL PARTITION HAS ALREADY FAILED, WITH ALMOST 2,000 SLAIN IN BLOODY CIVIL WAR SINCE NOV.29. BUT PARTITION TO THEM IS A PHYSICAL FACT.

AS IT STANDS TODAY THE JEWISH AREA--IT CANNOT BE CALLED AS YET A STATE--HAS ITS OWN FRONTIERS AND GUARDS THEM. THEY ARE OUTLINED IN BARBED WIRE, PILLBOXES AND ROAD BLOCKS. THEY GUARD A LINE OF NATURAL DIVISION BETWEEN SLIGHTLY LESS THAN HALF OF PALESTINE WHICH THE JEWS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO HOLD, AND SLIGHTLY MORE THAN HALF WHICH ARAB ARMS CONTROL.

THAT FRONTIER WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY CHANGE WHEN THE END OF THE BRITISH MANDATE GIVES ARMED FORCES ON BOTH SIDES THEIR FIRST REAL TEST OF STRENGTH AGAINST EACH OTHER.

THE POTENTIAL JEWISH STATE ALREADY HAS ITS ARMY, POLICE AND BASIC SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT LAWS AND FINANCE IN THE PROCESS OF ORGANIZATION.

FOR A BEGINNING IT HAS A POPULATION OF JUST OVER 500,000.
THE ARMY OF THE JEWIS IS HAGANAH. IT HAS UPWARDS OF 25,000 IN A FULLTIME PAID COMBAT FORCE AND IS INCREASING WITH THE TURNOUT OF TRAINING CAMPS.
IT HAS AUTOMATIC WEAPONS, RIFLES, GRENADES, TWO AND THREE INCH MORTARS AND BAZOOKAS. IT HAS ARMED AND ARMORED CARS BUT NO TANKS NOR CONSIDERABLE ARTILLERY STRENGTH, AS FAR AS IS KNOWN.
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NEW STATE IS SHAPING UP IN THE HANDS OF A PROVISIONAL COMMITTEE OF 32 APPOINTED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE JEWISH AGENCY BY VAAD LEUMI, THE NATIONAL COUNCIL.

TEL AVIV

The figure excludes w about 100,000 Jews in Jerusalem and slightly over 10,000 in various settlements inside Arab-held lines. These Jews may be linked with the Jewish state in the future but now they have NO substantial phys cal part in it.

MAR 1948

In addition there are about 20,000 Jews waiting in Cyprus detention camps to come to Palestine. Unestimated number elsewhere in the world, mostly the Middle and Eastern Europe, are awaiting the opportunity to reach Palestine by legal processes.

apr 1-2 1300

MAR 1948

The army of the Jews is Haganah. It has upwards of 25,000 in a fulltime paid combat force and is increasing with turnout of training camps. It is backed by a partly armed basically trained militia and civil guards force.

It has the essential infantry weapons: automatic weapons, rifles, grenades, two and three inch mortars and bazookas. It has armed and armored cars but NO tanks nor considerable artillery strength, as far as is generally known.

MAR 1948

These and other arms deficiences expected to be made up partly by arms shipments which were to pur into Haifa and Tel Aviv may if with formal end of the british madate. Now that supply has become uncertain. What the Jews hope to get arms shipments currently on order, but it is questionable whether they will come as quickly and directly as heretofore oped.

That and other questions vital to the new state are obscured at the moment by the question of trusteeship proposed by the U. S.

The Jews announced they would NOT accept trusteeship, but they realise it may come into "legal" existence without their consent or approval.

Trusteeship would have important bearing on immigration and the status of the Cyprus detainees. A "benevolent" trustee would release the Cyprus immigrants and might impose no barrier to an open immigration desired by the Jews. It might work the other way.

30.24- 16425

MAR 1948

But it might work the other way. Britain, for example, might refuse to release the Cyprus Jews or end its naval blockage of Tel Aviv and Haifa if the trustee asked for continued block on immigration.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NEW STATE IS SHAPING UP IN THE HANDS OF A PROVISIONAL COMMITTEE OF 32 APPOINTED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE JEWISH AGENCY BY VAAD LEUMI, THE NATIONAL COUNCIL. MAR 1948

IT IS NOT WITHOUT OPPOSITION. IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, WHICH SHOOTS SIDE BY SIDE WITH HAGANAH ON THE FIGHTING FRONT, BUT OPPOSES THE JEWISH AGENCY POLITICALLY, HAS URGED BOYCOTT THE CONVENING OF A HEBREW CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY. IRGUN WANTS A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT PLEDGED TO WIN ALL PALESTINE.

THE UNSOLVED ISSUE OF INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION IS LINKED TO THE FUTURE TRADE AND COMMERCIAL PROSPECTS. WITH THE PROSPECT OF A PERIOD WITHOUT AN INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED CURRENCY,

THE JEWISH AGENCY ALREADY HAS GOODS FOR BARTER AGREEMENTS WITH SOME COUNTRIES. BOTH FOOD AND RAW MATERIALS ARE NEEDED FOR IMPORTS.

OTHER THAN THE GREAT CITRUS CROP JEWISH PALESTINE HAS AS ITS RICHEST

EXPORTS MANUFACTURED GOODS FOR WHICH RAW MATERIALS MUST BE IMPORTED.

JERUSALEM, MARCH 21-(AP)-THE SOUND OF GUNFIRE AND BOMBING WAS HEARD HERE TODAY AS CHRISTIANS WALKED TO PALM SUNDAY SERVICES.

U.S.-RUSSIA

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 21-(AP)-THE CONFLICT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS UNDER AMERICAN LEADERSHIP IS NOW BUILDING UP TENSIONS SO RAPIDLY THAT RESPONSIBLE ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS SAY THEY DO NOT DARE PREDICT WHERE THE CRISIS WILL LEAD.

THE SITUATION IS REGARDED BY DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES AS SO SERIOUS THAT IT MAY CAUSE SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL TO CHANGE HIS PLANS TO ATTEND THE INTERAMERICAN CONFERENCE SCHEDULED TO OPEN AT BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, MARCH 30.

ACCORDING TO PRESENT PLANS, HE MUST LEAVE NEXT WEEKEND FOR A FLYING TRIP TO BOGOTA IN ORDER TO BE PRESENT FOR THE CONFERENCE OPENING. IT IS PROBABLE THAT INSTEAD OF SETTLING DOWN FOR THE FULL SIX WEEKS THAT THE CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO LAST, MARSHALL WILL HOLD HIMSELF IN READINESS TO COME HOME AT ANY TIME THE CONFLICT WITH RUSSIA MAY REQUIRE HIS PERSONAL ATTENTION.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT HE WOULD BE EXTREMELY RELUCTANT TO CANCEL HIS BOGOTA PLANS; THEY PREDICTED HE WOULD NOT DO SO UNLESS THERE WERE EXTRAORDINARY DEVELOPMENTS ABROAD.

THE EXTENT TO WHICH MARSHALL IS PERSONALLY DIRECTING FOREIGN POLICY WAS ILLUSTRATED LAST NIGHT IN HIS STATEMENT IN WHICH HE ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR (1) ABANDONMENT OF THE PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN AND (2) THE PROPOSAL OF THE ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF SEEKING PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND UNDER A UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP.

MARSHALL'S STATEMENT BROUGHT OUT WHAT OFFICIALS HERE HAVE BEEN SAYING PRIVATELY SINCE THE TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL WAS PUT FORWARD BY THE UNITED STATES. THIS IS: THE INTENSITY OF CONFLICT BETWEEN AMERICA AND RUSSIA HAS MADE THE UNITED STATES VERY ANXIOUS TO AVOID ALL THE TROUBLE IT CAN ANYWHERE ELSE IN THE WORLD, INCLUDING PALESTINE.

INDICATIONS IN WASHINGTON ARE THAT EVERY DIPLOMATIC MOVE NOW IS FIRST CHECKED IN DETAIL WITH AMERICA'S MILITARY CHIEFS TO DETERMINE WHETHER IT FITS IN WITH MILITARY PLANS FOR DEALING WITH THE RUSSIAN SITUATION.

THERE SEEM

WHETHER IT FITS IN WITH MILITARY PLANS FOR DEALING WITH THE RUSSIAN SITUATION.

THERE SEEMS NO DOUBT THAT MILITARY ADVICE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO AVOID TROUBLE IN PALESTINE AND TO KEEP RUSSIAN TROOPS OUT OF PALESTINE PLAYED A LARGE PART IN MARSHALL'S DECISION TO SCRAP PARTITION IN FAVOR OF A TRUSTEESHIP SYSTEM. AUTHORITIES NOTED THAT UNDER THIS SYSTEM THE UNITED STATES COULD HOPE FOR THE GOOD WILL AND SUPPORT OF THE ARABS WHO HOLD THE MILITARY BALANCE OF POWER IN THE HOLY LAND AS WELL AS IN SURROUNDING NATIONS.

MAR 1948

A9WX

A MILITARY YARDSTICK ALSO IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE BEEN APPLIED TO THE AMERICAN-BRITISH-FRENCH PROPOSAL THAT TRIESTE BE RETURNED TO ITALY. THIS RECOMMENDATION TO THE SOVIET UNION WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ARE UNCERTAIN WHETHER RUSSIA WILL (A) GO ALONG WITH THE IDEA IN ORDER TO STRENGTHEN THE COMMUNIST POSITION IN ITALY OR (?) WILL REJECT IT BECA

IN ITALY OR (B)

IN ITALY OR BL WILL REJECT IT B

IN ITALY OR (B) WILL REJECT IT BECAUSE OF THEIR EARLIER SUPPORT FOR YUGOSLAV CLAIMS ON TRIESTE.

WHATEVER HAPPENS, THERE WAS ONE POINT ON WHICH WASHINGTON AUTHORITIES WERE FULLY AGREED. THAT IS THAT THE THE STRATEGICALLY LOCATED ADRIATIC PORT CITY HAS AGAIN BECOME A POTENTIAL TINDERBOX FOR THE BALKANS AND CENTRAL EUROPE. IT EVIDENTLY WILL REMAIN SO UNTIL AFTER THE ITALIAN ELECTION APRIL 18 UNLESS THE YUGOSLAVS DECIDE TO TRY A SHOWDOWN BY FORCE PRIOR TO THAT.

THE UNCERTAINTY HERE OVER THE PRECARIOUS BALANCE OF PEACE IN TRIESTE IS BEGINNING TO BE MATCHED ALSO BY CONCERN OVER GERMANY AS A RESULT OF THE WALKOUT FROM THE FOUR-POWER CONTROL COUNCIL YESTERDAY OF RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVE GENERAL SOKOLOVSKY. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE IN A HIGHLY VULNERABLE POSITION IN BERLIN, WHICH IS IN THE HEART OF THE RUSSIAN ZONE OF GERMANY.

THE BEST REASONING OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAS BEEN THAT THE RUSSIANS WOULD ALLOW THE WESTERN POWERS TO REMAIN THERE SO LONG AS THE RUSSIANS WANTED TO MAINTAIN AT LEAST THE FORMALITIES OF JOINT FOUR-POWER CONTROL OF GERMANY. ONCE THE RUSSIANS DECIDE THOSE FORMALITIES ARE MEANINGLESS THEY MAY ORDER THE WESTERN NATIONS OUT OF BERLIN.

THE UNITED STATES IS THE LEADER OF THE ANTI-RUSSIAN COALITION. AS SUCH IT WOULD SEEM TO BE FACED ALREADY WITH THE QUESTION OF WHETHER TO

30.24- 16427

YIELD AN UNTENABLE POSITION SUCH AS IT HOLDS IN BERLIN WITHOUT A STRUGGLE OR WHETHER TO FORCE THE SOVIETS TO TAKE EXTREME ACTION IF THEY WANT TO CLOSE THE GERMAN CAPITAL TO OTHER NATIONS. WHILE MARSHALL HAS NOT EXPRESSED HIMSELF PUBLICLY ON THIS POINT MOST AMERICAN OFFICIALS APPEAR TO FAVOR A LAST DITCH RESISTANCE IN BERLIN IF NECESSARY.

THIS IS IN LINE WITH UNITED STATES POLICY OF TRYING TO HOLD ALL POSITIONS WHICH THE WESTERN POWERS NOW HAVE IN EUROPE AGAINST RUSSIAN OR COMMUNIST PRESSURE REGARDLESS OF HOW STRONG THAT MAY BE.

THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT HAS DETERMINED THAT THE DAYS OF EASY SOVIET CONQUEST ARE AT AN END AND THAT ANY COMMUNIST MOVE BEYOND EASTERN EUROPE MUST BE RESISTED TO THE LIMIT. ONE OF THE BIG QUESTIONS IS WHAT THAT LIMIT MAY BE. THERE IS UNCERTAINTY OVER HOW HARD THE RUSSIANSN WILL PUSH IF THEY ARE FACED WITH THE DANGER OF OPEN CONFLICT AND ALSO OVER WHETHER THEY CAN HOLD SOME OF THEIR MORE ENTHUSIASTIC SATELLITES, SUCH AS TITO, IN CHECK.

MAR 1948

A10WX

BY WASHINGTON ESTIMATES, BERLIN MAY PROVE TO BE THE TEST OF A DIRECT CLASH OF AMERICAN-RUSSIAN STRENGTH AND TRIESTE MAY BE THE MEASURE BY WHICH RUSSIAN CONTROL OVER A SATELLITE COUNTRY, YUGOSLAVIA, IS KNOWN TO THE REST OF THE WORLD.

YUGOSLAV POLICE FIRE ON TRIESTE CIVIL PATROL IN U.S.-BRITISH ZONE

Italian Guard Wounded Near Border—Slavs Would Swap Cities

Yugoslavia Offers to Yield Trieste in Exchange for Gorizia.

ROME, March 22—(AP) The American Military Government in Trieste announced tonight that shots had been exchanged at the tense border separating the Yugoslav from the U. S.-British zones of the Trieste free territory.

The incident involved police patrols in two zones. One policeman was wounded. He was an Italian member of a civil patrol on the British-American side of the line.

Italy Hails Proposal

Announcement of the outbreak came as the Italian government accepted with satisfaction the western powers' proposal to return the entire 400-square mile free territory at the head of the Adriatic to Italy.

Meanwhile, Yugoslavia's foreign minister said his government is willing to consider giving the city of Trieste itself to Italy provided Yugoslavia gets Gorizia, an Italian town north of the great port.

Such an exchange was proposed before the Italian peace treaty was signed. Premier Alcide De Gasperi said Sunday in a political speech, possibly anticipating a renewal of the offer, that "we could not accept Trieste for Gorizia."

De Gasperi and Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza were traveling tonight and were unavailable for comment on the Yugoslav statement. Foreign ministry officials declined to comment.

The fate of Trieste has become an issue in Italy's crucial parliamentary election of April 18—an election being fought out on the issue of communism.

Because the original Trieste proposal came last Saturday from the United States, Britain and France it was believed to have boosted the strength of Italy's anti-communists parties. Italian sources have suggested that the western powers beat Russia to the draw on announcing the plan.

Reports from Milan said communists and pro-government sympathizers battled more than two hours tonight in that northern industrial city. Three persons were injured before mobile police and riot squads restored order.

Police said the disturbances began when leftists started a "counter-demonstration" against persons celebrating the western powers' proposal to return Trieste to Italy.

Italian Foreign Minister Sforza in a speech at Turin accused Yugoslavia of effecting a disguised annexation of the portion of the Trieste free territory occupied by Yugoslav troops. He said Italy had kept silent about this "only for the love of peace" and only in the hope things would be changed for the better.

Strike Halts Papers

Italians were deprived of newspaper accounts of the Trieste developments by a nation-wide printers strike called by a communist-led union. The walkout began last midnight. It was announced tonight that it would continue indefinitely forcing 150 daily newspapers to remain closed.

High government sources said they believed the strike was designed to obstruct the holding of the election. They pointed out that among the strikers are printers who prepare the nation's ballots and other electoral forms. The informants said the cabinet would adopt the necessary measures to conduct the election on schedule if the strike continues.

The western powers' Trieste announcement clearly caught Italy's 2,500,000 communists and their leftists allies off balance. One foreign observer suggested the printers strike may have been called to give the leftist press a chance to catch its breath.

The American military government's announcement gave this account of the Trieste outbreak:

A patrol of popular defense police of the Yugoslav zone fired with machineguns on a routine foot patrol of Venezia Giulia civil police. The Venezia Giulia police clearly were within the American-British zone. They returned the fire with their pistols. It was not known if any Yugoslav police were injured.

The injured policeman from the British-American zone was taken to a hospital and later released to go to his home.

The Rome radio said fresh detachments of American and British troops have reinforced military guards along the Yugoslav border of the Trieste free territory. The broadcasting station is controlled by the Italian government.

The report was denied by the public relations officer of U. S. troops in Trieste. Military attaches of the U. S. Embassy in Rome said they had no knowledge of the report.

Foreign Minister Stanoje Simic told a news conference in Belgrade that Yugoslavia is prepared to seek through mutual efforts an agreed solution to the Trieste question. Italy and Yugoslavia have been arguing about the future of Trieste since the end of the war. The free territory was set up by the Italian peace theaty as a compromise.

Simic said his government was willing to go so far as to give Trieste itself to Italy in return for Gorizia, an Italian town North of the port.

Announcement Protested

Earlier in the day Yugoslavia protested vigorously to the western powers against the method and timing of their announcement—made less than a month before the Italian election. Significantly, Yugoslavia did not commit herself in that protest to acceptance or rejection of the Trieste proposal itself.

Marshal Tito's government said the plan of the western powers "makes no mention of the need of agreement on the part of the most directly affected allied state—Yugoslavia."

In notes to London, Paris and Washington the Italian government expressed the "conviction the proposal is a guarantee of peace and a useful contribution to that collaboration with Yugoslavia which always has been desired by Italy."

The well disciplined communists and Slavs in Trieste still have given no indication whether they would approve the proposal.

Moscow's press was silent today on Russia's attitude. Last night, however, the Moscow radio said the western allies had acted behind the back of the Soviet Union in suggesting the revision of the Italian peace treaty.

Yugoslavs Shoot Up Patrol in Trieste

Police Wound Civil Officer in Free Zone Attack

TRIESTE Free Territory, March 22 (AP).—The American Military Government announced tonight that a patrol of civil police of the Anglo-American zone was fired upon by Yugoslav police at the border between the two zones this afternoon. One civil policeman was wounded.

The military government said a routine foot patrol of Venezia Giulia police, clearly within the British-American zone of the Free Territory, was fired upon with machine guns by a patrol of police of the Yugoslav zone.

The Venezia Giulia patrol returned the fire with their pistols. It was not known if any Yugoslav police were injured.

Belgrade for Compromise —Wants Possession of Gorizia in Return.

AFTER PROTEST TO 3 POWERS

Tito Expresses Objection to Way U. S., Britain and France Proposed Change.

Belgrade, March 22 (A. P.).—The Yugoslav Foreign Minister, Stanoje Simic, said tonight Marshal Tito's Government is willing to consider giving Trieste to Italy.

Simic told a news conference the Belgrade Government is prepared to seek through mutual efforts an agreed solution to the Trieste question.

He said Yugoslavia is willing even to go so far as a compromise which would give Trieste to Italy, and allotting Gorizia—a town north of the Adriatic port city—to Yugoslavia.

Earlier today Tito's Government had announced a "vigorous" protest to the western Powers against the way in which they proposed the restoration of the Trieste territory to Rome's sovereignty. The notes to the western states did not accept or reject the proposal itself.

Gorizia is outside the free territory of Trieste, set up by the Italian peace treaty. It is in Italy on the Italian-Yugoslav border.

Simic said Yugoslavia would be willing to talk to Italy "in the spirit of the Tito-Togliatti talks." He referred to conversations before the Italian peace treaty was signed between Marshal Tito, the Communist Premier of Yugoslavia, and Palmiro Togliatti, the head of the Italian Communist party.

Had Filed a Protest.

The Foreign Minister called the news conference after delivering the notes to the American, British and French ambassadors.

"The Yugoslav Government has always felt that a most satisfactory solution to the Trieste question—which is so delicate for both parties—could be reached between Italy and Yugoslavia," Simic said.

[The Rome radio tonight said that military guards along the Yugoslav border of Trieste have been re-inforced by fresh detachments of American and British troops.]

Asked in the press conference if the Yugoslav Government is willing to undertake negotiations, even with the present Center-Right Government of Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi, Simic replied: "Yes." He pointed out that he had said: "With the Italian Government."

The Foreign Minister said the Yugoslav Government already has made several attempts for closer relations with Italy. He noted that the countries have a trade treaty.

Protests on Method.

The Western Powers made their proposal to Russia on Saturday.

Belgrade complained that the United States, Britain and France had taken no note "of the need of agreement on the part of the most directly affected Allied state—Yugoslavia." It declared in a note delivered to the Ambassadors of those three countries here: "The Yugoslav Government considers that submitting such a proposal at the time of the pre-electoral campaign in Italy can serve only to foment chauvinist hatreds toward the Yugoslav people and . . . sharpen internal political relations in Italy. . . . Neither is it in the interests either of the Italian people itself or of the strengthening of peace in this part of Europe.

[Diplomats in Italy said that Russia was planning to propose the return of Trieste to Italy but the Western Powers beat Moscow to the punch.]

Suspects Propaganda Play.

"This way of acting lends reason to the thought that the aim of this proposal is not seeking a better solution of the Trieste question and a normalization of relations between the peoples of Southern Europe, but has a propaganda character and does not contribute to the strengthening of peace in the world," the notes added.

Under the Italian peace treaty, the Free Territory of Trieste was to be set up under a Governor appointed by the United Nations Security Council. That body has never been able to agree on a Governor. American and British troops occupy the northern sector, including the city of Trieste, while Yugoslav troops occupy the remainder of the area.

Yugoslav Protest on Trieste

LONDON, March 22 (AP).—The text of the note handed by Yugoslavia today to the Ambassadors of the United States, Great Britain and France at Belgrade, as distributed by Tanjug, Yugoslav official news agency.

The Yugoslav government acknowledges receipt of copy of memorandum submitted by the governments of the United States, Britain and France to the government of the U. S. S. R.

In this connection, the Yugoslav government most vigorously protests against the manner in which the governments of the United States, Britain and France proposed the moving of a question on changes of those stipulations of the peace treaty with Italy which refer to the fate of the city of Trieste, since this proposal speaks of the need of Italy's agreement and makes no mention of the need of agreement on the part of the most directly affected Allied state—Yugoslavia.

This way of acting lends reason to the thought that the aim of this proposal is not seeking a better solution of the Trieste question and the normalization of relations between the peoples of southern Europe, but has a propaganda character and does not contribute to the strengthening of peace in the world.

In this connection the Yugoslav government considers it fitting to draw attention to the following facts concerning the Trieste problem:

1. The governments of the United States, Britain and France were precisely those which championed such a solution of the Trieste question as was in the main finally entered into the peace treaty;

2. The governments of the United States, Britain and France in fact worked on preventing direct agreement between Italy and Yugoslavia regarding the question of Trieste, although the possibility for an agreed solution of this question was clearly manifest;

3. The governments of the United States, Britain and France in the Security Council systematically hindered agreement concerning the person of the Trieste governor;

4. The American-British military administration, by giving full freedom to Fascist and chauvinist Italian elements, impeded the appeasement of spirits on Trieste Free Territory and thereby poisoned relations between Yugoslavia and Italy;

5. The American-British administration in Trieste, by introducing unlimited military-totalitarian authority without any collaboration with the people, deprived the Trieste population of all basic democratic rights and all liberties. The American-British zone of Trieste Free Territory is the only area in liberated Europe where, to this very day, no election for self-governing bodies has been carried out;

6. By the new proposal the United States, Britain and France make even more difficult the appeasement of spirits on Trieste Free Territory because, with the proposal, the democratic will of Trieste population is completely disregarded, and on the other hand agreement between Yugoslavia and the Italian Republic concerning the Trieste question, which would assuredly be best for good neighborly relations between the peoples of two neighboring countries, is made even more difficult;

7. Finally, the Yugoslav government considers that submitting such a proposal at the time of the pre-electoral campaign in Italy can serve only the fomenting of chauvinist hatred toward the Yugoslav people and, on the other hand, toward the sharpening of internal political relations in Italy, and neither is in the interests either of the Italian people itself or the strengthening of peace in this part of Europe.

LEADERS HAIL TRIESTE MOVE AS PEACE STEP

Italy's De Gasperi Confers With Bidault. Sees European U. S.

MAR 1948

Rome, March 22 —(AP)— Premier Alcide de Gasperi conferred for three hours today with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and said afterward:

"We are going, I think, toward a United States of Europe."

Bidault announced Saturday the United States, Great Britain and France propose to give Trieste, now international territory, back to Italy. He met the Italian leader at Viny Crea, in the Piedmont region about 50 miles from Turin.

De Gasperi stated the Bidault announcement was a thing "bigger than we are, bigger than Italy and France, bigger than the Italian elections."

The proposal was expected to influence the Italian elections April 18. The Communists, bidding for power, were said by Italian sources to be annoyed because the Western Powers had beaten Moscow to the punch on the Trieste issue.

Can Guarantee Peace

De Gasperi said Bidault's utterance on Trieste is one of the things which can guarantee peace.

"We will never have peace in the Adriatic unless we have collaboration there," stated De Gasperi.

(The Yugoslav Government protested to the Western Powers today that their proposal on Trieste will not strengthen the peace in Central Europe.

(Tanjug, official Yugoslav news agency, said a note was presented to the United States, British and French ambassadors in Belgrade by the Yugoslav Foreign Minister, Stanoje Simic.)

The premier said the Western Powers' proposal "touched Italians' hearts and it has brought joy; it will perhaps bring Italian-French relations to a more stable field."

Bidault remarked the degree of collaboration between Italy and France was astounding.

"Here is a will to construct a base of moral unity which will really come from the masses," said the Frenchman. "We are pursuing this despite great difficulties."

Bidault Optimistic

The French Foreign Minister continued:

"Peace is possible. I think that peace is probable and I think if we do what we should, peace is certain."

He indicated one thing necessary to peace is the return to Italy of the Trieste free territory. He said he is ready to take the responsibility for proposing the return before the "tribunal of history, of the peoples and of God."

De Gasperi stated his talk with Bidault was a "family encounter." The meeting was in the 15th century Franciscan sanctuary of the Madonna of Crea. The village has 13 inhabitants, six of them Franciscan monks.

Both men head Catholic parties. De Gasperi's Italian Christian Democrats are comparable to Bidault's French Popular Republicans.

Printers On Strike

Italians today were deprived of newspaper accounts of Trieste and the Italian political campaign. More than 1,000 dailies were halted by a 24-hour printers' strike for higher pay. The Communist-led union called out more than 100,000 men.

A three-power statement on Trieste was made later Saturday in Washington after Bidault's announcement. The Western Powers invited Russia and Italy to talk about changing the six-months-old Italian Peace Treaty, which made Trieste and environs a free territory. Italy and Communist Yugoslavia both want the port. The territory now is occupied by U. S., British and Yugoslav troops.

(The Moscow radio said last night "the United States, Britain and France are acting behind the back of the Soviet Union in proposing to revise the peace treaty with Italy.")

Reaction Varied

News of the proposal led to Trieste and Milan fist fights. It brought approval from many Italians, criticism from some Trieste inhabitants. Borba, Belgrade Communist newspaper, hinted the official Yugoslav attitude in reporting the news briefly under the headline: "Imperialist maneuvers with Trieste before Italian elections."

Belgrade Offers Swap Of Trieste For Gorizia

Belgrade, March 22 (AP)—Stanoje Simic, Foreign Minister, said tonight Yugoslavia is willing to consider giving Trieste to Italy in return for Gorizia, an Italian city north of Trieste.

The statement was made at a news conference several hours after delivery of a formal Yugoslav protest against the proposal of the United States, Britain and France to return the entire free territory of Trieste, including the major Adriatic port city, to Italy.

Protests Timing Of Move

The Yugoslav note protested the method and timing of the three-power proposal, but did not commit Marshal Tito's Government to acceptance or rejection.

Simic said Yugoslavia would be willing to consult with Italy "in the spirit of the Tito-Togliatti talks."

This was a reference to the talks between Marshal Tito and Palmiro Togliatti, the Italian Communist leader, in the Fall of 1946, prior to the working out of the peace treaty settlement creating the free territory of Trieste.

Togliatti said Tito offered at that time to take Gorizia and give Italy Trieste, provided Italy gave the port city an autonomous statute safeguarding the rights of Yugoslav inhabitants. The offer was turned down by the Italian Cabinet on November 7, 1946. Gorizia remained Italian outside the free territory.

Termed Delicate Question

"The Yugoslav Government has always felt that a most satisfactory solution of the Trieste question—which is so delicate for both parties—could be reached between Italy and Yugoslavia," Simic said.

He said the Yugoslav Government was willing to enter into negotiations with the present regime headed by Premier Alcide de Gasperi.

Simic said that conclusions reached as a result of the Tito-Togliatti talks "are evidence of the fact there does exist a basis for the solution of the Trieste question which would be acceptable to both sides."

Charges "Police State"

Simic charged that the "police state created in Trieste poisoned the relations between the two neighboring nations (Italy and Yugoslavia)." He added:

"Despite all these facts the Yugoslav Government remains profoundly convinced that relations cannot only be prevented from further deterioration, but that they can even be improved, provided the two governments set about the task with sufficient courage and determination and with only interests of their own peoples and those of peace in mind.

"The Yugoslav Government is also prepared to seek an agreed solution to all other questions, because it has never nurtured or now nurtures aggressive desires of any kind either against Italy or against the free territory of Trieste.

Plans No U.N. Protest

"If the Italian Government seeks the same aim, then it will undoubtedly prove possible to bring about conditions of complete security and friendship between our two countries."

He said his Government did not contemplate putting its protest against the three-power proposal on Trieste before the United Nations.

Notes delivered to the ambassadors of the United States, Britain and France said the proposal "make no mention of the need of agreement on the part of the most directly affected allied state—Yugoslavia."

Marshal Tito's Government was especially put out because it was excluded from the proposed talks on the 400-square-mile free territory. These would take place between the three powers and Russia before any recommendation would be made to the United Nations Security Council on Trieste.

Propaganda Aim Claimed

Said the Yugoslav note:

"This way of acting lends reason to the thought that the aim of this proposal is not seeking a better solution of the Trieste question and the normalization of relations between the peoples of southern Europe, but has a propaganda character and does not contribute to the strengthening of peace in the world."

The three-power action in making the proposal public prior to the national elections in Italy April 18 drew criticism.

Sees Hatred Fomented

Such action, said the Yugoslav note, "can serve only the fomenting of chauvinist hatred toward the Yugoslav people and, on the other hand, toward the sharpening of internal political relations in Italy, and neither are in the interests either of the Italian people itself or the strengthening of peace in this part of Europe."

The Yugoslav note said the United States, France and Britain championed the solution of the Trieste question as included in the Italian peace treaty, and prevented Italy and Yugoslavia from reaching agreement in two-way discussions.

Cavendish Cannon, United States Ambassador, received the note shortly after noon, when he was called to Simic's office.

U.N. War Crime Commission to Wind Up Work

5,944 Persons Tried, 1,567 Sentenced to Death, 3,380 Jailed and 997 Acquitted

LONDON, March 22 (AP).—The Allied War Crimes Commission is about to close its books on the 40,000 persons it accused of outrages against civilization.

Today its score reads: tried—1,835 cases involving 5,944 persons; sentenced to death—1,567; imprisoned—3,380; acquitted—997, missing, or still to be tried, about 34,000. Most of these persons, a commission spokesman said, have never been found.

The commission was created at a diplomatic conference of seventeen Allied nations at London in October, 1943. It took the name "United Nations War Crimes Commission," although the U. N. was not formed until two years later.

The group issued eighty lists of alleged war criminals. It will wind up this phase of its work March 31. After that it will issue only case reports on the trials suitable for use by law students.

The commission spokesman, in an interview, said no figures are available from Russia, which did not join the commission but formed one of its own. Information from members still is incomplete and the commissoin has no way of knowing how many of the death sentences were carried out.

Nations represented in the commission are Australia, Belgium, Canada, China, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, France, Greece, India, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, the United Kingdom, the United States and Yugoslavia.

Commission records show that up to Feb. 1, 1948, the United States had tried 489 cases in Europe involving 1,672 accused persons, of whom 426 were sentenced to death, 990 imprisoned and 265 acquitted. In the Far East, 202 cases were tried involving 574 persons; 140 were sentenced to death, 380 imprisoned and 54 acquitted.

Great Britain, in the same period, tried 269 cases in Europe involving 892 persons; 212 were sentenced to death, 429 imprisoned and 251 acquitted. In the Far East, 386 cases were tried involving 1,136 persons; 305 were sentenced to death, 771 imprisoned and 120 acquitted.

Air-Raid Shelters

MAR

London, March 22 (AP)—The Government was asked in the House of Commons tonight to bring its wartime air raid shelter policy up to date for use at short notice.

Sir John Anderson, for whom the back-yard "Anderson shelter" was named during the war when he was Minister of Home Security, asked for its revival.

Headed Research Commission

"I express hope that shelter policy will be carefully considered without undue loss of time because it is of great importance that we have a shelter policy devised so that it can be put into effect at short notice," he told Commons.

"Some account ought to be taken of the possible effects of atomic bombs."

Anderson headed Britain's wartime atomic research commission. He said he saw no reason why Britain should discard her wartime air-raid shelters because of the danger of atomic bombs.

"The blast wave of an atomic explosion presented all characteristics of an ordinary explosion except immediately near the center of the explosion," he said.

Dispersal Plan Suggested

Mrs. Leah Manning, a Laborite, said that in the event of another war Britons "are left with the prospect of being reduced to a handful of peasants scratching in the fields to rebuild our civilization."

She suggested the Government should be working out methods of dispersal of the English to other parts of the British Commonwealth "because it would be no good leaving anyone in Britain at all. . . ."

Major K. G. Younger, parliamentary under secretary to the Home Office, said "Government research covers all matters raised during this debate. Without giving way to any ill-founded panic, the Government is in no way underestimating the importance of proper preparation."

Soviet Blames GI's In 'Poison Gas Use'

London, Tuesday, March 23 (AP). The Moscow radio, quoting the Communist "free Greece radio," said today American officers were responsible for the use of poison gas by Greek Government soldiers against guerrillas.

The broadcast quoted the guerrilla radio as saying Government troops used poison gas in the Kastoria area of Greece March 15. Kastoria is in western Greek Macedonia.

[In Washington, a member of the staff of James V. Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, discribed the Moscow report as "nonsense."]

The guerrilla radio said, according to the Moscow broadcaster:

"We protest, through the Greek people and world opinion, against this shameful and bestial act from which the civilian population in the area of hostilities is suffering.

"It is against all international rules and indicates Fascist-Royalist impotence and lack of confidence. Responsibility for the use of poison gas rests on American officers and soldiers."

REDS REPORTED FOUND IN BRITISH ATOM PLANT

LONDON, (Tuesday), March 23—(AP) The London Daily Express said today British intelligence men have found three Communists among the scientists in Britain's top secret atom research station at Didcot, Berkshire.

Reports on the scientists have been sent to the minister of supply, G. R. Strauss, for action, The Express said. It also said that 45 other Communists or fellow travelers have been found in the supply ministry and defense deartments.

Gasoline For Huntsmen Protested In Commons

London, March 22 (AP)—A motion presented in the House of Commons tonight by 110 labor members protested government allowances of gasoline for stag hunting and similar sports. Gasoline is rationed in Great Britain.

The protest resulted from a recent disclosure that the Quantock Hunt in Somerset has been allotted about 30 gallons amonth for the past year.

A government spokesman had explained that the hunt members needed the gasoline so they could collect stags or foxes after the hunt and see if any property had been damaged during the chase over farm lands.

Fismes Mayor Thanks Vets

FISMES, France, March 22 (AP).—The Mayor of this northern French village said today he is extremely grateful for the promise of food and clothing from a group of World War veterans in the United States. The veterans are members of B Company, 112th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard, of Meadville, Pa. They formed the society of Fismes to adopt the village of 3,100, situated seventeen miles northwest of Reims, where 4,000 Americans were killed in World War I.

DENMARK CANCELS MILITARY LEAVES

COPENHAGEN, March 22—(AP) Defense Minister Rasmus Hansen said tonight Easter leave had been suspended for "a part of" Denmark's young military officers and non-commissioned officers.

An authoritative source said the action was taken because of "the internal political situation." Another source said the order applied to all cadets and non-commissioned officers.

Danish police recently have reported a number of thefts of weapons from home guard depots all over Denmark. Police announced tonight that unidentified persons had stolen seven sub-machine guns, five rifles and a quantity of ammunition from a depot in Broerup, Jutland.

The guard at all military and naval establishments has been doubled since last Saturday, it was learned.

An official government source said tonight the government expected soon, possibly tomorrow, to begin negotiations with British occupation authorities in Germany to have the Danish brigade group, now stationed on the Aurich Peninsula, moved to South Schleswig, just south of the Danish border. This transfer would bring crack Danish troops within a day's traveling time of any point in Denmark.

Hansen said in a communique that the leave suspension was ordered because the war and naval ministries "have found it expedient to make some minor revisions in regulations of leave for the military and naval academies."

He said enlisted men would be given the usual Easter leaves.

BOYCOTT JAMS FUNCTIONING OF BERLIN COUNCIL

Clay Says U. S. to Hold Ground Despite Soviet Delaying Tactics

Berlin, March 22 (AP)—Despite Russia's boycott of four-power government machinery for Germany, the United States occupation chief said today the Americans intend to stay in Berlin.

"We are in Berlin by agreement, just as the Russians are in Saxony and Thuringia (territory conquered by American troops) by agreement," said Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor. "We intend to stay."

MAR 1948

The Russians' boycott, which followed their walkout on a meeting of the Allied Control Council Saturday, spread paralysis today through the whole control authority.

In quick succession, acting as chairmen for this month, they canceled meetings of four-power committees which had been scheduled for today. They merely said they were too busy to attend.

Single Meeting Held

By noon they had taken part in only one session with the western Allies. That was a secretaries' meeting at which the Russians announced there will be no meeting of the Allied Co-operating Committee tomorrow.

Clay's statement was made in an interview. It replied to a request that he comment on the Russian boycott and on renewed suggestions in Russian-controlled newspapers here that the Western Powers get out of Berlin.

He was not prepared to say what course the Americans would pursue if the Rsssian boycott went on.

The Russian chairmen can call off all remaining control authority meetings this month if they want.

Nex month, however, chairmanships in all groups rotate to the Americans and they can call meetings.

Clay was asked whether he would call the Control Council into session in April. He said:

"Our course hasn't been determined yet. I shall want to consult with my colleagues first."

British Silent

Clay's remarks were the only comment on the Control Council crisis from a chief of the three western powers.

Lt. Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, had scheduled a news conference for this afternoon, but it was canceled at noon without explanation.

The western occupation chiefs apparently were waiting to see how far the Russians intended to go.

"No doubt the Russians are making a break," said one highly placed American, "but whether they're ready to make a full break isn't clear yet.

"That may not come until they are ready to announce the establishment of a Communist-controlled German government of their own, choosing to present it as a replacement for the Control Council."

The Russian-sponsored Socialist Unity Party last week engineered establishment of a so-called German People's Council. The council has the announced intention of drafting an all-Germany constitution and eventually replacing the Allied Control Council.

The Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung over the weekend renewed a demand that the three western powers withdraw from Berlin. It said, "they have destroyed the Allied Control Council and with it their reason for being here."

Four Meetings Off

The Soviet boycott did not extend to the Allied Kommandantur, the four-power governing body for the City of Berlin. Working committees were holding regular sessions at Kommandantur headquarters.

Americans Will Stay, Clay Says

Berlin, March 22 (AP)—Americans intend to stay in Berlin, Gen. Lucious D. Clay said today. This was the United States Military Governor's blunt response to a Russian boycott which virtually halted four-power government of Germany.

The boycott was accompanied by renewed suggestions in Russian-controlled newspapers that the Western powers get out of town. General Clay said:

"We are in Berlin by agreement, just as the Russians are in Saxony and Thuringia (territory conquered by American troops) by agreement. We intend to stay."

Although there were no official statements, it was known the British and French also are equally firm in their determination to ride out the four-power occupation of Berlin.

The Russians have boycotted all scheduled four-power meetings of the Allied control authority. But if they are seeking to create a crisis, they appear to have missed the mark.

Life Proceeds Normally

There was no panic. Life in the city proceeded normally. The Germans here were perhaps the calmest of all.

The Russians abruptly walked out of the Allied Control Council meeting Saturday. Today they advised their Allies of World War II that they were too busy to attend any of the nine scheduled meetings at the Allied Control Authority Building.

Tomorrow's meeting of the coordinating committee also was canceled. Made up of the four deputy military governors, that committee is the second highest Allied governing body for Germany. It ranks just under the Control Council and prepares the Council's program.

Kommandatur Not Affected

Because the Russians hold the chairmanship of the Control Council and all committees this month, they can cancel meetings at will.

The Soviet boycott did not extend to the Allied Kommandatur, the four-power governing body for the city of Berlin. Working committees of that agency were holding regular sessions at the Kommandatur headquarters.

Apparently the Western occupation chiefs are waiting to see how far the Russians intend to go. One American official said:

"No doubt the Russians are making a break. But whether they're ready to make a full break isn't clear yet.

"That may not come until they are ready to announce the establishment of a Communist-controlled German Government of their own choosing to present as a replacement for the (Allied) Control Council."

Believed Awaiting Orders

The general opinion here is that Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet military governor for Germany, is not certain himself just how far he is expected to carry the present state of affairs. He is believed to be waiting for further instructions from Moscow.

Western observers have noted particularly one German political development in connection with the Russian moves. Last week German Communists, with full Soviet support, announced at a so-called People's Congress in Berlin that they planned to draw up a constitution for an all-Germany republic.

A so-called German People's Council was elected and committees were appointed to start work on the constitution. The People's Council has the announced intention of eventually replacing the Allied Control Council.

Little Immediate Effect

So far as the actual administration of Germany is concerned, the Soviet boycott of four-power meetings will have little immediate effect. However, a permanent boycott would create difficulties in the arrangement of interzonal transport, economics and communications.

In calling for the withdrawal of the three Western powers, Russian-controlled newspapers in Berlin said the United States, Britain and France "have destroyed the Allied Control Council and with it their reason for being here."

U.S. Replaces Scrip In Occupation Zones

Frankfurt, Germany, March 22 (AP)—The United States Army of Occupation today called in its military scrip, the only legal tender for Americans in Germany, in a new move to halt black marketing.

[American scrip also was changed today in Japan and other countries occupied by United States forces.]

The scrip is being replaced with a new currency. This was the second such move the American authorities have made to get scrip out of the hands of unauthorized personnel. The first exchange was made March 10, 1947, after thousands of Germans got possession of the currency.

Counterfeit Reported

There have been repeated reports of large-scale counterfeiting of the scrip, which is used by both American military and civil personnel. Some counterfeit notes were turned in today, but army officials have not determined whether the amount of bogus money is extensive.

Commenting on the reissue, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, said:

"We realized that with the present unsettled economic conditions in most parts of the world, there is a desire on the part of many individuals not entitled to the use of military payment certificates (scrip) to obtain them illegally and hoard them under the mistaken impression the United States will eventually redeem them in dollars.

"If our currency were allowed to affect the economy of any European country, it would be defeating the ultimate object of the American people—that is, the establishment of a stable financial structure throughout the world based on the financial integrity of each country."

Scrip was introduced in early 1946 after many American soldiers were reported to have made fortunes by the exchange of German marks for dollars.

Russian Sabotage School Reported

Vienna, March 22 (AP)—A highly place Austrian said today the Communist party in a Russian, occupied suburb of Vienna is conducting a sabotage school.

Enrolled are groups called action committees, such as were used recently by Communists in Czechoslovakia in their march to power.

Officials of the Austrian Interior Ministry admitted knowledge of the school. They said, however, they had no detailed information on what was being taught there.

The informant said large stocks of explosives and some ammunition were being built up at the school, located in Kalksburg. Before the war the building was used as a boys' reform school.

Courses lasting from four to six weeks are taught by Russian officers and high-ranking Austrian Communists, the source said. The school is closely guarded by a large detachment of Russian troops.

It has been known in Vienna for some time that Austrian Communists aided by Russian officers are conducting schools throughout the Russian zone. But previous reports said the courses were limited to Communist ideology.

An Austrian Government official said entire Austrian families are being ordered to attend special evening lectures in the Russian-occupied zone.

He said workers at Russian-controlled factories are forced to listen to speakers from Czechoslovakia. The Czech speakers, he said, are entering Austria without proper permits, but the Government can do nothing since they are brought in by Russian authorities.

Krupp Defense to Open

NUERNBERG, March 22 (AP).—The defense began presentation of its case today at the war crimes trial of Alfred Krupp, and eleven other directors of the [illegible] armaments empire.

Otto Krantzbuehler, Krupp's lawyer, told the American court trying the case that many documents needed by the defense are not available. He said the case is important to the whole world for determining whether an industrial firm is entitled to produce armaments before and during a war in accordance with its nation's laws.

Krantzbuehler added that synchronizing politics with the steel business and even with the fate of nations could not be considered peculiar to Germany.

At the simultaneous war crimes trial of twenty-one former German Foreign Ministry officials a six months recess was sought today. A motion to adjourn the trial was presented by Warren E. Magee, of Washington, D. C., defense counsel for Ernst von Weizsaecker, one-time German Ambassador to the Holy See.

Speaking for himself and six other defense lawyers, Mr. Magee asked time to examine the fifty tons of files of the German Foreign Ministry which were captured by the Allies.

Threat to Blow Up U. S. Hotel in Vienna

Vienna, March 22 (A. P.)—U. S. Military Police said today a threat to blow up the American-occupied Bristol Hotel had been received from an unknown caller speaking German. He warned the Austrian porter by telephone to get all Austrians out of the hotel immediately.

Colonels, generals and visiting celebrities mainly occupy the hotel. Mgr. Edward Joseph Flanagan, founder of Boys Town in Nebraska, is one of the current residents.

An American official said the threat was "the work of a crank." He said American and British intelligence agents investigated thoroughly, but found no sign of explosives.

Former Cabinet Officials Reported Seeking To Flee

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 22 (AP)—The Prague radio said tonight two Catholic priests, both members of the Government prior to the Communist march to power, were arrested while trying to flee the country.

The were identified as Msgr. Jan Sramek, former vice-premier of the coalition Government and premier of the London Czech Government-in-exile, and Msgr. Frantisek Hala, who was minister of posts and communications in the coalition cabinet. They belonged to the People's (Catholic) party.

Plane Circles Overhead

The broadcast said they were arrested yesterday at a little airport in Rakovnik, Western Bohemia, while "an unidentified foreign plane" circled overhead.

The plane disappeared toward the frontier after the pilot apparently had become suspicious because many workers were observed cleaning the airport, the radio said.

The workers were among the 4,000,000 Czechs thoughout the country who worked without pay in the first of a series of "victory shifts."

The broadcast said large sums, both Czech and foreign, were found in the priests' baggage. It added that several foreigners had been detained.

Urged Ties With Russia

Monsignor Sramek first joined the Cabinet in 1921, when he was named Minister of Railroads by then Premier Eduard Benes. He had advocated close ties between Czechoslovakia and Russia. He visited Moscow with Benes in March, 1945. Two months later he became vice premier of the newly restored Czech Government in Prague.

Monsignor Sramek asked Parliament February 26, after the Communist coup, for permission to retire as a deputy. He sat as a member of the People's party.

In the reshuffle after the Communists and their Leftist allies took control of the Government, Monsignor Hala was replaced in the Ministry of Posts and Communications by Alois Neumann, member of the Czech National Socialist party.

Four Million Czechs Work For Nothing In 'Victory' Shift

Prague, March 22—(AP)—More than 4,000,000 Czechs worked for nothing yesterday, the government announced today.

They worked in the nation's factories and mines and on building projects. Their gratis labor was the first of a series of government "victory shifts."

The money they could have earned will go to an international children's relief fund and to the guerrilla cause in Greece.

The government did not say which will get the biggest share.

More than 250,000 hours were put in at the Bata shoes and allied industry works alone, an announcement said.

Aotors from the national theater helped on a house building project. Children helped clean rubbish from homes and office buildings.

The Czech Parliament worked yesterday too.

It voted to confiscate land holdings in excess of 125 acres. Landless peasants will get a chance to acquire this excess land at favorable terms.

Gottwald Sees 20% Rise In Czech Farm Output

PRAGUE, March 22 (AP).—Premier Klement Gottwald said today he expected a 20 per cent increase in farm production under a five-year plan starting next year. He answered a series of questions submitted by The Associated Press on March 9.

The Communist Premier would not say whether Czechoslovakia would follow the Russian example in devaluating currency.

He was not specific about when elections would be held. He said, however, he foresaw little opposition to his party's program.

During the height of the government crisis last month, Mr. Gottwald promised the peasants that fifty hectares (123.5 acres) would be the largest land holding allowed an individual. Parliament enacted this land reform yesterday.

Mr. Gottwald forecast today that mechanization and electrification of the country would increase farm yields despite the smaller units of farms.

Poland To Begin Youth-Draft Plan

Warsaw, Poland, March 22 (AP). A commander of the National Youth Organization today said Poland expects to mobilize 2,000,000 youths by the end of the year.

The commander, Col. Michal Gorski, said the call-ups would begin April 30 for reconstruction and national military preparedness.

Youth from 16 to 21 are affected by the new law authorizing compulsory work in national rebuilding, physical education and army training. Gorski said girls in those ages are subject to training, but will not be enlisted this year.

Labor brigades will be used to restore communications, rebuild chemical plants in what was German Lower Silesia and do reconstruction in Warsaw and Szczecin (Stettin).

Reserve officers will give sixteen hours a month of infantry-warfare training over a half-year period.

Gorski said drafted youths will receive no pay. They will be furnished food, lodging and uniforms.

The Government had allocated $19,000,000 to start the mobilization plan. It is expected eventually to affect 4,500,000 youths.

FINNS PLEDGED FREE ELECTION

MAR 1948

President Paasikivi Also Predicts No Early War

Helsinki, March 22 (AP)—President Juho K. Passikivi today promised that Finland's parliamentary elections next July will be free. He also predicted that there will be no war in the near future.

Finland's 78-year-old President, for the first time in recent tense weeks, granted an interview to four American reporters in the presidential palace.

President In Good Humor

Obviously relaxed now that the Finnish delegation has arrived in Moscow for negotiations, the President showed no strain after the four weeks of conferences and deliberations since Marshal Stalin first proposed a Russo-Finnish friendship and military alliance. He was in good humor.

He anticipated no reduction of trade with the west because "our exports (wood products, paper and pulp) are such that the world needs them and there is no lack of demand for them."

Belittles War Chances

Paasikivi talked freely of world relations, but declined to discuss the present negotiations in Moscow or Finnish politics.

Asked about fears expressed by some Finns that the coming elections might be postponed, the President answered:

"We will have elections in the legal fashion and there will be no question of postponing them. We are living in a country under legal order and according to our constitution. The elections will be totally free and the will of the people will be the deciding factor."

Of rumors about risks of war he said, "Perhaps I am a little naive, but I do not think there will be any war in the near future. Such wars cannot be started four or five years after this last great war. Cold war, perhaps, will last. But peoples are not so likely to be induced to begin a new war."

Recognizes U.S. Help

"My hope," he continued, "has been that the United Nations would develop into an organization that really could ensure peace. In our country we always have been such idealists . . ."

Finland is very thankful for the help and credit she has received said, and she hopes to extend commercial relations with the United States and other countries as much as possible.

"We could use some more American credits and naturally we intend to repay them," he added.

Nazi Assets To Be Settled

HELSINKI, March 22 (AP).—Final agreement on payment to Russia of German assets in Finland will be reached soon, a government spokesman said today. Negotiations have been under way since Finland and Russia agreed in February, 1947, that the U. S. S. R. should receive the equivalent of $44,000,000 in former Nazi assets.

Finland settled half the bill by turning over a Finnish warship, rebuilding the Jaeniskoski hydro-electric power station to furnish power to the Soviet Petsamo mining area and providing 15,000 horses, a fiber factory and some Finnish buildings at Leningrad and Tallinn. The remainder, including 140,000,000 Finnish marks (slightly more than $1,000,000) in connection with firms in which Germans had an interest here, was left for negotiation.

PRAVDA FLAYS 'PANIC POLICY' OF PRESIDENT

MAR 1948

Red Press Says Truman's Talk Designed as Campaign Move

Moscow, March 22 (AP)—Pravda declared today that President Truman's speech to Congress last Wednesday reflected a "panic policy."

It was the first editorial reaction in the Soviet press to the President's strong speech recommending adoption of universal military training and re-adoption of the draft.

The President made his speech, the Communist Party organ declared, because his "election managers demanded fire and brimstone, anti-communism and war hysteria, as a means of diverting the attention of the American people from the deepening severity of domestic economic difficulties and from the lamentable results of the entire policy of the Administration."

The article was written by commentator H. Marinin.

"Truman's message to Congress shows that ruling circles in the United States, seriously alarmed about internal difficulties as well as by the growth of the forces of democracy throughout the world, now are losing their balance and are trying to find a way out, a means of artificially inflaming international relations," Marinin said.

(By "forces of democracy," Russian commentators means Communists.)

"Certainly this path will not bring them any laurels and can only accelerate the final fiasco of the foreign policy of American ruling circles," the commentator said.

Marinin said the President's message was not the first of its line. The State Department, he said, previously had been creating an "alarmist mood."

The purpose of the speech abroad, Marinin continued, was to prop up the "American party in Europe." Inside the country, he said, it was a piece of campaign strategy.

In reply to President Truman's attacks on Soviet policy in Finland, Marinin had this to say:

"American diplomats would like to sacrifice the national interests of the Finnish people to foreign monopolies and force Finland, a country liberated by the Red Army from Hitler, to become again an anti-Soviet springboard."

Intervention Hit

The Pravda article repeated charges frequently made in the Soviet press that the United States was openly intervening in the internal affairs of Italy. In Czechoslovakia, it continued, the United States "supported a gang of plotters" with hopes of leading up to a new Munish.

Marinin declared that recent decrees for demobilization of sections of the Soviet Army constituted evidence of the "Soviet peace policy."

The official Communist party newspaper carried the first published comment here on Mr. Truman's appearance last Wednesday before a joint session of the Congress.

[Mr. Truman asked Congress for temporary revival of the draft, universal military training and quick approval of the European Recovery Program. He charged the Soviet Union with seeking to prevent world peace.]

Laid To Election Managers

In an article signed by the commentator M. Marinin, the Communist newspaper said Mr. Truman made the speech because his election managers "demanded fire and brimstone, anti-communism and war hysteria" as a means of diverting the American people's attention from domestic economic difficulties.

Marinin said "extraordinary measures" were adopted as the keynote of Mr. Truman's re-election campaign.

"Accelerate Final Fiasco"

The commentator said the presidential message showed that "ruling circles in the United States, seriously alarmed about internal difficulties as well as by the growth of the forces of democracy throughout the world, are now losing their balance and trying to find a way out, a means of artificially inflaming international relations."

Marinin said such a policy by Americans "will not bring them any laurels and can only accelerate the final fiasco of the foreign policy of American ruling circles."

The commentator declared the American State Department had previously created "alarmist moods" and added:

"President Truman's speech is by no means suggestive of confidence or strength. Its obvious purpose is to prop up the very precarious position of the 'American party' in Europe."

A Finnish delegation arrived in Moscow today to begin negotiations for a treaty of friendship and mutual assistance requested by Prime Minister Stalin.

Reply To Charge On Finland

The Soviet commentator, referring to Mr. Truman's charge that Soviet pressure is being brought to bear on Finland, said:

"American diplomats would like to sacrifice the national interests of the Finnish people and force Finland, a country liberated by the Red Army from Hitler, to again become an anti-Soviet springboard."

Marinin reiterated charges that America was intervening in Italy's internal affairs. He said the United States supported "a gang of plotters" in Czechoslovakia with the hope of leading to a new Munich. He declared that demobilization measures affecting the Soviet Army were evidence that Russia was following a peace policy.

'Panic Policy,' Pravda Says

Moscow, March 22 (AP)—Pravda said today President Truman's address to Congress last week reflected "panic policy" and an effort of his Administration artificially to inflame international relations.

FINNS MEET MOLOTOV

MOSCOW, March 22. — (AP) Foreign Minister C. J. A. Enckell of Finland, Vice Foreign Minister Reinhold Svento, and Cay Sundstrom, Finnish minister to Moscow, were received late today by V. M. Molotov, Soviet foreign minister.

There were no indications of the subjects of their talk.

The arrival earlier today of the Finnish delegation to negotiate a friendship treaty with the U.S.S.R. brought a large turnout of Moscow's diplomatic corps.

DRIVE PUSHED IN MONGOLIA

Communist Move To Link Forces There To China Seen

Peiping, March 22 (AP)—The Chinese Communists hotly pressed a new campaign in Inner Mongolia today.

Pro-Government reports said they apparently were trying to link forces in Northwest China and Manchuria.

Government holdings in Jehol and Inner Mongolia have kept the two main Communist bodies separated for more than a year, despite recent Communist successes in Manchuria.

Prime immediate objectives of the Communist drive were Kalgan, 116 miles northwest of Peiping, and Tatung, 230 miles by rail via Kalgan.

Two Cities Threatened

Headquarters of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Government commandant, acknowledged that both cities were closely threatened and that the Communists had taken four railway towns between them.

[Shanghai press dispatches named three of the fallen stations as Yangkao, 35 miles northeast of Tatung; Chulo and Lowentsao. They said the attacks were led by Communist General Nieh Jung-chen.]

Advices reaching Peiping said there was heavy fighting near Yuhsien, a highway town 100 miles west of Pieping, and that Communists also had thrust to a point 30 miles southwest of Tatung.

On the Manchurian front, there were fresh reports of skirmishes around Changchun, continued Government air raids on Communist positions, and landing of nationalist reinforcements at the port of Hulutao.

Chinese Reds Slash Through Mongolia Area

Peiping, March 22—(AP)—Severe fighting was reported in Inner Mongolia today as Chinese Communists tried to blast a corridor from North China to Manchuria.

Inner Mongolia adjoins the Russian-dominated Outer Mongolia People's Republic, between northwest China and Russia.

Pro-government dispatches said one of the heaviest points of fighting was near the highway town of Yuhsien in southern Chahar, 100 miles west of Peiping.

(Three stations on the Peiping-Suiyuan Railroad—Hangkao, Chulo and Lowentsao—fell to the Communists, Shanghai dispatches said. They reported six columns under Gen. Nieh Jung-chen were attacking the central section of the railroad.)

Red forces from Inner Mongolia thrust to within 30 miles southwest of Tatung in northern Shansi, dispatches said. That rail-highway center has been a fortress as far back as the third century before Christ. It has withstood several heavy Red sieges in the past two years.

Government forces pushing northward from Mukden were reported within 12 miles of Red-held Kaiyuan. This would put them 53 miles north of Mukden. Communists were massed just south of Changchun, isolated Manchurian capital 150 miles farther north.

Nanking Army Is Still Reeling From '47 Blow

Unable to Begin Initiative After August Drive by Reds in Yangtze Valley

NANKING, March 22 (AP).—The Chinese Government's army, like a punch-drunk fighter, has never recovered its balance since the Communists dealt a hard blow to the heart of China six months ago.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has just expressed fears of collapse in central China, describing it as his government's last reservoir of strength, but foreign observers date the complete loss of civil war initiative to the Reds from the time late in August when one-eyed Communist General Liu Po-cheng thrust into the Yangtze Valley.

The failure of Defense Minister Pai Chung-hsi, who was sent out to deal with General Liu, to drive the raiders from the central Chinese area was the first concrete evidence that Chiang Kai-shek's fighters had lost their punch.

A military spokesman said Liu's raiders were prevented from crossing the Yangtze into the vast, unguarded storehouse which is South China.

That may be, although there have been recent reports that some Communists are operating south of the Yangtze. The fact remains, however, that Liu dislocated government forces as far north as the Manchurian frontier.

Since that time they have behaved like a tired, winded boxer who covers his jaw only to have his opponent deliver a hard left to the stomach.

Divisions already committed to vital Shantung province were moved to the Yangtze to meet Liu's thrust. The Reds drove back into Shantung and recaptured territory the government had seized only a few weeks before.

Then, before the campaign against Liu's fast-moving troops had more than started, Communist attacks of unprecedented violence broke out in Manchuria.

Once again Chiang Kai-shek was forced to re-deploy his forces. The central China defense were weakened to meet the threat in the north. Whereupon, the Communists opened a twin offensive in central China.

Generals Told to Stay at Posts.

Nanking, March 22 (A. P.).—There will be no generals among national assembly delegates meeting next Monday to name China's first constitutional president and vice-president. Chiang Kai-shek today instructed generals who also are delegates to remain at their war posts. He told them to send civilian alternates.

AMERICANS MARRY JAPS

Toyko—(AP)—U.S. Consular officials estimate that 824 American men in the occupation forces have married Japanese women since May of 1946. Most of the Americans are of Japanese ancestry.

MANILA EYES LACK OF MINE ORE INTEREST

U. S. Shuns Stockpiling of Scarce Materials in Philippines

Manila, March 22—(AP)—No efforts have been made by the United States in recent months to stockpile strategic commodities from the Philippines, a highly reliable official declared today.

"And we are wondering why," said the informant, who asked not to be named.

He said the United States realized just before the outbreak of the Pacific war in 1941 it badly needed such island materials as copra, chrome and manganese. It began to step up production only a few weeks before the Japanese invasion.

Today, with a few exceptions, production of strategic materials is languishing for lack of capital. Copra production for 1947 totaled 1,168,400 tons compared with 504,000 in 1938. Part of this record is due to accumulations from the previous year. The normal total is expected to be around 800,000 tons.

Abaca, raw material for Manila rope, is climbing back to normal with 786,800 bales of 278.3 pounds each exported in 1947.

Recovery of base metals has been slow. Only bright spot is chromite ore. One mine last year produced 189,499 tons; the entire Philippines output in 1940 was 186,000.

No copper ore was produced last year. Such ore shipped in 1947 was mined and milled by the Japanese during their occupation. One copper mine is expected to return to production by mid-1948. In 1938 the islands' yield was 1,250,000 pounds.

Manganese ore used in steel production totaled 52,000 tons for the last prewar year. It dropped to 3,000 last year.

Lead production, a by-product of gold mining in the Paracale district of southern Luzon, reached 1,000 tons before the war. It is zero now.

Mining companies are awaiting war damage payments to begin rehabilitation work. Settlements, however, are not likely to equal the 25 per cent actual loss in terms of prewar cost.

140 LEFT DEAD IN PALESTINE'S BLOODIEST DAY

Artillery Used By British; Three-Way Fight Still Rages In Haifa

Jerusalem, March 22 (AP) — The heaviest 24 hours of fighting in Palestine's current reign of violence tonight left 140 dead, including four British soldiers and a British constable.

The British used artillery in attempts to stem the rising tide of civil war. Their shells blasted Ishwa village, Arab headquarters in the Hartuv. The Arab press reported 60 killed and 100 wounded there. A British officer said 23 bodies were counted. Four British soldiers were killed in the action.

At Nizanim, near the Mediterranean coast in the land of the ancient Philistines, 20 Jews and 31 Arabs were reported killed in two pitched battles.

Fighting Continues In Haifa

Three-way fighting described by observers as the "heaviest since partition" still raged in Haifa. Six Arabs and a British constable were killed there. British tank guns dispersed Arabs threatening a Jewish transport.

After the British artillery attack in Hartuv, the Arabs evacuated Ishwa village, but the surrounding hills still were held by 1,000 of Abdul Khader Husseini's irregulars. A cousin of the Mufti of Jerusalem, Husseini commands Palestine Arabs in the southern division of the Holy Land.

The British fired a barrage from their 25-pound guns and used sixteen smoke shells in the Hartuv attack.

Sniping Is Widespread

An explosion wrecked the thickly populated Iraq street in the center of the Arab section of Haifa. Police attributed the attack to Jews. The blast touched off a bitter Arab-Jewish battle.

A truck loaded with explosives penetrated the Arab section and blew up. Jewish sources said the truck was driven by two members of the Stern Gang who escaped before the blast. Observers expressed the belief the blast was the Jewish answer to the truck bombing last month of Ben Yehuda street in the center of Jerusalem.

Arab mortars immediately began bombarding the neighboring Jewish business center. A British constable was killed and another injured when a mortar shell exploded near the police headquarters.

In an attempt to halt the developing battle British troops fired at Jews and Arabs alike. Sniping broke out throughout the city. An Associated Press correspondent telephoned that squads from Haganah—the Jewish militia—were roaming the streets challenging Arabs gathered in coffee houses.

Arabs Reported Well Armed

A Haganah source said the Arabs were repulsed twice at Hartuv this morning and last night. During the afternoon the Arabs resumed the attack. The Arabs were well armed and were wearing steel helmets and khaki uniforms.

Jewish reinforcements have reached the settlement, one of the oldest Zionist agricultural colonies in Palestine.

Fighting continued near Neeve Yaacov on the Jerusalem-Ramallah road. Two Arabs and a Greek were killed there when a bus was fired on, police said.

Bus Blown Up On Road

Six Jews were killed and two injured when an armored bus was blown up by a mine on the Rosh Pina-Safad road.

The unofficial death count since the United Nations voted for partition November 29 rose to 2,060. The United States Government now has reversed its position on partition and suggested instead that Palestine be placed under a United Nations trusteeship.

Palestine Jews, however, are expected soon to proclaim a Jewish state to be defended by Jewish arms.

A reliable informant said a formal proclamation order will be issued by Vaad Leumi—the Jewish National Council. No official announcement yet has been made by the council itself. Such a proclamation would repudiate in advance any United Nations trusteeship, defy Arab arms and be a step toward appeal for international recognition.

Zionists To Map Course

Tel Aviv, Palestine, March 22 (AP)—The Jewish Agency decided today to convene the action committee of the World Zionist Organization in a special session April 4 in Palestine.

The action committee will draft a blueprint of a new policy in view of United States' action in proposing to the United Nations that partition of Palestine be shelved.

A member of the Jewish Agency said "although members of the Jewish Agency are unanimously for rejecting other schemes than independence, there are differences of opinion on timing."

FORMAL ORDER EXPECTED ON JEWISH STATE

MAR 1948

Council in Tel Aviv Due to Proclaim New Government

JAS M. LONG

Tel Aviv, Palestine, March 22—(AP)—A Jewish state to be defended by Jewish arms is expected to be proclaimed in Palestine today or tomorrow.

A reliable informant said a formal order proclaiming the existence of such a state will be made by Vaad Leumi—the Jewish National Council. No official announcement has yet been made by the Council itself.

David Ben Gurion, chairman of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, said Saturday a Jewish state already has come into being—prepared to defend itself.

(In New York City, Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American section of the Agency, said it was "logical" for Zionists to proclaim a state.)

Such a proclamation by the National Council would repudiate in advance any United Nations trusteeship, defy Arab arms and be a step towards appeal for international recognition.

Tel Aviv—only all-Jewish city in the world—is the administrative center of the new state. Informants said it will be the capital at least through the provisional phase.

Government of the state would be in the hands of a provisional committee of 32 already appointed under authority of the Jewish Agency by Vaad Leumi.

Little Resentment

There is little evidence of Jewish resentment against the American move on partition.

Most Jews here realize peaceful partition had already failed, with nearly 2,000 killed in civil war since November 29.

The potential state already has its army in Haganah, with more than 25,000 paid combat troops. The number is increasing.

(In Beirut, Lebanon, the Arab League yesterday demanded disarmament of Haganah as a step toward achieving a truce in the Holy Land).

Throughout the provisional phase the state probably will be nameless. It would be the first Jewish nation in 2,000 years.

Continued Jewish-Arab violence throughout the Holy Land marked Palm Sunday.

Six Jews Killed

Six Jews were killed and 26 injured when a truck, laden with explosives, blew up before a building in Haifa occupied by a Jewish building workers' co-operative. Police said an Arab was seen leaving the truck shortly before the blast.

Sixteen Arabs, seven Jews and a British officer were slain in other Palm Sunday violence.

A Haganah source said that 20 Arabs and four Jews were killed last night during an Arab attack on the Jewish settlement of Nizanim in southern Palestine.

All telephone communication with southern Palestine has been cut.

Police had unconfirmed reports that 16 Jews and 10 Arabs were killed in skirmishes in the same area.

A Haganah source said Arabs had encircled the Jewish village of Hartuv, flanking the Jerusalem-Lydda railway, and attacked the settlement of Neeve Yaacob, about six miles north of Jerusalem. Two Jews and seven Arabs were reported wounded there.

A Haganah guard warned Jack R. Keagan, general manager of Trans-World Airline, Inc., to leave a Jerusalem cafe today when two suspected members of the Stern gang (Jewish extremists) were seen approaching him. Keagan, a resident of New York City, had received two telephone warnings previously from Sternists.

World Zionist Parley Called On Palestine

Jewish Agency Sets April 4 for Session

By The Associated Press

TEL AVIV, Palestine, March 22.—The Jewish Agency decided today to convene the Action Committee of the World Zionist Organization in a special session April 4 in Palestine.

The Action Committee will draft a blueprint of a new policy, in view of the United States' action in proposing to the United Nations that partition of Palestine be shelved.

A member of the Jewish Agency said, "Although members of the Jewish Agency are unanimously for rejecting other schemes than independence, there are differences of opinion on timing."

British Arms Advisors To Leave Iraq In May

Baghdad, Iraq, March 22 (AP)—The British advisory military mission to Iraq will be withdrawn in May, it was announced today.

The governments of the two countries made the joint announcement in a communiqué. The withdrawal, the communiqué said, was recommended by Maj. Gen. James Renton, chief of the mission, who reported that "the Iraqi armed forces have reached such a state of efficiency" that the mission no longer is needed.

Two months ago Iraq refused to sign a new treaty of alliance with Great Britain that would have provided joint defense boards and Iraqi bases for the British.

CAIRO JUDGE SLAIN

Cairo, March 22 (A. P.).—Unidentified gunmen today killed a judge, who has been trying Egyptian youths for placing bombs near two British institutions here. The victim, Ahmed al Khazindar Bey, was shot as he left his home in suburban Helwan. He was President of the Court of Assizes.

The police said that two youths fired seven shots at him, then hurled two grenades at passersby, who tried to stop them.

Argentina Rejects World Trade Pact

Delegate Says Peron Can't Accept Super-State

HAVANA, March 22 (AP).—Argentina announced today she will not sign the final pact of the United Nations International Trade Organization because "the Argentine Republic can accept no super-state organization."

Diego Luis Molinari, chief of the Argentine delegation, said he was "acting on specific instructions from my government." The conference is now winding up after sessions extending over four months.

Mr. Molinari said thirty-one reservations requested by Argentina do not appear in the charter draft. He declared the charter should be discussed article by article, in regular parliamentary fashion in plenary sessions, adding: "This is obviously impossible, since it has already been announced the final act will be signed Wednesday. This represents a closed procedure we are unable to accept.'

Mr. Molinari said equality of nations is not embodied in the pact. "I saw a similar division in the League of Nations, which is no longer in existence," he said. "We have seen a similar division in the United Nations and have seen how it is going. At this very moment we are faced by the impotence of sanctions at the U. N."

He said Argentine President Juan D. Peron has declared the economic independence of Argentina, "and at no moment will we ask for prior authorization to carry out the line of conduct the Argentine people will follow."

30 DEMOCRATS JOIN IN BACKING GOP LEGISLATION

Vote Enough to Override a Veto, if Lineup Remains Unchanged.

BILL TO BE SPEEDED

MAR 1948

House Will Accept Senate's Smaller Figure, Knutson Predicts.

WASHINGTON, March 22—(AP) The Senate voted 78 to 11 today to cut income taxes $4,800,000,000. The overwhelming vote was far more than enough to override a veto—if the lineup remains unchanged.

Thirty Democrats joined 48 Republicans in balloting for the GOP-backed measure. No Republicans voted against it. Eleven Democrats did.

The bill now goes back to the House, which voted 297 to 120 on February 2 for a $6,500,000,000 tax slash.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has predicted the House will skip the usual conference on differing bills and accept the smaller Senate figure. The only material difference between the measures is in the percentage of cuts at various income levels.

House May Act Tomorrow

The House expects to act Wednesday. If it takes the $4,800,000,000 Senate version, the next move would be up to President Truman.

The Chief Executive has made it pretty clear he would veto tax bills like those passed by the Senate and House.

Republican leaders lined up behind the smaller figure. They hope that strategy will pay off in enough Democratic votes to override a veto and several such votes showed up in debate today. A two-thirds majority in both the Senate and House is required to override.

The Republicans rolled up their two-thirds margin in the Senate with 18 votes to spare. The House had a 19-vote cushion when it passed its bill.

GOP leaders expressed confidence the margin would hold in both Houses.

But Democratic foes of the bill are counting on Mr. Truman to write a veto message which they hope would cause some present supporters of tax reduction to change their minds.

They look for the President to say it would be unwise to cut government revenues at a time when, he contends, world conditions may make it necessary to spend extra billions to make America strong militarily.

Anticipating this, Senate Republicans argued that world events may require a big production increase and that tax relief would encourage industry.

They got help from Senator Pepper (D-Fla) who proposed that the top levy on an individual's income be cut from 70 to 50 percent. He said the idea was to stimulate private enterprise.

Several senators in today's debate suggested that any cut might not last long.

"Short Duration"—McMahon

Senator McMahon (D-Conn) said he had decided "somewhat reluctantly" to vote for the bill, mainly because of its income-splitting community property provision.

But the Connecticut senator said he would be "less than fair to my constituents" if he did not add that any tax cut "may be of short duration."

Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) announced his support of the tax cut and added:

"If this bill should be vetoed, I will vote to override the veto."

Thirteen amendments were batted down before the final vote.

Just before the Senate turned to voting on amendments, Senator Connally (D-Tex) made an impassioned appeal for defeat of the tax-cutting bill. Senator Millikin (R-Colo), floor manager for the measure, urged that it be passed.

The tall Texan said national income last year amounted to $208,000,000,000, and demanded:

"Is that any evidence business is in a bad way?"

Noting the turn of world events, Connally said the "best thing for the United States to do is to keep itself strong" financially.

Millikin said it would take a "healthy economy" to meet any possible world emergency. He declared the G.O.P.-backed tax reduction bill is a "strong step" toward assuring such an economy.

"Incentive capital has dried up," Millikin said.

Lucas Late Recruit

Senator Lucas (D.-Ill.), assistant Democratic leader, was a late recruit to the tax cutting forces. As the hour for the vote approached he said he would vote for the bill but would not hesitate to vote rates back up if the international situation warrants it.

Senator Langer (R.-N. D.), a tax cut opponent last year, also went along. He said he did it reluctantly, he didn't want the present administration to have any more money to spend.

"I am satisfied that the more money we give this bunch of tax eaters, the more they'll use," he chouted.

Lucas' comments emphasized an earlier statement by Senator Morse (R.-Ore.), another late comer to the tax cutting forces. Morse told the Senate that if bigger military spending becomes necessary the rates may have to go back up.

MAR 1948

China to the $5,300,000,000 European recovery program—will be taken up next week.

House leaders predicted final action shortly after April 1, with prospects bright for early agreement with the senate on differing foreign aid provisions.

Eaton In War Warning

The war warning was given by Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the foreign affairs committee. He told the rules body that the Russians are on the march against the west. And he added:

"They won't stop until they come up against an economic force—military, if necessary—that will stop them."

Action to provide such a force—military as well as economic—came quickly on two other congressional fronts:

1—The house passed a bill providing a $55,000,000 advance to France, Italy and Austria to tide them over until the European recovery program can get going. The measure now goes to the senate.

House Debate Opens Today On Six Billion Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP) —The drive to mobilize money and manpower in an effort to discourage Soviet expansion gained headway in both houses of congress today.

Warned that the danger of World War III "is not very remote," the House Rules Committee cleared the way for debate starting tomorrow on a $6,205,000,000 program of economic and military aid to non-communist countries.

And at least 10 of the 13 members of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Chairman Gurney (R-SD) reported, are convinced there is an "absolute necessity for quick passage" of a draft law and universal military training.

Debate Opens Today

The House Rules Committee already had ordered the curtain rung up on the foreign aid debate. There will be 15 hours of it on the aid bill as a whole. It will begin shortly after noon tomorrow.

Amendments to the far-ranging measure—which adds military and economic aid to Greece, Turkey and 2—The senate foreign relations committee recommended $463,000,000 for China—$100,000,000 of it to be used for weapons or other military purposes at the option of China's anti-communist government.

All this tied in with the $6,205,000,000 house bill, which includes:

$5,300,000,000 for the European recovery program—one of the three sections of President Truman's stop-communist policy. (The other sections are universal military training and a temporary draft.)

$420,000,000 in economic aid for China.

$150,000,000 in military aid to China.

$275,000,000 in military aid to Greece and Turkey.

$60,000,000 for the United Nations Children's Fund.

Vital Issue, Group Says

In formally recommending this omnibus bill today, the foreign affairs committee said "the very survival of the United States" depends on the success of the European recovery program and the blocking of communist expansion.

Because of Russia's "systematic efforts" to undermine democratic governments, the committee said, military as well as economic help is needed in some of the countries involved.

Secretary of State Marshall, scheduled to testify before the senate committee today, did not appear because of "the pressures on his time," Vandenberg said.

463 MILLIONS TO AID CHINA RECOMMENDED

Senate Committee Favors Sum for Expenditure in 12 Months.

VANDENBERG EXPLAINS CUT

Would Fit Into ERP Frame—100 Millions Could Be Used for Weapons.

MAR 1948

Washington, March 22 (A. P.). — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee recommended today $463,000,000 for aid to China. Of this amount $100,000,000 could be used for military supplies.

The money would be for twelve months. The administration had asked for $570,000,000 for economic aid to China for a fifteen-month period.

Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.), the chairman, said the fifteen months was reduced to twelve in order to place the program within the framework of the European Recovery Program. The cut from $570,000,000 to $463,000,000 leaves the same rate of spending a month.

Two Parts to Grant.

Vandenberg told reporters the measure provides $363,000,000 economic aid to the Chinese under the "applicable provisions of the E. R. P." and under the supervision of the E. R. P. administrator. Economic aid would be help in financing imports of food and other consumer goods and in improving roads and factories.

He said the remaining $100,000,000 is "a grant to China to be used to suit its own necessities and purposes." Asked if it could be used for military purposes, Vandenberg replied that was up to the Chinese Government. He said it could be used to buy weapons or for other military purposes, "if such is the option of the Chinese Government."

The $100,000,000 is to be placed at the disposal of the President, who will arrange for the terms of the grant with Chinese authorities. Vandenberg emphasized, however, that it is for the Chinese to say how the $100,000,000 is to be used. The President only arranges for the fiscal terms of the grant.

Differs From House Bill.

The Senate measure differs from one approved by the House Foreign Affairs Committee. The House unit approved the entire $570,000,000 for the fifteen-month period, but earmarked $150,000,000 for military expenditures and $420,000,000 for economic aid.

ERP PASSAGE SEEN LINK TO FUTURE OF U.S.

House Committee Urges Approval of Program as Only Choice

Washington, March 22—(AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee said today "the very survival of the United States" is at stake in the present program to stop Communism and help Europe recover economically.

It expressed that belief in a written statement sent to the House with a $6,205,000,000 bill to help Europe and China.

The bill is to come up in the House tomorrow. Passage by next week is virtually assured.

The committee said the program "is necessary to prevent the United States from being confronted with a world so unbalanced and hostile as to present almost unsuperable burdens to the people of the United States in the future . . ."

The same considerations which require aid to Europe make it necessary to strengthen China "as a barrier in the Far East against the further encroachments of Communism and the domination of the world by Moscow," it said, adding:

But One Choice

"Faced with this prospect, there can be but one choice: To extend the aid necessary in both economic and military spheres. A calculated risk, it has been called. But such a risk is no risk, compared to the grim certainty of the alternative."

The bill includes a $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program, $420,000,000 in economic and $15,000,000 in military help for China, $275,000,000 in military assistance for Greece and Turkey, and $60,000,000 for the United Nations funds for children.

And, on the insistene of Rep. Mundt (R.S.D.), the Foreign Affairs Committee wrote into the European end o fthe measure several declarations in favor not only of economic but also "political cooperation" among the nations receiving aid.

Already steps are under way among the 16 western European nations involved to form a customs union. Five have joined together in a military alliance. Polictical cooperation, some of the bill's backers feel, might lead a step farher to creation of a political union, a United States of Europe.

The Senate omitted any outright bid for political teamwork when it passed its $5,300,000,00 European Recovery Program. Nor did the Senate include anything in the way of aid for China or military help for Greece and Turkey.

But the Senate Foreign Relations Committe has approved a separate measure covering the $275,000,000 Greek-Turkish military aid. And it hoped to finish today another separate bil lon China, after questioning Secretary of State Marshall.

Cool on China Aid

Marshall has been cool toward big-scale military help for the Chinese.

Meanwhile the House Appropriations Committee met today to act on another administration request—for $55,000,000 to keep the present supply lines to Italy, France and Austria filled until the new program takes hold.

Representative Vorys (R-Ohio) forecasts that both the House, and the Senate, will approve the $6,205,000,000 plan without any big overhauling. Vorys will be in charge of the bill most of the time while the House tussles with it.

SENATE UNIT BACKS QUICK UMT, DRAFT

Convinced After Conference with Military Leaders, Gurney Says.

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 22—(AP) A large majority of the Senate Armed Services Committee was reported convinced today that quick adoption of both universal military training and a temporary draft is a national necessity.

Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) made the estimate of sentiment after a closed-door session of 10 committeemen with Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, and Secretary of the Army Royall.

Convinced Action Needed

The full membership is only 13. Gurney told reporters he was sure those who attended were convinced of the "absolute necessity for quick passage."

The secret talks with the defense chiefs closed out a day in which the committee heard:

1. Testimony from former Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts that America fell for a communist trick when it sped postwar demobilization, and that the same forces which engineered that coup are the "organized core" of opposition to UMT now.

2. A statement from Dr. Karl Compton that UMT is freedom insurance and a draft is an urgent need to protect us until the policy goes into force.

Roberts told the senators that the freedoms the American people cherish "are now imperilled."

And Compton asserted that "time is running out."

Gurney reported that the three secretaries discussed "the general critical and more progressively serious situation in Europe."

Attending the meeting, in addition to Gurney, were Senators Saltonstall (R-Mass.), Morse (R-Ore.), Baldwin (R-Conn.), Bridges (R-N.H.), Byrd (D-Va.), Hill (D-Ala.), Maybank (D-S.C.), Russell (D-Ga.) and Robertson (R-Wyo.).

Absent were Senators Wilson (R-Iowa), Tydings (D-Md) and Kilgore (D-WVa).

Tells of Reds' 'Strategy'

Roberts is now chairman of the National Security Council. He told the committee the group is a coordinating committee for about 58 organizations with a combined membership of 23,000,000.

The aim of the communists when World War II shooting stopped, Roberts said, was to "bring about American military impotence vis-a-vis Russia in Europe precisely as is the fact today. The same skill is eveident in the campaign against UMT today."

Adoption of UMT, Roberts said, would be only a sign of this country's "resolute determination to defend the peace."

With regard to President Truman's companion proposal for a temporary draft to fill depleted ranks of the armed forces, Roberts said:

"If it is necessary as a short-term expedient, it has become necessary solely as the result of our unfortunate delay in establishing universal military training."

While the committee was in session a group of religious and educational leaders issued a statement protesting that "the American people are virtually being asked to write a blank check for commitments in the international scene, with the figure to be filled in by the military."

Objecting especially to the closed-door session today, the group said that if the services have information essential to judgment on UMT and the draft, it should be given publicly.

Compton was chairman of the presidential commission which unanimously recommended UMT last year.

Compton Urges UMT

He said the situation will be "very dangerous" if Russia goes beyond the acquisition of buffer states. He said "timid souls and thoughtless persons" would like to put off a decision on military training, and went on:

"This is one of the surest ways to get into serious trouble, for if the situation continues to worsen and we continue to hope for the best while doing nothing unpleasant, x x x we may lose x x x freedom."

He laid stress on the "devastating quickness" with which an enemy might strike in modern war.

Dr. Compton told the senators that world events have underscored the very reasons that led his commission to recommend training. He said the commission also foresaw that it might not be possible to fill the armed services' needs with volunteers.

Dr. Compton Indorses Both Draft and U. M. T.

MAR 1948

Head of Presidential Commission Testifies Training Will Give Us a 'Stockpile of Time' for an Emergency.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Universal training would give us a "stockpile of time" for an emergency—1,600 hours of preparation for each trainee, Congress was told today.

"Time is running out," contended Dr. Karl Compton. Modern war calls for more training, and it permits a warring nation to strike with "devastating quickness," he said.

Compton was chairman of the presidential commission which last year unanimously recommended universal military training. He is president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee which went into session to consider President Truman's plea for a temporary draft and immediate enactment of universal training.

Committee Wants Inside Facts.

The committee also asked the administration for inside facts on the cold war with Communism. It invited Secretary of State Marshall and Secretary of Defense Forrestal to appear later today. Senator Bridges (R.-N. H.) told a reporter that the committee hopes to find out "if and when we intend to fight."

Compton said that every reason his study commission put forth for U. M. T. ten months ago "can be underscored with added emphasis in the light of world events. . . ." He said that "timid souls and thoughtless persons" would postpone facing the "unpleasant" U. M. T. issue.

"This," he added, "is one of the surest ways to get into serious trouble, for if the situation continues to worsen and we continue to hope for the best while doing nothing unpleasant . . . we may lose . . . freedom."

He declared that U. M. T. would give America two-fold insurance coverage: "In the first place a strong military posture will be a deterrent to actions of any nation which might provoke war. . . . In the second place, if war should occur, then we would have a much better chance of coming through successfully and at less cost."

For a Limited Draft Also.

Questioned about President Truman's request for a limited draft law, Compton said he believes the proposal is a wise one. He indorsed action to bring the armed forces up to authorized strength. The commission he headed foresaw a possibility that it would not be possible to recruit enough men to fill up the armed forces, he said, and therefore it urged prompt action on universal training.

"Perhaps the delay has been too long and this other supplementary move (a draft) should be taken in the light of world conditions," he said.

Senator Saltonstall (R.-Mass.) wanted to know whether the country could bear the cost of universal training on top of what it is already spending for the armed forces. Compton said it could—that "the amounts we have been talking about, while large, are small compared with what we spend on luxuries each year."

House Leader Says Possibility Of War 'Is Not Very Remote'

MAR 1948

Eaton Makes Statement as Rules Committee Clears 6.2 Billion Omnibus Aid Bill for Debate Starting Tomorrow.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—Representative Eaton (R.-N. J.), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said today that the possibility of a third world war was "not very remote."

Eaton was asking the House Rules Committee to send to the House floor quickly legislation for $6,205,000,000 worth of economic and military aid to western Europe, China, Greece and Turkey.

The Rules Committee cleared the bill for House consideration beginning tomorrow. It approved fifteen hours of general debate to be followed next week by debate on amendments.

A little earlier the Foreign Affairs Committee had formally reported the bill. It said in a report to the House that "the very survival of the United States" was at stake in the present program to stop Communism and help Europe recover economically.

The way the House operates, its Rules Committee has the job of deciding when a bill is to be considered in the House. Even before the Rules Committee session there was an informal understanding that the big foreign aid bill would come up tomorrow. Leaders predicted passage by next week.

Sees No Retreat Possible.

Eaton told the Rules Committee that the world is coming to a crossroads. He said he did not know whether the decision as to which road it will take will be made through armed conflict, "but the possibility is not very remote."

"Sooner, or later, slavery and freedom will stand face to face in this world for a decision of who will rule."

In Greece and Turkey, he added, "we certainly are facing a challenge from which it is impossible for us to retreat."

Representative Cox (D.-Ga.), asked whether Eaton's committee had any assurance that countries getting the assistance "will do something to resist force with force."

"The predominant sentiment of my committee," Eaton replied, "is that all this aid is essentially military aid against an eventual attempt to conquer the world."

Armies of the 16 Countries.

Eaton said "Russia has come down like a glacier through the Baltic states and Albania and now is threatening Finland and other Scandinavian countries."

"They won't stop," he continued, "until they come up against an economic force — military if necessary — that will stop them."

Representative Vorys (R.-Ohio), a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, told the rules committeemen that, as he sees it, the purpose of the bill is to support the economies of countries which are maintaining 104 Army divisions for possible defense against 199 Soviet and satellite divisions. Those figures were official U. S. Army estimated last fall, Vorys said.

"That is very interesting," remarked Representative Brown (R.-Ohio). "Your statement indicates that the sixteen countries to come under ERP have agreed to keep those divisions going."

In its report, the Foreign Affairs Committee recommended speedy action.

The committee called the program "necessary to prevent the United States from being confronted with a world so unbalanced and hostile as to present almost unsuperable burdens to the people of the United States in the future. . . ."

The same considerations which require aid to Europe make it necessary to strengthen China "as a barrier in the Far East against the further encroachments of Communism and the domination of the world by Moscow," the statement said, adding:

"Faced with this prospect, there can be but one choice: to extend the aid necessary in both economic and military spheres. A calculated risk, it has been called. But such a risk is no risk, compared to the grim certainty of the alternative."

The bill includes $5,300,000,000 for a European Recovery Program. This has already passed the Senate as separate legislation. It also includes $570,000,000 for China ($420,000,000 in economic help and $150,000,000 in military), $275,000,000 in military help for Greece and Turkey, and $60,000,000 for the United Nations fund for children. The Senate has not acted on these items.

Says Russia Bars Co-operation.

The House Committee said that for three years the United States has sought to "secure a basis of peace and free co-operation from Russia" in rebuilding European economy. But instead of co-operating, it said, Russia has made "systematic efforts" to disrupt the economies and unsettle or destroy the governments not under its domination.

It said that in cases where civil war and Communist aggression are present, as in China and Greece, and where external threats are dangerous, as in Greece and Turkey, military-type aid is necessary to insure the effectiveness of economic help.

Marshall Off Soon For Bogota Parley

Washington, March 22 (AP)—George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, is going ahead with plans to leave this week end for the Inter-American Conference at Bogota, Colombia.

The State Department press officer, Michael McDermott, said Marshall planned to remain through the entire conference which may last six weeks.

The troubled state of relations with Soviet Russia had prompted some officials to speculate privately that Marshall might call off the Bogota trip or cut short his stay at the conference.

Marshall expects to travel by plane. The conference opens March 30.

War-Materiel Ban For Russia Asked

Washington, March 22 (AP)—President Truman has the "power and responsibility" to prevent shipment of war materiel to Russia and should do so, Representative William C. Cole (R., Mo.) said today.

Cole told the House he had reports the Russian freighter Chukotka was being loaded at Jersey City yesterday with "potential war materiel, tractors, automotive and farm equipment, consigned to the Soviet Union."

"The President has the power and the responsibility to prevent this and further exporting to the Soviet Union," Cole said.

"I call upon him here and now to meet that special responsibility that he so eloquently reminded us of last Wednesday by exercising this power."

PALESTINE TALK UP IN CONGRESS

Several Assail Shift—Some in House Defend It.

Washington, March 22 (A. P.).—The American reversal of policy on the partition of Palestine was attacked in both the Senate and House today. Some House members defended the move.

Senator Ives (R.-N. Y.) told the Senate that the action might have a tragic effect on the future of the United Nations.

He called for "plain speech" by the administration on its move to shelve partitioning and substitute a temporary U. N. trusteeship over the Holy Land. "I know that this wabbly, catch-as-catch can, will-o'-the-wisp policy does not represent the character of the American people," he added.

Representative Celler (D.-N. Y.) called it "wicked."

But Representative Hoffman (R.-Mich.) replied that "it appears the American people are getting tired of going to war for minority groups."

Assailed by Isacson.

Representative Isacson (A. L. P.-N. Y.), who was elected with the backing of Henry Wallace, attacked the policy change and demanded a congressional investigation. He also urged recognition of the Jewish state being organized in Palestine, and the lifting of the embargo on shipment of arms to the Holy Land.

Representative Marcantonio (A. L. P.-N. Y.) accused "the Wall Street banker clique" of controlling American foreign policy. The United States, he said, must take the lead in enforcing the original United Nations decision on Palestine.

Representative Jacob K. Javits (R.-N. Y.) introduced a bill to permit the sending of arms to Palestine. It would permit shipments to the Jewish state of Palestine upon formation, the Jewish Agency for Palestine, or a U. N. Palestine commission.

We Might Have Atomic Power Within Year--But Not Much

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 22—(AP) The way the Atomic Energy commission (AEC) sees it, atomic power will take 10 more years to get going—and still another 10 to make its mark in the world.

In its recent report to Congress, the commission quoted its own general advisory committee as saying:

"We do not see how it would be possible under the most favorable circumstances to have any considerable portion of the present power supply of the world derived from nuclear fuel before the expiration of 20 years."

(Nuclear fuel means uranium, plutonium or thorium.)

And commission Chairman David Lilienthal said in a recent speech:

"As our staff, advisors and contractors see it now, it will be a long hard grind. The most common estimate or guess is from eight to 10 years to overcome the technical difficulties and have a useful practical demonstration plant in operation."

There Are Other Barriers

Earlier in that same talk, Lilienthal said:

"Even after the scientific and engineering underbrush has been cleared away, and a commercially useful plant of some size is in successful operation, there are other barriers that must be overcome before any substantial part of our energy supply—say 10 to 20 percent—comes from atomic energy."

"This does not mean," he added, "that within the next 12 to 24 months, useful electric power could not be actually developed from atomic energy.

Such atomic power could turn motors and light bulbs, and heat buildings. As a matter of fact, on a demonstration basis (a thousand kilowatts or so) that could certainly be done. Indeed that almost certainly will be done.

"But what is certainly and definitely not near at hand are large-scale, pratcical commercial applications of power from atomic energy."

(The Brookhaven National laboratory on Long Island announced recently that it expects to have a research power plant in operation in 1949, generating enough juice to run blowers and other laboratory apparatus.)

Technical Problems

Lilienthal says that these are some of the technical problems which must be overcome:

1—Materials used in an atomic power plant must be able to stand high temperature.

The atomic "oven" constructed at Hanford, Wash., during the war produced enough heat to raise the temperature of Washington's Columbia river slightly, but that's not enough heat to run a steam engine.

2. These construction materials must have another special property—they must not be too prone to gobble up neutrons. Neutrons are the particles released when a uranium or plutonium atom "splits." The released neutrons attack other atoms, split them, and thus keep the chain reaction going. It's this chain reaction that produces atomic energy.

If too many of these neutrons are absorbed in the atomic energy oven, the "fire" goes out.

3. Proper "coolants" must be perfected. A coolant is liquid or gas designed to pick up the heat generated in the atomic oven, and carry it away for use elsewhere—such as in the operation of a steam engine.

Metal Coolant Sought

"At Hanford," says Lilienthal, "the heat of the reactor (the atomic oven) is extracted by water which flows over the uranium. At the temperature required in a power reactor, water or steam is not a good coolant. Instead, a liquid metal coolant may be used."

4. Methods must be perfected for removing the "ashes" of the atomic fires. If these radioactive by-products were left inside the oven they would stop the process.

Lilienthal says that the shielding of workers against radiation and the development of "quick-acting throttles" to control an atomic power plant also are problems.

Still another, he says, is "to have adequate stocks of (uranium or plutonium) to activate a sizeable atomic power industry."

The commission, in its recent report, said it had undertaken research to try to "breed" new nuclear fuel in the very process of consuming the original material.

A-BOMB CLAIM DENIED BY NAVY

LINCOLN, Neb., March 22—(AP) Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) said today "most of our fleet is in the Mediterranean" and "some of the ships are properly equipped with atomic bombs."

Miller spoke at a Nebraska Republican founders' day luncheon.

"It is my opinion that if Tito starts a drive on Trieste or into northern Italy or the Russians try to push us out of Germany, we would see atomic bombs dropped inside of 48 hours. And I would so recommend it," Miller said.

(The navy said in Washington: "Rep. Miller must be misinformed. The navy has only 14 combatant ships in the Mediterranean and none of them carries an atomic bomb.")

"Most of the aircraft carriers are there," the congressman said in reference to the U. S. fleet. "Three battleships are near Trieste in command of the situation there."

The congressman described Washington as "in a constant state of jitters due to a daily hypodermic of fear serum."

"The American people crave for integrity and a spiritual leadership—for someone who will serve notice on Joe Stalin to stop his communist aggression," Miller declared.

Navy Denies Talk Concerning Fleet

Washington, March 22 (AP)—The Navy Department today denied a statement by Representative A. L. Miller (R., Neb.) that "most of our fleet is in the Mediterranean" and "some of the ships are properly equipped with atomic bombs."

Miller had made the remark earlier in the day in an address before the Nebraska Republican Founders' Day luncheon at Lincoln, Nebraska.

"Representative Miller must be misinformed. The Navy has only fourteen combatant ships in the Mediterranean and none of them carries an atomic bomb," the Navy statement said.

In his address, Miller said:

"It is my opinion that if Tito starts a drive on Trieste or into northern Italy or the Russians try to push us out of Germany, we would see atomic bombs dropped inside of 48 hours. And I would so recommend it."

Saipan And Iwo Jima Dead Reach California

Oakland, Cal., March 22 (AP)—The funeral ship Walter W. Schwenk arrived here today with 3,295 dead—most of them Marines who fought and died on Saipan and Iwo Jima.

They were the largest group of Pacific war dead yet to be brought back.

Unloading of the caskets will continue until Friday, when funeral trains leave for final destinations throughout the country.

The Schwenk was the third Pacific funeral ship to reach port. The S.S. Honda Knot is due the first week in April from the Caribbean area and Panama Canal Zone.

Warren Says It's Time To Put U.N. To The Test

Lincoln, Neb., March 22 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California asked tonight, "Is it not about time to put the United Nations to the test?"

Speaking before the Nebraska Republicans at their annual Founders Day dinner, Warren said he would rather see the United Nations "succumb in defense of the purposes for which it was founded than to see it live on in frustration and hypocrisy while freedom dies."

"Should we not sumbit to it fairly and squarely, without fear of consequences, the great problem of the day—aggression?" he asked. "Why not have it fought out around the council table, and let the world know—at least the free world—who the aggressors are, what their conduct is, and that their actions will not be tolerated?"

Warren said this would end aggression "because no country can stand the scorn of unified world opinion."

BRITISH LOCOMOTIVES SENT TO REDS, IS CLAIM

DENVER, March 22.—(AP) Rep. Johnson (R-Ill) said today Great Britain recently shipped 500 locomotives to Russia.

He contended in an interview that manufacture of the engines was financed in part by money lent by this country to the British. Johnson was here for a House Agriculture committee hearing.

"That's where our billions are going," Johnson said, "and that's another reason why I definitely will oppose the ERP program as proposed when the final vote is taken."

Johnson said he received the information from a "reputable fellow congressman "who has checked it with the State department. He declined to name him.

The Illinois representative also said U. S. steel companies indirectly are supplying Russia by shipping steel to satellite countries.

SOVIETS BUYING WAR MATERIAL IN U.S., IS CHARGE

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Two New York newspapers said today Russia has been purchasing huge quantities of possible war material in America for shipment to the Soviet Union.

Several shiploads already have gone to Russia, the papers said.

The Journal-American said in a copyright story it had learned that: "Agents for the Amtorg Trading Corp., the official Russian purchasing commission in this country, have been, and still are, swarming over the country buying new and used bomber engines and transport and cargo plane components which were scrapped as junk by the war assets administration and the armed services.

Still Buying, Is Charge

"Russian agents have bought and and are still buying engines and parts for B-17s, B-24s, C-46s, C-47s and for heavier craft as well as fighter planes at depots in Texas, Arkansas, Arizona, California, New York and even in Washington, D. C.

The World-Telegram said that "thousands upon thousands of tons of material that could be used in war production plants are being loaded on Russian freighters in American ports and transported to the Soviet Union.

"Much in the manner in which Japanese freighters gathered every bit of available scrap before the war, the Russian vessels are cruising from port to port along the eastern and southern coastlines picking up machinery, metals and parts wherever available."

Veterans Form Picket Line

Meanwhile, in Jersey City, New Jersey, AFL longshoremen today refused to cross a picket line established by veterans in front of a pier where the Russian freighter Chukokta was being loaded with machinery.

The picket line was formed yesterday by 25 members of the Hudson County Catholic war veterans organization in protest against shipments which they said "might be used in war against us."

The line was withdrawn today after the longshoremen's decision not to resume work for seven hours.

Thomas Carlin, president of the veterans' group, said the demonstration was "the little people's answer to Uncle Joe's statement that the little people in America favor communism."

ITALY AIRMAIL DOUBLES

NEW YORK, March 22—(AP) Airmail to Italy has more than doubled during the last few days. It has reached a daily volume as high as 114,000 pieces, Postmaster Albert Goldman said today.

Postal officials believe the increase is due largely to Italian-Americans writing to relatives and friends to combat Italian communist pre-election propaganda.

The largest amount of airmail for Europe leaves New York, although some is flown from Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and Detroit.

Cadogan Concedes Risk Of War In Speech—Papanek Says Moscow Engineered Czech Coup

HANCK

Lake Success, N.Y., March 22 (AP). Britain told the United Nations Security Council today that the tide of communism must be "dammed back" even at the risk of war.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, one of Winston Churchill's top aides in the war years, blamed Russia directly for the Communist grab in Czechoslovakia.

Cadogan said it was the same familiar pattern which had swept Romania, Bulgaria, Albania, Hungary and Poland into the Soviet sphere.

"Is Undeniable Risk"

"There are limits beyond which this tide must not advance, and it must be dammed back," Cadogan said solemnly. "Almost every one in the world must hope fervently that this can be done by peaceful means, but there is an undeniable risk that that hope may not be fulfilled."

The British delegate addressed the Security Council after Jan Papanek, anti-Communist Czechoslovak delegate fired by the new Prague regime, made an ardent appeal for United Nations action against Russia.

Declaring he had direct evidence that Moscow engineered the coup, Papanek said with emotion: "God help me, I shall prove this to you."

Objections Overridden

An unidentified woman shook Papanek's hand as he left the U-shaped Council table. Applause had broken out in the audience earlier when the Security Council overrode strenuous Russian and Ukrainian objections to give Papanek a chance to speak.

Cadogan's denunciation of Soviet expansionism was the strongest big-power attack thus far in the Council on the Communist movement in Europe.

"Ridiculous," Says Gromyko

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate, never moved throughout the long speeches by Cadogan and Papanek, whom Gromyko calls a traitor to the Czechoslovak people. Gromyko and Papanek sat side by side at the table but avoided looking at each other.

Gromyko said outside the chamber that the British delegate had made the "same ridiculous assertions" which Hernan Santa Cruz, Chilean delegate, put forward last week in bringing the Czechoslovak case officially before the Security Council.

Pressure From Stalin Charged

Papanek told the Security Council that direct pressure from Prime Minister Stalin himself forced Czechoslovakia to reverse the decision to participate in the Marshall plan conference in Paris.

"I reject any suggestion that President Benes is a free man," Papanek said. He contended the President would have resigned if he were free.

Papanek said persons now in Germany and en route to London were ready to give the Security Council direct evidence that Russia carried out the grab in Prague.

"Country after country on the confines of the Soviet Union has succumbed to the rule of a ruthless Communist minority," Cadogan said. "The events proved that these parties took their orders from Moscow. The circumstances and the techniques are always the same.

"What happened . . . in Czechoslovakia had happened before in Romania, Bulgaria, Albania, Hungary and Poland. In a number of these countries Russian troops had been in occupation while the Communist minority seized and built up power."

Cadogan said that since the inauguration of the Marshall plan, "Moscow seems to have given orders to increase the pace."

The initial Soviet retort came from Vassily A. Tarasenko, delegate of the Ukraine. He countered with a charge that the Western powers, specifically the United States, had plotted to oust Communist Premier Klement Gottwald from the Prague Government.

MAJOR CLASH LOOMS IN U. N. OVER RED COUP

Security Council Opens Hearing on Czech Rule Overthrow

Lake Success, March 22—(AP)—Another major clash between Russia and the Western Powers loomed today as the Security Council returned to the Czechoslovak question.

The Council session was called this afternoon to begin hearing evidence in support of Chile's demands for an investigation of Russia's role in the February 25 Communist coup.

The first session on the Czechoslovak issue was held last Wednesday. At that time the Council voted 9 to 2, over Soviet objections, to give the question a thorough airing.

Today's clash is expected to develop over Chile's request that the Council hear testimony from Jan Papanek, Czechoslovakia's anti-Communist delegate, who has been fired by the new Prague government. Papanek contends he still is his country's delegate.

Russia's attitude on hearing Papanek was indicated Wednesday when Soviet delegate Andrei A. Gromyko attacked him bitterly as a "traitor." Informed quarters said the United States would vote to hear both Papanek and his successor, Dr. Vladimir Houdek.

It was indicated the necessary seven votes would be obtained to override Soviet objections.

Plan New Effort

Meanwhile, the delegates prepared to resume the Palestine debate Wednesday. During the lull, the Arabs were reported planning a new effort to get U. N. approval for an independent unified government in the Holy Land.

Dispatches from Beirut, Lebanon, yesterday said new instructions were en route to the Arab country representatives following a meeting of the politcal committee of the Arab League.

The Arab League communique did not indicate definitely what the instructions were but said the Arabs were ready "to co-operate in any solution that would result in Palestine becoming one democratic state where peace and order were maintained."

The communique did not commit the Arab countries directly on the United States proposal that Palestine be placed under U. N. trusteeship until a permanent solution could be found. It was understood, however, that the Arabs welcomed the U. S. proposal for a special Palestine session of the General Assembly.

Informed quarters said the U. S. would go ahead with its trusteeship proposal despite promised Jewish resistance.

Cadogan's Speech on Czechs

MAR

From the Herald Tribune Bureau

LAKE SUCCESS, March 22.—Following is the statement made to the United Nations Security Council by Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate, in the debate over Czechoslovakia:

The representative of a member of the United Nations, Chile, has requested, so far as I know in due and proper form, that the Security Council investigate his government's allegation, based on the charges brought by the former permanent representative of Czechoslovakia, while he still occupied that official position, to the effect that the political independence of Czechoslovakia has been violated by the threat of the use of force by another member of the United Nations, the U. S. S. R.

When we discussed the inclusion of this question in the agenda of the Security Council, the representative of the Soviet Union said that these charges are pure invention, pure slander, absolutely unfounded, absolute absurdity.

So we have charge and counter-charge, and it must be the duty of the Council to endeavor to arrive at the truth.

Admits It Isn't Easy

That, in matters of this kind, is of course not easy. Ex hypothesi, a government that wished to interfere in the internal affairs of another state would, having regard to various provisions of the Charter, have to be careful to cover up its tracks. It would not nowadays, in the nature of things, proceed openly.

(Though I would interject here that on past occasions, to which I shall make allusion later before, perhaps, the technique had been fully developed, the Soviet government did not proceed so cautiously).

The Council will be advised to ask for proof in support of the allegations that have been made. I do not pretend that I, so far as I am concerned, possess absolute proof. I do not know—I have no means of knowing—what passed at any interviews which M. Zorin, the Deputy Foreign Minister of the Soviet Union, may have had in Prague during the period of the crisis. I do not know—we are not allowed to know—the details of the interview (of which I have only seen photographs) which took place between President Benes and Prime Minister Gottwald, nor can I know what arguments the latter used to induce the President to accept demands that were notoriously repugnant to him. President Benes could give us these, but since the coup, he does not appear to have had any facilities for publicity.

We cannot, I think, expect to get such direct evidence. But that does not relieve us of the responsibility to form an estimate of the likelihood of the truth of these charges.

"Ruthless Minority"

Bland and bare denials are not, in this case, very convincing. We cannot be blind to what has been happening under our eyes during the past few years. Country after country on the confines of the Soviet Union has succumbed to the rule of a ruthless Communist minority. The events of 1939 to 1941, the succession of violent changes of attitude about the war made by Communist parties in every country in the world, proved that these parties took their orders from Moscow. The circumstances and the technique are always the same. Everyone remembers M. Vishinsky's visit to Bucharest when by means of—to say the least—unorthodox methods he fastened the Groza government of Romania, leading finally to the enforced abdication of King Michael, who had played a notable part in bringing Romania into the war on the side of the Allies.

In other countries we have seen the same process of a highly organized minority seizing power, purging all the elements opposed to it, smothering all democratic rule, suppressing all normal liberties and establishing a police state on a uniform model. What happened this month in Czechoslovakia had happened before in Romania, Bulgaria, Albania, Hungary and Poland. In all these countries, in breach of solemn international pledges made at Yalta that free and democratic institutions would be established, all the parties but the Communist were gradually wiped out. In a number of these countries, Russian troops had been in occupation while the Communist minority seized and built up power. It is all so regular and uniform that one cannot but trace it to the same source.

In Soviet-occupied Bulgaria the Communists also began by taking office in a coalition dominated by the agrarian party. M. Dimitrov and his small but highly organized group (imported from Russia) then elbowed out of legitimate representatives of Bulgarian democracy until they were able to take power openly. Opinion in the United Kingdom was horrified not long thereafter by the judicial murder in Bulgaria of a great resistance leader, the Socialist, Petkov.

Technique in Hungary

In Hungary the Communist technique was not only to install their men in key positions in the state but under the wing of the Red Army to penetrate other parties from within. The Social Democrat party has been brought by intimidation and trickery to fuse with the Communists, in spite of objections by the representatives directly elected by the working class on the party executive. When the Small-Holders party refused to give way the Soviet High Command stepped in to arrest Kovacs, the secretary-general. Hungary is now completely under Communist control, though only last autumn 80 per cent of the electorate voted against Communism.

That is the process that we have seen at work in country after country. And the latest example is the coup d'etat in Czechoslovakia, which bears the regular hallmark. Of course, it might be said that all these events were the outcome of spontaneous movements in the countries in question, whose inhabitants became progressively convinced of the blessings of living under a totalitarian regime administered by a futhless minority. Unfortunately, these upheavals generally seemed to coincide with the visit to the country concerned of a high Sovet functionary from Moscow. This coincidence of itself must rouse our suspicions, though I certainly would not suggest that the Communists maintain their close contact with Moscow through such overt visits alone.

Communist intrigue and penetration, plainly supported from abroad, is always at work underground. In the case of Czechoslovakia we have the statement of the new Minister of Foreign Trade, who is reported in the New York press to have said, "We must thank our Slav allies, and mainly the Soviet Union, for the fact that we succeeded in defeating reaction." I have since ascertained that this version corresponded with the first report issued by the official Czech Press Agency. Later the agency issued a correction deleting this passage.

Pace Is Increased

In the last few months, since the inauguration of the Marshall plan, Moscow seems to have given orders to increase the pace. We hear day by day of the brutal methods used in Greece to force the peasants against their will into the Communist movement, or to drive them from their mountain vilgaes as homeless refugees. The whole world knows that this is a deliberate policy to try to conquer Greece by starving its common people, and by creating such misery and chaos that the fighting spirit of the Greek army will break down.

Yet everybody knows that the Greek people are more united than ever before against this Communist aggression; that there is only a small minority of fanatical extremists, who could not last a month without the help, support and arms which they receive from their northern neighbors. We know of the preparations that are being made to help the Communists to seize power in Italy. The Italian government have seized arms being imported from Yugoslavia to the Italian Communist party in the last few weeks.

The latest coup in Czechoslovakia was handled according to typical Communist technique. It is a matter of public knowledge that Communist parties take their orders from Moscow, and according to the Cominform declaration of October last their activities in certain European countries, of which Czechoslovakia is one, are co-ordinated by the Cominform, of which the Soviet Union is the originator and the moving spirit. The conference of the Communist parties of various countries which met in Poland in September last decided on the creation of an information bureau, the tasks of the bureau being defined as "organizing the exchange of experience among the parties and, if the necessity arises, co-ordinating their activity on the basis of mutual agreement."

What light does this evidence from other countries throw on the events which happened in Czechoslovakia the other day? Everyone is aware that the Czechs were passionate believers in parliamentary democracy. Between the wars, their parliament represented every section of their people; none worked more smoothly; none brought greater prosperity and social progress to every section of the people.

Cites Benes's Return

When President Benes returned to Czechoslovakia he was the symbol of the free democracy from which he drew his power. After his long exile he was rapturously received, and there was every evidence that he had the overwhelming majority of the nation in his support. Under his leadership the free Czech parliament was reestablished; there were free trade unions, a free press, freedom of speech and thought and writing. Masaryk often boasted that there was no iron curtain in Czechoslovakia, and visitors from abroad found that they could meet the whole press, say anything they desired, and be freely reported throughout the country. It may well be that the Communist party was expecting to receive a far smaller vote in the forthcoming general election that it had received in 1945. That, no doubt, was the reason why it was so urgent to carry through the revolutionary change.

For can it be believed that the Czech people would willingly have suppressed these democratic freedoms, to which, ever since their liberation from the Austrian Empire, they had attached such store? Can it be believed that a gallant nation like the Czechs, who made such a magnificent resistance to the Nazis, whose airmen played so great a part in the battle of Britain—can it be believed that such a people would give up their democratic rights unless some threat of overwhelming force had been brought against them?

And can we doubt that, if the Czech people had freely accepted this change, their great national leaders, President Benes and Mr. Masaryk, would not have told the nation why the change had been required; would not have asked them to accept it; would not have played a major part in insuring that the nation as a whole genuinely agreed to what was done. Yet, what action did President Benes and Mr. Masaryk take to keep the nation united in support of the changes that were made? Mr. Masaryk made his last desperate sacrifice: he gave his life to prove to all the world that this change had been forced upon his nation.

President Benes has so far made no declaration to his people or to the world. Meanwhile, the propaganda of the new Czechoslovakian government tries to persuade the people that the Western powers have come out in their true colors as the enemies of Czechoslovakia. Nothing, of course, could be further from the truth, and I am convinced that this crisis has done nothing to lessen the feeling of friendship entertained by the British people for the people of Czechoslovakia. It is, of course, the usual technique of stirring up international hatred which we have seen employed in other countries of eastern Europe and above all in the Soviet Union itself.

We have been told, in the course of an earlier debate, that even if it could be established that there had been a violation of the Charter, there are some violations of the Charter which do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Security Council unless they involve a threat to the maintenance of international peace and security. I beg leave to doubt this. Article 24 confers on the Security Council "primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security," and it goes on to say that "in discharging these duties the Security Council shall act in accordance with the purposes and principles of the United Nations." I find it difficult to believe, therefore, that if a member of the United Nations were found to have violated one of the most important of these principles, the Security Council could find that that was a matter of no concern to it.

But even if I were proved wrong in this point, I should still maintain that in the present case, if violation of the Charter were proved, that might constitute a threat to international peace and security. It would be superfluous for me, and perhaps presumptuous on my part, to attempt to enlarge on this after what was said by the President of the United States in his address to Congress on March 17. There are limits beyond which this tide must not advance, and it must be dammed back. Almost every one in the world must hope fervently that that can be done by peaceful means, but there is an undeniable risk that that hope may not be fulfilled.

In judging this case we must be careful, scrupulous and objective, but above all we must be very careful that we be not too easily fooled.

LONDON, MARCH 22-(AP)-SOCIALISTS FROM 14 NATIONS AGREED TODAY TO MEET IN PARIS APRIL 25 TO LAY PLANS FOR THEIR PART IN BRINGING ABOUT A UNITED STATES OF EUROPE.

A DECLARATION ISSUED AFTER A TWO-DAY INTERNATIONAL MEETING SAID IT IS URGENT THAT STEPS BE TAKEN IN THE MEANTIME TOWARD STRENGTHENING "THE EXISTING COMMON ORGANIZATION" OF THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES.

BRITISH DELEGATE HUGH DALTON SAID THE SOCIALISTS WERE UNANIMOUS, HOWEVER, IN DECIDING TO HOLD ALOOF FROM A CONFERENCE SCHEDULED TO BE HELD AT THE HAGUE IN MAY BY NON-PARTY UNITED EUROPE ORGANIZATIONS IN WHICH WINSTON CHURCHILL IS A LEADING FIGURE.

THE SOCIALIST DECLARATION SAID THE REFUSAL OF RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES TO JOIN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM IS "UNJUSTIFIED AND FULL OF DANGER FOR THE FUTURE." IT SAID "EUROPE'S RESTORATION TO ECONOMIC HEALTH DEPENDS PRIMARILY ON THE COOPERATIVE ACTION OF THE EUROPEAN PEOPLES THEMSELVES" ALTHOUGH "FURTHER SUBSTANTIAL AID FROM AMERICA" IS NEEDED.

"IT IS URGENT", THE DECLARATION SAID, "THAT UNTIL THE UNITED STATES OF EUROPE IS ESTABLISHED THE 16 NATIONS NOW CONCERNED IN THE PROGRAM SHOULD STRENGTHEN THE EXISTING COMMON ORGANIZATION SO THAT A COLLECTIVE POLICY MAY BE PRESENTED TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ON ALL QUESTIONS ARISING OUT OF AMERICAN AID, AND THAT MUTUAL COOPERATION MAY BE RENEWED AND EXTENDED."

THE CONFERENCE, CALLED TO DISCUSS HOW SOCIALISTS MAY HELP TO MAKE THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM WORK, SAID THE PLAN SHOULD BE HELD OPEN TO RUSSIA AND THE REST OF EASTERN EUROPE "ON THE SAME TERMS AS FOR NATIONS ALREADY TAKING PART."

THE CONFERENCE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE SPANISH PEOPLE ARE "PREVENTED FROM COOPERATING IN THE ORGANIZATION OF EUROPEAN UNITY BY THE SURVIVAL OF THE FRANCO REGIME."

THE COORDINATING COMMITTEE, MADE UP OF THE FOUR DEPUTY MILITARY GOVERNORS, IS THE SECOND HIGHEST ALLIED GOVERNING BODY FOR GERMANY. RANKING JUST UNDER THE CONTROL COUNCIL, IT PREPARES THE COUNCIL'S AGENDA, OR PROGRAM OF WORK. Berlin Add xx hdqtrs

THE SOVIET BOYCOTT DID NOT EXTEND TO THE ALLIED KOMMANDANTUR, THE FOUR-POWER GOVERNING BODY FOR THE CITY OF BERLIN. WORKING COMMITTEES WERE HOLDING REGULAR SESSIONS AT KOMMANDANTUR HEADQUARTERS.

THE SOVIET FLAG STILL FLEW TODAY OVER THE CONTROL AUTHORITY BUILDING. RUSSIAN GUARDS WERE ON DUTY. A NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE SOVIET SECRETARIAT TURNED UP AT THEIR OFFICES IN THE BUILDING.

MARSHAL VASSILY D. SOKOLOVSKY, SOVIET MILITARY GOVERNOR FOR GERMANY AND THIS MONTH'S CHAIRMAN OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL, ADJOURNED SATURDAY'S MEETING ABRUPTLY AND LED HIS DELEGATION OUT.

HE SAID HE DID SO BECAUSE U.S., BRITISH AND FRENCH DELEGATIONS WOULD NOT GIVE HIM INFORMATION ON THE RECENT THREE-POWER LONDON CONFERENCE ON WESTERN GERMANY.

WESTERN OFFICIALS CALLED THE MOVE "OBVIOUSLY PLANNED AND STAGED."

SOKOLOVSKY ACCUSED THE WESTERN POWERS OF DISREGARDING CONTROL MACHINERY AND SAID, "THE CONTROL COUNCIL NO LONGER EXISTS AS AN ORGAN OF GOVERNMENT."

A MEETING OF THE COORDINATING COMMITTEE IS SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW. THE RUSSIANS HAVE MADE NO MOVE TOWARD CANCELING IT. THAT COMMITTEE STANDS DIRECTLY UNDER THE CONTROL COUNCIL AND PREPARES THE AGENDA, OR PROGRAM OF WORK, FOR THE COUNCIL.

NUERNBERG, GERMANY, MARCH 22-(AP)-A SIX-MONTHS RECESS IN THE WAR CRIMES TRIAL OF 21 FORMER GERMAN FOREIGN OFFICE OFFICIALS WAS SOUGHT TODAY.

A MOTION TO ADJOURN THE TRIAL WAS PRESENTED BY WARREN E. MAGEE, OF WASHINGTON D.C., DEFENSE COUNSEL FOR ERNST VON WEIZSAECKER, ONE TIME GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO THE VATICAN.

MAR 1948

SPEAKING FOR HIMSELF AND SIX OTHER DEFENSE LAWYERS, MAGEE ASKED TIME TO COMB 50 TONS OF FILES FROM JOACHIM VON RIBBENTROP'S FOREIGN OFFICE. THE DOCUMENTS WERE CAPTURED BY THE ALLIES.

THE MOTION ALLEGED THE AMERICAN PROSECUTION HAD "TORN OUT OF CONTEXT" EVIDENCE FROM THE DOCUMENTS IN AN EFFORT TO SUPPORT WAR CRIMES CHARGES AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS.

JR721AES

Nuernberg, Germany, March 22--(AP)--The defense began its case today in the war crimes trial of Alfried Krupp and 11 other directors of the Krupp armaments empire.

MAR 1948

Otto Krantzbuehler, Krupp's lawyer, told the American court trying the case that many documents needed by the defense are not available.

He said the case is important to the whole world in determining whether an industrial firm is entitled to produce armaments before and during a war in accordance with its nation's laws.

Krantzbuehler added that synchronizing politics with the steel business and even the fate of nations could not be considered peculiar to Germany.

GERMAN (240)
BY RICHARD O'REGAN

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 22-(AP)-AS A NEW BAR TO BLACKMARKETING, UNITED STATES MILITARY SCRIP IN GERMANY WAS CHANGED TODAY. IT WAS THE SECOND REVISION IN THIS CURRENCY, THE ONLY LEGAL TENDER FOR AMERICANS HERE.

GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY, THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, SAID:

"WE REALIZED THAT WITH THE PRESENT UNSETTLED ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN MOST PARTS OF THE WORLD, THERE IS A DESIRE ON THE PART OF MANY INDIVIDUALS NOT ENTITLED TO THE USE OF MILITARY PAYMENT CERTIFICATES (SCRIP) TO OBTAIN THEM ILLEGALLY AND HOARD THEM UNDER THE MISTAKEN IMPRESSION THE UNITED STATES WILL EVENTUALLY REDEEM THEM IN DOLLARS."

THE SCRIP WAS FIRST INTRODUCED FOR USE BY AMERICANS IN GERMANY EARLY IN 1946. ITS USE WAS DECIDED UPON AFTER A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS REPORTEDLY MADE FORTUNES BY CONVERTING GERMAN MARKS INTO DOLLARS.

AFTER THOUSANDS OF GERMANS LAID THEIR HANDS ON THE NEW SCRIP, IT WAS FIRST CHANGED ON MARCH 10, 1947.

"IF OUR CURRENCY WERE ALLOWED TO AFFECT THE ECONOMY OF ANY EUROPEAN COUNTRY IT WOULD BE DEFEATING THE ULTIMATE OBJECT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE -- THAT IS, THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A STABLE FINANCIAL STRUCTURE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD BASED ON THE FINANCIAL INTEGRITY OF EACH COUNTRY," CLAY SAID.

FROM THE FRONTIER BETWEEN THE SOVIET AND AMERICAN ZONES OF GERMANY, MEANWHILE, CAME REPORTS THAT SOVIET GUARDS HAD BEEN POSTED AT INTERVALS OF 100 YARDS ALONG THE BORDER.

THESE REPORTS FOLLOWED RECEIPT OF INFORMATION THAT THE RUSSIANS AND GERMAN COMMUNISTS WERE CONDUCTING A BIG NEW WAVE OF ARRESTS AGAINST NON-COMMUNISTS IN THE SOVIET ZONE. THE STRENGTHENED GUARD, THE REPORTS INDICATED, WAS TO BAR FLIGHT.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MARCH 22-(AP)-PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD SAID TODAY HE FORESEES LITTLE OPPOSITION TO THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT PROGRAM IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

MAR 1948
VQQQ

HE SAID ELECTIONS TO BE HELD "IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS" OF THE LAW WILL "CONFIRM THE VICTORY OF THE PEOPLE AND THE DEFEAT OF REACTION."
THE PREMIER'S STATEMENT WAS GIVEN IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS SUBMITTED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS MARCH 9. THE REPLY WAS DELAYED BY THE DEATH OF FOREIGN MINISTER JAN MASARYK. IT IS GOTTWALD'S PRACTICE TO GIVE WRITTEN ANSWERS TO WRITTEN QUESTIONS. HE BANS PERSONAL INTERVIEWS.
THE PREMIER FORESHORTENED SEVERAL ORIGINAL QUESTIONS AND LUMPED SEVERAL QUESTIONS IN ONE ANSWER. FOLLOWING ARE THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS AS RELEASED BY THE PREMIER'S OFFICE:
Q. WHEN WILL THERE BE ELECTIONS TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AND WHAT SIGNIFICANCE WILL THEY HAVE?
A. ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD IN TIME AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS STATED BY THE LAW. THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT IT WILL HAVE GREAT SIGNIFICANCE. ELECTIONS HAVE TO SAY THE LAST WORD ON THE FEBRUARY EVENTS AND TO CONFIRM THE VICTORY OF THE PEOPLE AND THE DEFEAT OF REACTION.
Q. WHAT DOES THE COMMUNIST PARTY EXPECT FROM THE ELECTIONS?
A. THE CZECH COMMUNIST PARTY LOOKS FORWARD TO ELECTIONS TRUSTFULLY AND WITH SELF-CONFIDENCE. THE TREMENDOUS INCREASE IN ITS ORGANIZATION SHOWS THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE UNDERSTANDS ITS LEADING ROLE IN MOBILIZING THE NATION AGAINST THE INTRIGUES OF DISSENTERS FOR THE SOLUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT CRISIS. SURELY THE PEOPLE WILL VALUE THE MERITS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE ELECTIONS, TOO.
A97 MAR 1948
Q. DO YOU EXPECT THERE WILL BE STRONG OPPOSITION TO YOUR PROGRAM? FROM WHAT CIRCLES IS THE GREATEST OPPOSITION TO BE EXPECTED?
A. ALL THOSE WHO EXPECT STRONG OPPOSITION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT HERE WILL BE DISAPPOINTED. THERE CANNOT BE STRONG OPPOSITION BECAUSE THE OPPOSITION ELEMENTS HAVE NOT ANY HOPE OF GAINING THE SYMPATHIES OF THE PEOPLE. OUR PEOPLE WELL FEEL THAT THE AIMS OF THE OPPOSITION ELEMENTS ARE AGAINST THE PEOPLE ITSELF, WHILE THE GOVERNMENT PROGRAM IS FOR ITS BENEFIT. THE HONEST WORK OF THE GOVERNMENT WILL CONVINCE, ALSO, THOSE GROUPS OF THE NATION WHICH DO NOT YET HAVE ENOUGH TRUST IN IT THAT THEY WERE WRONG. WE MUST, HOWEVER, COUNT ON CERTAIN OPPOSITION--5-!-CONSTRU

TRUST IN IT THAT THEY WERE WRONG. WE MUST, HOWEVER, COUNT ON CERTAIN OPPOSITION--NON-CONSTRUCTIVE AND INTRIGUING. THAT OPPOSITION WILL BE RECRUITED FROM THOSE PEOPLE WHO WERE JUSTY CONVICTED BY OUR LAW--BY FORMER BIG CAPITALISTS, LANDLORDS, PERSONS WHO ARE COMPROMISED BY COLLABORATION WITH THE GERMANS, ETC. IT IS MORE THAN PROBABLE THAT A FEW STILL TRY TO SPOIL THE SUCCESS OF OUR WORK, BUT OUR PEOPLE, TAUGHT BY EVENTS OF THE PAST, WILL BE WATCHFUL.
Q. HOW STRONG DO YOU BELIEVE STUDENT OPPOSITION IS?
A. "STUDENT OPPOSITION" IS STRONG ONLY IN THE EYES OF OUR NATION'S ENEMIES. THE NUMBER OF STUDENTS WHO WERE AFFECTED IS COMPARATIVELY FEW. WE THINK THAT THE REMAINDER OF THE STUDENTS, SEDUCED BY OPPOSITION SLOGANS, WILL IN TIME RECOGNIZE THAT THEIR STANDPOINT WAS FALSE. BESIDES, THE FEBRUARY EVENTS SHOWED MOST OF THE STUDENTS THEY WERE LED AND SEDUCED BY IRRESPONSIBLE ADVENTURERS.
Q. YOU HAVE STATED THAT IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA THERE WILL BE NO KOLKHOZES (COLLECTIVE FARMS). HOW WILL THE LEVEL OF PRODUCTION BE MAINTAINED OR INCREASED WITH SMALLER AGRICULTURAL UNITS?

A98

A. WHEN DEFINITELY ARRANGING OWNERSHIP OF LAND, OUR PRINCIPAL IDEA IS THAT THE LAND SHOULD BELONG TO THOSE WHO WORK ON IT. WITH THAT IDEA IS CONNECTED THE PRINCIPLE--AND IT WILL BE EMBODIED IN THE NEW CONSTITUTION--THAT THE HIGHEST LIMIT OF LAND OWNERSHIP OF 50 HECTAARES (123.552 ACRES.)

I DON'T THINK THAT THESE PRINCIPLES, IF CARRIED OUT, WILL RESULT IN LOWERING OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION. ON THE CONTRARY, THE NEW AND JUST ARRANGEMENT OF LAND OWNERSHIP TOGETHER WITH UNIFICATION OF LAND AND MECHANIZATION OF AGRICULTURE WILL LEAD TO AN INCREASE OF PRODUCTION.

IN THE FIVE YEAR PLAN, WHICH IS TO BEGIN IN 1949, WE PLAN TO ORGANIZE A BROAD NETWORK OF TRUCK STATIONS AND MACHINE SOCIETIES, ELECTRIFY THE WHOLE COUNTRY AND BETTER ASSURE THE DISTRIBUTION OF SEED AND FERTILIZER. WE EXPECT THESE MEASURES WILL NOT ONLY HELP SUPPLY LAND WORKERS BUT ALSO WILL INCREASE AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION BY SOME 20 PERCENT.

Q. IN VIEW OF THEFACT THAT COMPARATIVELY FEW CZ MAR 1948

Q. IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT COMPARATIVELY FEW CZECHOSLOVAKS UNDERSTAND ENGLISH, WHY SHOULD THE IMPORT OF ENGLISH PUBLICATIONS BE BARRED FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA? DO YOU THINK THEY WILL STIR UP RESISTANCE?

A. WE BARRED TEMPORARILY THE IMPORT OF THOSE PUBLICATIONS WHICH RECENTLY BROUGHT AND STILL ARE BRINGING THE MOST INDECENT AND INSULTING FICTIONS ABOUT CZECHOSLOVAKIA. WE DO NOT DO THAT BECAUSE WE ARE AFRAID OF THE INFLUENCE OF THAT PRESS, BECAUSE THAT WOULD MEAN IN FACT WE WERE PUTTING TOO HIGH AN ESTIMATE ON ITS VALUE, BUT JUST FOR RESPECT OF THE MORALS OF DECENT PEOPLE. WE DEEM IT AMORAL TO SUPPORT AND TO SPREAD UNTRUTHS, ESPECIALLY IF THEY ARE AIMED AGAINST OUR NATION.

SOME OF THE LAND WILL BE TAKEN FROM THE CHURCH UNDER THE MEASURE. IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT THE CHURCH WILL BE COMPENSATED.

SECOND LEAD TRIESTE

BY OSGOOD CARUTHERS

BELGRADE, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT PROTESTED "VIGOROUSLY" TO THE WESTERN POWERS TODAY AGAINST THE WAY THEY PROPOSED THE RESTORATION OF TRIESTE TO ITALY--BUT YUGOSLAVIA DID NOT REJECT THE PROPOSAL ITSELF.

PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT COMPLAINED THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAD TAKEN NO NOTE "OF THE NEED OF AGREEMENT ON THE PART OF THE MOST DIRECTLY AFFECTED ALLIED STATE--YUGOSLAVIA."

IT SAID THE WESTERN POWERS' APPROACH WILL NOT STRENGTHEN THE CAUSE OF PEACE IN SOUTHERN EUROPE.

A NOTE DELIVERED TO AMBASSADORS OF THE THREE COUNTRIES SAID:

"THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS THAT SUBMITTING SUCH A PROPOSAL AT THE TIME OF THE PRE-ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN IN ITALY CAN SERVE ONLY THE FOMENTING OF CHAUVINIST HATREDS TOWARD THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE AND, ON THE OTHER HAND, TOWARD THE SHARPENING OF INTERNAL POLITICAL RELATIONS IN ITALY XXX.

A120

"NEITHER IS IT IN THE INTERESTS EITHER OF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE ITSELF OR OF THE STRENGHTENING OF PEACE IN THIS PART OF EUROPE.

"THIS WAY OF ACTING LENDS REASON TO THE THOUGHT THAT THE AIM OF THIS PROPOSAL IS NOT SEEKING A BETTER SOLUTION OF THE TRIESTE QUESTION AND A NORMALIZATION OF RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PEOPLES OF SOUTHERN EUROPE, BUT HAS A PROPAGANDA CHARACTER AND DOES NOT CONTRIBUTE TO THE STRENGTHENING OF PEACE IN THE WORLD."

THE MOST IMPORTANT FEATURE OF THE NOTES TO THE WESTERN STATES IS THAT THE YUGOSLAVS DO NOT TURN THUMBS DOWN ON THE PLAN TO GIVE ITALY THE 400-SQUARE-MILE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE. IT IS BELIEVED THE NOTE LEAVES AN OPENING FOR ANY ACTION, EITHER POSITIVE OR NEGATIVE, THAT TITO'S GOVERNMENT DECIDES UPON.

(DIPLOMATS IN ITALY SAID THEY BELIEVED THAT SOVIET RUSSIA HAD PLANNED TO PROPOSE SOMETHING SIMILAR ON TRIESTE, AND THAT THE WESTERN POWERS HAD BEATEN MOSCOW TO THE PUNCH).

THE YUGOSLAV FOREIGN MINISTRY CALLED A CNEWS CONFERENCE TO MAKE PUBLIC THE NOTES.

UNDER THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY, THE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE WAS TO BE SET UP UNDER A GOVERNOR APPOINTED BY THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL. THAT BODY NEVER HAS BEEN ABLE TO AGREE ON A GOVERNOR. AMERICAN AND BRITISH TROOPS OCCUPY THE NORTHERN SECTOR, INCLUDING THE CITY OR TRIESTE, WHILE YUGOSLAV TROOPS OCCUPY THE REMAINDER. THE WESTERN POWERS MADE THEIR PROPOSAL TO SOVIET RUSSIA SATURDAY.

YUGOSLAVIA'S NOTE SAID THE WESTERN POWERS HAD "SYSTEMATICALLY HINDERED" AGREEMENT ON A GOVERNOR, AND THAT ACTIONS BY THE AMERICAN-BRITISH MILITARY ADMINISTRATION HAD "POISONED RELATIONS BETWEEN YUGOSLAVIA AND ITALY."

THIS ADMINISTRATION, IT CONTENDED, "BY INTRODUCING UNLIMITED MILITARY-TOTALITARIAN AUTHORITY WITHOUT ANY COLLABORATION WITH THE PEOPLE, DEPRIVED THE TRIESTE POPULATION OF ALL BASIC DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS AND ALL LIBERTIES."

MAR 1948

IT ADDED:

"THE AMERICAN-BRITISH ZONE XXX IS THE ONLY AREA IN LIBERATED EUROPE WHERE, TO THIS VERY DAY, NO ELECTION FOR SELF-GOVERNING BODIES HAS BEEN CARRIED OUT."

THE NEW PROPOSAL, YUGOSLAVIA SAID, DISREGARDS THE DEMOCRATIC WILL OF RESIDENTS IN THE FREE TERRITORY. IT SAID THE WESTERN POWERS HAD CHAMPIONED THE PEACE TREATY SOLUTION THEY NOW SEEK TO CHANGE.

ORDINARILY OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUES AND INFORMATION ARE GIVEN OUT BY A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN THE OFFICE OF THE PRESS DIRECTOR. CALLING OF THE CONFERENCE AT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY INDICATED IT WAS CONSIDERED OF GREAT IMPORTANCE.

EARLIER TODAY A BELGRADE NEWSPAPER SAID THE WESTERN POWERS' TRIESTE PROPOSAL IS AN EFFORT "TO STICK A KNIFE IN THE BACK OF THE YUGOSLAV AND THE ITALIAN PEOPLE."

THE NEWSPAPER POLITIKA, WHICH SAYS IT IS INDEPENDENT, VOICED WHAT APPARENTLY WILL BE THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV STAND ON THE QUESTION WITH THE STATEMENT THAT YUGOSLAVS "REALIZE ALL THE INTENTIONS AND INHUMANITY OF THIS SHAMELESS PROVOCATION."

"OUR PEOPLES," POLITIKA SAID, "WITHOUT RESERVATION, WITH DISGUST AND WITHOUT HESITATION REFUSE, AS THIS IGNORES OUR EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS TO DECIDE ABOUT OUR NATIONAL INTERESTS BEFORE ANYONE ELSE.

30.24- 16449

"THE SWORN ENEMIES OF OUR FREEDOM, OF OUR DEVELOPMENT, OUR PROGRESS AND OUR RIGHTS, AND AT THE SAME TIME THE ENEMIES OF THE LIVING INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLES OF ITALY ARE ATTEMPTING TREACHEROUSLY TO STICK A KNIFE IN THE BACK OF THE YUGOSLAV AND THE ITALIAN PEOPLE."

(YUGOSLAVIA OCCUPIES THE SOUTHERN HALF OF THE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE, BRITISH AND AMERICAN TROOPS THE NORTHERN HALF.)

BORBA, THE COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN, PRINTED A BITTER ATTACK ON FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, WHO FIRST ANNOUNCED THE TRIESTE PROPOSAL IN TURIN SATURDAY. BORBA CALLED HIM A "SERVILE FOLLOWER" OF SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL.

"THROUGH BIDAULT," IT SAID, "THE IMPERIALISTS OF WALL STREET HAVE, WITH THE MANEUVERS AROUND TRIESTE, MOVED TO SPEED CHAUVINISTIC HATE AND TO MAKE ONE MORE ATTACK ON THE UNITY OF THE ITALIAN PEOPLE IN THE DEMOCRATIC FRONT."

"THE AMERICAN EXPANSIONISTS HOPE IN THIS WAY TO GET CHEAPLY BOTH ITALY AND TRIESTE."

TOKYO,MARCH 22-(AP)-THE U.S. NAVY ANNOUNCED TODAY 174,000 TONS OF STEEL AND OTHER METALS HAVE BEEN SALVAGED FROM THE SCRAPPED JAPANESE FLEET.

JAPAN HAD 750,000 DISPLACEMENT TONS OF WARCRAFT AFLOAT AT WAR'S END; 600,000 TONS ALREADY HAVE BEEN DESTROYED.

ONLY MAJOR VESSEL STILL AFLOAT IS THE ESCORT CARRIER KUMANO MARU. SOON IT, TOO, WILL BE SCRAPPED.

VICE ADM.ROBERT M.GRIFFIN, COMMANDING U.S. NAVAL FORCES IN THE FAR EAST, SAID THE DESTRUCTION OF JAPANESE SUBMARINES IS COMPLETED. THE BOX SCORE: DEMOLISHED AND SUNK AT SEA, 104; SCRAPPED, 31; ON SCRAPPING LIST, 9.

REMAINING DESTROYERS, DISPLACING 50,000 TONS, WILL BE SCRAPPED SHORTLY.

JERUSALEM, MARCH 22-(AP)-A HAGANAH SOURCE SAID TODAY THAT 20 ARABS AND FOUR JEWS WERE KILLED LAST NIGHT DURING AN ARAB ATTACK ON THE JEWISH SETTLEMENT OF NIZANIM IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION SINCE ALL TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION WITH SOUTHERN PALESTINE HAS BEEN CUT.

30.24- 16453

POLICE HAD UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT 16 JEWS AND 10 ARABS WERE KILLED IN SKIRMISHES IN THE SAME AREA.

THEIR REPORT SAID THE 16 JEWS WERE KILLED WHEN TWO ARMORED CARS HIT A MINE ON KHASSA-ISDUD ROAD BETWEEN JAFFA AND GAZA AND THE OCCUPANTS WERE ATTACKED BY AN ARAB BAND.

SIX ARABS WERE KILLED WHEN THE JEWS TRIED TO FIGHT THEIR WAY OUT, THIS REPORT SAID. IT ADDED THAT TWO MORE ARABS WERE KILLED WHEN A HAGANAH RELIEF PARTY REACHED THE SCENE.

THE POLICE REPORT SAID HAGANAH ALSO ATTACKED AN ARAB PARTY MOTORING ALONG THE JAFFA-GAZA ROAD, KILLING TWO AND WOUNDING THREE.

A HAGANAH SOURCE SAID ARABS HAD ENCIRCLED THE JEWISH VILLAGE OF HARTUV, FLANKING THE JERUSALEM-LYDDA RAILWAY, AND ATTACKED THE SETTLEMENT OF NEEVE YAACOB, ABOUT SIX MILES NORTH OF JERUSALEM. TWO JEWS AND SEVEN ARABS WERE REPORTED WOUNDED THERE.

SHOOTING AND EXPLOSIONS WERE HEARD IN SOUTHERN AND EASTERN JERUSALEM THIS MORNING. POLICE SAID A MORTAR SHELL GRAZED THE BELGIUM CONSULATE. NO CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED.

A HAGANAH GUARD WARNED JACK R. KEAGAN, GENERAL MANAGER OF TRANS WORLD AIRLINE INC., TO LEAVE A JERUSALEM CAFE TODAY WHEN TWO SUSPECTED MEMBERS OF THE STERN GANG (JEWISH EXTREMISTS) WERE SEEN APPROACHING HIM.

KEAGAN, A RESIDENT OF NEW YORK CITY, HAD RECEIVED TWO TELEPHONED WARNINGS PREVIOUSLY FROM STERNISTS.

AZZAM PASHA SAID THE STRUGGLE WILL CONTINUE IN BOTH "EAST AND WEST" OF THE ARAB SPHERE. HE DID NOT SPECIFY THE EXACT AREA. THE LEAGUE HAS BEEN ADVOCATING INDEPENDENCE FOR NORTHWEST AFRICAN COUNTRIES UNDER FRENCH AND SPANISH RULE AND THE FORMER ITALIAN COLONY OF LIBYA. IT ALSO HAS DEMANDED THE END OF FOREIGN INFLUENCE IN THE SEVEN ARAB LEAGUE STATES.

THE SECRETARY GENERAL SAID THE LEAGUE HAD ENJOYED ITS GREATEST VICTORY IN THE ABANDONMENT OF THE PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN BY "ITS STRONGEST SUPPORTER"--THE UNITED STATES.

"THE PARTITION PLAN WAS DESTROYED AFTER THE WHOLE WORLD WAS CONVINCED THAT THE PALESTINE ARABS AND THE ENTIRE ARAB WORLD WILL NOT GIVE UP THEIR RIGHTS WITHOUT SHEDDING BLOOD FOR THEM," THE STATEMENT SAID.

"WITH THE SAME SPIRIT OF DETERMINATION, UNITY, UNSELFISHNESS AND SACRIFICE, WE START A NEW YEAR OF THE LEAGUE'S LIFE WITH THE STRUGGLE NOT ONLY IN PALESTINE BUT IN THE WHOLE ARAB EAST AND WEST UNTIL EQUALITY AMONG PEOPLES IS RESTORED, UNTIL THE WEAK HAVE THE SAME RIGHTS AS THE STRONG, UNTIL THE DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES PREVAIL AND UNTIL THE SPIRIT OF IMPERIALISM, EXPLOITATION AND CONTROL BY FORCE DISAPPEAR."

AZZAM PASHA SAID "THE WAVE OF ARAB FREEDOM CANNOT BE STOPPED."

BATAVIA, JAVA, MARCH 22-(AP)-THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC HAS STATED ITS VIEWS ON POLITICAL PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA AND THE FUTURE NETHERLANDS-INDONESIAN UNION, THE UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED TODAY.

THE REPUBLIC'S VIEWS WERE OUTLINED IN A WORKING PAPER SENT TO THE STEERING COMMITTEE OF A JOINT NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT-REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE SET UP UNDER AUSPICES OF THE U.N.COMMITTEE. A DUTCH WORKING PAPER ON THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA, PREVIOUSLY RECEIVED, WAS DISCUSSED BY THE STEERING COMMITTEE TODAY AND REFERRED TO THE ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL COMMITTEE.

THE U.N. BODY HAS REFERRED TO THE STEERING COMMITTEE A PROTEST OF ITS PUBLIC RELATIONS POLICIES FROM THE BATAVIAN FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS COMMITTEE. THE PROTEST WAS TRANSMITTED THROUGH TRYGVE LIE, U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL.

NEITHER THE DUTCH NOR INDONESIAN DELEGATIONS SAW ANY REASON TO ALTER THE PROCEDURE OF THE SECRETARIAT HERE IN DEALING WITH THE PRESS, BUT ADDED THEY ARE "FULLY PREPARED TO ASSIST THE SECRETARIAT IN INCREASING BOTH THE VOLUME AND NUMBER OF ITS PRESS RELEASES."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 22-(AP)-THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CLEARED THE DECKS TODAY FOR IMMEDIATE DEBATE ON THE QUESTION OF BUILDING A $6,205,-000,000(B) WALL AGAINST COMMUNISM IN EUROPE AND THE FAR EAST.

WARNED THAT THE POSSIBILITY OF WORLD WAR III "IS NOT VERY REMOTE," THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE CALLED FOR 15 HOURS OF GENERAL DEBATE TO START SHORTLY AFTER NOON TOMORROW.

AMENDMENTS TO THE FAR-RANGING MEASURE--WHICH ADDS MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID TO GREECE, TURKEY AND CHINA TO THE $5,300,000,000 (B) EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM--WILL BE TAKEN UP NEXT WEEK.

EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM--WILL BE TAKEN UP NEXT WEEK.

HOUSE LEADERS PREDICTED FINAL ACTION SHORTLY AFTER APRIL 1, WITH PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR EARLY AGREEMENT WITH THE SENATE ON DIFFERING FOREIGN AID PROVISIONS.

THE WAR WARNING WAS GIVEN BY CHAIRMAN EATON (R-NJ) OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE. HE TOLD THE RULES BODY THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE ON THE MARCH AGAINST THE WEST. AND HE ADDED:

"THEY WON'T STOP UNTIL THEY COME UP AGAINST AN ECONOMIC FORCE--MILITARY, IF NECESSARY--THAT WILL STOP THEM."

ACTION TO PROVIDE SUCH A FORCE--MILITARY AS WELL AS ECONOMIC--CAME QUICKLY ON TWO OTHER CONGRESSIONAL FRONTS:

1--THE HOUSE PASSED A BILL PROVIDING A $55,000,000 (M) ADVANCE TO FRANCE, ITALY AND AUSTRIA TO TIDE THEM OVER UNTIL THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM CAN GET GOING. THE MEASURE NOW GOES TO THE SENATE.

2--THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED $463,000, 00 (M) FOR CHINA--$100,000,000 (M) OF IT TO BE USED FOR WEAPONS OR OTHER MILITARY PURPOSES AT THE OPTION OF CHINA'S ANTI-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

ALL THIS TIED IN WITH THE $6,205,000,000 (B) HOUSE BILL, WHICH INCLUDES:

$60,000,000(M) FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN'S FUND.

A131WX

IN FORMALLY RECOMMENDING THIS OMNIBUS BILL TODAY, THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SAID "THE VERY SURVIVAL OF THE UNITED STATES" DEPENDS ON THE SUCCESS OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM AND THE BLOCKING OF COMMUNIST EXPANSION.

BECAUSE OF RUSSIA'S "SYSTEMATIC EFFORTS" TO UNDERMINE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS, THE COMMITTEE SAID, MILITARY AS WELL AS ECONOMIC HELP IS NEEDED IN SOME OF THE COUNTRIES INVOLVED.

REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) SAID THE BILL WOULD BOLSTER COUNTRIES WHICH ARE MAINTAINING 104 ARMY DIVISIONS FOR POSSIBLE DEFENSE AGAINST 199 DIVISIONS MAINTAINED BY RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES.

A RULES COMMITTEE MEMBER, REP.BROWN (R-OHIO) ASKED WHAT HELP COULD BE EXPECTED FROM TURKEY, SWEDEN AND OTHER COUNTRIES WHICH COME UNDER THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM ALTHOUGH THEY WERE NEUTRAL IN WORLD WAR 88.

VORYS, A FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEMBER, SAID TURKEY "WOULD FIGHT TO THE LAST MAN AGAINST COMMUNISM." SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES ARE WEIGHING JOINT DEFENSE ACTION, VORYS ADDED, AND SWITZERLAND IS CONSIDERING A CHANGE IN HER HISTORIC NEUTRALITY POLICY.

THE SENATE ALREADY HAS PASSED A $5,300,000,000(B) ERP BILL. ITS FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAS APPROVED THE $275,000,000 ASKED BY THE ADMINISTRATION FOR GREECE AND TURKEY.

TODAY'S RECOMMENDED $463,000,000 FOR CHINA WOULD COVER ONE YEAR OF AID. THE ADMINISTRATION ASKED $570,000,000 FOR 15 MONTHS. THE RATE OF SPENDING WOULD BE ABOUT THX

MAR 1948

AID. THE ADMINISTRATION ASKED $570,000,000 FOR 15 MONTHS. THE RATE OF SPENDING WOULD BE ABOUT THE SAME IN EACH CASE.

THE SENATE GROUP DID NOT GO SO FAR AS THE HOUSE COMMITTEE, WHICH RECOMMENDED $150,000,000 AS OUTRIGHT MILITARY AID. BUT CHAIRMAN VANDENBERG (R-MICH) SAID $100,000,000 OF THE SUM OKAYED BY HIS COMMITTEE IS "A GRANT TO CHINA TO BE USED TO SUIT ITS OWN NECESSITIES AND PURPOSES."

COULD IT BE USED FOR MILITARY PURPOSES? THAT IS FOR THE CHINESE TO SAY, VANDENBERG REPLIED. THE REMAINING $363,000,000, HE TOLD A REPORTER, WOULD BE ALLOCATED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S $570,000,000 REQUEST FOR CHINA COVERED NON-MILITARY AID ONLY. AMONG THOSE OBJECTING TO ECONOMIC AID ALONE WERE GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR AND WILLIAM C.BULLITT, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA.

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, SCHEDULED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE TODAY, DID NOT APPEAR BECAUSE OF "THE PRESSURES ON HIS TIME," VANDENBERG SAID.

HE ADDED THAT MARSHALL WILL APPEAR BEFORE THE COMMITTEE WEDNESDAY (10 A.M.) FOR A "GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE FOREIGN POLICY SITUATION."

VANDENBERG SAID HE HOPES TO HAVE THE SENATE ACT ON BOTH THE GREEK-TURKEY BILL AND CHINA AID BEFORE THE HOUSE PASSES ITS $6,205,000,000(B) "PACKAGE" FOREIGN AID MEASURE.

DRAFT-FOREIGN

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, MARCH 22-(AP)-SENATORS CALLED ON THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION TODAY FOR SECRET DATA ON THE COLD WAR WITH COMMUNISM.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) TOLD A REPORTER THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE HOPES TO FIND OUT FROM SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL "IF AND WHERE WE INTEND TO FIGHT."

BOTH CABINET OFFICERS WERE SUMMONED TO A CLOSED DOOR MEETING THIS AFTERNOON. THE SESSION WAS CALLED TO CONSIDER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLEA FOR TEMPORARY REVIVAL OF THE WARTIME DRAFT AND FOR IMMEDIATE ENACTMENT OF UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING.

IT WAS TO BE MARSHALL'S SECOND APPEARANCE OF THE DAY ON CAPITOL HILL. HE WAS INVITED TO SIT IN WITH SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE MEMBERS (10 A.M. EST) DURING THEIR FINAL STUDY OF A BILL TO PROVIDE $570,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID TO CHINA.

JUST BACK FROM A SERIES OF WEST COAST SPEECHES ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S NEW STOP-RUSSIA POLICY, MARSHALL FACED A BUSY SCHEDULE ON TOP OF HIS CONGRESSIONAL ENGAGEMENTS. AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THREE CRITICAL ISSUES HAVE ARISEN.

THEY INVOLVE: (1) A POSSIBLE RUSSIAN CRACKDOWN ON THE WESTERN POWERS IN BERLIN, (2) UNCERTTY OVER WHETHER VIOLENCE MAY FLARE IN TRIESTE AS A RESULT OF THE SURPRISE PROPOSAL TO RETURN THAT STRATEGIC PORT CITY TO ITALY AND (3) THIS COUNTRY'S ABOUT-FACE ON THE EARLIER DECISION TO PARTITION PALESTINE.

AS FOR MARSHALL'S AND FORRESTAL'S DATE WITH THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, BRIDGES SAID HE ISN'T SURE THAT EITHER WILL BE WILLING TO DRAW ANY LINE IN EUROPE BEYOND WHICH FURTHER COMMUNIST ENCROACHMENT MIGHT CALL FOR AMERICAN MILITARY ACTION. BUT THE SENATOR ADDED:

"EVEN IF THEY DON'T WANT TO TELL US THAT, I THINK WE HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW IN MORE DETAIL WHY THEY NEED MORE MEN IN THE ARMED SERVICES AND WHAT THEY INTEND TO DO WITH THEM."

AFTER HEARING THE TWO CABINET MEMBERS, THE ARMED SERVICES GROUP MAY DECIDE WHETHER IT WANTS TO GO AHEAD WITH AN INQUIRY INTO UMT OR SHIFT GEARS FOR A LOOK AT THE DRAFT REVIVAL PROPOSAL.

THE DRAFT PLAN GOT A WEEK-END NUDGET FROM SENATOR TAFT OF OHIO, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE'S REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE.

TAFT SAID IN A SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, SPEECH:

MAR 1948

A10WX

"IF IT CAN BE SHOWN THAT THERE IS NO OTHER WAY IN WHICH TO GET THE MEN NECESSARY FOR THE FORCE DETERMINED TO BE ESSENTIAL FOR DEFENSE, THERE SEEMS NO ESCAPE FROM SETTING UP TEMPORARILY THE SELECTIVE DRAFT MACHINERY."

30.24- 16455

TAFT VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED UMT. SO HIS STATEMENT SEEMED TO ADD U TO ACCEPTANCE OF THE DRAFT AS AN ALTERNATIVE. BUT LIKE MANY OF HIS COLLEAGUES, THE OHIOAN SAID HE WANTS TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THE STATE OF MILITARY DEFENSES.

CHALLENGING MARSHALL'S STATEMENT LAST WEEK THAT THE ARMED SERVICES ARE A "HOLLOW SHELL," TAFT SAID IF THIS TRUE "IT IS THE FINAL INDICTMENT OF AN ADMINISTRATION" WHICH HAD $10,500,000,000 TO SPEND ON DEFENSE THIS YEAR.

ON THE BASIS OF AN ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL OF 91 OF THE 96 SENATORS, THE DRAFT PROPOSAL SEEMED TO HAVE MORE CHANCE OF SENATE PASSAGE THEN UMT.

OF 36 MEMBERS WILLING TO EXPRESS A PUBLIC OPINION, 32, INCLUDING TAFT, SAID THEY WOULD VOTE FOR SOME FORM OF SELECTIVE SERVICE. THREE WERE FLATLY AGAINST IT. THEY INCLUDED SENATORS BUSHFIELD OF SOUTH DAKOTA AND MALONE OF NEVADA, REPUBLICANS, AND SENATOR TAYLOR OF IDAHO. TAYLOR IS RUNNING WITH HENRY WALLACE ON A THIRD PARTY TICKET.

THERE WERE MORE SENATORS WITH PUBLIC OPINIONS ON UMT.

THIRTY-TWO SAID THEY FAVOR IT IN SOME FORM. BUT 12 WERE AGAINST IT.

THIS LEFT THE BULK OF THE SENATE UNDECIDED ON BOTH OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSALS--A CONDITION THAT INDICATED MILITARY LEADERS WILL HAVE PLENTY OF EXPLAINING TO DO BEFORE THEY GET ACTION ON EITHER.

THERE APPEARS TO BE NO DOUBT THAT PALESTINE, TRIESTE AND BERLIN WILL FIGURE PROMINENTLY IN THIS EXPLAINING.

MARSHALL'S WEEKEND ANNOUNCEMENT TAKING FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE SHIFT IN AMERICAN PALESTINE POLICY FROM PARTITION TO A TEMPORARY UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP UNDERSCORED TWO FACTORS: (A) THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE SECRETARY IS PERSONALLY DIRECTING THIS COUNTRY'S FOREIGN POLICY AND (B) THE CAREFUL WEIGHING AGAINST POSSIBLE MILITARY CONSIDERATIONS NOW BEING GIVEN ALL AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC MOVES.

MARSHALL SAID THE PARTITION PLAN WOULD NOT WORK PEACEABLY NOW AND THAT TO BECOME INVOLVED IN FORCIBLE APPLICATION WOULD NOT SQUARE WITH AMERICAN SECURITY NEEDS.

THAT WAS ANOTHER WAY OF SAYING THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT WANT RUSSIAN TROOPS IN THE HOLY LAND.

OF PERHAPS MORE IMMEDIATE CONCERN, HOWEVER, IS WHAT RUSSIA INTENDS TO DO TO COUNTER THE AMERICAN-BRITISH-FRENCH PROPOSAL TO GIVE TRIESTE BACK TO ITALY.

MAR 1948

A11WX

THIS DIPLOMATIC STROKE CAUGHT THE KREMLIN IN A TIGHT SQUEEZE BETWEEN THE ITALIAN COMMUNISTS, WHO ARE BIDDING FOR POWER IN THE NATIONAL ELECTIONS APRIL 18, AND SATELLITE YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH LONG HAS CLAIMED THE PORT CITY.

THE SITUATION IN BERLIN, TOO, CARRIES THE POSSIBILITY OF AN EARLY SHOWDOWN. MOSCOW FOR MONTHS HAS BEEN COMPLAINING OF WHAT IT CALLS THE ILLUSION OF FOUR-POWER CONTROL OVER BEATEN GERMANY.

HENCE THE SATURDAY WALKOUT OF THE RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVE ON THE FOUR-POWER CONTROL COUNCIL RAISED ANEW THE QUESTION OF HOW LONG THE SOVIETS WILL PERMIT THEIR WARTIME ALLIES TO REMAIN IN THE GERMAN CAPITAL.

WHILE BERLIN'S POSITION DEEP IN THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION ZONE LEAVES THE AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH POSITIONS EXTREMELY PRECARIOUS, THERE IS EVERY INDICATION THAT IT WOULD TAKE MORE THAN A MERE INVITATION TO GET THE AMERICANS TO QUIT THE CITY.

(600) RUSSIAN SHIPMENTS (ROUNDUP)

WASHINGTON,MARCH 22-(AP)-THE GATE WILL BE DOUBLE PADLOCKED AGAINST SHIPMENT TO RUSSIA OF ANY AMERICAN GOODS THAT COULD INCREASE SOVIET MILITARY OR INDUSTRIAL POWER, A COMMERCE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL SAID TODAY.

THE ONLY GAP IN THE FENCE NOW, HE SAID, IS ONE WHICH PERMITS EXIT OF GOODS WHICH ALREADY WERE ON THEIR WAY TO PORT WHEN NEW EXPORT RULES WERE PUT IN EFFECT ON MARCH 1. WHEN THOSE SHIPMENTS ARE CLEARED, HE SAID, THERE WON'T BE ANY MORE.

THE OFFICIAL, WHO WOULD NOT BE QUOTED BY NAME, TALKED TO A REPORTER IN RESPONSE TO QUERIES ABOUT STORIES IN NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS THAT RUSSIA HAS BEEN BUYING HUGE QUANTITIES OF WAR-USEFUL MATERIAL HERE.

THE COMMERCE OFFICIAL SAID THE NEW REGULATIONS TO HALT ANY SUCH FLOW PROBABLY WILL BE COMPLETED THIS WEEK.

HE SAID MACHINERY AND OTHER GOODS BEING LOADED ON THE RUSSIAN SHIP CHUKOKTA AT JERSEY CITY,N.J., TODAY MUST BE MATERIAL THAT WAS IN TRANSIT WHEN THE MARCH 1 RULES WENT ON.

THE SAME WOULD BE TRUE OF ANY OTHER GOODS BEING LOADED ON RUSSIAN SHIPS ELSEWHERE, HE SAID. HE ADDED THAT NO LICENSES HAVE BEEN GRANTED FOR SHIPMENT OF ANY GOODS WHATSOEVER TO RUSSIA SINCE THE MARCH 1 ORDER.

THE OFFICIAL SAID HE HAD NO INFORMATION ON REPORTS OF RUSSIAN SHIPS CRUISING THE U.S. COAST TO PICK UP GOODS WHERE THEY CAN, OR OF TWO SUCH VESSELS TAKING ON CARGO AT GULF PORTS.

THE NEW YORK WORLD-TELEGRAM'S STORY TODAY SAID:

"MUCH IN THE MANNER IN WHICH JAPANESE FREIGHTERS GATHERED EVERY BIT OF AVAILABLE SCRAP BEFORE THE WAR, THE RUSSIAN VESSELS ARE CRUISING FROM PORT TO PORT ALONG THE EASTERN AND SOUTHERN COASTLINES PICKING UP MACHINERY, METALS AND PARTS WHEREVER AVAILABLE."

THE COMMERCE OFFICIAL SAID THE DEPARTMENT'S CONNECTION WITH EXPORTS DOES NOT GO PAST THE LICENSING STAGE--THAT II DOES NOT FOLLOW THROUGH TO CHECK ON WHEN AND WHERE THE LOADING IS DONE.

ALL LOADINGS, HOWEVER, ARE CLEARED BY CUSTOMS BUREAU OFFICERS TO SEE THAT SHIPMENTS DO NOT VIOLATE LICENSE BANS.

MAR 1948

A68WX

THE OFFICIAL SAID THAT RUSSIAN SHIPS HAD BEEN COMING TO AMERICA ABOUT EVERY TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE NEW LICENSE ORDER TO PICK UP "A REGULAR FLOW" OF GOODS FROM THE PRIVATE CONCERNS WITH WHICH THEY DEALT.

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN ASKING WHY THEY HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO GET ANY NEW LICENSES UNDER THE GENERAL CONTROLS ORDER OF MARCH 1.

THIS OFFICIAL WAS SKEPTICAL OF REPORTS THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE LOADING ENGINES AND PARTS FOR BOMBERS AND CARGO PLANES, AMONG OTHER THINGS.

HE SAID DEPARTMENT INFORMATION IS THAT THE RUSSIANS HAVE GOTTEN NO AIRPLANE PARTS OR ENGINES FROM THIS COUNTRY IN SEVERAL MONTHS.

THE NEW YORK JOURNAL-AMERICAN'S COPYRIGHT STORY SAID THE PAPER HAD LEARNED THAT AGENTS FOR AMTORG, THE OFFICIAL RUSSIAN TRADING AGENCY "HAVE BEEN AND STILL ARE, SWARMING OVER THE COUNTRY BUYING NEW AND USED BOMBER ENGINES AND TRANSPORT AND CARGO PLANE COMPONENTS WHICH WERE SCRAPPED AS JUNK BY THE WAR ASSETS ADMINISTRATION AND THE ARMED SERVICES."

THE STORY SAID THE RUSSIAN AGENTS WERE STILL BUYING PLANE PARTS AT DEPOTS IN TEXAS, ARKANSAS, ARIZONA, CALIFORNIA, NEW YORK, AND WASHINGTON,D.C.

AN OFFICIAL OF THE WAA SAID THE DISPOSAL AGENCY'S INFORMATION IS THAT IN THE LAST COUPLE OF YEARS RUSSIANS HAVE BOUGHT "QUITE A LOT" OF PLANE COMPONENTS BUT HAVE "MADE NO SUBSTANTIAL PURCHASES RECENTLY."

PRACTICALLY ALL THEY HAVE GOTTEN FROM WAR SURPLUS STOCKS, HE SAID, HAS BEEN CONDEMNED AS SCRAP. HE CONCEDED THAT SOME OF IT MAY BE STILL USABLE, HOWEVER, BUT DECLARED IT HAD NO MARKET IN THIS COUNTRY.

THE RUSSIAN EXPORTS SITUATION, MEANWHILE, ECHOED IN THE HOUSE WHERE CHAIRMAN WEICHEL (R-OHIO) OF THE MERCHANT MARINE COMMITTEE HAD $282,000 WORTH OF INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY WAS IN THE CARGO BEING LOADED AT JERSEY CITY.

WEICHEL TOLD THE HOUSE IT IS INCONSISTENT FOR THIS COUNTRY TO SUPPLY RUSSIA WITH NEEDED EQUIPMENT WHILE TAKING OTHER ECONOMIC STEPS AGAINST HER.

THE JERSEY CITY LOADING OPERATIONS WERE HELD UP FOR SIX HOURS BY A CATHOLIC WAR VETERANS PICKET LINE. AFL LONGSHOREMEN DECLINED TO CROSS THE LINE BUT PROTESTED THE LOSS OF A DAY'S PAY. THE PICKETS FINALLY WERE PULLED OFF AND LOADING WAS RESUMED.

THOMAS CARLIN, PRESIDENT OF THE HUDSON COUNTY CATHOLIC WAR VETERANS ORGANIZATION, SAID THE DEMONSTRATION WAS "THE LITTLE PEOPLE'S ANSWER TO UNCLE JOE'S STATEMENT THAT THE LITTLE PEOPLE IN AMERICA FAVOR COMMUNISM."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 22-(AP)-ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF LABOR JOHN W. GIBSON SAID TODAY COMMUNISTS ARE USING LABOR UNIONS TO GAIN CONTROL OF FREE EUROPEAN NATIONS.

THIS WAS DONE, HE SAID, IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. AND HE PREDICTED SIMILAR ATTEMPTS IN FRANCE AND ITALY DESPITE PREVIOUS REBUFFS.

"THE COMMUNISTS ARE CONCENTRATING THEIR ATTACKS ON THE LABOR UNIONS," HE TOLD A SENATE APPROPRIATION SUBCOMMITTEE.

"THEY RECOGNIZE THAT ORGANIZED LABOR IS A POWERFUL FORCE IN THE WORLD TODAY. THE TRANSFORMATION OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA FROM A COUNTRY GOVERNED BY FREELY ELECTED OFFICIALS TO A COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED TOTALITARIAN STATE, IS AMPLE EVIDENCE OF THIS.

"COMMUNIST AGITATION IN TRADE UNIONS IS TAKING PLACE IN OTHER PARTS OF EUROPE AS WELL. WE HAVE SEEN HOW THE SERIES OF STRIKES AND ACTS OF SABOTAGE CARRIED ON BY COMMUNIST-LED UNIONS IN FRANCE AND ITALY IN THE FALL OF LAST YEAR RESULTED IN SERIOUS LOSSES IN PRODUCTION.

"FORTUNATELY IN BOTH COUNTRIES THE FORCES OF DEMOCRACY WERE SUFFICIENTLY POWERFUL TO THWART THE ABORTIVE ATTEMPT TO SEIZE POWER.

"BUT THE COMMUNISTS ASSUREDLY WILL NOT CEASE THEIR EFFORTS IN FRANCE AND ITALY. ON THE CONTRARY, BY THEIR STATEMENTS WE HAVE BEEN WARNED THEY WILL INTENSIFY THEIR EFFORTS."

GIBSON APPEARED BEFORE THE COMMITTEE TO URGE IT TO RESTORE NEARLY $4,000,000 (M) WHICH THE HOUSE CUT FROM THE LABOR DEPARTMENT'S BUDGET.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 22-(AP)-CIO SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES CAREY SAID TODAY THAT COMMUNIST LEADERS IN THE ITALIAN AND FRENCH LABOR FEDERATIONS MUST EITHER CHANGE THEIR POLICIES OR GET OUT.

CAREY, JUST BACK FROM TWO MONTHS OF CONFERENCES WITH LABOR LEADERS IN EUROPE, SUMMED IT UP THIS WAY FOR A NEWS CONFERENCE:

FRENCH AND ITALIAN WORKERS WANT U.S. HELP UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN.

COMMUNIST LABOR OFFICIALS, IF THEY FOLLOW THE PARTY LINE, MUST OPPOSE THE MARSHALL PLAN.

AND SOMETHING ALWAYS HAPPENS TO TRADE UNION LEADERS WHO FAIL TO "GIVE EXPRESSION TO THE DESIRES AND ASPIRATIONS OF WORKERS."

CAREY SAID HE FELT THE ENDORSEMENT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN BY A LONDON CONFERENCE REPRESENTING LABOR MOVEMENTS OF WESTERN EUROPE BLASTED MOSCOW PROPAGANDA THAT THE PROGRAM IS SPONSORED "BY THE AGENTS OF REACTION AND SUPPORTERS OF WALL STREET."

CAREY SAID THAT IN MOSCOW HE QUESTIONED VASSILI KUZNETSOV, PRESIDENT OF THE ALL RUSSIAN TRADE UNION CENTRAL COMMITTEE, AS TO WHETHER HE BELIEVED THE SOVIET CHARGES.

KUZNESOV REPLIED THAT HE "DIDN'T BELIEVE THE STUFF AND HE KNEW THOSE CHARGES TO BE UNTRUE," CAREY SAID.

WHILE IN PARIS, CAREY SAID, HE CAME TO DOUBT THAT THERE ARE MORE COMMUNISTS THAN RIGHT WING ELEMENTS IN THE FRENCH CONFEDERATION OF LABOR.

SHREVE SAID ATOMIC SCIENTISTS BELIEVE THE FIRST USE WILL BE IN STATIONARY POWER PLANTS AND SHIP PROPULSION.

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR IOWA STATE COLLEGE'S 90TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY, SHREVE SAID:

"ATOMIC ENERGY RELEASED BY A COMPLETE FISSION OF A POUND OF FISSIONABLE MATERIAL IS EQUIVALENT TO THAT ENERGY RELEASED BY THE BURNING OF FIFTEEN HUNDRED TONS OF COAL. IN TERMS OF DOLLARS AND CENTS, A POUND OF ATOMIC ENERGY WOULD TODAY COST ABOUT $6,000. COAL IN THE AMOUNT TO PRODUCE EQUAL ENERGY WOULD HAVE TO BE PURCHASED AT $4 A TON. A MAJOR ADVANTAGE OF ATOMIC PROPULSION, THEREFORE, WOULD BE THAT OF STORAGE AND REFUELING."

EVENTUALLY, SHREVE SAID, IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE FOR A SHIP USING ATOMIC ENERGY FOR PROPULSION TO TRAVEL 40 TIMES AROUND THE WORLD WITHOUT REFUELING.

SECOND LEAD UNITED NATIONS
BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 22-(AP)-JAN PAPANEK, ANTI-COMMUNIST AND FRIEND OF THE DEAD JAN MASARYK, TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY THAT RUSSIA ENGINEERED THE COMMUNIST GRAB IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

"GOD HELP ME, I SHALL PROVE THIS TO YOU," PAPANEK ASSERTED, HIS VOICE SHAKING WITH EMOTION.

HE SAT AT THE COUNCIL TABLE BESIDE RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO, WHO LAST WEEK CALLED PAPANEK A TRAITOR TO THE PEOPLE OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE COUNCIL VOTED 9 TO 2 TO SEAT PAPANEK DESPITE BITTER OBJECTIONS FROM RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE. SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES WERE REQUIRED. THE VETO DID NOT APPLY.

MAR 194

A197UN

PAPANEK WAS FIRED BY THE NEW PRAGUE REGIME AS CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S DELEGATE TO THE U.N., BUT HE HAS REFUSED TO QUIT.

PAPANEK SAID HE BELIEVED PRESIDENT BENES NOW IS BEING DETAINED BY THE COMMUNISTS.

"I REJECT ANY SUGGESTION THAT BENES IS A FREE MAN," PAPANEK SAID. HE ADDED THAT BENES WOULD HAVE RESIGNED IF HE WERE FREE.

PAPANEK TRACED RUSSIAN-CZECHOSLOVAK RELATIONS BACK TO THE END OF THE WAR IN AN EFFORT TO SHOW THAT RUSSIA HAD EXERTED MORE AND MORE PRESSURE ON THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT.

HE SAID PRESIDENT BENES TOLD HIM RED ARMY SOLDIERS HAD HELD HIM INCOMMUNICADO FOR A TIME. HE DID NOT INDICATE JUST WHEN THIS HAPPENED, HOWEVER.

PAPANEK TOLD THE COUNCIL THAT, IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK ELECTIONS OF MAY, 1946, RUSSIA BEGAN MOVING TROOPS ACROSS THE BORDER TWO DAYS BEFORE THE VOTE. THIS MOVEMENT, HE SAID, WAS HALTED ONLY AFTER BENES AND MASARYK PROTESTED IN THE STRONGEST TERMS.

PAPANEK THEN DECLARED THE SAME SYSTEM WAS USED LAST MONTH.

HE TOLD THE COUNCIL DIRECT PRESSURE FROM PRIME MINISTER STALIN HIMSELF HAD CAUSED CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO REVERSE THE DECISION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE MARSHALL PLAN.

SHORTLY AFTER THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT HAD INDICATED IT WOULD TAKE PART IN THE MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE IN PARIS, PAPANEK SAID, STALIN TOLD PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD THE CABINET MUST REVERSE ITSELF WITHIN A FEW HOURS.

HE SAID THE COMMUNISTS ATTEMPTED A CZECHOSLOVAK COUP IN NOVEMBER, 1947, BUT FAILED. THEN THEY BEGAN PREPARING ANOTHER ATTEMPT, PAPANEK CONTINUED, BY PACKING POLICE POSTS WITH COMMUNISTS.

PAPANEK DECLARED HIGH OFFICIALS WERE FORCED TO DEMONSTRATE AND MARCH UNDER THE SOVIET FLAG. AND LATER, HE SAID, THE COMMUNISTS SEIZED CONTROL OF THE PRESS AND RADIO.

PRESIDENT BENES, HE SAID, PREPARED THREE DIFFERENT SPEECHES WHICH THE COMMUNISTS WOULD NOT PERMIT HIM TO DELIVER.

PAPANEK SAID THE FEB. 22 COUP WAS PLOTTED BY GOTTWALD AND SEVERAL OTHERS WHO SPENT THE WAR IN RUSSIA, WHERE THEY WERE INDOCTRINATED.

PAPANEK WAS ASSAILED BY GROMYKO LAST WEEK AS A "TRAITOR" AFTER PAPANEK CHARGED RUSSIA WITH ENGINEERING THE OVERTURN OF THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT.

ARGENTINE DELEGATE DR. JOSE ARCE, IGNORING RUSSIA'S EARLIER ATTACK ON PAPANEK, URGED THE COUNCIL TO HEAR PAPANEK IN THE INTEREST OF GETTING A FRANK PICTURE OF RECENT CZECHOSLOVAK DEVELOPMENTS.

MAR 194

A189UN

ARCE TOOK THE FLOOR AS PAPANEK WATCHED FROM THE SPECTATORS' SECTION OF THE CROWDED COUNCIL CHAMBER. NEARBY SAT DR. VLADIMIR HOUDEK, NAMED BY THE NEW PRAGUE GOVERNMENT TO SUCCEED PAPANEK AS CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S DELEGATE TO THE U.N.

UKRAINIAN DELEGATE VASSILY TARASENKO SAID HE "OBJECTED DECISIVELY" TO HAVING THE COUNCIL HEAR PAPANEK. HE SAID HE COULD NOT ACCEPT FACTS FROM "A TRAITOR, A MAN WHO WOULD THROW DIRT AT HIS OWN PEOPLE."

GROMYKO ALSO OBJECTED.

THE COUNCIL MOVED QUICKLY AFTER ARGENTINA HAD DEMANDED THAT THE COUNCIL GIVE PAPANEK A CHANCE TO SPEAK UP. HE WAS FIRED BY THE NEW PRAGUE COMMUNIST REGIME AFTER THE DEATH OF JAN MASARYK.

APPLAUSE BROKE OUT IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER AFTER THE VOTE.

PAPANEK WAS INVITED IMMEDIATELY TO TAKE A PLACE AT THE COUNCIL TABLE. HE TOOK A SEAT BESIDE RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO AND BEGAN SPEAKING.

U.N.-PALESTINE

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 22-(AP)-JEWISH AGENCY LEADERS MET IN EMERGENCY SESSION TODAY TO PLAN THEIR FIGHT ON THE NEW UNITED STATES PROPOSAL FOR PALESTINE TRUSTEESHIP.

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID THE ENTIRE PALESTINE SITUATION WAS UNDER REVIEW IN THE LIGHT OF LAST FRIDAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE U.S. WAS DROPPING ITS SUPPORT OF THE PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN.

ONE SOURCE SAID WORD WAS EXPECTED HERE MOMENTARILY THAT AN INDEPENDENT JEWISH NATION HAD BEEN PROCLAIMED IN PALESTINE.

THOSE ATTENDING TODAY'S SESSION IN NEW YORK INCLUDED MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN SECTION OF THE JEWISH AGENCY'S EXECUTIVE. MOSHE SHERTOK, HEAD OF THE AGENCY'S POLITICAL DEPARTMENT, ALSO WAS THERE. THE MEETING WAS A CONTINUATION OF A SUNDAY SESSION WHICH LASTED FROM 8:30 P.M. UNTIL LAST MIDNIGHT.

30.24- 16459

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES HERE AWAITED NEW INSTRUCTIONS BASED ON SECRET DECISIONS TAKEN YESTERDAY AT BEIRUT, LEBANON, BY THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE ARAB LEAGUE.

FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA, A LEADING ARAB COUNTRY SPOKESMAN, SAID HE BELIEVED THE ARABS WOULD ACCEPT THE U.S. PLAN TO PLACE PALESTINE UNDER A TEMPORARY U.N. TRUSTEESHIP PENDING A PERMANENT SETTLEMENT.

EL KHOURY SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE ACCEPTANCE PROBABLY WOULD BE CONDITIONED ON THE FINAL FORM THE TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL WILL TAKE.

THE U.S. ANNOUNCEMENT LEFT MANY QUESTIONS UNANSWERED. THESE INCLUDED:

1. WHO WOULD BE THE ADMINISTERING POWER OR POWERS RESPONSIBLE UNDER THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL?
2. HOW THE COUNCIL WOULD PROVIDE FORCES TO RESTORE AND MAINTAIN ORDER IN PALESTINE?
3. WHAT WOULD BE DONE ABOUT CONTINUING JEWISH IMMIGRATION.

THE FIRST TEST WILL COME WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL BEGINS DEBATE ON THE U.S. PROPOSAL WEDNESDAY. THE AMERICAN PLAN PROVIDES THAT THE COUNCIL CALL A SPECIAL PALESTINE SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND RECOMMEND THAT THE ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE THE TRUSTEESHIP PLAN FOR ITS 1947 PARTITION PLAN.

THESE QUESTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO THE BIG POWER VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY, HOWEVER, MAY BE CALLED BY A VOTE OF 29 OR MORE OF THE U.N.'S 57 MEMBERS. RUSSIA HAS NOT INDICATED WHETHER SHE WILL INVOKE THE VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THE VETO DOES NOT APPLY IN THE ASSEMBLY. SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI A. GROMYKO HAS ANNOUNCED HE STILL FAVORS THE PARTITION PLAN.

IF THE ASSEMBLY DECIDED TO SWITCH TO THE TRUSTEESHIP PLAN, RUSSIA WOULD BE LEFT OUT OF THE PALESTINE ADMINISTRATION UNLESS SHE DECIDED TO SEND A REPRESENTATIVE TO THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL. UNDER THE CHARTER, RUSSIA IS A MEMBER OF THIS COUNCIL, BUT SO FAR SHE HAS BOYCOTTED IT.

IN THE ASSEMBLY, A TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY OF THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING WOULD BE REQUIRED TO ADOPT THE TRUSTEESHIP PLAN.

MAR 1948

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., MARCH 22-(AP)-RELIABLE SOURCES SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED STATES WAS CONSIDERING PRESENTING A DEMAND THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IMMEDIATELY TAKE UP AGAIN ITALY'S REQUEST FOR UN MEMBERSHIP.

AMERICAN SPOKESMAN REFUSED TO DISCUSS THE REPORT. IT WOULD BE EXPECTED THAT SUCH A STEP WOULD BE IN LINE WITH AMERICAN EFFORTS TO SEE THE COMMUNISTS DEFEATED IN THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS NEXT MONTH.

ITALY'S APPLICATION FOR UN MEMBERSHIP WAS VETOED LAST YEAR BY RUSSIA. ANDREI A. GROMYKO VETOED THE REQUEST ON THE GROUND THAT ITALY COULD ONLY BE TAKEN INTO THE UN IN A BLOC WITH THE OTHER EX-ENEMY COUNTRIES. AT THAT TIME THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN OPPOSED MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS FROM ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND HUNGARY.

EVEN IF ITALY SHOULD NOW BE ACCEPTED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL, SHE COULD NOT ACTUALLY ENTER THE UN UNTIL THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING IN PARIS THIS FALL. UNDER UN PROCEDURE, ALL APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECOMMENDED FIRST BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THEN MUST GET A TWO-THIRDS FINAL VOTE IN THE 57-NATION ASSEMBLY.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 22-(AP)-BRITAIN TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY THAT THE RISING TIDE OF COMMUNISM MUST BE HALTED.

SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN, THE BRITISH DELEGATE, SPOKE AFTER THE COUNCIL HEARD JAN PAPANEK, FRIEND OF THE DEAD JAN MASARYK, CHARGE RUSSIA WITH ENGINEERING THE COMMUNIST GRAB IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

"GOD HELP ME, I SHALL PROVE THIS TO YOU," PAPANEK ASSERTED, HIS VOICE SHAKING WITH EMOTION.

CADOGAN FOLLOWED PAPANEK WITH A STRONG DENUNCIATION OF RUSSIA. CADOGAN SAID:

"THERE ARE LIMITS BEYOND WHICH THIS TIDE MUST NOT ADVANCE, AND IT MUST BE DAMMED BACK. ALMOST EVERYONE IN THE WORLD MUST HOPE FERVENTLY THAT THAT CAN BE DONE BY PEACEFUL MEANS, BUT THERE IS AN UNDENIABLE RISK THAT THAT HOPE MAY NOT BE FULFILLED."

PAPANEK DELIVERED HIS ATTACK FROM A SEAT NEXT TO SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI A.GROMYKO WHO LAST WEEK CALLED PAPANEK A TRAITOR TO THE PEOPLE OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE COUNCIL VOTED XXX FOURTH GRAF (A196).

THEY BEGAN MARCHING IN THE U.N. PARKING LOT AN HOUR BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL WAS CALLED TO DEBATE AN INQUIRY INTO RUSSIA'S ROLE IN THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MARCHERS SAID THEY REPRESENTED THE AMERICAN FRIENDS OF SLOVAK FREEDOM (CAPS), WHICH PREVIOUSLY DEMONSTRATED HERE LESS THAN A WEEK AGO. HOWEVER, IN ADDITION TO SIGNS APPEALING FOR U.N. ACTION ON CZECHOSLOVAKIA, OTHER PLACARDS SAID:

"IRELAND WILL ALWAYS BE FREE," "HELP CHINA," "HELP GREECE," AND "HELP ITALY."

WHILE PICKETING, THE GROUP RECEIVED A TELEGRAM FROM PETER P. JURCHAK OF WILKES-BARRE, PA., URGING THAT THE "SLOVAK AND CZECH PROBLEMS BE SETTLED ON A TRULY CHRISTIAN AND DEMOCRATIC BASIS, PREFERABLY BY SETTING UP A UNITED STATES OF CENTRAL EUROPE ON A FEDERATED PLAN."

THE SPOKESMAN DESCRIBED JURCHAK AS A SLOVAK LEADER.

UN-Italy

Lake Success, N.Y., March 22.-(ap)-The United States was understood tonight to be considering presenting a demand that the United Nations Security Council immediately take up again Italy's request for UN membership.

MAR 1948

American spokesmen refused to discuss the report. It would be expected that such a step would be in line with American efforts to see the Communists defeated in the Italian elections next month.

Italy's application for UN membership was vetoed last year by Russia. Andrei A. Gromyko vetoed the request on the ground that Italy could only be taken into the UN in a bloc with the other ex-enemy countries. At that time the United States and Britain opposed membership applications from Roumania, Bulgaria and Hungary.

Even if Italy should now be accepted by the Security Council, she could NOT actually enter the UN until the General Assembly meeting in Paris this fall. Under UN procedure, all applications must be recommended first by the Security Council and then must get a two-third final vote in the 57-nation assembly.

BALBOA, C.Z., MARCH 22-(AP)-TWO AMERICAN SERGEANTS WHO MADE THEIR FIRST TRY AT PILOTING A PLANE BY FLYING A B-17 OVER THE ANDES WERE CONVICTED TODAY BY A COURT MARTIAL BOARD OF MISAPPROPRIATING GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.

THE "PROPERTY" WAS THE B-17 BOMBED WHICH M/SGT.GLEN A.WOOD OF MUNCIE IND., AND S/SGT THEODORE A.HAVENS, JR., OF WASHINGTON, N.J., FLEW IN LATE FEBRUARY FROM THEIR STATION IN THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS. THE ISLANDS ARE OFF THE COAST OF ECUADOR NEAR THE EQUATOR. DWINDLING GAS SUPPLIES FORCED THEM TO END THEIR FLIGHT FEB. 23 NEAR CARACAS, VENEZUELA, AND THEY WERE BROUGHT TO ALBROOK FIELD HERE.

THE SENTENCE WAS NOT ANNOUNCED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE TRIAL TODAY. THE VERDICT IS SUBJECT TO REVIEW BY THE FIELD COMMANDER AND TRIAL JUDGE ADVOCATE HERE AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S DIVISION IN WASHINGTON.

BOTH VETERANS HAD WARTIME FLYING EXPERIENCE, BUT NOT AS PILOTS. WOOD FLEW MANY BOMBING MISSIONS AND WAS SHOT DOWN AND IMPRISONED 10 MONTHS IN GERMANY. HAVENS WAS A TAILGUNNER IN BOMBERS OVER THE PACIFIC.

WOODS SAID HE TOOK THE CONTROLS, DOING JUST WHAT HE HAD SEEN PILOTS DO. THE CARACAS LANDING WAS MADE WITHOUT DAMAGE TO THE BIG PLANE. USED EXCLUSIVELY AS AN AIR-SEA RESCUE SHIP, THE B-17 WAS THE ONLY ONE BASED IN THE GALAPAGOS.

Peace Pact Change Hopes Renewed, Rome Reports

1948 MAR

PHILIP CLARKE

Rome, March 23 (AP)—A Foreign Ministry spokesman said today Italy had flatly rejected Yugoslavia's offer to swap Trieste for the Italian city of Gorizia.

The Western Allies proposed the return of the Free Territory of Trieste to Italy last Saturday. Yugoslavia countered yesterday with an offer to relinquish her claims on Trieste if Italy will give up Gorizia, to the north.

The spokesman said:

"It is clear that Italy cannot accept the separation of a part of Italian flesh bartered for another part of Italian flesh."

Crowds Greet Premier

The Italian answer came only a few hours after great throngs roaring "Viva Trieste" welcomed Premier Alcide de Gasperi and Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza back to Rome.

The spokesman emphasized that the Italian Government had received no official word of the reported proposal regarding Gorizia. He said he was speaking entirely on the basis of press reports.

Asked what other hopes of treaty revision there was in regard to the Italian colonies, the spokesman said:

"On the part of France, the thesis has been confirmed in the most absolute manner that she wishes to give Italy administration of Eritrea, Somaliland and Libya."

Position Of France

France has long been known to favor letting Italy administer these colonies, which the peace treaty virtually stripped from her.

Russia also has stated willingness to have administration of the colonies revert to Italy.

The United States is also believed to go along with France. The British position has not been made clear.

The spokesman stressed the importance of the Trieste development to Italy's hopes for general revision of the peace treaty. He said that before and since Italian ratification of the peace treaty, its eventual revision had been the Italian Government's aim.

"Guarantee Of Peace"

He said he hoped Russia would go along with the Western powers' Trieste proposal.

Revision of the treaty by restoration of Trieste to Italy the spokesman said, could be the "guarantee of peace and that sincere collaboration which Italy desires with neighboring people."

There was pandemonium at the railroad station as Romans greeted de Gasperi and Sforza and bellowed out their satisfaction with the proposal to return Trieste to Italy. De Gasperi and Sforza were in Turin Saturday when French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault first announced the idea.

De Gasperi told the crowd it was too early to make any definite forecast on the future of Trieste, where Italian and Yugoslav border patrols exchanged shots yesterday.

"Tenacious Patience"

"We do not know yet what will come," he said. "We must still wait. We must have tenacious patience. Nothing that happened was improvised, or occurred without effort. And this effort was above party lines."

Sforza also spoke, but the shouting of the crowd virtually drowned out his words.

Growing tension over the Trieste situation flared into violence again last night in Milan, where Communists battled Government sympathizers. Troops and police strove for more than two hours to restore order after Communists charged into a "Viva Trieste" demonstration.

The Communists claim the Western powers' Trieste proposal is a political trick to influence voters to support Government parties in the April 18 election.

Sforza in turn has accused Yugoslavia of violating the peace treaty in trying illegally to annex the portion of Trieste Free Territory now occupied by Yugsolav troops under the treaty.

Cabinet Summoned

Italian Communists contend that negotiations should be conducted on a bilateral plane between Italy and Yugoslavia, rather than through the initiative of the Western powers.

An emergency session of the Cabinet was called, meanwhile, to consider how to deal with a nation-wide printers' strike.

Government sources have charged that the strike is a Leftist maneuver to obstruct the election. Among the strikers are printers who prepare ballots and other electoral forms.

The Communist-directed typographers' union said the strike is for higher wages. The walkout began Sunday midnight. It was announced it would continue indefinitely, forcing 150 daily newspapers to remain closed.

BRITISH INCREASE MILITARY POLICE AT TRIESTE LINE

FRANK BRUTTO

ROME, March 23—(AP) British military police reinforced the border in Trieste free state tonight as a precautionary measure.

A foreign ministry spokesman in Rome said Italy would reject Yugoslavia's second offer to barter her claims to Trieste for Italian Gorizia.

Maj. Gen. Terence S. Airey, chief civil officer of the allied military government in Trieste said fresh detachments had been moved into the border area dividing Trieste territory between Yugoslav and British-American occupation zones "in case there are repetitions of the Sept. 15 incidents."

He referred to the attempt of a Yugoslav detachment to move into the British-American zone in the main part of Trieste when the territory became a free state last year. The detachment was stopped by American soldiers who refused to let them pass.

The border was reinforced after an Italian civil policeman was wounded last night by a Yugoslav patrol which opened fire during a dispute as to where the boundary lay.

Explaining the action in sending up new detachments of guards, Airey said "we are on the alert but I do not expect any attempt."

The foreign ministry spokesman in dealing with Yugoslavia's offer, said: "It is clear that Italy cannot accept the separation of a part of Italian flesh bartered for another part of Italian flesh."

The statement was made shortly after Premier Alcide De Gasperi and Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza received a huge ovation at the railroad station on their return from Turin, where French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault announced on Saturday the proposals of Britain, France and the United States to return all the free state of Trieste to Italy.

The Yugoslav proposal to turn the six-months-old free state back to Italy if Italy would cede Gorizia, a city of 50,000 to the northwest, was made informally at Belgrade yesterday in connection with a Yugoslav protest against the methods of the three western powers. The Yugoslavs protested that the proposal in the midst of the campaign for the Italian elections April 18 would stir up ill-feelings between Italy and Yugoslavia.

The Yugoslav suggestion of a trade on Trieste and Gorizia first was made in November, 1946 when the Italian communist chief, Palmiro Togliatti, paid a visit to Marshal Tito. On that occasion the Christian Democrats of De Gasperi said Yugoslavia was trying to use Trieste to make political capital for Italian communists in the midst of local elections.

The foreign office spokesman said Italy had received no formal Yugoslav offer concerning Trieste but that he was taking note of press dispatches from Belgrade.

British Sending Reinforcements To Trieste

MAR

Trieste, March 23 (AP)—Fresh detachments of British military police have moved into the tense frontier area of Trieste it was announced officially tonight.

Maj. Gen. Terence S. Airey, chief civil officer of the Allied Military Government, made the disclosure.

"I have moved more British military police into the frontier area in case there are repetitions of the September 15 incidents," he said.

The Yugoslavs in September tried to move forces into the American zone of the Trieste Free Territory.

No Attempt Expected

"We are on the alert, but I do not expect any attempt," the general said. "I don't believe the Yugoslavs will be silly enough to spoil their case in Trieste by trying."

Wounded Guard Tells Of Dispute Over Border

MAR

Trieste, March 23 (AP)—An Italian policeman wounded by Yugoslav frontier guards in a scrape last night said today he was shot after two arguments over where the boundary lines lay in the Free Territory.

The guard, Sauro Abbrescia, 23, was the first reported casualty in the tension produced here by the Western powers' proposal to return Trieste to Italy.

Abbrescia said he and Corporal Lucio Auri were walking patrol yesterday well inside the British-American boundary line when they saw two Yugoslav civil policemen on their side of the boundary. An argument started over where the line was.

Train Brings Help

A local train from the Yugoslav zone came through at the time and Abbrescia said he signaled the conductor for help. The train moved on to the nearest police station and started backing up with reinforcements.

After it passed the arguing began again. One of the Yugoslav police, he said, opened fire with a submachine gun.

Abbescia was struck in the right hand and left knee. He said he and Auri returned the fire with their pistols and the Yugoslavs fled.

The scene of the shooting lies in an area where the border is not well defined and there have been many arguments between opposing police and patrols.

FRENCH BASES PACT CHARGED

Moscow Radio Claims U.S. Gets Military Air Rights

1948 MAR

London, Wednesday, March 24 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today a secret treaty had been signed giving the United States new military airbases in French territory and greater facilities at established French domestic and overseas bases.

The broadcaster, quoting the Prague (Czechoslovakia) Socialist newspaper Svobodne Slovo, said the treaty was signed at the end of February. The only signer mentioned by name was George Bidault, French Foreign Minister.

The paper termed the agreement "a flagrant breach of French sovereignty."

Names Tunis And Saigon

Svobodne Slovo said these were the terms of the treaty:

1. The United States gets new bases at Tunis in North Africa, Saigon, Indo-China, and Pondicherry, India.

2. American military aircraft may make use of French bases along the west and north coasts of Africa in Indo-China and at Brest, Bordeaux, Marseille and Toulon, France.

3. "The United States can station one or two representatives of the American military mission at every French airfield."

4. The United States retains military and naval airbases "in Algiers and on Martinique, Guadeloupe and several other islands."

The broadcast said the French Government had sought for a year to have the United States restrict or cancel a French-American wartime treaty covering United States use of French airfields.

It added that the new treaty was "so disadvantageous to France that even some of the present French ministers were at first against it."

9 M. P.s Suggest Britain As Soviet-U. S. Mediator

LONDON, March 23 (AP).—Nine members of Parliament asked in a resolution today that Great Britain act as mediator between Russia and the United States.

The eight moderate Laborites and one Independent deemed this necessary until "the progressive transformation of the United Nations into a world government."

To become an acceptable mediator, the resolution said, Britain should immediately "divest herself of such military entanglements, co-operation or alliances with either the U. S. S. R. or U. S. A. as might tend to hinder or embarrass her mediating function."

Britain has a twenty-year alliance with Russia. She signed last week a fifty-year alliance with France and the Benelux countries. She maintains the Joint Chiefs of Staff with the United States.

Red Envoy Sees No War Soon

LONDON, March 23 (AP).—Georgi Zarubin, Soviet Ambassador to Great Britain, tonight poohpoohed fears of war soon. "There is not likely to be any war for a long time because none of the people of the world wants it," he said in answer to a question at a diplomatic corps reception for Dr. Paul Ruegger, retiring Swiss Ambassador.

Secretary Arthur Creech Jones had reiterated Britain's determination to give up her mandate by May 15 and get out of Palestine by August 1.

The Foreign Office reported earlier that the Cabinet had confirmed these decisions.

No Czech Exile Regime

London, March 23 (AP)—The anti-Communist Czech National Committee in London said today it would be premature to organize a government-in-exile. The Western powers still recognize the Red regime in Prague, it was pointed out.

Gen. Leo Prchala, president of the committee, made the comment in response to reports from Germany that an exiled government was planned.

Britain Asks For Data On Cold-Weather War

London, March 23 (AP)—Britain is asking German prisoners-of-war who have campaigned in extreme cold to volunteer as army advisers on cold weather warfare.

E. Fernyhough, Laborite, asking War Minister Emanuel Shinwell about the plan in the House of Commons today, contended it is "a breach of international law."

Shinwell replied:

"I am not aware that it controvenes international law to ask prisoners-of-war for any technical information they can furnish.

"At any rate, we are doing it."

Palestine Policy Unchanged, Bevin Says

London, March 23 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today that Britain cannot change her Palestine policy because of the latest of "a number of propositions" by the United States regarding the Holy Land.

"The Government has not changed its policy and cannot change its policy because some other state makes a proposition," Bevin told the House of Commons, referring to the recent United States proposal to shelve partition of Palestine.

"That same state has made a number of propositions," he added.

The Foreign Secretary intervened in a debate in which Colonial

Big 3 Meeting Plan Denied By All

BYNAN

Paris, March 23 (AP)—Foreign Minister Georges Bidault's press secretary said today a three-power Foreign Ministers conference was planned in the United States next month, but the statement was later denied officially in Paris, London and Washington.

The United States State Department and spokesmen for the British Foreign Ministry and the French Foreign Ministry issued the denials.

A communiqué of the French Ministry said:

"It is officially denied at the Foreign Affairs Ministry that a trip by M. Bidault to Washington is planned for the moment."

May Convene Later

The phrase "for the moment" indicates the trip was in the making, but that the first announcement of such a session of Bidault, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Secretary Marshall had been premature.

The State Department said the United States hopes for the closest consulation with Britain and France on all matters of mutual interest, but "there is no plan now" for such a meeting.

DENY 3-POWER TALK IS PLANNED IN U. S.

Washington, March 23 (A. P.).—The State Department said today that the United States hopes for "the closest consultation" with Britain and France on all matters on mutual interest, but there is no plan now for a meeting of their Foreign Ministers.

The department's statement was in comment on Paris reports that the French Foreign Minister George Bidault would visit Washington next month to confer here with Secretary of State Marshall and the British Foreign Secretary, Ernest Bevin.

In diplomatic quarters in Paris the purpose was described as discussion of possible United States American military guaranties to the West European Union created last week.

The announcement here said: "The Department of State today announced that there is no plan for a meeting between Mr. Bidault, Mr. Bevin and Secretary Marshall. It is hoped, however, that the three governors will establish the closest consultation on all matters of mutual interest. Whether this consultation will take the form of a meeting between the three secretaries or through some other method cannot be determined at the moment."

Revisionists Urge Action

Paris, March 23 (AP)—United Zionists-Revisionists, world headquarters called tonight for an immediate proclamation of a jewish state. It also demanded that the present Jewish Agency leadership resign.

A news release said that the United States proposal for a temporary trusteeship over Palestine was a "blatant example of selling out on Jews out of considerations which are more concerned with oil interests than with justice and international pledges."

600th Relief Shipment Received By France

Le Havre, France, March 23 (AP). The six hundredth shipload of American interim aid to France arrived here today.

United States Ambassador Jefferson Caffery said this brought the total of such aid to 4,800,000 tons since December 18.

Honors were shared by an American and a French ship. They were the Villanova Victory, captained by Leo F. Donohue, of Denville, N.J., and the French Oregon.

Neither wished to challenge the other's claim to being the six hundredth ship, so they both brought out banners saying "600."

ITALIAN PRELATE IN PRE-ELECTION ATTACK ON REDS

VATICAN CITY, March 23 AP)—Eugene Cardinal Tisserant today made a sharp pre-election attack on communists.

Pope Pius XII has already told Italian Catholics they must vote for "safeguarding the rights of God and of souls, for the true good of individuals."

Priests have been informing their parishioners their choice on April 18 is between communism and God. Cardinal Tisserant, secretary of the Congregation for the Eastern Church, said he had given this message to priests and parishioners in his Porto and Santa Rufina archdiocese in Rome's environs.

Grave Peril

"I think that no menace as grave as atheistic communism has ever confronted Christian civilization."

The cardinal said that communism, "if not exactly understood and strenuously combatted by Catholics, generates equivocation and error and leads to subversion, to the very ruin of life and of Catholic institutions of Italy."

He said that Catholics who favor communism expose themselves to perversion and loss of faith, and cooperate in "diffusion of false doctrine, the negation of religious truth, the fight against God and his church, the triumph of disorder and anarchy of the family, of the country and of the state."

Such Catholics, Cardinal Tisserant added, "cannot ask of priests to be admitted to the holy sacraments, to have the ritual blessings of the church, to belong to Catholic action x x x and after death cannot have Christian services, nor be buried in Holy ground under the sign of the cross."

He said the church condemns communism as it does "masonry and other societies opposing the church and legitimate authorities."

Cardinal Tisserant as secretary for the Congregation for Eastern Churches is responsible to Pope Pius for the spiritual welfare of millions of Catholics of the Eastern rite, many of whom live in countries now under communist domination.

MAR 1948

It's God Or Marx, Cardinal Says

Vatican City, March 23 (AP)—The sharpest, most explicit condemnation of communism to come from any ranking Catholic prelate in Italy yet was made public here today.

Looking toward Italy's vital parliamentary elections April 18, Eugene Cardinal Tisserant disclosed he had told priests and parishioners in his archdiocese:

"I think that no menace so grave as atheistic communism has ever confronted Christian civilization."

Cardinal Tisserant, prelate of Porto and Santa Rufina archdiocese, made his statements in a circular letter sent out some time ago but released publicly only today.

Guardian Of Eastern Rite

He is the sole non-Italian cardinal of the Vatican curia. His archdioce is in the environs of Rome.

As secretary for the Congregation of Eastern Churches the French-born cardinal, who will be 64 tomorrow, is peculiarly concerned over Communist gains.

He is responsible to Pope Pius XII for the spiritual well-being of millions of Catholics of the Eastern rite. The bulk of these live in Poland, the Ukraine, Romania, southern Albania, Greece, Bulgaria, Turkey, Iran, Lebanon, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Eritrea and northern Ethiopia.

Says It's "God Or Marx"

Cardinal Tisserant's letter put the Church viewpoint squarely before his priests and parishioners: that their choice lies between communism and God.

The social doctrine of Marxist communism, his letter said, "leads to subdivision; to the ruin of life and Catholic institutions in Italy."

He said Catholics who favor or spread Marxist social-communism expose themselves to loss of faith and "co-operate in the diffusion of false doctrine . . ., the triumph of immorality, disorder and anarchy of the family, country, and state."

Such people, he said, cannot ask of priests to be admitted to the Holy Sacrament or to have the ritual blessings of the Church.

Danish Council Meets Secretly

MAR 1948

Sits After Canceling Leaves of Some Army Officers Following Theft of Arms.

Copenhagen, March 23 (A. P.).—The Danish Privy Council met in secret today after Easter leaves for some of the Danish military were canceled. The parliamentary foreign committee will meet tomorrow.

Newspapers were asked not to give "sensational display" to the communique canceling leaves. Asked whether the foreign political situation had prompted the cancellation, Defense Minister Rasmus Hansen said:

"We had found that the leave regulation would expose the military in some places where it is necessary to maintain a little preparedness."

Widespread theft of arms from home guard depots has been reported recently.

Informed sources said that during the last two days certain security measures have been taken with regard to the availability of officers in an emergency. Similar measures were taken in 1939 and 1940.

The usually well-informed political correspondent of the independent newspaper Information wrote:

"As regards the present nervousness, originating from rumors about Danish-Russian relations, they are founded in reports to the Government from the United States, reports that in part have been printed in American papers recently.

"These reports say that among territories which in the future may be objects for Russian maneuvers in the 'cold war,' one cannot get away from the fact that Scandinavia or one of the Scandinavian countries is in the spotlight."

on a secret ballot, to sixteen for Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar, of India.

Russia was defeated at the outset on its first proposal to the 300 delegates representing more than 50 nations. Soviet Delegate E. E. Bogomolov proposed that nonmembers of the United Nations, including Albania, Hungary and Romania, be given full voting rights. The ballot against him was 27 to 6.

Vetoes Are Recalled

Opposing Bogomolov, Britain's delegate, Hector McNeil, accused the Russians of inconsistency. He recalled Russia had vetoed applications of some nations for United Nations membership, adding that "we have never used our veto to deprive nations of the full rights of membership."

In the opening address, Benjamin Cohen, United Nations assistant secretary general in charge of information, criticized the world's press. Cohen, a Chilean, said:

Concept Needs Broadening

"The fact is, most unfortunately, that the peoples are not getting a true and full picture of world events and that the time has come to take action so that freedom to impart information be paralleled by a responsible exercise of the duties incumbent upon those who enjoy such a fundamental right.

"The tremendous advances effected through the scientific development of new means of communication and of the printed, the spoken and the graphic reports of events and opinions require considerable broadening of all previous conceptions of the freedom of information."

He deplored that on the basis of information generally being disseminated today, the conclusion is inevitable that the world stands "on the brink of a third world war."

This conference was called by the United Nations Assembly to formulate views on the rights, obligations and practices to be included in a United Nations concept of freedom of information. The sessions will continue for about five weeks.

Some Delegates En Route

The meeting will consider all aspects of information, including the collection, transmission and publication of news.

All 57 members of the United Nations and thirteen nonmember states originally were invited. Several smaller nations indicated they would not take part. Some of the nations not yet represented here are believed to have delegations en route.

Nearly all the nations in the Soviet sphere are represented. The United States delegation of 36 members, the largest here, is headed by former Assistant Secretary of State William Benton.

to non-members of the U. N. represented at the conference and to invite Outer Mongolia to participate as a non-member. Both proposals were decisively defeated.

The Soviet delegate, A. E. Bogomolov, demanded that the nonmembers, Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Hungary, Eire, Italy, Portugal, Romania and Switzerland have voting rights. He was supported by France and Belgium.

Hector McNeil, British delegate objected, saying the conference could not alter a decision of the parent body, the U. N. Economic and Social Conference. The United States supported him.

Nicolas B. Mavrocordato, of Greece, vigorously objected to full participation by Bulgaria and Albania, declaring they had been "practicing undeclared war against Greece."

The Soviet proposal was turned down, 21 to 10, with six abstentions.

The second Soviet proposal, to invite Outer Mongolia as a nonmember, was ruled out of order when the conference adopted its rules by thirty-one votes, with none opposed and six abstentions.

Dr. P. C. Chang, Chinese delegate, said Outer Mongolia was guilty of "aggressive behavior and engaging in military activities on Chinese territory."

The conference, the largest ever held on the world's press and other information media, is attended by 300 delegates from more than fifty nations, including nearly all the countries from the Soviet sphere. The largest delegation of thirty-six is headed by William Benton, former Assistant Secretary of State of the United States.

The conference elected Brigadier General Carlos P. Romulo, of the Philippines, as chairman. General Romulo, who proposed the meeting in 1946, received twenty votes on a secret ballot, to sixteen for India's Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar.

Wuerttemberg Princess Fined For Aiding Nazi

Stuttgart, Germany, March 23 (AP)—Princess Pauline zu Wied of Wuerttemberg was fined $2,500 today for harboring Frau Gertrud Scholtz-Klink, top woman Nazi.

An American Military Government court gave the sentence. The Princess, 70, wore a man's hat and carried a walking stick.

Her defense was that as a member of the Red Cross she harbored Frau Scholtz-Klink after the war on humanitarian grounds.

Demand Soviet Set Date For Next Meeting Of Berlin Council

WES GALLAGHER

Berlin, March 23 (AP) — The United States, Britain and France asked today for a showdown on whether the Soviet Union wants to maintain four-power rule over Germany.

This came in a demand upon Soviet Marshal Vassily Sokolovsy to set a date for the next meeting of the Allied Control Council before taking up work of lesser four-power committees.

Late today the Russians partially ended their boycott of four-power government by calling for a meeting of subcommittees on currency reform and currency printing for later in the week. It was the first such action by the Russians since they walked out of a Control Council meeting Saturday.

Clay Boycott

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, declared his own boycott, however, by informing Sokolovsy that the Americans would not attend any subcommittee meetings until a date is set for another council meeting. Sokolovsy is current council chairman under the rotation method.

Britain and France both announced they would support Clay in his demand.

The Russians had previously canceled seven meetings scheduled for today in Allied Control Council agencies, and a top American official said:

"We are tired of being pushed around. The Soviets think they can cancel meetings on subjects they don't want to discuss and call meetings on subjects they want to discuss."

No Date Was Set

The official said the United States was making the demand upon Sokolovsy to determine whether the Russians intend to continue four-power negotiations or just call certain committee meetings that suit their own propaganda purposes.

The official said Sokolovsy's action in abruptly adjourning Saturday's council meeting without setting a new date—as is customary—left the entire four-power machinery up in the air.

"We are going to stay away from any committee meetings until the Russians set a date for a new meeting of the Allied Control Council and clarify their position," the American official added.

The British statement joining the Americans said British representatives would not attend any meetings until the Control Council meets "to consider the position created by the Control Council meeting of March 20."

Communist Replacement Hope

This did not apply to the Kommandatur, the four-power organization which has control over Berlin, the statement added.

The Berliner Zeitung, a Russian-controlled newspaper, indicated the Communists hoped to replace the council with their own organizations, the so-called "German People's Congress" and its "Peoples' Council." The latter has the announced purpose of drafting an all-Germany constitution and eventually replacing the council.

American and British occupation authorities have banned the congress and its affiliate in their zones on the grounds it makes fraudulent claims to represent all elements of the German population. Anti-Communist parties have denounced the organizations.

The official Soviet newspaper Taegliche Rundschau made no mention of the Control Council crisis, but another Soviet-controlled organ said that yesterday's meetings were postponed because Russian representatives were awaiting new directives.

Rejects Russian Order

Clay will become chairman of the council at the end of the month and would have authority to call a meeting.

Earlier the Berlin city assembly refused to accept a unilateral Russian order to halt anti-Soviet propaganda at its meetings.

The assembly, dominated by the anti-Communist Social Democrats, voted to send the order to the kommandatur for interpretation. Dr. Otto Suhr, assembly speaker, denied that the assembly had been used for anti-Soviet propaganda. The Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party abstained from the voting.

Die Welt, a British licensed newspaper, said that a special Soviet-led commission which includes six former officers of the German general staff had drawn up a plan for an east-German government.

The plan does not contemplate immediate joining of the Soviet occupation zone with the Soviet Union, the newspaper said.

CALLS CONTROL ENDED

Nuernberg, March 23 (A. P.).—A German lawyer sought today to stop the Nuernberg war crimes trials, contending that Russia's walkout Friday from the Allied Control Council ended four-Power government in Germany. Dr. Rudolf Aschenauer, the attorney, presented the motion to a United States court. He declared the four-Power law under which the war crimes procedure was established no longer is valid.

Aschenauer represents Otto Ohlendorf, who is awaiting a verdict with seventeen other Nazi S. S. (Elite Guard) officers charged with murdering 90,000 persons in eastern Europe.

Earlier, a German attorney had charged that the United States trial of Krupp munitions officials is an anti-capitalistic attack on German industry.

A large crowd cheered as the train pulled into the station. Lieut. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, United States Commissioner for Austria, made the presentation on behalf of the Americans who had donated the food and clothing. Chancellor Leopold Figl accepted for the Austrian people.

Mrs. Otis Lampson, leader of volunteer organizations of Seattle, also spoke for the donors. She was cheered when she translated her own remarks into German.

Distribution of the supplies will be under the direction of American relief agencies operating in Austria.

The shoes, heavy clothing, soap, flour, sugar and other items of the shipment will be distributed in all four occupation zones. ADD

Czechs Ask Argentina To Return 'Executioner'

Prague, March 23 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Government asked Argentina today for the extradition of Dr. Ferdinand Durcansky, who was a Minister in the wartime state of Slovakia.

Durcansky has been sentenced to death in absentia by a Slovak people's court. He was accused of mass executions and "systematic terror."

The Czechoslovak Government said he is hiding in some Argentine village.

(Durcansky was reported in Buenos Aires to have left for Brazil about a week ago on business for the anti-Soviet Slovak Committee. He is one of its leaders. His brother Jan is chairman.)

Plot Seen In Yugoslav Blast

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 23 (AP).—The Interior Ministry said today a coal mine explosion March 14 at Racha, which killed seventy-one workers, was caused by a diversionist crew. Racha is on the Istrian Peninsula, near Trieste.

The Ministry, which investigated the explosion, said documents found disclosed the blast was caused "by order from outside." The man who had the documents was shot and killed by border guards while attempting to cross the frontier into Italy, the Ministry said.

PolishSocialists Sever Ties With Western Parties

LARRY ALLEN

Plan April Conference of Left-Wing Members of Six European Countries

WARSAW, March 23 (AP).—The Socialist party of Poland severed today its ties with those Socialist organizations of Western Europe which oppose Communism, and hastened plans for a convention here late in April of European Left-Wing Socialists.

Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Finland, Italy and France were among the countries invited to send representatives to establish a "common viewpoint and integration of aims." The conference is expected to form a single unit against the more conservative Socialists of Western Europe.

Kazimierz Rusinek, president of the Polish Socialists' executive committee and Minister of Labor and Social Welfare, told a news conference that the Socialists of Western Europe have become "allies of American capitalism" and have deserted the true principles of Socialism. The Polish Socialists, the Czechoslovak Social Democrats and the Italian Socialists have accordingly severed connections with the Western Socialists, he said.

Mr. Rusinek said Socialists of all countries could still "join the struggle of the working class for Socialism and peace."

He would not predict when the planned merger of the Polish Socialists and the Communist Workers' organization would take place. He said both parties are working toward a complete identity of views before actually combining.

Mr. Rusinek saidthe Polish Socialists have 800,000 members. He said a purge of Rightist rebels from the leadership is under way.

Oscar Lange, who renounced his American citizenship to become Poland's United Nations representative, supported Mr. Rusinek's views. He said Polish Socialists and Communists aim at quick reconstruction of Poland, the creation of a better tomorrow and the maintenance of peace and independence.

FINN ENVOY TOO ILL TO GO TO MOSCOW

Helsinki, March 23 (A. P.).—The newspaper Ilta Sanomat said today that Premier Mauno Pekkala is too ill to serve on the Finnish delegation negotiating in Moscow on a Russian-proposed treaty.

Foreign Minister Carl Enckell, as deputy chairman, is empowered to sign any documents resulting from the talks. Enckell and his party arrived in Moscow yesterday.

Pekkala was reported to have a serious ear infection. The newspaper said he would be in bed at least two weeks.

Pekkala has been in a hospital with an ear infection. His physician will accompany him.

427 Rebels Captured In Greece, Paper Says

Salonika, Greece, March 23 (AP)—A news dispatch from Katerini today said the Greek Army had captured 427 guerrillas and killed many more at a rebel headquarters in the Mount Olympus-Mount Pieria area.

The dispatch to the newspaper Makedonia said it was expected that the whole large formation of the remaining guerrillas will be broken by advancing army units.

The combined Army and Air Force have been fighting the rebels in that region for more than 25 days.

TURKEY BOLSTERS CIVILIAN DEFENSE

B. GREENWALD

ISTANBUL, March 23—(AP) The Turkish civilian defense committee acted today to complete plans within one month to cope with any emergency.

The committee had been virtually abandoned since the war, and it was felt that its renewed activity reflected concern over the vulnerability of Turkey in a period of disturbed relations between the east-west powers.

The committee said it wants to revise defense precautions which have been relaxed. Instructions were given to four subcommittees to draw up new defense plans within 30 days.

The tension in international relations was reported already having an effect on the Turkish economy.

A director of an important governmental bank said business had fallen off seriously and credits were greatly curtailed. He said the dollar shortage was a factor but that the fear of war was equally to blame.

Various foreign consulates reported an increasing number of inquiries as to the possibility of quick departure in event of trouble.

Maj. Gen. H. L. Macbride, chief of the American army group mission in Turkey, arrived from Washington by plane today. Shiploads of American military equipment under the American program for Turkish aid are expected to arrive in Instanbul by the end of the month. The equipment will be spread across the nation and American experts will begin training of Turkish soldiers in its use. ADD

China Reds Report Threat Of Starvation

Shanghai, March 23 (AP)—The Chinese Communists today said large numbers of persons in their areas face starvation.

Their North China News Agency broadcast an appeal that nearly half a million people are entering their first big famine in eleven years.

The famine region centers around the provinces of Shensi, Kansu and Ningsia, all scenes of bitter fighting in the past year. The area is the oldest and mostly firmly established Communist-governed territory. Yenan, now in Government hands, formerly was the Red capital of the area.

The Communists blame the critical plight of the peasants on Government troops, whom they charge with cutting down all fruit trees and laying waste to vegetable crops.

The Communists played down the fact that the area has suffered from autumn floods and spring droughts. However, the fact that fighting has increased the poverty of the region is apparent.

"In the worst areas," said Pi-wu, Communist relief area chairman, "an estimated two thirds of the 200,000 to 300,000 persons ran all out of grain by the middle of February and are living on weeds, grain husks and other substitutes."

CHINESE BASE RAID TARGET

Doubt Left Whether Communists Have Crossed Yangtze

Shaighai, March 23 (AP)—Government forces, already hard pressed in North China and Manchuria, were jolted today by a Communist raid near a navy base only 80 miles northeast of Shanghai.

The base, Kiangyin, on the south bank of the Yangtze, did not appear in immediate danger, but the situation was confused.

Naval headquarters in Nanking said the Communists were attempting to storm Kiangyin and "have reached the mouth of the naval base area." This vague location does not mean the Reds have crossed the Yangtze.

Newspaper Account

One newspaper account said the Communists were fighting on the north bank, pounded by river gunboats and by artillery from the south shore.

The news of the fighting around Kiangyin, which is midway between Nanking and Shanghai, took precedence in the press over reports fro mother troubled areas.

Pro-government press dispatches to Peiping reported some improvement in Manchuria but further Communist gains in Inner Mongolia.

Military quarters in Mukden were quoted as estimating the winter offensive cost the Communists upward of 120,000 casualties.

Menace Pivoted Point

In Inner Mongolia, press dispatches said the Comunists had penetrated the suburbs of Yuhsien, 16 miles west of Peiping. Yuhsien is a pivotal point in the Government defense system for south Chahar.

A Communist North China news agency broadcast from Northern Shensi province an appeal to the world to aid 1,500,000 people who, it said, are entering the first big famine in eleven years.

The famine centers in the northern provinces of Shensi and Kansu and the adjacent province of Ningsia of Inner Mongolia. This is the oldest and mostly firmly established Communist territory.

Yangtze Fighting Reports Vary

Nanking, March 23 (AP)—Highly contradictory reports of the fighting along the Yangtze River between Nanking and Shanghai completely confused this capital today.

Government spokesman said reports that Red forces had attempted to cross the river and seize the national naval base town of Kiangyin, 60 miles east of Nanking, were "pure Communist propaganda."

However, naval headquarters said that Communists attempting to storm Kiangyin had "reached the mouth of the naval base area."

Gunboats Reported In Action

Whether the Reds attempted to cross the river was uncertain. Hsin Min Pao reported, however, that gunboats were in action against Red troops on the north bank, in the Taihsing area, almost across the river from Kiangyin. It said Government artillery firing from the south bank had smashed a Communist concentration across the river.

Experienced observers rated the Red forays as "nuisance raids."

In Peiping, pro-Government reports said national army trucks were carrying supplies to Mukden over the highway from Chinhsien, which recently came under Government control.

Red Casualties Listed

Military quarters at Mukden estimated that the Reds suffered more than 80,000 casualties in ground fighting plus another 30,000 to 40,000 from air attacks in this winter's fighting in Manchuria.

In Inner Mongolia pro-Government reports said the Reds had penetrated into the suburbs of Yuhsien, pivotal point in the national defense system of southern Chahar province. Yuhsien is a highway town 100 miles west of Peiping.

Jap Government Strike Threatened

Tokyo, March 23 (AP)—An estimated 1,350,000 Japanese Government workers today threatened a variety of strikes Thursday unless they receive more money.

Under the impact of inflation the workers' salaries vanish.

They oppose more taxes or more printing press money, but declare they must have better salaries. They spurned recent Government offers as inadequate.

The Government, on the other hand, is broke. It is unable to meet the demands unless more revenue is raised or more printing press yen are produced.

The unions involved in the strike threats include the communications workers, the teachers' union, the municipal government employés, Government and public office workers, Finance Ministry tax collectors and the Tokyo municipal workers.

Agency And Vaad Leumi Agree On Plans For Government When British Yield Mandate

Jerusalem, March 23 (AP)—Representatives of Palestine's 600,000 Jews announced tonight a provisional Jewish government would begin operation in the Holy Land May 16, a day after the British yield their mandate.

In a joint meeting of the Jewish Agency and Jewish National Council in Tel Aviv the Jews rejected any plan for a Holy Land trusteeship, as suggested by the United States to the United Nations.

Jewish-Arab warfare continued, with a bitter battle raging tonight in the Montefiore district of Jerusalem, a heavily fortified Jewish area. An Arab-driven truck exploded in the district, demolishing between 30 and 40 houses, an official statement said. A British soldier was killed in the gun battle that followed.

Short Or Predicted Move

Most observers had predicted that a formal proclamation of a Hebrew state would emerge from the Tel-Aviv meeting but the action did not go quite that far.

A statement said that prior to May 16 the Jews will "do our utmost to minimize the chaos created by the present Government and we shall maintain so far as lies within our power the public service neglected by it."

The British plan to yield the mandate May 15, and complete withdrawal of all their armed forces by August 1.

The Jewish Agency is the administrative body elected by the World Jewish Congress. The National Council (Vaad Leumi) is the administrative body of the national assembly elected by Palestine Jewry.

Call For Speed By U.N.

Both groups appealed for the earliest possible arrival in Palestine of the United Nations Commission on Partition and for recognition of a provisional Jewish government in Jewish areas of Palestine by the commission.

The commission secretariat is already here. The commission was appointed to carry out the November 29 decision of the United Nations to split Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab states. Arab resistance to partition has resulted in civil war that has claimed upward of 2,000 lives.

The United States has proposed to the Security Council that partition be temporarily abandoned and a trusteeship considered.

Penetrated By Commandos

The battle in Montefiore broke out shortly after sunset when Arab commandos penetrated the area. British soldiers were sent in after Jews and Arabs dueled with guns and bombs.

An official statement said an Arab drove an explosive-filled truck from the Jaffa gate and let it roll unmanned into the area. Jewish residents said ten to fifteen Jews were injured, and Arab sources claimed five Jews were killed.

Soldiers from Haganah, the Jewish army, cordoned off the blast area and refused to let British authorities or newsmen inside.

A Haganah chieftain said only a few windows were broken and "we need no help."

British military men said this minimizing of the situation was "absurd." They said the blast shattered windows in buildings 300 yards away and sent a column of black smoke hundreds of feet high. Two British soldiers were injured slightly by flying debris which shattered about the officers' club in a lot adjoining the King David Hotel, British military headquarters.

Meanwhile, quiet prevailed in Judean hills west of Jerusalem where the British Army sent in tanks and artillery to restore order last night. More than 100 Arabs and Jews had been killed then in four days of warfare.

Five Arabs were killed and two injured when their taxi was fired on by a Jewish convoy on the main Gaza-Jaffa road.

One Arab was killed by soldiers who fired at a band looting the Beit Nabala military camp.

Sniper Posts Destroyed

British guns destroyed a Jewish snipers' post on top of a chocolate factory in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv borderland and another inside Jaffa.

The unofficial death toll since the United Nations' decision on partition mounted to 2,029.

This was the joint council-agency announcement:

"The Jewish Agency and Vaad Leumi have learned with regret and astonishment of the attitude adopted by the United States representatives on the Security Council concerning the United Nations' decisions on Palestine.

Will Fight Postponement

"The Jewish Agency and Vaad Leumi declare that:

"1. The Jewish people and Yishuv (Jewish people of Palestine homeland) will oppose any proposal designed to prevent or postpone establishment of a Jewish state.

"2. We categorically reject any plan to set up a trusteeship regime for Palestine, even for a short period of time. A trusteeship would necessarily entail denial of the Jewish right to national independence. It would leave Palestine under a foreign military regime.

"3. The failure and disintegration of the mandatory administration, continuation of which was unanimously rejected by the United Nations, necessitates early arrival in Palestine of the United Nations Commission. The Jewish provisional council of government should be recognized without delay by the United Nations Commission, so that authority may be transferred to it as envisaged in United Nations' decisions.

"4. Upon termination of the mandatory administration—and not later than May 16—a provisional Jewish government will commence to function in co-operation with the representatives of the United Nations then in Palestine.

"In the meantime, we shall do our utmost to minimize the chaos created by the present Government and we shall maintain so far as lies in our power the public services neglected by it.

"5. The Jewish people extend the hand of peace to the Arab people. The Jewish state will be glad to co-operate with neighboring Arab states and to enter into permanent treaty relations with them, to strengthen world peace and advance the development of all countries of the Near East."

British Intensify Effort To Halt Judean Fight

CARTER DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, March 23 (AP)—The British rushed more tanks and artillery into the Judean hills today to smash the fiercest Arab-Jewish battle in Palestine's recent history, which has raged four days.

An hour after dawn British headquarters said the battlefield was quiet.

Tanks ranged the dirt roads leading to Jewish Hartuv and Arab Ishwa, main points in the battle, part of fierce fighting which claimed 140 lives yesterday alone.

Army chiefs denied reports that the British reinforcements were sent on a "punitive raid." This rumor spread when it was learned that reinforcements were heading toward Ishwa, where the mutilated bodies of two British soldiers were found a few hours before.

Say Arabs Withdrew

British officials said thousands of Arab fighters of Abdul Khader Bey Husseini's irregulars, which beseiged Hartuv yesterday, had withdrawn into the hills with the appearance of the British.

Husseini commands Palestine Arabs in the southern division of the Holy Land. He is a cousin of the exiled Mufti, of Jerusalem.

Otherwise, the Holy Land was quiet this morning.

Police said Geoffrey Bradbury, British official of the Palestine Railways, died of wounds received four days ago in Haifa.

The unofficial death toll since the United Nations decision on partition November 29 now stands at 2,018. This included 858 Jews, 1,013 Arabs, 120 British, 4 Americans and 23 others.

INSERT

Supply Arrangements Announced

The Palestine Government gave assurances today that Palestine will have supplies sufficient for two months after the British mandate ends May 15. It said necessary supply arrangements have been made through Jewish and Arab chambers of commerce.

In Tel Aviv last night, the Jewish Agency decided to convene the action committee of the World Zionist Organization in special session April 4 to draft a blueprint of a new policy, in view of the United States action in proposing that partition be shelved.

"Although members of the Jewish Agency are unanimously for rejecting other schemes than independence, there are differences of opinion on timing," an agency member commented.

Part of the members want to proclaim a Jewish state at once, under a provisional government. Others want to wait for United Nations developments and crystallization of United States policy on Palestine.

Announce Provisional Government Will Be Set Up—Reject Trusteeship.

Tel Aviv, March 23 (A. P.).—A provisional Jewish State will begin operating May 16, the Jewish Agency and the National Council announced tonight. Britain surrenders her mandate the day before.

"In the meantime," the two elective councils declared, "we shall do our utmost to minimize the chaos created by the present government and we shall maintain, so far as lies within our power, the public service neglected by it."

The Council and the Agency rejected the American proposal for a United Nations trusteeship in Palestine.

Arabs Open Fresh Attack.

Jerusalem, March 23 (A. P.).—Arab commandos pierced the heavily fortified Montefiore quarter of Jerusalem near sunset today and were reported to have killed several Jews with bombs and machine guns. A bitter battle involving the British, Jews and Arabs developed.

An Arab informant said four buildings were blown up and heavy casualties inflicted.

The British sent tanks and artillery into the Judean Hills to intervene in a battle between Arabs and Jews. The fight has been in progress for four days and was described as one of the fiercest in Palestine's recent history. The British later said the battlefield was quiet.

CLASHES MARK TALK

Supporter and Opponent Both Label Proposal a 'War Measure.'

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) The Senate shouted approval today of a $275,000,000 military aid program to bolster Greece and Turkey against Communism.

The voice vote came as the House began debate on a $6,205,000,000 two-continent foreign aid bill, with a supporter and an opponent both labelling it a "war measure."

Quickly Approved

Greek-Turkish aid, to continue the present $400,000,000 program, was approved after only a few hours of debate in the Senate, which already has passed a $5,300,000,000 European recovery bill.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) was almost alone in opposing aid to Greece and Turkey. He said the chances for war are "about 99 out of 100" unless this country makes a "final effort" toward agreement with Russia.

The hotly debated House bill includes ERP, Greek-Turkish aid, military and economic help for the Chinese government in its war against Communist forces, and $60,000,000 for the United Nations Children's Fund.

Congress' Republican leaders said prospects were bright for agreement between both houses, perhaps next week, on all aspects of the foreign aid program.

Of the House "Omnibus bill," Rep. Cox (D-Ga) declared:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is a war measure whether a conflict comes. Whether we will have a shooting war all depends on what Russia does. In this measure we are saying to Russia and the rest of the world: "Your march, your aggression against freedom, now ends."

Rep Marcantonio (Al-NY), Like Cox, used the words "war measure." He said the bill is being "sold to the American people under the guise of stopping the flood of communism." Yet this country, Marcantonio said, is in no danger of attack.

Freedom vs. Slavery

The debate was started by Rep. Eaton (R-NJ), who said the issue is freedom versus slavery.

Pleading for quick approval of his bill to send American supplies, and, in some cases, weapons and military advisers, to non-communist countries of both sides of the world, the chairman of the foreign affairs committee said:

"There they stand, face to face. America, champion of freedom xxx Russia, the champion of slavery as the basis of a world civilization without a soul. This legislation is an announcement to the world of our choice."

Rep. Herter (R-Mass) followed through with a denunciation of communism's spread.

"The time has come," he said, "to call a halt, not through words alone but through action."

Herter heads a special house committee which studied European conditions at first hand last year.

He and Eaton spoke as the senate took up one section of the house bill, calling for $275,000,000 in military aid to two countries on the dividing line between the Russian sphere and the west, Greece and Turkey.

Here it was Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the foreign relations committee who called for speedy action to thwart what he called "an increasingly ominous appetite for conquest" by communism.

(In Turkey, Istanbul's civilian defense committee, inactive since World War II ended, was directed to complete plans within a month for any emergency that might arise.

(Maj. Gen. H. L. MacBride, chief of the U. S. military mission, reached Istanbul by plane from Washington. Shiploads of U. S. military equipment are expected to follow late this month.

(Turkish preparedness has been stepped up since the communist seizure of power in Czechoslovakia. There have been no reports, however, of outside pressure on Turkey itself.)

The senate already has approved a separate ERP bill but early indications pointed to somewhat stronger house opposition to the program, designed to help Europe become self-supporting and strong enough to resist communist inroads.

Aid Debaters Tag House Measure A 'War' Bill

Washington, March 23 (AP)—Declarations that the $6,205,000,000 foreign-aid bill is a "war measure" rang out in the House today.

They came from Representatives Cox (D., Ga.) and Marcantonio (A.L., N.Y.), as debate got under way on the program to bolster western Europe, Greece, Turkey and China against the menace of communism.

The agreement between Cox and Marcantonio was on the one point alone.

"Mr. Speaker," Cox said: "This bill is a war measure. Whether a conflict comes, whether we will have a shooting war all depends on what Russia does. In this measure we are saying to Russia and the rest of the word: Your march, your aggression against freedom, now ends."

"This Is A War Measure"

Marcantonio, asserting this country is not in danger of attack, said: "This is a war measure, sold to the American people under the guise of stopping the flood of communism."

In the Senate, Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) declared that Greece's military and economic plight stems from Russia's "frank and brutal" rejection of United Nations intervention.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee told his colleagues that he s "very weary" of charges that the United States bypassed the United Nations in giving aid to Greece.

He took the floor to urge speedy Senate passage of a bill to provide an additional $275,000,000 in military aid for Greece and Turkey.

Cites Russia's Vetoes

Vandenberg said attempts of the United Nations to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Greek border dispute had been stopped cold by Russia's vetoes. He said a United Nations subcommission was denied entry to Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Romania, Moscow's satellites.

On the House floor, Representative Herter (R., Mass.) said the time has come to call a halt in the spread of communism, "not through words alone but through action."

He accused "Russian-inspired" Communists of trying to block European recovery.

He also said Russia has apparently stepped up its timetable of bringing free European nations into the Soviet orbit—"whether by the internal support of minorities or by the external threat of force."

While no one can claim that the aid legislation can bring material help overnight to any nation, Herter said, "its early passage by a very substantial vote can be an extremely powerful psychological factor."

Echoes Truman Promise

Earlier, the House heard an echo of Mr. Truman's promise that this country has become the protector of free peoples threatened with Communist domination.

Representative Eaton (R., N.J.) laid the global assistance bill before his colleagues with the declaration that the measure is "the voice of the American people" answering this question:

"Is the new world civilization to enthrone slavery in every land, with Russia as its instrument of control?"

"No Sacrifice Too Great"

In a speech prepared for the opening of House debate, the chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee said:

"This is the issue and these are the world-moving forces with which we must deal." Hence, he added, "no sacrifice, no effort is too great for America nor for every other freedom-minded and freedom-loving people to assume.

"There they stand, face to face. America, champion of freedom as the basis of all civilized life. Russia, the champion of slavery as the basis of a world civilization without a soul. This legislation is an announcement to the world of our choice."

AMERICAN ZONE NOT TO BE RUN BY STATE DEPT.

White House Announces Reversal of Plan to Shift Powers

MAR 1948

CHANGE WAS DUE ON JULY 1

Military Government Is Extended Indefinitely—No Comment on Russia's 'Walk.'

Washington, March 23 (A. P.).—The White House announced today that the United States Army will continue in control of government in the American zone of Germany indefinitely.

Plans had been for the State Department to take over government of the zone about July 1.

The decision to keep the military in control was announced by the President's press secretary, Charles G. Ross.

Ross would not comment on whether the decision was the result of Russia's walkout on the Control Council at Berlin.

Text of Announcement.

The White House announcement read:

"On January 27, the Department of the Army announced that an agreement had been reached that the Department of State should assume the responsibility for the non-military aspects of the German occupation, looking toward a target date for the transfer of such responsibilities on or about July 1, 1948.

"Following a review of the present situation, it has been decided that it would be inadvisable to make any changes in our present administrative arrangements for Germany.

"This decision will not have any adverse effect on progress toward developing German responsibility for self-government and administrative initiative.

"Gen. (Lucius D.) Clay remains as Military Governor and as Commander-in-Chief of United States Forces in Europe."

Germans Are Overjoyed

BERLIN, March 23 (AP) — Germans in Berlin heard with undisguised joy tonight the White House announcement that the United States Army would continue indefinitely its occupation of the American zone. Gallagher

"This will show our Russian friends that America means business," one German commented.

The announcement that the Army would remain in control of government will strengthen considerably General Clay's hand in dealing with occupation problems, informed sources said. The announcement last January that the State Department would take over in July left doubt whether the new commissioner would follow the policies which have been formed largely by General Clay and the Army.

From time to time in the past, there have been wide differences of opinion on German policy between General Clay and the State Department.

The Washington announcement, coming during the Soviet-Western Power showdown on a four-power government in Germany, was expected to have an effect on Soviet decisions.

General Clay initiated the American anti-Communist propaganda program in Germany. This has been a sore point with the Russians. His bargaining in the Control Council has not endeared him to the Soviet occupation authorities. His oft-repeated determination to keep American forces in Berlin has been reassuring to Germans in the Western sectors and also to Berliners.

Therefore, the Washington announcement was welcomed here as showing that General Clay's policy of staying put had the full backing of the United States Government.

Grew Backs Draft and U. M. T. To Win Allies by U. S. Strength

Former Envoy Cites Psychological Impact of Bills Senate Committee Favors, 13 to 10—Farm Opposition Heard

MAR 1948

Washington, March 23 (A. P.).—Joseph C. Grew told Senators today that America must remain strong, so that countries overseas will choose our side and become our allies.

Grew, former Ambassador to Japan, urged the Senate Armed Services Committee to move speedily for passage of limited draft and universal military training laws. America cannot afford to face some future day when it will stand alone without allies, Grew said, adding: "We must so evidence our strength and readiness and our firm intention to maintain that strength that the countries overseas which some time may have to make a decisive choice, will choose our side."

Senator Gurney (R.-S. D.), the chairman, reported that ten of the Senate committee are convinced that both measures are an absolute necessity. The committee is holding hearings on the proposed laws.

'This Critical Moment.'

Grew was a diplomat in Germany before world war I and was in Japan prior to world war II. Appearing on behalf of the National Security Committee, he referred to the present as "this serious if not critical moment" in world affairs.

An important result in starting the UMT now, he said, would be its "important psychological impact both on aggressive-minded and on peace-minded nations abroad."

"Our adoption of UMT will conclusively indicate to Soviet Russia that there is a point beyond which we cannot and will not allow our own future security to be jeopardized by the blotting out of western civilization, democracy and freedom in our neighbor nations," he declared.

"On the other side of the picture, the encouragement to resistance which such action on our part will give to those threatened countries will be incalculably great."

Leads Off Opposition.

Opposition to a limited draft and the U. M. T. was led off by Herbert W. Voorhees, a farmer from Hopewell, N. J., and a director of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

He declared that if war actually is near, America should be told, and that if world conditions demand drastic action, steps should be taken for total preparedness, rather than training youths "for war purposes."

Voorhees testified that his federation favors "military preparedness," but is opposed to "compulstory training in peacetime." Farmers, he said, want a strong United Nations, with an "international peace force." He said they also support the European recovery program and similar efforts.

Two Other Groups Opposed.

The National Farmers Union and the National Grange, two other major farm organizations, also opposed U. M. T.

J. T. Sanders, legislative counsel, said that the Grange favors Selective Service rather than U. M. T. if the nation faces a war crisis and cannot meet man power needs. But, Sanders said, if the crisis is not near, the Grange believes major efforts now should be on air, naval and industrial preparation. He urged pushing every way possible for peace between America and Russia.

Russell Smith, legislative secretary, said that the Farmers Union opposes U. M. T. as "futile for defense, dangerous to peace, damaging to youth and directly opposed to our national traditions." He said the union believes military expenses should be cut down, not increased.

Meanwhile, the House Armed Services Committee voted to allow women to stay in uniform, but as reserves instead of regulars. With only one dissenting vote, it turned down a Senate will which would give women regular status in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force and substituted a proposal to allow enlistment in all services of women reserves who could be called to active duty if they chose.

Tell U.S. If War Is Near, U.M.T. Foe Says

MAR 1948

Washington, March 23 (AP)—An opponent of universal military training told Congress today that if war actually is near America should be told.

The witness, Herbert W. Voorhees, said that if world conditions demand drastic action, steps should be taken for total preparedness, rather than trainipg youths "for war purposes."

Voorhees, a director of the American Farm Bureau Federation, led off for witnesses opposing passage of limited draft and UMT laws. He appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee which is holding hearings on the proposed legislation.

Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) reported ten of thirteen committee members favor both measures as an absolute necessity.

"Stay Strong To Win Allies"

Joseph C. Grew, a retired Foreign Service officer, told the committee earlier that America must remain strong so countries overseas will chhose our side and become allies. A former ambassador to Japan, he urged quick passage of laws to strengthen the nation's military setup.

Meanwhile, the House Armed Services Committee voted to allow women to stay in uniform, but as reserves instead of regulars.

With only one dissenting vote, the House committee turned down a Senate bill which would give women regular status in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force. It substituted a proposal to allow enlistment of women reserves in all services. They could be called to active duty if they choose.

Sees Industry Spared

Voorhees, a farmer at Hopewell, N.J., testified the American Farm Bureau Federation favors "military preparedness" but is opposed to "compulsory training in peacetime."

Farmers, he said, want a strong United Nations with an "international peace force." He said they also support the European recovery program and similar efforts.

But if world conditions demand drastic action, Voorhees said, "the nation should be so informed, with steps being taken in all segments of our economy to prepare for the pending emergency."

Voorhees said: "There is little or no sign that industry has been called upon for production of needed war supplies and equipment."

N.F.U., Grange Oppose U.M.T.

Both Grew and Voorhees stressed need for a stronger United Nations."

The National Farmers Union and the National Grange, two other major farm organizations, also opposed UMT.

J. T. Sanders, legislative counsel, said the Grange favors selective service rather than UMT if the nation faces a war crisis and cannot meet manpower needs.

But, Sanders said, if the crisis is not near, the Grange believes major efforts now should be on air, naval and industrial preparation. He urged pushing every way possible for peace between America and Russia.

Russell Smith, legislative secretary, said the Farmers' Union opposes UMT as "futile for defense, dangerous to peace, damaging to youth and directly opposed to our national traditions." He said the union believes mailitary expenses should be cut down, not increased.

Security At Stake, Grew Says

"America cannot afford to face some future day when it will stand alone without Allies," Grew said.

"We must so evidence our strength and readiness and our firm intention to maintain that strength that the countries overseas will choose our side.

"Our adoption of U.M.T. will conclusively indicate to Soviet Russia that there is a point beyond which we cannot and will not allow our own future security to be jeopardized by the blotting out of Western civilization. . . .

"On the other side of the picture, the encouragement to resistance which such action on our part will give to those threatened countries will be incalculably great."

Grew appeared on behalf of the National Security Committee, of which he is national chairman. He was a diplomat in Germany before World War I, and was in Japan prior to World War II.

Conference At White House

The joint chiefs of staff arranged an appointment with President Truman and Budget Director James Webb this afternoon.

Charles G. Ross, White House press secretary, told reporters the staff chiefs will talk over "budgetary problems" of the armed forces with Mr. Truman. Participating will be Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of staff to the President; Secretary of Defense Forrestal; Gen. Omar N. Bradley, army chief of staff; Admiral Lewis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, and Gen. Carl Spaatz, chief of staff for the Air Force.

Meanwhile, the United States Chamber of Commerce announced its support of U.M.T. as an "essential element in the security program of our country."

The chamber's position was outlined by Clem D. Johnston, Roanoke, Va., a director.

Johnston said the chamber also favors (1) a detailed plan of industrial and economic mobilization (2) balanced stockpiling of strategic materials and arrangements for standby war plants (3) military scientific and technical research and (4) the building and preservation of strong and efficient air strength.

SENATORS PROBE EXPORTS TO REDS

License Conditions Called 'Shocking'; Witness Tells of System

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) An investigation of export deals with Russia was started today after two senators called license conditions "shocking."

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) said the senate investigation committee wants to know how much and what kind of merchandise has gone overseas recently. Especially, he emphasized, to Russia and the nations she dominates.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb) of a senate small business subcommittee investigating licenses issued by the department of commerce, said:

"There's trafficking in the black market between here and there (overseas) and it's got to be stopped!"

The subcommittee spent most of the day listening to Jack Quinn of Jersey City, N. J., explain how his name came to be connected with export licenses for about $500,000 worth of food.

A documents expert for the Washington police department has testified the licenses were not perforated by a machine used for that purpose by the commerce department.

Harry Levey, president of Haro Products, Inc., New York exporting concern, testified he obtained the licenses from Quinn. He said he paid Quinn $28,255.

Quinn testified today the licenses were obtained by him from a man named Maguire who claimed to have influence in Washington.

He said he gave Maguire 60 per cent of the fees and he kept 40 per cent.

But he said Levey didn't pay $28,255. He estimated it was around $9,000.

Told to Produce "Maguire"

The hearing was adjourned until Monday to give Quinn time to produce "Maguire."

Quinn said the customary payment for a license was two cents a pound on 300,000 pounds of lard; 15 cents a bag for flour and $4 a ton for tallow.

Government oficials said the commerce department does not charge for export licenses. Anyone may obtain one. But applications have been exceeding the allocations for exports allowed most countries. Thus no licenses are available for the excess commodities. For instance in the month of February allocations totaled 250,000 bags of flour and exporters applied for permits for shipping 30,000,000 bags.

Wherry and Martin said they were shocked by conditions surrounding the issuance of licenses. They have asked the attorney general to investigate.

5 Ships Returned by Russia

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP).—Officials said today that the United States has recovered five of the ninety-five lend-lease merchant ships which Russia had remaining at the end of the war. Three others are in process of being returned to American control. This leaves Russia with eighty-seven of the ships. They are involved in prolonged negotiations over a general lend-lease settlement.

Officials indicated today, as they had done weeks ago, that this government has no objection to selling the eighty-seven vessels to Russia, provided a satisfactory general lend-lease settlement can be worked out.

The eighty-seven ships include thirty-six war-built Liberty ships, forty-seven vessels built in the period 1902-1920, one pre-war tanker, one pre-war tug and two war-built tugs.

The eight ships being returned are seven war-built tankers and one regular cargo vessel which the United States obtained from Italy when Italy was an enemy nation. An agreement has been made to return them to Italy as soon as possible.

BOARD APPROVES PROGRAM TO KEEP JAPAN DISARMED

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) The 11-nation Far Eastern Commission today ordered Japan stripped of all arms except the rifles, pistols and other weapons carried by civil police and shotguns used by hunters.

The commission published a sweeping policy decision which ordered also that as long as Japan remains under allied control she may not manufacture airplanes of any kind.

Already In Effect

The decision, sent to General Douglas MacArthur in the form of a directive, includes major measures to keep Japan disarmed which MacArthur as supreme allied commander already has put into effect.

It was Number 47 of a series of formal decisions which the commission has drafted since its creation more than two years ago. These set allied policy which will remain effective until a peace treaty restores Japan to its pre-war sovereignty.

Their effect has been largely to ratify steps already taken by MacArthur under so-called interim directives from the United States through the army department.

The latest policy, labeled "prohibition of military activity in Japan and disposition of the Japanese military equipment," was adopted February 12. A closed-door debate developed a controversy resulting from objections raised to several provisions by Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin. The envoy later sought to explain Russia's position in an unusual formal statement.

He objected to a clause authorizing police to carry, aside from rifles and pistols, "other small arms exclusively used by civil police." Panyushkin contended this was subject to varied interpretation.

The FEC policy also directed destruction of all records of military registration of demobilized Japanese personnel.

Also prohibited in the new policy were reestablishment of any form of military organization such as organizations of former officers, and military training or instruction of any kind.

Japanese World War II officers of all kinds were barred from public posts, but MacArthur was authorized to make exceptions where there was evidence the officer opposed Japanese aggression.

Chenault Urges Aid To Bar Manchuria's Fall

Washington, March 23 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Claire E. Chennault, former commander of the Flying Tigers, predicted today that Chinese Communists will control Manchuria within three months unless the United States aids Nationalist China.

He told the Overseas Writers' Association he has no doubt that a Communist Government in Manchuria would be promptly recognized by Russia.

Then, he continued, he believes the Russians will attempt to communize all of China.

If such a campaign should succeed, he said, all of Asia would be open to conquest by communism.

Russia then would be in a position to force events in Europe, he said, and in his opinion could overrun western Europe within three months.

PASSPORT DENIED 2D TIME

Reporter for The Daily Worker Can't Qualify, Official Says

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—A State Department official said that a writer for The Daily Worker of New York, seeking to cover events abroad, was refused a passport today for the second time in two weeks.

The official, Michael J. McDermott, department press officer, said the applications of A. B. Magil were denied "because it is not in the interests of the United States at the present time" to grant them.

While The Daily Worker is a Communist publication, Mr. McDermott said, "it's not a refusal to grant a Daily Worker correspondent a passport but a refusal to grant Mr. Magil a passport."

Mr. Magil said his request today was to go to Geneva to cover the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information. He previously sought, on March 11, to obtain a passport to go to Palestine for the paper.

The official denied that freedom of the press was involved. Mr. Magil was "not refused because he is a newspaperman," Mr. McDermott observed. "I can't help it if a correspondent can't qualify for a passport."

U.S. Officials Are Cold To Slavs' Trieste Plan

MAR 1948

Washington, March 23 (AP)—American officials turned a cold shoulder today on Yugoslav's offer to "trade" Trieste for the near-by Italian city of Gorizia.

Diplomatic authorities pointed out that the Free Territory of Trieste does not belong to Yugoslavia and therefore is not hers to put up for bargaining.

Thus officials made plain that while the Western powers are alert to what the Soviet Union and Italy have to say about the disputed area, they are unlikely to pay much attention to the opinions of Marshal Tito's regime.

Suggestion By Simic

That was the reaction to the suggestion by Foreign Minister Stanoje Simic that Yugoslavia would consider surrendering its claims to Trieste if given the Italian city of Gorizia.

Simic made the proposal after sending notes to the United States, Britain and France protesting their proposal for a change in the Italian peace treaty to return Trieste to Italy.

Both Russia and Italy were notified formally of the proposal last Saturday. Hailed by anti-Communist forces in Italy, it has been denounced in Moscow as a diplomatic stroke "behind our back" to influence the April 18 Italian elections.

Big Four Accord

Under a Big Four agreement incorporated into the original peace treaty with Italy, the Free Territory of Trieste covering 400 square miles was split into two zones. Yugoslav forces patrol one section, British-American troops guard the other.

Italy and Yugoslavia have not been able to agree on a Trieste governor, whose nomination would have to be approved by the United Nations.

Diplomatic officials noted that Yugoslavia was not a party to the compromise agreement establishing the Free Territory. They further pointed out that Simic's offer to "trade" Trieste for Gorizia was the same proposal rejected by the Italian Cabinet in late 1946. At that time it was advanced by Palmiro Togliatti, Italian Communist leader, after a talk with Tito.

ANDRESEN SAYS LEAKS HELPED FATS TRADERS

House Body Opens Hearings on Reports of Profits by Speculators.

OFFICIAL TELLS OF RUMORS

Agriculture Department Aid Reveals Leak Before Rise in Allocations.

MAR 1948

Washington, March 23 (A P.).—Representative Andresen (R.-Minn.) said today highly secret information leaked from the Department of Agriculture last September and as a result certain persons made tremendous sums of money speculating in fats and oils.

Andresen made the statement when a House committee opened hearings on speculating. He said the committee, which he heads, would develop the story.

George A. Parks, an official of the Department of Agriculture's fats and oils division, testified that there was a leak of information shortly before the department made a public announcement on September 10 of a huge increase in the allocation of fats and oils for export.

Export allocations of lard for the last quarter of 1947 were increased from 35,000,000 to 70,000,000 pounds. The market price of lard jumped up 6 to 8 cents a pound.

Parks said the department investigated rumors of a leak and made a report on its findings. But, he said: "The report did not reveal the source of the leak."

The House committee is making a general inquiry into speculation on commodity markets with particular emphasis on the question whether any one has profited from inside Government information.

Park's testimony came after Andresen introduced a market letter sent out by G. G. Lusk of Greenville, Miss., last September 9—one day ahead of the department's public announcement that export quotas would be raised.

Hints of Leaks.

The Lusk letter cited "rumors of leaks" that the department's secret allocations would amount to 450,000,000 pounds of fats and oils. Parks said the actual figure was 452,000,000 pounds. The letter quoted probable lard allocations of 75,000,000 pounds compared with the official figure of 74,600,000 pounds.

The letter said "it is understood" the leak occurred through the department's production and marketing administration.

Under questioning, Parks said advance information on the secret data was available to the State and Commerce departments as well as to the Department of Agriculture.

Representative Carroll (D.-Col.) asked if Lusk was ever investigated in connection with the inquiry into the leak.

"I don't recall," Parks said.

"Was any action taken?" Carroll persisted. "Was anything done to prevent new leaks?"

Parks said he thought the report of the department's investigation should be read by the committee.

Andresen commented:

"It looks to me as though they have lost all control to prevent leaks."

'LEAK' CHARGED IN COMMODITY PRICES DATA

MAR 1948

'Tremendous Sums' Made Via Secret U.S. Information, Andresen Says

Washington, March 23 (AP)—A "leak" occurred more than six months ago in highly secret Government information affecting commodity prices, Congress learned today.

Simultaneously, Representative August H. Andresen (R., Minn.), declared certain unidentified persons "made tremendous sums of money from the leak."

He added:

"We will show who they were later."

Andresen is chairman of a House committee investigating speculation on the nation's food markets. It is making a particular effort to find out whether any Government officials profited from "inside" information.

Carroll Protests

Over heated protests by Representative Carroll (D., Col.), who said the committee should withhold judgment, Andresen commented:

"It looks to me as though they (the Government) have lost all control over leaks."

George A. Parks, chief of the statistics branch of the Department of Agriculture's oils and fats division, told the committee the leak occurred a few days before the Argiculture Department announced last September 10 that export quotas of fats and oils would be sharply increased for the last quarter of 1947.

Lard exports, for example, were boosted from 35,000,000 pounds to 75,000,000 pounds, and the price of lard quickly rose by 6 to 8 cents a pound.

Parks said the department made an investigation but so far has failed to track down the source of the unauthorized use of confidential information.

'Rumors Of Leaks'

Parks also read into the record a market letter sent out by J. G. Lusk, of Greenville, Miss., last September 9—the day before the public announcement—citing "rumors of leaks" about the new quotas.

The Lusk letter said the rumors quoted a total allocation of 450,000,000 pounds of fats and oils. The official figure was 452,000,000 pounds. It set the lard quota at 75,000,000 pounds.

The letter said "it is understood" the leak came through the Agriculture Department's production and marketing administration.

J. M. Mehl, administrator of the Commodity Exchange Authority, testified that "everything" had been furnished to the committee regarding speculation by Government employés.

Federal Worker List Cited

Mehl said he referred to a list of 900 Federal workers who were shown by brokers' records to have been engaged in commodity speculation from January 1, 1946, to December 14, 1947.

"We've got everything the brokers gave out," Andresen commented, "but we're not sure we've got everything."

Andresen said new phases of the investigation will be taken up when the hearings are resumed at a later, unspecified date.

"credibility" of the program. He said the department isn't trying to dig up inconsequential crime stories.

Secretary of State Marshall remarked that the problem is to find a balance in the news report.

Marshall and his aides were before the committee to urge it to restore cuts made by the House in the department's funds for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. Marshall asked for $204,318,531, and the House whacked off $17,101,068.

Marshall said that world conditions with which the department is concerned have in recent weeks "deteriorated, rather than improved" and that the cuts would greatly impair the conduct of foreign relations.

Questioned about the value of American shortwave broadcasts, Marshall said they are "very important" in Russia's satellite states and in Russia itself.

He said a very large number of Russian radio sets are shortwave.

Questioned on loyalty investigations in the department, Marshall said the inquiries are "pretty well cleaned up."

He testified that about 7,500 employes have been checked in one way or another, and 38 of the cases have been referred to the FBI and are now before that agency.

Admits Stealing Atom Photos

CHICAGO, March 23 (AP)—Ernest D. Wallis, 34 years old, a former Army photographer, pleaded guilty today to stealing atomic bomb photographs from the Los Alamos, N. M., bomb project. U. S. Attorney Otto Kerner Jr. recommended that Wallis receive probation. The prosecutor said there was no evidence the photographs were used illegally.

DEWEY ATTACKS TRUMAN POLICY AS 'VACILLATING'

ALBANY, N. Y., March 23 — (AP) Gov. Thomas E. Dewey called today for a "hard-boiled" U. S. aid program to halt the spread of Russian communism and urged an "accelerated" diplomatic and propaganda offensive.

Dewey, a Republican presidential contender, criticized the Truman administration's handling of the international crisis as "vacillating and inadequate."

The governor, who promised to discuss the issue "in full" in the "next two months," said at a news conference:

"The influence of the United States has so far not been used to strengthen and preserve the forces for peace.

"I'm perfectly convinced that we can only preserve the peace through strength and that war is the last failure of bankrupt diplomacy."

Dewey replied "no" when asked if he considered the nation on the verge of war or bankrupt diplomacy.

Asked if he believed such a trend existed, Dewey asserted:

"There need be no trend in that direction if our government will stop changing its position every six weeks on almost everything and develop some competent leadership and responsible administration."

"Our program of aid to Europe and the Far East," Dewey asserted, "should become realistic and hard-boiled so that it will actually serve—instead of being merely a fruitless relief program—to rebuild and strengthen the nations whose freedom is so important to world peace."

American Denies 'Blackmail' Charge By Russian In U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 23 (AP). Russia charged today the United States is attempting to "blackmail" Italy and Czechoslovakia. The United States retorted such a charge is "fantastic" and unworthy of answer.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, told the United Nations Security Council that the United States is using "promises and threats, whip and cake" in the Italian campaign.

He declared that the United States is employing in Italy a "policy of rude pressure and blackmail." It was the first reference here to Italy since the Western powers called for the return of Trieste to Italy.

Denounces Czech Charges

Gromyko denounced all charges against Russia in the Czechoslovak case as being groundless. He said the Czechoslovak people would not yield to "blackmail" and "cheap propaganda" coming from the rostrum of the Security Council.

Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, promptly answered Gromyko's hour-long blast against the European policies of the United States, Britain and France.

Austin attacked what he called these "fantastic stories about the United States." The American delegate said that it has always been obvious that such stories are the "propaganda of the arbitrary rulers of the Russian people."

Chile Under Soviet Attack

Gromyko and Austin clashed on the second day of debate in the Security Council on charges brought by Chile that Russia engineered the February Communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

Gromyko attacked the "venal rulers" of Chile who he said acted at the behest of "financial and industrial kings from Wall Street."

He declared the Chilean complaint, which formally put before the Security Council the charges made earlier by Dr. Jan Papanek, of Czechoslovakia, was absurd.

Austin answered quickly that a host of questions had been left up in the air after Gromyko spoke.

Gromyko charged that the United States and what he called its "junior partner, Great Britain" were raising "such a howl" over the events in Czechoslovakia because their own attempts to control the Prague Government had been frustrated.

He said that "every cowboy" in the United States could tell about the United States policy in Italy; that "every doorman in a New York hotel" knew that the United States had brought about the reorganization of the French Government without French people being consulted.

Austin replied that it is a tribute to the United States system that doormen and cowboys "and taxi drivers in Washington" are in a position to know what goes on in the United States.

Would Show Aggression

Austin declared that the Security Council must realize grave charges have been made of Russian interference in Czechoslovakian affairs. He said that the Council should realize furthermore that if established these charges would constitute a case of indirect aggression.

"The United Nations," he declared, "would then be called upon to develop effectiv collective measures designed for the preservation of the territorial integrity and political independence of states, however small.

"Whether the charges are traversed or admitted, my Government's position is to support continued consideration by the Security Council aimed at saving other peoples from indirect aggression."

The council adjourned the Czechoslovak debate until March 31.

Bridges Demands Wallace News Be Banned from 'America's Voice'

WASHINGTON, March 23—(AP) Senator Bridges (R.-N. H.) demanded today that news of Henry Wallace be banned from Voice of America broadcasts.

"I'm not going to vote money here to publicize Henry Wallace and his efforts to depreciate American foreign policy," asserted Bridges, chairman of the Senate Appropriations committee.

He was told by C. E. Bohlen, State department counselor, that news about the third party candidate for president is watched carefully.

Says Some Programs Silly

Senator Green (D.-R. I.) said some of the programs are silly. Bohlen replied that 330,000 words are broadcast daily to foreign lands and under such a load some scripts will not come up to standard.

Senator Brooks (R.-Ill.) complained of "over-emphasized" crime news. Bohlen said it couldn't be ignored because it would reduce

Truman Sees Peace Tied to World Force

Washington, March 23 (A. P.). —President Truman was quoted today by Bishop Arne Fjellbu of the National Cathedral at Trondheim, Norway, as saying that peace depends on the moral forces in all countries.

Bishop Fjellbu called on Mr. Truman to express thanks for American aid in repairing war damage in Norway. The Bishop said the Communist movement is not strong in Norway and the majority of workers belong to the Labor party, which is non-Communist.

Debate On Czech Coup Becoming War Of Words

Houdek MAR 1948

Lake Success, March 23 (AP)—Security Council debate on the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia is developing today into a full-blown war of words between Russia and the Western powers.

Beaten back in all efforts to block discussion of the case, the Soviet Union apparently intends to make the most of the opportunity to fling countercharges at the West, principally the United States.

Debate resumes today with United States Delegate Warren R. Austin and Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko as probable speakers.

Chile Initiated Action

The Government of Chile started the argument by calling for an inquiry into Russia's role in last month's Communist grab in Prague. After hearing two speakers denounce Russia yesterday, the Soviet Ukraine called the charges "a fable."

Ukrainian Delegate Vassily A. Tarasenko said the United States—not the Soviet Union—was interfering in the internal affairs of other countries. He said Greece and Italy were good examples.

"Italy is being made a protectorate of the United States," Tarasenko told the eleven-nation Council. "The Italian Government is serving the interests of the United States. The Italian Communist party is serving the Italian people."

Czechs Not Participating

Dr. Vladimir Houdek, new United Nations delegate of the Czechoslovak Communist regime, said his Government would not participate in the debate because the Council had no business taking up the case.

"The Security Council is violating the (United Nations) Charter by intervening in Czechoslovakia's affairs," he said.

Houdek denied charges made by Dr. Jan Papanek, the Czechoslovak delegate who was fired by the Communists. He said Papanek was spurred into giving "cheap lies by the instigators of a new war."

Cadogan Blames Russia

Houdek promised to hold frequent news conferences while sitting on the Council sidelines. In his first last night, he repeated many of the Soviet accusations against the Western powers.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, of Britain, blamed Russia for the Communist grab. It said it was the same method by which Romania, Bulgaria, Albania, Hungary and Poland were tugged into the Soviet sphere.

"There are limits beyond which this tide must not advance, and it must be dammed back," Cadogan said. "Almost every one in the world must hope fervently that this can be done by peaceful means. But there is an undeniable risk that hope may not be fulfilled."

Council Overrides Russia

The Council overrode Russian and Ukrainian opposition and voted 9 to 2 to hear Papanek, whom Gromyko calls a traitor to the Czechoslovak people. Declaring he had direct evidence that Moscow engineered the coup, Papanek said:

"God help me, I shall prove this to you."

'SLANDER DRIVE' IS ATTACKED BY RUSSIAN ENVOY

NEW YORK, March 23 — (AP) Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin charged tonight that a "monstrous" slander campaign is being waged against Russia—a nation that "has always stood and stands now for peace and international cooperation."

In his first major speech in this country, the youthful envoy charged that Winston Churchill and American forces of "International reaction" are trying to stir up enmity against the Soviet Union.

"They will never succeed," he declared.

Raps Churchill

Panyushkin said the phrase "iron curtain" was "two little catchwords put into circulation by the light hand of Goebbels and later picked up by Churchill."

He said, however, in an address at a dinner meeting of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship:

"It is not the Soviet Union, but certain circles from the camp of International reaction, which are well known to all of us, which have lowered this curtain in order to conceal beyond it the truth about the Soviet Union and about countries of eastern Europe."

Eleven times in the 1,600-word speech Panyushkin said Russia wants to live at peace with the United States and all other countries.

Panyushkin said any "desire for freedom" on the part of Russia's neighbors, or "any intention on their part of taking the road of democratic reforms," is being "distorted" by propaganda into "an act of 'aggression' by the Soviet Union."

He defended the recent coup in Czechoslovakia as reflecting "the will of the Czechoslovak people for freedom, independence and democracy." And he suggested that this was none of the western powers' business.

It was carried out, Panyushkin said, "in full accordance with the constitution of the Czechoslovak Republic" and it constitutes "an internal affair of the Czechoslovak people themselves."

Says Russia Peaceful

The envoy said the visitor to Moscow today "would immediately feel the atmosphere of peaceful creative work."

"Neither in the newspapers nor in the magazines would you see any headlines threatening war or calling to a war mobilization," he said.

After Russia's present "demobilization" is completed, Panyushkin said, the Red Army will be made up solely of men born in 1926 and 1927.

(The State Department said last week that the "demobilization" apparently would make little change in the size of Russia's armed forces, estimated to number some 4,000,000 men.)

Czechoslovak Case in U. N.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 23—Following are excerpts from statements on the Czechoslovak situation before the United Nations Security Council by Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, and Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, as made public by the respective delegations:

Mr. Gromyko

It is clear to everyone who is acquainted with the latest facts in the field of foreign policies of the present Chilean Government that it does not have foreign policy of its own, and not only the foreign policy, and that this clique is playing a role of a puppet of financial and industrial kings from Wall Street, holding in their grip all the principal levers of Chilean economy and completely controlling its home and foreign policies. What it leads to, is also know. It leads to the enrichment at the expense of the Chilean people of the American monopolies accustomed to profiteering from sweat and blood of other peoples.

It is known that, already for several days, preceding the Chilean letter to the Security Council, one could observe an intensive activity behind the scenes in search of a country whose government would undertake the task of making such an appeal to the Council. It is clear that no one self-respecting state could undertake such a dirty and dishonest action. Those who were sponsors of all these behind-the-scenes schemes did not find it appropriate to indulge themselves in such a step.

Accuses U. S. and Britain

For more than two years American and British politicians have considered Czechoslovakia as their easy potential prey. They either praised her for democratic order, comparing it with the democracy of the Anglo-Saxon type, trying to find similarity between them, or cursed her because the people of Czechoslovakia, which has suffered from the horrors of the Hitlerite occupation, has closely bound its fate in the field of foreign policies with the fate of the Soviet Union, and in the field of internal policies has definitely taken the road of democratic reforms, which can only be dreamed of by numerous boastful politicians in the United States and Great Britain.

In the light of some new available facts that policy of the U. S. A. and Great Britain towards Czechoslovakia has become still more evident. Still more evident have become the plans cherished by these states and calculated upon the subjugation of Czechoslovakia to their political and economic control. At the same time other things have become obvious too. It has become obvious that these plans collapsed. They were destroyed by the Czechoslovakian people, as they were incompatible with its fundamental national interests.

These plans, as it has become known, now were built upon a fallacious supposition that certain reactionary and mercenary politicians inside Czechoslovakia would gain victory, that these individuals would manage to deceive their people and that with their assistance it would be possible to drag Czechoslovakia into the Marshall Plan aimed at the enslavement of other nations and peoples and at the subjugation of their interests to American monopolies whose greed has no bounds.

Serious changes are taking place in the field of economy in Czechoslovakia as well as in other Eastern European countries in the sense of its reorganization on democratic principles. The nationalization of industry is being carried out, big land ownership is abolished, and the land is distributed among the landless peasants and those who are short of land, that is, among those who work on it. A number of other democratic reforms is being carried out which are needed as the air by the people of many countries of Europe and not of Europe alone.

All these reforms in the economic and in the political fields constitute serious achievements in Czechoslovakia which can only be dreamed of by the peoples of many other countries, whose politicians like to boast of their democracy which at close examination has the color of the face of a tuberculous person.

Sees 'Doles' Under Marshall Plan

Instead of living on American doles, allowed under the label of the Marshall Plan, Czechoslovakia decided to develop its economy by its own means, cooperating with all other states wishing to cooperate with it in the common efforts for the maintenance of international peace and security.

In Czechoslovakia the people themselves made these changes in distinction from some other countries, where the question of the composition of governments is decided in Washington and in the known place—the business section of Manhattan.

Let us not go far for examples. Let us take such countries as Italy, France and Greece. Who has recently forced the reorganization of the French Government without consulting the French people and despite their will expressed at the elections? It is an open secret that this has been done by the United States.

Every doorman in a New York hotel will tell you about this.

The difference between this fact and the reorganization of the government in Czechoslovakia is, as I have already mentioned above, that the changes in the Government of Czechoslovakia were demanded by the people themselves, but in France they were made as a result of American pressure—the fact which can be denied by nobody.

In the United States this is called democratic practice. In other countries it is called an interference of one country in the internal affairs of the other.

Who has recently forced the reorganization of the Italian Government, which resulted in the removal of one of the most popular parties from the Administration of the country? It is well known that it was done under the pressure of the United States which applied to Italy the policy of crude economic and political pressure, the policy of blackmail.
